NEW Self-Washing DREFT WASHES DISHES FOR YOU

Amazing "FLOATAWAY" action SAVES WASHING—WIPING—SCOURING

Yet! Dishes and glasses shine—even without wiping!

It's true! New self-washing Dreft practically washes the dishes for you. You simply let dishes stand in warm Dreft suds for 2 minutes—give a swish of the cloth as you rinse—and you're through. You'll see your dishes and glasses shine—even without wiping.

These self-washing suds save washing, save wiping, save scouring. In fact, while Dreft is washing your dishes you can be doing other things . . . like putting the food away in the refrigerator, or sweeping the kitchen floor.

Even pots and pans soak clean without scouring. That's because Dreft's amazing "Floataway" action gets under grease . . . floats away grease as no soap ever could. Even stubborn grease rinses away without scouring.

Yet self-washing Dreft is one of the mildest suds in the world. Leaves hands beautifully white and soft. Try new self-washing Dreft today. Your dealer has it.

Dreft is safer for dainty washables than the mildest soap flakes.

*Dreft leaves hands beautifully smooth and white, because it's so mild and your hands are in the water such a short time.

DOROTHY DIX

Mother Encourages Girls Invite Boyfriends to House

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am the mother of two girls, one 15 and one 12. From the time they were babies they have always played with boys and girls alike. They have always been free to bring their friends home with them, and, as the result, the house has always been full of boys and girls playing games and making candy or amusing themselves in some other innocent way. We also take the children to the movies once a week, and two or three times a year the oldest girl goes to a dance with her girl friends. Her father takes her and goes for her, although she has had invitations from boys who wanted to date her, but she doesn't seem to care about boys in that way. I have felt that if I kept my children at home and content to stay there that I could take care of them better than in any other way, but my neighbors criticize me very severely and say that I should not let any boys come to the house, or permit the girls to go out to any place of amusement. Are they right, or am I?

A PUZZLED MOTHER

ANSWER: Turn a deaf ear to your advisers. You know a lot more about your children's tempers and temperaments than your meddling neighbors do, and are far better able to deal with them. Personally I think you have hit upon just the right line.

Taking Right Course

Because you have let your girls play with boys all of their lives, you have taken the only way of saving them from the boy-crazy period that most girls go through and during which they are capable of committing any folly.

Familiarity with boys from their infancy up has robbed them of all romantic glamour. The lads they are not allowed to speak to nor go with are forbidden fruit to other girls; to yours they are just Johnny Jones and Tommy Smith, about whom they have no sentimental illusions.

Furthermore, you show your wisdom in making your home a gathering place for your children's friends. That way you know where they are and what they are doing. You have a chance to get acquainted with the crowd they run with and see if they are the right sort.

DEAR MISS DIX: People often wonder why men who know themselves to be philanderers and that they never could settle down to loving just one woman, ever marry. I will tell you why. It is because they cannot help themselves. Women drag them to the altar where they would never go of their own accord. A real honest-to-goodness philanderer does not want to marry and he only does it after some woman puts him in a position that forces his hand. My advice to girls is not to "get your man." Let him get you. If this recipe were followed, marriages would drop off 50 per cent, but it would save 50 per cent of the present unhappy marriages.

ANSWER: These are words of wisdom which women would do well to lay to heart, because it is undoubtedly true that in their eagerness to catch husbands women do not consider sufficiently the temper and temperament of the men they are marrying nor whether they are good domestic material or not. Nor apparently do they note whether the bridegrooms are dragging them to the altar or they are coercing them to it.

Unfortunately, women have many artless beliefs about men that experience does not justify. One is that no matter how indifferent a man is about getting married nor how often he puts off his wedding, that he will be perfectly crazy about being married as soon as the ceremony is said over him. Another is the marriage is a sure cure for fickleness and that the man who roamed from flower to flower and chased every petticoat that came his way will settle down into being a one-woman man as soon as he is married. And another faith in which women are strong is that the man who has been a lukewarm lover will turn into a devoted husband and that a wife can always win her husband's love by being in love with him herself and by being patient and kind and a good cook.

If these theories worked out, it would be all right to get your man by hook or crook. But, alas, marriage seldom comes up to a woman's expectations. Never to her pipe dreams. The man who doesn't go into marriage under a full head of enthusiasm just peters out into indifference and even dislike when he collides with all the bills and ills of domesticity. The man with a wandering foot still roams, and the man who falls in love with his wife after marriage is still a figure in romantic fiction.

So, ladies, take a philanderer's advice and marry the man who wants you. Men are always better satisfied with a thing they picked out themselves.

DEAR MISS DIX: We have in our family one child, a 6-year-old daughter. My wife and I are of different religious beliefs and the question has arisen as to what church the child is to be reared in. This question is an old one, but I have never heard of a sane solution. Can you give one?

CURIOUS

ANSWER: The only sensible and honest solution is for a man and woman to settle this question by the agreement they made. As you didn't do this, why not just teach the child the religion of the before marriage and then abide Bible, which isn't cumbered by man-made creeds, and let her decide for herself, when she is a little older, which church she prefers?

MARY MOORE SAYS:

Insufficient Steady Heat Causes 'Leathery' Cakes

There seems to be an epidemic of "leathery layers" in the cakes that our readers are making.

The most common cause of these soggy failures is insufficient steady heat coming from the bottom of the oven—and that may be caused by oven thermometers being defective and not registering correctly, or by lower burner being defective.

Other possible reasons for soggy streak at bottom of cakes are (1) cake is made too fast and ingredients are not mixed in order given or not mixed enough (2) not enough baking powder or soda or cream of tartar used, (3) in a cake where a large number of egg yolks are used they are not beaten long enough, or (4) flour is damp.

However bakers of homemade cakes have been so well trained by advertisers of flour and shortening and baking powder to use accurate measurements and methods that there are very few cake makers who commit any of those errors nowadays. I am inclined to think that inaccurate thermometers on ovens are the most likely culprits.

The recipe I am giving you now is for the benefit of "Jean A." The recipe she uses is what we all think of as Devil's Food. This recipe is very close to hers, and I think so much of it it is the one I gave Marianne, my own daughter, for her first attempt at chocolate cake mixing. It must be good for the oven door was open at least a half dozen times, between her and Peter—hoping they could hurry it, so they could start eating it faster.

Double Tested Devil's Food

One-half cup boiling water, 2 squares cooking chocolate, 1½ cups sifted cake flour, 1 teaspoon baking soda, ½ teaspoon baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ cup good quality shortening, 1¼ cups brown sugar, 2 eggs beaten well, 1 teaspoon vanilla, ½ cup sour milk.

Pour the boiling water over the chocolate and stir over low heat or let stand over hot water until chocolate softens; stir until thick, then stand away from heat and let cool a little. Sift together the sifted flour, soda, baking powder, salt. Cream the shortening together until very light and fluffy. Add the eggs and beat well again. Stir in the chocolate and vanilla until just mixed. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with the milk, about one-third of each at a time. Pour into greased pans if for a two-layer cake and bake at 350 deg. Fahr. for 30 minutes. This may be baked in a paper-lined cake pan 8 x 8 x 2 inches and baked a little longer.

NOTE: It is simple to increase this cake by one-half. I think it is more efficient to make it larger. Orange-mint icing is delicious on it.

Old-Fashioned Sponge Cake

Sift cake flour and measure 1 cup and sift it with ¼ teaspoon salt 4 times. Add grated rind of ½ lemon and 1½ tablespoons lemon juice to the beaten yolks of 5 eggs, and beat again until yolks are very thick. Beat 5 whites until stiff but dry and fold into them 1 cup sugar during the beating process. Fold the yolk mixture into the whites. Sift one-quarter of the flour over and fold in, and continue until all flour is added. Pour into ungreased tube pan and bake at 350 deg. Fahr. for 1 hour. Invert cake over cake rack and let drop.

Three-Egg Hot Water Sponge

I call this my on-the-run cake. I am always doing something else too, for the beater does most of this. Put into a bowl 3 eggs with 1 cup sugar, and beat 10 minutes, whether with electric beater or hand rotary beater. Sift 1 cup sifted cake flour, with 1 teaspoon baking powder and ¼ teaspoon salt. Add 1 tablespoon lemon juice to eggs. Add 6 tablespoons hot water, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating between additions until thick. Fold in flour mixture in small amounts. Bake in any kind of greased and paper-lined tin at 350 deg Fahr. for about 45 minutes. This is the best all-purpose cake I know.

COOKBOOK OF THE WEEK

Tasty Sandwich Fillings For Snacks or Light Lunches

Sandwiches are so easy to make that every homemaker relies on them for lunch. They can become very monotonous without the addition of a little imagination or some outside help, such as "500 Tasty Sandwich Recipes." This is the fourteenth in the series of twenty-four cookbooks being released a-book-a-week by The Examiner.

The Sandwich Book is filled with bright ideas to help you plan new and unusual sandwiches, both in appearance and in taste. The photographic illustrations show you how you can roll sandwiches and toast them, roll them into cornucopias, make pinwheels, checkerboards, and any number of other unusual shapes. Simply by varying the kind of bread you use you can achieve attractive and tempting effects. Here are just some of the recipes for butter spreads that can be used for finger sandwiches or larger cuts of bread:

Sandwich Butters

GENERAL METHOD — Cream butter thoroughly. Grind fish, meat or vegetables to a paste and combine with the seasoning and butter. If mixture is not entirely smooth rub through a sieve. Economic Outlook Excellent As Manitoba Has Birthday

WINNIPEG —(CP)— Manitoba, this year marking its 80th birthday, reports the economic outlook seldom has been better.

Little evidence has turned up to support the fears of some business men that the Red River floods of last spring might slow the pace of industrial development.

Both in cities and country districts, the picture is one of continuing prosperity. Here are some points from recent government reports:

Industry—Manitoba industries, which pay about $90,000,000 a year in wages to some 42,000 workers, expect to turn out this year more than $525,000,000 worth of products. That would be the highest level attained.

Bumper Crop

Agriculture—A grain crop of bumper proportions is looked for. At the same time farmers continue the trend toward a more diversified agriculture. Sugar-beets now are a big farm crop, and a $1,000,000 sunflower oil-seed industry is turning out salad oils.

Capital investment — Private capital exceeding $21,500,000 was invested in Manitoba last year in new manufacturing facilities or in the expansion of existing plants. The provincial government this year is spending $30,000,000 in capital projects.

Government—Manitoba credit received a boost when the government last month marketed $15,000,000 worth of bonds at 99.51, a record for Manitoba for an issue of that size. Since March 31, the province has paid off $8,500,000 of the public debt.

Towns Prosperous

Municipalities — Manitoba towns, excluding the four cities of Winnipeg, St. Boniface, Brandon and Portage La Prairie, have more cash and reserves than ever before. These totalled $5,500,000 at the end of last year. At the same, the municipalities have reduced their public indebtedness.

Natural resources — Mining, forests, lake fisheries and furs brought in more than $50,000,000 last year for the provincial economy.

Cheap electric power is a magnet Manitoba is using to attract more industry to the province, although a dispute between the provincial government and Winnipeg is holding up hydro development plans.

34 New Industries

So far this year, 34 new industries have started operations in the province, compared with 47 for the whole of 1949. Altogether there are more than 1,550 manufacturing establishments in the province.

Industry Minister J. S. McDiarmid recently said the Winnipeg area in the last three years has led Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver in percentage growth of industry.

He said manufacturing in Winnipeg last year was up 11.7 per cent, against 11 per cent for Montreal, 9.9 per cent in Toronto and three per cent in Vancouver.

B&P President Gives Resume Of Conference

Peterborough Business and Professional Women's Club was given stimulus for greater action through the messages brought from the recent provincial conference at Windsor by their president and only delegate Mrs. Jean Watson to the dinner meeting this week.

With 88 clubs now in Ontario they were advised that the objective is 50 per cent increase in clubs and membership. A constitution is to be drawn up and submitted to all clubs in the province for study and approval and a provincial fund is to be provided to take care of expenses of provincial officers and regional advisors in their conduct of B and P business.

The resolution committee, on which Mrs. Watson served, received endorsement of a resolution to ask Premier Leslie Frost to have a survey made to determine the factors involved in the rise of milk prices.

Speakers, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Overstreet, a team of psychologists and teachers of note, explained that "democracy, rather than being individual freedom, is freedom of the individual to enter voluntarily into group activity that appeals to him and that he feels will benefit him and the community."

Other speakers yielded the following remarks of interest:

On introducing a panel discussion on public relations—"no power can survive unless it has the support of the public. Public relations is not new or modern, but people are just beginning to become conscious of what it can do for them and the profession of public relations has developed in a generation into an important factor of business life.

In defining public it was pointed out to club members "our public is not only other club members but the whole outside world. We want their respect and want to be recognized as a power in our several communities. We have to consider the whole community."

What B and P members have to sell is: a knowledge of each other and the problems they face; development of tolerance of other races and creeds; efficiency gained through club activities.

Application of public relations was described as "an extended branch of advertising." It is the little things that make good public relations and what a good public relations official, a charming stenographer or receptionist can be" members were told.

Summary of another special speaker, Mrs. Cameron H. Montrose, was "If all women used their powers of prayer, organization, franchise and suggestion, always for the lifting up, for the creation of a future, ideal world, the world we live in would be a better place." This speaker stressed the fact that women of the world work best in times of trouble and that they are the crusaders, realists and idealists of the world. "Organization is a gift of women" she stated and pointed out that women have 53 per cent of the power of franchise in Canada today but advocated that they should not supercede the men but be partners with them in controlling public affairs.

200 Attend Tea Held By Mark St. WA

In an autumn setting of flowers and leaves, more than 200 afternoon tea guests on Wednesday enjoyed the hospitality of the ladies of Mark St. WA in the church parlor.

Bazaar tables, loaded with nice things to sell, were cleared by the closing hour, making this the most cuccessful tea yet held by the organization.

President Mrs. F. Samis was assisted in receiving by Mrs. B. S. Morwood and Mrs. H. Glover was taking the tickets.

The tea table was lighted with gold tapers which blended nicely with the fall colours of the centrepiece, and the cups were filled by Mrs. E. W. Rowland and Mrs. W. L. Hepburn.

Quartette tables for the guests were presided over by group leaders, Mrs K. Beavis, Mrs. C. Logan, Mrs. A. Roberts, Mrs. K. Armstrong and Mrs. H. Knox. Other members assisted in serving.

Mrs. W. Atchison, social convener, took charge of the refreshments and was assisted in replenishing by Mrs. L. Agnew, Mrs. F. Brooks and Mrs. F. Meeks.

The bazaar table was in charge of Mrs. E. Lillico and Mrs. A. J. Throop. Mrs. Ray Pammett and Mrs. H. Payne were at the home-baking table, and Mrs. A. J. Stevenson and Mrs. Dickson sold candy.

Sunlight Utilized During Tea At Central School

Warm sunlight was streaming through the Central school kindergarten windows Wednesday afternoon and decorator for the Home and School Association tea, Mrs. H. Shimer, allowed its full effect to be enjoyed when she set the table with an attractive bouquet flanked by a pair of china canaries. The flowers were big, soft chrysanthemums in bright yellow, white and orange, topped with a huge bronze bloom and the arrangement was spiked with long, slim painted cat-tails. Branches hanging with clusters of bittersweet berries decked the room.

Pouring tea during the afternoon were Miss L. Esplen, Miss S. Bennett, Mrs. G. Webber, Miss J. Buck, Mrs. L. Raper and Mrs W. G. Gunn

Mrs. W. R. Philp and Mrs D. Munro played piano selections during the first hour and senior pupils, Shirley Pritchard, Donna Munro, Marion James and Margaret Martyn entertained after school.

General convener Mrs. E. L. Horning has as tea assistants Mrs. V. Fisk, Mrs. A. Phillips, Mrs. N Rishor, Mrs. Scully, Mrs. K. Weeks, Mrs. J. Callaghan, Mrs. W. Caldwell, Mrs. H. Toole, Mrs. D. Munro and Mrs. A. Barber, and those preparing the tea and replenishing plates were Mrs. E. Williams, Mrs. G. Minty, Mrs. F. Sargent, Mrs. W Armstrong, Mrs. A. Smedmor, Mrs. S. Redout, Mrs. G. Lang, Mrs. F. Kelsey and Mrs. R. E. Vance.

A bounteous supply of home cooking was being sold by Mrs L. Brown, Mrs. F. Hocking, Mrs. M. Conway and Mrs. S. Hayman. The table of small potted plants for sale was attended by Mrs. S. J. Rowe and Mrs. G. Houck.

A very pleasing crowd was welcomed to the tea by the president, Mrs. S. Malsch, assisted by Mrs. Donald Crawford, wife of the principal. Mrs. W. Davidson was at the treasurer's table.

150 at CGIT Rally Marion Pogue Gives Travelogue

Canadian Girls in Training from Bridgenorth and Lakefield joined the representatives of all Peterborough groups Wednesday evening, making an attendance of more than 150 at the rally in Murray St. Baptist Church.

Miss Marion Brown, sponsor for Girls' Council, was chairman for the program which was followed after a box supper. Mrs. B. S. Morwood led in a sing song with Gwen Pomeroy at the piano and several games were played.

Lorene Keeting brought a report from the Ontario Camp which she attended in the summer.

Highlight of the rally was an illustrated travelogue by Miss Marion Pogue who visited a number of European countries on an eight-week tour this summer. Miss Pogue centred her remarks on points of interest to teenagers while stressing the value of loyalty to a leader, pointing out her trip was a more happy experience because of good leadership.

In closing she asked the girls to remember that only by following good Christian leadership can they become good Christian women, loyal to their faith.

Margaret Calberry of Lakefield introduced the speaker and she was thanked by Victoria McKim of George St. group.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Penny-Pinching Husband Makes Wife's Life Miserable

DEAR MISS DIX: My son is soon to marry a splendid girl, sensible, conservative and one who spends the money she makes wisely, for she has a good job, in fact, earns more than my son does. Nevertheless, he announced to us that when he is married he is going to do all the buying, even of the food and that whenever his wife wants a dollar, she will have to come and ask him for it and tell him just exactly what she is going to use it for. I can see nothing but disaster in a marriage that runs on this plan. My son says that he does not intend to tell the girl of the way he is going to run the home until after they are married. What can we do about it?

ANSWER: Divorces are messy things to have in a family. They cost a lot in suffering and money, and it is your duty to try to save both your son and the girl from this unhappy experience by warning her before she marries him of how he intends to conduct the home finances. For divorce there will be if he tries to put his penny-pinching plan in operation.

Behind The Times

Your son must be fifty years behind the times if he does not realize that he cannot put any such raw deal as he is contemplating over on a wife now. Anyway, what is the idea of your son marrying this girl whom he thinks of so poorly that he does not believe her to have intelligence enough to even buy the groceries, or honest enough to be intrusted with a few dollars? Apparently he doesn't want a wife. He just wants an unpaid servant who will wash and scrub and cook and mend for him without having to be paid.

If that is his notion, he had better ask himself why any woman would do it, what any woman would get out of such an arrangement or why any woman would be fool enough to stick to such an unequal bargain after she found she had been gypped into making it? Why would any women work twice as hard in a kitchen as she did in an office when she would get well paid for one and nothing but insults for the other?

Any woman who marries a man who is a self-elected purse-bearer has my profound sympathy, and I don't blame her for pricing a ticket to Reno.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am free, 21, hale and healthy and terribly in love, but I am afraid to tell the girl. That is why I am writing you. Do you think if I told her of it she would accept my declaration in good faith? I know so many cynical girls it is difficult for me to believe that this one is different. It will be a year before I will be able to marry and I don't like to propose to a girl when I can't name the day, but if I don't let her know how I feel someone else might take her away from me. What shall I do?

ANSWER: It is every man's right to tell the woman he loves that he loves her whether he can marry her or not, and it is every girl's privilege to listen to a proposal, no matter how many strings there are to it.

If she returns the man's love, it gives her something to wait for and dream about and look forward to, instead of leaving her up in the air not knowing whether she is wasting her time caring for a man who may not care for her at all.

You make me smile when you ask if a girl would accept your declaration in good faith. Every woman from Mother Eve down believes implicitly in love. It is the chief article of her faith and she never dreams of questioning a man's veracity when he tells her that she is the most beautiful and wonderful woman in the world, and that he has spent his life searching for her. The only girls who are cynical about love are the ones who have no attraction for men and who have never been made love to. It is their defense mechanism.

DEAR MISS DIX: My father, who is in his middle sixties, has fallen for a young woman less than half his age. My husband and I believe that she thinks he has money, which he has not, and even when he gets a pension, which will be in a short while, he won't have enough to run a home. What can I do or say to him to make him realize what a mistake he will be making if he marries anyone so much younger?

DAUGHTER.

ANSWER: Don't say anything to your father. Get someone you know to go to the girl and tell her that he hasn't even enough money to support himself, still less a wife. Nothing cools off the affection of young women for old men so quickly as finding out that their pocketbooks are empty.

Low Blasts Gov't On Compromise In UN Policies

REGINA, Oct. 19 (CP)—Solon Low, national Social Credit leader, said last night that Canada's prestige at United Nations meetings is suffering because of the Dominions Liberal leadership.

The "sickly business of the middle-of-the-road policy" is causing Canada to lose the esteem of other countries because "when you compromise this way you are giving away your principles," he said.

Mr. Low, who attended meetings of the United Nations assembly last month as an adviser to the Canadian delegation, said Commonwealth prestige, however, has increased and Britain has returned to its position of leadership.

In a banquet address to delegates attending the Social Credit national convention here, he said that if the world can get by another year without a major outbreak we should have peace for many years.

He said he doubted that Russia has many atom bombs. If the Communists had a large stock he said, they would have made use of them by now.

Landlord Admits Hitting Tenant After Squabble

A landlord-tenant squabble ended today in a fine of $15 and $9.75 costs being imposed on John McGuire, 372 Queen St. He appeared before Magistrate W. R. Philp charged with assaulting Mrs. Violet Thompson.

Mrs. Thompson testified she and her daughter and her daughter's boy friend came into the house sometime between 11 p.m. and midnight on October 10. McGuire told her he had warned her before not to let men come to the house after 11 p.m. and to get the boy friend out.

Mrs. Thompson said she heard her daughter's voice in the McGuire kitchen and went downstairs. "Mr. McGuire invited me very nicely into the kitchen and then he started to tell me off for letting men into the house after 11. Then he hit me several times."

She said she suffered a bloodied nose, a small cut on her head, and a bruised left arm.

Defence counsel W. C. Grant asked Mrs. Thompson if McGuire hadn't warned her not to bring men to the house after 11 p.m. She said he hadn't.

McGuire testified Mrs. Thompson came into the kitchen and started "to cause a little trouble. I guess I slapped her two or three times and told her to get out.

"She didn't get out, so I slapped her two or three times more."

Magistrate Philp said in summing up that McGuire used "far more force than necessary to have her leave his portion of the house, even if she had no right to be there and had been ordered out."

Mission Circle Starts Japan Book

MILLBROOK, Oct. 19 (ENS)—Mrs. Melville Ball was hostess on Tuesday to the Golden Links Mission Circle of St. Andrew's United Church. Mrs. M. E. Hobbs, the president, was in the chair, and there were 26 members present.

Mrs. Ernest Powell conducted the worship service, assisted by Mrs. T. Wideman and Miss Marjorie Skitch.

A letter has been received from Miss Jean Stewart, missionary in China, expressing thanks for magazines which she said had been read from cover to cover so many times they were almost falling apart. She said the missionaries were being allowed to live peaceful lives and to carry on their work.

However, because of Communist restrictions, they had not been allowed to go to the mountains as usual, and the heat had been hard to bear.

Mrs. Homer Ouelette, temperance secretary, gave as her report, excerpts first from the "Tavern," published in the interests of the liquor trade, and then from the Temperance Advocate.

Mrs. Hobbs stated that in the efficiency contest for the presbytery, Millbrook, in placing first, had made a percentage of over 98. St. James' senior cricle, to whom the banner goes by reversion, was close with over 97 per cent. The Golden Links attendance record for the first six months of 1950 had been 89.2 per cent.

As it had been suggested at the School for Leaders, this meeting at the beginning of the new study book was devoted to a discussion, led by Mrs. Hobbs, on the history and geography of Japan. There was also a quiz on Japan to test the knowledge of the circle members.

Supper hostesses were Mrs. Clarence Ball and Mrs. Lavern Gibson.

No Secret In McGill Club Helping Football—President

MONTREAL, Oct. 18 — (CP) — "There is nothing secret or underhand" about the McGill Touchdown Club and the Loan Club, Dr. F. Cyril James, vice-chancellor and principal of McGill University, said here today in a statement.

The statement was touched off by a Toronto Telegram newspage story which asked the question:

"Are McGill University football players subsidized?"

The story was illustrated by reproduction of a membership card in the Touchdown Club, which identifies itself as "sponsored by McGill University graduates' football club."

Dr. James' statement said in part:

"The activities of the Touchdown Club and the Loan Fund, both of which are inaccurately described in the Telegram article, have been given full publicity at all times in the Montreal press and the McGill News.

Carefully Studied

"There is nothing secret or underhand about either of these organizations, and they were carefully studied by the board of governors of McGill University in November, 1949 . . .

"The board of governors found nothing that violated either in letter or in spirit any regulation in regard to intercollegiatee athletics and, on reviewing the subject yesterday afternoon, found no reason to alter in any way its earlier decision."

Dr. James said if anyone has specific evidence to refute McGill's claim of amateur sportsmanship and fair play "the charge will be investigated promptly and thoroughly."

Hunt For New Oil Fields Company President Advises

CALGARY, Oct. 19—(CP)—The oil hunt in Canada now should be for new fields rather than in those already proven, C. L. Stewart, president of Imperial Oil, Ltd., said today in an address prepared for the Calgary Canadian Club.

The industry, he said, has found enough oil for the Prairies and has been able to reach out to a substantial eastern market.

"Now new discoveries must be sought not only to replace current consumption but also in order that the oil may reach additional markets.

Demand Increasing

"Canada is consuming some 350,000 barrels of petroleum products daily and the demand is increasing each year. Because of geographic and other limitations, all of this demand cannot be directly met by western crude, but it is hoped that on balance Canada will be self-sufficient.

"New discoveries two or three times as great as the reserved already found will be required to reach this objective.

"Drilling in proven fields absorbs funds which could be spent exploring for new fields. Accordingly, it is desirable that this development drilling, as the industry terms it, should not be carried on at a rate in excess of sound economic requirements.

Exploration Costs

"This is of growing importance because exploration for new fields is becoming increasingly costly as the search expands into the less-accessible areas towards the northern limits of Alberta and into northeastern British Columbia.

"Further, any oil that may be found in these remote areas will not be immediately available to market. Roads, housing, supply stores, pipelines and a vast system of associated facilities will be necessary. Before pipelines can be justified, sufficient delineation drilling will have to be done to make certain that thh ereserves are adequate to warrant the building of pipelines.

"It is possible that some of the remote areas may require expenditures of perhaps $20,000,000 to $50,000,000 before a single barrel of oil is piped to market . . .

Plan Drilling

"Continuation of unnecessary drilling in new discoveries could syhpon off capital so vital to a continued aggressive exploration program. This is a problem requiring the attention of both government and industry."

Looking to new markets, Mr. Stewart said in part:

"Probably the first step is for the Interprovincial Pipe Line Company to increase the capacity of their line (from Edmonton to the head of the lakes) by addition of pump stations and by further storage at Superior, Wisc., in order that the line may operate at full capacity the year round.

"This will also require Ontario refiners to add enough storage to permit them to operate on Alberta crude during the season of closed navigation.

Pacific Market

"Another market frequently mentioned is the Pacific Coast area. This has been under study for some time. A factual appraisal shows that the total requirements for oil in British Columbia are considerably short of the volume needed to support pipeline construction through the Rocky Mountains and that the project cannot be justified unless additional volume is secured by entering Washington and Oregon markets.

Dry-Cleaning Plant Closed By Two-Week-Old Strike

TORONTO, Oct. 18 (CP) — One of the three dry-cleaning plants operated by Langley's Ltd. will be closed because of a two-week strike of about 175 employees, G. B. Henning, general manager, said today.

The employees, members of the Cleaners and Dyers Union (AFL-TLC) struck Oct. 4 at the Spadina Road plant, demanding a wage increase and union security. It is this plant that will be shut down.

Stores Stay Open

Mr. Henning in a statement said that the company's other Toronto plant on Danforth Avenue, the 25 Toronto stores and its Hamilton plant will continue operating.

He said the decision to close the plant, established 40 years ago was made by the board of directors yesterday after "every attempt to settle differences (with the union) had failed."

"Recently publicity releases by the union infer that the rate of pay at Langley's was very low. The conciliation board, established to assist in settling this dispute found 'that the earnings of the employees are comparable with the highest in the industry with the exception of one or two classifications."

Wage Scale

The average hourly wage of all female employees was 73 cents; of all hourly-rated male employees $1.07; of male and female pressers $1.60 an hour.

Originally the union asked for a 10-per-cent increase, union organizer Douglas Hamilton said the negotiating committee decided to drop the demand for union security and that, finally, a wage difference of only two cents an hour separated the company and the union.

The company statement said Langley's was willing to sign a new agreement based on the majority report of the board of conciliation.

The report recommended a two-cent hourly increase for new employees and a seven-cent raise for silk spotters.

Canadian Gov't Loan Snapped Up By Buyers

OTTAWA, Oct. 19 —(CP)—A $700,000,000 Canadian government bond issue was heavily over-subscribed immediately after the books opened this morning, the Bank of Canada announced.

The refinancing issue consists of two maturities: two-year 1¾-per-cent bonds and 2¼-per-cent bonds maturing in five years and eight months.

The Bank of Canada said both issues were over-subscribed 15 minutes after the books opened at 10 a.m. EDT.

City Cattle Buyer Bad Cheques Totalled $1,350

Henry R. Dunn, Holloway Drive, Peterborough, former salesman and now a cattle buyer, has been found guilty by Magistrate E. A. Gee in Lindsay police court of issuing two false cheques amounting to more than $1,350.

He was given a two-year suspended sentence and assessed $30 costs. Crown Attorney Lorne W. Jordan read a list of three previous convictions against Dunn but said a suspended sentence seemed sufficient.

The conviction on the two charges of false pretenses resulted from the issuing of worthless cheques to two Verulam township farmers. The cheques were offered in payment for cattle bought in September.

Dunn said he knew he had not sufficient cash in his account to cover the cheques but he expected to have the money back in the bank in time to meet payment. He denied attempting to defraud the farmers, and explained that he expected them to deposit the cheques, thus giving him extra time to get the money.

Crown attorney Jordan said the false pretenses were in telling the farmers they could get the cheques cashed immediately.

Dunn's case was heard October 9 and judgment was reserved by Magistrate Gee.

Defence counsel was Alex Elliott, KC, Peterborough.

No Academic Favors For Football Players

TORONTO, Oct. 19 (CP). — The Telegram says today in a newspage story that football players at University of Western Ontario, London, receive financial assistance from alumni and friends but no athlete obtains academic favors as a result of his sports ability.

The paper quotes "a Western graduate closely associated with Western athletics from 1945 to 1948" as saying:

"If they find a football player with academic proficiency who is unable to pay his way through school, arrangement is made to assist him. But the boy must help himself by working summers and contributing as much as he can to his education. Western's subsidized players are not professionals; they are young athletes who need help to attend university."

Outboard Marine Clarifies Position Taken By Company

The following statement was issued today by Outboard Marine and Manufacturing Company:

"Due to the number of controversial press statements recently published on labor relations at Outboard, Marine and Manufacturing Co. of Canada, Ltd., the management feels they are obliged to publish this statement of facts clarifying the company's position in this matter.

"(1) The company and the union completed negotiations for a new labor agreement on September 21, 1950, and agreement was reached on all items.

"The company's main offer to the employees was a reduction of hours from 45 hours to 43 hours per week with maintenance of take-home pay, plus 7c per hour increase on all rates.

"This adjustment in the wage schedule gives a minimum increase in hourly rates of 12c per hour, and as high as 14c per hour on others. The minimum starting rate would be $1.03 per hour and our lowest job rate would be $1.10 per hour, after automatic increases.

"(2) The employees have not had an opportunity to vote on the acceptance of this offer made by the company, and have approached the management with a statutory declaration and a petition signed by the majority of the employees, asking that the management grant permission for a ratification vote to be held on the company premises.

"They have proposed that such a vote be conducted by a neutral returning officer, and that the vote be on the question of whether or not they are willing to accept the collective agreement for 1950-51 offered by the company.

"(3) On the strength of this statutory declaration and petition, the company has granted the request of the majority of employees, and will allow a vote to be taken in the plant under the direction of a neutral returning officer.

"(4) In view of this approach to the management, the question of what union should represent them does not appear to be the main concern of the majority of the employees at Outboard, Marine and Manufacturing Co. of Canada, Ltd., but they have strongly expressed their desire to vote on the acceptance of the collective agreement for 1950-51 offered by the company.

"(5) The management of the company is not taking sides with any labor organization in this dispute, for they realize the employees will decide for themselves what union shall represent them when this question becomes the point of issue.

Hold Decision Contested Will

TORONTO, Oct. 19 —(CP)— Ontario Court of Appeal yesterday reserved judgment on an action to uphold the will of Lawrence E. Henri, of Whitby. By the will, Henri cut off his wife and daughters, Shirley and Merle, and left his $13,000 estate to two women friends, one in Stratford and the other in Oshawa.

Except for a brief reconciliation in 1941, Henri had been separated from his wife and daughters since 1930. He hanged himself in his garage Oct. 11, 1948.

He left more than $12,000 to Elsie Beal (now Graham), of Oshawa, "because she was awfully good" to him. He also left $300 to Velma Poyner, of Stratford, with a notation: "Enough for one good binge because she was kind to my mother."

A Cobourg judge refused last May to admit the will to probate on grounds that, when it was drawn up, Henri suffered an insane delusion that he had an interest in his wife's beauty shop.

At one time Henri operated an auto accessories business in Stratford and Windsor.

Chased By Bull Moose Hides In Tree, Cabin

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., Oct. 19 —(CP)— Forest ranger Glen Brethour was walking through a swamp near the Bridgeland fire-spotting tower.

Suddenly he found himself confronted by three moose and one of them, a large bull, bristled up and charged.

Brethour jumped up the nearest poplar tree.

The ground-thumping moose kept him up there for half an hour before wandering over a ridge.

The coast clear, Brethour shinnied down the tree and legged it for the towerman's cabin. He was less than half way there when the bull moose came thundering back over the ridge.

Brethour reports he just made the cabin and safety.

Police, called by a district resident, were unable to find Guerin's pursuer, but it turned out that Guerin was an old acquaintance of theirs, too.

On checking through the files, they arrested him on a 10-year-old warrant charging him with fraud.

Cards Replaced By Parent Talks

TORONTO, Oct. 19 (CP)—Report cards are a thing of the past at Deer Park public school.

In an experiment being tried this year, they are replaced by a series of conferences between parents and teachers. Officials say the new system will let the parents know what sort of person is teaching their children and will acquaint the teacher with the child's home background.

If the plan is a success, it will be extended to all public schools here.

U. S. Parachutists Trap Reds War Ending Says MacArthur

U.S. Prepared to Sit In 5-Power Talks On Peace Threats

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Oct. 20—(AP)—The United States announced today it was prepared to take part in a five-power meeting on problems threatening world peace. This announcement was made in the U.N. Assembly's political committee by John Foster Dulles, Republican political advisor to the State Department. He warned, however, against underestimating the complexities of the problems involved and said the United States would insist on agreements based on justice. Dulles backed the objectives of a Syrian-Iraqi resolution calling for big power consultations. The five major nations would report back to the current session of the general assembly any progress achieved.

Britain, France

Britain and France supported the basic aims of the resolution. Russia has not participated thus far in the debate.

A flood of suggested changes, some of them largely of a drafting nature, were brought in by various delegations backing the goal sought in the resolution. The committee adjourned until tomorrow morning to allow Iraq and Syria time to confer with other delegations on the incorporation of amendments.

One stumbling block to the whole proposal revolves around whether the Chinese Communists or the Nationalists would represent China in such big five talks.

Which Chinese?

Russia has insisted that the Chinese Nationalists have no right in the UN and their place should be given to the representatives of the Red Peiping regime. The US has resisted any change in China's representation. The whole issue still is pending before this General Assembly session.

Originally the Syrian-Iraq proposal called for meetings between representatives of the US, Britain, France and Russia leaving out any mention of China. China was included in a revised draft brought in by the sponsors shortly before the committee convened.

Trade Volume Up Balance Unfavorable

OTTAWA, Oct. 20 (CP)—Canada's imports and exports both gained in August compared with the previous month and with last year, but the Bureau of Statistics reported an unfavorable trade balance for the second successive month.

The debit balance of $6,600,000 for August compared with a small deficit of $2,700,000 in July and a credit balance of $41,900,000 in August last year.

This brought the over-all deficit for the first eight months of 1950 to a total of $14,300,000, which compared with a surplus of $83,700,000 in the same period a year ago.

Pattern of trade with other countries showed a sharp reversal from the first eight months of 1949. During that period, Canada had an unfavorable balance with the United States of $389,100,000. This was cut during the comparable period of 1950 to $90,000,000.

Balance With U.K.

On the other side of the ledger, Canada sold less to the United Kingdom, and Commonwealth countries and bought more, which reversed its balance with those countries.

In the first eight months of last year, Canada had a favorable balance with the United Kingdom of $253,000,000. In the like period of 1950, this amounted to only $61,100,000.

Imports from all countries in August were valued at $267,300,000 compared with $259,500,000 in July and $212,100,000 in August last year. In the eight months they totalled $1,979,800,000 as against $1,852,400,000 a year earlier.

Exports for August totalled $260,600,000 compared with $256,700,000 in July and $254,000,000 in August last year, bringing the eight-month total to $1,965,500,000 as against $1,936,100,000 in 1949.

Pulled 19 Teeth UK Dentist Fined

NOTTINGHAM, England, Oct. 20 — (Reuters). — A dentist, whose name was not revealed, got a bit of rough treatment himself from the state-operated dental service yesterday. Dental treatment is part of Britain's national health scheme.

The Nottingham Health Executive drilled into the dentist for:

1—removing 19 teeth from a patient's mouth when only one needed attention. The executive ordered $380 docked from his pay.

2—Giving treatment under unhygienic conditions. A further $70 deducted.

3—His own appearance "leaving much to be desired." The committee said an inspector found him wearing "a very worn and dirty suit" and he had not shaved. He was told to smarten up.

Six Die In St. John's Fire Mother, 3 Children Burned

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Oct. 20—(CP)—Six persons, including a mother and her three children, died in flames that ravaged a three-storey tenement in the west business-residential section of this old capital early today.

The dead: Mrs. Jack Raines, and her three children: James Raines, 18; John Raines, 19; Gordon Raines, 7, Fred Raines, Mrs. Raines' brother-in-law; Fred Raines, Jr., 31, a son.

The injured: Jack Raines, husband of the dead mother, and two other children; Ruby Raines, 6; Aileen Raines, 4; Bride Delaney.

The fire was the worst in this old city since the winter of 1948, when 34 persons died in a blaze that destroyed the Hull Old People's home. One hundred persons lost their lives in a fire in a Knights of Columbus hostel in 1942.

Firemen beat their way through flame and smoke in the blazing tenement building in a desperate race to save life. Soon they started carrying out bodies and unconscious victims.

Until ambulances reached the scene, police applied artificial respiration to victims stretched out in the street on blankets provided by residents of the area.

Prince Street runs between Water Street, Newfoundland's main business section, and New Gower Street, a residential district.

The injured all have third-degree burns.

The blaze, of undetermined origin, was discovered at 4:30 a.m. AST in the big dwelling that was occupied by the two brothers and their families. Four persons were dead when they were taken from the building and the others died in hospital.

Jack Raines escaped by leaping from a second-storey window.

May Investigate Windsor Courts

TORONTO, Oct. 20 — (CP) — If the present police commission inquiry cannot clear up alleged vice conditions in Windsor, Ont., the Ontario government may order a broader investigation that would look into court procedure, Attorney-General Porter said last night.

He said the current investigation is dealing only with charges that the Windsor police force has been lax in law enforcement. It has no power to consider court work.

Mr. Porter's statement followed by a few hours an announcement by Premier Frost that Judge Archibald Cochrane, of Brampton, chairman of the new Windsor police commission, would be granted any additional powers the judge felt were needed to clean up the entire Windsor problem.

Mr. Porter explained that this meant that if the restricted powers of an ordinary police commission fell short of meeting the Windsor situation, Judge Cochrane might be given broader powers as head of a new investigating government body.

"We have not yet received a full report from Judge Cochrane on conditions in Windsor," he said.

Premier Frost said the government will back up Judge Cochrane if he decides on a wider investigation.

283 U.S. Men In Korea Death March

3 Survivors Reveal Murders, Beatings By Korean Reds

By TOM LAMBERT

PYONGYANG, Korea, Oct. 20 — (AP) — Three nearly-starved American prisoners today told a ghostly tale of a "death march" from Seoul to Pyongyang by 283 U.S. soldiers.

Many of their comrades, the bearded trio said, were beaten and murdered by their Communist captors. The Communists had shrugged their shoulders and said a few more atrocities against them did not matter.

The few survivors, said the liberated prisoners, boosted the American prisoners of war held in Pyongyang to 373. Most of the 373 were moved to the north to an unknown fate as Pyongyang began to totter.

Locke said that during the death march Americans "died like flies from starvation, cold, pneumonia and dysentry."

Seventeen in the group were wounded when an American plane strafed their column, mistaking them for Reds.

The three survived because they had hidden under the school. They said others of the group were marched north as the United Nations forces approached Pyongyang. Their fate was not known.

On the trudge from Seoul to Pyongyang, the trio said the Reds shot those Americans who could not walk.

Said one:

"Some of the men were carrying their buddies on their backs. Guys who fell down were beaten and bayonetted by the Red guards."

The three said they saw no other Americans in Pyongyang except those they marched with from Seoul.

They said they were told in Seoul that Maj.-Gen. William F. Dean, commander of the U.S. 24th Infantry Division who disappeared when Taejon fell last July, was in Pyongyang.

But when they arrived here they were told Dean had died in Seoul. There was no confirmation of this report.

Swinging down the main street the bearded and long-haired captives were found by a group of correspondents as the prisoners marched arm in arm with three North Korean students who had befriended them. The Americans told of buddies being "beaten and murdered" on a torture march from Seoul.

The three Americans, found by a group of correspondents, had been hiding since Saturday under a school. They had been fed by the students.

The three are Capt. William Locke of the U.S. Air Force, Army Lieut. Alexander Makaroumis and Army Sgt. Takeshi Kumdai.

They said they were the only survivors of a group of 283 prisoners marched here from Seoul in late September and early October.

The trio said the Red Koreans told them they were being moved from Seoul to Pyongyang for "safety".

Locke said he pleaded with North Korean officials not to move the men, and to give medical attention to the wounded. But the North Koreans replied:

"We already got enough atrocities listed against us so a few more won't make any difference.

4,000 Troops Unopposed Seal Off All Escape Routes

By RUSSELL BRINES

TOKYO, Oct. 20—(AP)—Thousands of United States parachute troops leaped deep into Communist Korea today to clean up the war. They had two mission: To finish the U.N. war and to rescue mistreated captive Americans. Gen. Douglas MacArthur himself directed the spectacular aerial assault, the first parachute offensive of the Korean war, from his plane overhead. The paratroop operation, 23 miles north of the captured Communist capital of Pyongyang, cut the escape of the die-hard Red troops still hanging around the north rim of the city. After flying over the scene, MacArthur said:

"I didn't see any opposition. It looks like it was a complete surprise. It looks like we closed the trap. The war is very definitely coming to an end." The airborne troopers, floating down 80 miles south of the Manchurian border, slammed shut the Red escape gates north of Pyongyang. They sought, too, to rescue American prisoners whisked out of liberated Seoul and to seize the fugitive Red military headquarters.

But, up until a late hour Friday, there was no word whether the American prisoners—some of them forced to a death march from Seoul—had been rescued.

Some prisoners liberated in Pyongyang said many died.

They said these included Maj.-Gen. William F. Dean, commander of the U.S. 24th Division who disappeared in the battle for Taejon in July, early in the United Nations defence of the South Korean republic. There was no confirmation of the report about Dean.

This was the apparent cilmax of the historic United Nations campaign, born in blood with the June 25 Communist invasion of the Korean Republic.

Red Premier Kim Il Sung and his government were believed today to be either in far north Korea, Manchuria or Soviet Siberia.

After the parachute troops took off for combat, MacArthur landed in Pyongyang, at an airstrip in the centre of the city.

He ordered Lt.-Gen. Walton H. Walker, the American Eighth

Ford Union Does Not Condone Sabotage Regrets Damage By Employees To Cars

WINDSOR, Oct. 20—(CP)—Local 200 of the United Automobile Workers (CIO), representing Ford of Canada employees, said today it will not condone "sabotage in any form."

A formal statement by the local's negotiating committee said the union "will not protect any employee who may be guilty of such sabotage."

The committee said it had examined a statement by Rhys M. Sale, Ford of Canada President, that a rash of deliberate damages to cars on company assembly lines had forced a two-day layoff of 3,000 workers this week.

The Union statement expressed "regret" at the form of protest taken by any individual who may have damaged cars through anger at the "utter deadlock" in present wage negotfations.

"We strongly urge them to stop it immediately and to turn back to the negotiating committee full confidence and authority to handle the job of securing the wage increases," the statement said.

Dulles Describes Lie Double-Faced Says Malik

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Oct. 20—(AP)—Jakob A. Malik, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, said today American Delegate John Foster Dulles told him Trygve Lie had followed a "double-faced policy" but the United States had made too many commitments to the U.N. secretary-general to drop him now. Dulles denied he had made any such remarks to Malik. He said he would issue a statement later explaining why he supported Lie.

Malik met a reporter in the delegates lounge at the U.N. and relayed the information he had talked with Dulles about the post of secretary-general. Malik vetoed the re-election of Lie and the question will come up again in a secret meeting of the Security Council this afternoon.

At this stage no one would predict the outcome of the fight over the secretary-generalship.

Get Home Operations UK Tells Foreigners

LONDON, Oct. 20—(Reuters)—Immigration officers have been told to refuse admission to foreigners coming to Britain merely to get free treatment from the National Health Service. The new policy was announced yesterday by Health Minister Aneurin Bevan, who has often faced criticism that the taxpayer foots the bill if people visit Britain to get operations "on the cheap."

Police Nab Ring Of Safecrackers

HAMILTON, Oct. 20 — (CP) — Police said today a province-wide search for a $500,000 safecracking ring may have ended here early today with the arrest of two women and five men on charges of robbery with violence, possession of explosives and conspiracy to rob.

Hamilton police with Inspector W. Franks, of the CID, Ontario Provincial Police, raided a Bold Street Rooming house where they found materials for the manufacture of nitro-glycerine, a stolen car, bonds, and cash.

Investigation moved swiftly after Detectives Albert Bunn and William Homer yesterday picked up two men carrying a suspicious-looking parcel on MacNab Street. A search disclosed that the bundle contained acids used in the manufacture of nitro-glycerine.

At 4 a.m. today Hamilton police made a surprise raid on the rooming house where they picked up four other persons. They found enough acid to make a gallon of nitro-glycerine on the premises. Cash totalling $9,000, bonds, and two shotguns were also discovered.

A stolen car was found near the rooming house.

Two Gunmen Snatch $5,000

TORONTO, Oct. 20 — (CP).—Two holdup men today robbed a west-end construction company of $5,000.

Roland Alston, bookkeeper of the Edmund Peachey Construction Company, told police the two accosted him 100 feet from his office after they had loitered in front.

"I had the $5,000 payroll all ready to take out to a job and pay the men," said Alston. "I had to walk past their car to get to mine. As I got opposite, one of them shoved a Luger in my ribs and I dropped the bag.

"One of them snatched up the payroll while the other slammed down the hood of their car and jumped in. He started the engine and the other took the gun off me and jumped in also."

Steal The Show

Dionne Quints Wow NY Dinner Guests

NEW YORK, Oct. 20—(CP)—The Dionne quintuplets, who sang and sparkled last night to steal the show from a bevy of celebrities, will go quietly to St. Patrick's cathedral today to attend a mass celebrated by Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York.

The 16-year-old sisters, smiling graciously in the recetion line and entertaining with old-time favorite songs, outshone the multitude of civic leaders and politicians at the sixth annual Alfred E. Smith Memorial Foundation dinner at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

Go Sight-Seeing

After Mass at the towering Cathedral on Fifth Avenue, the Quints will sight-see or rest until evening when they will return to the Cathedral for an hour-long special teen-age mass.

The dinner—a $100-a-plate-affair attended by 2,500—was the highlight of the Quints' five-day visit in New York and the reason they made the long trip from their home in Callander, Ont.

Before the dinner itself, the Quints joined with Cardinal Spellman who arranged the trip, Vice-President Alben Barkley, and Governor Thomas E. Dewey to receive the honored guests.

Barkley was the main speaker at the dinner to raise funds for the foundation's charitable worw. However, during the whole affair the spotlight was on the Quints, all dressed alike in blue taffeta evening gowns and white capes.

With 11 Classmates

The Quints, joined by 11 of their classmates from the Notre Dame convent in Corbeil, Ont., sang six selections. Every one drew heavy applause.

Clearly and sweetly the girls sang "Somewhere a Child is Singing," "Marie Antoinette" by Myron Jacobsen; "Marianne S' En Va T' en Moulin" by Omer Latournneau; "Trees;" and the Sidewalks of New York." The group sang "The Sidewalks of New York" both in English and French.

Introduced

Before the girls sang, Cardinal Spellman introduced the quintuplets—Annette, Cecile, Emilie, Marie and Yvonne. He said that of the many gifts, blessings and honors the memorial dinners have gained "none has outshone the privilege I now have of presenting to you five young ladies who for the first time in their 16 years have been permitted by Mama and Papa Dionne to leave their native land."

Actually, this is the second visit to the United States for the quints—although their first to New York. In 1943 the quints, accompanied by their mother, went to Superior, Wis., to launch a ship. Their father, Oliva, is with them on this trip.

Power Fails 9 Hours In Cape Breton Area

SYDNEY, N.S., Oct. 20—(CP)—Power was restored in Cape Breton's industrial belt early today following a nine-hour interruption caused by overloading of the lines and a prolonged dry spell.

The steel and coal area was plunged into darkness last night, forcing cancellation of work at the Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation's plant here and half a dozen coal mines in the area.

100,000 Idle

Dutch Cut Unemployment

By GEORGE FRANKS.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 20 (Reuters)—Faced with a growing threat of increasing unemployment, The Netherlands government has drawn up a plan aimed at providing work for the 100,000 idle Dutch workers.

The unemployment problem in Holland has been greatly aggravated by the necessity for finding work for the thousands of demobilized soldiers and civilians released from Indonesia. The rapid increase in population, too, is threatening in future completely to outstrip the demand for workers.

Four-Point Plan

The plan's provisions include:

1. The new compulsory unemployment insurance and half-pay scheme will ensure relief for people who have to change their jobs or lose them temporarily during the periods of heavy weather, strikes, or other abnormal factors. This class represents about 25 per cent of the total unemploye in the summer and 50 per cent in the winter.

2. To meet the problem of unemployed seasonal workers, large public works projects are being organized, especially land improvements.

3 Regional unemployment resulting from the economic structure of certain districts is being counteracted by further development of the areas concerned.

4. In an effort to reduce the surplus manpower among so-called "white collar" workers, a campaign has already been launched to ensure better guidance in the choice of profession. This drive is aimed at making parents realize that the skilled worker in overalls is in a better position to find work than the unqualified "office chair" employee.

Long Range

The most ambitious, long-term solution of the unemployment problem is the new industrialization plan by which it is hoped to turn Holland from an agricultural country into an industrial one. This plan is just beginning to get into its stride.

Austerity Still As Gaitskell Replaces Cripps

LONDON, Oct. 20 — (AP). — Britons braced themselves today for a continued diet of austerity despite the resignation of Sir Stafford Cripps, chief architect of the current belt-tightening policy.

Sir Stafford, who headed the country's drive for economic recovery, resigned yesterday as the Chancellor of the Exchequer because of ill-health.

Prime Minister Attlee promptly named Economics Minister Hugh Gaitskell, who had been acting as Sir Stafford's chief deputy, to succeed him.

Little Change

Political observers predicted that the appointment of the 44-year-old Gaitskell, former Oxford University teacher, would mean little if any change in government economic policies.

As firm a believer in the necessity for austerity as Sir Stafford himself, Gaitskell has been associated with the former Chancellor in recovery planning for several years.

Sir Stafford, tall, spare Socialist son of a British peer, also gave up his seat in the House of Commons, although he expressed the hope he might be able to return to public service after a year's rest.

He has been a member of Parliament for 19 years. His resignation reduced Labor's effective majority in the House of Commons to eight.

Many London morning newspapers ignored political ties to pay tribute to the 61-year-old former Chancellor who guided the country's economic policy through some of its most critical post-war difficulties.

Police Raid Windsor Racket

WINDSOR, Ont., Oct. 20. (CP) — Two raiding parties of the Windsor police morality squad on Thursday broke open what they claimed was the Windsor end of a numbers racket based in Detroit.

The raids — first of their kind in 18 months here — brought the arrest of Mrs. Eulia Vincent, 35, and Mason Jasper, 50, charged with operating gaming houses. They were released on $500 bail.

Police said 45,100 numbers tickets, printed in Detroit, were seized, together with an undisclosed amount of money.

Police said the racket apparently paid off on three numbers listed in stock market reports.

The raids came little more than a month after a report by two provincial police inspectors said that gambling and vice were widespread in this border city.

Toronto Mayor Challenges Minister

TORONTO, Oct. 20. (CP) — Mayor Hiram McCallum Thursday invited Rev. J. R. Mutchmor to prove his charges that "vice is rampant" in Toronto before today's meeting of the Toronto Police Commission.

The mayor extended his invitation in a letter sent by special messenger to Dr. Mutchmor, secretary of the Board of Evangelism and social service of the United Church of Canada, who made the charges in a statement Wednesday.

Inspector M. M. Mulholland, deputy police chief, said 17,900 persons were arrested in Toronto this year on liquer charges. But in 1914, when the city's population was much smaller, 22,347 faced drunk charges.

His father, the present Prince Napoleon, Louis-Jerome, is a descendant of Napoleon's younger brother Jerome.

ed this morning. The reference was to the five permanent members of the Security Council, however, and not to a specific Chinese regime.

Do Not Despair

Dulles pointed out that in the years since the war the major powers have held thousands of meetings and often have had difficulty even in reaching agreement on an agenda. He said:

"We do not despair, and we accept the principles of this resolution. Whenever there are possibilities of agreement we are prepared to explore them to the utmost."

He said the door was open, but added: "I can't say I entertain great hopes from the conversations, but one can never tell."

U.S. Parachutists

Army commander, to send South Korean troops to the Manchurian border as fast as they could move.

Staff officers said conclusion of the organized fighting will be followed by an extensive mopping-up campaign which will continue until all evidence of resistance is gone. American troops will remain in Korea until that time.

MacArthur has indicated he will keep American and Commonwealth troops short of the politically-explosive Manchurian and Siberian boundaries. But South Korean forces will operate there, he has indicated, whenever resistance may crop up.

The big paratrooper jump started at 2 p.m. (midnight EST) after a six hour delay because of bad weather.

Mortar Fire

The 'chutists landed without opposition, except for scattered mortar fire during the first half-hour they were on the ground.

The Red mortars were silenced quickly.

American artillery, dropped by air in the first combat attack involving the parachuting of such equipment as heavy 105-millimetre howitzers, opened up on the Reds right away.

The landed Americans fanned out over the brown and-green rice lands around Sukchon and Sunchon.

The dramatic air drop and lightning thrusts by the UN troops inside Pyongyang overshadowed developments in the other sectors.

Name Commander

Maj.-Gen. Edward E. Almond, the liberator of Seoul, was named commander of all UN forces in northeast Korea, were South Korean troops are continuing to drive the Reds toward Russia's Siberian border.

South Koreans units fanned out today in three directions from the key northeast Korean city Hamhung. They drove 20 miles east, 18 north, and 15 northwest, and were only 92 miles south of the Manchurian border.

The immediate purpose of the parachuters was three-fold:

1. To seal off the avenues of escape for Red troops seeking to make their way north from Pyongyang.

2. To cut off the highway and rail line running through Sunchon and Sukchon. Captured Reds said the North Korean military headquarters has been moved to Sunchon.

3. To release any UN soldiers the Reds may have been holding in the area.

Ideal Terrain

The drop was made in ideal terrain—on flatlands ringing a base of ridges running north to Pyongyang. It was commanded by Col. W. S. Bowens of the 187th regiment of the 11th airborne division. The division was the first to enter Japan.

The U.S. 1st cavalry knifed into Pyongyang from the south at 11:02 a.m., Thursday (9:02 p.m. Wednesday, EST). Advanced armored units of the South Korean 1st division entered from the east 18 minutes later.

Both forces swept through the east industrial district, across the Taedong river and into the business section Thursday night.

While they cleaned out resisting Reds in west-side streets, the South Korean 7th division drove into the capital from the north. It seized Him Il Sung University, and then aided the other two divisions in the cleaning up.

Stocks Decline Industrials Sink

TORONTO, Oct. 20.— (CP) — Industrials reversed the trend of the last four days and declined with losses up to a point as the session progressed on the Toronto Stock Exchange today.

Industrials opened mixed but soon began to sag with papers and liquors out in front. Abitibi, Consolidated Paper, Great Lakes Paper, International Paper and Powell River were all lower. Distillers Seagrams lost 50 cents to pull down the liquor group. Utilities, agricultures, constructions, foods, retail stores and manufacturing companies were mostly mixed. Banks, steels and refining oils brightened.

Golds started strong but became mixed. In the senior group Giant Yellowknife and McIntyre were lower while Bralorne, Hollinger and Lamaque gained up to 25 cents. Junior Producers were mostly lower. Falconbridge, Labrador and Quemont bucked the trend with gains up to 50 cents.

Western Oils continued their recent losses. Anglo Canadian, Federal Petroleum, Home Oil, Pacific Petroleum and Royalite were key issues that declined.

Chinese Aid Reds In Indo-China Washington Claims

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20—(AP)—American officials said today the Chinese Communists have given substantial help, in the form of weapons and training, to Red forces in Indo-China. Communist advances in that embattled country are largely attributed to this assistance. Top American authorities have been searching for ways in which the United States might help the French and native Indo-Chinese armies to meet the situation, which is regarded here with increasing concern. But a week-long policy review in the government was mostly negative except for the decision announced last week to speed American arms shipments to Indo-China. These shipments have a priority second only to arms for Korea.

Discussed Indo-China

President Truman told his press conference yesterday that Gen. MacArthur and he discussed Indo-China in their Wake Island conference but that no decisions were made.

Indications are that as part of the policy review officials have considered the possibility of action along two new lines:

1. Sending American forces to assist the anti-Communist fight in Indo China. Authorities said, however, there is no present plan to take action of this kind.

2. Throwing the whole situation into the United Nations. On this point, officials reported that such a move would be up to the French, who have primary responsibility in Indo-China, and that the United States has not urged the French to act.

The Paris government faces a difficult issue in this respect because the Indo-Chinese fighting has been going on for many years and there is no basis for a clear-cut charge of aggression, as there was in the case of the Communist attack in South Korea.

Patsy Wallace Captures Fraser Trophy

CAMPBELLFORD, Oct. 20 — (ENS).—A large crowd filled the Campbellford High School auditorium on Thursday evening, when the Seymour Township schools held their oratorical contest.

The musical part of the program included a chorus by pupils of S.S. No. 11, Burnbrae, a piano duet by Marilyn Haig and Pearl Craighead, folk dances by pupils of Burnbrae, and a quartette composed of Patsy Wallace, Gladys Fisher, Marilyn Haig and Pearl Craighead.

At the conclusion of the contest Ward Archer presented the Fraser trophy to Patsy Wallace for first prize, Aylmer Petherick presented the Seymour trophy to Jerry McCullouch, second place, Mrs. Lewis presented the Seymour West W.I. trophy for third position to Elizabeth Barnum, and Mrs. Wm. Hume presented Gladys Fisher, fourth place winner, with the Seymour East W.I. trophy.

Reeve J. Billen was chairman.

By winning first place in the township contest, Patsy Wallace earns the right to try for the county honor at Warkworth on November 3.

Judges were Mrs. Gordon McCulloch and Mrs. Jack Rannie.

After hours cranking their dead motor, it started just when they were about to give up.

C. Ballantyne Was In Cabinet Dies Aged 83

MONTREAL, Oct. 20—(CP)—Senator Charles C. Ballantyne, one-time Conservative Cabinet minister and former leader of that party in Canada's upper chamber, died here last night. He was 83.

His death left the Progressive Conservative party with only 11 members in the Senate. There are 77 Liberal senators and 14 vacancies in the 102-seat house.

Senator Ballantyne, prominent in business here since before the start of the century, was Minister of Marine and Fisheries in the 1917 Borden government and served in the same capacity in the 1920 Meighen government. Defeated as a member of the House of Commons in 1921, he did not return to active politics until he was elevated to the Senate in 1932. From 1942 to 1945 he served as party leader in the Senate.

Commons Career

While Minister of Marine and Fisheries Mr. Ballantyne introduced in parliament several pieces of legislation, including bills concerning salmon fishing on the west coast and related to the lobster hatcheries convention between Canada and the United States.

He supported and obtained increased salaries for lighthouse keepers and during the first World War supported a program of mercantile shipbuilding to increase Canada's tonnage.

In Winnipeg, Hon. John T. Haig, Senate opposition leader, said Canada has lost a "great statesman who did much for his country."

"His wide experience in parliamentary affairs has been a great source to the Senate, especially to his party members," Senator Haig said. "He was one of my greatest friends for many years.

"Canada will miss him."

He attended Port Hope High School and the University of Toronto. He settled in New Liskeard during the mining boom and later went to Cobalt, where he was engaged in real estate.

He leaves a widow, the former Augusta Cole, and a son John David of Lansing.

Liquor Law Ills

Political shake-downs, and closed-door dickering over liquor licenses and the enforcement of regulations have never attained in Ontario the enormity of the practices in Quebec. That does not mean that Ontario officials have been innocent and straightforward in their liquor law dealings. The present reorganization of the Liquor Control Boards indicates that all has not been well in the past. In Ontario official eyes have been closed to regulations, beverage room licences have been granted as special favours, and there has been a profitable traffic in the resale of licensed premises.

To lay most of the blame for the ills of the liquor administration on the Liberal Government which went out of power as long ago as 1943 is to condemn the Conservative governments which succeeded it. Yet Chief Liquor Commissioner and Provincial Secretary the Honourable Arthur Welsh has done exactly that. The Conservative Governments since August, 1943 have had seven years to remedy whatever ills there may have been and are in the liquor law administration of this province.

The present government has finally wakened to some ills over which they and their predecessors seem to have slept for six years. The recent amalgamation of branches under Brigadier Spragge, and the creation of a liquor licence board under Judge Robb should improve the situation and take liquor law administration away from too direct political intervention. We thoroughly approve of the imposition of a heavy transfer tax imposed when licensed premises are sold. The permit to sell beer or liquor should not be a profiteer's racket (in the past thousands of dollars have been made by the holders of beverage room licences which they re-sold). Liquor licences should be granted for the convenience of the public, not for the private benefit of hotel and cocktail-bar men. As Mr. Welsh said: "licences are not monopolies to be trafficked in".

We shall watch with interest the results of these changes in administrative heads and regulations. They may prove to be more than flashes in the pan made to dazzle the eyes of a public now disturbed by revelations of contorted practices in Ontario's official liquor dealings.

Cortisone In Peterborough

Cortisone—ACTH is another name given to the class of drug—is now being used by some Peterborough doctors to treat their patients suffering from arthritic ailments. This very new "wonder drug" is still in the experimental stage, a professor of McGill university said in Montreal this week, but its use in outside clinic experiments is already so wide that the drug is being manufactured commercially. It is still very expensive: about $80 a gram, which may be sufficient to treat one patient for a week. It is encouraging that local doctors are so abreast of current medical study and practice that they are qualified to use Cortisone, and that it is being used in our hospitals.

We Don't Think We Like It

Idly turning over the pages of a book of statistics about Canada we have come across one or two things which we don't really like. We are not prepared to resent them in an active way, but they make us sullen and discontented.

For instance, we don't think we like the way that the racial origins of the people of British descent are listed. For the 1941 census, it runs thus:

Scottish	1,403,974
English	2,968,402
Irish	1,267,702
Other	75,826

We resent that word "Other". Who is meant by it? The Welsh, of course. Well then, why not say the Welsh, and be frank about it? Why are the Welsh and the handful of Channel Islanders discriminated against in this rather sneaky fashion? Next time a Government snoop asks us for our racial origin, we shall say "Other", and let him drag us off to jail.

Our mood is not improved by an inspection of a table which shows the Sex and Distribution of the population, for 1941 and true, we presume, at present. This table shows that more males are born than females, by roughly 300,000 at a time when the population was eleven and a half millions. And up until the age of eighty that proportion holds. After eighty, however, it looks as though the male had a poorer chance of survival than the female, and it grows worse as he nears the century mark. In 1941 there were only 457 men in this country between 95 and 99; the figure for women was 770. There is something depressing about this. Everybody knows that women are stronger and hardier than men, but after eighty it would have been generous of Nature to allow for a little easing up. Men, of course, work harder, and wear themselves out with theological disputation and other exhausting pursuits.

We wish we had not looked into that book. The future is dark before us. We are just wretched Other with a poor chance of rounding out a century. We work in a job so miserable that it is not even listed under 'Gainful Occupations". Altogether we feel pretty meagre and inconsiderable.

Charlotte-Louis Street Eyesore

The dilapidated buildings on Charlotte street at the corner of Louis, the property of the Federal Government, have been vacant for two months. They are to be torn down, as is the terrace on the east side of Louis street, to clear the site for the new Federal Building. They have not yet been torn down and they are a disgraceful show to have on one of our principal streets.

The Kitchener contractors engaged to raze the buildings say they will not start until all are vacant. There are three tenant families in the terrace who have not yet found other quarters. Are these ugly Charlotte street buldings to stand derelict until in the Government's, the contractor's or the tenants' good time all is ready for razing? The tenants' continued occupancy of the three terrace houses should not be encouraged further if that means that the ramshackle buildings on Charlotte street have to be tolerated another two months, or perhaps six months.

No Sunday Sports For Ottawa

Ottawa, a city of sober civil servants and a peppering of diplomatic officials, has rejected Sunday commercial sports for at least two years by council vote of 29-2. The only two in favour—and the question before the Council was not that Sunday sports should be allowed, but that a referendum be taken—were the mover and seconder of the motion. The attitude of the Council was not unexpected, supported as it was by churchmen, civil servants and other residents long accustomed to taking their fling across the border in Hull. Hull, Que., is wide open after twelve o'clock noon on Sunday.

Ottawans really have quite a bit to do on Sundays, besides going to church or sleeping in. In these regards—the faithful church-going, somnolence, and variety of opportunities for self-entertainment—Ottawa is much like Peterborough. There are numerous parks and walks, handy reaches of countryside and woodland; and many lakes and channels within and without the city limits. Ottawa probably has more vacuum for Sunday commercial entertainment (sports and movies) than Peterborough has because the population is larger and there are greater numbers of itinerants and rooming-house inhabitants. Yet the Ottawa Council sees no need for a commercial Sunday.

We see no need for Sunday sports in Peterborough. It may be argued that Ottawa has its Hull, for those who want commercial entertainment on Sundays. Well, Peterborough has its Toronto.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Health is probably preferable to wealth. For one thing, nobody can borrow it.

A cooking column suggests stuffing your squash with spinach. Yes, and then hurl it from a swiftly-moving car.

Premier Frost has promised a firmer enforcement of the liquor laws in Ontario, and the Kitchener Record remarks jocosely that 'the frost is on the punk inn".

The French Army is hard at work on a system of "permanent" fortification in Indo-China. Permanent, that is, until you run around the end of it, as with the permanent Maginot Line.

According to a Canadian Press dispatch which reports that Canada's Special Force men will each get ten shots in the arm, "Cpl. D. Cartwright of Vancouver and Pte. E. B. Lynk of Glace Bay, N.S., two members of the staging camp medical staff, said that 'every one of the guys is going to feel like an exported pincushion by the time he gets where he is going'." The B.C. corporal and the N.S. private must have spent some little while together before the interview, rehearsing that sentence, to get it so pat.

Notes And Queries

By ALPHA

Questions are solicited for this column particularly those relating to local lore and tradition.

ALPHA: Does Toronto now have Sunday sports? If it does, exactly what is permitted.

ANSWER: Football, baseball, rugby, hockey, bowling alleys and the like. Movies are not yet allowed to open on Sundays.

Until recently Toronto has been a pretty conservative place, especially on Sundays. Children were not allowed even to play ball in the public parks. I recall in this connection the hullabaloo in Toronto in 1897 over Sunday street cars. By that time, the population of Toronto was about 200,000 and street cars were not permitted to operate on Sundays. To do so would have profaned the Sabbath in the "City of Churches". Those who did not have carriages walked. Finally the matter was put to a vote, over the protests of churchmen, and on May 15th, 16,372 voted to have Sunday street cars and 16,051 voted against the change. Since that time Toronto's street cars have operated on Sundays.

ALPHA: Your note last week about the author of "Silver Threads Among The Gold" interested me. Did you know that that song was the favourite piece of his late Majesty, King George V? He admitted this during his Jubilee celebrations, when a Salvation Army band was playing before him in front of Buckingham Palace, and he asked that the number be played.

RESPONSE: No. Thanks for the information.

A NEW PSALM: The following paraphrase, printed in the Western Christian Advocate of Macon, Georgia, has come into my hands:

"The government is my shepherd, I need not work. It allows me to lie down on good jobs: it leadeth me beside still factories. It destroyeth my initiative; it leads me into paths of the parasite for politics' sake. Yea, tho I walk through the valley of laziness and deficit spending, I will fear no evil; for the government is with me; its doles and its vote-getters, they comfort me. It prepareth an economic Utopia for me by appropriating the earnings of my grandchildren. It filleth my head with bologna; my inefficiency runneth over. Surely the government shall care for me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in a fool's paradise forever."

ALPHA: How many monkeys are there in the zoo at the Filtration Plant?

ANSWER: One, and he is a fairly recent inhabitant. The other one died this summer of internal haemorrhage, brought on, it is said, by hysteria induced by children rattling its cage and otherwise disturbing the creature. Before his death he became very irritable and it was not safe for visiting children to feed him by hand.

The present monkey seems to be of sounder disposition. He is one that escaped from the side-show amusement troupe which set up shop early this summer in the lot across from George St. wharf. By the time he was captured the midway had left town. The monkey was turned over to the Filtration Plant people, who notified the owners. But nobody has yet come across with the express fare for the beast. Until that is paid in advance the local zoo will have the monkey. If he is not repatriated soon, he will have squatter's rights in Peterborough.

SIR: When was the City Trust established? Will it go on for ever?

ANSWER: The Peterborough City Trust was created by Act of the Parliament of the Province of Canada in 1861. to rescue the town from bankruptcy and in the future to administer its financing in a sound way. This it has done, with conspicuous success. It will shortly cease to exist from desuetude, for now all city debentures issued are "serial" bonds, that is, bonds in which principal and interest are paid off in equal annual instalments, so that at the end of the debentures' term, only the final instalment of interest and principal is paid. The last of the older type debentures will be paid off this year or next. When the sinking fund for these is paid out as capital due, the City Trust will have no further job, except to dispose of its surplus.

FOR THE RECORD: Peterborough has seven living former mayors, who together with Mayor Max Swanston, account for nearly a quarter of all the mayors Peterborough has had. There have been 35 in the hundred years of our corporate history. City Clerk Outram dug up some interesting facts about them when introducing seven of the eight present at a Sales and Advertising club dinner on Tuesday evening last. The eight men have, together, given 80 years of service on the City Council. For instance, A. A. McIntyre served eleven years as alderman before his two terms as Mayor.

Former Mayor James Hamilton has the longest record of continuous Council service: 13 years as alderman (1919-23; 28-29; 31-37) and then eight consecutive years as Mayor. The oldest former mayor is Archibald A. McIntyre, who, hale and hearty and able to enjoy a club dinner, will be 94 on May 22nd, next. He was Mayor during the building of the Hunter St. Bridge (1920-21). When he ran for the second term, Alderman William Taylor ran against him. The vote was a tie. A recount was made. The vote was still a tie. So City Clerk Armstrong cast the deciding ballot, in favour of Mr. McIntyre. The next year Mr. McIntyre retired and Mr. Taylor was elected. He served two terms.

Peterborough's living former mayors are: (1) The Honourable Roland F. McWilliams, K.C., LL.D. (1907), now lieutenant-governor of Manitoba. He was born in Peterborough and is one of the few university graduates to have served as mayor; (2) Senator Joseph J. Duffus (1916-17), a native son; (3) A. A. McIntyre (1920-21) born in Keene; (4) William H. Taylor (1922-23), a native son; (5) George A. Macdonald (1936-37), born in Oxford county, but he came to Peterborough at the age of 17; (6) James Hamilton (1938-45), of an old and distinguished Peterborough family; (7) William G. Ovens, (1946-48).

JAY WALKING

The Kippers Are Coming—Hurrah?

(MONTREAL GAZETTE)

REPORTS from London disclose that the Scottish Herring Industry Board has undertaken to ship a total of 4,000,000 kippers to New York, with a view to educating North American palates to the esoteric pleasures of kipper breakfasts and incidentally earning some much-needed dollars for the United Kingdom exchange account. Apparently assuming that the education will be successful, the board plans to step up deliveries next fall to 20,000,000 of the smoked and pungent herring.

As a first step to guide the uninitiated to real enjoyment of kippers, sponsors of the scheme have emphasized that for kipper fanciers, just any old kippers won't do. They must be Stornoway kippers, reputed to be an especially succulent sub-species of herring caught off the Hebrides and processed at Stornoway on the island of Lewis. According to reliable authorities who set great store by such things, what gives the Stornoway type its distinctive flavour and colour is that it is smoked over oak-chip fires, while other herrings are just dyed and artificially flavoured.

To the average North American, it may come as some surprise to learn that there are kipper connoisseurs. Most people on this side of the Atlantic, untutored in the virtues of one wood or another for smoking fish, had assumed that there were just two clear-cut schools of thought on the kipper question—those who could take them and those who were able (and usually preferred) to leave them. As far as the choice of proper fuel for fuming them is concerned, it is a fair guess that many a housewife will be less interested in whether kippers have been smoked with Stornoway oak chips than in how they can be treated without impairing such an insistent odour to all parts of the household.

The chairman of the Scottish Herring Board says this can be done by dropping the wee fishie in a casserole and baking it. But what happens when you open the oven door? One can foresee that the problem facing the board is not merely to educate North Americans on how to eat kippers, but how to cook them and how to withstand the permeation of their presence early in the morning.

The Critics Criticized

(Toronto Telegram)

When Americans deemed themselves secure in isolation they felt free to criticize the conduct of countries caught in the maelstrom of international crisis. Having abandoned isolation they are finding that their own motives are being misrepresented as freely as were Britain's motives in the past. The experiences are new and some of them are hurt by man's ingratitude.

At the conference of the Institute of Pacific Relations in Lucknow delegates from Pakistan and India accused the U.S. of seeking imperialistic ends in Asia, and for this The New York Times blames their governments. "It is incredible," says The Times, "that officials of these governments do not know better than to permit their intellectuals and journalists to believe that the United States is sending economic aid to Asia simply to enable Wall Street to enslave the Asiatics."

Why this should be incredible is not clear. In 1939 the U.S. Government permitted Senator Borah and former President Hoover to believe and declare that the crisis in Europe was merely a matter of "power politics." It permitted intellectuals and journalists to impute outrageously false motives to every step the British Government took. It did so because it could neither govern the thinking nor restrain the utterances of individuals. No more can the governments of Pakistan and India.

The fact that intellectuals and journalists are mistaken is interesting in view of recent statements that the U.S. is failing to set the facts before the people of Asia. All the facts are available to intellectuals and journalists as well as to the governments, just as they were available to Messrs. Hoover and Borah and to other unthinking critics of the prewar period. It is the faculty of reasoning that is defective.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey, whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness? But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness ...For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. (Rom. 6: 16-18, 20-22.)

EMBARRASSED

Standing at the gangway of a ship the steward kept shouting for the benefit of arriving passengers: "First-class to the right! Second-class to the left!"

A young woman stepped daintily aboard with a baby in her arms. As she hesitated before the steward, he bent over her and said: "Frist or second?"

"Oh," said the girl, blushing vividly, "it's not mine."

KOREAN ATTITUDE

King To Visit New Commons

LONDON, Oct. 20—(AP)—The King is going to step inside the brand new House of Commons building as a sightseer sometime during the next week on a visit forever forbidden after the legislation officially take it over.

Kings are barred from entering the Commons. The only king who ever did it, Charles I, touched off a revolution thereby and finally was beheaded.

Something of a tyrant, Charles called with a squad of soldiers in 1642 to arrest five of his opponents in the House.

The new building won't actually become the House of Commons until next Thursday. The King's visit will be private, merely to look over the new building.

When the King participates in the ceremony handing over the building to the Commons next week, the rites will have to be held outside so he can join in them.

Training Of Lipizzon Stallions For Show Takes Three Years

By GEORGE COLEMAN

NEW YORK —(NEA)— Only nobility was permitted to witness the white stallions, with their accoutrement of white buckskin saddles over scarlet shabracks, manes and tails inter-woven with golden thread, enter the Riding Hall of Vienna and trot majestically down its length, two yards apart, and stop before the royal box.

The riders, dressed in brown coats, white doeskin breeches and long-top boots, would change reins and whip to one hand, raise their eyes to Charles IV, and doff their gold-embroidered Napoleonic hats.

That was 200 years ago, when exhibitions of the Spanish Lipizzans outside the hall were prohibited.

Those who attend the National Horse Show at Madison Square Garden, Oct. 31-Nov. 7, will see the Spanish Riding School of Vienna's white stallions perform in their first tour of America.

It was after the arrival of our forces in Europe that the Spanish Riding School was able to introduce itself to the late Gen. George S. Patton. He placed it under authority of the Army and had the Lipizzan stud, which had been transferred to Czechoslovakia in 1942, returned to Austria. Bringing the school and the stud together made possible the continued existence of this highest equestrian culture.

Although foaled dark brown or black, the majority of the Lipizzan stallions, by the fourth year, are white with full growth coming extraordinarily late, about the seventh year.

Thereafter they are useful much longer than those of any other breed.

The stallions are from 14.3 to 15.2 hands, stout with ram-like noses, wide foreheads, expressive eyes, broad chests, flat withers, long backs, powerful quarters, strong bones, fairly heavy, well-carried necks, and beautiful silky manes and tails. Although good-natured, they have plenty of fire. Their intelligence is marked.

When about five years old, the Lipizzan stallion reaches the riding school. There is seven months of daily work on the longe. Then he is bridled with a light snaffle but carries no saddle until he becomes stronger. Then he is freed of the longe and spends the next year learning a free walk, the ordinary trot and the change from the trot to the canter.

During this time spurs are never used, the principal aid is the voice of the rider who, at the start of the third year, teaches the stallion short paces and parades.

Then the horse is ready for the lower school and, according to the intelligence of the mounts, gradually moves into the higher school of learning, the "On the Ground Movement," the Pirouette, the Piaffe and the Spanish Step, then the "Above the Ground Movements," the Levade, the Courbette, the Croupade, the Capriole and throughout the training, the "Great School Quadrille."

Hoover, Baruch, Ike Give Advice

By The Canadian Press

Three of the strongest voices in the United States spoke out Thursday night to offer the U.S. words of advice in these days of world-wide tension.

In New York City, former president Herbert Hoover said in a radio speech the United States should provide no more money or arms for free Europe "until a definitely unified and sufficient European army is in sight."

In Pittsburgh, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower came out against preventive war because, he said, "war begets conditions that beget further war." He told a Carnegie Institute of Technology gathering the best hope is a good defence, backed by crushing offensive might.

In Rochester, Minn., elder statesman Bernard M. Baruch said the United States' "limping approach to mobilization encourages new Soviet adventures." He urged a two-year, all-out program, coupled with stiff anti-inflation measures.

Negro Shot Boy Raped Mother

CALERA, Ala., Oct. 20 (AP). — A huge posse estimated at one time at more than 1,000 men searched through the night for a Negro who shot a small white boy to death after raping the child's mother.

The child, four-year-old Dale Holley, was shot through the head as his mother clasped him in her arms.

The mother, Mrs. Kathleen Holley, 37, was shot twice and beaten on the head with a large rock. She was seriously wounded but was reported improving today in hospital.

CAPETOWN— (C P) — The South African Government has appointed a commission to investigate trouble among natives in the Witzieshoek reserve in the Orange Free State. The trouble arose over efforts by the authorities to control soil erosion and reduce livestock.

Member Ejected Irish Parson

LONDON, Oct. 20 (Reuters)—The House of Commons Thursday evicted one of its Conservative members, James MacNamaway, because he is an Irish parson.

A 150-year-old act disqualifies Church of Ireland ministers from sitting in the House of Commons. The House declared MacNamaway's seat at Belfast West vacant, which will cause a by-election.

Home Secretary James Chuter Ede agreed with a Conservative suggestion that a parliamentary committee consider the anomalies of the election of clergymen to parliament.

Herbert Morrison, government leader of the Commons, said the government would bring in a bill to indemnify MacNamaway against any penalties. He is liable to a fine of £500 for every day he sat in the Commons.

MacNamaway, 52, said in a statement the wishes of his constituents were entirely pushed aside because of an "archaic legal enactment."

St. Mike's Defeat The Petes In Rough Exhibition Tussle

St. Mike's senior "A" puckists defeated the senior "B" Petes 17-5 here last night in a lively exhibition hockey fray. Only a fair-sized crowd viewed the game which turned out to be a wide-open and rather rough affair. The Saints played a typical AHL bruising brand, and Hannigan drew a match penalty in the third for an attempt to injure after he and Ted Collins had mixed in a fist fight.

The visitors, many of them minor pros, had too much for the Petes, but the locals showed promise of power and came up with a real fighting display in the third period. It was 4-1 for St. Mike's in the first and they had an 8-1 margin in the rough middle chukker, but they could only outscore Drake Jopling's bunch 5-3 in the third. Some of the Saints were battling for definite berths on the team, and one or two who don't make it may show up shortly in Petes' uniforms.

Three Goalies

The locals used three goalies, Ray Harding the first period, Roy James in the second, and Bill Edgar for the third. Hughes was in the nets two frames for St. Mike's and DeCourcey in the last one. Don Pagett was leading point-getter for the homesters with three assists while Alf Griffin counted two goals. Jim Millar, Jake Wade and Jack Mortimer each hit the hemp once for the Petes, and an assist apiece went to Junior West, Fred Garvey and Ron Turner. The Petes were short four or five other players.

Mesich proved a whirlwind on skates for the visitors, and notched the nicest goal of the night on a rink-length solo try. Plaris, McCracken, Mulligan and Ubracio were others who stood out all through the tussle. Veteran Pat Wilson was solid on defence and played a bruising style to draw a few penalties. A number of the Petes caught the eye, but others aren't in the pink yet, and all positions aren't assured at present. The game was well handled by no less than three referees.

Teams:

St. Mike's: Goal, Hughes; defence, Psutka and Mesich, centre, Plaris; wings, McCracken and Mulligan; alternates, Sullivan, Wilson, Chapman Ubracio, Biute, Hannigan, Kennedy, Meldrum, Fowler, Watson, Arundel and DeCourcey.

Petes: Goal, Harding; defence, E. Leonard and G. Leonard; centre, West; wings, J. Mortimer and Garvey; alternates, Dugan, Wade, Turner, Casey, Floyd, Collins, Millar, Pagett, Legrow, Davidson, Griffin, James and Edgar.

Oshawa Plays PCVS In Twin Bill

Football returns to the Oval Saturday afternoon as the PCVS senior Garnet and Greys open their lakeshore playoffs against Oshawa Collegiate and the juniors continue their lakeshore junior "A" competition with the motor city. The PCVS thirds have a morning game in Cobourg in the lakeshore junior "B" conference.

Since the football season opened for the Collegiate on September 22, the teams, the Bev Goulding-coached seniors squad has had five exhibition games and the Alex Londry-coached squad two league games and two exhibitions.

Weaker on the forward passing attack both offensively and defensively, the seniors have proved that they can stand up against the better Toronto high school teams. In five starts the Garnets and Greys have lost two, those to Scarboro Collegiate and the mighty East York Goliaths. Their most impressive win was against the Trinity College team from Port Hope when the ground and air attack was superb. Other wins were against Western Tech and Runnymede Collegiates of Toronto.

A Stronger Squad

Oshawa is believed to have a stronger team than in other years. Last year a number of 1948 regulars were unable to play because school marks were not high enough. Those players are back in the lineup this year. They have yet to play a game.

Always considered special rivals of the Garnet and Greys, the Motor City footballers believe this is their year. They haven't had one in the Lakeshore League since 1945. Since then competition from the schools has faded out. Several Oshawa players may be sitting out the first of the best of three series with PCVS. One has a bruised elbow and the other a dislocated shoulder.

Saturday's game means a great deal to both clubs. Should PCVS win Saturday here and in Oshawa a week Saturday, they will advance into the COSSA semi-finals on November 11. If a third game is necessary, it will be played November 4.

Try For Fifth

Alex Londry's juniors will be trying for their fifth straight win Saturday. All have been impressive. They have already trounced the Oshawa Collegiate juniors soundly and the other competition in the league, Lindsay Collegiate The junior Garnet and Grey game will precede the senior.

Coach Al MacQuarrie's PCVS junior "B" team will be out after its first win in three starts Saturday morning in Cobourg. Playing their first year of organized football, these boys are being taught first how to take a licking. They have lost to St. Peter's High and Cobourg by scores in the 20's while they have remained scoreless.

P of W Boys Victors

Prince of Wales eleven defeated Central in an intermediate soccer game Thursday afternoon, 2-0, on the PW school grounds.

Before Central could get acquainted with the new playing pitch, the Westenders had scored two goals through Corp and Johnston in the first half. On resuming, Central peppered their opponents' goal time and again to find the fullbacks unbeatable, while Scharfe, in goal, was brilliant.

Prince of Wales — L. Scharfe, goal; B. Douglas and K. Aulbrook, fullbacks; S. Morley, J. Varga and P. Francis, halfbacks; P. Falkner, P. Ashby, K. Johnston, B. Corp and C. Rowland, forwards. Subs—B. Johnston, K. Wager, T. Huffman, G. Buritt.

Central—Kelly, goal; R. Ellis and G. Pollock, fullbacks; V. Armstrong, C. Sorrie, T. Armstrong, halfbacks; R. Naish, J. Lustic, N. Floyd, W. Sorrie and P. Dunford, forwards. Subs—B. Simpson, D. Dinsdale.

Referee—Mr. Loveday.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

By CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

There's ORFU football tonight under the arcs in Morrow Park, the old grid enemies clashing in the final scheduled game of the season. Yes, sir, it's Cobourg's Galloping Ghosts vs. the Peterborough Orfuns. While the classy Ghosts finished first and Orfuns second in the standing, we firmly believe that the Bamforth bunch has been the better club the last half of the schedule. And is now. We might even be persuaded to peel a leaf off the cabbage and lay a little wager that the Orfuns will win this one here tonight. Though not without a hard fight. It would be mighty nice to end the schedule by downing the Ghosts, wouldn't it?

High school football holds forth tomorrow aft at the Oval. Oshawa and PCVS junior "A" teams tangle at 1.30 in a group game, and this is followed by a district playoff between the senior Oshawa and PCVS squads. One that Bev Goulding's good crew will labor lustily for. Plenty of razzle-dazzle and color in these high school rugby tussles, Coaches Goulding and Alex Londry coming up regularly with smart squads. The Collegiate junior Bees have a morning melee on the morrow down Cobourg way to make it a full week-end for the Garnet and Greys.

Bantam Ball Final Here

Ball fans have one more chance to see their game played here ere Riverside Park is wrapped up in its winter blanket. Yeah, there is an OBA bantam final at 2.30 here tomorrow aft between Mimico and Ed Woodcock's local lads. Second of their best-of-three provincial finals. These boys dish up dandy ball and rate a big following after going so far. In fact, all our PMBA representatives in OBA playdowns did real well after a rather indifferent season, owing to lateness in getting the lights up. Next summer should see a hefty boom in minor ball, and the boys certainly deserve the best of breaks.

* * * * * *

Lindsay scribe says there's a puck rhubarb building up between those old senior "B" rivals, Markham Millionaires and Stouffville Clippers. Seems the latter hustled this summer and dug up a neat bank balance one way and another. So now they're offering the better Markham players contracts at so much per game to play for Clippers. The Markham club always worked on the basis of a players' split at season's end, and they're burned up at the Stouffville offer. In fact, Markham is demanding up to $2,000 for releases, and the whole mess will likely wind up in the laps of the OHA executive. Two years ago, Markham and Stouffville protested on each other having ineligible players and both clubs were tossed out. Ah, these hockey feuds....

* * * * * *

Saints Fast And Rough

Not too big a crowd showed up for the puck exhibition at Civic Arena last eve, but those on deck saw a lot livelier game than that shown recently here by the Boston Bruins. Those AHL-ers and Pacific Coasters on St. Mike's—some of 'em still battling for berths—didn't fool around. They laid on the wood and really gave the Petes a workout. As well as a 17-5 reverse. However, the senior "A" bunch was expected to be a better than a senior "B" squad, and the latter aren't in shape yet. Nor were the Petes at full strength. Coach Drake Jopling didn't play, nor did Honey Tompkins or Chum Fryia, who has been signed. Also two or three of the Orfuns' gridders will be out later with the local club.

* * * * * *

While the Petes were well beaten, they came up with a lot of fight and hustle the last half of the game, especially in the third. And they'll be plenty strong this semester, we expect. Johnny Baker, Bill Dalton and possibly Chuck Paul of the grid crew will join the lineup soon, and St. Mike's may give the Petes one or two who don't make the senior "A" club within the next week or so. The Saints should hold their own in "A" company as most of 'em have held down good paying puck jobs in recent years in pro company. The team has a Leafian hookup and the dough is quite good for so-called senior amateurs.

Seniors Open Schedule Tonight

TORONTO, Oct. 20—(CP)—The Ontario Hockey Association's "major" series — replacing the senior A league of previous years —opens in Hamilton tonight with Kitchener - Waterloo Dutchmen meeting Hamilton Tigers. The other entries—Toronto Marlboros and Toronto St. Michael's—open next week.

St. Mike's is the league's new entry taking Owen Sound's place.

Both Toronto teams won the Allan Cup—emblematic of the Canadian senior championship—in their last starts. The Collegians won in 1910 and dropped out of senior hockey. Marlboros won last spring.

New Players

An influx of players—mostly to St. Mike's—resulted when the Southern Division of the Pacific Coast Hockey League folded.

The Tigers have 10 holdovers from last year. Goalie Bruce Dale, who ousted veteran Art Childs last season, has back with him Bobby Laurent, Car l ond Tommy Smelle, Johnny and Ab Conick, Paul Miocinovich, Murray Comfort, Harold Hursley and Frankie Liscombe.

The visiting Dutchmen are relying on youth with a number of recent junior A competitors moving up.

Seven former players for Los Angeles bulk largely in St. Michael's plans. Johnny (Peanuts) O'Flaherty, formerly of Pittsburgh Hornets, is playing coach.

Another new coach, Bill (Flash) Hollett, is handling Marlboros. He has six Alan Cuppers back: Howie Lee, Don Rope, Bob Hassard, Bill Johnson, Al Buchanan and Scotty Mair. Ed Rafferty, who understudied Bas Bastien at Pittsburgh for four years, is goalie.

Mimico Takes Close One In OBA Finals

Mimico Painters defeated Ed Woodcock's baseball nine 4-2 yesterday in the first game of a best-of-three final series for the OBA bantam title, at Mimico.

Gary Day struck out 19 batters in a great show of hurling but was wild, too, walking eight. Each team had seven hits. Peterborough led 2-1 in the top of the eighth as the teams battled evenly down the stretch with Doug Ash twirling beautiful ball for the Woodcock lads but the Painters scored three in the home half, aided by a costly infield muff with two aboard on walks.

It was a fine struggle before a crowd of several hundred Mimico fans who treated the boys well in every way. Cuifo had two hits for four for the winners with Day hitting double to aid his cause and the team as a whole erred but once in a fine show.

Jerry Frizzelle drove in both his team's runs with two timely hits, one a double, while the sensational fielding of Jerry Strickland with four putouts (all hard) and Doug Leach, was a highlight of the game. Lorne Ball caught a fine game and the entire team tried hard all the way.

New Haven Loses Fourth Straight 8-1

By The Canadian Press

New Haven Eagles went down to defeat again Thursday night.

The luckless Eagles still have to win a game in four starts in the 1950-51 American Hockey League season and last night they fell apart in the third period before Buffalo Bisons, who won 8-1.

In the only other game scheduled, Cincinnati Mohawks edged out Indianapolis Capitals, 1-0.

In the third against Buffalo, New Haven's defence fell apart. Walt Atanas got two goals and one apiece went to Grant Warwick, Gordon Pennell, Paul Meger, Pete Leswick, Les Hickey and Don Ashbee.

Emile (The Cat) Francis, former National League goalie, shut out the Caps neatly for Cincinnati. Jean-Paul Denis scored the lone goal after only 62 seconds of play.

Wins Mile Race

KINGSTON, Oct. 20—(CP)—Cadet A. E. Tromanhauser, of Chatham, won the Greenwood Cup at the annual Royal Military College track meet Thursday, winning the mile in 5.04.9.

Sign Yukon Eric For Main Bout

Though disqualified for tossing the referee around in his last bout here, rough Lee Henning is untamed in the mat ring. However, he will be meeting the strongest of them all in the main bout of next Tuesday's card in the Brock Arena. Yukon Eric has been secured for this match, the powerful Alaskan agreeing to tackle Henning to top a three-bout card, negotiations are proceeding for the supporting matches.

Yukon Eric packs them in wherever he shows, being the most colorful heavyweight in the business today. He showed here last year before big crowds, and fans were amazed at his strength. He has a 56-inch chest and gets his victories by sheer strength. He rarely loses his temper but Henning might well cause him to do so Tuesday.

RETIRES AT LAST—Connie Mack, patriarch of baseball, finally decided he was through with an active role in the game recently when he handed over the reins of management of Philadelphia Athletics to Jimmy Dykes. At 87 Mack, the elder, had been actively connected with professional baseball for close to 70 years.

North Bay Wins 5-3 Over Cornwall

CORNWALL, Ont., Oct. 20 (CP) —Hugh Christie potted two goals in the final period Thursday night to give North Bay a 5-3 Eastern Canada Senior Hockey League victory over Cornwall Calumets. About 1,500 fans watched the Black Hawks tally their second win in the league play.

The North Bay squad, coached by Bucko McDonald, took a fast 2-0 lead on goals by Frank Ringler and Bill Dwyer. Chick Secchini added another at the start of the second frame before Jean-Paul LaFortune connected for Calumets.

Cornwall then took two quick goals as Black Hawks played two men short. Jim McEwen and Frank Couture evened the count, and Christie's third-period goals provided the win.

Les Canadiens Sont La In 4-0 Win Over Rangers

By The Canadian Press.

As hockey fans say in French-speaking Quebec when they feel they've a pretty good club: "Les Canadiens sont la."

Translated, that means coach Dick Irvin's Habitants are right on the beam in the National Hockey League this season.

They were just that last night in applying the old whitewash brush to New York Rangers, 4-0, before 14,155 approving fans.

Equally pleasing to the crowd was the performance of their hockey idol, Maurice (The Rocket) Richard who was his old high-scoring self. The Rocket fired home two goals, his third and fourth of the season.

Heat Wave

A record-breaking heat wave in Chicago forced postponement of the night's only other scheduled game between the Black Hawks and Detroit Red Wings.

The Hawks said it was the first postponement because of heat in the NHL's 32-year history. At 2 p.m. the temperature was 79, and the Stadium said it could not freeze the mushy ice to league specifications before game time.

At Montreal, Richard opened the scoring early in the first period while Rangers were short-handed, and the New Yorkers threatened often thereafter but never could get the rubber past goalie Gerry McNeil. He played a standout game, but the visitors were their own worst enemy in messing up a flock of scoring chances.

Rangers Short

Leo Gravelle made it 2-0 in the period on a rebound during a scramble, with Vern Kaiser and Billy Reay drawing assists. The Rangers were short a man during that one, too.

Richard's second goal came at 4:13 of the middle session, and the final tally went to rookie Frank King on a breakaway with Bert Hirschfeld.

The game was rugged in spots and several fistic flare-ups threatened but quickly petered out. In the nets, McNeil had 23 shots to handle compared with 33 for Charlie Rayner.

The victory left Canadiens still in the lead with six points in four games, three ahead of Chicago, Detroit and Toronto.

Special Force Trains On U.S. Tank Bazookas

OTTAWA, Oct. 20 (CP)—Canada's special United Nations brigade already is training in the use of the United States tank-ousting bazooka with which it will be equipped when it goes into action in Korea or elsewhere.

For weeks now, special brigade training centres like Petawawa, Ont., have been echoing to the roaring whoosh of this stove pipe-like, armor-piercing gun which goes off with a flash of flame and smoke but has no recoil.

The 2.36-inch model has been supplied to the force for training. By the time the brigade is ready for action it will be equipped with the heavier new 3.5-inch model.

Most other equipment of the special force, except for jeeps and trucks, will be Canadian. It's rifles will be .303-calibre Lee Enfields and it also will have Canadian two and three-inch mortars.

Baseball Shorts Here To Stay, Fans Approve

By RUSS NEWLAND.

OAKLAND, Calif., Oct. 20 (AP)—Hollywood's baseball shorts won't be any shorter next year but, like home runs and beefs with umpires, they are here to stay.

Fred Haney says so. The personable manager of the ball stars of the movie capital startled the Pacific Coast League in particular and all baseball in general when he trotted out his players in the abbreviated uniforms two weeks after the season started last spring.

Although he realizes the value of favorable publicity, Haney makes no pretense of being a fashion dictator. He contended at the initial viewing—and claims even more so now—that the scanties he decked out his he-men ball players are the ideal garb for hot weather. As an old St. Louis Browns hireling, he recalls the days when he persoired almost more than he aspired.

Haney made his seasonal report on the "Hollywood Shorts" while attending the coast league meeting here yesterday.

"They're the most practical uniforms for warm weather. Some of the players were a bit dubious at first. They didn't know how the public would accept them or how they would look."

But in Oakland, advance publicity attracted a crowd of 11,000 for a game that normally would have drawn about half that number.

Several other clubs throughout the country picked up the idea Mobile of the Southern Association was the second team to use the more ventilated clothing. Then the Bisbee, Arizona, club borrowed 18 sets of shorts from Haney late in the season. Attendances jumped from an average 600 to close to 2,000.

Haney got the idea for the shorts after reading a column by Braven Dyer, Los Angeles sports writer, who lamented the fact that other sports had made changes and improvements in equipment and ideas but baseball none.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Argos, Hamilton Fight Improved Rough Riders, Als

By The Canadian Press.

Toronto Argonauts, self-confessed underdogs from here in, and Hamilton Tiger-Cats face grim struggles this weekend as they try to hold their own in the tense race for the Big Four football playoffs.

In the week's headline eastern football games, Argos, stretched thin by injuries and the United States draft, invade Ottawa on Saturday to meet the Rough Riders. Also suffering from injuries, the Tiger-Cats visit Montreal on Sunday to meet the Alouettes.

Tied For Lead

Toronto and Hamilton are tied for first place in the league. Tied a scant two points behind them are Montreal and Ottawa. It's still a wide-open race to the league playoffs.

Playoff spots are already decided in the Western Conference, where the schedule winds up this weekend. Winnipeg Blue Bombers, assured of first place in league standings, are at home to Saskatchewan Roughriders, who also have made the playoffs. Edmonton Eskimos, the third playoff club, plays the Stampeders in Calgary.

Western At Toronto

The Intercollegiate League sees Queen's University Gaels play the undefeated McGill Redmen in Montreal, while University of Western Ontario are guests at the University of Toronto.

Sarnia Imperials of the Ontario Rugby Football Union play Toronto Balmy Beach in Toronto on Sunday in a game that will probably indicate once and for all the winner of the senior Ontario Rugby Football Union.

Argos have been crippled by the loss of star halfback Billy Bass with a back injury and outside Bob Heck to the U. S. Marine Corps. Big Bob Westlake has moved into Bass' backfield spot. Others injured have shown improvement.

Pass Defence

Hamilton stressed pass defence in its drills this week in an effort to stop Frank Filchok of Montreal, the big gun in Montreal's win over Hamilton in their last meeting.

In the Western Conference, the most crucial issue at stake is second place in the league standing. Saskatchewan s two points behind Edmonton but can take second place away from them if —and it's a big if—Edmonton loses to Calgary and the Riders beat Winnipeg.

Edmonton and Riders play a sudden-death game next week for the right to meet Winnipeg for the western championship.

Lots of injuries confront the Bombers for the Regina game. Buddy Tinsley, out with a bruised leg, will definitely not play. Others injured are John Brown, with a torn rib cartilage; Sleepy Knowles, torn knee tendons; Ron Vaccher, injured hip; Ed Henke, swollen ankle; Bud Korchak, twisted ankle; and Joe Aguirre, the league-leading scorer, broken finger.

So it's assumed that mostly second-stringers will be used to save the top men for the finals.

Johnny Bell, Regina's lanky end, won't see action Saturday, as he'll be scouting the Calgary-Edmonton game. But the Riders will be going all out to win against the Bombers.

Home Week

Most of the intercollegiate shenanigans will be in Toronto where thousands of Varsity alumni will flock in for homecoming weekend. But the crucial game is at Montreal—the first meeting this season of McGill and Queen's rated the two top clubs in the league. On the basis of steamroller wins over Western and Varsity, McGill is favored to take the championship.

Sunday's ORFU game in Toronto will be a benefit game for Mrs. Jennie Bell of Sarnia, widowed mother of Imperials' Jack Bell, who died of a broken neck after tackling Beaches' Carl Galbreath when Beaches beat Sarnia last Saturday.

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

A top-secret group in Toronto is wading through tons of mail applications for Grey Cup football tickets. The Canadian Rugby Union already has received applications for nearly 18,000 tickets for the Canadian championship game, says Secretary Percy Robinson. There are 8,250 tickets available. The remaining 19,250 are to be distributed by the various senior teams of the Eastern and Western leagues.

"We said no applications would be accepted after October 13," Robinson said. "But people are still writing in."

The mystery group, working at night on its own time, must mail two tickets to each of the 4,125 lucky letter-writers—and return the money sent in by the unlucky ones.

Mr. Robinson said none of the volunteer workers is connected with football. Their identity will be kept secret.

Jack Bell, fatally injured in a football game, was buried in Sarnia Thursday while his hometown flags flew at half-mast. Rev. Dr. J. M. MacGillivray, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, preaching the funeral sermon, described the 25-year-old substitute quarterback of the Sarnia Imperials, as "one of the best all-round footballers Sarnia has ever turned out" and said he "played the game cleanly and brilliantly."

Meantime, it was announced in Sarnia that a trust fund will be organized for Bell's widowed mother, Mrs. Jennie Bell. And in Toronto, officials said that proceeds of an Ontario Rugby Football Union game in Toronto next Sunday between Sarnia and Toronto Balmy Beach will go to the Jack Bell Memorial Fund established there.

At Lakeview Cemetery, Bell was buried with his football uniform. On the sweater was his number, 19, which will be permanently retired by the Sarnia club.

Woody Strode, 31-year-old pass-catching end with Calgary Stampeders for the last three seasons, has left for his home in the United States and will not be back this year, Coach Les Lear announced. The big negro import, who in the last two seasons has failed to approach the form which was a vital factor in Calgary's 1948 Dominion football championship, plans to resume professional wrestling on the West Coast.

Americans Score Heavily

North Americans scored heavily Thursday in the draw in Dublin for major prizes in the richest Irish hospital sweepstakes since 1947. Indications were that 40 to 50 per cent of the prize pool of £906,856 (about $2,675,224) will cross the Atlantic to the United States and Canada. Payoff of the big prizes depends on the outcome of the Cambridgeshire classic at Newmarket, England, next Wednesday. The favorite is Socrates, at 6-1.

Peter Pans Take Title

GUELPH, Ont., Oct. 20 (CP)—Toronto Peter Pans won the Ontario Junior Baseball championship Thursday by defeating the defending champion Guelph Regents 7-2 in the rubber game of the best-of-five finals.

Crescents' Goalie Moon Wootton Final's Mainstay

TORONTO, Oct. 20 — (CP).—The way it appears, from statistics, Goalie Lloyd (Moon) Wootton has put Owen Sound Crescents in the driver's seat for the Canadian lacrosse championship.

Wootton has stopped 140 shots in the five games thus far. Gord Pogue of New Westminster Adanacs has had only 98 shots fired at him from the sticks of the older and slower Crescents.

Despite Adanacs' shooting edge they have scored only 38 goals in the series. Crescents, now leading 3-2 in games, have scored 43.

The teams meet here tonight in the sixth game of the best-of-seven series. If a seventh game is needed, it will be played here Sunday.

Two Straight

Despite the deficit, Coach Bob Lee of Adanacs says: 'Why we are only one game down now. We were two down at one stage, but managed to win two straight. We can do it again."

If they do, Adanacs will be the first Western team ever to win a Mann Cup in the East.

To do it, they will have to stop playing-coach Doug Gillespie of Crescents, who has collected three goals and eight assists in the series. Don Campbell of Owen Sound had scored eight goals and five assists.

Reo Jerome of Adanacs has five goals and five assists.

Gillespie says that win or lose, he will quit the game after this series.

"There are three or four of us on the club who are finding lacrosse is a young man's game and won't be back next season," said the veteran, who has never before played in a Mann Cup final.

"We would like to bow out with a title."

Utilities Have Power

Utilities showed power this week in the Mercantile Bowling League to hammer out high pinnage of 3,113 and top game of 1,201. Vera Hopkins led the lasses with a triple of 794 and single of 333. Harold Cawker showed the way for men in singles with 296 as Gord Leonard proved best in the threesome class with 727.

Austin Jewellers blanked Loblaw's, and Braund's No. 2 whitewashed Bond's. The others were 3-1 wins for City Hall over Braund's No. 1, Utilities against A & P, and Lift Lock over the Prudential trundlers.

Barrie, Guelph Given St. Mike's Players

TORONTO, Oct. 20 — (CP) — Three former Toronto St. Michael's College players were awarded to Barrie Flyers and another to Guelph Biltmores in the Junior A series by the Ontario Hockey Association at a meeting here last night.

Glen Howes, Leo Labine and George Stanutz, who figured in an involved three-team deal, went to Barrie. Willie Marshall plays for Guelph Biltmores.

St. Michael's protested both deals.

The Toronto team got $2,000 and players William Sexton and McDonald from Barrie. Toronto Marlboros got Danny Poland from Barrie in the same transaction.

The meeting, which lasted until 2:30 a.m. also dealt with other players' status.

Other Changes

Guy Henri, formerly of Cornwall, was awarded to Stratford Kroehlers. Henri, it was found, had signed first with Stratford and later with St. Catharines Tee Pees. The OHA ruled his first card was legal, and that transfer papers from Cornwall to Stratford were in order.

Harold Scholley, suspended a year ago following a dispute over his birth certificate, was reinstated. He last played for Welland.

In the case of Willie Marshall, St. Mike's was given $500 and players Ken Lauftman and H. Negladuk. The ruling said Lauftman must not be transferred by the Toronto team during the 1950-51 season.

Manager Protests

Manager Father Flanagan of St. Michael's announced that for purposes of hockey the team wished to be regarded as a hockey club and not as a college taking part in hockey.

Secretary George Panter said the Barrie-St. Michael's-Marlboros deal resulted from a desire by Marlboros for player Danny Poland, formerly of the Barrie Junior B team. Stafford Smythe, acting as agent for St. Mike's, arranged the transaction. Later, St. Michael's protested the arrangement.

WILL THEIR MURDERERS GO FREE? Lying side-by-side in the gulch where they were lined up and shot by North Korean Reds, these are bodies of American victims of Communist war atrocities. The Army has established five clear-cut cases of such atrocities, involving 84 U.S. soldiers, but as yet no attempt has been made to find the guilty persons. This famed picture of an infamous act was taken by NEA-Acme Staff Correspondent Stanley Tretick.

Reds May Go Unpunished War Crimes Experts Think

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Communist leaders guilty of ordering the aggressive war in Korea and the atrocities against UN troops and South Korean civilians stand a good chance of going unpunished.

This is the candid opinion of Washington experts on war crimes.

It is based on the apparent neglect of both the UN commission and US Army in Korea to go after specific evidence which will pin the crimes on those leaders who ordered the atrocities and aggression.

The US State Department liaison officer with the UN commission there claims that it is the Army's job to gather the evidence against the guilty persons.

So far the only evidence gathered by the mission that atrocities have been committed are items such as piteures of bodies. The State Department spokesman says there has been no attempt made by UN officers in Korea to locate or identify the criminals guilty of ordering the atrocities, let alone the underlings who carried out those orders.

At the Pentagon an official spokesman claims it is the view of the Army that the gathering of evidence against specific war criminals is the job of UN officials.

The latest UN commission report estimates that there are at least 25,000 victims of North Korean atrocities, including civilians and UN troops. The latest Army report says that five clear-cut cases of war atrocities, involving 84 US soldiers, have been established.

The report also lists 20 other "possible cases" involving 95 US servicemen. These cases are still under investigation but have not been definitely established as "clear-cut violations" of the accepted rules of warfare. Finally, the report lists three cases of possible atrocities committed on more than 1,000 South Korean civilians.

Unless guilt can be fixed on individuals, in an international court of law, a war crimes expert states, the most that will ever come of these atrocities is a lot of speech-making before the UN. And it will obviously be impossible to invoke the historical precedents of Nurenberg and the Tokyo trials, and hold up individuals before the world as charged with special crimes.

It is pointed out that two weeks after the German surrender, trained crews of experienced criminal lawyers were working in Germany gathering evidence, which would stand up in a court of law, against the Nazi leaders. The job was not turned over directly to the Army because there was a obvious need to gather other than military-type information.

Never Challenged

As a result of the care exercised in gathering specific written evidence and eye-witness testimony, the fairness of the way the Nurenberg trials themselves were conducted has never been challenged even by the Germans, although the theory of a victor trying the vanquished has.

However, the argument against the victor trying the vanquished does not apply to the Korean case, it is pointed out. The UN as an independent world agency is now in existence and can act as an independent judge.

Former members of the legal teams which gathered the damning facts of the Nurenberg trials point out that specific evidence against war criminals disappears very fast. Witnesses forget or leave an area. Papers and documents are destroyed. They claim there is little chance to go back and find information which has once been overlooked.

They fear the time that has elapsed since South Korea was freed has been long enough for much evidence to have been lost. Further, they contend, if the confusion between the Army and the UN contries as to who should go after such evidence, no fair trial in the Nurenberg tradition could be held.

However, another important factor in the whole problem is the actual capture of the war criminals. To date there has been no report of any high North Korean officials or military brass captured. You have to have defendants in hand to conduct trials against them.

Finally, the experts fear, unless specific evidence against specific Communist officials is obtained the world propaganda value of the atrocities will be lost.

Russia, by her participation in the Nurenberg trials, is automatically on the moral side of prosecuting war criminals. It would be difficult for Soviet UN delegates to oppose the prosecution of such crimes on a theoretical basis. But if there is no evidence against specific individuals the Reds will have an easy way out.

United Kingdom Considers Long Term Newsprint Sale

LONDON, Oct. 20 (Reuters)—Harold Wilson, president of the Board of Trade, said Thursday the government was prepared to consider long-term contracts with the Canadian newsprint industry if they would alleviate Britain's newsprint shortage.

He was questioned in the House of Commons about British newspapers' recent decision to return to wartime rationing because of a scarcity of newsprint.

He told the Commons that even for dollars, Britain could not obtain more than 10,000 tons from Canada this year.

He blamed the deterioration in the British newsprint position during the last six months to the "very high rate of consumption, particularly by the United States newspapers, asd their imports not only from Canada but to some extent from Scandinavia."

Conservative member Samuel Storey urged experiments in making newsprint from waste sugar-cane fibre. He produced a copy of a newspaper printed in the United States last January on newsprint made entirely from the substance.

John Dugdale, Minister of State for the Colonies, said production of newsprint from waste fibre cane had already been tried but had not been a success.

BETHANY, Oct. 20 — Four anthems sung by the choir at the 50th anniversary in Bethany United Church Sunday morning, were the same anthems as those sung at the opening service 50 years ago. The choir was under the direction of Harry Preston and Mrs .Ona Thorndyke was at the organ.

F. Allan Clark of Toronto was guest soloist and was accompanied by Norman Lowes of Oshawa.

The Rev. T. G. Husser of Millbrook was the guest minister at both morning and evening services.

Letters from former members and ministers of Bethany circuit were read and special tribute was paid to the builders of the church.

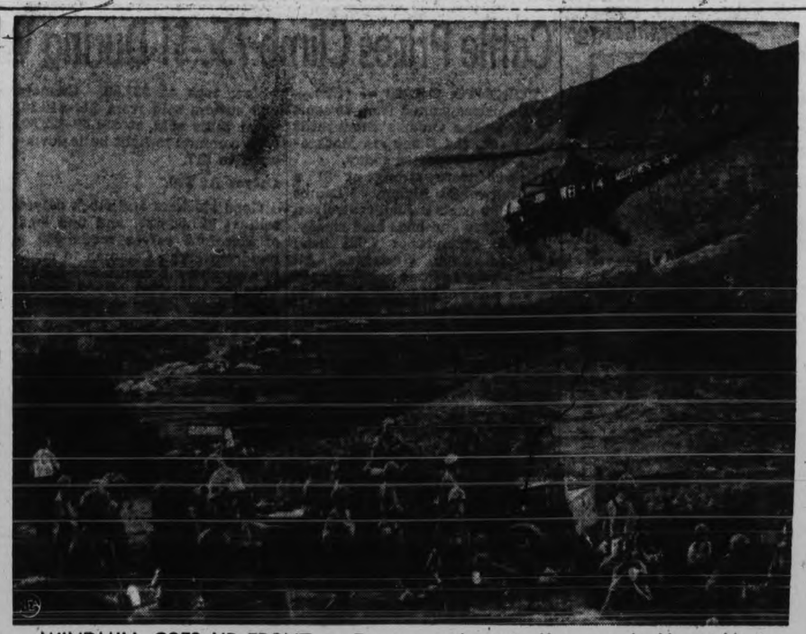
Award Contract For Fire Escape At Dixon House

Work began Wednesday at Dixon house on the fire escape which was recommended at the September meeting of the recreation commission by Fire Chief George Smith. Tuesday night at the October meeting the commission awarded the contract for the work to Harold Ephgrave, Peterborough building contractor for $1,185. The price first quoted for the escape stairs was under $700, but it transpires that this did not include full installation costs.

The escape was one of four recommendations following an inspection of the building by the Fire Chief, O. Wilson, fire inspector, Ald. Hurrell Dodds and recreation director Alex Sinclair.

Fire Chief Smith reported that lives could be lost on the third floor from smoke, heat or gas, there being but one set of stairs to use and only one small window over the stairs which was next to impossible for women and children as a way of escape.

Harold Ephgrave in quoting the $1,185 price for the work, told the commission that the installation will involve cutting through the main roof and the stone wall to the level of the existing floor at the third floor line.



Instal Doorway

They will also instal a proper doorway and a door with panic bolts. The walls and the roof of the new doorway will be finished in keeping with the existing building. Also the windows on the second floor will be changed to give access to the second platform of the fire escape.

Besides being a meeting place for various organizations, Dixon House on Park St. north is the Peterborough handicraft centre and Peterborough nursery school, both sponsored by the Recreation Commission.

WINDMILL GOES UP FRONT — For the first time in any war, the helicopter went to work on the battlefronts of Korea —and won itself a new role. Here a Marine 'copter takes off over the heads of First Marine Division troops to fly over the enemy lines and report positions.

New Role For Helicopter Found After Korean War

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON —(NEA)— The "flying windmill" has won itself a new and vital role in modern warfare as the result of its stellar performance in Korea.

Rush orders for more than 500 new helicopters of various types, costing about $100 million, have been placed by the armed forces. Only the limited capacity of the helicopter industry, which had turned out 1,100 of them prior to Korea, is keeping the services from ordering more.

Numerous important missions have been found ideally suited to the up-and-down aircraft. Most dramatic has been the fast evacuation of wounded from the front lines. It has kept the death rate among battle casualties at a record low.

Tactical Tool

The 'copter has proved an invaluable tactical tool in combat for directing artillery fire, directing fighter planes to ground targets and general reconaissance. It furnishes ground troops amazing new mobility by dropping men on strategic hill-tops, behind enemy lines or at any spot difficult or impossible to reach by ground.

On the seas around Korea the helicopter added to its already established importance in all kinds of rescue work.

Newest use is in the location and destruction of the deadly floating mines which threaten UN shipping and have already killed many Americans.

The helicopter patrols the water where a mine is reported. A man with a rifle rides along. When the mine is spotted a rifle shot is all that is need to detonate it.

Most credit must go to the Marines for pushing the use of helicopters for every purpose since World War II. The first combat tests have proved the possibilities which the leathernecks saw in the flying windmill. However, the big interest of the Marines in the helicopter is for moving assault troops. Marine orders, as a result, are mostly for the big Piasecki "flying bananas."

Evacuating Wounded

Army's interest is in both the small Bell models for liaison and the big jobs for moving troops and wounded. Army orders call for 80 Bell H-13s which carry three passengers and are equipped with skids, and 70 10-place H-19 helicopters.

No helicopters were used in combat during World War II to any significant degree. Until they proved their sturdiness in Korea it was feared they would be very vulnerable to enemy fire, and dangerous to fly. However, only one Navy pilot has been killed in a helicopter accident in Korea. And there is much proof of their ability to "take it."

One helicopter which had been evacuating wounded landed with 50 bullet holes in it and was still able to fly.

Another false belief was that the helicopter was too difficult to maintain to be of any use in a combat area. The Marines have answered that by doing all maintenance and repairs at night.

The helicopters now in use in Korea are practically all obsolete, even though they have done an outstanding job. The ones on order will be more stable, easier to fly and sturdier. The bigger, faster new ones will be able to fly in the neighborhood of 150 mph with a range of 400 miles and be able to stay in the air up to six hours.

And there are helicopters with even better performances in the secret stage of development. Also in the works in a tiny helicopter, which will be considered expendable which would take the place of the parachute in landing airborne troops.

703 On Loose From Special Force

OTTAWA, Oct. 20 (CP). — A defence spokesman said Thursday 703 members of Canada's special United Nations force were absent without leave at the end of last week's four-day leave period from the various training camps.

He did not know the exact number of deserters—men absent without leave for more than 21 days—but said it would not be anywhere near the 703 figure.

The spokesman said army authorities were not worried about the number of absentees. It was probable that many of the men had travelled to cities considerable distances from their training camps and probably now were en route back to camp after overstaying their leave a day or two.

The spokesman said the figure was not out of proportion in a force of 10,000 men.

Preventive Plan For Dental Health

MONTREAL, Oct. 20 (CP). — Dr. R. P. Lowery of Toronto, president of the Canadian Dental Association, said Thursday that a country-wide plan for dental health prepared by the association is "the first concrete preventive dental plan in the world."

Dr. Lowery told the annual fall clinic of the Montreal Dental Club that the plan calls for the appointment of a dental health officer in each existing health unit in the provinces. Its basis was early and continuous education in dental health.

Dr. Lowery said appointments of dental health officers had been made in health units in four Ontario centres—Welland, Halton County, Peel and Sudbury, and that the plan is "working very well" in these areas.

Indian Pulp

NEW DELHI— (CP) Experiments for preparation of wood pulp from the manufacture of artificial silk yarn have been carried out by the Travancore-Cochin Government. Investigations showed that "Eeta Bamboo," plentiful in the Tranvancore-forests, is well suited.

Canadians Shaken By Train Wreck

ONEIDA, N. Y., Oct. 20 (CP)— Mrs. Oliver Kaura of South Porcupine, Ont., said Thursday's wreck of the New York Central Railroad's North Star express was "all over in a few minutes."

Mrs. Kaura and her husband escaped with only a shaking up, although two persons were killed and 15 injured when the train was derailed.

"I was sleeping and I woke up when I heard the bang," she told reporters. Then I started screaming, but I soon stopped.

"My husband wasn't excited at all."

Among other Canadians aboard were William Smith of Kitchener, Ont., who was returning from a trip to the United Kingdom. He also escaped uninjured.

Excited and chattering, some 100 of the passengers arrived in Toronto Thursday night, about 10 hours later than they expected.

"The people of Oneida were really fine," said W. H. Bilbrough of Toronto. "They looked after us and got us everything we needed."

Employ Germans

NEW DELHI —(CP)— The government of India has decided to permit Indian firms to enter into direct contracts with German technicians instead of acting through official agencies. About 100 German specialists are already employed in India.

City Knows How To Pour Liquor

TORONTO, Oct. 20 (CP). — The Nova Scotian steel-making city of Sydney was held up today as an example of a community with wise handling of its liquor-drinking.

It was cited by Rev. J. R. Mutchmor, secretary of the United Church of Canada's board of evangelism and social service, who yesterday attacked Toronto as a heavy-tippling city of sin. He said in a statement that Sydney has no taverns or cocktail bars and its only liquor outlets are provincial government liquor stores and brewery warehouses.

"When the proposal was made in Sydney that, under a new provincial law, beer be sold by the glass, ministers and labor leaders went to the Sydney council and voiced their objections. As a result, there is no public consumption, only liquor stores and brewery warehouses."

FARM VALUE

First Settled Near Kinmount Icelanders Marking 75th Anniversary of Trek

On a cold October day 75 years ago, 285 settlers from a North Atlantic island arrived in Winnipeg. They were the first Icelanders to come to Manitoba. Today, there are about 25,000 in Canada. They are among the country's smallest ethnic groups. Only a small portion of the 285 settlers stayed in Winnipeg. The rest continued to the present site of Gimli, 60 miles north, where on Oct. 21, 1875, they began an exclusively Icelandic settlement.

The story of Icelandic colonization in Canada began with the arrival of young Sigtryggur Jonasson in Quebec, Sept. 12, 1872. The following year about 300 settlers arrived, and each successive year the influx continued until the first World War almost terminated the flow.

Recalls Settlement

Manitoba's Icelandic gain was Southern Ontario's loss, for, the original settlers who founded the settlement of Gimli tried to make a start in the north-east corner of Victoria County 76 years ago at Kinmount.

Robert Hughes, 83, who lives four miles east of Kinmount on the Monk Road remembers the Icelanders in those parts in his boyhood. His father hired one of the men to work on his farm for a while and he remembers the worker as a very decent fellow. Mr. Hughes says that a diphtheria epidemic was nearly fatal to the first colony and describes where many were buried south of the village in unmarked graves.

Sigtryggur Jonasson when he arrived in Canada as an advance agent was advised by a boat companion to explore various parts of Ontario. He did so and travelled widely and was impressed and wrote to friends back in Iceland. As a result 180 people arrived in Halifax in 1873, a few of them went to Wisconsin and the remainder to free land grants in the Muskoka district around the present village of Rosseau.

Jonasson visited with them and helped them explore adjacent areas around Parry Sound and the Magnetawan River but they were not satisfied with that part of the country for a future home.

News reached the Rosseau colony the following year that 365 more immigrants were on their way to Canada. The Ontario Government Land Agent at Rosseau sent Jonasson to meet them at Quebec.

Most of the immigrants were very poor and required immediate employment. The old Victoria Railroad was then under construction between Lindsay and Kinmount and they were directed there to work.

News of their coming made Kinmount people both excited and curious. They thought, for some strange reason, that they were Eskimos and this name has stuck with them in Kinmount district for the past 75 years. Mr. Hughes still refers to them as such.

The settlers had no soon started work in Kinmount than construction on the railway, which had run into financial difficulties, stopped. It left the Icelandic people in dire straits.

Eyes On The West

The general topic of interest to Eastern Canadians at that time was the opening of the West and John Taylor of Kinmount who had befriended these people from the start went to Ottawa at their request to secure Government assistance for establishing them in the West.

Cabinet ministers were dubious about Icelanders as desirable citizens but Taylor went over their heads directly to Lord Dufferin, the Governor General. This gentleman was a sympthetic ally, having once visited their homeland. They impressed him favorably and he was instrumental in having the Government pass a settlement grant bill on their behalf.

Four delegates from the Kinmount colony, including Jonasson, went West in 1875 via Milwaukee to Fort Garry. The Red River country did not look inviting on their arrival, a grasshopper plague having eaten off everything in the area. They ranged for 100 miles and finally decided on a section ,now Gimli, on the west shore of Lake Winnipeg at Willow Bar.

The Kinmount group, now totalling 250 people after the diphtheria plague, left Victoria County in September of 1875 and by water from Sarnia to Duluth and overland, reached Fort Garry and their new land section.

No preparation had been made for their arrival. Before them lay the desolate lake shore. Further inland were small but endless bogs.

Survived Winter

The first winter proved a severe test. An improper and milkless diet and poor housing caused deaths from scurvy, exposure and starvation.

During the summer, some 1,200 new settlers arrived direct from Iceland. They formed an almost unbroken settlement along nearly 40 miles of lake shore.

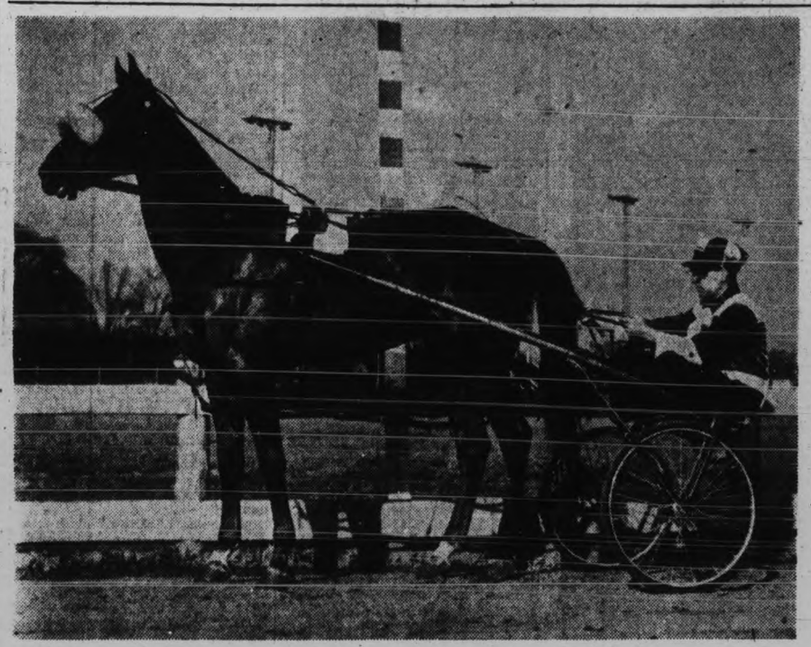
The following winter was the most tragic of the settlement's history. The colonists set up their own constitution, drew up a complete code of laws and elected their own representatives.

Provision was made for tax revenue, road-building and support of widows and orphans. Every man over 21 years of age was required to contribute two days of 10 hours to road building or pay $2 for each day he did not work. Electors also paid an annual fee of 25 cents to the general district fund.

Strangely, there was no criminal code of any sort: perhaps it was deemed unnecessary.

The affairs of government functioned under this constitution until 1877, when municipal government was regularly instituted and the territory was formed into municipalities Gimli and Bifrost.

Civic Hospital Reducing Operating Loss



A prediction that Civic Hospital would soon be "overtaking" its operating deficit was made Thursday night by T. T. Rodger, treasurer of the hospital's board of governors.

Mainly, he said, the deficit had been caused by over-expenditures in certain departments. The over-expenditure had been caused in at least one case—the kitchen—by the higher cost of living.

The deficit for the first nine months of 1950 was $26,140.23, and Mr. Rodger expressed the hope it would be pared by about $10.000 in a month or so.

"We are in better financial shape now, and can hope to overtake some of the deficit," he remarked.

Deficit for the month of September was $5,363.60. Revenue totalled $54,646.13 for the month and expenditures were $60,009.73. Revenue for the first nine months was $403,278.42 and expenditures were $429,418.65.

BLIND SIX-YEAR-OLD RACEHORSE Victory Hy owned by Stan Blewett of Peterborough, burned up Ontario harness tracks this season with 74 firsts in 34 days of racing, each race ranging from one to three heats. The horse ran its fastest mile at Thorncliffe Track in 2:07.6 and was purchased by owner Blewett two years ago for $300 from Harry Farrington of Brantford.

Kiwanis Club Has 98.2 Rating

With a rating of 98.2 per cent the Peterborough Kiwanis Club stood second at the end of the first seven months of this year in the Ontario, Quebec and Maritimes district. Niagara Falls with 98.4 per cent was first. The rating is finalized from the club's activities each month.

Other ratings were: Toronto Riverdale, 95; Toronto St. George, 93.3; Kingston, 92; Forest City, 92; London, 90.7; West Toronto, 90; Westboro, 90; Barrie, 90; Ottawa, 90; Toronto, 89; Montreal, 88.7; Dartmouth, 88.4; Orillia, 88; Timmins, 87; Oshawa, 87; East York, 86.7; Owen Sound, 84.5; Hamilton, 84.

Niagara Falls was also well ahead in the attendance with 96 per cent, while Kingston placed second with 90 per cent. Peterborough and Orillia were third with 88 per cent attendance. Forest City was close with 87 per cent.

Blind Victory Hy Raced To 74 Proud Firsts In Year

Practically everyone likes horses and one horse, Victory Hy, owned by Stan Blewett of Peterborough, is a favorite across Eastern and Central Ontario with both racing fans and horse-lovers. His popularity this summer increased by leaps and bounds due partially to his handicap—blindness, but mostly to the impressive record which he has set. The smooth-running six-year-old pacer, purchased for $300, burnt up Ontario race tracks this season for 74 firsts in 34 days harness racing.

His feats to date placed him in the 2:15 class which is fast, with or without sight. Mr. Blewett has entered him in the free-for-all event Saturday in Colborne.

Maybe Victory Hy's greatest feat, besides having 74 firsts this year, was setting the track record in Markham. He paced the mile track in 2:10 minutes to shatter the old record of 2:10.8 minutes.

Thorncliffe Firsts

In mid-July Mr. Blewett raced Victory Hy at Toronto Thorncliffe track where he chalked up three firsts. There he also ran his fastest mile, a breezy 2:07.6 minutes.

During the Peterborough Exhibition, Victory Hy's name became a common-place around the racetrack. On the Thursday night he easily swept the 2:15 class heats and then claimed the four-days' feature race, the free-for-all Saturday night. He repeated his performance in both these races in Lindsay.

There while passing over the subway under the Lindsay track Victory Hy noticed the hollow sound and pulled to the right. He rallied to take a three-heat victory over the highly regarded mare, Lucy Lester, owned by H. Corcoran of Kingston who had previously won a $4,000 stake race in New York State.

Other first and some seconds were collected in events at Belleville, Picton, Toronto, Roseneath, Wausaga Beach and other centres in eastern and central Ontario.

Recently the proud owner said: "Your eyes are his eyes. I've had about twenty horses in thirty years and Hy is one of the tops. He's a real smooth pacer, perfectly mannered and easy to handle."

Jim McIntyre of Peterborough, who owns the pacer, Turnabout, has driven the spirited Hy throughout the summer. Last year Orvil Fallis, also of Peterborough, was on hand to be with Victory Hy for 54 firsts.

Blind at Two Years

Sired by Victorious Hal out of Crusana in the United States, Victory Hy is a highly sensitive standard-bred but became blind when two years old. In 1948 he was purchased from Harry Farrington of Brantford after the horse raced a 2:19 on a heavy Picton track.

When making an appearance this year in western Ontario Mr. Farrington said that he had too many horses at that time and decided to sell the blind horse to Mr. Blewett. Now he thinks the wrong one was sold.

Head high, Victory Hy jogged around the Morrow park track Wednesday afternoon, seeming to realize that he has nearly completed a highly successful year and that winter is ahead when he will be able to rest upon his laurels in a warm stall.

City Replies To Hon. T. L. Kennedy

Discussed Moving Market For 20 Years

Change of the produce market location has been discussed for more than 20 years as traced in the municipal records of Peterbroough and submitted to the Hon. T. L. Kennedy, Ontario Minister of Agriculture.

This statement was prepared by City Clerk Outram on the instruction of the property committee in reply to the Minister's letter which was inspired by a recent interview with him by several of the local market vendors.

"A special committee under the chairmanship of Ald. James Dutton, in 1944 made a very exhaustive study of this matter.

The committee had the benefit of the advice by Mr. G. F. Perkin of your Department, and also a marketing expert of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa."

These two men, jointly, and separately, made a survey of marketing conditions in Peterborough, particularly the matter of how the market could be improved if moved to a new site. Their recommendation was that the market should be located on George St. between rink and Townsend Streets, which is the location the city council has fixed now for the new site of the market. City planning board agrees with this recommendation."

"Shortly after the decision to move the market was reached, six years ago, the firm of Blackwell & Blackwell, local architects, were engaged to draw plans for a market building. The plans were drawn."

"However, in the last few years the economic importance of the market has dwindled seriously, and no one who is fully informed of the basic economic facts in relation to the market, could seriously recommend that the council obligate the ratepayers in Peterborough to the sum of possibly $100,000 to erect a new market building."

"The operation of the present market is not a financial success as far as the city is concerned, but is being underwritten by the ratepayers to the sum of $2,500 a year."

"In June, 1947, the council submitted to the vote of the ratepayers the question of whether the market should be sold for commercial purposes. The ratepayers voted "Yes" to this question, 1,510 and "No" 349."

"This shows that the ratepayers of Peterborough whose interest, you will agree, must be the chief concern of the city council, do not favor the retention of the market on this particular location."

"It is not the present council's intention to sell the property, but to retain it for a properly operated municipal parking lot, which will benefit the commercial life of the downtown area, now being throttled by shortage of parking space."

"The long-term planning in respect to the new location of the market, which is adjacent to the fastest growing part of Peterborough, commercially, contemplates that if it is shown that the market regains its former economic worth to the community, the council will then seek a vote of the people to finance the erection of the market building, plans for which have been in readiness for some years."

"The council hopes that the recital of these facts will assure you, sir, that the citizens of Peterborough in this, as in other matters touching its welfare as a community, have sought the best advice, and are moving in a course along well considered plans."

Copies are being sent to Hon. H. R. Scott and Mr. G. Norman Moncrief.

Make 35 Appeals From Brookdale On Assessments

Assessment appeals by 35 of the Brookdale property owners are listed for hearing by the Court of Revision Thursday, Oct. 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the city council chamber.

Brookdale housing subdivision was a Sands and Bateman project at the north end of the city, west of Chemong Road. Purchasers and present owners of the 35 houses comprising the group of appellants are basing their claims to the court on the general ground that their assessments are excessive.

Appeals agains property assessments total 66, which with 83 miscellaneous items total 149. Many of these latter items are for change of school support.

The members of the court are John A. Harstone, Thomas C. Ephgrave and Fred Finnie.

Receive Offers For Purchase Of Ten Stores

Ten stores on George and Simcoe Streets are included in Toronto Savings and Loan Company properties for which offers of purchase have been received.

The George St. parcel comprises the Canadian Pacific Railway uptown ticket and telegraph office; Grand Central Apartments; Elsie Bennett jewellry store; Lewis Optical office; Laura Secord store and Warne's jewellry.

The Simcoe St. stores are Sam's Cut Rate, Shockey's Cleaners, S. R. Davis, barber shop, and Adamson and Dobbin, plumbing and heating engineers. They are immediately west of the Kingan Hardware Co. Ltd.

It is understood that the offer of Kingan Hardware Co. for the Simcoe St. property has been accepted, but that transfer of title may not be effected until December. Prospective purchaser of the George St. block has not yet been disclosed in the negotiations.

Plans of Kingan Hardware are to expand their store premises on Simcoe st. to provide increased facilities for their expanding business, but that the Adamson and Dobbin store will not be included in their plans of enlargement.

Drama Festival Plans For April

A drama festival similar to Peterborough's first drama festival held last December will take place in the city again this season. This was decided at a meeting of the Peterborough Drama Festival committee held Thursday evening at the YWCA.

The committee voted to put back the festival dates until early spring, and fixed on April 12, 13 and 14, Thursday to Saturday the third week after Easter.

A distinguished dramatic critic will be asked to adjudicate the non-competitive festival. Professor Arnold Edinborough was the adjudicator last year.

The meeting, presided over by the president, Peter McCombe, elected its executive for 1950-51 season as follows: president, Peter McCombe; secretary, T. J. Allen; business manager, W. A. Brown; publicity manager, Alex Sinclair; stage manager, Ray Gillies. Representatives of participating or existing drama groups from Peterborough and outside points like Lindsay and Port Hope are to be named to the executive.

Letters notifying the date of the festival and other pertinent information are being sent out to drama groups in a wide area centred on Peterborough.

Lighted RR Flare Thrown At Police Station Three Others At Taxi Office

Two Peterborough men were today charged with causing a disturbance Thursday night following the throwing of a lighted railway flare at the police station. The flare landed on the sidewalk in front of the station. They are Joseph Fontaine, 75 Park St. South, and Paul Imming, Antrim St. Police say further charges may be laid against the pair. No plea was taken today from either of the pair and they were remanded in custody to October 23. Crown Attorney John A. Bradshaw opposed bail. Imming has been out on bail awaiting hearing of a charge of false pretences in connection with the $100,000 swindle last fall of a Toronto finance company.

Police are also investigating the throwing of three similar flares at an Aylmer St. taxi office. Three phoney telephone calls to city ambulances which brought the ambulances to the same cab office are also being investigated.

Shortly after the flare was thrown at the police station Imming and Fontaine were arrested by PC's Jack Morrow and Donald Jones.

The flares are about a foot long and three-quarters of an inch in diameter, and are fitted with a spike at one end. They will burn for approximately 10 minutes.

Natural Gas For Port Hope?

PORT HOPE—If the council and voters of Port Hope give their approval, natural gas for domestic and industrial use will be piped into this town by 1953.

The Port Hope council was told this week that a multi-million dollar plan to pipe natural gas from Texas oil fields through Port Hope to the big industrial centres of Eastern Canada has already been laid before 14 Ontario municipalities.

The Eastern Gas Syndicate Company has asked the Port Hope council to ask the people at this winter's municipal election if they would be interested in this project.

This gas company's legal representative, Glen Wilton ,explained to the council that his company would like an exclusive frnachise, but will accept any franchise the council wishes to offer. He was unable to give a clear picture of what the price of natural gas would be to local consumers, but stated that it would be 1953 before the first gas could be piped into local homes. Mr. Wilton said that he would have price details at a future meeting.

The council decided to hold a special meeting soon and invite Mr. Wilton to sit in on a round-table discussion on the matter.

SNOW PLOW ARRIVES

The Canadian Pacific Railway doesn't appear to have heard of Charlie Levine and his meterological essay a week or ten days ago in terms of an 'open fall'. They have run the snow plow into the local yard, in the midst of blue skies and a wonderful sun. As for Mr. C. S. Levine, it transpires that "characters" telephoned him last week about delivering the goods. Since then he thinks he has done a pretty fair job. A whole week of perfect weather, and he says no one would dispute it.

Army Units Go To Picton For AA Practice

A combined scheme of the 50th Heavy A.A. Regiment, R.C.A., and the 28th Technical Squadron RCEME, will take place Saturday and Sunday at Picton for anti-aircraft firing drill. This will be the first undertaking by the two Peterborough reserve force units.

On strength from the regiment will be 54 of all ranks, 12 officers, 10 warrant officers and non-commissioned officers, and 32 other ranks. From the squadron will be two officers, five NCO's and five other ranks. Roy Leamen of the administration and training staff will accompany the units with the other staff members, Staff Sergeants Gerald Dunn and B. L. Smith, and Sgt.-Major S. R. Holtom.

Original plans included the use of the regiment's 3.7 guns but these have been changed. The guns and radar equipment at Point Peter will be used. This includes three 3.7 guns and the most modern radar sets.

On route, midway between Picton and Belleville, the units will occupy and defend a strategic position. The procedure of movement and occupation of position will be that usually employed in wartime. Also a meal will be served by the Royal Canadian School of Artillery from Picton.

Sunday the unit will fire from 10 a.m. until 2:30 at the Point Peter range. They will be firing at radar targets.

All ranks will parade at the armouries at 8:30 a.m. Saturday and will leave at 9 a.m. Some of the unit will have to miss the preliminary movements due to working until noon but will leave the armouries at 2 p.m. and join the units in Picton for the firing practice.

Capt. Leamen said today that other schemes are planned for the units but this weekend's will be the last until the spring. The purpose of the schemes is to give the strength of the regiment additional firing practice. Only at the summer camp has the regiment had firing practice.

County Farm Notes

By HARRY THEOBALD

Robert Jackson and Lyle McMillan of Peterborough County Prize Winners At International Plowing Match — County Juniors Off To Judging Competitions At O.A.C. — Canadian Holsteins Highly Regarded In South America — Jas. D. Moore Compliments Peterborough Club Leaders.

Canadian farm boys and girls established this year a new record of enrolment with 54,081 in the age group of 10 to 21 years as members of 4,010 clubs.

Enrolment last year was 50,281. Since 1931, when the Canadian Council on Boy' and Girls' Work was organized, enrolment has increased from 21,142, or 155.5 per cent.

Average age of members this year was 14.5, and average membership per club was 13.9.

James D. Moore, Ottawa, Public Relations Officer of the Council, commends several pictures relating to the Peterborough Achievement Day as published in the Examiner.

Members of the Forestry Club which was organized in Peterborough county this year will be interested in Mr. Moore's comment.

First Forestry Picture

"The farm forestry project is a new one. In fact Ontario is the only province which has adopted it. Other provinces, however, are considering this project. We could make good use of the Examiner's forestry club picture, especially for use in answering enquiries which we receive from time to time. This is not only the best, but the first picture I have seen of juniors taking part in farm forestry work.

We feel this project has great possibilities, not only in establishing and taikng better care of woodlots, but also in soil conservation and in planting windbreaks around farm homes, particularly on the prairies.

The picture of the Peterborough club leaders together with Frank Paterson and Bob Bell is also a splendid one, especially from the standpoint of the story it tells. This is the type of development our Council is encouraging across Canada because we realize that in order to extend junior work in rural areas, and to increase its usefulness, more local leaders are required.

Praise For Leaders

Mr. Paterson and Mr. Bell are fortunate in having within their county a group of young men with previous experience and club members to act as local leaders. At the same time it is a tribute to each of these men in developing this program of local leadership in our favorite county of Peterborough."

Probably Mr. Moore did not write this letter to the Examiner for publication. He wished to obtain prints of the pictures taken by Nick Nickels of the Examiner staff and published in the report of Achievement Day. However, it is a compliment to the local Club leaders, and the Examiner is glad to relay it to them.

Associated with them and the local branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture was Mr. John Bell, district representative of the Ontario Forestry Department, who gave substantial help in the forestry club work. As Mr. Moore comments, this was an innovation in the 1950 club program here, and the experience should be a great help in revising the club project here next year.

Leader co-operation was the more praiseworthy for the sincerity the group advisers and coaches put into their voluntary effort. They acted as Big Brothers to the boys and girls who enrolled in the Peterborough club, and their assistance was actually beyond estimating.

Ontario this year had 1,280 clubs with 13,667 members. Largest enrolment was 1,876 in 111 dairy calf clubs. Saskatchewan led the national field in beef cattle work with 174 clubs and 2,744 members. Ontario had 26 farm forestry clubs with 450 members, the only section of Canada already engaged in this work. Quebec had the most dairy calf clubs, 179 with a membership of 3,961.

Ontario was also the most active province in the special work for girls under the title of Home Economic. There were 827 of these distaff clubs with 6,236 members in this province.

IN THE PLOWING MONEY

Lyle McMillan of Norwood and Robert Jackson of Otonabee were Peterborough winners at the International Plowing Match.

Mr. McMillan marked up two thirds on Wednesday and Thursday, and on Friday finished second in the tractor class, three or more furrows, 12-inch wide, row crop style. He also won a J. I. Case special for most points scored by a competitor using Case equipment.

Mr. Jackson finshed sixth in two tractor classes in Wednesday and Thursday, and was next to Mr. McMillan on Friday.

TEAMS TO O.A.C.

Murray Pimmett and Francis Walsh of Otonabee are the Peterborough team in the beef calf judging in the Inter-County Live Stock Judging Competitions at O.A.C. today. These provincial finals are arranged for the members of the junior clubs, following their county achievement days.

Gwelda Bolton of Douro and Archie Davidson of Otonabee are the local dairy club team; and Orland Brown of Asphodel and John Waterman of North Monaghan won their way to eligibility in the tractor club competition.

The teams representing the clubs of Victoria county are: from Oakwood calf club, David Linton, Little Britain and Bill Mark of Valentia.

Lindsay Kiwanis grain club: Glen Cornell and George Nokes of Oakwood; Lorneville junior grain club Charles and John Lambert, Woodville.

Robert Bell accompanied the Peterborough teams to Guelph. They left Thursday afternoon and will be back Saturday. LeRoy Brown of Lindsay is with the six Victoria county boys.

JUDGING AT OAC

Northumberland junior farmers are represented at the Inter-County Competition, at OAC, on Friday, Oct. 20 by a swine club team composed of Bob Reddom of Cedrington and Claire Irwin of Campbellford. Also a Calf Club team composed of Del Merrill, Campbellford and Bob Lisle of Havelock. Another team is planned for the Royal Winter Fair and will be composed of Jack Dorland and Ross McMaster of Hilton and Carman Atkinson of Roseneath. This contest features all types of livestock and the group will visit the OAC Nov. 10 and 11 for coaching before going to the Fair Monday Nov. 13.

COUSINS WIN US TOUR

Two lads from Victoria county were among the top prize winners at the International Plowing Match at Alliston.

Gerald Bell, Woodville, and Ivan Bell, Kirkfield, carried off the top award in the Inter-County competition, horse plowing in sod. The competition was open to one team from each county. A team in this case meaning two plowmen whose combined score determined the county's standing.

For winning the competition, the two young men will enjoy a two-week trip accompanied by Victoria county agricultural representative LeRoy G. Brown, down through the central United States next spring. The trip will take them to leading agricultural and conservation projects in that part of America. The Salada Tea Company sponsors the trip.

Gerald Bell was coached by one-time international champion, Alvin Mark, and Ivan Bell was coached by his father, Melville Bell. The boys are cousins.

REPEAT IN DISTRICT SHOW

Northumberland winners at Warkworth, county Black and White Day, stood up stoutly in the district championship company here Wednesday. Craig Nelson's junior champion, Inka Supreme Jim, was also grand champion at Warkworth, as winning senior yearling bull; and on Wednesday he was second in his class, and reserve junior champion.

With Rag Apple Craftsman he won the junior yearling bull class at Warkworth, and was reserve junior. In the district show he placed first in his class of three entries.

Lorne Evans and Son of Warkworth had the grand champion female at Warkworth, Alice Texal Righto, first in the milking three-year-old heifers. In the same class here Wednesday, eighteen entries, she was again placed first.

Junior champion at Warkworth was the winning senior yearling heifer, Glenkindie Rag Apple Sally, from the herd of E. L. Anderson, Campbellford. She won her class in the district company and went on to be junior champion of the big show.

Craig Nelson won the junior get-of-sire class at Warkworth, and his Supreme Rag Apple won the same class in the company of 10 entries at Peterborougr this week.

One of the last to leave the Morrow Park ring was Ralph Banbury, Brighton, county agricultural representative, who was highly pleased with the success of his Northumberland breeders. He lingered to the last in a faint hope that possibly his county might beat out Ontario for the county herd banner. In his listing he was placing an Ontario county composite herd in front. Mr. Banbury had the satisfaction of seeing Northumberland to improve its position from last year, moving up from third to second in the herd award.

BACK FROM S. AMERICA

If South American breeders could get import permits and dollars, they would be just as active as ever in the Canadian Holstein market, George Clemons, secretary-manager of the Canadian Holstein-Friesian Association told the Examiner at the championship show Wednesday.

"The cattle we have been selling to breeders in Chile, Colombia, the Argentine and other sections of the country have been doing well," he said. "They don't have the extremes of heat and cold in our year. The weather is generally more moderate.

Our good milk producers may not have quite the same volume records as when they were here. If that is so, I think it is because they don't get the same care. The South Americans let their cattle run in larger numbers than we do. Our farmers have the smaller type herd, and for that reason the cattle get more attention."

Mr. Clemons said interest in Canadian cattle south of the equator "is at the highest peak since we began exporting." The only difference today "is that they are dollar hungry." The South American breeders like our quality and the good attachment of the udders on our cows. But, that is only a detail, important as it is. I can name twelve men who told me they were planning to come up here next year. There may be quite a number of others."

"The best quality of milk I've seen in my travels is produced by Dario Meirelles of Campinas, Brazil. His cows are washed twice a day. He has a white tile milking parlor, the milk is pasteurized and bottled, and sells as grade A. Average bacteria count is a low 500. This producer gets a special price in Sao Paulo for his product. There are several other dairies in that district producing similar quality milk and with the same general type of management and procedure."

Mr. Clemons said they were outstanding exceptions.

JACK FRASER BUYS "COLLA"

Joseph T. Tully of Otonabee is reported to have sold his good looking two year old heifer "Otonabee Pabst Posch Colla" to Jack Fraser of Streetsville. After the district championship show she was trucked off with some of the entries from York.

"Colla" was grand champion female at the Peterborough Black and White Day, first in the two-year heifer class as judged by George McLaughlin of Oshawa.

In the class of 19 two-year-olds this week she was placed third by J. Derno Innes, judge of the district show, and the Coughlin Brothers' entry Trent Valley Monogram was moved up to first place with Craig Nelson's Judy Supreme Poschi Gandhi in between.

GAMBLING AT SOME FAIRS

It is high time the Ontario Department of Agriculture renewed the ban on gambling devices at fall fairs, says the Orillia Packet-Times.

Oshawa Times reports some substantial sums of money were pocketed by gamblers who took advantage of visitors to the Oshawa Fair. "This is an instance in which people need to be protected from their own folly. There is no place at an agricultural society fair for the light-fingered fraternity who live by their wits. . . . The Department of Agriculture might very well give the lead by refusing to make any grant to a fair at which the attractions include gambling games and devices."

Why should these two Ontario newspapers piously propose that the Provincial Department of Agriculture assume a responsibility which rests primarily on the directors of their own fairs? They rent whatever ground space is occupied by the cheap booths and stands that are set up solely for the purpose of taking money from unexperienced people who do not know how the roll-down and other boards and fleecing devices are operated. That is where the responsibility should be faced, by the directors of fairs and exhibitions in their planning, months in advance, for their autumn enterprises.

Any agricultural enterprise that has to depend for even a small part of its financing on such hard-bitten characters as those vaguely mentioned by the Oshawa Times is placing itself in shady company.

EATING HIGHER ON THE HOG

The American consumer of pork is demanding leaner cuts, and in that respect the market is gradually turning toward the standards that have been long adopted in Canada.

A recent survey of the trend of this change shows that in 1905-19, the value of lean cuts in 100 pounds of live hog was 48 per cent of the value of the total product, compared with nearly 65 per cent in 1949. Lard dropped from about 22 per cent to only 10½ per cent; and fat cuts from 26½ per cent to less than 21 per cent.

The report by the U.S. Department of Agriculture includes this comment: "Requirements of consumers for foods of high fat content have been reduced because of increased use of labor saving devices and shorter work days and weeks.

The sharp rise in consumer incomes in the last decade has made it possible for many more consumers to be more selective in the purchase of foods. . . The problem facing hog producers is primarily that of a lowerqd demand for lard and the fat cuts of pork. Higher yields of lean cuts and lower yields of fat cuts are possible by changing the type of hog produced. Considerable progress has been made by animal husbandry specialists and some producers through selective breeding. A higher proportion of lean cuts also can be obtained by marketing hogs at lighter weights."

GETS ARGENTINE BEEF

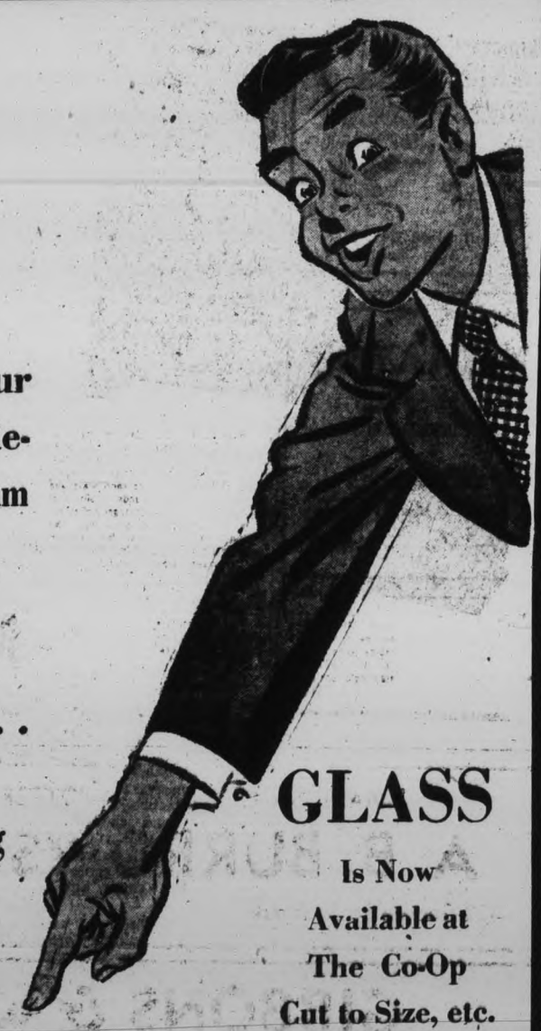
Five thousand tons of Argentine beef have been sold in private importers in west Germany. The reported price, about 19 cents, Canadian, a pound, was slightly less than the price asked by Argentina in the current United Kingdom negotiations.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S speech at San Francisco early this week in which, he offered a full "partnership of peace" to all Asia, backed by military might, has been termed by observers as one of the best straight-from-the-shoulder ever delivered by him. He aimed a particularly lusty warning at Russia and here he is shown in a fighting mood as he drives home a hard hint that further aggression must be curbed.

St. Luke's Summer

When the hedges of the hawthorn and the wild rose are red with their fruit, and the bracken is brown and brittle on the border of the hardwoods, you know that the summer of St. Luke is at hand. In the ecclesiastical calendar, October 18 is allotted to the memory of the gentle physician of the evangelists, the author of the third Gospel. That date was Wednesday of this week, a dreamy day of soft sunshine whose amber light seemed to be distilled from the pale gold of the poplar leaves, fussing and rustling restlessly in every vagrant breeze.

Those recent days were of the quintessence of autumn, illusory of summer returning to resume possession of the land. That midweek afternoon called irresistibly to the Monaghan countryside. Juncoes flitted in the underbush, the chickadee chattered from a white birch, a friendlier fellow than most of the birds of June.



Leaves that had sprouted from a maple of last winter's felling were a deep green, their underside a shade of mauve in such a compelling contrast of color that you struck through the dry fronds of the ferns to verify it. Ten paces from the road you flushed up five partridges in a startling whirr of feathers, and watched them wing swiftly into the woods, safe from blasting guns.

Haze on the farther trees, the sweet pungence of the new carpet of leaves underfoot the silver threads of gossamer on freshly plowed earth, the smoky gold of the tamaracks, evanescent beauty of a brief October afternoon. Less transitory was the long, broad hawthorn hedge, dark-red fringe of a green field of fall wheat, and the assortment of burrs to be picked one by one from ankle to elbow in nature's way of scattering its seed. A day for remembrance when the winds have finished their tattering of autumn's scenery.

Canadian Conceit To Think Ourselves Different, Nicer

By JACK SCOTT

Ths visit into the United States is fast destroying one of my most cherished Canadian illusions: the nice old fable that we're really different from the Americans.

Most Canadians I know—or, at any rate, those like us who come this way infrequently—have a pretty harsh idea of Americans. Come on, now, ain't it the truth? Don't you honestly think the Canadian is really a nicer sort of person than the American, more reserved and polite, less fiercely in pursuit of the elusive buck, steadier, soberer, sincerer? Darn right you do.

And this, it seems to me, is our greatest conceit. For whatever we think of Americans, we sure do under-estimate Americans and the American character.

Coming from me, this ought to have a certain mild curiosity value. As a columnist I spend a lot of time looking with horror at the kind of things that go on down here.

Only yesterday, when we were visiting in Boston, the most interesting localy story of the day concerned the fight being made to ban a painting of Paul Robeson from an exhibit of portraits of great American Negroes. Which is the kind of corkscrew thinking that we in Canada sometimes smugly call "typically American."

I am one of those who hold, too, that America has plenty to answer for in its waging of the cold war. The graft and corruption in this kind of political system, the ownership and abuse of the airwaves by advertising men, the rampart racial intolerance— well why go on? From north of the border there are a great many unpleasant aromas drifting our way from these United States.

So you come into the United States with the knowledge of these things and the prejudice they leave and with your nostrils twitching expectantly. And you begin meeting Americans of many types (not "typical" Americans' since there's no such animal, just as there is no "typical" Canadian), and you discover that people are pretty much the same on both sides of the 49th parallel.

Back Home

I think it was this realization that led me to spiurge well beyond reader interest on four columns about a family in Maine. We'd met a lot of families in Canada. Many different types from coast to coast. And what interested me most about Johnny Longmore's US family was that life for them is essentially the same as it is for those we'd come to know in our own country.

Again, at Boston we spent two nights in a trailer camp and met some young people, most of them veterans with youngsters, working like the devil to scrape together enough to buy a home of their own.

Brown Eyes and I sat with two of these families until very late one night. Listened to them talk about their lives. The realities and the dreams, as well.

They simply wouldn't fit in snugly with any preconceived American type; they were modest when they should have been brash, Analytical and even cynical about politics when they might have been innocent. That talk reassured me about America as nothing else could. Later I hope to do a column about that conversation. At the moment something particular about it interests me.

One of the men, Bill Maynard, had asked me what I saw wrong with the United States. I recited my list. On many points he agreed with me. On others he presented argument. At the end, he said this: "Don't you have anything that corresponds in Canada?"

I thought it over later. Thought of that nice, refined lady in Edmonton who said we'd like such-and-such a mountain resort because "they keep the Jews out." I thought of the divorce statistics in my own province where one out of three marriages fail. I thought of those glass companies pleading guilty to a combine to fix prices. I thought of the young would-be lawyer banished for his politics. Thought of a lot of things.

None of these could be called "typically Canadian." None could be taken as a guide to the Canadian character. And yet, isn't it precisely on that kind of evidence that we judge the average American? I am afraid that it is.

The Unknown

Since Washington is so keen these days to have Americans "understood" abroad (or so the syndicated pundits say) I'm wondering if they're doing anything in their propaganda to "sell" the American citizen. If we alongside in Canada are confused, what must the rest of the world be?

When you think of the American tourists abroad (the monster of all tourists), when you think of the kind of news America makes through its hoodiums and freaks, when you think of the concave carnival mirror Hollywood holds up to America for the world to see, when you think of the moronic and irresponsible quotes that come from some of its hillbilly senators, when you think of the America of the trashy, sexy best sellers—why, it's a miracle that America has any friends at all beyond its borders.

And so it seems to me tragic that the people who are the real backbone of the United States—the John Longmores, the Bill Maynards, the Frank Snows—are the unknown Americans. They represent all that is decent and understandable in an America that a lot of us outsiders view with a peculiar mixture of admiration and loathing.

But don't underestimate that forgotten American. With a little luck, he might be your neighbor.

Eisenhower One Of Best Dressed

NEW YORK, Oct. 20—(AP)—This year's best-dressed man, as chosen by the Fashion Foundation of America, include Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Defence Secretary George C. Marshall and Phil Rizzuto, New York Yankee shortstop.

The foundation, sponsored by more than 100 custom tailors and clothes merchants in the United States, cited Eisenhower for "his splendid selection of ties and hats."

As president of Columbia University, Eisenhower was picked in the field of education. Among statesmen, Marshall was chosen because of "his preference for brightly-hued suits." In the sports field, the diminutive Rizzuto was said to "set the style for short men" with his "bright but not 'loud' suits and accessories."

Others included bandleader Guy Lombardo, in the music category; actor Jack Carson, motion pictures; Warren Austin, chief U.S. delegate to the United Nations; actor Don Ameche, television; Winthrop Rockefeller, society.

Labor Board Refuses Hearing

TORONTO, Oct. 20—(CP)—The Ontario Labor Relations Board Thursday refused a union request that it grant new hearing on two certification applications because union witnesses had not been properly subpoenaed.

The request was made by the Hotel and Restaurant and Bartenders' International Union (AFL-TLC). The union seeks certification as bargaining unit for employees of two Kingston, Ont., hotels—the Fort Henry and the La Salle.

The board heard the two cases last Aug. 9. The union served summonses on three witnesses but only one attended the hearings. The board said the summonses were not properly served.

It refused to grant a request for new hearings.

It said, however, that the contradictory evidence placed before it at hearings made it impossible to "determine whether there has been interference with the rights of the employees . . ."

It said it will send one of its examiners to Kingston to investigate the situation.

MARY MOORE SAYS:

Soup Made With Split Peas Nourishing and Economical

There will be readers of this column who will wonder if I am giving away a trade secret, when I give you a recipe for Split Pea Soup.

However, those same people know that there is more than one way to make any kind of good soup, and also that the secret is still safe.

This recipe is tried and true and purely Canadian. I can go further and say it is purely Emem, and I am proud of it.

As you know, to most Europeans soup is a standby of their diet, and one of the reasons is because it is such wholesome, nourishing and economical food.

Pea Soup goes even further—for it is from 40 to 50 per cent protein originally. That is why it is so satisfying and has that usually expensive stick-to-the-ribs quality.

Emem's Yellow Split Pea Soup

One pound yellow split peas, 2 quarts cold water, one-half pound ground onions (about 1½ cups), 2 bay leaves, 4½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon sugar, 2 stalks celery cut up including the leaves, 4 to 6 ounces ground sweet pickled cottage roll or peamealed back bacon or smoked side bacon or smoked end slices of ham.

Sort over and wash peas. Soak them in a large kettle in one quart of cold water overnight. They should stand in a cool place. I have had them go sour overnight on a hot night in the summer.

Add all remaining ingredients including the other quart of water and let simmer, covered, over very low heat, until peas are tender and mushy. Leave in all of the ingredients except the bay leaves. If you have a deep-well cooker be sure to use it for this, for the soup sticks to bottom of soup pot unless carefully watched.

If you cook this on gas you should put an asbestos mat over the burner.

If your family is accustomed to you being unorthodox and you can get away with serving this soup as the main hot course, pass whole wheat rolls, hot of course, to be eaten with it.

Then, make an especially attractive salad plate: in nests of lettuce place a small portion of shrimp salad mix—(see below); put celery hearts and gherkins and tomato wedges and cucumber slices on the plate too. Pumpkin pie (see below) is an ideal dessert for it boosts the protein content of the total meal.

Shrimp Salad (to be put in lettuce cups): 1 small can shrimps, drained and trimmed, 1 cup finely chopped celery, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, and if desired 1 tablespoon French dressing. Mix together just before serving time and serve in lettuce cups garnished with olives and fancy cut slices of unpeeled cucumber.

Filling for Pumpkin Pie: Two well-beaten eggs, ¾ cup well-packed brown sugar, 1½ cups canned pumpkin, ¼ teaspoon ginger, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ to 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1½ cups whole milk or 1 cup milk and ½ cup cream. Pour into pastry-lined pie plate, bake at 450 deg. Fahr. 10 minutes and 350 until set.

ed rind and juice); four tablespoons boiling water.

Sprinkle sugar over beaten yolks, and then beat all of the above ingredients together. Cook in double boiler until thick. Cool. Beat whites of three eggs, add one-half cup sugar and gently fold into the lemon custard mixture. Pour into baked crust and brown quickly in a hot oven.

Advise Use of Cheese

Health experts regard cheese as a good source of calcium protein, Vitamin A and riboflavin. It should be included in the diet at least three times a week by itself or in a combination with other foods.

Incidentally when planning the day's meals be sure to include foods from every group in Canada's food rules. These groups include milk, fruits, vegetables, cereals, bread and meat. A balanced diet which is necessary for good health requires some of each of these foods every day.

Organ Prodigy

WINNIPEG (CP). — Donald Hadfield, 18, starting his fourth year as organist at St. James Anglican Church, spent six months studying in England this summer and earned the degree of Associate of the Royal College of Music in organ.

COOKBOOK OF THE WEEK

Chicken-Asparagus Crown Sandwiches Tempt Appetite

ROUNDS OF BISCUIT dough make delicious sandwiches if filled with creamed food and served hot.

Every homemaker runs short of ideas every once in a while and for a whole storehouse of new ones the Culinary Arts Institute series of 24 cookbooks is just the thing.

This series is being made available, a cookbook a week, to readers of this newspaper. So far the titles released are Snacks, Leftovers, Cakes, Poultry, Pies, Soups, Salads, Meats, Fish, Eggs, Vegetables, Desserts, Potatoes, and this week "500 Tasty Sandwich Recipes."

These cookbooks, besides having all the standard recipes, are packed with novel, tasty, and unusual ideas both as to the ingredients that go into recipes and in the way they can be attractively served. Photographic illustrations on every page give added ideas for dressing up food, whether for family or company so that its very appearance beckons and says "Eat me."

Sandwiches can be just sandwiches, but for one idea after another for delicious spreads, tempting combinations, and tasty mixtures, the Sandwich Book holds all the answers. And even if you want to serve a hot meal sandwich style, there are any number of ideas, of which this is only one;

Asparagus Crowns

Cut baking powder biscuit dough into rounds using biscuit cutter for half of dough and doughnut cutter of the same size for remainder. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 12 to 15 minutes. Put together into sandwiches with creamed chicken or ham, using doughnut shaped biscuits for tops. Insert several asparagus tips in centre of each.

To get your copy of the Sandwich Book or any of the other cookbooks in the series you may be missing, all you need to do is clip a coupon from any issue of this newspaper and present the coupon—one for each cookbook, with 25 cents for each book to the Examiner office, your Examiner carrier or at Braund's Home Food Markets. If you prefer to order your copies by mail, send the coupons with 30 cents for each book (5c additional for postage and handling) to Cookbook Department, Examiner, Peterborough.

Vegetables With Meat Make Tasty Dinner

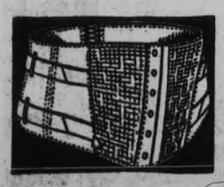
By KAY REX

OTTAWA, Oct. 20 —(CP)— Next time there's a roast for Sunday dinner mother might try cooking the vegetables with the meat. Not only is this a tasty oven dish, it also is a labor-saving device which permits the lady of the house to spend more time in the living room with the family than at her usual Sunday post—the kitchen.

Sliced onion cooked with a roast of beef adds to the flavor of this popular food. Carrots and potatoes are the vegetables suggested for oven cooking with beef. They should be put in the same pan with the roast about an hour before dinner is due to be served.

To Top Off

Gingerbread and whipped cream might complete this "oven" meal.



Hot water gingerbread—ingredients: 2¼ cups flour; one-half cup sugar; 1½ teaspoons ginger; one-half teaspoon cinnamon; three-quarters teaspoon soda; one teaspoon salt; two-thirds cup molasses; one egg; four tablespoons softened fat; one-half cup boiling water; one-half cup seedless raisins (may be omitted).

Mix and sift dry ingredients, add raisins which have been washed and floured. Make a hole in the middle of mixture, pour in molasses, melted dripping, beaten egg and boiling water. Mix quickly. Pour into buttered pan and bake in a moderately slow oven about 50 minutes.

If a baked pie crust is on hand, Sunday work could be cut down even more by whipping up a lemon chiffon pie.

Ingredients: one-half cup sugar; three egg yolks; one lemon (grat-

Monthly meeting of Queen Elizabeth Home and School Association was held on Tuesday, with President Mrs. Harry Race in the chair.

Announcement was made of a bake sale to be held at the market Saturday, October 28.

Guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Quirt McKinney of the Peterborough Normal School, who spoke briefly on the advantages of group singing. He then introduced a new song book, and taught the members several songs.

It was announced that November meeting would take the form of open school and would be an afternoon meeting.

Miss Brown's class won the attendance prize.

A social half hour followed the meeting.

University Women Hear Highlights Zurich Meeting

A number of new members in the University Women's Club of Peterborough were noticed at this month's meeting which was held Thursday evening at the Public Library, the regular meeting date having been changed on account of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Speakers were two club members, Miss Helen McGregor and Miss Margaret White, both of whom attended the tri-ennial conference of the International Federation of University Women at Zurich, Switzerland, during August.

Miss McGregor gave her impressions of the conference under seven main headings. She was particularly impressed by the efficiency with which it was conducted and with the opportunity for influence which such an organization has, since it is one of the 82 in the world with consultant standing in United Nations.

She was one of two Canadian teachers attending the working group on school education with French, Austrian, Scottish, English and American teachers. There were more than 600 delegates representing 30 countries — the only ones not represented being behind the iron curtain. It is interesting to note that the Federation was formed by British and American women with Canada the third country to join. Miss McGregor found that Canadians are held in higher esteem than they themselves seem to know.

Her account of a day spent in Basle, a very old university centre on the Rhine at the point where Germany, France and Switzerland meet, when she and Miss White joined a history group and did a walking tour of the city, was extremely interesting.

She then gave a report of the committee on policy and finance where discussion of the membership fee being raised to enable wider activity of IFUW took place. She said a news letter will come direct to every member during the coming year.

Discussion of the legal and economic status of women was on the agenda and Miss McGregor reported it is proposed, during the next three years, to work on the following points: nationality of married women; equal pay for women and property rights. The Federation has a representative on the Status of Women Commission she advised.

In conclusion she commented on the deep respect for learning shown by people on the other side of the Atlantic. "To them the end of education is not in being an expert in your particular line —they think culture and learning are also necessary to life and that it is on the common ground of culture they can study and work for the human rights of mankind." Theme of the conference was "Human rights, the task before us."

Miss White told members of the lighter side of the conference, outlining the entertainment offered and also reporting on her own working group on economic status of women.

Mrs. C. G. Boyd reported to the meeting on the Canadian Federation executive meeting held in Montreal last June.

President Mrs. J. E. Watters presided.

These models are carried out in lightweight wools, jersey and silk. A black velvet mid-calf sheath has a battle dress jacket and a sequined, ground-length tulle overskirt.

The suit-and-coat line are traditionally Molyneux—all easy to wear, with bright accessories susch as berets in colored kid and matching gloves.

Sweaters have been interpreted in a Parisian manner in the Balmain Boutique collection. His sweaters, shown with dickies during the day and revealing daring decolletes in the evening, are unique.

Sweaters for "after five" and evening wear are made in metallic wools, and worn with full evening-length skirts as well.

Fabulous furs are shown at Maggy Rouff's. The Federation of Norwegian Fox Breeders provided Mme. Rouff with fox pelts for a full-length evening coat and a day coat.

An unusual feature of another fur coat shown by Mme. Rouff was a stole which was passed round the neck and slipped under a belt where it formed a muff loop. White bear is used for a skin anorak and cap worn with plaid slacks.

Veteran Dancer Ruth St. Denis Plans Big Tour

By ADELAIDE KERR

NEW YORK —(AP)— A salome in her 70s swirls across the stage, her slender body swaying in sinuous rhythm. Ruth St. Denis, who swept to fame 50 years ago, is dancing again.

A hushed audience forgets her years in the spell of the dance and the effect of youth created by the dancer. With a swirl of veils the dance spins to a close and the audience bursts into applause.

One of the most famous American dancers of all times, Miss St. Denis is planning her most ambitious season in years. Cofounder with Ted Shawn of the famous Denishawn School of the Dance, she and Shawn may team for the first time in years for a winter tour. Whether that materializes or not, she has an extensive schedule outlined through the east and midwest. She started off with a recital at Carnegie Hall Sept. 29.

Runs Dancing School

Miss St. Denis leaped to fame at a time when most American entertainment was keyed to the vaudeville circuit. She took her oriental dances to vaudeville and scored a tremendous hit. Later she and Shawn, another famous dancer, married, toured the United States and the orient and founded Denishawn at Los Angeles.

After their separation years ago, Shawn founded the Jacob's Pillow University of the Dance which he still runs at Lee, Mass. Miss St. Denis launched, and still operates, the Ruth St. Denis School of Oriental Dancing. During the war she worked at Douglas Aircraft Co. hemming box tops. Both gave solo dance concerts and at rare intervals appeared on the same program. Miss St. Denis danced at Jacob's Pillow this summer. Shawn was master of ceremonies for her Carnegie Hall program.

The tall, slender Miss St. Denis moves with the grace of a woman of 35. Her blue eyes sparkle as she tells the secret of keeping young.

"First you have to keep spiritually awake," she says. "Without my faith and religion I wouldn't be alive. Next you have to be tremendously interested in something creative. And, of course, you have to take care of the body's health. I watch what I eat and do at least 20 minutes of exercises every day."

These days she dreams of a colony where youngsters with creative genius or talent can spend half their time developing their art and the other half earning a living.

"The great trouble most young people of genius have is that they have to work all day for a living and so have only the dregs left for creative work," she says. "I want 500 acres to organize a system which would give them a chance to work part time and use the rest to develop their talents.

"Living quarters and workshops would be built on it. Farming and crafts would make it self-supporting. Everybody would have to work to support himself, but his trade would balance his career. Creative people are generally clever at expressing themselves on many levels. Many a tenor could be a good gardener. Many a writer has a real yen for electricity.

"In this colony the creative work would be done first, when the mind and body are fresh. Also, young people would have a chance to be exposed to many arts, so that they would find the one that really belonged to them."

So far, it's only a dream. But "Miss Ruth" has dreamed before —and brought her dreams to life.

DOROTHY DIX

Man's Gifts Good Indication Of State of His Affections

Dorothy Dix

DEAR MISS DIX: We have been going together for several years. Not engaged, but crazy about each other. We are in our very late 20s and I want to marry and settle down. He wants to continue this way indefinitely. He goes gallivanting around with other girls, though I am still the best, etc., but not all. On my birthday he gave me a beautiful present, though not as handsome and well chosen as the year before, yet he boasts of the money he is making and his future plans. Is the present episode significant? Does a girl have a chance by sticking to a man and hoping that something will hit him on the head and make him realize that she is the girl that he wants to marry, or does he get tired and call it quits after a while?—REDHEAD.

ANSWER: I think a man's gifts are not only highly indicative of his sentiments toward a woman but that they are just about as good a pre-matrimonial picture of his character and disposition as she is ever likely to get. Also, they are prophetic of the way he is likely to treat her if she marries him.

First Impulses Lavish

You can almost chart the course of a man's affections by his presents. When he first falls in love his impulse is to lavish gifts upon the woman of whom he has set his heart. He is alert to gratify her every desire. His offerings are chosen with an almost occult knowledge of her tastes and wishes. And then as his romance wears thin and he begins to lose interest in the woman, there is a gradually descending curve in the number and quality of his gifts until he gets to the place where a man throws a check in his wife's lap at Christmas and on her birthday—if she has prodded him into remembering it—and tells her to get herself something she needs.

So I think you are quite right in recognizing that the falling off in your birthday presents indicates that your friend is cooling off in his interest in you and that your little affair is about over. Which is lucky for you. For when a girl is hovering around 30 she has no time to waste on a man whose intentions are not serious. Evidently your friend regards you as merely a pleasant acquaintance, a nice little playmate, and that's all.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: What is your advice to a wife who wears herself out trying to keep her house spick-and-span so that she has no time or energy left to spend with her husband and children?—NEGLECTED HUSBAND.

ANSWER: Cleanliness and order are virtues that can easily be turned into vice, and when they are overdone they can wreck a home much more effectually than slovenliness and dirt can.

A home is primarily a place in which a family can take its ease and comfort and it becomes no home if it is turned into a sanitary prison in which everyone goes in fear and trembling of mussing up a pillow, or tracking up a floor, or disarranging a bookshelf.

Yet all of us know women who make homes like that and who are such cleaners that they literally sweep their husbands and children out of the house into the streets, or clubs, where they will not be continually told to hang up their hats, or pick up their papers, and, for heaven's sake, not to drop cigarette ashes on the rugs.

There isn't man in the world who wouldn't rather have a good-natured wife who was pleasant and comfortable to live with, and who had time to stop and talk and play with him, than to have a domestic drudge who worked herself to death to keep the front steps polished.

DEAR MISS DIX: We are a group of business girls between 19 and 22 years of age and we would appreciate any information you can give us about how to spend our evenings after working hours. Please don't suggest bridge. We are tired of it and want to find something more interesting.—ELSIE.

ANSWER: Why don't you take up the study of some subject in connection with your work? Get somebody to come and talk to you once a week about the technique of your job. Or get books from the library about your particular line and read them and discuss them. Doctors and lawyers, if they are any good or make any success, spend every hour they can spare reading and studying their profession, and working girls could pursue the same plan with profit.

Hollywood Stars Entertain Korea Veterans

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 20 (AP)—Hollywood is trying to do its best for the UN forces fighting in Korea, I found in a talk with Stan Richardson, head of the Hollywood co-ordinating committee.

"Our major operation has been at the Fairfield-Suisun air base in northern California," said Richardson. "That is the most immediate need, since the wounded are flown in there and the replacements flown out. Such stars as Alan Ladd, Ruth Roman, Keenan Wynn, Shelley Winters, Janet Leigh, John Lund, Audrey Totter, Vic Domone and Howard Keel have gone up."

Hollywood is trying to fulfill other requests for appearances, but that is difficult. The USO has been inactive and there is no source of funds to supply transportation for the talent. Thus far the army has made no move to co-ordinate requests and supply transportation and housing.

Al Jolson, the first entertainer to hit Korea, had to pay his own way across the Pacific. Bob Hope managed to get a couple of planes for his big troupe by appealing to Washington. A group of performers from the Masquers Club charted their own bus to entertain at Camp Cooke, some 200 miles away.

"Harvey" has been faithfully recreated in the film version. The charm of the play has been brought to the screen and all audiences should find it highly satisfying. James Stewart, as the companion of the six-foot rabbit, seems to have trouble getting into the role but finally manages to make it. Josephine Hull as his fluttery sister is the hit of the show.

Recruiting Unit Leaving City

The Canadian Army's mobile recruiting unit, in the Peterborough district for the past three days, moved to lakeshore centres today. There it will recruit for the active force in Port Hope and Cobourg.

This was the second unit to operate in this area since August. At that time a unit under Capt. Roy Leaman was in the area interviewing applicants for the active force men between 17 and 29 years single and men between 17 and 35 if they had a trade.

Lakefield, Bancroft, Lindsay, Haliburton and Fenelon Falls were visited by the unit. Three prospects were sent to Kingston for further interviewing and medical examination. The first two, K. J. D. Meeks, 332 Euclid Ave., and P. H. Thompson, 125 Hazlitt St., left Wednesday, while the third man, R. J. Davidson, 487 Parnall St., left today with the unit, under Capt. J. P. MacDowell, Queen's Own Rifles, recruiting officer for Eastern Ontario.

On October 30 the unit will again move into this area. During that week it will be in Lindsay, Fenelon Falls and Bancroft. It will be in Peterborough Monday, October 30, and Friday, November 3.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go
The liver should pour out about 2 pints of bile juice into your digestive tract every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the digestive tract. Then gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.
It takes those mild, gentle Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Effective in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills, 35¢ at any druggists.

U.S. Troops Snare 28,000 Reds Halt Possible Stand

SEOUL, Oct. 21—(AP)—Quick moving United States parachute troops today sealed off 28,000 North Koreans. This was nearly half of the estimated organized enemy fighting force left north of Parallel 38. Gen. MacArthur's headquarters said all main roads in the Sunchon-Sukchon area, where the 4,100 Americans dropped out of the sky Friday, were blocked against the Communists. An estimated 63,000 Communist fighting men left in North Korea thus will not be able to mass for any big future stand against Allied troops racing to bring the savage four-month war to an end, an intelligence officer said.

Headquarters said the Communists may be able to move some of the trapped 28,000 men over hill roads but that their heavy equipment was lost.

What little opposition the North Koreans tried to put up against the paratroops was speedily overcome.

The Commonwealth Brigade is mopping up in the western sector.

A MacArthur spokesman said there is still no evidence of an organized defence line north of the present battle zones nor of an "auxiliary" capital.

Snipers In Pyongyang

Resistance in Pyongyang, the captured Red capital, is flickering out, the intelligence officer said. American tanks have crossed the Taedong and are in the city. Small pockets of Reds and snipers pecked away at United Nations troops.

The intelligence officer said the two North Korean army corps headquarters organizations have been written off. He said the commanding generals are believed to have escaped. Local guerrilla bands apparently were operating on their own.

MacArthur, who supervised the big parachute drop Friday, said he is confident that triumph for United Nations forces is near.

Five South Korean divisions are preparing to rush to the Manchurian border to cut off escape routes for remaining Red forces.

82,000 Prisoners

More and more the Communists appeared to be losing their zest for battle. They surrendered in droves and small groups. More than 82,000 war prisoners are held by the Allies.

U.S. 1st Cavalrymen and the parachute troops linked forces over the 30-mile stretch between fallen Pyongyang and Sunchon to the north.

An army war summary said the paratroops had secured their objectives in the Sunchon and Sukchon areas.

The South Korean 6th Division joined the paratroopers a few hours after the Americans landed.

The air drop was one of the largest in the history of warfare and the only one in this war that has claimed an estimated 200,000 lives since it started June 25.

Afterward, MacArthur landed in Pyongyang and ordered the South Koreans to rush to Red China's Manchurian border as fast as possible.

Avoid Border

There was no indication the general planned to send American or other foreign United Nations troops to the border where an incident might involve Russia or Red China.

Army To Probe Men AWL In Korea Force

OTTAWA, Oct. 21. (CP)—The Army today prepared to make a statement on how many men of Canada's Special Service Force are not on hand. High brass got into high gear yesterday when reports got about that a startling number of the Special 25th Brigade — built in a hurry to fight in Korea or elsewhere is necessary — were "A W L"—absent without leave.

Reports were called for from each of the stations which have been training 25th Brigade troops. The Army was concerned as to whether the later reports would show more or less absenteeism than was reported last week-end, when 703 of the 9,000-man unit were said to be A.W.L.

The 703-figure was reported to contain at least 100 deserters — soldiers absent without leave for 21 days or more.

Defence Minister Claxton ordered the latest check-up, after newspaper reports pointed up the total of absentees. However, he declined comment on the 703 figure.

So many factors enter into the matter of AWL that high army sources would not hazard a guess as to the general nature of the absenteeism. Experienced officers pointed to these factors — the hasty recruiting, the heavy training of the force, the fact that Canada is not at war, the fact that the war in Korea seems almost over, and the general uncertainty of the eventual destination of the special force.

400 UN Ships In Korea Waters

TOKYO, Oct. 21 —(AP)—An armada of more than 400 United Nations ships is in Korean waters, Vice Admiral C. Turner Joy, commander of Far East naval forces, disclosed today.

Included in the 400-odd vessels are the flags of Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand, the U.N.-sponsored republic of Korea, Canada, the Netherlands and the United States.

In size, the ships range downward from the 45,000-ton U.S. battleship Missouri, whose 16-inch guns have wrought havoc on Korean coastal targets. The mighty Mo recently led a big task force strike on the coastal strip leading to the borders of Soviet Siberia.

Canadian Destroyers

The three Canadian destroyers in Korean waters are the Athabaskan, Cayuga and Sioux.

"It's truly a United Nations fleet," Admiral Joy said.

The Royal Navy is represented by the aircraft carrier Theseus, the light cruisers Kenya and Ceylon, and the destroyers Constance, Cockade, Charity and Concord.

Admiral Joy said combined displacement of the ships under his command would be "more than a million tons."

Probe Scandal In Arms-Farouk

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, Oct. 21 (AP).—King Farouk wants the current investigation into an alleged arms supply scandal to proceed regardless of whether members of the army or of his court are involved.

Instructions to that effect were disclosed last night by Premier Mustapha Nahas Pasha. Farouk returned to Egypt yesterday after two months vacationing in Italy and France.

Last week, a group of political leaders opposing the government told the king in a statement that they suspected some of his high palace aides of complicity in a munitions scandal.

The statement—without precedent in Egyptian history—charged "misrule" of the Wafd party in power, urged the king to uproot "corruption" in the government, and warned of the possibility of sedition.

STILL SMILING DESPITE the loss of their barn this week are Mr. and Mrs. Leslaw Meinhardt, owners of the old Fife farm on Fife's Bay at the south end of Chemong Lake. They came to Canada from Poland more than two years ago, and first settled at a farm near Hamilton. This June, they bought the Smith township farm and on Monday night the barn burned to the foundations, killing 1400 chickens and several pigs. Mr. Meinhardt plans to rebuild part of the barn this fall. Mr. Meinhardt was a lawyer in Poland before the Second World War. —Examiner Staff Photo

Too Few Guides For U.S. Hunters

KENORA, Ont., Oct. 21. (CP)—Enforcement of a provision of the Game and Fisheries Act in northwestern Ontario has created an unprecedented situation in this Lake of the Woods district.

The Act says one licensed guide must be employed by two non-resident hunters. About 5,000 visiting hunters from the United States turned up for the first week of the hunting season here, but only 1,400 registered guides were available.

Numerous hunters were arrested on charges of hunting without a guide. Their guns, boats and licenses were seized.

In court yesterday the hunters each had to pay $10 for the return of his gun. Each boat was impounded until a bond of $500 was posted.

As a result, it was reported that many American hunters are returning to the US when unable to obtain guides.

North Korea Gov't Shifts Capital City

SEOUL, Oct. 21—(Reuters)—The North Korean Government announced by radio tonight it had moved its capital to Sinuiju, one mile south of the Yalu river on the border of Manchuria.

The announcement, made by Sinuiju broadcasting station, clears up the mystery of the whereabouts of North Korean President Kim Il Sung and his ministers since fleeing the old capital at Pyongyang, which fell yesterday.

U.S. Dollar Over $1.05

MONTREAL, Oct. 21 (CP) — The American dollar today opened at a 5 3/16 per cent premium to the Canadian dollar, 1/8 lower than Friday's close. That is, it took $1.05 3/16 Canadian to buy $1 American.

The pound sterling was quoted at $2.94⅝ against $2.95 Friday.

Barn, 1400 Chickens Go Phut Polish Fife Farmer's Chin Up

When his barn burned down five days ago, Leslaw Meinhardt, once a lawyer in Poland and now a farmer in Canada for only two years, suffered the latest in a series of blows from fate.

During World War II, he was separated from his wife after the fall of Poland, in 1939. Held six weeks by the Russians and a similar period by the Germans, he finally escaped to Hungary and eventually joined the British forces, in the Polish Corps.

Not until 1945, when he was serving as a major with the Polish Corps of the British Eighth Army in Italy did he have an opportunity to get word to his family. A fellow-countryman offered to arrange the escape of his wife and son from Poland.

"He asked me for $200," said Mr. Meinhardt, "and I think he used it to pay the secret police."

On Old Fife Farm

Today, Mr. Meinhardt, his wife and son who is now 14, are living on the old Fife farm, on Fife's Bay, near the south-west end of Chemong Lake. On Monday night about 8 p.m. he noticed a red flash in his barn.

Minutes later the barn, about 75 yards from the farmhouse, was in flames and Mr. Meinhardt lost 1,400 chickens, two calves, and 16 pigs. He managed to save five of his cattle and 37 pigs.

Despite his loss, he is enthusiastic about Canada. He feels the people here have been very good to him, and as on example he pointed out that his Central Smith neighbors offered recently to help him clear away the wreckage of the burned barn.

Rebuild in Three Weeks

"If the weather is good to me, I think I will have the barn partly rebuilt in three weeks. I am going to try to get work for the winter, and finish the job on the barn in the spring," he said.

Mr. Meinhardt—his first name is pronounced Less-lawv — is of medium height, with grey-black hair, clear blue eyes, and a happy smile. His great-grandfather moved to Poland from West Germany about 100 years ago.

Asked if he intended to practise law in Canada, he said he did not think he would. "One must first be a Canadian citizen. I have been here only a little more than two years."

Wife the Expert

Before he came to Canada, he had done no farming. His wife Mariah owned a farm in Poland at one time, and is considered the expert of the family.

"She believes in manure and work for the land," he smiled.

Before joining the Polish Army Mr. Meinhardt trained as a lawyer, and was attached to the legal branch of his country's army when he stayed on after his compulsory service of one year. In the Polish Corps attached to the British Army, he entered as a captain and left with the rank of

Henry Stimson U.S. Leader Dies

COLD SPRING HARBOR, N.Y., Oct. 21 (AP)—Henry L. Stimson, 83, first American to hold cabinet office under four presidents, died yesterday of a heart attack.

Stimson was secretary of war under Presidents William Howard Taft, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry Truman, and was Herbert Hoover's only secretary of state.

Three months ago Stimson fell and broke his hip, but was making a good recovery and getting about with wheelchair and crutches. Yesterday he and Mrs. Stimson set out on a drive around the estate. He was stricken in the car.

Stimson was the first leading statesman in any western country to demand a tough crackdown on the aggressors of the 1930s.

While Stimson's four years as secretary of state, 1929 to 1933, were distinguished, military men and historians have ranked him with Lincoln's Edwin M. Stanton as one of the two greatest secretaries of war in American history.

His association with the war department was unique. He was first called to the office in 1911 by President Taft.

He left the post in 1913 and did not take it up again until 1940—27 years later—when Franklin D. Roosevelt called him back to duty during the second world war at the age of 73.

UN Ponders

Lie's Fate, Peace Talks

By STANLEY JOHNSON

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Oct. 21 —(AP)—Two vital problems are before the United Nations today.

The Security Council meets behind closed doors for another round in the battle over who should be secretary general. The 60-member political committee is scheduled to vote on a Syrian-Iraq proposal calling for Big Five peace consultations.

India Proposal

India has a compromise proposal before the council under which each of the 11 members would put two names in a secret ballot box. The Big Five then would knock out the names of those they could not approve and the council would pick a successor to Secretary General Trygve Lie from the names left.

The United States, Britain, Norway, Yugoslavia and Cuba let it be known yesterday that they would have no part of the plan, which would have the effect of eliminating Lie. Thus the resolution could not obtain the necessary seven affirmative votes.

When the council can not agree on a candidate, it notifies the general assembly and that body then has the authority to extend the term of the incumbent.

Big Majority

Despite Russian opposition, Lie's backers, led by the United States, are assured of an overwhelming majority in the assembly to give the Norwegian at least three more years in the $40,000 a year post.

The Syrian-Iraq plan for Big Five meetings is almost sure to pass the political committee, since it has Russian support and Britain, France and the United States decided yesterday they did not object to it.

However State Secretary Dean Acheson told a press conference in Washington he saw little hope of any successful big power meeting on critical east west issues until there is some change in Russia's attitude.

Satellites, Russia Sit In Prague

To Protest Army For West Germany US Not Impressed

By WILLIAM OATIS

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Oct. 21—(AP)—Following her sharp warning that she would not tolerate remilitarization of Western Germany, Russia met with her European allies today to discuss that explosive subject. The meeting was called by the Soviet Union, which sent Deputy Prime Minister V. M. Molotov as its spokesman. Molotov is a former Russian foreign minister.

Moscow radio and the official Czechoslovak news agency reported the eight-country meeting started yesterday. Deputy Premier Zdenek Fierlinger, representing Czechoslovakia, was elected chairman. Molotov flew in from Moscow by special plane. Other foreign delegates met him at Prague's flag-decorating Ruzyne airport.

They were Foreign Minister Mincho Neychev of Bulgaria; Zygmunt Modzelewski of Poland; Gyula Kallai of Hungary; Ana Pauker of Romania; George Dertinger of Eastern Germany and V. Natanajli, Albaniana Minister to Moscow.

Discuss West Germany

An official announcement in Prague said the ministers would "discuss questions which arose in connection with the decision of the New York conference of the Three Powers—France, Britain and the United States—Sept. 19, which discussed the remilitarization of Germany."

(The Big Three foreign ministers announced Sept. 19 they had agreed to strengthen Germany economically and defensively and allow it a "mobile police force," but there would be no resurrection of a German national army.)

Only a few hours before the Prague conference, Russia made public the contents of identical notes sent to the United States, France and Britain.

The notes rejected a Western charge that the people's police of Communist-ruled East Germany actually is a military organization, and warned the Soviet Union would not tolerate revival of "the German regular army in West Germany."

Acheson Speaks

In Washington, State Secretary Dean Acheson told a press conference yesterday the United States will reject the Russian protest. He insisted creation of legitimate police forces in Western Germany does not represent a back-door attempt to restore the German army.

The United States is favoring rearmament of Western Germany as part of the European defence framework. Britain accepted the idea, but wants the other North Atlantic Pact countries to rearm first, France alone among the major Western Powers has held out against the proposal.

Rearm Germany May Split French Cabinet

By CARL HARTMAN.

PARIS, Oct. 21 (AP). — The conflict within Premier Rene Pleven's coalition government over rearming Germany comes to a head at a cabinet meeting today.

The thorny subject may tear apart Pleven's middle-of-the-road team, but most observers think a compromise can be found.

Invaded and occupied by the Germans three times in the last 70 years, France traditionally mistrusts an armed Germany. Today the Communists are taking advantage of that tradition to portray the United States as an enemy of France, because she favors German rearmament.

Socialists Object

The Socialists—already vying with the Communists for votes in next year's election—have the most to lose when Communist propaganda succeeds. This is one reason why the Socialists are taking so strong a stand against the "principle" of German rearmament.

Yesterday the Socialist deputies voted 30 to 5 against the "principle" more than the fact.

The Socialists are a minority in the cabinet. They are outnumbered by the radicals and the slightly rightist movement Republicain Populaire.

The radicals think the Socialists are butting their heads against a stone wall in opposing the United States on Germany. Many of the MRP—following foreign minister Robert Schuman—want the Germans taken into the European community as a matter of principle.

If the cabinet is to survive, some compromise must be worked out by Tuesday when Pleven is due to make a statement on German rearmament before the National Assembly.

Best Friend?

CHICAGO, Oct. 21—(AP) —A small dog jumped onto her mistress' lap today and knocked her out of a third-storey window.

Mrs. Alice McElligott, 32, taken to Woodlawn Hospital for examination, said she was sitting on the sill of an open window when her dog, Bridgett Ann, leaped affectionately onto her lap. She was thrown off balance and toppled out the window. Her fall was broken by tree branches. She landed on soft ground.

Doctors couldn't find anything serious — just some minor cuts and bruises.

Vacationing In Italy From Britain

Traced To Stockholm In Moscow Month Worked In Canada

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Oct. 21 — (Reuters) — The atom scientist, Bruno Pontecorvo who has worked on atomic research in Canada and Britain, flew from Stockholm to Moscow last month, it was reported here today. Pontecorvo, earlier reported "missing" in Italy where he went on vacation from Britain, arrived in Stockholm Sept. 1 with his wife and three children.

He spent the night here and left by air for Helsinki Sept. 2 on the way to Moscow, Swedish air lines said.

His family are believed to have accompanied him.

Between Rome and Copenhagen they had 110 pounds weight of luggage registered, but it was stated that Pontecorvo would not register 20 pounds of hand baggage which he insisted on having in the plane with him.

The hand luggage was believed to have included a thick briefcase.

Rome newspapers broke out in a rash of scare headlines reporting the Italian-born scientist had skipped behind the Iron Curtain.

Father Not Worried

His father in Milan said he doubtless would be back in England on schedule in January when he is to take over a university appointment.

No one yet has been able to contact Pontecorvo, who became a British citizen during the war. He went to Italy with his wife and three children recently for a vacation.

Under their blackest headlines, Rome's morning newspapers said the scientist and his family had departed anywhere from two weeks to a month ago on a Czech airlines plane bound for Poland. These stories said he left with a Polish passport.

Seems Official

Although none of the newspapers named the source of their information, it had an official tone. They played up the fact that Pontecorvo had worked in Britain's Harwell atomic-energy research laboratory where German-

Baby Princess Christened Today

LONDON, Oct. 21 (AP)—The 67-day-old daughter of Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip was christened Anne Elizabeth Alice Louise of Edinburgh today by the Archbishop of York.

She will be known simply as Princess Anne.

The baby is third in line of succession to the British throne. Her mother, Princess Elizabeth is first, followed by Anne's two-year-old brother, Charles.

She was dressed in a white satin christening gown covered with rare honiton lace. The gown is more than a century old and was ordered by Queen Victoria. All the royal babies have been christened in it since the naming of the first child of Victoria and Prince Albert.

Bound For Okinawa

Special Force Ready To Shove Off

By DAVE McINTOSH

FORT LEWIS, Wash., Oct. 21 CP)—The advance party of Canada's special brigade today was ready to move to the Pacific.

The army blacked out reports of the advance party's port of embarkation, destination and time of departure. But it was generally known some 350 troops were headed for Okinawa, with the entire brigade of 10,000 due to follow before the end of November.

Nervous Tension

There was the usual nervous tension all soldiers feel before shoving off. Duffle bags were packed, letters had been written home, innoculations were over, trucks were ready to roll.

There was a hurrying to and fro on this vast, 98,000-acre base. Some soldiers asked one another whether they'd be seasick, how long the voyage would take, what it would be like on that faraway island, whether they'd ever get to Korea.

Even though 95 per cent of the advance party are veterans, they were not able to shake off that embarkation expectancy.

The troops were honed to razor sharpness. Letter-perfect salutes passed between officers and men.

Morale High

Maj. R. M. Bourgeois of Gravelbourg, Sask., commanding officer of the advance party and a veteran of the Royal 22nd Regiment, said in an interview today that morale was high. There had been only one absentee and he had returned. All of the men had had short leaves.

The advance party will take over stores and equipment on the Pacific island, set up accommodation, prepare ranges and the like.

If Canada's full United Nations force arrives here as planned in a few weeks, Brig. J. M. (Rocky) Rockingham will have all troops under his command in one place at one time.

All the men are wearing the United Nations flash on their shoulders. At the top is "Canada" in red and below the United ensign in white on a red background.

The first troops arrived here Sept. 20 and occupied a small corner of the base. They took over 200 buildings and 32 kitchens, enough to handle the whole brigade.

The first main unit arrived Oct. 14 and in less than a week prepared to move overseas. The Canadian camp staff was taken from 20 units across Canada. Units represented in the advance party are the Royal Canadian Regiment, Royal 22nd, Princess Patricia Canadian Light Infantry, Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, Service Corps, Medical, Engineer and Dental Units.

WomanLoses2ndRace With Stork In Taxi

BURLINGAME, Calif., Oct. 21 —(AP)—A year ago Mrs. Nancy Ledesma, 17, raced the stork to a hospital in a taxicab.

Despite a collision with another car she won the race and gave birth to her third child.

Yesterday she was in another such race— same reason—same cab driver.

But Mrs. Ledesma did not win the race.

Her fourth child, a boy, was born in the taxi. The mother and child were doing fine but the cab driver was a nervous wreck.

Passing Buck In Windsor Jolliffe Charges

TORONTO, Oct. 21. (CP) —E. B. Jolliffe, leader of the CCF Opposition in the Ontario Legislature, said Friday the government showed signs of buck-passing in the Windsor crime-and-vice inquiry.

"The restricted scope of a police commission," Mr. Jolliffe said in a statement, "makes it impossible for that body to go to the root of the trouble.

"The fact that the former Crown Attorney (E. C. Awrey) was retired after the Attorney-General's department had left him in office for years, indicates that the problem is not merely a local one.

"The commission has no authority to investigate the crown attorney's record or anything else outside the work of the municipal police force."

Frost Confident

Premier Frost, commenting on Mr. Jolliffe's statement, said he is certain Windsor's newly-appointed commission and crown attorney will do everything they can "to lay bare all there is down at Windsor."

He said there was no ambiguity about what the province was doing in the situation.

Mr. Jolliffe's two-page typewritten statement said in part: "Law enforcement in Windsor has in my opinion, been no better and no worse than in many other municipalities. No good is done by those who point to Windsor as though it were in some way unique . . .

"The Attorney-General's department must accept the responsibility for law enforcement generally and for the record of Crown Attorneys in particular. If the department pleads ignorance of the record, the plea would merely constitute a declaration of its own negligence and incompetence."

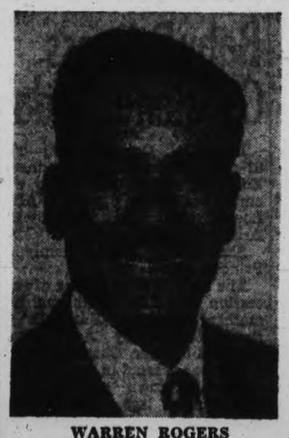
French Abandon Indo-China HQ

SAIGON, Indo-China, Oct. 21 (AP) — French troops today evacuated their frontier headquarters fortress of Langson, which guarded the main invasion gateway into Indo-China from Communist China.

The pivotal French post for the defence of North Indo-China yielded to Communist-led Nationalist troops after a French occupation of 78 years.



Control of Langson swings wide the frontier door for Ho Chi Minh's Soviet-backed regime to supply sources and training bases in Red China.

The French army communique said the evacuation was effected to permit the regrouping of French forces into new strategic mobile reserves. It said the French would take the offensive as soon as the reorganization and disposition is accomplished.

born Dr. Klaus Fuchs had been a top official. Fuchs was convicted and jailed on charges of giving atomic secrets to the Russians.

Milan newspapers quoted the scientist's father, Massimo Pontecorvo, as saying there was no reason to believe that his son would not return to England by January.

"Until that date," the father was quoted as saying, "there is no reason to be alarmed over his absence from England."

The papers said Pontecorvo was born in Pisa, Italy, in 1910, and studied under Italy's leading physicist and 1938 Nobel prize winner, Dr. Enrico Fermi.

He is of Jewish origin and fled to France in 1940, later joining Fermi at the Chalk River atomic energy project during the war.

In London a spokesman for the ministry of supply, which is in charge of atomic research in Britain, said the ministry had no reason to believe that Pontecorvo would not return to Britain in time to take up an appointment at Liverpool University Jan. 1.

The spokesman noted that Pontecorvo's wife is Swedish and said it is reasonable to suppose that he and his wife would have gone to Sweden for a holiday.

Durham County Teams Win Ontario Titles

GUELPH, Oct. 21 (CP)—Three teams from Durham county were winners in Ontario-wide boys and girls inter-club agricultural judging yesterday at the Ontario Agricultural College.

An 18-year-old Durham youth, Newton Selby of Newcastle, was high man in points of the 450 contestants.

Selby was a member of the Durham County Potato Club which carried off the Ontario Crop Improvement Association Trophy, defeating 18 other teams representing counties all over Ontario with a score of 966 points out of a possible 1040. As an individual member of the team, Selby gained a total of 495 points out of a possible 520 in practical judging and oral examinations. His companion, Charles Peacock of Campbellcroft, had 471 points.

Nearly 650 farm youths, between 16 and 20 years of age attended this 20th annual inter-club competition in dairy and beef cattle, swine, grain, potato and 5th annual junior day for food and clothing competitions by girls, sponsored by the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

There were 225 teams representing an area from New Liskeard, North Bay, Muskoka, Parry Sound, Glengarry, Renfrew and Central and Western Ontario.

Fifty-five teams entered the dairy cattle classes, 31 the tractor maintenance and safe driving, 14 the forestry, eight the food and 10 the clothing contest.

At a banquet last night, Ontario Agriculture Minister Kennedy cautioned them against adopting the radical, modern-day, scientific, agricultural methods too rapidly.

"Use good common sense and apply them slowly if you want to get the best results in the long run on your farms," he said. New methods too rapidly applied could lead to bankruptcy or heavy mortgaged farms.

Milking Parlor Curtained On Super Farm

On a lot of Ontario farms these days agriculturists are proving they intend to keep pace with the times, in spite of the fact that farmers generally have a reputation for clinging to the old methods.

Milking, for instance, used to be a job that had to be done twice a day on the farm. Usually it was done as quickly as possible and often without too much care. Today the trend is toward a system by which milk is transferred from the cow to milk cans without coming into contact with human hands, and in some cases without being exposed to the air.

The other day, on a tour arranged by the De Laval Company of Peterborough, three farms on which such modern milking methods are in use, were visited. One was the Ontario Reformatory at Guelph, the others the farms of Wes Murray and Sons, and Frank Stephenson at Innerkip.

All three use milking machines and the milking parlor setup, while two also use the loafing barn or roving pen accommodation, for cows waiting their turns in the milking parlor. The reformatory still uses the old-type stalls to house the cows.

The milking parlor is a series of stalls with front and rear entrances, so that one cow can be entering the milking stall while another is leaving after being milked. The entire series of stalls is raised so the person or persons operating milking machines can stand at a lower level and not have to stop during the operation. Milk, in many cases, is piped here to another room, filtered and poured into cans without coming in contact with the air. Other farmers prefer to dump the milk into buckets and weigh it.

Bird And Plant Life Precented In Audubon Screen Tour Show

The Audubon Screen Tours constitute the largest contribution ever made to conservation and nature education on the continent," stated Howard L. Orians at the first Audobon Screen Tour of the 1950-1951 series held at Queen Mary School auditorium Friday night.

Mr. Orians, whose home is in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, presented his nature moving picture "Lakelore" for a capacity crowd.

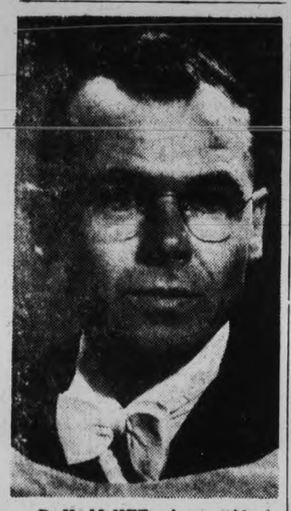
In a brief preliminary address Mr. Orians gave a resume of the development of the Audobon Screen Tours. This project was started seven years ago. At that time there were ten cities where this series was presented. This year the number of cities in the United States and Canada has grown to 145.

The movie "Lakelore" depicted bird and plant life, in the Milwaukee area on the shores of Lake Michigan and the Green Bay district. Numerous varieties of wild birds, including ducks, swans ,and smaller birds, were depicted on the screen in their native habitats, on the wing, diving, swimming, feeding and nesting.

In addition to birds, wild flowers and insects starred in this nature movie. Throughout the picture, Mr. Orians gave a running commentary explaining the living habits and peculiar characteristics of each of his subjects.

This was Mr. Orian's second trip to Canada. He showed this same picture in Toronto and London on his first tour.

Mr. Orians was introduced by J. McKeever, president of the Peterborough Nature Club which sponsors this series.



In addition to the evening presentations, the Nature Club has aranged with the Board of Education to present matinees of these screen tours for students of the Public Schools and Collegiate in the PCVS auditorium.

Provincials Discover Concealed Device Regulating Operation Of "Cat" Game

Three Toronto men, accused of cheating the public in a "cat" game at Drumbo fair, pleaded not guilty in Woodstock police court Wednesday. Magistrate Groom reserved decision on a defense motion for dismissal for lack of evidence that anyone was cheated.

Corporal John Cronin and Constable W. S. Hilliard of the provincial anti-gambling squad alleged use of a "gimmick" against chances of winning. As related by Cronin "a concealed device, operated from the front, raised a hinged facing board so that the opening through which the "cats" must fall was reduced. It could be worked by an operator leaning or pressing against a rail along the front counter of the concession stand. By that means a concealed rod in the canvas framework was moved, levering a board forward, and thereby reducing by an inch to an inch and a quarter the space through which the cats had to fall".

Object of the game was to knock with baseballs three "cats" off a shelf and through an opening to the ground with three balls. These so-called games are seen at carnival shows and also at many of the fairs of the province. They may be operated fairly, or as related in exposure stories they can be, when so gimmicked, fixed against public winning.

Lichens 25,000 Years Old Said Oldest Living Thing

Written for The Canadian Press By PERCY GHENT.

Lichens growing on rocks and waste places across Canada and throughout the world are probably the oldest living things on earth. It has been estimated that some of them may date back to the last tremendous glacial retreat in America, 25,000 to 50,000 years ago.

Fundamentally, the lichens are a partnership between fungi and algae. It is an intimate partnership in which a mass of fine fungal threads entangle a multitude of minute green cells of an alga.

Algae, tiny primitive plants, can survive without the fungus. But the searching delicate threads of a fungus wither and die if they fail to find the algal cells that fungal species needs. It is when the two are properly matched that a lichen starts to grow.

Lichens, therefore, are primordial plants existing on the same site, even if the first centre of the lichen rosette crumbled to dust ages ago.

Lichens growth annually is microscopic, and it is this known minute growth, compared with their far-spread reach on mountain heights, that enables scientists to estimate their age with confidence and a high degree of accuracy.

In the rocky regions of Canada's provincial and national parks, the pleasing green-grey tone can be seen at great distances especially after a rain has brought out the best color-values. With masses of emerald green mosses usually growing nearby, they make a striking feature of the landscape.

Alfred Bunker, of Toronto, is a CPR fireman, and a keen amateur naturalist whose motion pictures of nature in various parts of Canada have delighted thousands.

Some of his best technicolor movies of autumn color have been made between stokings, from his engine. His pictures of bird life, and of Canadian wild flowers from spring to fall are superb in quality. On one freight train he served, a robin made her nest on a box car, attending to the domestic and nursery duties en route, trip after trip.

Havelock Robb, upoet, author, and naturalist of Abbey Dawn, beside the St. Lawrence has made friends with all the birds of all seasons. Chickadees cheerful winter visitors have actually become intimate. They will take peanuts and other delicacies from between his teeth.

Peace-Mongering

Whenever Russia holds out an olive branch the tendency on this continent is to say: "Uncle Joe is peace-mongering again. He is up to his old tricks. Beware lest we be taken for suckers. There's not a word of truth in anything the Russians say". And so on. It is a most unfortunate attitude for the West to take. What hope is there ever of reaching a working agreement with the communist third of the world, what hope is there to keep the peace and keep it less expensively than now, if every mild overture which Russia makes is rejected before it is examined? Mr. Vishinsky, Russia's Foreign Minister said at Lake Success last week: "If you would show me willingness not to put obstacles in every one's path, then you might get agreement. But you reject the cake, without even tasting it".

If J. Stalin is peace-mongering these days, so are Mr. Churchill and Mr. Truman. Mr. Churchill spoke at a reception in his honour in Copenhagen last week and proposed the rapid creation of a super-government, with Russia as one of its pillars. He does not believe war inevitable; he does believe that the acceptance or toleration of Russia is necessary. Mr. Truman said as he left for his meeting with General MacArthur: "The people behind the iron curtain are as anxious as we are to have world peace and to avoid another war." It is also the view of Mr. Bevin, Britain's Foreign Secretary.

The world is not a neat orderly place and events cannot be planned with the precision of a bank ledger. There can be no guarantee of peace ten years hence, but Russia's attitude to the Korean war proves that she does not want war now or in the immediate future. If we cannot have twenty-year treaties to keep the peace (we had them in the thirties; Russia had one with Germany in 1939), we can build on short terms, from year to year if necessary. Necessity made Russia our ally during the war. That war-time co-operation was successful, working to the benefit of both parties, even if Russia did squeeze the lend-lease orange pretty dry. Russia lived up to her war-time commitments as an ally. Now necessity should make Russia a co-operating partner again. Why should we expect this time that Russia would behave like a blackguard in a united effort of the great nations to work out a means of keeping peace from year to year?

Colonies Meant So Much

Britain bore "the white man's burden" in the nineteenth century. That may be true, but the cost of bearing it was paid for by the blacks, the reds, the yellows and all the shades in between, including bronzed Canadians. The colonies and countries which Britain developed as she exploited provided bread for the British workingman's table, dessert for the commercial barons, and rubies for the Queen-Empress. Before the war Mr. Churchill estimated that India alone was the indirect source of employment and enrichment for six million Englishmen. There is full employment in England now, but the difference is that their wages and bonuses come from domestic sources; they are not paid by colonies.

Before the war at least thirty per cent. of Holland's material prosperity came from the wealth of Indonesia. The percentage may have been larger, as Canadian soldiers in The Netherlands during the war are entitled to think, judging from the many mansions, the splendid highways, the fine apartments in which even restaurant door keepers lived in this tiny, heavily-populated country. French Indo-China once yielded to France a surplus wealth of £50 million a year.

It is nonsense to say that colonies were a burden. They may have been, administratively; they were not financially. Now they may be. It is costing the Dutch more to keep a foothold in Indonesia (by way of troops) than the trade bears and Indonesians will pay back. It is costing France men and money to keep a stake in Indo-China; more than she is now getting out of it. The shrewd Dutch, the most able of colonial administrators, may come to balance the colonial budget in these nationalistic colonial times, but Britain has got out of India, and the French are at this moment being pushed back in Indo-China.

The days of colonial empire and riches are gone. The effect on the mother-countries, as yet not fully felt, will be tremendous. There will no longer be gravy for the motherland tables, no longer employment for the motherland sons. It is all part of the vast problem confronting Western Europe and affecting its standards of living.

The U.S.A. has never had a colonial empire. It did not need one in the nineteenth century. It grew rich and powerful exploiting its own vast continent. New England had only to move her sons and influence west, where rich land lay at hand to develop. After the Ohio was colonized, there was the mid-west. After that the far west, until it met with the Spanish-American Pacific coastal states. Since 1920 the U.S.A. has been cramped for room within its own territory; but it has expanded through dollar-imperialism to backward eastern Europe and backward China. That is one of the chief reasons why the U.S.A. is now desperately trying to prevent the Iron Curtain from descending on various European and Asian countries; when the curtain comes down, the dollar empire dwindles.

Canada is intimately concerned. Canada is one of the greater unexploited regions on the face of the earth. Another is Russia. (Incidentally, a chief reason why Russia does not want war now is that she hopes, as did the U.S.A. in the last century, to exploit her own vast continental territory.) Canada must be strong enough to keep envious eyes and grasping arms away from her own private riches. We have, of course, a cousinly trust in the good intentions of the U.S.A. If we did not, why would we permit the States to exploit Canada's two most magnificent natural resources of this century: the oil of Alberta and the iron of Quebec-Labrador? We have allowed these to pass into American control.

In fact, the most lucrative possession of the U.S.A.'s dollar empire now is Canada. It is the U.S.A., not Canada, which is exploiting the last great reserves of the western world: in Canada. The U.S.A. has, therefore, a peculiar interest, not only in an undefended border, but in a border not bristling with tariff walls. The next move for complete reciprocity between Canada and the United States will undoubtedly originate in the U.S.A.

Trouble About Party Manners

The cartoon by Giles which we print in the lower right-hand corner of this page today may require some explanation. It refers to a quarrel which has been going on between the British Broadcasting Corporation's television department and the Labour Party's own newspaper, the Daily Herald.

The B.B.C. broadcast a television play called Party Manners; it had previously been performed as a stage play and as a non-visual broadcast and not much notice had been taken of it. But when it was done on television the Daily Herald became very angry, shouted that the play was "anti-Labour", and demanded that it should not be repeated by the B.B.C., as had been scheduled. Somebody with a rubber spine at the B.B.C. meekly countermanded the scheduled repetition.

This is what the Manchester Guardian has to say on the subject:

> It is a silly business that reflects credit on nobody. But it has its serious side too. The BBC must be stiffer and should stand by its guns. Whoever was responsible for the decision to withdraw must now see that weakness does not pay. More alarming, though not new, is the revelation of the state of mind of a section of Labor. The play, it seems, made fun of a lord. That was quite all right and obviously just; lords exist to be made fun of. It also made fun of a chairman of a State board and of a Labor Minister (all quite anonymous, of course). That was all wrong; these are sacred beings whom it is impious to represent on screen or stage. Does the "Daily Herald," one wonders, realize how much its line has in common with the Russian and Nazi attitude towards making fun of commissars and Gauleiters? And what has become of the supposed English sense of humor?

We have never heard of a Government which had a sense of humour. But some Governments are too clever to reveal annoyance when jokes are made about them. It will be too bad if English comedians become afraid to make jokes about the Labour Government—or any Government. Such a thing has not been known since the days of Cromwell, the leader of another movement which dealt heavily in censorship, indignation and phoney dignity.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The Sault Star holds forth against the practice of writing names in soft cement. Well, now that the old-fashioned privy has vanished, where can a fool scribble his name if not on the new sidewalks?

The Toronto Star remarks that there are two kinds of women—the fashionable and the comfortable. The fashionable, we presume, are those whom you want to sit on your knee; the comfortable are those upon whose knee you could pneumatically sit.

The Marchbanks Correspondence

To The Rev. Simon Goaste, B.D.
Dear Rector:

I suppose you have observed, in the course of your professional duties, the sad decline of literary exuberance in the writing of epitaphs? The modern epitaph is hardly worthy of the name, when one compares it with the great epitaph-writing of the eighteenth century.

Because I do not wish to be slighted on my tombstone, I am sending to you herewith my own epitaph, in order that you may circumvent any of my descendents or executors who want to do the thing on the cheap after I am gone.

(The full armorial bearings of the Marchbanks family)
Beneath this stone
Lies all that was Mortal
Of one
Who, in this transitory Life
Seemed to sum up in himself all those Virtues
Which we are taught to admire
but which, alas,
We rarely see in action.
Pause, Passer-By and Ponder;
This man, beside an ample fortune for Those Left to Mourn Him
Leaves a sum in trust to provide
Every child in this Parish
With copies of his own works
Durably bound in waterproof material,
As well as a medal bearing the impress of his Noble Countenance
on the front, and on its rear
These Words
"For Memorial Purposes Only:
Not Negotiable As Currency"
Drop A Tear and Pass On
Drawing Such Consolation As You Can
From the indisputable fact that
We Shall Not Look Upon His Like Again.

There. I think that covers the ground pretty thoroughly, and will gladden the heart of the stone-mason, if not of my relatives. Oh yes, and on the top of the stone, please, an effigy of my own head, with the left eyelid dropping slightly, as though in salute to the living.

Yours cheerily,
SAMUEL MARCHBANKS.

To Amyas Pilgarlic, Esq.
Dear Pil:

I have just been writing to Pastor Goaste about my epitaph. While I am clearing things up with regard to my funeral, permit me to inform you that among my gramophone records you will find one marked "For Pilgarlic only". This is my funeral eulogy.

When my funeral is arranged, I want you to have a large public address system in the church, and a record player. Then when the time comes for the usual address, play the record. You had better warn the parson beforehand, or there may be some competition.

The address is, I flatter myself, something rather novel of the kind. I personally admonish several people who are sure to be at my funeral, and make a few remarks that I have been hankering to make all my life. I also give a brief estimate of my own character, which is more interesting than anything the parson can do, for it is founded on first-hand information. I expect that my action in this matter will set a new style.

Yours gaily,
SAM.

To Samuel Marchbanks, Esq.
Dear Neighbour:

Aw, gee, I never thought you would mind me playing the radio with my window open! Aw, heck, I never thought you would resent a little thing like that skunk getting into your car! Not that I admit that I did it. My lawyers told me that I shouldn't. But I never thought you'd go to court about it. Gee, Marchbanks, you're a cranky guy! Gee, haven't you any spirit of give and take?

I'm just sick about the whole thing, and so is Lambie-Pie. She says you're the worst crab in the world, but we ought to try to be friends with you because we're neighbours, and after all, even you are human. She says we got to extend the Right Hand of Fellowship. Consider it extended. How about it, Marchbanks old pal? By the way, I borrowed your lawn mower last week when you were away. I accidentally ran it over a big bolt somebody dropped on my lawn. I'll bring it back just as soon as it is fixed. 'Or would you rather have it fixed to suit yourself?

Yours repentantly,
DICK DANDIPRAT.

To Richard Dandiprat
Unspeakable Dandiprat:

I take note that you have extended the Right Hand of Fellowship. I have examined it. Take it back and wash it.

My legal action against you continues according to plan. I shall also sue you for the damage to my lawnmower.

You may inform Lambie Pie (whom I take to be your consort) that I am not human. I sprang, full-grown, from a riven oak one midnight many years ago.

Yours in a very limited sense,
SAMUEL MARCHBANKS.

To Miss Nancy Frisgig
Charming Nancy:

Yesterday in a magazine I found an advertisement for what some jeweller called a "love philtre". It was a gewgaw—a golden heart in a circlet of gold, upon which was engraved "May we love as long as we live and live as long as we love". Now Nancy, I ask you, what good is a piece of rubbish like that?

It isn't a love philtre at all. It is a love charm. A philtre has to be a drink. And I know a cheaper and better love charm than that. Pick your man; when he is walking in the garden mark one of his footprints; then dig up the earth, put it in a pot, and plant a marigold in it. A marigold, properly tended, never dies or fades. Tend the flower and tend the man, and you need not worry.

As for a love philtre, I was once told a recipe for one, but although it is easy enough to prepare it is not very sanitary, and I should be sorry to think that anyone who coveted my esteem had slipped it into my tea.

Yours with deep admiration,
SAM.

To Big Chief Marchbanks
How Marchbanks!

Good news, Marchbanks, I in jail now. Last week I try awful hard to get in jail. I throw brick at cop. He just wag finger and laugh. I call insult at almerman. He just lift hat. Getting near election time, Marchbanks. I write dirty word on City Hall. City Clerk come out and write "Ditto", under it. No hope, Marchbanks. Then one day cop look at me very queer. You pay your poll tax, he ask. No, I say, I never own no pole. Aha, he say, you got to pay poll tax. I never have no totem pole, I say. Sell 'um to tourist twenty year ago. Come along, he say, and we go to court. They find I owe $3,000 back poll tax. Put me in jail. Ha ha. That great tax, Marchbanks. Friendly tax to poor Indian. All set for winter now. You got money? I not need money.

How, again,

DOISM

Sir: Today we read more and more of psychology psychiatry; why not psychetry—if we can use such a word? True, we have our ministers, do-goods etc. — but the world grows no better—rather the reverse. Is it because our creedisms, dogmatisms, don'tisms have become a broken branch of Christendom without fruit flower or joy. No vitality, no vision, organismless?

What we want is doisms—everybody work—then everybody can play—providing our psyche's are O.K.

COUNTRY FRIEND.

POOR VISIBILITY AT R.R. CROSSINGS

Sir: Would you print a few lines with reference to motor traffic on Lansdowne St., east and west. As I frequently use Highway No. 7, going in or out of the city, I decided to make an off-hand survey of some of the traffic obstructions on both sides of the roadway. First, going east on Lansdowne starting from a point about 300 or 400 feet from southwest corner Monaghan and Lansdowne (south side) the first obstruction consists of a long pile of dead cordwood stacked up on the bank of road. This obstruction prevents a driver from seeing any traffic, buses etc. creeping out of Monaghan to the intersection there. Near this same corner is a delapidated railroad crossing post, and a square board under it, (formerly a caution sign, I presume). Lettering completely obliterated. Second at southeast corner Monaghan and Lansdowne, there is a broken down old board fence, about 100 feet or so, zig-zagging towards the railway tracks, three of which cross here at an angle. This piece of architecture should be eliminated.

Now back to northeast corner Lansdowne and Monaghan. Here a large sign board is set in the corner, obscuring a clear view when rounding into Monaghan Rd. Going east again, starting from this corner, there are about 20 piles of lumber stacked 10 or 15 feet high nearly down to the railway tracks at crossing. This I consider an obstruction to a clear view of railway tracks on trains coming out of the city. Crossing the tracks, we come to another railway crossing sign post (no caution board at this one). This three track crossing should have a proper up to the minute wig-wag—lights and semaphore arms installed in the interest of safety for all. There is nothing here to protect the pedestrian and motorist till something happens, and then it is too late. I also understand that when the town planning expert, Mr. Faludi, was in Peterborough, he said there were far too many railway crossings in the city, 70 or 72 of them. And the greater number of them completely unprotected and just let go at that stage. Also stop and go lights should be installed at Lock and Lansdowne.

Furthermore, I would suggest to this city council that they turn on the heat on the railroad companies and get those dangerous street crossing traps made at least safe for any to cross for pedestrian and motorist alike.

If safety standards are to be adopted, then the co-operation of all concerned should be carried through.

Yours,

Through Churchill Port

(Regina Leader-Post)

The 1950 commercial shipping season in Hudson's Bay has ended and supporters of the Bay route have some cause to be cheerful when considering the season's operations.

It is true that the extended season met with a setback when ice in the strait held up the first incoming ships, so that they docked at Churchill only eight days earlier than last year, although the 1950 season was two weeks longer. Nevertheless, all the deep-sea vessels using the port made the voyage without incident.

In terms of wheat exported through Churchill, the season was a record one. Previous all-time high came in 1949 when 16 ships carried away 5,528,000 bushels of grain. This year 20 ships sailed through the Bay, with 6,700,500 bushels. In addition, three of the incoming ships carried cargoes to Churchill—the largest number ever to do so.

Of course, 6,700,500 bushels is still a long way from the 15,000,000 or 20,000,000 which Bay route supporters insist could be handled through Churchill in one season. But the 1950 figure does represent an improvement.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you....And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ. (II Thess. 3: 1, 5.)

Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of God; who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, but is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. (II Tim. 8-10.)

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. (I Cor. 15: 55-58.)

Elections, The Militia In 50's Simcoe St. Siege; Riot Act

By HOWARD PAMMETT, M.A.

To the west, the Government in 1857 began the Bobcaygeon Colonization Road, built by contract, to stimulate settlement. The idea was to give work to new immigrants who then could begin farming, but actually most land was taken up by sons of farmers from southern townships. A settler 18 years of age or over who would take possession within one month, and in four years have twelve acres cultivated and living in a house 20 by 18 feet, was given 100 acres free. By 1860 the road stretched 45 miles north between Harvey and Verulam, Galway and Somerville, Snowdon and Lutterworth, Minden and Anson townships. A. R. M. Lower writing of the timber trade said: "The colonization wagon roads . . . such as the Bobcaygeon Road, though intended to encourage settlement, were used chiefly by the lumbermen to freight in their supplies." The Burleigh Road, begun in 1860, will be described later.

Galway was surveyed 1857-60, and by 1859 had 30 settlers including O'Briens, Flahertys, Sullivans and other sons of Irish emigrants. T. Probert in 1860 opened a store and postoffice on lot 7, conc. A. By 1861 the population was 430, and 20 pupils were attending school. Somerville, surveyed in the 30s, by 1861 had 614 people, mostly lumbermen. Snowdon, Lutterworth & Anson, surveyed in 1858-9, had 688 people by 1861; most were lumbermen, but many settled down and farmed later. In 1869 Wm. Ritchie, M. Newell, Wm. McElwain and a few others settled around Gelert and others around Spring Hill.

Minden was surveyed in 1858, and Francis Kent settled the same year. In 1859 came M. Campbell, Wm. and J. Murray, H. Dawkins,

J. and H. Burns. Wm. Gainor built a sawmill in 1860, and R. Smith another in 1863. Where Bobcaygeon road crossed the river Daniel Buck began a tavern and postoffice. "Gull River," later named Minden. Thomas Young started a general store and as it was the depot for Dickson's and other shanties, it grew rapidly. The Peterborough Examiner in Oct. 1860 called it "a busy spot." Minden, Stanhope and Dysart together had only 274 people in 1864; Stanhope, surveyed in 1860, had settlers before that: I. Hunter in 1855, G. Mason in 1859, J. Mellville and R. Clarke in 1860. In 1859 the townships of Galway, Snowdon, Minden, Lutterworth and Anson were united for municipal purposes, and loosely tied to Smith township. Though 1850 marked the end of the pioneering stage in southern townships, the frontier north of the Kawarthas was being pioneered up to 1900

Elections

In the 1851 election, James Hall, Reform MP, was defeated by John Langton, Conservative. Victario in 1853 became a separate riding, and in the 1854 election the winners were: Peterborough: John Langton by acclamation; Victoria: James Smith, Reformer, over M. Boyd, Conservative. In 1855 Langton resigned to become Auditor-General, and a bitter fight developed between W. S. Conger, F. Ferguson and A. Sawers, with a press duel between the Review and the Dispatch. Conger, Conservative, supported the Trent Canal and the road companies, attacking Ferguson for "republicanism"; Ferguson was strong for temperance and Separate schools. Although George Brown, famous "Grit" leader and "Globe" editor spoke in Peterborough for Ferguson, he was defeated by Conger. Sawers who got 17 votes, started the Examiner to bolster the Reform cause. In the 1857 election, Thomas Short, Reformer, defeated W. S. Conger and A. Sawers (who again got 17 votes.) In Victoria, John Cameron Toronto banker, and Conservative, won over three local candidates.

Militia Reorganized

In 1847-48 the district militia was reorganized into seven battalions of "Peterborough Militia," as follows: 1st Batt. under Lt. Col. A. McDonell, N. Monaghan and Smith; 2nd Batt. under Lt. Col. George Hall, Peterborough town and Douro; 3rd Batt. under Lt. Col. R. Birdsall, Asphodel, Dummer, Belmont, etc.; 4th Batt., Lt. Col. E. Davidson, Emily, Verulam, Somerville, in 1852 renamed the 1st Victoria Battalion; 5th Batt., Lt. Col. A. S. Fraser, Ops, Fenelon and Bexley, 1852 reorganized as 2nd Victoria Battalion; 6th Batt., Lt. Col. J. Langton, Eldon and Mariposa, 1852 renamed 3rd Victoria Battalion; 7th Batt., under Lt. Col. J. Wallis, Otonabee, in 1852 renamed the 4th Peterborough Battalion. In 1857 the Peterborough Rifle Company was organized, under Capt. W. A. Scott, followed by the 1st Ashburnham Volunteers under Capt. R. D. Rogers, the Lakefield Rifle Company under Capt. Leigh, and the Lindsay Rifle Company under Capt. Hudspeth; these were reorganized as Light Infantry Companies 1862-63, training independently of the militia battalions.

Freemasonry flourished in the district in the 1850s. Corinthian Lodge 101 met in the Oddfellows' Hall, and contained many prominent citizens; in 1859 it affiliated with the Canada West Grand Lodge. In 1857 Faithful Brethren Lodge at Manilla was formed, and King Hiram Lodge at Lindsay. Lodge 150 at Hastings was formed about the same time. Orange Lodges were also being organized in rural regions; in 1856 there was no Peterborough County Master listed, but Dr. John Irons was Victoria County Master and on the Provincial Grand Committee were E. J. Boswell, Jos. Bird and Wm. Crawford. The Peterborough Review 1855 exhorted Loyal Orangemen to vote for Conger and oppose the "republican Ferguson and his master, George Brown, who favoured a bill to suppress secret societies."

The 1846-7 fever epidemic was especially severe on the eastern part of concessions 9, 10 and 11 of Cavan township, west of Springville, which were swampy. Some local youths began going out in groups on moonlit nights to help their neighbours by reaping their crops for them. Often they met secretly in barnyards or forest cabins to plan their activities, and to start on horseback for an evening of work or fun. The most credible of several tales about how the name "Cavan Blazers" originated recounts that, when the Cavanville postmaster became a Roman Catholic convert and built cabins in which to settle others of that faith, the young men with Orange zeal burned the cabins down one night. The old Maguire residence just north of Millbrook was set ablaze one day while Mass was being celebrated inside, and the rear section burned. They are also said to have burned down the Roman Catholic Church in Port Hope, and destroyed tollgates on the Port Hope road near Millbrook by fire.

Riot Act Read

One of the few events to which a definite date can be attached occurred on March 17, 1863, when the Irishmen of Peterborough planned a monster parade, and the Orangemen called in the Cavan Blazers to help them prevent it. The Irish "citadel" at Phelan's Hotel on Simcoe Street was besieged with the help of a cannon, and Mayor Perry was forced to read the Riot Act to prevent a battle; the crowds dispersed but the St. Patrick's parade was not held. Yet the evidence is contradictory, for the Blazers were said to harvest the crops of Cavan Catholics when they were ill, and they on one occasion escorted Father Butler from Peterborough to the bedside of a dying Catholic.

Other "Robin Hood" stories about the Blazers are numerous and vague. When the parents of a young girl locked her in her room to compel her to marry an old man instead of her sweetheart, the Blazers helped her down a ladder and away to Peterborough with her young swain to be married. A miser's wagon was put on the ridgepole of his barn one night as a warning. To cure a person who preached two-hour sermons, they hung a clanging cowbell on the telegraph wires in front of the church which jangled loudly all through the service. Robert Kellet, of Millbrook, was too loud in his criticisms of their actions and they built a huge bonfire in front of his house one night; while Kellet was engaged in putting it out, all his poultry disappeared for a midnight chicken roast in the woods. More reprehensible deeds such as shaving horses, cutting off cows' tails, and thefts of stock, were blamed on the "Blazers" by some, though others said they were the work of drifters and lumbermen. By 1860 most of the deeds which could not be explained were attributed to the Blazers, usually in a detrimental tone, but as it is impossible to separate fact from fiction after so many years, the truth will never be known.

With the development of more wholesome recreation after 1860, the Cavan Blazers gradually ceased their activities both good and bad. Richard Howden, who was brought to Cavan in 1848 at the age of two, was interviewed in 1934 and featured in an article as an Orangeman for 75 years and the "Last of the Cavan Blazers." The article said: "Of the activities of the Blazers he declined to recall any details nor the names of associates." Mr. E. S. Clarry in the Millbrook Mirror-Reporter of Nov. 18, 1943, gave this legendary group a fitting obituary.

If you don't believe that the game bird situation is wonderful this year, listen to what happens in the town of Lindsay. It is not unusual for citizens to see partridge strutting along various streets; several have been reported. Vince Gendron nearly ran over a hen pheasant at a main street corner; he cornered the bird, caught it and turned it over unhurt to a department conservation officer.

Of course, the old business of birds committing hari-kari by diving into windows of homes and stores, is a fairly frequent occurrence. A grouse smacked into a window at Col. Shield's residence, and, at Cannington a pheasant sailed into Mrs. Alex Forbes picture window; she picked it up dead as a doornail in a fern jardiniere and estimated the cost of a new pane was even-Steven with the cost of a butcher's pot roast.

Winter must have turned on the cold in earnest up North.

There are many late Fall ducks throughout the district and flights of geese winging back and forth. Tony Walton of Lindsay proved that one flock was low enough when he shot a honker with a wing spread of 58 inches.

This week's fine spell of weather, named delayed summer rather than Indian Summer, makes for the picking of raspberries. Strawberries are plumping out in Bethany and blueberries blooming on the rocks in Harvey Township. The butternut crop is exceptionally heavy.

West of Lindsay the Alfred Browns of Sutherland picked their Fall apples and parked them in an old sleigh in the driving shed. At the same time a wandering skunk was also looking for a place to park during the daytime, a nice quiet place, such as under the sleigh. The Browns are now bewildered; they can't take the apples out of storage without the Striped One raising a stink that would at the same time foul up the fruit. If nights get cool enough, without too much frost, enough to nudge the skunk into a warmer nest, there will be apple pie at the Brown farm come hog-killing time.

It's Me, Folks, Bignose

Roy Beeler of Monaghan Rd., received a clipping from his nephew Lester out of the Annapolis (N.S.) Spectator telling of damage to their car while driving to Bridgetown to do the family shopping. Lester shoved on the brakes when confronted by a large moose standing in the middle of the road. The big animal decided to investigate the shining tin crittur. It did a thorough job by rearing up on the hood of the car on its ungainly front legs and pressing its ugly puss against the windshield for a real close look at Lester and his wife. Whether the sight of them miffed the big brute will never be known but in backing its bulk down from the hood, it carried both headlights with it. Vandalism burned out of the savage breast, the moose sauntered away into the woods. Don't believe it, eh? Write to Mr. and Mrs. Avard Buckler who watched the episode from their own parked car. Moose have a noosance value down in the Maritimes.

Mathematics For Wingshots

Duck hunters do some of their shooting in the coffee shops and get into all sorts of heated arguments about the flight speeds of game birds. Here are the findings from a group of researchers on the m.p.h.'s of unmolested birds; dove and plover, 38; quail, prairie chicken, partridge, snipe, mallard, black duck, spoonbill, pintail, wood duck, widgeon and gadwall, 41; swans, 45; Canada geese and brants, 48; greenwinged teal, 79; redhead, 32; blue winged teal, 89; and canvasback, 94 m.p.h.

So, successful waterfowl shooting depends on lead, (the number of feet one must shoot ahead of the bird) which depends on knowing the approximate speed of the bird and the distance of same away from the hunter. But this is not all. Once all this is mastered there's still plenty of margin for a miss if the hunter freezes and shoots instead of keeping the shotgun moving. A complicated business, this bird shooting on the wing. A revival of the old Peterborough Skeet Club might keep the boys in trim throughout the year was Bob McCabe's summary of the situation.

BEAUTY OF THE KAWARTHAS was captured on canvas and paper when 12 members of the Ontario Art Club spent ten days in the district working from Lakefield as a base. In the Right photo, Vicki Kierstead and Oscar Schlienger, both of Toronto, work in watercolors and oils from the summit of Lynch's Rock, east of Lakefield. One of Miss Kierstead's completed sketches is shown in the Left photo.—(Examiner Staff Photos)

Painters Find Kawarthas Have Everything Artist Wants

By NICK NICKELS

High on a hill in Douro Township at Lynch's Rock a group of artists gathered last Sunday to capture the beauty of the Kawarthats on canvas and paper. The rock commanded a view of the countryside in all directions. Each artist, it seemed, took his position according to his mood and scope, for, the sketches improved in ratio to the heighth of the promontory.

A lady who used a cane necessarily set up her easel by the parked cars at the road. Her sketch was quiet yet strong; there was contentment in it.

In a nearby tangle of pine trees another lady blocked in a design on her board, perception mentally narrowed to the subject which hemmed her in.

Three more parties were stationed half way to the peak of the rock. They set down their total impressions that rose above the roadway to the middle distance.

On the very summit four other sketchers reached for the far horizons; the immensity of the view baffled two of them somewhat but they had courage. The other two were in their element.

Oscar Schlienger worker swiftly at an oil wash while Vicki Kirstead washed in a massive composition in water color. It was a pleasure to watch them. They captured the breadth of the subject in bold unfaltering strokes, both masters of their mediums. And they were the heartiest boosters of the Kawarthas that one could hope to meet.

"You people have everything here," they said.

This group, known officially as the Ontario Art Club, were able to make this observation through having painted in various parts of the province. Algonquin Park, Haliburton, the Muskokas, all had a certain something in the way of subject matter. But only the Kawarthas had everything. They were winding up their fourth consecutive year in these parts, on Sunday, a crystal clear day, that inspired them to work like beavers. During their ten-day roamings in the district, from Blue Mountain, Burleigh, Warsaw, Rice Lake and around Lakefield, there had been many gray days, days when they had to sketch from their cars to keep their work dry. It did not dampen their enthusiasm one whit and they stacked up an abundance of fine work to prove it.

The two experts singled out above were of European stock. Mr. Schlienger, Swiss born and Canadian naturalized, says definitely that the spaces of Canada have broadened his vision and work. He feels that he is improving all the time and that anyone of foreign birth who cannot improve himself in Canada is a misfit. Miss Kirstead, a third generation Norwegian, backs up Mr. Schlienger's theory. Their skill in interpreting the Canadian landscape seems to prove that we natives cannot see our country "for the trees."

Everybody is a potential murderer. I've never killed any one, but I frequently get satisfaction reading the obituary notices.

Prize-Winning Grade 10 IODE Essay

Cavan Farm Granted To Napoleon's Jailer

(Ed. Note. This essay by Dianne Cullen, 16, took first prize in an I.O.D.E. contest for Grade 10 pupils. A historical theme of local interest was required, as a bow to Peterborough's centennial year, and this essay is a fine contribution to county history. It is about her father's farm. Dianne Cullen is now in Grade 11 at P.C.V.S.

By DIANNE CULLEN, RR 1, IDA

The subject "A Pioneer Farm", is of very real interst to me because it so happens that my parents some four years ago, purchased the Dundas farm in the township of Cavan, County Durham, and it truly has a very interesting and historical background.

Early in the nineteenth century, Napoleon Bonaparte of France was at the height of his fame when suddenly misfortune and reverses came upon him in the battle of Waterloo which he lost in the year 1815 and he abdicated to Elba. At this time Gustavus Dundas, a native of Ireland, belonger to a regiment from Britain which was victorious in this battle. Napoleon was taken a prisoner and sent to St. Helena and Gustavus was one of the soldiers orderd to guard him. He was with him until Napoleon's death from cancer in 1821.

One of his souvenirs which he carried home with him was a piece of wood taken from a willow tree under which Napoleon whiled away many of his hours while in exile.

When Gustavus Dundas was discharged he was given by King George IV of England, as a reward for his services, a free grant of land in Cavan township in the new land across the sea. This gift of some three hundred acres he divided with his half brother Moses who migratd to Canada in 1823 from County Fermanagh in Ireland. He and his family of seven children lived for a time in Grenville county near Kemptville with his wife's brother, John Johnson. Moses Dundas came up to Cavan and built a log house on his acres.

This original house we are told was just west of our poultry house and tool shop. Then he sent for his family who came by boat to Port Hope. The mother, upon arriving there sent their two eldest boys, Gustavus, called after his uncle and John, aged 10 and 12 years a distance of 22 miles by trail through virgin forest to tell their father in Cavan that the family had arrived at Port Hope. The father went after them and they returned to their new home, the mother carrying their infant son and the boys and father other belongings which included a loom as Moses was a woollen weaver. Two more children were born in this country.

As the years went by the youngest son James took over the farm of 150 acres. He married Margaret Sutton and died at the age of 46 years, leaving his wife and three daughters, Susan, Sara and Mary and one son Richard.

To Scotland For Stallions

Richard Dundas, the grandnephew of Captain Gustavus now owned the farm and he specialized in fine stock. He made many trips to Scotland to purchase high grade thoroughbred stallions and one of his trips was made, especially to buy a pony as a wedding gift for

He slept beneath the moon,
He basked beneath the sun;
He lived a life of going-to-do,
And died with nothing done.

JAMES ALBERRY: Epitaph for himself, 1889

his bride, Margaret Grandy. They had one daughter Miriam who at the present time resides in the United States. At the time Richard and Margaret were married the Indians were camped in the laneway halfway down the farm.

About the year 1885 a new brick house was built and about 15 years later another part was added to it which gives the house at the present time 13 rooms in all. When we had a new chimney and fireplace built the brick mason found the walls to have been built of three brick thickness with air space between and then plastered. So it was that we were not aware of chimneys originally built to the ground floor which had not been in use for some years and chimney holes had been covered when rooms had been decorated. Because of the thickness of the walls it had been possible to build the chimneys right in the walls with no projections either inside or outside.

Early Bathroom

Also at the time of building bathroom facilities were installed. A large wooden tank, lined with copper and divided in half for hot and cold water with a hand pressure pump system supplied water to the bathroom. This has been replaced by an electric system since we purchased the farm. Another item of interest is that we are using the original furnace that was installed when the house was built.

The splendid stables housed Ayrshire cattle which were of high degree also. Another building was made up of box stalls which accommodated the fine horses and today you may still see here and there tacked on the walls cards bearing the words 'first prize' from different agricultural societies in Scotland, relating to the high standard of Richard Dundas' live stock.

Huge Trees

Immediately back of the farm buildings there is a creek which runs the full length of the farm. Though small today it must have been a much larger stream at one time because large boulders which no doubt were used as approaches are evidence of this fact. Back over the fields which in the olden days were all named by the owner such as the park field, the great oak field, the hilly field, etc., one comes upon a section which at some time had great stately trees adorning its landscape. Stumps measuring up to 48 inches in diameter are to be found and in two or three places huge trees have been felled, their trunks used for natural bridges over the creek.

The Canadian Pacific Railway line to Toronto cuts through our most southern field and I am told that all the work pertaining to this was by horse teams which must have been a gigantic task in those early days.

Cattle Sale Held For Church

A famous sale of cattle in Douro is recalled by a clipping from the Examiner of October 1894 which Miss Norah Devlin brought into the Examiner office this week. Miss Devlin is a daughter of the late Roger Devlin, who was a son of John Devlin, who received the original grant of 200 acres on the Norwood Road about six miles out from the city. Miss Devlin now resides in Ashburnham.

In 1892 a large number of the farmers of Douro presented a calf each to the St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, agreeing to raise it to be sold by auction three years later. The sale in the autumn of 1894 was of these animals, many of them prize stock.

Joseph Haggart was the auctioneer, and 118 head of cattle were knocked down in three hours, the auctioneer disposing of them at the rate of one a minute. The sale netted over $1,500, a handsome sum in those days.

The 1892 clipping reads: "The attendance of buyers was large and the bidding for the choice steer the most brisk and snappy in Mr. Haggart's experience. The Rev. W. J. Kielty is to be congratulated upon his hard work and devotion being so gratifyingly rewarded and recognized."

Lament For Philip

When I remember again
How my Phillip was slain,
Never half the pain
Was between you twain,
Pyramus and Thisbe,
As then befell to me:
I wept and I wailed,
The tears down hailed,
But nothing it availed,
To call Phillip again,
Whom Gig, our cat, hath slain.

I sighed and I sobbed,
For that I was robbed
Of my sparrow's life.
O maiden, widow, wife,
Of what estate ye be,
Of high or low degree,
Great sorrow ye might see,
And learn to weep of me!
Sometimes he would gasp
When he saw a wasp,
A fly or a gnat,
He would fly at that;
And prettily he would pant
When he saw an ant.
Lord! how he would pry
After the butterfly!
Lord! how he would hop
After the grasshop!
And when I said, "Phip, Phip!"
Then he would leap and skip,
And take me by the lip.
Alas, it will me sloe
That Phillip is gone me fro'.
Si-in-i-qui-ta-tes,
Alas, I was ill at ease!
De-pro-fun-dis-cla-ma-vi,
When I saw my sparrow die.

For Phillip Sparrow's soul,
Set in our bead-roll,
Let us now whisper
A Pater-noster!

Hints On Horticulture

PRUNING SHRUBS

The objects of pruning are: (1) To encourage the development of vigorous growth and the subsequent production of flowers. (2) To eliminate worthless branches and superfluous growth, and thus favor the equal distribution of air and light. (3) To remove defective parts. (4) To promote growth to replace these and assist nature to restore symmetry.

It is an easy matter to remove all undesirable growth, providing certain principles are observed. (1) When removing branches do not leave stubs; each undesirable portion should be removed with a slanting cut at its junction with another stem, or just above a joint. (2) Whenever it is necessary to shorten or "head back" the longest branches, all should not be cut at the same height. (3) Growth should be encouraged close to the ground rather than at the apex of the shrub; to induce this the longest branches must be gradually removed. As the stronger branches grow more quickly to the source of light, the weaker lateral ones eventually succumb, as it is a case of survival of the fittest, consequently the main stems near the ground appear bare and unsightly, therefore the stronger must be removed to be replaced by the weak. Dilapidation quickly ensues where careful pruning is not exercised, but where the practice pertains renovation is constantly taking place, much to the enhanced appearance of the subjects.

Cobourg Galloping Ghosts Down The Orfuns, 10 to 6

The Galloping Ghosts of Cobourg wound up their ORFU schedule here last night with a 10-6 victory over the Orfuns. A fair-sized crowd witnessed the tilt which had no bearing on the standing as the Ghosts finished first and go into intermediate "A" playdowns while the runner-up Orfuns hit the "B" trail against the loser of the Parkdale-Dundas series, which is Tuesday next week. All the Cobourg points came in the second quarter, a Peterborough backfield fumble starting it on the home 4-yard chalk, Darragh grabbing the loose ball and racing fast for a touchdown which Art Jones converted. Later, Bob Cooper kicked a single and before the frame ended, Jones booted a placement after good runs by Darragh, Medhurst and Campbell.

A Long Pass

The Orfuns' points came in the fourth when Don McGillis took a 35-yard forward heave from Bill Huntley and stepped over the line for a major count, Huntley then kicking the convert. Huntley again was the big ground gainer for Peterborough, with Bill Thompson and Jim Conlin helping at times. The homesters' line was good but the backfield didn't click up to top form as a whole. The whole Cobourg backfield went well.

Cooper gave the Ghosts a margin on kicking, and his passing was good, with Quigley the best receiver. They completed six passes to Orfuns' three, the latter having three fumbles, while the teams were even on first downs with 13 apiece. Levantis blocked a kick once to relieve the pressure while Conlin and Huntley intercepted passes, Campbell doing this twice for Cobourg. Ron Hodson had several nice kick runbacks. Orfuns missed the hoofing of Chuck Paul who was out of the city.

Cobourg: Flying wing, Currelly; halves, Darragh, Quigley, Campbell, quarter, Cooper; snap, McConvey, inside, Seale, McNally; middles, Burdick, Lees; outsides, Martin, Ross; alternates, Longhurst, Jarvis, Holman, Sanders, Lewis, Braden, Brandwood, Hawkins, Hircock, Edminson, Douglas, Smith, Hamilton, McMinn, Medhurst, Black.

Orfuns: Flying wing, Conlin; halves, Huntley, Matthews, J. McGillis; quarter, Scriver; snap, Beatty; insides, McKim, Levantis; middles, Bonney, F. Fitzgerald; outsides, Trimm, D. McGillis; alternates, DeCarlo, Hodson, Burns, Hill, Masters, Farr, Fraser, Thompson, Archibald, Marshall, R. Fitzgerald, Lynch, Sullivan.

Officials: D. Hiltz, L. Deadey, J. Ferrier.

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

Toronto Maple Leafs of the NHL pulled a surprise last night in their attempt to bolster an injury-ridden defence.

The Leafs announced that they have requested permission from NHL president Clarence Campbell to use defenceman Bobby Copp of the Ottawa Senators on a three-game lend-lease basis.

The 32-year-old former Leaf would replace Bill Barilko, injured Wednesday at Boston. Copp, a big, steady rearguard, has been practising dentistry in Ottawa while playing for the Senators of the Quebec Senior League since voluntarily retiring from the Leafs after the 1943 season. If the Leaf request is granted, Copp will play in Chicago Sunday night.

An official of the Sherbrooke Saints recommended last night that the Quebec Senior Hockey League withdraw from the Canadian Hockey Association as a result of a ruling on two defencemen.

The CAHA announced in Midland that Bill Heindl and Larry Zeidel, two former QSHL players, had been awarded to Saskatoon Quakers of the Western Canada League. The Sherbrooke suggestion would be to protest the action.

An extra five days of racing in Ontario to follow the scheduled close of the season Nov. 6—because of the "dire straits" of many horse owners—has been requested by the Ontario Division of the Horsemen's Benevolent Protective Association.

S. Tupper Bigelow, chairman of the Ontario Racing Commission, said Friday the request will be studied at the next commission meeting Wednesday, Oct. 25.

Fred S. Orpen, owner of west-end Dufferin race track, which starts the season's final two weeks today, has agreed to stage the extra racing at Dufferin if permission is granted.

Vince Sheridan, head of the Ontario Division of the HBPA, said four of the eight daily races at the extra session would be limited to horses owned by Canadians, with Ontario residents preferred. About $60,000 in purses would be provided.

The large influx of horses from Western Canada and Quebec—where the season closes earlier—has resulted in difficulty in overcrowded entry lists with many horses unable to get racing chances.

Chris Spencer, eight-year-old gelding owned by the Bostwick Farms, Shelborne, Vt., won both heats of the Toledo Times $25,000 free-for-all trot at Fort Miami raceway Friday night.

The famed Proximity, driven by Clint Hodgins, of Clandeboye, Ont., finished a weak fifth in the first heat and was scratched in the finale.

The New Masked Marvel has built himself quite a reputation, and has not lost a match to date. He will meet a good opponent in Flanagan.

Hamilton Pastes Dutchmen In Opening Tilt

By The Canadian Press.

Perhaps it's too early to judge, but veteran Ab Conick seems set for another fine season in the Ontario Hockey Association Senior A series.

The Hamilton Tigers' sharpshooter turned in two overtime goals last night—the winning margin—as Tigers downed Kitchener-Waterloo Flying Dutchmen 3-1 in Hamilton.

It was the first game of the senior A season. The juniors started their schedule a week ago.

Win In Overtime

Frank Liscombe opened the scoring for Hamilton in the first period. The second was scoreless and Art Hurst netted the tying goal in the third frame to send the contest into extra time.

All 10 junior A teams saw action, with Barrie Flyers winning their fourth straight to take a three-point lead in the standings. The winless Waterloo Hurricanes lost another to stick in the cellar. Stratford Kroehlers won to take over second slot, with five teams in a third-place tie.

Flyers blasted St. Michael's Majors, 10-4, after spotting Saints a 2-0 lead in the first 90 seconds of play. Jerry Toppazzini led Barrie with two goals and two assists. Leo Labine also got two, singles going to Jack McKnight, Real Chevrefils, Lionel Barber, Reg Campbell, Don Emms and Fred Pletsch. Fred Sandford, Bill Dineen, Jack Weldrake and Harold McNamara tallied for St. Mikes.

Kroehlers Win

Another 2-0 deficit was overcome in Stratford, as Kroehlers whipped Waterloo Hurricanes 6-4. Larry Lemenchick with two, Roy Leckie, Ray Ross, Bob Bailey and Gord Myles were Stratford scorers. Charlie McDonald, Alf Treen, Don Savage and Jerry Horton tallied for the losers.

Alec Delvecchio and Rene Leroux paced Oshawa Generals to a 5-4 win over Guelph Biltmores with two goals apiece. It was Bilts' first loss of the season. Bobby Atersley got one for Oshawa. Chuck Henderson scored twice for Guelph, others going to Andy Bathgate and Herb Dickenson.

Marlboros Triumph

Windsor Spitfires grabbed a 3-1 first period lead over Toronto Marlboros but wilted later, losing 7-4. Bill McFarland, Ron Hurst, Bob Cooper, Dan Poland, Parker McDonald, Ron Stewart and Bibber O'Hearn were Duke scorers. Larry Thibeault with two, Jim Anderson and Eddie Joss scored for Bilts.

Goalie Clark Sommerville starred for Galt Black Hawks as they downed St. Catharines Teepees 3-1. Bob Carruthers, Tony Poeta and Don Hogan tallied for Hawks, Skip Teal for the losers.

Tigers Take Three From Hurricanes

Tigers and Lucky Strikes whitewashed Hurricanes and Corvettes in the YMCA bowling league this week. Commandos took two from Glengarry and Bombers took two from Aces.

J. Mann rolled a high three of 688 and tied E. Pearcy with 266 for high single. Ada Merrett had 677, Betty Pogue 659, Betty Castle 643, E. Pearcy 612, Wanda Lackie 606 and Winnie McCarrell 603.

Others good singles were J. Mann 260, Betty Castle 259, A. Merrett 244, Helen Howden 243, Joyce Towns 241, Zada Bell 241, M. Cunning 238, D. Martin 238 and Mary Arnold 233.

During the past several years football authorities in Canada and United States have argued that the "foot" in football is gradually disappearing in favor of the passing game.

Place kicks, used now only on the kick-offs, after a try is scored, on an attempt for a field goal and on the convert, is the only type of kick actually holding the "foot" in the game.

Good punters are few and far between. Joe Krol, of the Toronto Argos, stands out as the master but even then compared to some footballers in the United States, he is only average.

For the last several years the Orfuns (formerly Panthers) have been looking for a long-distance punter to strengthen their defensive play. This year they stopped looking when Chuck Paul of Ottawa turned out for practices. His long hoofs have often saved the Orfuns.

On the PCVS teams there is only one punter and he is average, Al Northcott. Play on both the junior teams suffers from the lack of a good punter who can lift the ball out of danger territory or put the team into scoring territory.

St. Peter's High School teams have both fair kickers. Fred Allore's seniors boasts Carl Brioux who was the difference in their win here with DeLaSalle. Johnny Lynch's juniors have Frank McGillen who has helped out this year both offensively and defensively with his punts.

Gone are the days when the fans could thrill to a drop-kick as it split the bars. Locally the drop-kick has been out for several years.

Johnny Green, two years ago with the PCVS senior Garnet and Greys, had this type of kick down to perfection. Calmly he would drop-kick the extra points after a touchdown.

While playing at the University of Toronto last year Green led the scoring on his team, thanks to his drop-kicking. Seldom did he try a field goal with this kick while at PCVS but managed to connect on a couple with Varsity.

This year only one local player attempts drop-kicks, Dave Langhorne with the PCVS junior A team. His attempts have been for the most part successful and mostly on converts.

Several games around town this aft, weather being right. Ball fans can see the final game of the season at 2.30 in Riverside Park when Mimico plays Ed Woodcock's local bantams. It's the second of their best-of-three OBA final playoffs. Yep, for the provincial title. Mimico won the first 4-2, but the locals hope to even it today. At 1.30 in the Oval, grid followers can view Oshawa and Alex Londry's junior "A" PCI-ers in a group game, followed by a district playoff betwixt Oshawa Collegiate and Bev Goulding's senior squad. So, folks, you pay your money and you take your choice.

Sports College comes out with this remark: "Many persons say young athletes who are doing exceptionally well will burn themselves out before they mature. Sports College has found that any unfortunate results seemingly caused by hard physical activity are always the result of poor diet, inefficient training and a general lack of intelligent development, rather than because the athlete started too young and drove himself too hard. As far as doing too much too young is concerned, have you ever tried to stay with a five-year-old during a typical day's activities?" Yes, indeed, and he darn near burned us out.

Lee In For Tough Night

A rousing three-bout pro mat card is slated for Tuesday night next at the Brock. None other than leering Lee Henning and Yukon Eric in the main bout, with Pat Flanagan tackling the Masked Marvel (who the dickens is he?) in the semi-final, and scrappy Abe Zvonkin meeting Bobby Nelson in the prelim. Just recently we were writing of Yukon Eric, a powerhouse of a guy with a pouter pigeon chest. He's really strong and cashes in on that alone to headline many bouts in much bigger towns than this. Grapple fans here can't complain of getting inferior quality in their shows.

The pro football game in the States is a swell show and lots of entertainment, but it isn't football. That's what Red Blaik of Army claims in a Collier's article. He has developed five undefeated Army teams in nine years, and he doesn't think a pro squad would stand a chance if it played an eight-game schedule against tough college teams like Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Southern California and some more. Red feels the pros are turning the game into basketball by depending so much on the forward pass. Also they lack the youth and the fire of college football. Furthermore, they each do just one job and worry about none other, even declining to run after a guy who has eluded them. It might be, at that.

It's Been A Long Time

Not since before the war—not that Korean incident, of course—have the local ORFU gridders been able to do a thing with the pesky Ghosts of Cobourg. We were sure the Bamforth bunch would down the Rapid Wraithes here last evening, but the score came out 10-6 for them. Now this is most discouraging, but you must give the Cooper crew full credit. They have a fine backfield behind a pretty solid line, and last night they had the kicking, passing and running. Apart from one payoff pass—Bill Huntley to Don McGillis — and some tremendous plunging by Huntley, with Bill Thompson and Jim Conlin effective at times, too, our squad didn't have it this game. Though the line was good,

* * * * * *

However, it's playdown time now in the ORFU. Parkdale and Dundas have a sudden-deather on Tuesday, the winner going into the provincial intermediate "A" playdowns against Cobourg, while the loser meets Peterborough in the "B" sawoffs, probably next week-end. The local footballers proved better than Oshawa and Orillia this semester but not quite good enough to take Cobourg. At that, Orfuns might go further in playdowns in the "B" series. Scotty Black, irrepressible trainer—and former star soccer player—for Cobourg, got into the game for a kickoff once. He also in practice booted a nice 40-yard placement. (You're welcome, Scotty, and it'll no cost ye a penny!)

Sarnia Fund For Football Player

SARNIA, Oct. 21 (CP). — A group of Sarnia industrial and business leaders has organized a Jack Bell memorial trust fund and a minimum figure of $25,000 was named as an objective.

The purpose of the fund is to give monthly assistance, as long as she lives, to Mrs. Jennie Bell, widowed mother of the former quarterback with the Senior Ontario Rugby Football Union Sarnia Imperials who died of injuries suffered in last Saturday's game with Toronto Balmy Beach here.

Oshawa Victors Rap Guelph 5-4

GUELPH, Oct. 21 — (CP) — Guelph Biltmores were handed their first defeat of the Ontario Hockey Association Junior A season here Friday night when they dropped a 5-4 decision to the improved Oshawa Generals. It was Guelph's first loss in three games, and left them with the same record as the Generals.

Oshawa took advantage of a porous Guelph defence to build up a 5-1 lead before the seven minute mark in the third period and then staved off a furious Guelph finish.

Alex Delvecchio and Rene Leroux paced the Oshawa attack, each with a pair of goals. Bobby Attersley scored the other. Chuck Henderson sniped a pair for Guelph, the others going to Andy Bathgate and Herb Dickenson.

Dickenson's goal came in a desperation offensive by the Hatters when Alfie Pike removed goalie Cliff Hicks and sent six forwards inside the Oshawa zone. The move paid off when Dickenson cashed from a schamble.

Both goalies were kept busy. Cliff Hicks had to make 44 saves for Guelph while Dick Piatowski kicked out 34.

Gardner Pots 3 Goals Cornwall Blasts Hull

OTTAWA, Oct. 21 (CP). —Fred Gardner pulled the hat trick on Friday night as Cornwall Calumets squashed Hull Volants 6-1 in an eastern Canada Senior Hockey League game.

Gardner whipped up three goals in one minute and 19 seconds to take a major slice of the scoring. He did it in the second period and the effort made it 4-0 for the Calumets. Because of penalties — Cornwall had a 4-3 edge in the lineups when Gardner put on his spurt for the first goal. Hull was two men short for the second effort and one man light for the third.

In the third period, Gardner did most of the work in assisting his linemate, Jean-Paul Lafortune, to the fifth tally and Jim Denneny finished the scoring for the winners just 13 seconds before the contest ended. Lone Hull goal came from the stick of Ron Landry.

In between leaps of 226 feet, the 22-year-old Bergmann met Vera. She flew to Norway in May and they were married July 15.

The Bergmanns will live in Revelstoke. Bergmann will coach the Revelstoke club.

Lottery Scheme In Britain Would Share $150,000,000

By EDWIN S. JOHNSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Oct. 21 —(CP)— Britons, who wager millions of dollars annually on the horses, greyhound racing, football pools and other sports, may be given a fling at a state-sponsored lottery.

The proposal, worked out by Major Dennis E. Smith, 51-year-old Londoner, provides for a total pool of $150,000,000, half of which would be distributed among lucky ticket-holders. The remainder would be turned over to the government to be applied to tax revenues.

Full details of the plan have not been disclosed, pending examination by the Royal Commission on gambling and betting, which for months has been conducting an investigation into wagering practices generally.

Sponsors of the lottery scheme, however, claim that an independent survey shows a strong public leaning in favor of a state-operated sweepstake. Organizations that have aggressively opposed the idea in the past, they said, were coming around to the view that state control might serve the purpose of combatting the "more evil forms" of gambling.

"Here is something concrete through which we all can get together to help our country in meeting its financial problems," said Major Smith.

Two-Year Job

For more than two years, he added, he and a team of voluntary helpers had been working on the plan. He figures that followers of sport in Britain wagered more than $1,500,000,000 every year, a large slice of which went into the pockets of book-makers and promoters.

Under a state lottery, Major Smith said, every persons not lucky enough to win a prize would have the consolation, at least, of knowing he would benefit indirectly. His taxes would either be reduced or the revenue received by the government used in the furtherance of some needed national undertaking.

The trade union movement had already been canvassed about the scheme and many unions had reported to the Royal Commission the were in favor of it.

Spokesmen of the National Association of Probation Officers, however, take a different view of the matter. In a memorandum submitted to the commission, the association claims to have evidence of matrimonial strain, due to impairment of earnings, inability to maintain a family or comply with mantenance orders, because of gambling losses

The memorandum adds: "Some of our members speak, not of the harm done by weekly losses, but of greater harm done by winning—when there is celebration of success, encouragement to continue, and destruction or damage to the belief in the value of a good day's work."

Adanacs Win Close One 6-5 Confident of Mann Trophy

By LORNE BRUCE.

TORONTO, Oct. 21 (CP). — "We'll win Sunday by three goals."

That was coach Bob Lee of New Westminster Adanacs talking last night after his western champions defeated Owen Sound Crescents 6-5, deadlocking the Canadian senior lacrosse finals at three wins apiece.

But playing coach Doug Gillespie of Owen Sound was just as confident the eastern champions would win the seventh game and the Mann Cup.

"All we need is a break," Doug said after the game. "We needed a break tonight but didn't get it."

The Crescents did get a break early in the game—a bad one.

Wooton Out

Goalie Lloyd (Moon) Wooton, a leading choice for the Mike Kelly trophy as the most valuable player of the series, went over on an ankle after a hard shot from Bob Bremner of Adanacs sent him off balance, causing recurrence of a former injury.

"I think the ligaments are torn" the 205-pound netminder said. "I twisted the left ankle when I fell."

Wooton, who won't be playing Sunday, went to hospital for an X-ray while his team-mates returned to Owen Sound. The Owen Sounders had flouted lady luck by cancelling their hotel reservations. So they'll have to return to Toronto for the seventh game.

Spare Goalie

Doug Favell, who played for Hamilton Tigers this season and was spare goalie for the Mann Cup series filled the gap for Wooton with an outstanding display.

Favell, going in cold midway through the first quarter, was great. One of the three shots that beat him in the second quarter was an easy try but he stopped at least 10 in the second half that could easily have been goals.

Owen Sound, trailing 6-2 early in the fourth quarter, staged a great rally that produced three quick goals and held Adanacs scoreless.

But the easterners couldn't beat big Gordon Pogue for that important tying counter while his mates were bewildered by the Owen Sound assault.

Due For Goals

Lee was confident Adanacs would win because he figured such sharpshooters as Jack Northup, leading point-getter in the coast league, and Bremner wouldn't continue their scoring famine.

Northup didn't get a goal last night and has fired only six in the six games. Bremner got one to bring his total to seven.

"We count on them to get two or three goals a game," Lee said.

Last night Harrison Smith, a 22-year-old forward who hadn't got a point in the previous five games, tallied twice, one of them the winning counter 10 seconds after the start of the fourth quarter.

Unbeaten Wings Montreal Tangle

By The Canadian Press.

The National Hockey League's only unbeaten teams, Montreal's red-hot Canadiens and the Stanley Cup champion Detroit Red Wings, clash twice during the weekend.

One or the other ought to give but picking which seems as difficult as picking the winner of next year's grand national steeplechase.

Les Habitants, who have a record of two triumphs and as many ties in four starts, lead the league with six points. That's three more than Detroit has picked up in two starts—a win and a tie.

The Montrealers are at home to the Wings tonight and have a chance to widen the gap between them and their guests. By the same token, the Wings can narrow the gap with a victory—and move ahead with another in Detroit on Sunday.

Rangers at Toronto

In tonight's only other scheduled game, New York Rangers invade Toronto whose Maple Leafs are a bit shy on defencemen. Toronto are tied in second place with Detroit and Chicago with Rangers one point back in fifth place.

On Sunday, the Leafs travel to Chicago while the Rangers visit Boston for a game with coach Lynn Patrick's young winless Bruins. The Bruins are in the cellar with one tie and two losses in three starts.

Says West Power Properly Applied Is Key To Peace

By The Canadian Press

Lionel Gelber, in "Reprieve from War: a Manual for Realists" (Macmillan) submits that peace can be had through power. By this he means much more than armies, aircraft and warships. He emphasizes the importance of principle, faith and resolve. In today's tense world, he admits, peace by power is "no recipe for peace of mind." But there is one "gift above price"—the "will to live . . . which, when given a chance, free men and free societies display invincibly."

Mr. Gelber, author, Rhodes scholar and former University of Toronto history professor, thinks western society has that power, although "it is the very strength of its freedom that might cause an aroused, self-critical democracy to conceal nothing so much from itself as its own underlying strength." The Berlin airlift, he writes, was an example of peace through strength. But the Russians would not have hesitated, or would not hesitate again, to shoot down Allied planes "if the visible evidence of western resolve were not a mere token of more than was as yet invisible."

When strength is so massed that war becomes not only unprofitable to both potential adversaries but more unprofitable to the aggressor, says Mr. Gelber, the result is peace by power.

He is critical, however, of Allied policy in Germany because he feels it may benefit Russia more than the west. Keenly aware of German nationalism and of Germany's possible resurgence, perhaps as a Russian ally, he warns against early withdrawal of occupation force. In unifying and restoring German economy against Russia, "we must take care lest we unify and restore it against ourselves." Although Allied occupation troops in Western Germany do not counterbalance Russian power, they do represent the preponderant power of the Atlantic nations.

The failures of western society "cry out to high heaven," says Mr. Gelber, and he details the record of error and imperfection in many parts of the world. But there can be pride in the legacy of western civilization — on its own merits and in comparison with other civilizations.

"Blaze of Noon"

"In the contest of power before it, the west must vindicate the exercise of its power, not through a desire to impose it on others, but out of an awareness of what the world would be like if a worse brand of power were to prevail."

Two small-town Ontario girls come to grips with Communism in "Blaze of Noon," (Ryerson), Jeann Beattie's all-Canada prize novel.

Miss Beattie's story covers the experience of the two girls during their three years' residence in New York as wartime employees of the British Government, but the meat of the book is the Communist issue, introduced when one of the girls becomes friendly with a young left-winger after an unsuccessful love affair.

The ideological discussions which follow are believable and well-handled. The girl is swayed by the sincerity of the young man's beliefs and, for a time, resists the efforts of her friends to convince her of the flaws in Marxist thinking.

As the novel ends, she has become disillusioned both in her friend and in his theories and returns to Canada on a firmer emotional and political keel.

Miss Beattie, a former reporter on the St. Catharines Standard who studied journalism and political science in New York before taking a position with the New York office of the British Broadcasting Corporation in 1945, now lives in St. Catharines.

Nation-Wide Drive Urges All To Attend Their Church

NEW YORK —(NEA)— The forces that sell soap, breakfast food and gasoline to Americans are now working to sell religion. An intensive advertising campaign in November is going to "urge all Americans to attend and support the church or synagogue of their individual choice."

Called Religion in American Life, the campaign is a non-sectarian one It is supported by 21 religious organizations, and this November's theme will be "Take Your Problems to Church This Week — Millions Leave Them There!"

During last year's RIAL campaign, more than 2,000 communities participated. Among them were cities in Hawaii, the Canal Zone and in every state.

Eight towns in Massachusetts—Salem, Marblehead, Swampscott, Peabody, Danvers, Beverly, Ipswich and Topsfield—combined to hold a simultaneous fund drive under the RIAL banner. Results of the canvas, the work of 100 churches and five synagogues, were noted in substantial increases in attendance and financial resources of the institution.

This year, six other neighboring communities have said they would join with the original eight. In each town, a laymen's committee headed by a local businessman, is the driving force. Using free publicity given by theatres, radio stations, newspapers, outdoor advertising firms and storekeepers, the area is blanketed with the message.

Volunteers make home calls, during two set days, on every family in every congregation. The money raised through the campaign helped to raise Ipswich's pledges 40 per cent. And the Salem Congregational Church underwrote its budget for the first time in its 117-year-old history.

Nationally, RIAL is headed by a laymen's committee, under the chairmanship of industrialist Charles E. Wilson. It lists, as its goals:

1. To emphasize the importance of all religious institutions as the foundation of American life.

2. To urge all Americans to attend and support the church or synagogue of their individual choice.

In last year's RIAL campaign, these goals were brought to the public via 5,200 outdoor posters, 338 national network radio programs, 1,200 participating independent radio stations, 1,800 cooperating newspapers, 3,000 ads in 500 weekly and daily newspapers, and 11,000 car cards in buses, streetcars, and subways.

This November, RIAL hopes to better that score.

Two-thirds of the farmer taxpayers in Canada lived in Saskatchewan and Alberta. There were 20,950 farmers in Saskatchewan who paid $5,875,000 in income taxes in 1948. Their income was $61,947,000. In Alberta 20,200 farmers paid $6,639,000 on income of $63,002,000.

A total of 2,689,930 persons made out income tax returns for 1948 as compared with 2,366,465 in 1947. Only Half County Cleared Land; Haliburton Tenth

Only half the assessed area of Peterborough county is cleared land, as shown in the statistics of the Ontario government.

The assessed acreage is 560,140 of which 290,057 are cleared, or a percentage of 51.78.

Of the central Ontario counties, Durham is close to the top with 312,212 of its 365,581 acres cleared, for 85.4 per cent. Prince Edward heads the district list with 86.72 per cent of cleared acres. Haliburton is far down at the bottom with 9.57 per cent.

Hastings with 1,056,226 acres shows 402,551 cleared, or 38.11 per cent; Northumberland is 79.7 per cent, with 433,998 and 345,918 acres cleared.

Ontario and York counties have exactly the same percentage, 76.12. The former has 498,542 acres of which 379,501 acres are cleared.

Almost every one of the southwestern counties of the province show a high percentage of cleared acreage. The highest is Essex at 93.34 per cent; Kent is 89.93; Elgin 84.89, and so on. The least cleared are the counties of eastern Ontario from Lennox-Addington to the border.

3,100 Collegiate Enrolment Can Be Expected By 1963

The Board of Education has to plan to accommodate 3,100 secondary school students by 1963. This estimate is based on the assumption that the area from which the school enrolment is drawn remains the same. Inspired guess work? Not at all. Principal C. S. Browne has prepared a graph that gives the Board a reasonably accurate forecast of what to expect in the next 13 years.

The key to the whole business of predicting school enrolment is in the birth rate of 14 years before. Why 14 years? Because that is the age of the average student entering Grade IX.

63 Per Cent Go To Collegiate

Not all of the babies born in Peterborough go to PCVS. Statistics show that only 63 per cent of them do.

Last year 1261 students enroled at PCVS and this year the number was increased to 1283. By 1953 some 1400 students will require secondary school education. Then the accommodation committee of the Board of Education really comes up against it. In 1954 the anticipated enrolment will be slightly less than 1400, but in two years the number will have increased to 1540. The attendance will remain relatively stationary for two years (1956-1958), and then there will be an enrolment of 2200 in 1959, 2600 in 1960, 3000 in 1961, and 3100 in 1963.

Several Other Factors

Mr. Browne cautions that the graph doesn't show the school-attendance picture with "a high degree of accuracy." A number of other factors must be taken into consideration.

1. Although the number of rural students will gradually increase it is a higher percentage of the present total enrolment than it will be in 1963.

2. The increase in the total school enrolment will lag about two years behind the increase in Grade IX enrolment.

3. The Peterborough Suburan Area Board may decide to build a secondary school.

4. A major depression at any time would cause a drop in school enrolment.

5. New educational policies will tend to encourage students to stay who formerly dropped out in Grades VIII and IX. These policies will also, according to Mr. Browne, discourage some of low ability from entering Grade XI.

6. If the number of Roman Catholic babies, born in Peterborough in 1949, is a higher percentage of the total than it was from 1930 to 1935 it would reduce the expected attendance at city high schools in 1963.

Summing up, Mr. Browne does not definitely claim there will be 3,000 students ready for secondary education in 1961. There may be more or probably less.

"One thing is certain," says Mr. Browne. "A large increase is coming and we know when to expect it."

Second Collegiate

Already the PCVS is accommodating 300-400 too many students. At the coming election the Peterborough ratepayers will be asked to approve debentures of $585,000 covering the cost of the new collegiate to be built on Monaghan Rd., S.

The new collegiate, still in the planning stage, will at first accommodate 500 students, but additions can be made to the building and accommodation for 1000 is envisaged.

By 1959, according to Mr. Browne's estimates, the number of students requiring secondary education will be 2200. Both PCVS and the second collegiate (with 1000 attending) would be full.

These heavy demands for accommodation reflect the huge jump in the city's population, from 25,500 in 1940 to more than 36,000 in 1950.

Lakefield Youth Escapes Injury

Joseph Corby, 21, Bishop St., Lakefield, escaped with only a shaking up Friday night when his car overturned on the Lakefield highway at the Filtration Plant.

Corby was driving north when he swerved to miss a car coming out of the Filtration Plant driveway. Pulling back into the right lane of the highway to miss an oncoming southbound car, he lost control and his car went into the right ditch where it rolled over.

Damage to Corby's car was estimated at $100.

Provincial Constables A. C. Russell and D. W. Coffey investigated.

Outboard Offer Rejected On Close Vote

Outboard Marine workers last night rejected company contract offers in a close vote, union president J. L. McGuire announced today.

Although he had not the exact figures available, Mr. McGuire said he thought there was a difference of only 50 votes.

"It's not only a rejection of the offers," he said, "but it's also a rejection of the way in which it was presented to the men."

Basic differences between union demands and company offers were wage increases and the escalator clause requested by the workers.

To a 15-cent increase asked by the union, the company countered with a 7-cent offer. The union's request for an escalator clause, which would cover the rise in the cost of living without negotiations, was rejected flatly by the company.

Wanted To Take Vote

Union vote on the contract was this week hastened when employees reported to the company they had had no opportunity to vote on the company's offer.

The company issued a statement in which it granted the request of the employees and allowed the vote to be held in the plant under the supervision of a neutral returning officer. The returning officer was William Jones, former captain in the city fire department.

Fly New Flag On Special Days

Though a symbol of patriotism the flying of our flag can whip up unexpected controversy. The union jack at the masthead of the new Civic Hospital is a case in point.

Thursday a Peterborough resident complained in "Letters to the Editor" that the union jack on the new hospital was shredded to a third of its proper size and the correspondent wanted to know who was responsible for its "deplorable condition."

John Hornal, superintendent, explained to the Examiner that the tattered "jack" has only been up since the middle of May. From now on, however, the new flag will only be flown on special occasions.

That decision was reached at the last meeting of the Board of Governors. But the advice was not acted on in time to forestall the wrath of the local resident who received a bit of a shock while proudly showing an American visitor Peterborough's $3,500,000 hospital.

K. S. Wightman, superintendent of schools, said that flags fly on top of city schools every school day while school is in session. About two years flying about eight hours a day, 200 days a year is the average life span. Some flags last longer and others are tattered long before.

Because of the short life of a flag it is not considered worthwhile to take it down and clean it, he said.

Peterborough Palette Club Hangs 90 Pictures At Show

A new painting group in Peterborough has shown its hand: the Brush and Palette Club in its first public exhibition. There are almost ninety sketches and paintings on the walls of the Public Library gallery ranging in subject from portraits to seascapes; the former by Mrs. J. Ralph Clark and Mrs. Suzanne Dobbin, the latter represented by a pleasant, interpretation of Lake Huron from Southampton by Mrs. Gordon Langley.

A preview was held Friday evening, when those who came to stare remained to praise and have cakes and tea. It is really quite an astonishing display; so numerous, so colorful, and relatively so competent. The group was formed only two years ago and many of the members of the club took up brush and palette not earlier.

Practised Hands

Mrs. Charles Elliott reveals a practised hand and a sensitive eye (e.g., the Old Stump, Stony Lake and Birch Cove, Clear Lake). Mrs Ken Kingston's oils also show tutored skill and a good eye for pattern; there is an Emily Carr echo in her Mill. Mrs. Elmer Brown's work shows less control than these two, but in some of her canvasses she achieves a fresh and more individual effect.

Other exhibitors are Mrs. Ross Moore, Mrs. Leo Copp, Mrs. Clayton Bullock, Miss Jessie Colling, Mrs. J. F. W. Blaiklock and Mrs. Myer Cherney.

Such exhibitions as these are interesting and to be encouraged. There is little gain in blushing unseen, and art is useless unless it is communicated. This is not to say that all or most of the canvasses on view are works of art. They are not. But they show interest, enthusiasm and, in some cases, special talent.

My chief criticism of amateur work in Peterborough is that it generally lacks confidence. There is too little orginality. Nobody flies off the handle with a gouge of red, a good damn, or an imagined Rape of Lucrece. I admit that there is, in this hanging, a dolce far niente attitude about framing. A bad frame is worse than none. A frame should enhance, not detract.

These are fleeting impressions; this viewer had but half an hour. The show is on until the end of the month and he will be one of the hundreds who go to see it at leisure next week.—T.J.A.

SPECIAL AMBULANCE TO KINGSTON

Sgt. M. J. Sullivan of the A and T staff for the 28th Technical Squadron at the armouries was taken to Kingston Friday by special ambulance with a broken back. During an accident at Petawawa in May Sgt. Sullivan received a broken leg. It is believed that he cracked his back then also and never bothered him until Thursday. WO 2 Harry Kelly also of the RCEME staff was taken to hospital shortly after his arrival in Peterborough.

The Calvinistic Methodist Church of Wales is the only church of purely Welsh origin.

Houses Remain Very Scarce, Rents Very High, Families Live In Two Rooms

"Great demand," "very good sales," "lots of buyers," according to real estate agencies in Peterborough. But it's a sad sight on the other side of the picture—the citizen who finds that neither pocket books nor bank accounts can match the high costs of real estate. Despite peak costs, all agencies are agreed that they are having no trouble selling houses. Five to seven-room dwellings are in the greatest demand. the pocketbook decides the size and type of home. As a result the houses built in the national housing plan which sell with low down-payments are high on the popularity lists.

Agreement is also registered on the question of high costs. All agencies questioned claim that the rising costs of building, which include labor and material, accounted for high sale costs of homes.

"Apartments—what are they?" one real estate agent asked wryly. "Peterborough is extremely ill-equipped with apartment houses and those very rare ones that are obtainable are handled by private transactions. We never hear of them".

One comfortable new apartment, built as an addition to a house, and with its own upstairs, went for rent this week at $110 a month.

Apartment accommodations in the city are almost entirely makeshift affairs—either duplexes or converted houses. Their rents vary from $40 to $80 a month. But try and get a $40 one.

Room Rents

Families are living in rooms; one or two rooms with cooking privileges. This usually means the right to have a small electric plate in the bedroom, and to use the bathroom for slops and getting dishwater, as well as for abulution. These rooms with "housekeeping privileges", furnished with odds and ends, including usually a small table and perhaps a shelf for tins and dishes, rent from $10 a week up. For ten dollars a couple may even get two rooms.

There are some houses in Peterborough where "housekeeping privileges" are shared by three or even four groups or families: the renter or owner of the house lives in the ground floor rooms and perhaps one upstairs. A second family lives on the second floor, another in the attic. If the basement of the house can be fitted out to look like a room or two there may be another family down there. They all have to use the one bathroom, but the owners or renters of the house have a sink and taps in their kitchen, so that the bathroom does not have to serve as kitchen sink and laundry for all the families.

Good Profit

In some of these houses the renter of the whole house gets $30 to $45 a week rent from the sublets; $125 or more a month. She herself rents the whole house, under rental controls, for $42 a month. Thus the house is a pretty good paying proposition. However, the main tenant who sublets these "housekeeping rooms" has to provide heat, electric lights and most of the furniture.

Roomers and boarders are not much better off, if any, than renters of "housekeeping rooms". Room rents range from five to 10 dollars a week. The cost of board has gone up with the cost of food. So-called double rooms are being rented, with complete board, to "gentlemen" for $14 and $16 a week. There are some of these "double rooms" big enough to hold a three-quarter size bed, a chest of drawers and a chair, being rented for these prices.

Baby Suffocates In Its Carriage

HASTINGS, Oct. 21. (ENS) — The baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tripp, Albert St., Hastings, was found dead of suffocation in her carriage on Friday night.

Mrs. Tripp discovered her daughter, Beverley Ann, in the carriage at 5 p.m., and called Dr. W. M. Judd of Havelock, who applied artificial respiration without success.

Beverley Ann is survived by her parents and two brothers, Russell, 7, and Edward, 12. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

CEREMONY AT TCS

Corner stone of the memorial chapel of Trinity College School, Port Hope, will be laid Sunday at 4 p.m. by Gerard B. Strathy, KC, who was a prefect and head boy in 1897. The chapel is being built as a commemorative tribute to the 186 old boys of TCS who died in battle, and also in honor of the 1,400 who served in the armed forces.

A "gentleman" applying for one of these rooms is expected to share the bed with another "gentleman" whom he has never met or spoken to before he engages the room.

Bright Side

This is the dark side of the boarding-house, rooming-house story. There are many fine, generous landladies renting their rooms at moderate prices, giving good meals, and taking the boarders or roomers into the family bosom.

The high prices being asked for sometimes miserable accommodation are an indication of the scarcity of places still obtaining in Peterborough.

All agencies were wary of predicting any changes that might take place in rents if controls are lifted next April. The general opinion seems to be that it will be decided by the demand. If there is a great demand for rented homes when controls are lifted, prices will jump sky high. If not they will probably level off or drop.

HAMILTON, Oct. 21 (CP). — Every 31 minutes a baby died needlessly in Canada, Rev. H. L. Troyer Friday told delegates to the 24th annual convention of the Hamilton area Women's Institutes. He called upon them to rally behind a crusade to wipe out the mortality among infants.

Mr. Troyer, associate national director of the Canadian Child Health Association, told the some 600 women that Canada rightfully mourned the loss during the Second World War of some 40,000 young Canadians.

Yet in that time, he added, 85,000 mothers lost their babies needlessly. Every year, he stressed, there are 16,000 such deaths, aside from the countless cases of known and unknown abortions.

Business Women Receive Mixed Comment

MONTREAL (CP). — Too hard...too sensitive...they holler uncle when the chips are down...too eager-beaverish.

Those are the reactions of men in business to women in business, according to Betty Stryan of Montreal. Miss Stryan, successful in public relations field here, questioned several business men.

Here's what she came up with:

"Too hard and tough," from a textile engineer. "If a woman desires any kind of position other than secretarial or stenographic, she meets with a very polite but decided resistance from men. To combat that, women develop a hardness which may make them successful in business, but certainly unattractive as women."

"Too sensitive," is the opinion of an advertising manager. "You can always call a man in and bawl him out about a job not well done. But a woman. You criticize her and you have a grudge against her."

"When the chips are down the woman invariably hollers uncle and asks a man to pitch in and help," adds a professional photographer.

"Too eager-beaverish" is the judgment passed on many business women by a public relations officer. "If they are hired as secretaries, they want to be something else. . . something bigger and better. They're never satisfied to do the job for which they were hired."

CHEESE MAKERS—Benedictine monks at the Monastery of St. Benoit-du-Lac, Que., are making bleu cheese, one of Canada's finest cheeses. Seamless Tailoring Proving Paris' Greatest Sensation

PARIS, (CP). — Reuters) — A new seamless couture which cuts in half the time needed to make a model gown is the sensation of Paris fashion circles at the moment.

The new method introduced by Madame Georgette Renal in her winter small shop collection may be the first step towards providing an answer for the smart woman whose taste is for hand-sewn clothes but whose budget is in the ready-made group. A client can order a gown in the morning, try it on at noon and have it ready for wear the same evening.

Madame Renal uses her seamless couture even for tailor-made suits. Tucks and darts replace seams and every gown has a marked waistline. The only seam used is for the set-in sleeve, but many dresses have sleeves cut in one with the bodice.

The underarm is slit but ends in a buttoned cuff which allows the sleeve to be drapped round twice in a spiral movement, or, if worn open, to fall in an easy cape effect.

Models in this collection range from 25,000 to 40,000 francs ($70-$112) but Madame Renal admits that the savings in cost achieved by the new method has not been fully passed on to the clientele.

Describes Famous Galleries Of Europe and Britain

Tribute to those who have kept the Peterborough Women's Art Association and Lyceum Club progressive was paid Friday by president Mrs. N. D. Seaton as she opened the '50-'51 season of studio meetings. For the benefit of the many new members present she gave a brief outline of the history of this International Association which received a charter as an Art Association in 1883, later affiliating with the Lyceum Club.

The speaker was Mr. Martin Baldwin, director of the Toronto Art Gallery, who recently went on a trip to Europe to tour the art galleries and meet other directors.

In giving his impressions of the more famous and largest galleries, Mr. Baldwin gave numerous hints for those who might be planning similar visits. Of the National Art Gallery, London, he pointed out that many sightseers become completely exhausted before they have seen very much and he attributes this, perhaps, to the fact they are unaccustomed to seeing, thinking and standing on their feet all at the same time.

He calls the Louvre in Paris "frustrating" because it has far more art than London and all of it is reached by climbing steps and following long corridors.

Mr. Baldwin was amazed to find that a tremendous wealth of material in Europe is not yet in public museums. In England he had the opportunity of seeing a number of private houses which have fallen to the National Trust because of high taxes. The owners were still living in many of them and their servants were acting as guides. The visitors were mostly English since it is not generally known that these houses are open to public view.

In concluding he outlined the councils and organizations whose work it is to arrange the exhibitions of the arts wherever they are desired.

Tallest Building Getting New TV "Top Hat"

By JOE WING

NEW YORK, (AP).—For its 20th anniversary the world's tallest building is getting a brand new "top hat."

The Empire State tower has shed its old dome and television aerials, and is thrusting up to 1,467 feet with a new, 217-foot steel truss carrying five TV antennas, three FM antennas, and two emergency TV antennas. It will be ready in December.

How the ten aerials will work together at arm's reach without snarling each other's wave lengths is a technological miracle of considerably less magnitude than some of the other things that have been going on up there recently.

Just the other day, nearly a peck of barley and wheat fell like manna from heaven on workmen atop the tower. It tinkled onto stainless steelwork from a cloudless, planeless sky.

Most promising guess is that breweries in New Jersey shot the grain through exhaust vents into an upper air current. But that current must have been a very special one because the Empire State was the only building, tall or short, so seeded, and there wasn't any wind to speak of that day anyway.

Altitude Freaks

The genial manager of the tower, Frank Powell, wasn't too surprised.

During his tenure of high office all sorts of things have been falling on the tower. There has been red rain and white rain. There have been flocks of migratory birds and bats. There has been snow falling up instead of down. out of season snow, not to mention

Just recently, when a hurricane lashed Cape Cod, clouds of bugs from the outer beaches settled on the tower. One summer Powell collected 280 varieties of insects in three weeks for a professor studying wind currents.

Scientists' Mecca

Nearly as many scientists as insects have descended on the place. As the world's tallest building it has been a Mecca for savants studying gravity, lightning (several bolts flash harmlessly through the building's steelwork nearly every storm), astronomy, flies as polio carriers, stresses in steel skyscrapers, cosmic rays, soot and of course television transmissions.

Most common species by far on the tower is the tourist. Sometimes several thousand sightseers clutch their hats and skirts on the observatory platforms daily. They add up to a total estimated by Powell at 700,000 a year.

To the tower came tragedy in 1945 when an army plane rammed it at the 79th storey and killed 14 persons.

From the tower, 16 suicides leaped to death in 16 years. The management thinks this a moderate number compared with suicide records elsewhere, but has put a stop to the practice by building a formidable steel barricade.

High Cost of Operating May Doom Vienna Cafes

By HUBERT HARRISON

VIENNA —(Reuters)— The famous coffee houses of Vienna, for centuries centre of Vienna's cultural, musical and social life, are in danger of extinction.

The high price of coffee, which has risen 700 per cent since 1937, and rising costs of rent, coal, milk, sugar and newspapers have made it difficult for coffee houses to make both ends meet.

At present, 70 per cent of Vienna's cafes are reported to be running at a loss.

A meeting of representatives of the 1,300 Vienna cafes was called recently to discuss their plight. The meeting decided to petition the government to lighten taxation on them, to let them buy coffee and other raw materials at wholesale prices, and to pay for light and power at industrial rates.

Many of them expressed doubt as to whether it would be possible, in view of high prices, money shortage and postwar changed habits, to prevent many of the well-known coffee houses from dying out.

The first Vienna coffee house, first of its kind in Europe, was opended in 1683 by Franz Georg Kulczynck, a Pole of aristocratic family.

Extended Function

After their establishment, the coffee houses gradually extended their function. Billiard tables and later chess and card tables were added and then newspapers.

Special groups soon began to have their own special cafes. There were cafes specially patronized by cyclists, football players, fishermen, chess players. Some cafes were the rendezvous of journalists, policemen, actors, opera singers, stock exchange employees and dozens of other categories.

First blow to the cafes was struck in March, 1938, when the Nazis marched in. They halted everything for which the Vienna cafe stood—freedom of expression, liberal arts, leisure, tolerance of idea and the free exchange of opinions and information. Their occupation halted the gossip and friendly atmosphere and the charm of the Vienna cafe disappeared.

Bombing Hard

The second great blow, or rather a long and intense series of blows—came with the allied bombing. Dozens of cafes were destroyed. Few were undamaged.

Third and most deadly blow was the disillusionment of the immediate postwar period.

Among the younger people, new habits are growing up. Milk bars, coffee bars, ice cream parlors and "snack bars" have opened since the war. They are new and bright and cheap and have caught on among the younger people who never had the cafe habit.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Few Women Accept Blame When Husband Goes Astray

Dorothy Dix

When a middle-aged woman's husband forsakes her for some other woman she always attributes it to his having fallen into the clutches of a vampire, or else to her having lost her youth and beauty. Thus does she save her face, as the Chinese say, for it is apparent that no mortal woman can compete with a siren possessed of supernatural powers of fascination, nor can any woman stay the hand of time that withers the roses on her cheks, that strews ashes on her head and that turns her once lissom girlish figure into a string-bean or feather pillow.

Now one excuse is as good as another for losing or mislaying a husband, and if it salves the pride of an abandoned wife to believe that her misfortune is an act of God, for which she is in nowise responsible, then let her have that comfort. No one would be cruel enough to take it from her, but, as a matter of fact, neither of her alibis will hold water.

In the first place lady loves have no secret magic with which to conjure men that wives do not themselves possess. And in the second place men seldom marry for beauty, as is abundantly proved by the number of married women who were never Miss Americas. Moreover, when a man picks out a wife who looks good to him she continues to look good to him until she does something besides losing her youth and beauty to disillusion him.

Husbands Don't See Change

For it is heaven's mercy to wives that their husbands seldom look at them closely enough to perceive that they have changed. They always see their wives as they were on their bridal day as long as they love them. We all know haggard wrecks of women who have been bedecked with jewels by husbands who consider them better-looking than any bathing beauty. We know fat women who make the very scales shudder when they step upon them whose husbands call them "girlie" and "baby" and "little woman."

Inasmuch as men indisputably marry for love, for it is self-evident that no man would assume a woman's board bill and shopping ticket for life without feeling that he couldn't live without her, why, then, do men so often fall out of love with the woman they have selected from all the world for a wife? I believe that there are three major things that set husbands roaming.

The first of these is lack of comfort at home. When I say comfort I mean not only good food and a clean and orderly house but a peaceful and pleasant place in which to live. Most men are under a strain which their wives do not comprehend and with which they do not sympathize. They do not realize that when a man comes home tired and hungry after a hard day's work what he wants more than anything else on earth is just sheer physical comfort. Loving hands to draw him across the threshold. Cheerful smiles. A good dinner. Quiet and rest.

Millions of women literally drive their husbands away from home by cooking and their nagging and complaining. They haven't sense enough to know that the best way to keep a man tied to his own fireside is to fill him so full of good food and make his easychair so soft that he will not want to move from it. There is no other such cure for a roaming foot as house slippers.

They Are Bored

The second thing that starts husbands to petticoat-chasing is boredom. Very few wives consider it any part of their duty to be entertaining and amusing companions to their husbands, and the result is that most evenings at home are as dull as dishwater. Husbands and wives sit up in a silence that you could cut with a knife, or else they enliven it with quarrels, or wife tells him all the bad news she can think of.

It is to get away from the prevailing domestic gloom that makes many a man jab his hat on as soon as dinner is over and go to the movies or his club, or to step out with ladies who will chirk him up and make him laugh.

And the third way and the commonest way of all in which women lose their husbands is by their refusal to flatter them and jolly them along. Most wives feel it their sacred duty to tell their husbands of their faults and to generally deflate their ego. Never was there a more dangerous pastime, for every time a wife sticks a pin in her husband's little pink balloon she sends him out to some other woman who doesn't criticize his grammar, or look tired when he tries to tell a story, but who tells him how big and great and wonderful he is.

For every man must have some woman before whom to pose and strut and to whom he can boast as he cannot to a man, and if his wife won't give him the glad hand there is always some lady around the corner who will.

After all, if a woman doesn't want to lose her husband, she has to take as much care to keep him as she does to keep a pearl necklace.

MARY MOORE SAYS:

Saturday's Enquiry Column For Mary Moore's Readers

QUESTION: Follow your very interesting column.

Now I have a problem—and if you ever get around to it, please find out what's wrong with my chocolate cake making.

This is a recipe given to me. The lady always has lovely cakes; whereas, mine forms a rubbery layer on the bottom of the cake—about ¾ inches thick. The top of these failures are very nice and tender.

What a conundrum! What is the mistake?

One-half cup butter of shortening, 1 cup brown sugar, 2 eggs, separated, 1½ cups sifted flour, 4 tablespoons cocoa, ½ cup thick sour milk, 1 teaspoon soda in dry ingredients, ½ cup boiling water mixed wth the cocoa.

Cream the shortening, add sugar and hot cocoa mixture. Beat egg yolks till thick, and add. Combine dry ingredients and add to first mixture alternately with sour milk. Fold in beaten egg whites and vanilla. Jean A.

ANSWER: If the lady who gave you this recipe always has succes with it, and if you use the same amount of ingredients and the same brands, and the shortening is not too soft, and the flour not damp, and if you mix the wet ingredients enough I think the only trouble could be with your oven: Not enough heat is coming from the bottom of the oven.

However, I have written a column this week, about which I have written you by mail, giving you a foolproof chocolate cake recipe. But be sure your bottom oven is not at fault by checking temperature with a portable thermometer.

QUESTION: I have been greatly interested in the column you have recently been publishing in our paper and have already tried out a number of the recipes given with good results. Hope you continue with your chat.

ANSWER: I hope I do too,—one reason being that it brings such friendly letters.

QUESTION: I am overweight and weight 180 lbs. and am diabetic. What would you advise me to do that would help.

ANSWER: It is difficult to know how to reply to your letter. Since you have diabetes your diet should be supervised by a physician.

However, regardless of all of the things we like to think, the only cause of overweight is overeating.

I suppose you have seen the recipes I printed in this column two week's ago for jams without sugar. I hope you were able to make some of them up.

I think some general rules for diabetic patients might help you.

You know your diet must be low in carbohydrate food—that is starches. Honey, sugar and all sweets must be strictly avoided. You can buy gluten cereals and soy flour bread that will replace ordinary bread and cereals. These are quite delicious.

The basis of your diet should be bulky, green vegetables. By "green" in this case I mean "raw" vegetables or "fresh" vegetables cooked. Some fresh, uncooked vegetables as lettuce, celery or cabbage should be eaten twice daily.

Since diabetics cannot have rich desserts, it is a good plan to have fresh fruits or unsweetened canned fruits on hand all of the time.

One of the most harmful conditions in diabetes is constipation. By eating raw fruits be sure you keep free of this curse. I am mailing you a calorie chart, so that you can keep track of all of the calories you eat daily.

Ask Community Honor Armistice

COBOURG, Oct. 21.—(ENS).—"I hope that the commemoration service on November 11 is a community-wide observance," Mayor Jack Burnet said last night in commenting on plans to bring out a large attendance at the cenotaph service. The local branch of the Canadian Legion always turns out in full force as do the families of the Legion members. However, the mayor wants to see an official representation from various local organizations. The Chamber of Commerce will lend its efforts in promoting the community-wide observance of the day, and the Town Council has been asked to turn out in full force. Mayor Burnet is a former zone commander of the Legion.

Fire Chief, 82 On Vacation

COBOURG, Oct. 21.—(ENS).—Jim Campbell, Cobourg's 82-year-old fire chief, left this week for his annual two weeks' vacation. Jim, while 82, looks like a man in his fifties, and is in fact more active than most men at the fifty mark. In July of 1948 he resigned as foreman of the streets department, a job he had held since 1919. Ten years before that date he entered the employ of the town of Cobourg. After he retired as streets foreman, he still retained his connection with the fire department as fire chief. Jim doesn't scurry up the ladders as in the old days, younger men in the fire brigade can do that, but his long experience makes him invaluable as fire chief.

Interior Traffic Problems A Part of House Planning

To the home planner, the term "circulation" has important meanings other than that relating to the movement of air. Applied to the means of getting from one part of the house to another, or to the outside, it warrants the most careful attention of the designer. In judging a plan, you should be able to recognize good or bad features of circulation—the most important of which are briefly described in the following.

First, remember that halls in small homes serve no purpose other than that of circulation. Therefore, they should occupy as little space as possible, and be eliminated when unnecessary. Furniture moving requires a hall with a width of 36" to 40".

Service Exits

Exits from the interior to the exterior are most important in connection with service functions. The business of taking ashes or laundry from the basement to the outdoors may be very unsatisfactory if improperly planned. Direct circulation is required for delivery of groceries to the kitchen and for the removal of garbage from the kitchen to outdoor containers.

Doors are a part of the circulation scheme which depend upon the general plan arrangement. If there are many bad door locations, it indicates that the arrangement of the plan is bad. The swing of a door uses a considerable amount of space. Doors usually stand open in a home and the effect of an open door upon usable wall area in this position should be observed. A small hall or stair hall with several doors leading into it may be almost unusable because of conflicting door swings. Although a person can walk through a doorway only 18" wide, moving furniture into a room requires a width of at least 2' 8".

Paths Through Rooms

Imaginary paths of circulation exist through some rooms which have more than one doorway. These paths may turn a room into little more than a hallway, interfering with the placement of furniture or cabinetwork, and causing unnecessary steps. Trouble of this kind may be a sign that the whole house is poorly arranged.

Stairs

Although purely for "circulation," stairs may sometimes require design for beauty. In judging the plan they must be studied for safety and economy of space. Steep or winding stairs are dangerous; absence of a hand-rail makes them more so. Stairs must be at least 36" wide to permit moving furniture.

British Star Not Mad At Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 21.—(AP).—Moira Shearer, the red-headed ballerina who soared to fame in the film, "The Red Shoes," says she's not mad at Hollywood.

Ever since the English film, the ballet beauty has been reported as scoffing at Hollywood offers. She is now in town with the Sadler's Wells Ballet, and I pinned her down on this over lunch.

"It isn't true," she replied as she dipped into a salad. "How can you scoff at a place you've never seen?".

"But you have turned down offers for films here," I said.

"Yes," she replied, "but only because there wasn't enough dancing in the scripts. After all, I am a dancer, not an actress. I don't feel that I should give up something I have been training for since I was nine or ten years old.

Eats Plenty

During lunch Miss Shearer managed to destroy some common misconceptions some people have about the ballet. I thought that ballet dancers had to eat like birds to keep their slender figures.

"As a matter of fact," she corrected me, "it's quite a scandal when ballet dancers attend a party. They head right for the food table and eat voraciously. The dancing keeps their weight down."

Miss Shearer admitted that she has to eat sparingly on performance days. She has a small breakfast and a light lunch, sometimes as late as four p.m.

She eats nothing before the performance, but consumes a quantity of glucose for energy. "And then after the show," she said enthusiastically, "we feast!"

New Site In Cobourg Brewers' Warehouse

COBOURG, Oct. 21.—(ENS).—The long-rumored sale of the vacant lot, next to the Park Theatre, to the Brewers Warehouse Ltd. was confirmed this week when the legal papers incidental to the transaction were filed at the registry office. The purchase of this property has been in the negotiation stage for some time. The property, which is situated on the main street, sold for $10,-500. At present the lot, which runs from King to Swayne Sts., and is flanked on one side by the theatre and the other by a service station, is being used as a car parking area for theatre patrons. The new brewers warehouse will not be constructed until next year. The location is much more conveniently situated than the present one on University Ave. west.

Labor Shortage Delays Aluminum Plant

By J. C. GRAHAM

WELLINGTON, N.Z. —(CP)—Proposals for Canadian interests to inaugurate a large aluminum industry in New Zealand appear to have been side-tracked for the time being, Hon. C. M. Bowden, minister of industries and commerce, says however that the project "will not be lost sight of."

Representatives of a large Canadian aluminum syndicate made exploratory surveys in Otago in 1947, following a visit to Canada by New Zealand's former finance minister Walter Nash. The site generally favored is Lake Manapouri, a high altitude lake with a vast potential of untapped hydro power.

Shortly after the surveys there were reports that British and Canadian interests had opened negotiations with the New Zealand government for establishment of a "gigantic aluminum ingot production plant," and the strategic location of Southern New Zealand was stressed as a centre for production for the commercial and defence requirements of the South Pacific.

Labor is believed one of the main problems holding up the project. The government is having difficulty in providing enough manpower for current hydro-electric construction and is inviting overseas contractors to tender for two major plants including provisions of labor.

Girl To Be Kidnapped Just Loves Mystery

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 21. (CP)—By admitting she was eagerly waiting to be kidnapped by three University of Toronto students, a University of Western Ontario drum majorette Friday blew up plans to create an air of mystery over her disappearance here and re-appearance in Varsity hands tomorrow.

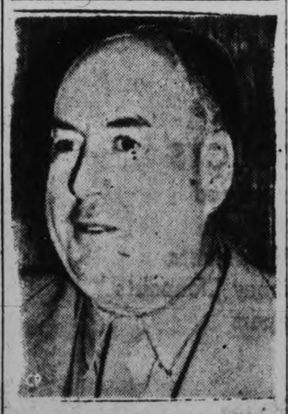
Pretty 22-year-old Lois Fulton, of St. Thomas, who was "kidnapped" last fall by McGill University students, confessed to a reporter that she was expected to be abducted later Friday by three Knox College students in a publicity gag for the Western-Varsity rugby game this afternoon.

"It was all cooked up," she said. "I love being kidnapped like this. It's loads of fun, and I like the mysterious air about it."

Warkworth WA Meets

WARKWORTH, Oct. 21 (ENS)—The Women's Association of St. Paul's United Church met at the home of Mrs. Ivan Denike. The vice-president, Mrs. F. Bowen presided over the meeting, which opened with a hymn, followed by the scripture reading given by Mrs. J. Mitchell.

During the business meeting the minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted and Mrs. H. Allen gave the treasurer's report. Miss C. Ross gave the report of the corresponding secretary.



Miss C. Ross and Mrs. M. Wilson had charge of the following program: reading by Mrs. B. Hopkins and a contest conducted by Mrs. M. Wilson.

K of C Heads Meet

HAMILTON, Ont., Oct. 21 (CP)—Supreme board of directors of the Knights of Columbus and the Ontario state board opened its three-day conference here Friday. Attending are the Most Rev. J. F. Ryan, Bishop of Hamilton, Bishop Dignan of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., and other ecclesiastical dignitaries.

Stromboli Erupts

MESSINA, Italy, Oct. 21 (Reuters).—The island volcano of Stromboli Friday night spouted flame and ashes in a violent eruption preceded by an earthquake. Stromboli, off the Sicilian northeast coast, achieved international fame when Ingrid Bergman and Italian movie producer Roberta Rossellini made a picture amid its barren rocks.

BACK FROM OVERSEAS—Brig. W. L. Coke of Ottawa, director-general of medical services for the Canadian Army, has returned from Germany where he attended British army manoeuvres. He said one of the biggest thrills of the trip was seeing Berlin residents cheering a crack British regiment on parade in Berlin.

HOUSE No. 51 — Typical of the conservatively modern style continuing in post-war housing, this fine home radiates a refreshing appeal that is hard to deny. It contains five rooms, a dining nook and patio on the first floor. In addition there is a third bedroom with shower, a large rumpus room finished in knotty pine, laundry and furnace room in the basement. The large window of the living room provides the most striking feature of the exterior. Simplicity of the flush gable also catches the eye. Every detail shows evidence of careful design and execution. Kitchen location and arrangement is well laid out — the dining nook is always a welcome feature in any home. Cupboard space appears ample, particularly in the master bedroom. The owner has achieved a happy foundation planting that plays a large part in the finished effect. Fronting east, this home has a frontage of 37 feet. For further information write Home Building in Canada, 372 Bay St., Toronto.

TV At Best On Baseball Dramas Weakest Programs

By JACK SCOTT

Been just about a year since I last had a stomach-full of television. Now, after another long bout in Boston, I can report that video doesn't seem any worse or any better, but still a powerfully habit-forming sedative.

A large number of the programs we've been watching over Boston's NBC outlet, designated as channel four, are as crude as early vintage movies (many of them are early vintage movies), but TV is really quite perplexing. When it's bad it's very, very bad. When it's good it's terrific. Either way, it's hypnotic.

We watched the four World Series games telecast. This is the medium at its best. I've never seen a series in the flesh, but I've watched an awful lot of ball games. Seems to me that baseball through the camera's eye is just about twice as exciting and enjoyable as it is from the bleachers.

Matter of Comfort

This isn't merely a matter of comfort, although there's obviously something to be said for attending a game in a Morris chair with a cooling drink at one's side.

It's also a matter of dramatic emphasis. The camera focusses directly on the particular chunk of action that has meaning and eliminates the distractions. So you're right on top of the hitter as he takes his stance at the plate or the runner sliding into second or the fielder back against the wall for the one-handed catch, all framed in a neat square of distilled action.

The cameras do occasionally stand back, as it were, and survey the panorama. But when the movement of the game is localized, as baseball action usually is, the telephoto lens muscles in.

Ignored Everything

A good example of this was in the game (I've forgotten which one; pretty dull series, wasn't it?) in which Konstanty came in as relief pitcher. During the long, long hike from the dugout to the mound the TV eye ignored everything else and kept its gaze on this one dramatic figure, bringing you so close that you could see his jaw muscles moving as he chewed gum.

I would be willing to take a small wager. Within 10 years the World Series will be played in an empty park.

Probably the weakest programs in TV are the drama shows. You mightn't think it possible, but a presentation of Sinclair Lewis' "Arrowsmith," produced by Robert Montgomery and with Van Heflin, a really competent actor, playing the lead, came out as something resembling a high school play and a bad one at that.

Television's blind spot in drama is the matter of sets. They must be necessarily bare because of the confines of the screen. A detailed setting would be lost in that small square. And so the producer is able only to suggest atmosphere. Arrowsmith fighting the bubonic plague in the jungle does so against an austere backdrop which might represent anything. I thought Van Heflin looked very unhappy about the whole thing.

Comical Crudeness

There's a crudeness, too, that's downright comical. In a "Light's Out" thriller, for example, a character is supposed to have found a method of floating through the air under his own power. When this took place we viewers broke into a guffaw. The piano wire used to hoist the gent in the air was clearly visible.

This sort of thing, plus the curiously foreshortened figures, make it desperately hard for a producer to keep his audience under any spell of illusion.

It has also brought a new and fantastic aspect to sex appeal. Since a full-length woman looks like a piece of wax that's been too near a radiator, the TV glamor girl has had to resort to a plunging neckline and immense, fabricated busts. In video, "cleavage" appears to have been accomplished with an axe.

Actually the best TV shows are those which are typically radio. Arthur Godfrey talking away at a desk seems natural and amusing. Fred Allen doing his patter never seemed funnier. The great secret here is to be relaxed. Indeed, Allen spoke of a friend of his who craved this gift and had his spine taken out. (He went home in a pail).

Most Entertaining

The most entertaining of all the shows we watched was a quiz

Hospital Adopts Credit Cards

London, Ont., Labor Council has unanimously endorsed a credit card system to avoid "questioning and delay" on admission to Victoria Hospital. This plan was explained by William Loveday, chairman of the Hospital Trust to London and District Labor Council, Thursday night.

London people may obtain application forms for the credit cards at banks and other public places. Approval of their application will mean they have merely to show their card on admission to the hospital, and no further questions are asked.

Mr. Loveday told the delegates the financing of a hospital was a difficult problem. Victoria Hospital had adopted some time ago a plan calling for one week's payment in advance, with weekly bills.

"There is a feeling that when some one is ill, nothing is too good for the patient. If the family does not realize the financial commitment involved, it can create a serious problem to the family and the hospital."

DIES IN CAR

WHITBY, Oct. 21 (CP)—Gavin Lucas, 68, was killed Friday when his car collided with a truck near here. John W. Bavington, driver of the truck, told police he was unable to avoid the car when it swung into the highway from a sideroad.

THIS PICTURE OF JOSEPH WASILAUSKAS of Waterbury, Conn., blowing smoke rings for his daughter, Shirley, won for him the grand prize in the National Newspaper Snapshot contest in Washington, D.C. The grand prize was $1,000 and in addition Wasilauskas won another $500 for winning the Class B (Young People and Adults) section of the contest. A Rolleiflex camera with a remote control attachment was used to make the picture at f.22 at 1/250th of a second with two flashbulbs.

deo than it is in old-fashioned broadcasting. At times you'd swear you were back in those days when the movie didn't begin until there'd been a half hour of advertising "slides."

My own opinion (and you can suspect it if you wish because I am practically living with Uncle Ed) is that the CBC was wise to play its cards with caution, to benefit from the mistakes that are being made down here, and to try to make TV in Canada a little less of a hit-and-miss deal.

TV On Baseball

thing called "Who Said That?" Guests included Henry Morgan, Elsa Maxwell and Paul Gallico. The camera simply wandered interestedly from one face to another, as if it were delighted to find such witty and charming people. So were we on the receiving end.

The Canadian exposed to the TV sideshow must automatically find himself thinking of the situation in Canada. And not without certain doubts.

Should the CBC have simply given the green light to any and all the commercial stations willing and eager to get into television? Even if it meant canned shows and television at its worst?

Good Argument

Well, a fellow like Uncle Ed is a good argument for that. Uncle Ed (as he's known to everybody) is an old, retired sea captain whose trailer is parked next to ours. Uncle Ed put out $450 for a fine set and a gigantic aerial mast. Every night he dims the lights and pulls his chair up before the magic screen. Uncle Ed doesn't care whether it's good or bad. It's good company, and there's always the wrestling or the boxing. For this old gentleman it's been a grand thing.

On the other hand, there's overwhelming evidence that the hucksters have clapped TV to their breasts and will never let it go. The ratio of commercials to entertainment is even higher in vi-

6—In Memoriams

LATCHFORD—In loving memory of our dear mother, Ethel Latchford, who passed away Oct. 21, 1949.
October and the fall of leaves,
Remind us, Mom, of you,
The fading of a beautiful life,
A mother, oh so dear;
Just as the leaves, we're fading too,
From beauty red and gold,
You left a beautiful memory,
The one we still unfold,
Of faithfulness beyond compare,
And patience beyond measure,
A mother great in all respects,
Her memory our lifetime memory.
—Ever remembered by the family.

LATCHFORD—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Agnes Latchford, who passed away one year ago today, Oct. 21, 1949.
There's a face that is haunting me ever,
There's a voice that I'm longing to hear,
There's a smile I'll remember forever
Though I try to forget every tear.
There's a sad but sweet remembrance
There's a memory fond and true,
There's a token of affection, dear mother
And heartaches still for you.
—Ever remembered by Hector, Bertha and their family.

Financial Position Of Utilities Improved

Financial position of the Utilities Commission has been showing improvement in recent months, and is more favorable than "this time last year" as reported at this week's meeting. Consideration of further increase in rates is advanced for another six months at least, although the fire protection bill to the city council might have to be increased.

Labor, wages and materials have gone up since the last increase to the Commission's consumers, but the Commission is trying to avoid any change in the rates to the public. Some capital expenditure this year will not be repeated in 1951, an opportunity for better accounting outlook further on in the year.

Welcome Club Plans Joint Church Meeting

CAMPBELLFORD, Oct. 21 (ENS)—The U. R. Welcome Club of St. Andrew's Church held a business meeting in the church basement Thursday night, with Mrs. Aileen Hazell in the chair. The meeting opened with a devotional period at which Mrs. Fred Rabethge read the scripture.

An invitation to a Hallowe'en costume party on Oct. 26 sponsored by St. John's Young Adult Club was accepted.

A co-operative plan involving clubs in three churches—Presbyterian, Anglican and United—for the purpose of holding a monthly Sunday evening service with a fireside hour afterwards, was accepted. The plan will operate on a rotating basis in the churches participating.

Plans for a joint monthly tri-church club meeting to be held during the week, will likely be arranged. This will be in addition to Sunday meetings.

After the business session, a short programme was presented. Ruth Fraser rendered a piano solo, and Miss Iona Sharp a vocal number. An interesting talk on her native city of Glasgow, Scotland, was given by Miss Copeland, exchange teacher at the local public school.

Trent River Supper Is Attended By 400

TRENT RIVER, Oct. 21 (ENS)—The annual fowl dinner was held in the Trent River United Church on Wednesday night when 400 people attended from Smithfield, Campbellford, Hastings, Warkworth, Norwood, Havelock and Warsaw.

The long linen-covered tables which were set up in the spacious dining hall of the church were heavily laden with abundance of fowl and were efficiently serviced by the ladies of the Women's Association.

There was such a supply of everything that on Thursday a pot luck dinner was held with about 75 people attending. Following the dinner a program was presented with the chairman being the Rev. F. R. Vanderburgh.

Paper Readers Must Pay Costly Newsprint

TORONTO, Oct. 21 (CP).—Roy H. Thomson, president of the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association, said Friday that rising newspaper costs "cannot result otherwise than in increased costs being passed on to the newspaper reader and advertiser."

Commenting on price increases recently announced by two newsprint mills, Mr. Thomson said that in his opinion a general price increase in newsprint could not be absorbed by the publishers.

Abitibi Power and Paper Co. Ltd., advised its customers Oct. 17 that it will increase its newsprint from $100 to $110 a ton delivered in New York and from $96 to $106 in the base Canadian price. A similar increase was announced Oct. 12 by Powell River Paper Company.

Up 23 Per Cent

"In addition to considerable increases in labor costs, zinc, mats, ink and other essentials," said Mr. Thomson, "newsprint costs alone were up 23 per cent since 1946.

"While Canadian daily newspapers are today selling advertising at a milline (rate per line per million circulation) rate of $2.82 against a 1939 milline rate of $2.88 because of increased circulation in that period, it would yet seem probable that there may be fairly general increases in present advertising and circulation rates.

Rates Low

"The Canadian daily newspaper's present rate is abnormally low by the standard of advertising rates in the English-speaking world, as recently measured by the British export trade research organization.

"At the current subscription rates prevailing in Canada, a great number of newspapers are providing the reader with a newspaper at a charge to the reader that does not even begin to equal the cost of newsprint involved in the production of the newspaper."

Circulation of the 87 Canadian Daily Newspaper Association member newspapers is 3,440,000, Mr. Thomson mentioned, and it is almost impossible to keep abreast of current need for newsprint.

Marmora Defeats Stirling 20-5

MARMORA, Oct. 21 (ENS). — Marmora high school rugby team defeated Stirling on the Deloro grounds on Friday afternoon 20-5. In the first quarter, Jones of Marmora ran to the two yard line allowing P. Nicholson to get in good position for a touchdown which Killean converted.

In the second quarter Drummond got a second touchdown which Killian again converted. Drummond for the home team received an injury in a tackle but his retirement from the game was only temporary.

Stirling staged a comeback and scored a touchdown which was not converted. Half time score, Marmora 12, Stirling 5.

In the third quarter P. Nicholson broke through again for another touchdown. Killian added the extra point and Nicholson kicked another.

In the fourth quarter, Nicholson kicked the final point. The quarter was unfortunately marked with an accident to Killian who sustained concussion through diving for a loose ball. As a result of their win, Marmora remains in second place in the loop standing.

Parents Fined $125

KITCHENER, Oct. 21—(CP)—The parents of a 14-year-old boy were fined a total of $125 and costs Friday because their son showed obscene pictures to school classmates. The mother told police the cards were left in her home by U.S. visitors, and that she had locked them in a drawer, intending to dispose of them. The son said the drawer was not locked.

Offer Reward

SUDBURY, Oct. 21 (CP)—Mr. and Mrs. Janis Miglinieks have offered a reward of $100 for information leading to the whereabouts of their 14-year-old son, Gunars Ozols, missing from his home since Oct. 3. He was last seen here wearing grey trousers, red windbreaker and a black raincoat. He was carrying a brown packsack.

Leduc Started Oil Gusher Spreading Through Alberta

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

In current Canadian oil history, events are dated as "before Leduc" or "after Leduc."

For it was the discovery of this field south of Edmonton Feb. 13, 1947, that started Canada on the way to what it is hoped will be self-sufficiency in oil.

What the discovery has meant to date was outlined yesterday by G. L. Stewart, president of Imperial Oil, Ltd., in an address to the Calgary Canadian Club. Said Mr. Stewart, in part:

Before Leduc the estimated proven oil reserves in Alberta were 45,000,000 barrels; today there can be no question that they are well above 1,000,000,000 barrels.

525 Wells

Before Leduc there were 525 producing wells in Alberta with a daily productive capacity of 19,000 a day; but substantially all were in Turner Valley (south of Calgary) where production is declining and where, it is estimated, only 34,000,000 barrels of recoverable oil remains.

Today there are appproximately 1,800 wells capable of being operated in Alberta, and new wells are coming in at a rate of two or three every day.

Before Leduc there was only one important oil-field in the province. Today there are, for instance, Leduc-Woodbend, Redwater, Golden Spike, Excelsior, Stettler, Normandville. The first two at least rank as major fields in any oil man's eye. Flint, Acheson and Big Valley are such recent discoveries that they are yet to be evaluated, but it is conceivable that one or more of them may prove to be major fields.

Refining

Before Leduc, prairie refining capacity was 40,000 barrels daily, of which less than half was supplied by prairie production. Today there is 70,000 barrels daily of light crude operating capacity which can be supplied by prairie crdue.

Before Leduc, oil exploration and development expenditures in the Canadian prairies were at the rate of about $12,000,000 a year; this year they are estimated at better than $12,000,000 a month. Before Leduc the revenues of the Alberta government from oil exploration and development activities were about $1,000,000 yearly; for the first five months of the current fiscal year they are estimated at $27,000,000.

Leduc Results

Mr. Stewart also cited as results of Leduc:

Strengthening of the Canadian economy in general and of the Alberta and prairie economies in particular; development of a great new industry in Alberta second only to agriculture; establishment of hundreds of new businesses; wider employment; higher living standard; enlarged and improved government services. And last year the people of Alberta saved some $15,000,000 in their bill for gasoline and other petroleum products—an average saving of $17.20 a person.

Perhaps, after his recital of what Leduc has done, Mr. Stewart might also have suggested thta Alberta make Feb. 13 an annual holiday and call it "Leduc day" or "oil day."

Need Lumbermen Start Recruiting

OTTAWA, Oct. 21 (CP).—Labor Minister Gregg Friday reported a sharp demand for woods workers in most parts of Canada.

The minister said in a statement that the demand exceeds by about 14 to one the number registered for woods jobs with National Employment Service.

He said his department was conducting an intensive recruiting campaign for workers and also was undertaking a special movement of about 500 men from Newfoundland to Ontario.

Greatest demand was in Ontario particularly the lakehead area, and in Quebec, the minister said. However, there were jobs available in all regions.

Ratepayers May Quit

PICKERING, Oct. 21 (CP) — Pickering Township Ratepayers Association will be disbanded unless more members turn up for meetings. Only 11 out of 280 members were present at Friday's meeting to elect officers for 1951. The secretary said he would call one more meeting, and if a "sizeable" number did not appear, the association would be disbanded.

Teachers Scatter

REGINA —(CP)— More than 300 of Saskatchewan's 7,000 teachers left this fall to teach in other provinces, the education department reports. The majority, 159, went to Alberta, 94 to British Columbia, 28 to Manitoba and 20 to Ontario.

Solemn Note

LYDBROOK, Gloucestershire, England—(CP)—On the anniversary of his wife's death a man put a notice in a local paper: 'I laugh with others; I cry alone. How much I miss you will never be known." The man was later found hanged.

Holds Sweepstakes

PORT ARTHUR, Oct. 21 (CP)—John McCullough, lakehead vocalist, has been informed by cable that he holds an Irish hospital sweepstake ticket on Rubenn, running in the Cambridgeshire at Newmarket, England, Oct. 25. McCullough is a son of Dr. Crawford C. McCullough, former president of Rotary International.

Arbitrate Dispute

SARNIA, Oct. 21 (CP)—Arbitration was decided upon Friday when a conciliation board failed to resolve differences between Local 456 United Auto Workers (CIO) and the Holmes Foundry Co. Tom Gard's Note Book

One thing common to good gardeners is the ability to plan for the future. Now is the time to prepare for those harbingers of a new gardening year — spring bulbs. There is still time to plant some. If you didn't place your order early, you will likely still find some available at the stores. The planting chart and instructions given will prove helpful to the uninitiated.

Forcing Bulbs

While on the subject of bulbs, why not resolve to try your hand at forcing some for winter bloom. It isn't as difficult as it would sound and information on the subject is usually abundant at this time of year. The simple instructions given here will get you started, but check planting guides before you select your varieties — some will force better than others and rigid forcing dates should be followed.

Stovepipes

With cooler weather, we begin the annual tussle with stoves and stovepipes. I am reminded of my first ordeal — back in the days when I thought all stovepipes were the same. Instead of buying six-inch pipe, I bought some seven inches in diameter. Before it was time to use it the bill was lost and, rather than face the clerk again, I have been trying to think up uses for it ever since. Two of the best I have hit upon are illustrated. They sound rather "screwy" but they have proven satisfactory.

More About Orange Crates

My young son surprised me by walking in with a table for his bedroom — all painted and ready for use. Evidentally they are teaching shopwork in lower grades than they used to, as he made it at school. Shown is a copy of his finished product.

East Hastings Liberals Name Officers At Meeting

MARMORA, Oct. 21—(ENS)—Robertson Collins of Tweed was elected president of East Hastings Liberal Association succeeding James V. Hanley of Read who has held the office for the past 10 years. The meeting was held in Madoc Town Hall on Thursday afternoon. Dr. D. C. McVicker was in the chair for the election of officers.

The full slate of new officers is: president, Robertson Collins of Tweed; first vice-president, A. A. Harvey, Hermon; ladies, first vice-president, Mrs. Fraser Aylsworth, Madoc; ladies second vice-president, Mrs. L. Mulrooney, Madoc; secretary-treasurer, Dr. D. C. McVicker, Deseronto.

Frank Follwell, M.P., for South Hastings was speaker. He expressed his appreciation and thanks to those in the riding who had assisted in his election to the House of Commons in June, 1949. He felt the Liberals of East Hastings appreciated as he did the leadership and guidance of James Hanley. The coming convention, Mr. Follwell declared, was one of the most important the Liberals ever held in Ontario. He believed last federal election indicated the trend of thinking and that in the next provincial election, the Liberals will take back the leadership at Queen's Park.

A number of good men, he intimated, were offering themselves for the leadership of the party. He estimated that there would be about 1,500 delegates at the convention. He concluded by saying "everyone who thinks for himself cannot help but be a Liberal."

Peter McLaren, Tyendinaga township, suggested that the riding should have an organization committee of three and E. D. Brown of Madoc supported the idea and the convention approved with Leslie McLaren, Corbyville, chairman; Alex W. Ramsbottom, Hermon and Felix Rashotte, Tweed, being named. The six delegates to the convention are Robertson Collins, Tweed; Kenneth Hunter, Tweed; A. A. Harvey, Hermon; James Hanley, Read; Eldon White, Fort Stewart; Robert Wood, Madoc. Alternates appointed were: Joseph E. Walsh, Shannonville; C. Duffy, Deseronto; Arthur J. Gough, Foxboro; Russell Lewis, Madoc; Felix Rashotte, Tweed; and Richard Hinchcliffe, Gilmour.

Bank To Be Finished In 2 Weeks

Alterations which will increase the interior of the Bank of Toronto on the corner of George and Hunter streets to twice its original size are expected to be completed the first week in November, according to J. S. Craig, of Blackwell and Craig, architects.

These alterations, which were begun early in the spring took in the former Pratten hardware store. New offices and bank staff rooms were completed on the second storey as a result of this addition.

One of the features of the alterations is the installation of a new four and one half ton vault door. This is believed to be the biggest door of its type in the city.

The walls and ceiling of the bank are to be painted light green and will have new fluorescent fixtures installed. The public section of the interior will have rubber-tiled flooring and linoleum will be laid in the working space.

All new counters of quarter cut oak will be installed with formica counter tops covered with glass and metal trim. Three quarter inch thick shatter-proof glass will be placed on the tellers' wickets.

A new hot water heating system with convector cabinet radiators will be installed. The bank will be ventilated with exhaust fans.

New structural steel framing has been erected in the new addition and matching Indianna and Queenston limestone completes the exterior. A new entrance to the banking room and second floor offices was opened from George St.

Contractor for the alterations is C. H. Huffman.

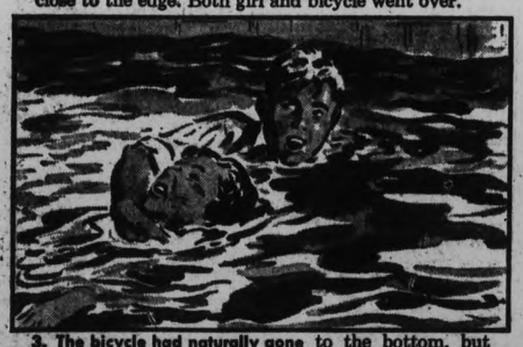
YOUTH DIVES FROM STEAMSHIP DOCK; RESCUES GIRL CYCLIST



Henri Simard, of Grande Baie, Que., in the Chicoutimi District, saves 12-year-old girl from drowning

1. Little Michèle Pouliot considered herself quite an expert cyclist — at least until one late summer afternoon at Bagotville, Que. For it turned out to be a day she won't forget for a long time. She was riding her bicycle on the smooth surface of the big Canada Steamship Lines dock when suddenly she came too close to the edge. Both girl and bicycle went over.

2. Fortunately, Henri Simard, 18, happened to be passing by . . . and, fortunately too, Henri was the kind of young man who doesn't think of danger to himself in an emergency. Without wasting a second, he plunged, fully clothed, into the black, cold waters of the Saguenay — a dive of approximately 30 feet. Surfacing, he swam swiftly to the floundering Michèle.

3. The bicycle had naturally gone to the bottom, but the little girl was bobbing on the surface, choking and spluttering. Soon, however, she was being supported by the strong arm of Henri Simard. Slowly, he swam with her in to the dock and safety. We are proud to give public recognition to the gallantry of this brave young Canadian by presenting him with The Dow Award.

Korean Reds Flee As South Army Drives to Border

By LEIF ERICKSON

SEOUL, Korea, Oct. 23—(AP)—South Korean forces swept within 50 miles or less of the Manchurian border today. Shattered remnants of the North Korean Army were fleeing frantically toward the mountain triangle north of Kanggye. It was there that the Communist Chieftain, Kim Il Sung, carried out his guerrilla war against the Japanese before Russian occupation forces installed him as Premier of North Korea after the Second World War.

Kanggye is about 20 miles from the border in the centre of the peninsula.

Three South Korean divisions were driving for the Manchurian border to finish the four-month war.

Observers said the South Koreans, who can make 30 miles a day in forced marches, were capable of reaching the Yalu river on the border sometime Tuesday.

(Gen. MacArthur's headquarters in Tokyo was non-commital. A spokesman said only that the army "had several estimates of when allied troops were expected to reach the Manchurian border.")

On the north bank of the river, Red China troops guard Manchuria.

The desperate North Koreans were fleeing northward so fast that they no longer could herd all their allied prisoners along with them. Many were escaping; others were massacred by the Reds in a brutal last show of defiance.

68 Shot

Sixty-eight Americans were found machine-gunned 40 miles north of Pyongyang, the fallen Red capital. Five hundred South Koreans were reported murdered at Yonghung, on North Korea's east coast.

A United States army intelligence officer in Tokyo said the Red Koreans had put up "no real organized resistance in the last 24 hours."

Fleeing Reds were reported turning inland in their retreat before the advancing United Nations forces. Officers said they were entering an area dotted with ancient walled cities.

These will not offer much defence, a spokesman said, adding that air attacks "will take care of them."

120,000 Prisoners

As the allied tide rolled northward, the bag of Red prisoners swelled past the 120,000 mark. United Nations forces captured 26,000 North Korean troops in the last 24 hours.

Troops of the South Korean 8th met the stiffest Red resistance of the day. An enemy battalion supported by artillery attempted to slow the ROK advance in the Pukchang area, 50 miles northtast of Pyongyang, fallen Red capital.

But a spokesman at U.S. Eighth Army headquarters said a South Korean column had thrust north of Huichong, almost another 50 miles north of Pukchang in the centre of the peninsula.

This column was within 50 miles or less of the Manchuria border.

The South Korean 1st Division crossed the Chongchon River at Kunu, north of Sunchon. Republican 1st Division task force captured Tokchon, 23 miles northeast of Kunu.

On the East coast, twin South Korean capital division columns stabbed toward the Manchurian border. One column sliced north of Cho, within 65 miles of Manchuria. The other drove along the coastal road to the outskirts of Iwon, 18 miles north of Puk-

No Vital Work By A-Scientist -UK Minister

LONDON, Oct. 23 (Reuters)—The missing British atomic scientist, Dr. Bruno Pontecorvo had "very limited" contacts with secret work for the last several years, Supply Minister George Strauss told the House of Commons today.

But it would be impossible to say Pontecorvo had not been able to gather information while at Harwell atomic research station or in Canada, which might be of value to an enemy, Strauss added.

The Italian-born scientist, he said, had been screened several times in the last few years by British security officers.

(In Ottawa, Friday, Dr. C. J. Mackenzie, head of Canada's National Research Council, said Pontecorvo worked at the Dominion's Chalk River, Ont., atomic project some years ago.

(Dr. Mackenzie said Pontecorvo was not "in the middle" of the atomic-energy project, but did much independent research on cosmic rays.)

Pontecorvo, with his Swedish-born wife and children, flew from Rome to Finland by way of Stockholm last month and disappeared. Some reports say he has gone to Moscow.

In Helsinki the interior ministry today set up a committee to investigate the whereabouts of Britain's missing atomic scientist who was travelling on a British passport issued at Ottawa.

The passport was issued April 13, 1948, while the Italian-born Pontecorvo, a naturalized British citizen, was working in Canada. He did research during the war at Montreal and at the atomic project at Chalk River, Ont.

Official sources disclosed today that if Pontecorvo has left Finland for Russia, he went without any passport. It was still in the custody of the interior ministry.

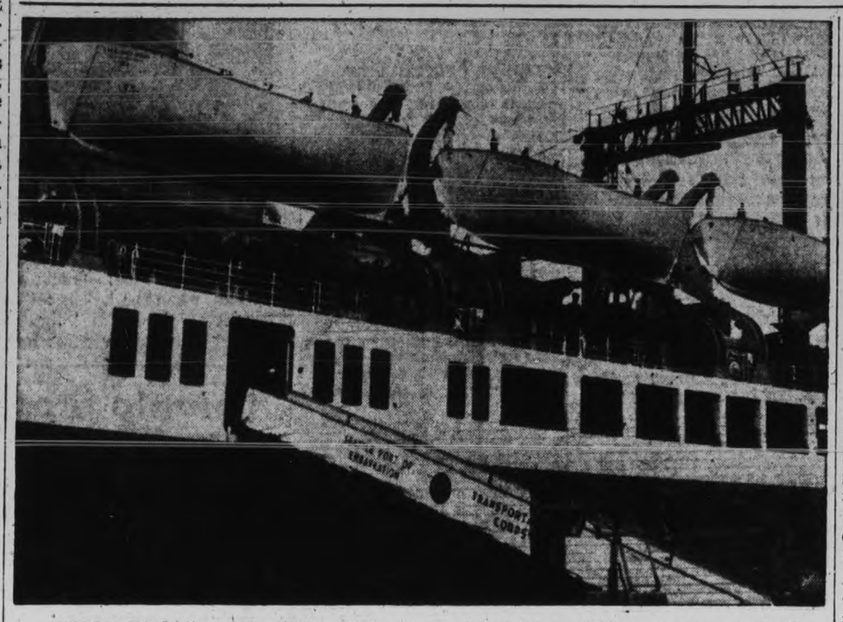
30 Die In Peru In Landslide

LIMA, Peru, Oct. 23—(AP)—Thirty persons are reported dead in the Santa River landslide high in the Andes and at least 100 persons still are unaccounted for, a special correspondent for the Lima newspaper El Comercio has reported.

The correspondent, after a motor trip to the scene of Friday's disaster, 200 miles from Lima, said 28 others were injured.

He reported one side of Pisococha lagoon collapsed, loosing a great mass of rock, mud and water which demolished Los Cedros hydro-electric station.

Australian Police Raid Red Offices



SYDNEY, Australia, Oct. 23 —(Reuters).—The first raid under Australia's new anti-Communist law was made on party headquarters here today.

Ten government investigators dragged large numbers of documents and books to a police car during the two-hour raid. Employees were questioned while uniformed police guarded the entrances.

The bill which became law on Friday outlaws the Communist Party and gives the government sweeping powers to remove Communists from public and trade union posts.

India Faces Faminine

PATNA, India, Oct. 23 (Reuters). — About 40,000,000 people in India's Bihar States are facing famine. Six weeks' drought has destroyed the summer paddy crop. Binar Food Minister A. N. Sinna told Reuters today: "A terrible situation is feared."

U.S. To Review Convictions Of 11 Top Reds

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 (AP). The Supreme Court today agreed to review the New York conspiracy conviction of 11 top Communist leaders.

The court set Dec. 4 to hear arguments by lawyers for the Communists and for the government. It then will take the case under consideration for final decision.

The principal point at issue involves the constitutionality of the 1940 Smith Act. That law makes it a crime to advocate or teach overthrow of the government by force and violence. The Communist leaders were convicted of violating the Act.

The court in granting a review specificied that arguments must be limited to the question of validity of the Smith Act.

It thereby threw out a long list of complaints made by the Communists, ranging from charges that trial judge Harold R. Medina showed "extreme hostility" to them to allegations that the jury was not properly chosen.

The government in an unusual step told the high court that it did not oppose a hearing for the Reds. But the justice department asked, however, that the review be limited to the issue of the Smith Act's legality.

The 11 were convicted Oct. 14, 1949, after a stormy trial before Judge Medina in U.S. District Court in New York. The convictions were upheld unanimously by the U.S. Circuit Court in New York last Aug. 1.

Employment Picture Rosier Over Year Ago—Gregg

OTTAWA, Oct. 25—(CP)—Canada's employment conditions last September were far better than in September, 1949, Labor Minister Gregg said today. In his monthly statement on the employment situation, he said that at Sept. 28 there were 133,100 registrations for employment on hand in National Employment offices. The figure was 18,500 lower than the total at the first of the month and 10,000 below the total at the end of September, 1949.

Labor demand continued to increase throughout the month, particularly in the forest industries and in manufacturing, said Mr. Gregg. Last year, there were few job openings in manufacturing, and the labor requirements of the logging industry were at their lowest post-war level.

The demand for skilled workers in the metal trades is particularly strong, said Mr. Gregg.

"These new job openings occur at a time of peak labor requirements in agriculture and construction," said Mr. Gregg. "This increase in labor demand in manufacturing is the result of the accelerated defence program, at a time when production of automobiles, refrigerators and other consumer durables with a large steel content is continuing to expand."

Sympathy Rail Strike Ties Up Australia

SYDNEY, Australia, Oct. 23—(AP)—About 6,000,000 of Australia's 8,000,000 population was without rail transport today. Railwaymen in New South Wales and South Australia struck for 24 hours in sympathy with striking Victoria railwaymen.

Sydney had probably the worst traffic jam in its history as an extra 5,000 or more private vehicles entered the city. Everything with wheels except trains were used to bring to work the 225,000 persons who usually travel by train.

One man rode his horse into the city and tied it up opposite the post office.

The sympathy strike is due to end at midnight. The Victoria railwaymen have been striking since last Monday, seeking pay for time between jobs and overtime payment after an eight-hour work day.

Wolves Raid Sheep

TORONTO, Oct. 23—(CP)—Because of raids by wolves, one farmer in the Cochrane South district of northern Ontario recently sold his entire flock of 104 sheep and lambs, officials of the Ontario Department of Agriculture said today.

Some farmers in the Timiskaming district, farther south, are reported selling all their sheep for the same reason.

Wolves have been plaguing districts as far south as Lanark and Renfrew counties.

Reds Arrest British Trawler

LONDON, Oct. 2—(Reuters)—The owners of a British fishing trawler have received a radio message saying the vessel had been arrested by a Russian gunboat in the White sea fishing grounds, north of Russia, it was learned today.

The 498-ton trawler, the Hugh Walpole, carrying a crew of 21, is owned by the British Newington Steam Trawling Company.

Last month the Russians arrested the British trawler Swanella, also in the White sea. She was detained for five days and then released.

A report that the Hugh Walpole was arrested Saturday was received in a radio message to the ship's owners. Another British trawler was said to have witnessed the seizure.

Last May, the British trawler Etruria was released by Russia after paying a fine for illegal fishing in Russian waters.

UK Food Worse

LONDON, Oct. 23 (Reuters).—Britain's food position is worse than a year ago, and hopes of abandoning existing rationing have gone by the board, Food Minister Maurice Webb said today.

He "hoped and believed," however, there would be no return to rationing already ended.

Korea-Bound Force On Its Way

Canadian Troops Going Direct To War In Korea

OTTAWA, Oct. 23—(CP)—The advance party of 345 officers and men of Canada's Special United Nations Brigade, which sailed Saturday from the west coast in a U.S. transport, is going direct to Korea, defence headquarters announced today.

Headquarters said that this advance "working party" would "prepare the way for the special force should any part of it later be sent to Korea."

Not Decided

The headquarters announcement quoted Defence Minister Claxton as reiterating that the destination of the fighting brigade of 9,000-odd men has not yet been decided.

Mr. Claxton, who is in Montreal today, was quoted as saying:

'The force was offered to the United Nations for combat service in Korea and until information received from the United Nations makes it clear that it is not needed in Korea, it is not possible to decide that all or part of the force shall not go there.

"The government from day to day has been waiting for the information which will enable it to make its decision."

Absenteeism

In regard to absenteeism from the special force—placed at 703 a week ago—Mr. Claxton was quoted as saying "by far the greatest number had overstayed their four-day leave on completion of basic training."

Red Guerrillas Raid Villages

TOKYO, Oct. 23 (Reuters) — Nearly 7,000 Communist guerrillas today streamed down from the hills to raid Korean villages in the rear of United Nations forces, reports received here said.

They struck about 40 miles north of the 38th parallel and 30 miles from the east coast, it was stated.

The reports came from South Korean police and were not immediately confirmed by American authorities. But intelligence officers have frequently mentioned the presence of thousands of by-passed northerners in this area.

These Communists now hold Yangyang, directly astride the main supply route to the north, and a force of 2,000 have cut through to the coast 30 miles south of Wonsan.

Unless wiped out soon they may be a serious threat to the rear of the South Koreon 3rd and capitol divisions, it was believed.

3 Tom Sawyers

HARLANSBURG, Pa., Oct. 23 (AP)—Three young "explorers" and a small dog were rescued today after their flashlights failed while they wondered through the maze-like passageways of a cavern.

Apparently none the worse for their 12-hour stay in the bat-filled tunnels of the cave were Herbert Harkless, 12; Eddie McClelland, 16, Ernest Mallinak, 26, and "Andy," year-old Cocker Spaniel owned by young McClelland.

The plight of the three turned this western Pennsylvania town of 500 out in full force to aid in the search.

Adopt Peace Plan For Germany Pravda Demands

MOSCOW, Oct. 23—(AP)—The Communist party newspaper Pravda today demanded adoption of a four-point program for Germany's future, as set forth by the eight-country Prague conference which wound up Saturday.

In its lead editorial, Pravda declared the Prague declaration is inspiring peace partisans the world over to intensified struggles against Imperialist warmongers.

Pravda also ran comment from observers in East European capitals lauding the Prague program.

Meanwhile, top diplomats of Russia and her seven Communist allies were feted in Prague last night as part of a round of Social activities following the two-day German parley.

The Soviet deputy Prime Minister, V. M. Molotov, and other diplomatic leaders dined with Czechoslovak president Klement Gottwald.

Eight Countries

The eight countries—Russia, Czechoslovakia, Romania, Poland, Bulgaria, Hungary, East Germany and Albania—wound up their conference Saturday with a four-point plan for setting up a German Sovereign government."

(Western observers in Germany saw little hope of any negotiations growing out of the Soviet Bloc's plan. They viewed it more propaganda than diplomacy.)

The four-point plan in effect calls for:

1. A proclamation by Russia, Britain, France and the United States "that they will not allow remilitarization of Germany and her being dragged into any aggressive plans."

2. "Removal of all hindrances in any road of development of a peaceful German economy."

3. "The undelayed conclusion of a peace treaty with Germany," creation of a unified German state and withdrawal of all occupation forces a year after signature of the treaty.

4. Creation of an all-German constitutional council on the basis of a balance representation of western and eastern Germany, which should prepare for establishment of an interim democratic, peace-loving, all-German sovereign government."

To Improve Defence Production

US To Buy Arms In Canada, Work Out Details

OTTAWA, Oct. 23—(CP)—A government source today disclosed that a peacetime version of the Hyde Park agreement, to mesh the economies of Canada and the United States for defence production, will be signed in Washington Thursday.

The agreement developed out of the Aug. 8 meeting here of the Canada-U.S. joint industrial mobilization committee, likely will be signed by Hume Wrong, Canada's ambassador to the U.S., and W. Stuart Symington, head of the U.S. national security resources board.

Trade Minister Howe will be on hand to witness the signing and will hold talks with U.S. officials on the placing of further Canadian orders for arms in the U.S. and the development of additional American orders in Canada.

General Plan

Informants disclosed that the pact will be "general in nature and will leave plenty of room for development of plans."

In other words, the new agreement will not lay down specific details as to how the economies of both countries should be coordinated. These would be worked out later in the light of international developments and the requirements of both countries, and North Antlantic countries, in the way of armaments.

However, it was learned that the general tenor of the agreement will be to the effect that any legislative or other roadblocks, hindering the movement of armys across the Canada-U.S. border, would be gradually eliminated.

Drop U.S. Tariffs

This could include, in later stages, the gradual withdrawal of high U.S. tariffs, which tend to price Canadian defence equipment out of the U.S. market and elimination of the Buy American Act of 1934, which discourages American defence forces from foreign purchases.

U.S. Rounds Up Top Communists

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23—(AP)—The Justice department today disclosed it has begun a roundup of top alien Communists in the United States, and has arrested 10.

Those already in custody were described as "the most important" of about 86 persons scheduled for prompt pick up and deportation, if deportation is possible.

Officials said the 10 are those who have been most active in the fields of Communist propaganda.

President Rhee Says

Korea Can Handle Reds

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23—(AP) President Syngman Rhee of the Republic of Korea says his government's army can handle any guerrilla problem remaining after defeat of the North Korean Communist Forces.

And when peace is restored, there will be no question but that North and South Korea will be a unified whole, Rhee said in a telephone interview from Seoul with the magazine U. S. News and World report made public today.

Reconstruction Costly.

Acknowledging that the reconstructing his war-torn country will be long and costly, he said that "certainly" the Korean army can cope with any guerrillas problem.

"We handled them so well by destroying most of the guerrillas last year that the only way the Communists could figure out to try to overthrow the Republic was to wage open war upon it."

He said his government is not anxious to get rid of U. N. Forces but that "as far as war is concerned, it is all over.

"The Republic of Korea army, police and people's organizations can take care of the rest."

Protests U. N.

Rhee, who has protested against proposals in the U. N. to hold new elections throughout Korea when the war is over, said the country will then "automatically be united (and) the United Nations has no reason to insist on controlling North Korea until the elections."

"We will accept any resolution or plan by the United Nations," he said. "But the point I want to make clear is that the U. N. merely should assist. Communistst are saying the Republic of Korea is a puppet. Now the U. N. commission says it will come out to set up a government in North Korea and hold elections. The Communists will say this is not a Korean government."

Mines Minister Reports

Gold Rush Starts In Northern Ontario

TORONTO, Oct. 23 — (CP).—Ontario Mines Minister Gemmell said tolay "a gold rush of large proportions is underway in the Sioux Lookout area as a result of a spectacular discovery of gold on Neepawa Island, in Minnitake Island."

Confirmation of the find was made following receipt of a wire from Government Geologist E. O. Chisholm of Nakora on his return from the property.

Best In Years

"This is one of the most significant gold discoveries made in many years," said Mr. Gemmell, who added that it occurred 20 miles to the east of the Newlund Mine, the scene of a development rush this summer, and is in the same belt of favorable rock.

Mr. Gemmell explained that these favorable formations had a length of more than 40 miles and that careful prospecting could be expected to turn up other gold showings.

"Stewart Saunton, a veteran prospector who had been working near the site of the find all summer, made the discovery. The ground has been optioned by the Central Manitoba Gold Mines Limited," the minister said.

Mineral Band

According to the information supplied by Chisholm, a north-south trench exposed a band of mineralized andesite cut by narrow quartz stringers up to three inches wide. The andesite strikes east-west and dips steeply to the north.

"The quartz stringers carry spectacular amounts of native gold and one such stringer in the central portion of the trench shows a seam of gold a quarter of an inch thick and three inches long, while others show a scattered patches of coarse gold," the report reveals.

Gold In Pyrite

Mr. Gemmell disclosed that the walls of the stringers are well mineralized with cube pyrite three to four inches out from the quartz and that an important feature of the deposit is that the pyrite itself carries gold. A piece of mineralized andesite containing 50 per cent pyrite was reported by Bruce Arnott, company engineer, to assay $43 per ton in gold.

"This zone of mineralized andesite is exposed for 60 feet across its strike," said Mr. Gemmell. He explained that although very little is known yet about the east-west extension of the zone, stripping 15 feet to the east had picked up a similar patch of mineralized andesite carrying good values in gold.

ECA May Export Skilled German Men

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23—(AP).—An economic co-operation administration official said last night that E.C.A. is studying a recommendation for removal of up to 120,000 West Berlin skilled workers and their equipment to other countries in need of their special skills.

In Berlin German officials were shocked today by the E.C.A. report.

Dr. Paul Hertz, who represents the city administration in Marshall plan questions, said such an Allied-sponsored emigration to foreign countries "would be in flat contradiction to the Allied policy to hold Berlin, build it up and make it a bridgehead against the east.

Berlin has 294,000 unemployed—about a quarter of its labor force. But most of the jobless are unskilled or from white collar pursuits.

Officer Searches Finds Dead, Dying Near Rail Tunnel

By DON WHITEHEAD

SUNCHON, North Korea, Oct. 23—(AP)—Survivors of the Sunchon tunnel massacre were saved because a Brigadier-General dared to push into Communist territory to check a report that American prisoners of war had been killed by North Korean Communists.

At least 68 American prisoners were slain with machine-guns by their Red guards Friday night near the Sunchon railway tunnel, 10 miles north of here. They were led from a train into nearby fields under the pretext of being taken to supper.

At least 21, many of them wounded, lived through the hour-long massacre.

Had Brig-Gen. Frank A. Allen of Cleveland not been so persistent many of the wounded undoubtedly would not have survived the bitterly-cold night.

Atrocity Discovered

This is the way the atrocity was discovered:

As assistant divisional commander of the U.S. 1st Cavalry Division, Allen decided Saturday to drive by jeep from Pyongyang to Sunchon to check on the progress of the task force driving north. This task force from the 1st Cavalry Division had gone north to link up with American paratroopers who had dropped near Sunchon.

At Sunchon we heard a rumor of a massacre at a railroad tunnel. Allen was determined to run the report down. He stopped at the headquarters of the South Korean 6th Division and requested a guide to the tunnel.

At that time the United Nations had no troops in this area.

At the tunnel, we began finding the survivors and the bodies of men murdered by the North Koreans.

Troops To Aid

Two American officers with the South Koreans as military advisers quickly had troops swarming in to help the wounded and to search the hills for other possible survivors.

Slowly the men moved over the ridge—pitifully emaciated figures whose clothing hung in folds from their starved bodies. The wounded were carried in litters improvised from mats and poles. Survivors were put on trucks brought up by the South Koreans and taken back down the road to Sunchon.

Most of them were taken to a crude little house which had been a Red army hospital. A U.S. army doctor worked all through the night, but two of the 23 survivors died.

Toronto Stocks Grow Irregular

TORONTO, Oct. 2 (CP). —Industrials became irregular as the session progressed on the Toronto Stock Exchange today.

After opening strong industrials turned mixed gains slightly more than losses. Steels showed the only real majority of gains in the groupings. Algoma headed the list adding $1.50 at a new high of $28.75. The rest of the board was mixed with the exception of refining oils which slipped fractions.

Base metals continued Saturday's advance into new high price ground. Gains more than doubled losses and ranged up to $1.

Senior gold producers were mixed with Teck Hughes and Wright-Hargreaves ahead and Dome Mines and McIntyre lower. Junior producers declined with many of the more speculative issues showing small losses.

Western oils continued their recent decline with a wide list of leaders lower.

Freighter, 25 Crew Lost in Atlantic Sent Frantic SOS

ST. JOHN'S Nfld., Oct. 23—(CP)—A United States plane and two Coast Guard cutters continued the search today for the 1,104-ton former Canadian freighter North Voyageur, which disappeared off Newfoundland yesterday after sending a frantic S O S. Asked if the freighter, now owned in Greece, was considered lost, a spokesman for her agents here said: "I'm afraid it looks that way." The North Voyageur's radio failed before she had time to give details of her plight. Ships which raced to the area 60 miles southeast of Newfoundland found nothing, shrouding her fate and that of her estimated 25 crew members in mystery.

The search was abandoned for the night after four vessels and aircraft reported no clue to the missing ship's disappearance. A short statement from Cape Race, Nfld., marine radio said in part: "There is nothing to report."

Ships in the area or passing nearby were asked to watch for the Voyageur, but no full-scale search was organized.

Strong Winds

Strong winds swept the area yesterday, the tail end of a 40-mile-an-hour gale which lashed the coast Saturday.

Officials here doubted whether any crew members had managed to get off in lifeboats.

The 41 year-old North Voyageur, formerly named the Gaspesia and the Alexandra, was a first world war prize vessel and for three decades operated as a passenger and coastal trader in the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

During the second world war the 252-foot craft carried passengers between Montreal and Corner Brook, Nfld.

She was carrying 200 tons of coal to St. John's from Philadelphia when reported missing.

U.S. Aircraft For Europe Ready Any Time

By ELTON C. FAY.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 (AP). —The United States probably will be able to dispatch quickly a substantial part of any air strength it pledges to North Atlantic Allies at forthcoming European defence talks here.

There are indications the build-up of United States Air Force strength in Europe is already well under way.

The Air Force, unlike the Army, has not been compelled to put virtually all its existing strength into the Korean War, even though air strength in the Far East has been expanded enormously since last June 25.

Seven-Day Meeting

In the series of meetings of the military committee and defence ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty organization here during the next seven days, the United States will agree to its contributions to the mutual defence against the menace of Soviet aggression—on the ground, in the air, at sea, in providing war equipment for the other 11 Treaty countries.

Representing Canada at the meetings will be Defence Minister Brooke Claxton and Lt.-Gen. Charles Foulkes, chairman of the Canadian Chiefs of Staff Committee and Canadian representative on the North Atlantic Military Committee.

The guess has been that eventually the United States may provide from 5 to 10 of the 70 or 80 army divisions of the combined Western European defence force. United States army officials have been working feverishly to find some way to provide the first of the divisions.

US Navy

The US Navy is in somewhat the position of the Air Force. Even though it has built up the Seventh Fleet in the Far East from an original handful of craft to a force that comprises much of the total 400 United Nations warships, it has an ample stockpile of vessels and is getting the men to man them.

The last public report on the status of the US Air Force, just before the beginning of the Korean War, showed the Air Force setup included three heavy bomber groups (normally 30 planes each) of B-36s, 12 medium bomber groups (46 planes to the group) of B-29s and B-50s, and approximately 20 fighter groups, part of them modern jets, part of the older Second World War piston-engine fighters.

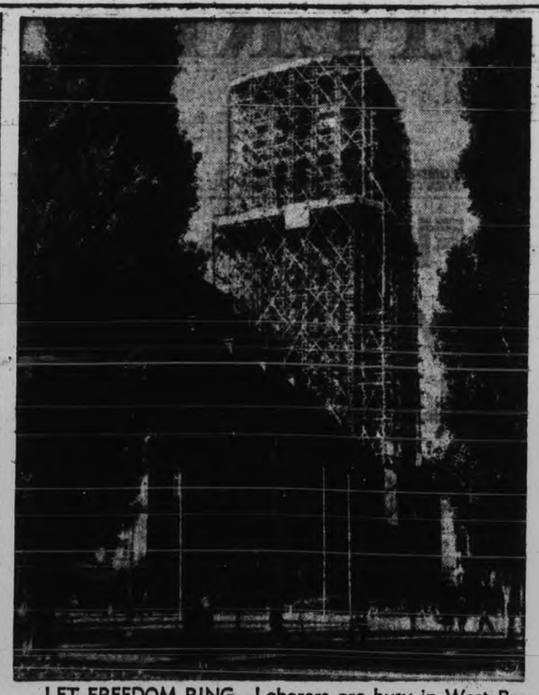
Capture Pukchang

British and Australian troops killed 200 and captured 300 enemy troops Sunday in a battle with about 1,000 Reds near Yongtu south of Sukchon. The British and Aussie forces dispersed the Reds in four hours of sharp fighting.

Officers said reports of the mass massacre of South Koreans at Younghung were incomplete. They said the victims were shot and bayonetted, drenched with gasoline and set afire. Their bodies were placed in trenches and narrow ravines.

Strafe Troops

Allied planes hit Red troops and transport lines north of the advancing Allied forces. The operations base for F 80 Shooting Star jet fighter planes was moved Sunday from Japan to Korea. This gives the fuel-hungry jets longer time in the air over enemy country.



Compilations were not complete, but an intelligence officer said enough enemy equipment had been captured to outfit 12 infantry and two tank divisions.

This includes only equipment captured south of Parallel 38. Vast stores have fallen into Allied hands north of the border.

Equipment captured south of the border includes, the officer said: 534 Russian-made tanks, 196 122-mm. Howitzers, 485 76-mm. guns, 232 122 mm. mortars, 1,074 82-mm. mortars.

Doll Clothes' Show Get Historic Home

LONDON — (CP). — The famous collection of historical clothes and children's toys which used to be housed at the London Museum is being transferred to Kensington Palace, where Queen Victoria was born and Queen Mary lived for some years.

One room in Lancaster House, next door to Princess Elizabeth's London home, is being set aside for children. Here a costly collection of dolls' houses and toys will be on view. For mothers, there is an exhibit of Royal coronation robes and historic theatrical costumes.

British Prisons 'Bed Of Roses' Chief Declares

DUNFERMLINE, Scotland (CP) —Life in a British prison has become a veritable bed of roses. That, at least, is the verdict of a man who should know—William Merrilees, chief constable of the Lothians and Peebles.

The chief constable prompted general eyebrow-lifting when he told members of the Dunfermline Businessmen's Club that prisons in the country were being made too comfortable for criminals.

"Such things as whisky, sherry and roast beef have been carried to the prisoners," he said. "I know of one Glasgow prisoner who has never missed his weekend joint. What's more, warders are even being sent to London for training courses to enable them to operate movie projectors."

Merrilees charged that leniency of the courts and "Molly-coddling" of prisoners were adding greatly to the difficulties of police forces, already understaffed.

In Edinburgh, he said, most of the big "jobs" were planned inside Saughton prison. Men had been found leaving the prison with plans and documents dealing with crimes they intended to commit.

"Three years ago," he added, "we used to worry about people escaping from Saughton. Now we are worried about people breaking in and carrying food to their pals."

Gunshot Death

Keith Teizzard, 16, of Dixie, near Toronto, died from a blast in the stomach from a shotgun held by Jack Karr of Toronto, a companion, on a hunt for starlings. Police said the trigger of the gun caught in Karr's Jacket and discharged.

At French River, in Northern Ontario, Anthony Plebon, 36, highway worker, fell from a bulldozer Saturday and was crushed beneath the tracks. Gordon A. Copper, 26, of Newtonbrook, near Brampton, was crushed to death under five tons of hot asphalt on Saturday when his dump truck crashed into a cement culvert.

At Saint John, NB, police are investigating the deaths of two men, Robert Bothwick, 52, and Leslie Steel, 70.

Steel died in hospital Saturday from head injuries received in an attack by an unknown assailant. The body of Bothwick, reported missing from his home for a day, was found Saturday in Johnston Lake.

The Maritimes' third fatality was Claire Barry, 41, of Newcastle, killed there Saturday when hit by an automobile as he alighted from a taxi.

Eight In Hospital After 2 Crashes Near Port Hope

COBOURG, Oct. 23 — (ENS)—Weekend accidents near Port Hope sent eight people to Port Hope hospital on Saturday night.

When a truck and a car were in collision just east of Port Hope at 10.45 on Saturday night, seven went to hospital. Injured in this accident were Irwin Moore, RR 4, Cobourg and Mrs. Moore, who were in the truck which was driven by Irwin Moore. Also injured was Calven Harness, age 21, RR2, Port Hope, driver of the car and badly injured; Harvey Kelly, age 21, RR 1, Port Hope; Don Lord, age 19, RR 1, Port Hope; Russell Elliott, aged 18, Newtonville and Howard Beebe, age 18, Port Hope, RR 3. Cecil Moore, who was in the truck, was unhurt.

Just how the accident occurred is not clear, due to the condition of the driver of the car. However police said that the truck had been proceeding west on Highway No. 2 and was either slowing up to make a right turn off the highway to a side road, or was in the act of turning. The westbound automobile was in a violent collision with the rear of the truck, police said on the basis of the damage to the car. The truck then went down a sharp bank into the ditch, snapping off a telephone pole. The car was practically a total wreck. Provincial Constables C. Tutton and H. Wooldridge of Cobourg investigated.

In the other accident, which occurred near Welcome, a car driven by Arthur Foote of Port Hope, hit the guard rail and went into the ditch. Foote received a broken shoulder. Mrs. Foote and their two sons, Christopher and Alvin, escaped with a shaking up. Provincial Constables Wooldridge and Tutton investigated.

Charges Dismissed Against Schofield

COBOURG, Oct. 23—A charge of theft and another of false pretenses against Chester Schofield of Peterborough were dismissed in court her Friday.

The court was advised Schofield had made restitution of $350 to Mrs. Marguerite Warner of Percy Township, and the charge was dismissed. The other charge involved purchase of a car from Cyril Haynes of Cobourg, for which a cheque for $750 was given. Haynes said Schofield told him he would have to wait to cash the cheque, since he did not have sufficient funds, and Magistrate Baxter ruled that on this ground the charge could not be sustained.

Purchases Farm

ROSENEATH, Oct. 23 (ENS) — Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Beernink and family of seven children who came from Holland in the early spring of 1949 and settled on the Masterson homestead, three miles south-east of Roseneath on concession 1 in Alnwick township have purchased a farm near London, Ontario.

Mrs. R. Gibson Marks 96th Birthday

MILLBROOK, Oct. 23 (ENS).—Mrs. Robert Gibson, King St. East was at home to her friends on Thursday in celebration of her 96th birthday. The actual date of her birth was October 12th, but since some members of her family could not be present that day the festivities were postponed for a week.

Mrs. Gibson, the former Agnes Gray was born in 1854 on a farm in Cavan township, one and one-half miles west of Carmel. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gray. At the time of her marriage she moved with her husband to Georgina township where she lived for 20 years. The family then returned to Cavan where they lived in the township for 25 years, until they moved into Millbrook 25 years ago.

There were seven children, Mrs. Fred Challice, Frank and James Gibson who have predeceased their mother; Mrs. Nelson Ruddy of Winnipeg, Mrs. William Challice of Carmel, and John and Mina at home. All the surviving children, with the exception of Mrs. Ruddy, were present for the birthday celebration.

Mrs. Gibson has 12 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren.

Birthday remembrances were received from all across Canada, and about 40 friends called during the afternoon and evening.

The rooms were decorated with dahlias, gladioli and petunias. There was a large birthday cake iced in pink and white, with "Happy Birthday, Mother" and her age in chocolate lettering.

Refreshments were served both afternoon and evening.

Peterborough's New Coat-Of-Arms

Elsewhere in today's issue of the Examiner we print pictures and a full description of the armorial bearings which have been granted to Peterborough by the College of Heralds, and which will henceforth be the official insignia of the city. They are handsome, appropriate and impressive; what is more, they are authentic, and no one can question our right to display them. They will, we hope, appear in the Council Chamber of the New City Hall, appropriately carved (providing, of course, that the Council can overcome its aversion to sculpture). We hope that they will be shown to the schoolchildren of the city, and the significance of the heraldry explained. For this coat-of-arms is not a mere frill—a bit of fancy adornment; it comprises in a heraldic design the nature, the ancestry and the ambitions of Peterborough; the honour and aspiration of the city are contained in it. It is a symbol of what we are, and as the knight of old valued nothing more than the unspotted honour of his coat-of arms, so should we value the blazon which is now ours.

We strongly commend the City Council and the Mayor for the promptitude which they have shown in procuring this grant of arms from the Heralds' College. Such a process is usually slow, but in this instance it has been quick, and we have our new coat-of-arms well before the expiry of our Centennial Year. It is not the least of the achievements which have marked that occasion. In particular we feel that a word of praise must be said for the City Clerk, whose correspondence and advice to the College of Heralds was of invaluable assistance in helping them to arrive at the splendid blazon which is now, in perpetuity, the arms of the city of Peterborough.

Third Deal In New York Election

When Lieutenant Governor Joseph R. Hanley published his letter of Sept 5 to W. Kingsland Macy earlier this week, he revealed the third political deal of the November election there. The letter indicated that Mr. Hanley had agreed to retire from the gubernatorial contest and accept the senatorial nomination, leaving the former nomination open to Governor Dewey. Mr. Hanley wrote that, if he did so, he would be "definitely assured of being able to clean up my financial obligations within ninety days, so that I would be clear for the first time in twenty years of my life". He also mentioned "an ironclad, unbreakable arrangement whereby I will be given a job with the State" in case of defeat in the race against Senator Herbert Lehman.

Governor Dewey was, of course, involved in the deal, and there is more than a hint of division within the Republican Party. Mr. Hanley's backers—Mr. Macy and Frank Gannett, newspaper publisher—would like to see the Dewey regime replaced. However, there is no open split in the party so far, although an adverse result which could be blamed on the Hanley letter might easily produce an upheaval.

The regrettable feature of the incident is that it involves two politicians with long and honourable careers, and with reputations for high integrity. Governor Dewey's fine record as prosecutor and chief State executive is too well known to need recapitulation. Lieutenant Governor Hanley assumed obligations of $100,000 some twenty years ago, when a bank in which his mother held a large amount of stock collapsed, rather than follow the easy road of bankruptcy. He has been paying off ever since. There appears to be some reason, therefore, to accept the latter's statement that the deal was conducted "in a perfectly legal and unquestionable way."

There is nothing new about political deals of basically the same nature as that revealed by the Hanley letter. We imagine, if the truth were known, that there have been similar cases in Canadian politics. Certainly there is reason to believe that the Dewey-Hanley deal is at least the third in the current New York election, for the offers of an Ambassadorship to Mayor O'Dwyer of New York City, and a Supreme Court judgeship to Acting Mayor Impellitteri, were made at the most politically convenient moment possible.

Ambassadors Of Canadian Style?

The Dionne quintuplets have arrived in New York, and have received a celebrities' welcome. Their fame as babies was world-wide; their fame as growing children and young ladies has been very properly limited to annual announcements in the papers that they have passed another birthday. For their own good they were allowed to mature in comparative obscurity. But now they are again in the news; thousands of people see them and millions see their pictures in the papers. And everybody who sees them or their pictures is reminded of Canada.

For this reason we wish that they might have been a little more carefully presented to the New York public. Nature was prodigal when the Quints were ushered into the world; Nature's bounty is not unlimited, and therefore it would be unreasonable to expect them to be paragons of beauty, but it is not too much to wish that they should be in the forefront of Canadian fashion when they visit another country. The Argentinian quintuplets who travelled recently presented a much more finished exterior to the world. Celebrities are expected to do so. Even our Queen Elizabeth takes the greatest pains to present herself in the best and most appropriate clothes when she appears in public, as do Princess Margaret and the Duchess of Edinburgh. Film stars and stars of the stage know the importance of a good appearance. The Quints are celebrities, too, and they carry thoughts of Canada everywhere they go.

We do not suggest for a moment that the Quints should be dressed in anything but clothing suitable to girls of their age. But they should appear in public in the best and most fashionable clothing of that kind. They are not without means; a considerable sum is provided to take care of their needs. Further, we think that Canadian outfitters would be glad to lend a hand in sending them abroad looking as smart as girls who represent Canada should look. There is nothing admirable or distinctively Canadian about dowdiness.

Peterborough's Lion And Stag

We have long campaigned for brighter beverage rooms, for it is our belief that if Ontario's drinking places were smaller and cheerier, there would be less gloomy soaking done in them. Now that Peterborough has a coat-of-arms, which of the local beverage rooms will be first to take advantage of that fact and change its name?

In England, names of pubs related to the heraldic designs of the city in which the pub is situated are common. The new Peterborough arms contain some interesting items which might serve splendidly as inn-signs. "The Stag" is a good name; so is "The Red Lion". And what about the crest on the new arms? "The Key and Beaver" is a name which is distinctively Canadian.

Ontario's cocktail lounges tend to be darkly-lit, hushed places, almost church-like in atmosphere; this is Ontario's idea of high-life. But the beverage rooms need not be glum, and cheery new names of the type we have suggested would do a lot to alter their atmosphere.

Is The Army Growing Soft?

During the week-end of October 15th, Canada's Special Force men were given a four-day leave. When the roll was called at the various training camps after the holiday period ended, 703 men were found to be absent without leave. It is reported that Army authorities are not worried about the number of absentees. Well, that is a gentle, complaisant attitude to take. They have, of course, the best pay Canadian soldiers have ever received, the best rations, the best quarters, and it would perhaps be out of line with these comfortable conditions to expect all of them to return to their duties on time, after a four-day holiday. What are 703 men absent without leave, in a force of nearly ten thousand? They are 703 men absent without leave.

NOTE AND COMMENT

In too many cases a man's train of thought consists of one partly-loaded car and twenty-five empties.

A Latin teacher in the U.S.A. has been convicted of arson; his explanation was that he didn't like to see other people happy. Well, what Latin teacher ever did?

Footprints of dinosaurs have been found on the ceiling of a cave in Colorado. That sort of thing, we presume, accounts for the fact that the cave is at present uninhabited.

A biologist reports that it is very difficult to determine the sex of a flea. And why, may we enquire, would anyone want to know the sex of a flea? Have fleas got anything that nicer people haven't got?

Musical Notes

By PETER PIPER

CRITICS come in for a good deal of criticism themselves, as anyone who reads the newspaper knows. This is a perfectly healthy state of affairs, and only helps to keep the critic on his toes. After all, the critic does not enjoy a divine right to criticize without fear of contradiction. Nevertheless there is a tendency amongst the critics of the critics to draw a distinction between "constructive" and "destructive" criticism, and the way in which these terms are used leads one to the conclusion that they could be better expressed by the shorter and blunter words "praise" and "blame". Musical critics come in for the same sort of obloquy from performers and composers. Yet "destructive" criticism is of real value; in fact it is a necessity. Without it the critic would be as useful as a watchdog without a bark—or a bite. He cannot be expected to be popular with those whom he bites, and sometimes he may bite the wrong fellow, but he acts as a safe-guard to the musical public. I shall therefore continue on occasion to bark and bite, and if I see any brick-bats aimed at me by the occasional irate reader I shall continue to dodge them to the best of my ability.

"IT must be borne in mind that folk-music is nowhere spontaneous and autochthonous. It is always a reminiscence, a heritage from a cultured past. The yokel is as incapable of creating a beautiful melody as he is of producing a piece of beautiful sculpture, or of composing a genuine poem." Thus wrote the Rev. S. Baring-Gould in 1891 in his preface to his "Songs of the West", a collection of folksongs of the West of England which he made. Baring-Gould was a many-sided character. Besides being a country parson he managed to find time to write several novels. He wrote the words of the well-known hymn "Onward, Christian Soldiers", and was responsible for the words and the music of "Now the Day is Over". As a collector of English folksong he was a forerunner in the field. His work has since his time been superseded by that of men like Cecil Sharp and Vaughan Williams, who showed that the "crudities" which Baring-Gould tried to soften down in his versions of the old songs were really essential to the idiom: leave them out, and only a milk-and-watery drawing-room ballad remained. Present-day authorities on the origins of folk-song would discount his sweeping theory quoted at the beginning of this paragraph. We know nowadays that even uncloathed savages can produce beautiful works of art (though they may not conform to our own standards of beauty). We can see nothing incongruous in the simple village people making their own music. Of course there has been a good deal of borrowing from various sources down the ages, but the Baring-Gould theory raises more difficulties than it solves.

ONCE again these sirens are worrying me. One of my readers has been kind enough to point out a slip that I made when I stated that Ulysses stopped his ears with wax while passing the sirens on his famous voyages. I should of course have said that he had himself lashed to the mast of his ship, while his crew plugged their ears. Thus they were unable to hear the deceptive song of the Sirens or the cries of their captain to release him, and Ulysses became the first mortal to hear the song of the Sirens and survive. The voyage of the Argonauts was on an entirely different occasion, but they too sailed past the Sirens. Presumably nobody heard them sing because Orpheus was able to "jam" them with his own singing.

I HEAR that the chancel-style church is coming back into favour, and many churches are being built or remodelled. The Anglican churches have always remained faithful to the chancel-style building, and it is interesting to see that many other denominations are reverting to the older type. The chancel choir, with the members facing one another, is more difficult to direct than the auditorium type, where everybody faces the choirmaster. Moreover the sound does not readily enter the main portion of the church. On the other hand, with the auditorium type of choir loft the congregation cannot but help feeling like an audience at a concert, and it is ratner distracting to see all the hair-dos and moving jaws. There is a good deal to be said for placing organ and choir in a gallery, though this depends on the individual building. In the Orthodox churches of the East instrumental music is banned, and the singers are hidden completely from sight. A hundred years or so ago the parish churches of England had a minstrel's gallery, where the choir and an odd collection of instruments were placed. In the course of the last century the choirs were placed in the chancel in imitation of the cathedral type of service. In most Roman Catholic churches the choir is placed in a gallery or to one side, while the chancel stalls are occupied by ecclesiastical dignitaries. Thus it can be seen that the position of the choir is influenced mainly by doctrinal or liturgical considerations, and that musical considerations are of secondary importance. Fortunately for choirmasters who also have to play the organ the inventions of the past fifty odd years have made it possible to place the console of the organ near the choir instead of perched up in some inaccessible organ loft, remote from every body else.

I ALWAYS enjoy a visit from the piano tuner. When I was a little boy I remember looking forward with keen anticipation to hearing him try over the instrument after he had finished his work. Piano tuners as a class all seem to have a mellow philosophy of life. I have yet to meet an embittered piano tuner, though heaven knows that they must have at least more than a fair share of life's disappointments. Perhaps there is something about their work, like that of a gardener, that predisposes them to take the long view. Personally I would have thought that it would be a nerve-wracking job listening to such fine shades of pitch. When he has gone my fingers itch to play something. What has happened? My playing seems so much better—I can almost bear to hear myself. That squeak in the pedal has disappeared. And, oh joy, that ivory which came off and fell down the grating has been replaced by a nice new shining slice of elephant's tusk—or is it plastic?

UNEASY CHAIR

The Ritual of Ploughing

(CORNWALL STANDARD-FREEHOLDER)

WE believe it true that most farmers enjoy ploughing. Plowing is such an ancient rite that it has become a part of the cycle of the year, and omission of the yearly turning of the earth, if it were possible, would be regretted even by those who search hardest for time and labour saving methods.

Whether the plowman harnesses the most aged and quietest of teams, and passes the dwindling days of the year in the slow pursuit of a single plowshare, or yields to the bustling spirit of the times and employs a tractor, the end sought remains the same. Only the means are different.

The man who sticks to the older method of turning his furrow may do so from innate conservatism, or because he cannot afford new machinery. Yet there are some consoling factors. No other country pursuit is done in the same leisurely manner. If the weather is warm, the men and the horses all need frequent rests. It is only necessary to look around to enjoy earth and sky in the most beautiful time of year.

The mechanical farmer misses all this, losing the beauty of the autumn scene in the movement and clatter of his machine. He must keep his attention rivetted on his work on fine days, and if the weather is cold, he cannot warm himself by working more briskly. A cold wind can chill to the bone after a few hours on an open tractor.

A sense of satisfaction in doing a hard job well and quickly must replace the quiet appreciation of the honourable art of ruling whole field into new patterns, for the farmer who prefers up-to-date methods. The introduction of a new way of doing an accustomed task is not without a side effect on the mind and thoughts of the man who does the work.

And The Bridegroom Said No

(Ottawa Journal)

Perhaps we shall have to leave town for this, but we must confess to some reluctant admiration for the Italian who broke up a fashionable Rome wedding (in which he had the role of bridegroom) by saying No, to the consternation of everyone, when the officiating clergyman asked if he would take the girl beside him to be his lawful wedded wife.

It must have been quite a scene. There was the lovely bride, daughter of a wealthy lawyer, in all her finery. There were her proud parents, six priests, 400 spectators. And there was Vittorio Jannitti-Piramallo, who had but to say Yes, at the appointed spot in the ceremony, to have the lawyer's beautiful daughter for his wife. And Vittorio, a valiant fellow, instead said No, turned and stalked out of the church and out of the life of the lawyer's daughter —though the lawyer now threatens to sue—and home, alone, to his flat, where he had to barricade himself against angry women who called him cad and said he should be hanged. What the bride said we are not told. Probably by this time she is convinced she is well rid of Vittorio Jannitti-Piramallo.

We agree that Vittorio should have made up his mind earlier, to save everyone expense and his almost-bride the humiliation of being left at the church, but having come to the belated conclusion that he really didn't want to marry this girl and what in the world was he doing there beside her seconds away from the fatal, final word, he showed the stuff of heroes when he uttered that devastating No. A weaker chap would have yielded to circumstances, would have said Yes, and all his life would have felt he had somehow been bamboozled into a marriage he didn't want. Only a very brave man, cad or not, could take the one way out of a situation he all at once had found untenable.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.... He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honor. (Prov. 21: 16, 21.)

Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you. (Phil. 3: 13-15.)

Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; and have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him. (Col. 3: 9, 10.)

Accidental Greatness

(Toronto Financial Post)

Bill Buchanan is an advertising representative for Modern Power. At the moment he also is the accidental Marco Polo of Maclean-Hunter. This, in his own mind, is the chronicle of his precipitation into World Affairs:

"While in New York on business recently I was sitting in the lounge of the Waldorf Astoria one evening about six-ish when it suddenly occurred to me that I had not had my afterwork glass of milk. In this weakened condition I set out to find a milk bar. Walking through a narrow door at the end of the lounge I ran slap into a reception line.

"I turned to break for it, but retreat was blocked by a group of distinguished-looking foreigners who had gathered behind me. My only choice was to go through the reception line. I shook hands with Mr. Dean Acheson, Mrs. Austin and Warren Austin. At the end of the line I was confronted with a champagne cocktail. Automatically my hand closed on the glass and I found myself in the middle of a cocktail party thrown for Mr. Vishinsky who had arrived that day from Russia.

"I wanted to leave, but I was far too intrigued by the people I saw in the room. Malik and Vishinsky, Bevin and Sir Gladwyn Jebb from Britain; Schuman from France, and many others. I stood in the little knots of people who were chatting with them and listened to their casual conversation, and then, after a few minutes, I left, walking with the casual stride of a man in a nightmare who dreams he is strolling down Yonge street with no clothes on."

FUN AND GAMES AT BLACKPOOL

Quints Arrive In Montreal Calm As Papa, 5,000 Go Mad

MONTREAL, Oct. 23—(CP)—Canada's famous five — the Dionne quintuplets—arrived here from New York Sunday night and played a hectic two-hour game of hide-and-seek with about 5,000 Montrealers.

The game began when the quints stopped off at Windsor station for a two-hour visit with Roman Catholic Archbishop Paul Emile Leger of Montreal between trains en route to Ottawa.

More than 1,000 people filled the concourse of the station and more than four times that number jammed the entrances.

The quints, accompanied by their father, Ovila Dionne, and several relatives and attendants, alighted from a special railway coach. Police brushed aside press photographers and hustled the quints to a specially-cleared laneway and a fleet of waiting automobiles.

But they never made it!

There was a cry of "It's them," hundreds broke the police barrier and the game was on.

Hide And Seek

Police rushed the quints to another entrance but the crowds got there first. Papa Dionne moved daughters into a nearby baggage room while police made arrangements to clear them through the freight entrance. No good.

The five girls, neatly dressed in tailored grey suits, grey velvet hats, green shoes, grey suede handbags and green boy ties, remained calm.

The crowd outside the station rushed police barriers, broke them, and poured inside. A strong cordon of police hid the quints behind a stationary railway train, then sneaked them over to a baggage elevator and let them out on a railway parking lot.

Broke Gate

A crowd had already assembled there. They broke down a gate and surged in. Police pushed them back. Automobiles were ordered. Two large black cars were filled with officials and relatives as a blind. As they moved off the crowd rushed after them.

Then the quints were bundled into another car and sent on a cruise of the city to throw off pursuers.

Half an hour later they met Archbishop Leger. He gave them gifts of gold medallions from Italy and boxes of candy.

The five all agreed they like New York "very much." Papa Dionne said the girls were tired and did not want to be asked questions.

The group left for Ottawa without commotion.

The couple said "oui" before Mayor Charles Palmaro as more than 100 guests watched and a crowd of 3,000 chattered excitedly in the city hall courtyard.

The best man for the Australian-born, 41-year-old Flynn was his fellow countryman, yachtsman Fred McEvoy. McEvoy's wife Claude, was matron of honor for the 24-year-old bride from Salina, Kan.

There was no mob scene at the wedding, though Monaco's police had been mobilized to handle 10,000 persons. Reporters and photographers far outnumbered the guests.

Chief Roy charged the men were playing cards for money.

One of the quintet, Claude Bastien, pleaded guilty to the charge and will be sentenced next Friday.

Alderman Lortie and three others pleaded innocent. Lortie's attorney claimed the municipal court had no jurisdiction. He said the five were charged under a municipal by-law but added the by-law was void because gambling is covered in the Criminal Code.

Recorder J. P. Charbonneau said he will pass judgment Friday.

American Tank Floats Away Sails Back Alone

By HAL BOYLE

WITH U.S. 1ST CAVALRY DIVISION, Korea, Oct. 23 (AP)—Hear now the tale of an American tank that floated out to sea—and floated back again.

The truant tank went away for a day while it was being ferried across the Yesong River near Kaeson during the United States 7th Cavalry Regiment's march on the North Korean capital of Yyongyang.

Engineers had improvised a ferry by putting planking across six large rubber pontoon boats.

"The first tank they rolled on it was a 37-ton Sherman," said Capt. Art Westburg, of Washington, D.C.

"No sooner was it on the ferry than the mooring cables snapped. There is an 18-foot tide differential in the river that creates an 8-to-10-knot current. It took hold of the ferry and off it floated down stream."

20 Aboard

Besides the crew of five surprised tankmen there were several chagrined engineers and about 15 frightened South Korean laborers aboard.

The waterborne tank rode majestically down the mouth of the river into the estuary and out to sea. Along the way it passed a shoreline and several islands still held by the enemy.

The startled Reds took a long unbelieving look at this unusual target and then joyously began banging away at it with mortars and machine guns.

Before a navy tug could arrive to recapture it, the sea decided to return the footloose ferry itself.

It floated through the estuary and up the river, still bowing its gun grandly. The entrenched Reds on the banks and hills must have rubbed their eyes at this second chance at the strange target. They opened fire again.

Shortly after nightfall the tides gently grounded the ferry about 150 feet from the point where it had begun its brief odyssey.

Free Currency Bold Step Backed By Sound Economy

By FORBES RHUDE,
Canadian Press Business Editor.

Canada has taken a bold step in freeing her dollar and allowing it to find its own level, says the Economic Record, a publication issued by the United Kingdom information office in Ottawa. It comments:

For some 20 years the world has become accustomed to pegged currencies and the free market has been at a discount. Obviously, such a move could only have been made in the knowledge of the firm backing of a Canadian economy, stronger, more active and more productive than at any previous period of Canada's history. Some of the dreams of increase multilateral trade with freely convertible currencies may yet be realized.

Cheaper Buys

For Canadians the move should mean cheaper purchases overseas. For that reason there should be more trade between Britain and Canada.

In the chill of the cold war and the additional financial burdens of defence, this is good news. But Canadians will want to know whether Britain can go on "delivering the goods"; whether Britain's new defence program, with its vast demand on industry and manpower, will not mean that goods will no longer be available to Canadians in their present quantity and quality.

First Choice

Obviously, there is going to be less available in Britain. But Canadians are to have first pick of what is available. They can order and rest assured that their orders will be given preference and put to the head of the list.

The foregoing statement of the Economic Record is along the line of the assurance brought back from Britain recently by James S. Duncan of Toronto. He was assured by both Prime Minister Attlee and Harold Wilson, president of the Board of Trade, that Britain would continue her export drive, especially to dollar areas, side-by-side with defence programs.

Mr. Duncan also was told that every effort would be made to increase Britain's purchases from Canada.

PCVS Juniors Wallop Oshawa, 22-7

The Junior A Garnet and Greys from PCVS walked over the Oshawa Collegiate Juniors Saturday at the Oval 22-7 for their sixth straight victory. An Oshawa attempt to crack the PCVS defence by passing failed in the first quarter along the ground and in the air the PCI'ers clicked for two touchdowns. Oshawa continued to attempt forwards until one backfired for a touchdown.

Oshawa troubled the Collegians only once in the first half. With a minute to go, a fumble on the locals' 35-yard line handed the ball to the Oshawans. They worked the ball to the PCVS six where the line held them off.

Muray Grafstein, a lineman and a backfielder, led the way for the Garnet and Grey throughout the game. With Reg Fowler out of the lineup, Grafstein filled in and could not have had a better afternoon. Most of the plunges were taken by him and it seemed as though he was taking every two plays in three. Not very often was he stopped until after six to 10 yards. Dave Langhorne provided some nifty runs as well as faking to perfection on Grafstein's plays.

Set Play Up

Grafsten rolled for 20 yards after four minutes had passed to place in PCVS crew in line for the first TD. Spencer Hope clipped around the right end for the major. Langhorne with a drop kick added the extra point. Hope's punts hemmed the OCI'ers in and Oshawa kicked to Langhorne at centre and he ran 12 yards and lateralled to Bill Stewart who jogged along the side to the Oshawa five. Stewart then threw a bullet pass to Dan Griffin for the second touchdown which Dave Langhorne converted with another drop-kick.

Grafstein brought down an Oshawa pass in the second on his 40-yard line and drove to the centre stripe. Two Stewart passes to Dan Griffin and plunges by Grafstein allowed Stewart to zip over for the third major. This time Langhorne missed the extra.

Clyde Beaton hoofed a 50-yard kick early in the fourth and Dave Langhorne was rouged well behind the line for the first Oshawa point. Both teams exchanged passes and plunges at centre until finally Oshawa's Bill Kellar, the quarterback, went up high to intercept a Hope pass at the Oshawa 25. He broke into the clear and went the 60 yards for the Oshawa TD. He added the extra point.

PCVS began their last touchdown parade on their 25-yard line with only three minutes left. Grafstein carried five times, Langhorne twice, and Stewart once before Stewart again went across undisturbed.

PCVS: Flying wing, Dunn; halves, Langhorne, Hope, Grafstein; quarter, Stewart; centre, Johnson; insides, Forbes, Outram; middles, Scriver, Huddart; outsides, Boorman, Griffin; alt., Armstrong, Hollingsworth, Gilders, Turner, Haggart, Russell, McIlwain, Pollard, Patterson, Chevalier.

Badminton Notes

By RALPH CHARLTON

The weather of the past week was a bit too warm for badminton, with cooler weather in the offing more players will be coming out to play.

Vaughan Taylor, club treasurer is in Civic hospital, recovering from an operation. It will be December before he will be playing again. He was finalist in men's singles in 1949. Last year's members who have not renewed their membership are urged to do so at once or come down to play. There is a limit to club membership this year and many new players are applying. Anyone who would like to try badminton is welcome to play one night before applying for membership. A racquet can be secured, and all you need is a pair of running shoes.

There were 25 juniors out last Tuesday, the largest number in several years. Tuesday and Thursday night are set aside for juniors.

The badminton club is faced with the possibility of losing in a few years the market court. It has not hitherfore been club policy to plan for a greater bank balance at the end of the year than would facilitate the resumption of operations the following fall. We might seek ways to accumulate a good financial reserve to apply against the outlay necessary to provide courts elsewhere. Do you wish to do so? A general meeting of club members is to be held to discuss this and other matters on Saturday, Nov. 4 at conclusion of night's play. All members are urged to be present.

The secretary has sent an invitation to Strathgowan Club of Toronto to play here on November 11 and to Oshawa General Motors Club to play here October 28 or November 18.

Our first social event is the club dance at Kawartha Golf and Country Club, December 2nd. Tickets may be secured from the executive.

Big Lumberjack Can Be Rough

A mighty mat collision is looming for the main wrestling event at the Brock Arena on Tuesday night, when Leering Lee Henning, the big, bruising Iowa Cornhusker, will meet Yukon Eric, the amazing, 272-pound Alaska lumberjack with the 56-inch chest.

Henning has been a rough and rugged ring distruber all through his career, but it is doubtful is he has ever been in against an opponent of Eric's strength and solid rockiness. Though Yukon is not a rough wrestler himself, that kind of an opponent holds no fears for him, as Eric was top man in the lumber camps and bush country of the north in rough-and-tumble combat. Consequently, if an opponent chooses to wrestle that way, he will find Yukon Eric is a ready and able rival.

In the semi-final, Flying Pat Flanagan will use his vast store of mat knowledge and ability in an attempt to defeat and un-mask the sturdy, rugged new Masked Marvel.

Abe Zvonkin, former Hamilton football star, will oppose Bobby Nelson of California, in the first bout.

By CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Baseball and our bantams finally bowed out for the year here Saturday. Mimico won 13-3 to take the OBA crown in two straight. Had fine flinging from young Day and some timely thumping. A good team which has been together three years. Ed Woodcock's boys, also, did exceptionally well this semester in going so far, Jerry Frizzelle coming up Saturday with nifty relief flinging in the ninth, Gary Kearns sparkling at bat and afield, and the team pilfering home three times. They and the other PMHA teams and managers —as well as the working loop officers—rate much credit for efforts so far along the playdown path.

* * * * * *

Which reminds us, there are a couple of ball trophies to be awarded yet. Alex Kay, commissioner for minor ball here, will soon decide on the most valuable player to his team in the PMBA. He has been waiting till all teams were finished, and Saturday wound it up. This is for the Fred Craig Trophy, which has been won before by Jack Sisson, Al Menzies, Kenny Pammett, Don Pagett and Sam Murphy. The other trophy is for the most valuable player in the City Softball League to his team and it was won previously by Howie Dalton and Bob Greenlaw. The loop executive and this scorer vote on team nominees. It's for the Peller Trophy.

Mauling Those Maples

Bowling is hitting its full stride now for the long indoor winter season. Alleys resound to the roar of balls afternoon and evening—and mayhap the odd circuit goes in the morning. A hefty schedule (with some open bowling, of course) at the four bowling places here, YMCA, K. of C., Duffus' and Playfair. Some swell trundling was served up the other eve in the City League when the McGillis five-pinners pounded out a team total of 3744 and a single game of 1453. That'll take some beating. Mel Anthony and Roy Suddards of this team paced the way with hefty rolling.

* * * * * *

PCVS footballers had a big day at the Oval on Saturday. Bev Goulding's senior Collegians trimmed the pants off Oshawa by a 46-0 score to practically clinch the district series in the first fray. They should cake-walk into COSSA semi-finals a week hence. The line looked awfully good and the whole team clicked like hot dice. Alex Londry's junior "A" PCI-ers hadn't much trouble in a group game in knocking off the Motor Citizens by a 22-7 score. (It'd be nice if our footballers do, eh?) The lone PCVS casualty of the day was the junior "B" team which was blanked 33-0 in Cobourg.

Junior Grouping Ready

Frank Buckland convened the OHA junior "B" meeting in Bella Villa yesterday and arranged a five-team grouping of Peterborough, Oshawa, Lindsay, Port Hope and Belleville. Looks like another setup will have Kingston, Queen's, Gananoque, Brockville and Smiths Falls. A triple schedule, opening here Nov. 15, with top four clubs in playoffs. If Port Hope finishes last, they can go into "C" playdowns. Schedule is being drawn up now and should be out in a few days. The Quinte arena is having a bit of trouble with pipes so the Rockets may not be playing at home the first few weeks. Meantime, our IOOF outfit is digging in and drilling hard ere the season opens.

* * * * * *

The senior "B" schedule should be out any day now, but the first week has it this way: Oct. 30—Kingston at Eagles, and Petes at Queen's; Nov. 1—Queen's at Petes; Nov. 3—Eagles at Kingston, and Queen's at Belleville. Provided the Quinte ice is ready then. A quadruple schedule for all but Gananoque which plays single games. No playoff arrangements made yet. So, play commences here one week from tonight. Meantime, the Petes meet Markham in Oshawa on Wednesday and back here Friday evening in exhibition tilts. The Eagles are bolstering, we hear, and have Lalonde out with 'em lately. Kingston Nylons are said to be packing a stronger squad than a year ago.

High Pinnage Of 3744 Rolled In City League

The McGillis men dominated play last week in the men's City Bowling League at Duffus. They swept honors in all departments with the year's highest pinnage of 3744, with a great single effort of 1453, sttting a real mark for the rest of the circuit. Mel Anthony, of this team, contributed with high three of 858 as his teammate threw a swell 356 single.

Good bowling was the order of the night with Roy Suddards having a triple of 848 and Bill Harris 811. Smart singles were counted by Mel Anthony with 330, Bill Harris 317 and 305, Jack Murray 316, Claude Cornwall 316. Ches Grant 312, Holly Moyry 307, Wes Irwin 308, Tom McPhate 313 and Jim Heron 303. McGillis whitewashed Campbell and Best to increase their lead. Four-point margins were racked up by Bond's, Esquires, Cavanagh's, Moore's and Shockey's over Dunn's, Clapper's, Sunocos, Swartz and Fashion-Craft in that order.

North Bay Whips Ottawa Army 9-2

NORTH BAY, Oct. 23 (CP).—Bucko McDonald's North Bay Blackhawks maintained their winning clip in the Eastern Canada Hockey League Saturday night here by walloping Ottawa Army 9-2. It was their third straight victory and left them in first place.

The soldiers opened the scoring but North Bay came on to take a 2-1 lead at the end of the first stanza. The Hawks soon pulled away from the Army in the middle frame with four unanswered tallies and completed the rout in the final period by outscoring the Ottawa team 3-1. Throughout, Blackhawks outshot the invaders 37-22.

Centre Bill Dwyer pulled a hat-trick feat for the Bay Hawks while singles went to Harold Hill, Hugh Christie, Ralph Orlando, Dave Morland, Boris Elik and Vinne Lecour. Former pro Kenny Kilrea netted both markers for the Army.

Cobourg Gridders Beat PCVS Handily

Although they showed signs of improvement, PCVS thirds received their third whitewashing Saturday morning in Cobourg by the lakeshore high lads 33-0. Fumbles in the first quarter cost the PCI'ers the game. Every time they started to roll, the ball seemed to want to wander the opposite way. Cobourg cashed in for three touches.

The Al MacQuarrie-coached club began to reel yards away in the second, led by Lionel Bloom and Jim Hendry but cooled off quickly as Cobourg climbed back up the hill for a fourth major.

Fumble Starts It

Bob Morris in the first minute of play grabbed a fumbled ball at the PCVS 45 and went over easily for the first TD. Minutes later Woody Cavanagh pushed the PCVS team deep with a kick to the 25-yard line. There the PCI'ers again fumbled and Rick Niles carried to the PCVS 15. Neil Cain crossed on a quarter sneak. A blocked kick again deep in PCVS territory set up the last play of the quarter which saw Soup Campbell squeeze around the end for the touch. Cavanagh made the attempt good for the 16th point.

Immediately after a PCVS charge fell dead on the Cobourg five in the second, a sleeper play started the lakeshore team off for 21 yards. A fumble temporarily gave PCI the ball but it returned three plays later to Cobourg hands where Cain zipped for 18 yards. Soup Campbell again scored around end.

Pushed in deep in the third Lionel Bloom kicked to Cain at the PCVS 29. Campbell carried to the 15-yard line where Rick Niles majored. Cavanagh converted. Douglas and Campbell plunged early in the fourth to place Cobourg in position for a majoring sleeper play. Cain passed to Harry Sirret. Cavanagh booted the ball for 48 yards on the last play for a rouge point.

Lineups:

PCVS: Flying wing, Brotherstone, halves, Merrett, Hendry, Bloom; quarter, Batley; centre, Keating; insides, Walker, Parry; middles, Speirs, Whalen; outsides, Eastwood, Nickson; alt., Goodson, Lundy, Rose, H. Stewart, Gunn, Lynch, Hooper, McPhee, Kubica, J. Stewart, Reader, Ash.

Cobourg High: Flying wing, Sirret; halves, Douglas, Round, Brisban; quarter, Cain; centre, Calnan; insides, Campbell, Bayman; middles, Harden, Pearse; outsides, Niles, Morris; alt., Wilson, Jim Allen, Jack Allen, Spalding, Ward, Galbraith, McIvor, Finlay, Delaney, Lake.

Oshawa Swamped By PCVS As District Series Opens

Bev Goulding's senior Garnet and Greys crushed all Oshawa Collegiate's hopes for a COSSA winner this year when they applied the whitewash brush Saturday afternoon at the Oval with a 46-0 sweep. Oshawa's hopefuls held out for the first 10 minutes of the first quarter when they stopped the PCI'ers twice inside the Oshawa 10-yard line. Then they cracked.

A stronger front wall, both in regulars and reserves, did the trick Coach Goulding's linemen blocked, tackled and even scored like fiends throughout the afternoon.

The first score came to lineman Hubert Lowes. Northcott punted from the Oshawa 30 to Cooper behind the line. He fumbled and Lowes pounced on the ball for the major. Spectators for several minutes couldn't see who scored because the ball was covered by nearly the whole PCVS team. The Oshawa line was on the ground at the 30-yard line.

Late in the second, the linemen scored again. This time at the Oshawa 20, Mozewsky surrounded by PCVS linemen on a kick fumbled. The ball squeezed loose from a pileup and Ted Sanders grabbed it and ran 22 yards for the major score.

Army Scores

The plungers' touchdown came at the first of the second after Bus Jensen caught an Oshawa kick at the Motor City 30. Roy Armstrong reeled for 12 followed by Al McIlraith to the one-yard line. There Armstrong crossed over the left end.

Al Northcott, after having a kick blocked the start game, made up with steady punting from therein to hem the Oshawa Collegians well in. Bryan Young also helped in this department relieving Northcott at intervals. Young midway through the third scored the 31st point when he kicked to Mozewsky behind the goal-line. He lateralled to Harris who was rouged. Young scored the first five converts and most likely would have continued to add the points but the snaps were too low.

Northcott's punting set up a major score in the last quarter when he kicked to the one-yard line. Oshawa were forced to kick but it fell short at the 25-yard line. From there Bob Craw clipped around the end for the score.

Touchdown Passes

PCVS completed three passes in eight, two for majors and the other setting up the scenery for another. The first was for the third TD and was most colorful play of the afternoon. Northcott trapped on a forward attempted to run but smacked head on into four Oshawa players. He was bounced back three yards and there leaped high for a second attempt. The ball sailed 22 yards where Bus Jensen went high up to catch it beside two Oshawa players. He sprawled on the ground, stood up and wobbled for 11 yards to score.

Young passed 20-yards to Thompson in the third to place the ball on the 20 Oshawa. There it was fumbled twice by both teams. PCVS' Armstrong finally rolled to the Oshawa five before Jensen went through right end for the score.

From the three-yard line Northcott passed to Young to open the fourth for the sixth touchdown. Young pulled the feature running play three minutes later when he raced 60 yards for a major score. He had received a lateral on a kick by Mozewsky. He had to shake off about eight tacklers before he broke into the clear.

Amongst the Oshawa players Mozewsky stood out with his kicking which held the PCI'ers off for the first few minutes in the first. His kicks didn't have the distance after that due to being rushed. Twice in the second he provided thrills as he nearly broke into the clear. He first went for 22 yards and then later for 31. The return game of the best of three series is next Saturday in the Motor City.

Lineups:

PCVS: Flying wing, Northcott; halves, Armstrong, Gandy, Brown; quarter, Young; centre, Frise; insides, Grant, English; middles, Telford, Lowes; outsides, Thompson, Galley; alt., Ward, Mongraw, Sanders. (Northey, Fortner, Craw, G. Burns, Cunningham, Knox, J. Burns, Clapper, White, Buckland.

McMaster Wins 45-12 3rd Straight Triumph

HAMILTON, Oct. 23 — (CP)— McMaster Marauders chalked up their third straight win in the intermediate Intercollegiate Football League Saturday when they scored an impressive 45-12 win over the Ontario Agriculture College Aggies at Civic Stadium.

Mimico Takes OBA Series Over Bantams

Gary Day, star pitcher for Mimico Painters, with a record of 14 straight victories including playoffs, hurled his team to the Ontario bantam championship on Saturday at Riverside Park before a fair crowd. Day fanned 14 in racking up a 13-3 win, allowed but three scattered hits, and walked five to climax a truly remarkable season's record. The Painters had won the opener at home to give them the series in straight games.

Reg Spence led his team in runs driven in with four on three solid hits, including a double and a long homer over the scoreboard. Butch Wagoner also homered, while Reg Thomas, star receiver, had three safeties and three runs batted in. In the late stages the winners gave their reserve players a chance to show. Although beaten by a better team, Eddie Woodcock's boys all gave their best. Gary Kearns had two of his team's hits, one a double, and he fielded well. Doug Ash pitched very nicely, too, until late in the fifth when errors hurt his cause as well as base hits.

Two unusual features highlighted the game from a local standpoint when Kearns, Hunt, and Ball stole home in that order for each of Petes' three runs and in the ninth inning after the first three batters walked, Frizzelle went in and struck out the next three to retire the side.

Wings, Montreal Split Wins Toronto Leafs Pick Up Two

(By The Canadian Press)

It took two tries on successive nights to do it, but Detroit Red Wings Sunday finally tagged Montreal Canadiens with their first loss of the new National Hockey League race.

The Stanley Cup champions slammed in two goals within 14 seconds in the final period for a 3-2 triumph over the Habitants who in Montreal Saturday night inflicted the season's first loss on the Wings, 2-0.

Leafs Win

In other week-end games, Toron Maple Leafs defeated New York Rangers 5-0 and Chicago Black Hawks 5-3, and the Rangers and winless Boston Bruins played to a scoreless tie, the first of the season.

Canadiens are still in the lead with eight points, one ahead of Toronto. Detroit is third with five points, Chicago and New York tied in fourth place with three, and the Bruins occupy the cellar with two.

At Detroit last night, Gerry McNeil of Canadiens extended his streak of shutout netminding to 158 minutes and 37 seconds — more than two full games—before Len (Red) Kelly beat him.

Richard Assists

Montreal got off to a 2-0 lead in the first seven minutes of play as Calum MacKay and Elmer Lach drilled sizzlers past Detroit goalie Terry Sawchuk. Maurice Richard drew assists on both. Kelly, the big man in the Wings attack, got his second goal and the tying marker at 9:41 of the third period, and Jim Peters poked home Clare Martin's rebound for the winning tally 14 seconds later.

After chalking up two shutouts in a row, goalie Turk Broda of the Leafs sat it out in Chicago Sunday, giving understudy Al Rollins a chance to show his mettle under fire.

Broda, 36, and oldest active player in the NHL, was given his rest by Coach Joe Primeau. Rollins responded with a fine chore in his first appearance as a Leaf away from Toronto. He played part of one game and all of another in Toronto last year.

Big Harry Watson and rookie Tod Sloan took matters in hand in front of Rollins, clicking for two goals each. Flem Mackell got the fifth goal.

Rayner Standout

At Boston Sunday, the Rangers and Bruins skated futilely about for an hour with neither being able to put the rubber past the goalies. Chuck Rayner in the New York net played a standout game, handling 23 shot compared with 19 for Jack Gelineau.

Broda scored his second straight shutout of the season in Toronto Saturday night before 13,467 fans. Goal-getters for the victors were Cal Gardner, Sid Smith, Tod Sloan Max Bentley and Harry Watson.

The Rangers, who haven't scored a goal in their last three games, play their first game of the season at home Wednesday when they'll entertain Boston.

Canadiens extended their unbeaten streak to five games before 14,642 hometown fans in blanking the Wings Saturday. Calum MacKay and Leo Gravelle got the goals.

SHOEMAKER TOPS JOCKEYS

Jockey Willie Shoemaker, who is setting the pace in the race for national riding honors, booted home five consecutive winners at Bay Meadows Saturday to boost his season's total to 287.

Joe Culmone, his nearest rival, rode one winner at Jamaica and his total now is 278.

Owen Sound Gets Mann Cup With 15-7 Victory In Final

By LORNE BRUCE

TORONTO, Oct. 23—(CP)—Owen Sound Crescents are the 1950 senior lacrosse champions of Canada and a large chunk of the credit goes to their playing coach, Doug Gillespie.

Gillespie, 29-year-old hardware store operator, drove his teammates to a 15-7 victory over New Westminster Adanacs here Sunday in the seventh and deciding game of the Mann Cup finals.

Playing with a substitute goalie, Crescents weathered an early New Westminster attack and were tied 6-6 at half-time. Then the eastern champions broke loose to smother New Westminster before 6,588 fans.

Top Scorer

Doug, a heady forward who had scored his team's winning goal in the fifth game ,fired the counter that gave his team the lead for the first time in yesterday's game. He was the leading point-getter of the series with seven goals and 10 assists.

After the game ,the Orangeville, Ont., veteran announced his retirement as a player.

In the New Westminster dressing room, Coach Bob Lee said "The better team today" had won. "We just ran out of steam—we weren't getting the faceoffs or the loose balls."

That just about summed up the New Westminster loss.

New Westminster, never headed until 6:06 of the third quarter, scored only one in the second half while Crescents were getting nine goals.

Scorers

Scorers for Owen Sound were Coach Gillespie with three, Grant Gillespie, Arnold Smith and Harry Kazarian, two each; Bill Allum, Russ Slater, Jack Mason, Marlowe Woods, Don Campbell and McWhirter, one each.

For Adanacs, Jake Proctor and Jack Northup got two goals each, and singletons were scored by Bob Bremner, Stan Tyson and Reo Jerome.

The Mike Kelly trophy, awarded to the most valuable player of the series, went to Lloyd (Moon) Wooton, Owen Sound netminder who didn't play in the seventh game and was in the nets for only a small part of the sixth before he hurt his ankle.

Doug Favell of Hamilton Tigers, who replaced Wooton, was solid in the nets for Owen Sound in both games, particularly in the second quarter yesterday when he made 14 stops.

Joe E. Brown Dumps Harvey For Showboat

By BOB THOMAS.

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 23 (AP)—The scene was backstage in an Australian theatre. Joe E. Brown wiped off his makeup, opened his big mouth, and murmured:

"Sorry, kid, I've carried you long enough; this is where you get off."

This signalled the end of a five-year friendship between the famed comedian and Harvey, the six-foot rabbit from the play of the same name. The occasion, happily enough, marked Brown 1,500th performance in the show. Which is a long time to spend with a rabbit, even such a big and friendly one.

Joe E., who has toured with "Harvey" throughout the US, in England, Canada, Hawaii, and in Australia, said his last performance will remain his last. "Never again," he vowed.

Cut Tour Short

He had to cut his Australian tour short by five weeks to return here for the role of Captain Andy in "Showboat." It cost him money to get out of the contract, but he said it was worth it.

He nearly played the Captain Andy role once before, in the Rodgers and Hammerstein revival of the show on Broadway a few seasons ago.

"I thought Carol Bruce was perfect for the Helen Morgan role and should do it," he explained. "But the budget could not afford her and me, too. So I bowed out."

He added that Oscar Hammerstein and Jerome Kern, who wrote the music, told him that Edna Ferber had created the Captain Andy character with him in mind. "So naturally I am glad to be finally playing it," Joe E. said.

Capsule Review

"The Milkman" makes little sense, but proves a happy romp for the unique talents of Donald O'Connor and Jimmy Durante. The title tells you what the story is about. Jimmy is a veteran milkman who tries to break Donald into the business. There is a harmless plot about a jewel robbery and some songs and dances.

K of C Hears Speaker

HAMILTON, Oct. 23 (CP) — Delegates to the three-day convention of the Knights of Columbus were told Sunday that the threat of Communism makes it necessary for the present generation to defend civil liberties of assembly, speech and religion. The speaker was Judge John Swift, Supreme Knight of Massachusetts, who addressed the closing banquet meeting. Among those in attendance was Most Rev. R. H. Dignan, Bishop of Sault Ste. Marie and Ontario State Chaplain of the Knights.

Bear Shot In Sudbury

SUDBURY, Oct. 23 (CP) — A 300-pound black bear was shot out of a tree here Sunday, six blocks from the centre of the city. Four men armed with high-powered rifles fired 10 shots into the animal before it fell. Wire around the bear's neck indicated it had escaped from captivity or had been once caught in a wolf snare.

Police Find Safe

KINGSTON, Oct. 23 (CP) — Police have found a smashed 250-pound safe, stolen Saturday from the offices of Cleland and Finall, Cleaners. Company officials said $200 in cash and papers were missing. Police found the safe on a deserted side road near here.

Playing With Matches

Four-year-old Eddie Ludlow, 59 Aylmer St., got the scare of his life Sunday afternoon while playing with matches in a frame garage behind his home.

The matches ignited and so did a cardboard box in the garage, used as a storage shed. When the flames leaped upward Eddie headed for the door and safety. In fact he was so frightened he ran away and hid.

A passerby noticed the flames and turned in the alarm.

The garage, owned by Mrs. M. J. Fitzgerald, also 59 Aylmer St., received slight damage. The inside walls were scorched but no careful estimate has been made of the loss. Firemen extinguished the blaze using a booster tank.

Nab Two Boys Hiding Behind Counter

Two 16-year-olds were arrested early Sunday in a Hunter St. furniture store and now face a total of five charges of breaking and entering. They were today remanded to Tuesday without plea or election by Magistrate W. R. Philp.

The two are Ernest Graham, RR 2, Dourc, and Donald Gibbs, 220½ Edinburgh St. Graham faces two charges and Gibbs three.

PC D. J. Farthing, making his rounds about 1 a.m. Sunday, found the rear door of the furniture store open, and went inside. He found the two youths crouching behind the main counter of the store.

Gibbs had a pair of wool gloves in his possession and Graham had two boxes of .22 calibre cartridges. The manager of the furniture store, called to the scene, said nothing had been taken.

The other charges against the boys are for breaking and entering other downtown stores. One of the stores, from which the gloves are believed to have been taken, was entered by a skylight.

Charge Pair Attempted To Set Fire

Charges of attempted arson were today laid against Joseph Fontaine, 30, and Paul Imming, 25, Antrim St. They were remanded without plea or election to Thursday by Magistrate W. R. Philp.

Charges arose out of the throwing last Thursday night of a lighted railway flare at the police station. Bail was set at $8,000 for each. Both also face charges of causing a disturbance.

The same night, three lighted flares were thrown at an Aylmer St. taxi office and three phoney telephone calls brought ambulances rushing to the same cab stand.

The flare thrown at the police station landed on the sidewalk and did no damage to the building. Shortly afterward, the pair was arrested by PC's Jack Morrow and Donald Jones.

Imming has been out on bail awaiting hearing of charges in connection with the $100,000 swindle last fall of a Toronto finance company. He was represented today by W. J. Arthur Fair, and Fontaine's counsel is Gordon Farquharson.

Driver Swerves To Miss Skunk, Passenger Hurt

Maureen Hunsdale, 20, of 93 Louisa St., Oshawa is in St. Joseph's Hospital with fractured ribs and pelvis and lacerations on her face as a result of an accident on the Warsaw Road, early Sunday morning.

The owner and driver of the car in which Miss Hunsdale was a passenger, Frank Fitzgerald, 25, of 59 Aylmer St., escaped with numerous lacerations on his face and head. His car, a 1929 model, is a total wreck.

A second passenger, Alex Spencer, 23, of 619 Armour Rd., escaped injury.

Fitzgerald swerved on the highway to avoid hitting a skunk about a mile east of the canal bridge. The skunk ambled safely away while the car hit the ditch and then struck a hydro pole.

Provincial Constable Roy Feeley investigated.

Auto Badly Wrecked Omemee Man Escapes

Bruce Finley, 44, of R.R. 2, Omemee, escaped injury, but the damage to his car was estimated at $800 as a result of an accident east of Mount Pleasant, Saturday morning.

Driving west, Finley swerved to miss a tractor coming out of a driveway. His car went out of control and went into the south ditch, where it struck rocks and trees and flipped over.

The tractor was driven by Gary Carr, 13, of R.R. 2, Ida.

Provincial Constable Roy Feeley investigated.

93rd Reunion

Former members of Peterborough's 93rd Battalion planning a reunion November 11, are not yet replying whether or not they are coming, say the organizing committee. The veterans of the First World War hope to have 250 members present, but the committee must know exactly how many well ahead of time because of catering and other arrangements. The secretary is Howard Hall, 577 Bethune St. Those who know of an ex-member not on the present mailing list are asked to notify Mr. Hall.

Vampire Jets Going To Britain

During the week-end seven Vampire fighters of the No. 421 Red Indian Squadron, Chatham, NB, staged a series of interception exercises over Toronto. Amongst the fighter pilots was Flying Officer John Greatrix, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greatrix, 438 Park St.

F.O. Greatrix has been with the Red Indians since January and since has made several flights to Ontario in the Vampire jet. He joined the RCAF two years ago and trained in Toronto, Centralia and Trenton. He received his wings a year ago and then was posted to Chatham with the fighter squadron.

In mid-December, the former PCVS student and football player will be going to Britain when the Canadian government will send the 421 squadron, one of its two fully-trained, operationally-fit jet fighter units, there. The group is led by Sqdn. Ldr. Robert Davidson of Vancouver.

When the squadron embarks for its overseas posting, all its Vampire fighters will be left behind. The Royal Air Force will supply a newer, more powerful version of the high-flying interceptor.

Two Days of Field Trials Held By Beagle Breeders

To celebrate their first full year's existence, the Peterborough Beagle Club held a two-day field trial over the weekend and, according to experts, it was one of the most successful ever held in Ontario. Early Saturday morning, cars arrived from all over the district and from various points in Western Ontario, their trunks loaded with crates of eager little beagles. They met at Harbruce Farm, three miles east of the city on Highway 7, and there set up their kennelling and general headquarters.

Scent Conditions Poor

Although the morning was perfect as far as weather was concerned, one of autumn's first frosts was slow in coming off the swamps and made scent conditions poor. When the air warmed near noon the running beagles had easier going.

There were four field runs throughout the district. Saturday morning the 13-inch dog class were put through their paces in Webster's swamp. In the afternoon, 13-inch females were tried in the Cavan swamp, and on Sunday morning 15-inch dogs were run in the same location. John Stuart's Old Orchard Farm was the locale for 15-inch females on Sunday afternoon.

Beagles are a type of small hound used for running hares, rabbits and, sometimes, deer. They are also useful for flushing partridge and pheasants. Besides being not costly to feed on account of their size, many owners find them gentle house pets, especially with children.

A field trial might be described as follows: A swamp is located in which there are hares. Handlers paint numbers on the hounds and take them to location where two judges are stationed. Handlers are allowed to remain on location for half an hour to "pack" their dogs after a rabbit scent has been picked up.

Judges follow the pack and check on their individual ability to run close to the scent line, to note dogs that are picking up scent, and those that are not. They start weeding out the poorer ones after an hour of running. Winning dogs are placed first, second, third and reserve, and if nine dogs are in the run the first-placed dog takes nine points. To be a champion, a dog must accumulate 35 points in several shows, providing one of his placings has been a first.

Peterborough Beagle Club members own 100 dogs. It took the executive some time to compute the large entry results, which were as follows:

Class 13" (males)—1, Harkaway Fletfoot, L. Courtice, Courtice, Ont.; 2, Sylvan Sportsman, J. F. Tiede, London, Ont.; 3, Cry on Sammie, J. Osborne, Courtice, Ont.; 4, Colborne's Wee Boy, Bruce Andrus, Port Hope, Ont.; 5, Clear Creek Lecturer, J. F. Tiede, London.

Ohio Man Wants To Be Big Shot

An Ohio man refused to be left out when the fishing honors were awarded this season.

Jim Fraser, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, received a letter today from John B. Garver, of Strasburg, Ohio, demanding a membership to the Order of Kawartha Muskie

Proof of his qualifications—an enclosed note from the Lakefield Storage Plant stating that he caught a 15-pound lunge in Lake Katchawanooka on September 7.

Trinity School Chapel To Honor Dead of 3 Wars

PORT HOPE, Oct. 23 — To the memory of 187 boys of Trinity College School, the corner-stone of a new chapel was laid upon the ridge overlooking green playing fields and dreaming farmlands. The chapel is in thanksgiving, too, for those of the 1,400 schoolboys who served with the colors in three wars and returned. It will hold their days of honor before the eyes of the boys who follow.

Gerard B. Strathy, who was prefect and head boy of the school in 1897, and who later became chairman of the school's board of governors, tapped upon the block of clean, white stone to signify the building was well and truly begun. Two dignitaries of the Church of England, Rt. Rev. R. J. Renison, Bishop of Moosonee and Rt. Rev. L. W. R. Broughall former Bishop of Niagara, blessed the new memorial.

The school's record of service to Canada, the Motherland and the Empire embraces the South African War, in which 54 of its boys enlisted. Four gave their lives on the veldt; 13 won awards for gallantry. In the First World War, Trinity College School was represented by 576 young men in uniform. Of these, 123 died in service; 180 awards were won.

In the Second World War, enrolment was equal to 98 per cent of the boys who had left school during the score of years between the wars. There were 855 young men from the school in services. Sixty sacrificed their lives.

Five hundred alumni and friends of the school have chosen a chapel as their tribute to those who did not come back, as their thanksgiving for safe returns. Value of the new building has been estimated at $270,000; when completed it will seat 350 to 400 schoolboys and visitors.

Of brick construction, the building will have vestry, a basement assemby hall, and other ancilliary chambers. A pipe organ will be installed.

AFTER SEVERAL MONTHS of being buffeted by winds, trapped by crushing ice and being hemmed in on a hull of steel floating around the Arctic circle, the above crew members of the Arctic ship, Regina Polaris, welcomed the pleasant sight of the lights of Montreal as they docked. Since leaving Montreal several months ago, on a voyage that took them inside the Arctic circle, taking food and supplies to the mission outposts, the little ship experienced some of the worst weather ever known in the Hudson Bay. The ship will now spend the rest of the winter months in the safe recluse of Montreal Harbor.

U.S. To Control Aluminum Output

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23—(AP)—Aluminum controls now being drafted by the U.S. National Production Authority may ban or curtail use of the aircraft metal in some civilian products like bicycles, sports goods and toys, officials indicated Sunday.

The NPA is at work on orders governing both copper and aluminum. While the immediate aim is to spread military contracts equitably through those industries, aluminum officials also are studying specific limitations.

Officials predicted the aluminum order, due in perhaps two weeks, will either contain or "almost certainly will be followed" by restrictions on the use of the metal in non-essential products, and items in which less critical materials can be substituted.

Folkestone Honors Winnipeg Pilot

FOLKESTONE, England (CP) —A wreath commemorating the Battle of Britain lies on the grave of a Canadian pilot in nearby Hawkinge cemetery.

It was placed there this month by an RAF sergeant in a ceremony local newspapers described as extremely touching.

The grave of the Canadian pilot, PO Harold Edwards of Winnipeg, was chosen because he was killed Sept. 11, 1940, four days before the date now remembered as Battle of Britian Day.

The Folkestone Herald quoted a spectator at the ceremony as saying she could not help feeling "how proud the parents of the Canadian boy would be to know that he had been chosen to represent the men who died to save our beloved country."

Winds At 30,000 Feet May Cause Mystery Crashes

TORONTO, Oct. 23—(CP)—The Toronto Globe and Mail in a copyright story on seven RCAF Vampire jet fighter planes running into 200-mile-an-hour headwinds at 30,000 feet, advances the theory today that this unchanged air mass may hold the key "to a series of unsolved air disasters."

In an accompanying front-page story, played under an eight-column headline, the newspaper also advances the possibility that the "invisible wall" of wind might be the solution to the myestery of flying saucers. Both stories are by James Hornick, the paper's aviation writer.

Hornick in his main story told of the seven jets, flying to Toronto from Chatham, N.B., last Friday, encountering headwinds in East Ontario that suddenly cut their speed from 425 miles an hour to 225. The formation quickly "got the wind" and completed the flight safely. Hornick's story continues:

New Phenomenon

"For Sqdn. Ldr. Bob Davidson and six other pilots, it was nothing unusual. They had encountered the jet stream, a three-dimensional ribbon of high-velocity air that blows diagonally and moves with the seasons up and down the North American continent.

"This is the new-found phenomenon that may hold the key, many aviators are convinced, to a series of unsolved air disasters. It has given birth to a branch of meteorology in which Canada is a pioneer."

Hornick described the "jet stream" as the same type of weather condition at low altitude that produces heat lightning, comparable to the condition that creates fog—two air masses meeting at different temperatures. In this cas, the air masses met at high altitudes.

Flying Saucers

There was no immediate comment from leading meteorologists.

In his flying-saucer story, Hornick describes last Saturday's aerial incident as follows:

"If you had been hiking Friday between Cornwall and Prescott, something high in the sky might have caused you to stop, strain your eyes and panic.

"More than six miles above, seven silvery objects appeared standing still. Then, as the sun reflected from their polished surfaces, they suddenly darted out of sight.

"If your imagination was in good repair, you'd have sworn they were flying saucers . . .

"The objects were jet airplanes battling a severe headwind."

Veteran Woody Dumart became the father of a boy Saturday night and Eddie Harrison became the father of a girl Sunday.

Dumart, whose first child was born at Phillips House by Massachusetts General Hospital, is a Kitchener, Ont., native now living in Boston. The eight-pound, eight-ounce child will be christened Bruce.

Stan Burns, president of the Ontario Basketball Association, said in a statement Sunday night that secondary school basketball players are not compelled to play only for their school teams.

He said Windsor education officials have been creating the impression that students could play only in one league. Each player has the opportunity to choose the league with which he wishes to affiliate, Burns said.

He said player-status announcements recently made by John Forster, principal of Sandwich Collegiate and Percy P. McCallum, vice-chairman of the Windsor Board of Education, needed to be clarified.

Eighteen-year-old Jimmy Dryden of Medicine Hat Tigers has lost the sight of his right eye.

He suffered a serious skate cut in Friday's Western Canada Junior Hockey League game here when Tigers lost 4-3 to Moose Jaw Canucks.

An operation to remove the eye will be performed today.

Minor League baseball attendance fell off more than 8,000,000 during the 1950 season, the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues reported Sunday.

The minors' office said 57 minor leagues had a total attendance of 35,566,346, with paid admissions totalling 32,910,377.

This total was 8,127,352 persons below the 1949 total.

Playoff games drew 1,456,923.

Galt Triumphs Over Stratford

By The Canadian Press.

Galt Black Hawks took advantage of a curtailed weekend schedule of action in the Ontario Hockey Association to take over undisputed possession of second place in the Junior A standings.

In the only junior game, the Hawks Saturday blanked Stratford Kroehlers 4-0 at Galt. Bob Carruthers sparked the winners' offensive, clicking for two goals. Singletons were potted by Jack Sleaver and George Gosselin.

Scheduled Sunday games in Toronto between Guelph and St. Michael's College and Waterloo and Marlboros were postponed to free Maple Leafs Gardens for the seventh and final game of the Mann Cup lacrosse series.

Dutchmen Win

A single game was the only action in the senior loop, too. It saw Kitchener-Waterloo Flying Dutchmen edge Hamilton Tigers 2-1 at Waterloo Saturday.

The victory, fashioned from a two-goal third period rally, enabled the Dutchmen to take over the league lead from their victims. Mickey Roth and Jim Pernfuss scored for the winners, Harold Hursley for Hamilton.

St. Michael's College seniors make their season's debut Tuesday when they play hosts to the Tigers at Toronto. Marlboros, Toronto's other entry in the loop, are at home to Kitchener in their first start Wednesday.

Here's the junior schedule of games for Tuesday: Waterloo at St. Catharines; Oshawa and Galt and Windsor and Guelph.

Argos Tie, Lead League In Big Four Scramble

By The Canadian Press.

The unexpected—a tie game—may well prove to be the key result of the Big Four football season.

It happened Saturday, when the Ottawa Roughriders and Toronto Argonauts fought to a 21-21 stalemate in Ottawa. With Montreal Alouettes edging Hamilton Tiger-Cats 16-13 Sunday, that left Argos alone in first place. But not by much.

One point behind are the Tiger-Cats and Alouettes, each with five wins and five losses. Ottawa is another point back.

The tie put Argos in a preferred spot for winning a playoff position—they can virtually assure themselves of a berth by winning one of their two remaining games. On the other hand, any of the other three teams must figure on winning both its remaining games to catch a playoff spot.

Roughriders Triumph

In the west, Saskatchewan Roughriders walloped Winnipeg Blue Bombers 36-1, and Calgary Stampeders upset Edmonton Eskimos 13-7 in the last games of the regular schedule.

That left Saskatchewan and Edmonton tied for second, six points behind Winnipeg. Calgary ended in last place. Roughies and Edmonton meet in a sudden-death playoff at Regina Saturday for the right to meet Winnipeg in the best-of-three league final.

Toronto Balmy Beach took undisputed hold of first place in the Ontario Rugby Football Union with a resounding 24-7 win over Sarnia Imperials Sunday.

McGill Pastes Queen's

McGill Redmen swept to their third straight intercollegiate victory by handing Queen's Golden Gaels a 25-6 defeat, while Western Mustangs won their first game in three starts, swamping Toronto University Blues 41-6. McGill are in first place, four points ahead of the other three teams.

It took a brilliant fourth-quarter drive by Argonauts to salvage even one point in their tie with Ottawa.

Trailing 21-9, Argos fought back for two converted touchdowns before the final gun. A third-down gamble pass by quarterback Al Dekdebrun to Rod Smylie, and a blocked kick by big Jim Kerns saved Scullers' skins with two majors.

Bob Westlake got the other Argo touchdown in the first quarter. Nick Volpe booted a field goal and converted all three touchdowns. Ottawa got touchdowns from Pete Karpuk, Bill Stanton and Howie Turner plus a field goal and three converts by Eric Chipper.

Field Goal Wins

A booming 47-yard field goal by Nick Scollard was the margin for Montreal Alouettes over Hamilton.

Virgil Wagner and Tommy Manastersky scored majors for Als, and Scollard converted both scores. Edgar (Special Delivery) Jones augmented his league scoring lead by scoring two Hamilton touchdowns and converting both.

Two upsets featured the closing games of the Western Union—but they didn't mean anything.

Playing without regulars Jack Hartman, Al Bodine, Ken Charlton, Mike Cassidy, Matt Anthony, Johnny Bell and Toar Springstein among others, Saskachewan rolled freely over Winnipeg for six touchdowns.

Winnipeg, assured of first place used its aces sparingly. Sammy Pierce and Nels Green each racked up two touchdowns for Riders, with Sully Glasser and Mike Yakymyk getting the others. Greene kicked a single and Roy Wright converted five of the six majors.

Stamps Run Wild

In Calgary, Stamps went wild in the first quarter, scoring all their points in the opening 10 minutes. Sugarfoot Anderson took two Keith Spaith passes for touchdowns, converted by Vern Graham, and Chuck Feneboch hoofed a single.

Outside Rollin Prather scored Edmonton's lone major and Annis Stukus converted. Ken Sluman added the other.

The Toronto-Sarnia game, played as a benefit for the widowed mother of Jack Bell, Sarnia quarterback who died as a result of injuries suffered while playing Beaches a week earlier, was featured by the heads-up play of Carl Galbreath, Beaches Negro half. Bell suffered his fatal injury tackling Galbreath.

Galbreath ran for one touchdown and passed to Art Scullior for another. Gerry Tuttle and Billy Haddleton added majors for Beaches, while George Watson converted three and kicked a single. Jim Burr scored Sarnia's touchdown, converted by Johnny Chorestecki.

Sisson Scores

Speedy Pete Robinson led McGill University's Redmen to their win over a stubborn Queen's squad, racking up two touchdowns. Haskell Blauer plunged for a third, and quarterback Harry Inving made a spectacular 90-yard run for another. Fred Wilmot converted all four. Jack Sisson ghosted around the McGill line for Queens' only touchdown.

Western Mustangs came to life behind the brilliant play of Doug Gray and Bob McFarlane to hand Varsity their worst defeat in history. Gray scored two touchdowns, and McFarlane got one major and four converts. Blake Taylor, George Arnott, Charlie Allan and Don Beatty also scored touchdowns. Varsity's only touchdown was scored by Tony Cecutti.

Macdonald Clips Carleton 16-0

MONTREAL, Oct. 23 (CP). — Macdonald College Aggies blanked Carleton College of Ottawa 16-0 in an Ottawa-St. Lawrence Valley Conference game played at nearby Ste. Anne de Bellevue Saturday.

Aggies scored all their points in the first half. Will Davidson got their first touchdown when he recovered a blocked kick and ran 20 yards for touchdown. The convert was blocked.

There was no more scoring in the first quarter but Macdonald continued their attack in the second scoring two majors and one convert to sew up the victory. Hank Moore scored the second touchdown when he ran 35 yards and went over standing up. Charlie Berry converted. In the final minutes of play Berry threw a pass to Doug Pashleigh for the final score.

Surf gets your washes SWEETER!

YOU CAN SMELL THE DIFFERENCE

SURF-CLEAN . . . SWEETER! (Right)

Even if dried indoors! Yes, even without rinsing, Surf gets clothes cleaner . . . removes every last trace of dirt, every bit of "dirty clothes" odour. Surf-clean clothes are whiter, brighter . . . and so wonderfully fresh and sweet to smell!

TRY THIS LATEST WASHDAY TRICK IT'S SO EASY—IT'S SO QUICK!

1. Even without rinsing, Surf-clean clothes are the cleanest clothes. But, better still, try adding a little Surf to the rinse-water. This helps keep your clothes sweeter longer.

2. This single light Surf-rinse is better than several clear-water rinsings. It's easier on your clothes, too. And, it leaves everything so wonderfully soft and easy to iron.

3. Surf-washed, Surf-rinsed, Surf-clean clothes are sunshiny-white, sunshiny-bright, fresh-air-sweet, even if dried indoors! Truly astonishing! There never was anything like it!

Tests show SURF gets out more dirt, grease and germs than any other leading washday suds! Gets clothes so clean you can actually smell the difference!

You can tell by the smell that your Surf-clean wash is deep-down sweet and clean. Not just whiter, not just brighter to look at—but sunshiny, fresh-air-sweet to smell, even if dried indoors.

Laboratory tests explain why this is so. They show that Surf—even without rinsing—actually gets out more dirt . . . the kind you can see and also "invisible dirt"—grease, germs and scum. Because it gets out this hidden dirt that other suds leave in your clothes, it gets out every trace of "dirty clothes" odour—far more than any other product tested.

Yet Surf is as gentle to hands and to fabrics as it is hard on dirt. It contains a wonderful purifying ingredient that gently floats out even deep-down soil and odour . . . that lets you safely cut down or eliminate rinsing.

Keep several boxes on hand for laundry, kitchen, bathroom. You'll find Surf's faster, gentler, sweeter action saves time, work, water—and washables. Gives you the cleanest, sweetest washes ever. Yes, your eyes and your nose will tell you: If it's Surf-clean, it's really clean! Sweeter!

NO OTHER SUDS GETS CLOTHES WHITER, BRIGHTER . . . SO FRESH-AIR-SWEET AS SURF!

Jean Perry Becomes Bride Of Stuart McCartney RCAF

Assorted gladioli formed the floral setting for the wedding in George St. United church Saturday afternoon of Marion Jean, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Perry, 269 Aberdeen Ave., to LAC Stuart McCartney, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. John McCartney of Kingston. The Rev. A. A. Mathews officiated.

Before the bride entered the church Mrs. Gladys Todd sang the "Lord's Prayer" and during signing of the register she sang "Because." Organist Mr. Charles Allen played the wedding music and was her accompanist.

Ice blue French lace over matching taffeta was the bride's choice for her gown in ballerina length with very full skirt and fitted bodice, topped with a matching lace bolero and she wore a bonnet-haped headdress of ice blue net trimmed with seed pearls and matching mittens. Her bouquet was of yellow roses and mauve sweet peas.

Mr. Perry gave his daughter in marriage and her only attendant was Miss Joan McCartney of Kingston, only sister of the groom. Miss McCartney wore a similar frock of lace in toast shade over matching taffeta, and matching mittens and had a feather headdress in the autumn brown shades. She carried a bouquet of cream roses and blue 'mums.

Groomsman was Mr. Wallace King and the ushers were Howard Harris and Thomas Thompson, all of Kingston.

The reception was at the Club Aragon, the bride's mother receiving in a suit of pale blue with navy hat trimmed with fuschia velvet and wearing a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother wore a grey suit with hat of rose petal velvet and corsage of deep pink roses. Guests were from Kingston, Toronto, Trenton, Stirling and Peterborough.

Leaving later on a wedding trip to Detroit, Mrs. McCartney wore a grey gabardine suit with navy accessories and carried a navy topcoat. She wore an orchid corsage.

Pearl-Beaded Blush Satin Worn by Frances Wand

The wedding on Saturday of Miss Frances Cavelle Wand to Mr. Gerald Edward Fulton of Toronto was of interest to a very wide circle of friends. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Wand of 283 Wilson Ave., Peterborough, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Fulton of Buckhorn.

The double ring ceremony took place in the George St. United Church and was performed by the Rev. Arnold A. Mathews. A beautiful background setting was of gladioli and chrysanthemums. Mrs. E. Godfrey of Toronto played the wedding march and other selections, playing "I walk beside you" and "Through the years" during signing of the register.

Blush satin fashioned the bride's handsome gown with full cathedral train and her tiara, which was studded with pearls to match the all-over pearl embroidery on the bodice of her dress, and her veil of filmy tulle extended to full length. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. Mr. Wand gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Joyce Alexander as bridesmaid was frocked in pale blue net and wore a velvet hat in matching shade and carried red roses. The bride's small nieces, Suzanne and Elaine and Frances Patricia Wand of St. Catharines attended as flower girls and were adorable in Mother Hubbard frocks and bonnets of pale blue taffeta and carrying nosegays.

The groom's attendant was Mr. A. Dewor of Toronto and Mr. Eldon Montgomery of Buckhorn ushered.

The reception of about 100 guests took place afterward in the church parlours. The bride's mother was assisting, gowned in black with hat of royal velvet and corsage of bronze roses, and the groom's mother who wore taupe silk with a navy hat and also had bronze roses. Edwin Wand Jr., of St. Catharines, the bride's young nephew, attended to signing of the guest book. The toast master was the Hon. H. R. Scott.

Going-away later the bride was wearing a dress in bittersweet shade with a feather of the same on her black at and a black broadcloth coat with stone marten furs.

The altar was decorated with gladioli and chrysanthemums with fern. Wedding music was played by Miss M. Flowers and Mrs. J. MacLeod sang before the ceremony "I Love You Truly," and during signing of the register "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a gown of Chantilly lace over satin designed with a fitted bodice with deep vee neck line and Queen Anne collar with long close-fitting sleeves tapering to points over the hands, covered buttons down the back and extending into a graceful train. Her finger tip veil of pure silk illusion tulle, with scalloped edges, was caught to a hand beaded pearl tiara. She carried a cascade bouquet of Bettertime roses and stephanotis.

Miss Margaret Quinlan as maid of honor was gowned in ballerina green taffeta styled on princess lines with bolero jacket. Her matching half-hat had a gathered trim with matching rose buds on either side. She carried a cascade of talisman roses and 'mums. Groomsman was Gordon Brook and ushers were Raymond James and Jack Hawthorne, brothers of the bride and groom.

The reception was held at the groom's home, 22 Aylmer St. The bride's aunt, Mrs. Wm. Woodgate, received wearing a gown of intermission brown with brown accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother also received wearing navy crepe with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Later the bride and groom left by car for Niagara Falls and Buffalo. For travelling the bride wore a dress of encore red with navy accessories and a grey top coat with an orchid corsage. On return they will live at 585 Aylmer St.

Mr. Robt. Cutt played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Carl Frise, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Still as the Night."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white silk velvet gown, made in Queen Anne style. A matching shirred velvet headdress held her fingertip veil and she carried a white Bible with gardenia and pom pom trimmings.

Maid of honor, Leola Brintnell of Woodville, wore a blue silk velvet gown and senior bridesmaid, Wilma Windott of Beaverton, had American Beauty velvet, made on similar lines with sweetheart neckline, scalloped waaist line and full skirts. Canadian Men Must Learn To Dress in Good Taste

WINNIPEG —(CP)— A representative of the Canadian Men's Fashion Council says that Canadian men enjoy new clothes and are showing greater interest in styles and colors. But they still need to be shown how to dress in good taste.

Furthermore, says Frank Ross of Montreal, Canadians are definite about the clothes they will and will not wear.

The council, representing manufacturers and retailers of men's clothing, was formed in Toronto three months ago. Its object is to promote the sale of men's clothing in Canada.

"It's not true that Canadians follow the American styles," said Mr. Ross in an interview. "The Canadian follows the American rather than the English trend, but he has his own ideas of what he wants. For instance, the single-breasted one-button sports coat is popular with Canadians; it's not at all popular in the United States."

But one American custom, the wearing of casual, comfortable clothes at home, is becoming widespread in Canada. Men prefer sports jackets, sports shirts and slacks in their leisure time.

Mr. Ross predicted styles in this country will make greater use of color and lighter fabrics, and will emphasize comfort and easy fit.

Highlights in Conference Of YPU Held in Lindsay

More than 400 delegates attended the 22nd annual convention of the Bay of Quinte Conference Young People's Union held in Lindsay Oct. 20, 21 and 22. Delegates were present from Belleville, Cobourg, Oshawa, Kingston, Renfrew, Lindsay and Peterborough districts with three young people present from the London Conference.

The Bay of Quinte Conference Young People's Union consists of some 3,200 young people and forms a part of the largest Christian youth organization in Canada of some 56,000 young people. The convention, from the standpoint of attendance, was the most successful in the history of the conference.

The Rev. Walton Tonge, of Lakefield, was guest speaker Friday evening. Mr. Tonge spent two years in China and while there studied with the Rev. Floyd Honey and he told considerable of the work Mr. Honey and his wife are doing in China. This was of special significance to the group as the Bay of Quinte Conference is supporting the Honeys in China as one of their major projects in the Missionary Dept.

One of the many highlights was the presence Saturday morning of the Rev. Frederico Musili and the Rev. Theodore Tucker (known to many in this area as "Tommy" Tucker). They have been travelling throughout the United Church during the summer and have come to be known as the black and white twins. Mr. Musili is a minister in Angola, Africa, and speaks his native tongue, and Mr. Tucker interprets for him. He told considerable of the work being done there and the dire need for more missionaries in that and other areas of the world. While coming to Lindsay they passed the monument of Joseph Scrivens near Cobourg, and Mr. Frederico closed his message with singing, in his native tongue, one verse of "What a Friend we have in Jesus" of which Joseph Scrivens was author.

Other outstanding speakers were the Rev Beverly Oaten, of Brantford, and the Rev. Robert J. Morris, recently appointed head of the youth division of the missionary and maintenance department of the United Church of Canada. Mr. Oaten is known to many delegates through his assistance with the building of Camp Quin-Mo-Lac on Moira Lake near Madoc, and through the Work Camp Fellowship which is an international world-wide organization.

Mr. Morris was guest speaker at both services on Sunday and perhaps one of the most outstanding statements he made was that "Communism will never be beaten as long as our standard of living in Canada is 20 times higher than other parts of the world and it will not be beaten by force."

The convention closed with an impressive candlelight service conducted by Madlyn Wilcox, of Hampton.

DOROTHY DIX

Solves Financial Problem With Elaborate Accounts.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Financing a family is the crisis point in the lives of a married couple. Per-

Dorothy Dix

Before I married I was a bookkeeper and I love figuring. As soon as we were married my husband turned his pay envelope over to me and I have had it ever since. I keep an elaborate set of books that shows just where every penny goes. Everything we buy that is expensive enough to call for a receipt is put in our joint names. Our bank account is a joint account and our home is owned by us together. Each child has her own insurance policy and her own bank account, and just as soon as she learns to write and figure she keeps an accurate account of her allowance. Our oldest child hates arithmetic, but she knows how to keep an accurate record of her spending money, and although she makes plenty of errors in school work in adding and subtracting, she doesn't make many in her cash book. Common sense, budgeting and honesty are the three most important things in connection with the family pay envelope. Am I not right?

READER.

ANSWER—You certainly are right, and you are right about one other thing also—that is that the member of the family who has the best financial judgment should handle the family finances. Sometimes this is the husband. Very often, as in your case, it is the wife.

Money Causes Most Quarrels

There are more family quarrels over money than over every other cause combined, and every young couple should settle before marriage about how they are going to handle their financial problem, and determine how much is to be spent and how it is to be spent, and how much laid aside for the rainy day that is sure to come to us all.

Inasmuch as our happiness and our prosperity depend upon learning how to spend wisely, it is of the utmost importance that children be taught from their infancy up how to do it.

Dear Miss Dix: I have been working for 19 years, fending for myself, and I would like to have some strong shoulder to lean on, and to do cooking for a change from typing. I am in love with a man of 40, and for four years the happy day has failed to come because he can't leave his mother. What can you do with bachelors who are tied to their mothers' apron strings? I have recently met a man who is just the opposite. He is in love with me and I like him, but I don't have the same feeling for him as I do for the other. Do all old maids live in hope and die in despair?

SPINSTER.

ANSWER: They needn't die in despair if they have enough good, hard horse sense to cease living in the hope that mamma's pet is ever going to break away from her and set up a home of his own.

Watchful waiting is a losing game for a woman to play, because waiting and watching for a dilatory man to set the wedding day ages her and robs her of her good looks quicker than anything else. It is all right for a girl to wait a reasonable length of time on a man, but if he keeps putting off marriage she is well advised if she breaks off with him and bestows her affections upon some more promising subject. Anyway, there is no more undesirable husband than the man who has the mother complex.

Lots of business women like you would like to exchange places with the domestic woman, just as lots of domestic women are green with envy of the business girl. I often think it is a pity that they can't really trade places for a while. If they could, each would go back better satisfied with her job. The business girl would learn that the wife and mother has no sinecure. Instead of lounging around most of the day reading a novel, the wife and mother has to put in about 18 hours of steady labor. She would find it is often harder to get money out of a husband than it is to earn it herself, and that few husbands treat their wives with the politeness and consideration that they do their female employees.

Dear Miss Dix: I have been engaged to a young man for six years. He wants to get married, but we have no money saved. We both work and I would continue to work after we are married. About a year ago he borrowed a sum of money from me and so far he has been unable to pay it back. It means quite a bit to me, because I worked hard to save it. Do you think that as long as we intend to be married some day it will be better to forget about it as long as we will be working together?

MAUD.

ANSWER: My advice to you is to forget it if you are going to marry the young man. His paying you back will be a mere gesture, anyway, because all that you both have and make will go into a common pool. But when I say forget it, I mean just that. Forget the money. Don't marry the lad and then be forever throwing in his teeth the fact that he owes you money that he has not paid. But inasmuch as you seem to be more thrifty than the young man and a better manager, get him to turn over most of his pay envelope to you and let you manage the family finances.

Dorothy Dix cannont reply personally to readers, but will answer problems of general interest through her column.

Cranberries Good Fruit For Winter

By MARY MOORE

Dear pupils: This morning our lesson is on that beautiful little red fruit the cranberry. It seems they are good for you. (And listen pals—they are cheap this month at 22 cents per pound.)

So, it behooves us to make a few sorties into the cranberry field of cookery.

Did you know they were called "cran-berries" because they are ripe when the cranes return? Where they are ripe and when the cranes return the book did not say. I suppose it is in New Brunswick.

As minerals go cranberries are very high in them. Potassium heads the list with calcium, phosphorous, sulphur, magnesium sodium, chlorine, iron coming next in that order.

The vitamins are represented mostly by Vitamin B (riboflavin) with small amounts of Vitamin C and A present. Pretty good for a fruit we can buy all during the winter.

Cranberry Sauce

Rightly this should be called Cranberry Compote for the berries are cooked in the syrup to keep them as whole as possible.

Bring to boil 2 cups sugar and 2 cups water and add 1 lb. washed cranberries and boil until berries just burst. Do not stir. Remove from heat and let stand until cool. Then chill. This keeps well and is delicious with roast pork and stuffed pork tenderloin and spareribs.

Old-Fashioned Cranberry Pie

Put 2 cups washed cranberries through food chopper using coarse knife and mix with 1 cup sugar, ¾ cup water, ¼ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon nutmeg, 2 tablespoons cornstarch and 1 tablespoon butter. Stir over low heat for about 8 minutes or until they are heated through. Cool before pouring into pastry-lined pie plate. Cover with strips of pastry put on like a lattice, sealing ends well. Bake at 425 deg. Fahr. for about 30 minutes.

Variation: Replace 2 tablespoons of the sugar with 2 tablespoons molasses, and if desired, substitute for half of the cranberries, chopped apple or washed raisins.

In view of all of these health-giving properties outlined above our consciences will not rest easily unless we make up a little of this tasty

Cranberry-Orange Relish

You might save this recipe for Christmas for my sister-in-law and my friend Barb think it is better than the well-known sweet cranberry sauce, given above and which we traditionally serve with turkey. I rely on their good judgment often.

Four cups cranberries (1 lb.), 2 oranges, 3 apples, 2 cups sugar. Wash berries and wash and core apples, wash and remove seeds from quartered oranges and put all three fruits through coarse knife of food chopper. Add sugar. Store in covered jars in refrigerator for at least 24 hours before serving. This keeps well in refrigerator.

DVINITIES CAN BE VARIED by flavoring them with chocolate, honey, or caramel or by the addition of chopped nutmeats.

COOKBOOK OF THE WEEK

Divinity Fudge Easily Made Taste Thrill for Guests

Have you ever tried to make your own candy? There is nothing quite so good as real homemade candy. For all the details of necessary equipment, and step-by-step instructions, you must see "250 Ways to Make Candy," fifteenth in the series of twenty-four Culinary Arts Institute Cookbooks available to readers of The Examiner.

The Candy Book has recipes for everything from fudge to delicately pulled sugar flowers, with all the necessary information on varying candy temperatures, how to judge them without a thermometer, and how to handle the making of candy in general. For a simple starter, here is one of the recipes for divinity:

Standard Divinity

2 cups sugar
½ cup light corn syrup
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup hot water
2 egg whites
1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Dissolve sugar, syrup and salt in the hot water. Cook without stirring, to 248 degrees, or to the firm-ball stage (wash down with a damp cloth any crystals that may form on the sides of the pan during cooking. Remove from heat and pour gradually over the stiffly beaten egg whites, beating constantly with a wire whisk. Add extract and continue beating until mixture will hold its shape when dropped from a spoon. Drop by teaspoonfuls on waxed paper or spread into a buttered pan and mark in squares.

Note: Should the divinity become too stiff to manipulate, add a few drops of hot water to bring it back to spreading consistency. If for some reason the divinity does not harden, cook it over hot water until mixture will hold its shape. Chopped nuts, shredded coconut, or dried or candied fruits add interest to divinity and should be added during the beating process.

You will surely want the Candy Book with its wonderful illustrations and tempting recipes. To get your copy clip a coupon from page 2 of any issue of The Examiner and present it with 25 cents at The Examiner office, Braund's Food Markets, or to your Examiner carrier boy.

Miss Annie Sisson Entertains W.A.

CAVAN, Oct. 23 (ENS)—The Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Church, Ida, were entertained by Miss Annie Sisson, a former president and life member at the home of her niece, Mrs. Stanley Tulley, Emily township. The prayer and pledge was then repeated and Miss Blanche Moore read the scripture reading. Mrs. R. Vance gave an interesting report of the deanery meeting held in Bobcaygeon on October 12.

Mrs. McCamus presented the W.A. with a travelling basket which will be passed around among the members, each member buying an article and donating an article to sell.

Scraped Barrel For Korea-Clark

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23 (AP)—Gen. Mark Clark, chief of United States army field forces, says the U.S. "scraped the bottom of the barrel" to carry on the Korean campaign.

Speaking before the Variety Club of Pittsburgh last night, Gen. Clark said the U.S. "told the world we had 10 divisions before the outbreak of the war in Korea." Those divisions, he said, were only two-thirds of full strength and under-equipped.

Clark said "we fought the Korean war with the weapons of World War Two."

"We have new weapons in the making but it will be seven or eight months to two or three years before they will produced in quantity."

Gen. Clark said every American soldier will be trained as an infantryman because "we learned in Korea that because of the enemy's infiltration tactics every man must do his own fighting."

Union Officials Investigate Reds

MONTREAL, Oct. 23 (CP) — Three international officers of the United Textile Workers of America (AFL-TLC) arrived here this weekend to launch an investigation into charges that the Canadian district is under Communist domination.

Lloyd Klenert, union general secretary-treasurer, said the investigation may last all week. He arrived here with Charles Emerson and Albert Drouin from the union's international headquarters at Washington.

Mr. Klenert said his mission here "is to collect any material which may be found of interest to the union trial committee whose task it will be to investigate these reports."

(In Toronto last Thursday, R. Kent Rowley, UTWA Canadian director, said the Canadian membership would not submit to the "indignity" of the international union's investigation. He and Madeleine Parent, Canadian secretary, were barred from the Trades and Labor Congress convention here last month on grounds that they were Communists.)

The first firing scheme of the 50th Heavy AA Regiment, RCA, combined with the 28th Technical Squadron, RCEME, was held on Sunday at Point Peter near Picton. Previously the regiment has fired only during the summer camp.

The units left Peterborough early Saturday morning and were transportd by the trucks of the regiment. Between Belleville and Picton they occupied a position where the procedure of movement and occupation of position was employed. The men also had their noon meal there, a box lunch supplied by the regiment and hot soup by the Royal Canadian School of Artillery at Picton.

After bunking at the school on Saturday night, both units fired from 10 a.m. until 12 p.m. at the Point Peter Range. They used the 3.7 ack-ack guns which have been altered slightly for anti-tank firing as well as ack-ack. A low ceiling prevented any high firing until after 1 p.m.

Textile Mills Must Be Strong, Vital For War

OTTAWA, Oct. 23 (CP). — Textiles are a vital munition of war, and the Canadian textile industry must be kept strong, H. G. Smith of Hamilton, president of the Canadian Woollen and Knit Goods Manufacturers' Association, said today.

Addressing the association's annual meeting he said the industry should not be weakened by excessive imports, and stated that Britain is placing "disproportionate emphasis" on exports of wool textiles to Canada.

Mr. Smith, Prices Board administrator of knitted goods during the war said that as a result of the Korean aggression, mills formerly hard-pressed to stay in business suddenly become urgently needed.

"An industry which had been scaled down by low-wage competition to the point where employment had fallen off badly and plants closed down could hardly be expected to perform at its best," he said.

Activity Increased

"While activity in our mills has increased during recent months, employment in the woollen and knit goods industry still is below the 1948 level." In 1948 he added, the industry employed 47,200 men and women in 229 communities; by the end of 1949 employment had dropped to 44,200 and went lower still. "Several manufacturers were forced to close down while others were on short time.

Government Helps

"The British government lends its active support to United Kingdom mills seeking to expand exports to this market by allocating scarce materials on the basis of export performance to dollar markets, and in many other ways. Assistance of this nature is a form of subsidy to British mills which places Canadian mills at a competitive disadvantage.

"The overloading of British exports to Canada with textiles is generally condoned in this country with vague theoretic talk of a United Kingdom-Canadian trade balanced on a merchandise basis. This is basically impossible. Merchandise traded between Canada and Britain has never been balanced, cannot be and never need be."

Murder Trial Shifted From Napanee

TORONTO, Oct. 23—(CP)—A change of venue was granted Saturday to James Fosbraey, 28, of Napanee, Ont., for his second trial on a charge of murder in connection with the stabbing of his wife last Nov. 28.

Sheriff H. J. Colliver of Prince Edward county said in Picton last night that the trial would open there Nov. 6, almost a year after the body of Mrs. Fosbraey, mother of a four-year-old girl, was found in blood-stained snow near her parents' cottage in Napanee where she had been living. She had been stabbed once in the heart.

The change of venue was granted by Mr. Justice W. F. Spence, reversing a decision he made last Tuesday when he ruled against a motion by Fosbraey's counsel, who claimed that local prejudice would prevent a fair trial in Napanee.

Publicity Given

At the time, Mr. Justice Spence directed that no account of the proceedings be published. Reports of the hearing appeared in some newspapers which had not been advised of the judge's request. Saturday's ruling was made because of this publicity.

Fosbraey, convicted of murder at his first trial in Napanee and sentenced to be hanged Sept. 21, was granted a new trial on the grounds that there was a misdirection of the jury by the trial judge. He was accused of stabbing his wife to death four days after he returned from a visit to England, his homeland.

Traces History Of Communism

HAVELOCK, Oct. 23 (ENS) — Ald. J. A. Dewart of Peterborough was the guest speaker at the Rotary Club luncheon on Thursday evening speaking on the subject "Communism As It Is In The World Today." He traced its beginning in the 18th century, through the efforts of Karl Marx, up to the present time and explained how its roots were started owing to the conditions existing at that time among the laboring classes. Its expansion was due to the dissatisfaction prevailing among the poverty stricken people.

During World War I when the rulers of Russia were liquidated as a result of allowing the Russian armies to go to battle ill-equipped, Communism came into power and has since then been the ruling actor in that country. The first intimation that the western world got of this great power was in the fall of Czechoslovakia and it was realized that action was needed to curb its growth.

Mr. Dewart was introduced by James Calnan and a vote of thanks was extended to him by Gilbert Crook.

This was the third successive weekly meeting that the Rotary Club has had a hundred per cent attendance. The next meeting will be a father and son night.

Windsor Hearing Resumes, May Take Action

WINDSOR, Oct. 23—(CP)—The Windsor Police Commission meets today behind closed doors to start the fourth of a series of sessions on the question of law enforcement here.

There has been no indication of the course the meeting will take in the small, bare grand jury room of the Essex county courthouse.

The three-man commission last met six days ago, devoting a two-hour closed discussion to a fact-finding study of police handling of liquor, gambling and bawdy house cases.

Wider Powers

Since then Premier Leslie Frost has announced the provincial government is willing to give Judge Archibald Cochrane, commission chairman, wider powers if the judge needs them to extend the present investigation. The government was "determined to find out everything" in the probe, he said.

The commission this week may either continue its investigation or take action on reorganization of the police force.

A reorganization was recommended last September in the report of two provincial police inspectors, who said that Windsor police officials must have known about "widespread" vice and gambling here.

Following publication of the report, Judge Cochrane and Magistrate Roland A. Harris were named to the police commission in a shakeup that saw the resignations of two commissioners and the dismissal of Crown Attorney E. C. Awrey. Mayor Arthur J. Reaume, as head of the city government, is the third member.

In recent meetings, the commission have delved into case records of persons arrested by the police morality squad and found instances were charges were withdrawn or reduced by the crown attorney's office, and where second offenders were charged as first offenders.

Only three police force members—all top officials—have been questioned by the commission. They are Chief Claude Renaud, Deputy Chief W. H. Neale and Sgt. George Brown, head of the morality squad.

Fowl Supper Planned By WI

HAVELOCK, Oct. 23—(ENS)—The Belmont Women's Institute at their meeting on Thursday decided to sponsor a community social in the township hall at Preneveau on Wednesday evening next. On the afternoon prior to this event the ladies will hold a quilting in the hall.

A bale of used clothing was packed for European relief. It was decided to apply for the government grant for educational purposes. As a means of raising funds a fowl supper will be held in the basement of St. John's Anglican Church, Havelock on November 10, providing the dining hall of the church is available on that date. The following committee was appointed to make arrangements for it: Mesdames R. Vansickle, Alex Keene, A. Cassan and W. Ketchen. During the program period two contests were won by Mrs. L. V. Bigelow and Mrs. W. Harris. Mrs. W. Cornell sang a solo playing the accompaniment on her harp. A reading was given by Mrs. Harris.

Denied Divorce Named Father Co-respondent

LONDON, Oct. 23 —(AP)—A divorce petition in which an ex-army major cited his 66-year-old father, Sir John Dixon Mayhew, as co-respondent, was dismissed in divorce court today.

The court ruled that the petitioner, 41-year-old John de Perigault Mayhew, "gave no direct evidence" of adultery between his third wife, Mrs. Frances Phoebe Mayhew, and her elderly father-in-law, a former Conservative member of parliament.

In tossing the young Mayhew's petition out of court, the judge ruled he must pay his own costs.

The son had asked £10,000 ($29,500) damages, a claim that died with dismissal of his divorce petition.

Justice Charlton Hodson suggested that the son and wife were merely seeking money.

Wife's Evidence

The whole case hinged on the wife's testimony that her father-in-law repeatedly seduced her, promising to deed her a £6,000 London house in which he allowed her and his son to live rent free.

Judge Hodson ruled: "I cannot accept her evidence in the face of the elder Mayhew's denial and in the absence of corroborating evidence. The house was never given her."

Young Mayhew had been cashiered from his commission in the army, had untruthfully represented himself to other people as a lawyer, an electrical engineer, and a member of the RAF and had written bogus cheques which his father had redeemed, the judge said.

F. Paterson Speaker At Selwyn WI Meeting

SELWYN, Oct. 23 — (ENS)— Members of Selwyn Women's Institute served a pot-luck dinner in Selwyn Hall. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Paterson, and members' husbands.

During the evening, Mrs. Seymour Sweeting, W.I. member who has recently moved to South Monaghan, was presented with a cup and saucer. Mrs. Wilford Nicholls, on behalf of Selwyn branch expressed regret because of her departure. Mrs. Evans Blewett made the presentation.

Mr. Paterson, agricultural representative, was guest speaker. He gave a brief outline of several farm problems, and how to deal with them. Soil testing for analysis was recommended and contour ploughing to control erosion and prevent loss of top soil, when the land is not level. He emphasized the need of a balanced system of soil management for each farm to ensure success in any line of farm. The agricultural representative can be of great service to the farmers, in helping solve their problems.

Mrs. Blewett thanked Mr. Paterson and Mrs. Paterson made the draw for the Institute quilt. Elmer Sweeting was the lucky winner.

Special Force Sails Pacific For Okinawa

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 23 (CP) —The advance party of Canada's Special Brigade was far out on the blue Pacific today—believed headed for Okinawa.

The 350 Canadian troops had a somewhat lonely leave-taking when they piled into the 11,000-ton United States Navy transport ship James O'Hara here Saturday. The band which sent them aboard with "Rule Britannia" was from the United States army, Americans watched them from the dockside and more American troops waited for them on board.

Mostly Veterans

The advance party—95 per cent veterans—is en route to a Pacific island (generally reported to be Okinawa) for further training. An army spokesman said the rest of Canada's 10,000-man United Nations force will follow by the end of November at the latest.

(This differed from previous information from informed quarters in Ottawa that only part of the Korean brigade will go to Korea and most of the Special Force will go to Europe after advanced training in the Southern United States.)

The soldiers, brought here by bus from nearby Fort Lewis army base, looked in top physical shape. Boots shone like stars. Americans, dressed only in fatigues, looked drab beside them. The younger GI's glanced with admiration at the rows of ribbons nearly all the Canadians wore, at hard faces that had seen battles on the other side of the world.

First Canadian aboard was Cpl. E. A. Vigurs, of Edmonton. "Glad to be aboard," he told reporters.

Drawn By College of Heralds City's New Coat of Arms Insignia of Historical Import

This week the scroll with attached seals of the three principal Kings of Arms arrived in Peterborough; it is Peterborough's warrant for official Armorial Bearings, together with their design. Thus Peterborough becomes one of the few cities in Canada with an authentic coat-of-arms devised and granted by the College of Heralds in London, England.

"Whereas Max John Swanston, Esquire, Mayor of the City of Peterborough, situate on the Otonabee River in the Province of Ontario in the Dominion of Canada, hath represented unto The Most Noble Bernard Marmaduke, Duke of Norfolk . . " With these words the Garter Principal King of Arms, the Clarenceux King of Arms and the Norroy and Ulster King of Arms have assigned Peterborough fitting Armorial Bearings. These three knights' insignia of office appear at the top of the scroll; at the bottom are their signatures and seals in brass cups attached to the parchment by blue ribbon.

The scroll is a beautiful piece of calligraphy and design, and very colorful.

The actual new armorial bearings are described in words in the body of the scroll, and beside them is drawn the design, in color.

Original Scroll

The original of this historic document will not be put on public view. It will be kept under lock and key. A suggestion has been made that this valuable scroll be put on public view in the year 2,000, when the city is 150 years old; in A.D. 2050 when it will have its 51 centenary, and thereafter every fiftieth year. That is a matter to be decided by later councils.

Two exact replicas of the warrant have been made at the request of the city council by a Toronto artist and expert on heraldry, Mr. Scott Carter, who was Peterborough's Canadian adviser to the College of Heralds when the design was being made. One of these replicas will be framed and prominently displayed in the new city hall.

The story of the acquiring of authentic arms for Peterborough is surprisingly short. Early this centennial year, the matter of replacing the old, unsanctioned so-called 'arms' of the city was brought to the attention of the council in an Examiner editorial. The old arms were neither heraldic nor well designed. The council, through Mayor Swanston, petitioned the College of Heralds for a grant of legitimate armorial bearings.

The speed with which the College of Heralds acted is shown by the dating of the warrant: May 9, 1950.

Several drafts of the design were prepared and examined. The final one arrived in Canada several months ago, but was sent on to Toronto for copying and the preparation of seals. Now it is back in Peterborough for all time.

The Words Of The Warrant

Here is the full wording of the warrant:

TO ALL AND SINGULAR to whom these Presents shall come, Sir Algar Henry Stafford Howard, Knight Commander of the Royal Victorian Order, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, upon whom has been conferred the Decoration of the Military Cross, Garter Principal King of Arms, Sir Arthur William Steuart Cochrane, Knight Commander of the Royal Victorian Order, Clarenceux King of Arms and Sir Gerald Woods Wollaston, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Commander of the Royal Victorian Order, Norway and Ulster King of Arms, Send Greetings. Whereas Max John Swanston, Esquire, Mayor of the City of Peterborough situate on the Otonabee River in the Province of Ontario in the Dominion of Canada hath represented unto The Most Noble Bernard Marmaduke, Duke of Norfolk, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Victorian Order, Earl Marshal and Hereditary Marshal of England and One of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council that the City of Peterborough was first incorporated as a Town by Act of the Legislature of the Province of Canada in 1850 and that it became a City by Act of the Legislature of the Province of Ontario in 1905, and he hath further represented unto the said Earl Marshal that the said City is desirous of having Armorial Ensigns duly assigned with lawful authority and hath requested the favour of His Grace's Warrant for Our granting and assigning such Armorial Bearings, and in the same Patent such Supporters as may be proper to be borne and used by the City of Peterborough on Seals, Shields, or otherwise according to the Laws of Arms And forasmuch as the said Earl Marshal did by Warrant under his hand and Seal bearing date the Fourteenth day of February last authorize and direct Us to grant and assign such Armorial Ensigns and such Supporters accordingly. Know Ye Therefore that We the said Garter, Clarenceux and Norroy and Ulster in pursuance of His Grace's Warrant and by virtue of the Letters Patent of Our several Offices to each of Us respectively granted do by these Presents grant and assign unto the City of Peterborough the Arms following that is to say: Vert a Sword point downwards Argent pomel and hilt Or surmounted by a Fesse barry wavy of six of the second and Azure And for the Crest on a Wreath of the Colours Upon a log of Wood fessewise a Beaver proper grasping with the sinister forepaw a Key ward upwards and to the sinister in bend Or as the same are in the margin hereof more plainly depicted. And by Authority aforesaid I the said Garter Principal King of Arms do by these Presents further grant and assign unto the City of Peterborough the supporters following that is to say: On the dexter side a Stag proper and on the Sinister side a Lion Gules gorged with an Eastern Crown and Chain reflexed over the back Or as the same are also in the margin hereof more plainly depicted to be borne and used for ever hereafter by the City of Peterborough on Seals, Shields or otherwise the whole according to the Laws of Arms. In witness whereof We said Garter Clarenceux and Norroy and Ulster Kings of Arms have to these Presents subcribed Our names and affixed the Seals of Our several Offices this Ninth day of May in the Fourteenth year of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lord George the Sixth by the Grace of God of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith and in the year year of Our Lord One thousand nine hundred and fifty.

PETERBOROUGH'S NEW ARMORIAL BEARINGS, showing Shield, Crest, Supporters and Motto as designed and officially granted by the College of Heralds, London England. Peterborough is now one of the few cities of Canada with an authentic and registered Coat of Arms. This will be used on all official seals and the like from now until the end of time. For full description and meaning of the insignia, see accompanying story.—(Photographed for The Examiner by Parks Studio).

The shield itself has a green ('vert') background or 'field.' This represents the 'champs' (French for 'field') in the word 'Champlain,' a reference to the first explorer's trip through this district in 1615. The green can also refer to the Emerald Isle, from which the first Irish immigrants were brought under the direction of the Hon. Peter Robinson in 1825. It was due to this immigration that Peterborough became a place, and secured its name. It also refers to our fields and forests in this district.

The "sword pointed downwards, argent" (silver), "pomel and hilt Or" (gold) recalls the veteran soldiers and officers of the British armies who fought in the Napoleonic Wars, and in Canada in 1812-15 against the Americans, who got grants of land in Otonabee and other townships in this district in 1818 onwards, and were in the area when the Irish settlers arrived.

Across the shield is a six-barred, wavy arrangement, of bars alternately blue and silver ("a fesse Barry Wavy of six of the second (color) and Azure (blue)") representing the Otonabee River and the many lakes rivers from which Peterborough draws much sustenance and revenue, and because of which access was possible to this townsite from the Lake Ontario shore.

The Crest

The most important accessory of any arms is the crested helm. The crest above Peterborough's shield of arms is mounted on a wreath of the two chief colors of the shield, green and silver. On a log of wood cross-wise is a Canadian beaver, grasping in its left (sinister) forepaw a golden key pointing upwards and to the left ('Upwards and to the sinister in bent Or'). This is to represent the key of St. Peter, a tribute to the Roman Catholic third of the city's population, to the religion of the Irish immigrants, it is a reference to 'Peter' in the city's name; the key of St. Peter.

The helmet around which the wreath is twined is the traditional indication of a city.

The Supporters

Next most important accessory of the shield is the "Supporters." Most shields do not hang; they are supported on both sides, usually by animals having something to do with the history or the nature of the place or family to whom the armorial bearings are granted. Peterborough's shield's supporters are in the tradition. On the left side, as we look at it, but on the wearer's right (hence 'dexter') is a Canadian stag, in natural brown color. The Warrant says: "On the dexter side a stag Proper." The heraldic term 'proper' means 'in the natural color.' On the observer's right side (the shield wearer's left) is a red lion with its neck encircled by a crown, and a chain draped over its back. The heraldic description of this is: "On the sinister (left) side a Lion Gules (in red) gorged (its neck encircled) with an Eastern Crown and Chain reflexed over the back Or (meaning the crown and chain are in gold).

The lion as supporter is taken from the Duke of Wellington's family crest. It was under him that many officers and men, first settlers in this district, served. It was originally intended to use an emblem from Nelson's crest for the other side, but this was found to be a sailor, and not suitable for Peterborough. The stag appears in many old English crests.

The ground on which shield and supporters rest is green arable field, representing the pastoral nature of the country south of the city. On this is the city's motto. A motto accompanies every coat of arms. This is unchanged from the motto which the city has had for a long time. "Nature Provides, Industry Develops," but it is translated into interpretative Latin: "Dat Natura, Elaborant Artes," which means, a little more broadly, that Nature gives bountifully, and the arts and crafts and energy of the people develop and elaborate nature's gift. It refers to Peterborough's abundant natural resources, and her industries.

PARCHMENT SCROLL WARRANT granting Peterborough its official Armorial Bearings is now under lock and key in the City Buildings. An exact replica will be framed and installed in the new City Hall. At the top of the scroll are the insignia of the three Kings of Arms who made the grant; at the bottom are their signatures and seals. Centre left are the actual armorial bearings. The writing on the scroll is the warrant and an explanation of the devices. (Photographed for The Examiner by Parks Studio).

Red Army Moves South For Possible Final Stand

1ST US CAVALRY TROOPERS, deciding that a break in their field rations would be welcome after they captured Kumchon in North Korea, went foraging and luckily hit upon a well stocked farm. Here Corporal Jimmy L. Scellato, of Norfolk, Va., shows his farm skill by milking a cow which is apparently unruffled by war while Pte. W. J. Brown, Oklahoma City, Okla., keeps a hold, just in case. Need Army Now Says Bradley

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—(AP)—Gen. Omar Bradley told military leaders of the 12 North Atlantic Treaty powers today that mutual forces for common defence must be created now "or we may be forced to improvise them in the face of enemy attack" later. The chairman of the United States Joint Chiefs of Staff sounded this note of urgency in welcoming members of the military committee of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. The sessions of the committee, composed of the Chiefs of Staff of each of the 12 nations will lay the groundwork for a three-day session of defence ministers of the nations, starting Saturday.

Canada is represented at the military committee meeting by Lt.-Gen. Charles Foulkes, Air Marshal W. A. Curtis, Commodore R. W. Bidwell, Maj-Gen. H. F. Clark, Air Vice-Marshal H. L. Campbell and Brig. J. D. B. Smith.

Bradley, in his brief prepared text, emphasized that "now is the time for action."

Balanced Forces

He noted that this was the third session of the military committee. In Paris last December, he said, "we forged the strategic concept." At The Hague in April "we vitalized an over-all strategic plan and adopted the principle of balanced forces."

What the military committee will do is to prepare recommendations for the defence ministers. Some of the debated points will arise only before the defence ministers and, in turn, some of those may have to be referred to the top-level North Atlantic Council.

A potentially-knotty problem for the defence committee is the matter of utilizing German manpower in the integrated defences of Western Europe. The Council, in its New York meeting last September, agreed that Western Germany "should be enabled to contribute."

France Worried

But the foreign ministers of the Council did not say how. They left that for the defence committee session. Talk of creating some German divisions, under Allied control, has raised disturbing questions for France.

The Council has agreed on the broad idea of a supreme commander for the integrated forces, together with a chief of staff. That was passed along to the current sessions here for incorporation into the broad pattern of the mutual defence machine.

While the defence committee probably will set up the offices and may suggest which countries shall provide the two officials, the actual naming of individuals will be beyond the scope of either the committee or of the Atlantic organization.

Boy 2½ Not Seriously Hurt Lost 24 Hours Near Home

EDWARDS, Ont., Oct. 24—(CP)—Chubby Robert Thayer was found alive and unharmed today 24 hours after he had wandered away from his home in this village 14 miles southeast of Ottawa. The 2½-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thayer was found within a half-mile of his home, crouched in tall grass a short distance from a creek. His first words to his rescuer—Gilbert Shane, 60, of Ottawa—were: "I want a cookie."

The youngster, who went out yesterday to play with his bulldog, was first taken to his home and then to hospital in Ottawa. Although obviously suffering from the affects of his ordeal in below-freezing temperatures throughout the night, the tot was bright and cheerful.

More than 350 persons—police and volunteers — participated in the search.

Looked Like Stump

"I was just going through the long grass—looked like hay to me—when I saw something that looked like a stump," said Shane. "I bent down and there he was, all crouched over in a heap with his head down between his legs."

The boy was conscious when found, but could say little at first.

The blaring of motor car horns signalled to searchers that the boy had been found.

Mrs. Thayer, 28-year-old mother of the child, was standing near the farm home when the horns began to blare.

Found Near Well

She exclaimed: "They have found him. They have found him." Her face white and tense, she added almost in a whisper: "Oh, my God; there's a well over there."

Five Tons Meat, Truck Stolen

TORONTO, Oct. 24 (CP) — A transport truck loaded with five tons of meat and canned salmon —valued at $10,000—was stolen early today from a west-end warehouse.

Police said they believe the robbery is connected with a series of cattle thefts throughout York County during the last two months. The meat perhaps is intended for the same illegal market, investigators said.

Today's theft was discovered when the driver reported to Hume Transport Company. The cargo, intended for stores in Guelph, contained beef, pork and lamb.

Farms in York, Ontario and Peel counties will be checked in an effort to find the truck, police said.

Well Planned

Company officials said the theft was well planned. The night crew finished loading at 2:30 a.m. Sometime between then and 6:30, when the driver went for the truck, the load was stolen.

Police speculated the gang would have to operate on a large scale to dispose of such a quantity of meat.

Thieves took live cattle from a number of pastures recently, loading two or three animals at a time into trucks.

Gives Electric Shocks

Machine Can Start Heart

BOSTON, Oct. 24 — (AP) — A new electric shock machine can start up a heart that quits beating, two Canadian surgeons reported Monday.

Its tiny currents also can keep a heart beating at a steady, normal rate, to help a tired heart. The currents are applied to a little lump on the heart which is the heart' own pace-maker of its beating. This lump or node is the source of natural electrical impulses controlling and co-ordinating your heart beat.

Insert Through Vein.

The metal-tipped electrode giving off the shocks can be inserted through a vein to reach the heart, and stimulate it artificially.

The artificial pacemaker machine was described to the American College of Surgeon by Dr. J. C. Callaghan and Dr. W. G. Bigelow of the University of Toronto.

Used only on animals so far, it may become a new way of saving people whose hearts suddenly stop during operations, they said. Surgeons sometimes can start a heart up again by massaging it, or by injecting drugs. The machine might also help people whose heartbeats suddenly go dangerously haywire and irregular.

Worked On Dog

The stopped heart of one dog was stimulated to beat again and then was kept going in controlled beats for 30 minutes until his own heart took over again, the surgeons said. The dog recovered without any apparent ill effects.

The pulses come from a special machine, a thyratron stimulator. By use of long tubes, the electrode can be pushed through a large vein to reach the heart. The electrode doesn't have to actually touch the heart's own pace-maker pump. It works even when the tip of the electrode is nearly ¾th of an inch away from that spot, Drs. Callaghan and Bigelow said.

Arrest 4 Boys, Girl $8,000 Loot Found

TORONTO, Oct. 24 — (CP)— Police said today they have arrested four youths and a 15-year-old girl and have recovered most of the $8,000 worth of jewelry and silverware stolen last Friday night from the home of Frank A. Schulman.

The break in the case came when an automobile said used by the youths smashed into a parked car. A routine investigation led to solution of the robbery and arrest of Alois Vidlin, 16; Gordon Jackson, 17; Geeorge Steele, 18, and William Sullivan, 18.

Red Chinese Shoot At U.S. Planes

Pilots Say 3 Miles South Of Border On Reconnaisance

WONSAN AIRFIELD, Korea, Oct. 24—(AP)—A U.S. Marine Corps spokesman said today Chinese anti-aircraft guns fired across the Manchurian border late Monday on American planes. He said the planes were operating inside Korea near the border.

The Marine spokesman said the Reds fired at least 40 rounds of heavy anti-aircraft shells, apparently radar-controlled, on two Marine planes. The U.S. planes were on a reconnaissance mission over Manpojin, Korean stronghold a few miles south of the border.

The planes were not damaged, the officer said.

Manpojin is about 20 miles northwest of Kanggye, reported to be the new command headquarters of Kim Il Sung, Red Korean premier.

Both pilots were quoted by the spokesman as saying they never were closer to the border than three miles.

The pilots said they spotted the gun emplacements when they were about three miles south of the Yalu river which separates Korea and Manchuria.

They said the guns were fired as they turned the planes back toward their base. The pilots said the Red anti-aircraft followed them until they were at least five miles south of the border.

The Chinese Reds have protested alleged violations of their borders by United Nations' planes during the Korean war.

Monday's incident was the first reported case of their firing upon allied planes operating south of the border.

$1,200 Disappears No Prov. Inquiry

SUDBURY, Oct. 24—(CP) — City council last night defeated by a vote of 6 to 3 Alderman L. Lamoreux' motion for a provincial inquiry into disappearance of $1,200 from the city treasurer's office last Sept. 27 or 28.

Mayor W. S. Beaton walked out during the discussion after Alderman A. Whissell, vice-chairman of the finance committee, said the mayor has destroyed files of the committee following the death of its chairman, Alderman R. A. McKinnon.

Chief Constable John McLaren told council investigation of the money's disappearance is continuing.

Alderman Whissell said he was not informed of the money's disappearance for 3½ days. When he asked for the committee's files the mayor had told him Mrs. McKinnon destroyed them when she picked up her late husband's papers.

"Later," he said, "I found that you yourself had destroyed them."

Mayor Beaton replied:

"I told you that at the time. Why rehash that? You're just playing politics."

1st Russians Caught By US Army In Korea

SEOUL, Korea, Oct. 24—(Reuters)—The first Russians to fall into American hands in Korea were in protective custody tonight in the captured Communist capital of Pyongyang.

There were four of them—three men and one woman, belived to be traders.

Members of the North Korean anti-Communist "underground" handed them over to the Americans.

A sentry at the American Presbyterian mission building, where the Russians were being held, refused to let reporters see them. But he confirmed they were inside.

TORONTO, Oct. 24—(CP)—There's a new sign outside a restaurant close to Varsity Stadium, where University of Toronto footballers were trounced last Saturday by the University of Western Ontario: "No More Western Sandwiches."

Al Jolson Dies Suddenly, Back From Korea

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24 — (AP).—Al Jolson, the veteran jazz singer who was the first United States star to entertain troops overseas in both the Second World and Korean wars, died unexpectedly last night with a quip on his lips:

"Hell, Truman had only one hour with MacArthur. I had two."

Then . . .

"I'm going, boys," the famous mammy singer told two long-time friends with whom he was playing gin rummy in the St. Francis Hotel.

He died quietly, quickly, of a coronary occulsion, and without pain, said the house physician.

Jolson, 64, had returned only two weeks ago from Korea, where he sang to allied troops. He had a two-hour luncheon chat with Gen. MacArthur in Tokyo en route.

President Truman and MacArthur talked privately just an hour on Wake Island a week ago Sunday in their historic meeting.

On Crosby Show

With Jolson were two old friends, song writer Harry Akst and Martin Fried, Al's accompanist and arranger. They had come with him from southern California for a scheduled guest-star spot on a Bing Crosby radio show, to have been recorded here tonight.

Akst telephoned Jolson's fourth wife, Erle Galbraith, whom he married in 1945. She was at Encino, Calif. She was reported to have collapsed with grief.

Jolson was riding the crest of a popularity wave for the second time in an entertainment career that began in 1899. His popularity with the troops was unsurpassed. In the Second World War he travelled to Europe, Africa, India and the Pacific, entertaining service men.

Boys Wonderful

On his return from Korea, where he gave 42 shows in 16 days, he said:

"Know what it feels like to be back? I'm going to look up my income tax and see if I paid enough. Those guys are wonderful. This is a much tougher war than the last one, believe me."

He entertained troops at the front when the United Nations beachhead in Korea was at its smallest and under constant attack.

Governor Asks UN Aid Indo-China

Political Solution Needed Disaster To People

HANOI, Indo-China, Oct. 24 —(AP)—North Vietnam governor Nguyen Huu Tri, faced by hostile Communist-led Nationalist forces within artillery range of his capital, came out yesterday for United Nations intervention in Indo-China.

In an interview the head of North Indo-China's French-supported government said the "Indo-China problem cannot be solved by military action alone. We must have a political solution."

"People have always expected the intervention of the United Nations. Sooner or later it must come. We hope the U.N. will interfere energetically. This situation is disastrous for both the French and Vietnamese people."

The governor said that "when we think of the United Nations we think of the United States."

Fear Bankruptcy In W. Germany

THE HAGUE, The Netherlands, Oct. 24 (AP)—A crisis in the European Payments Union as a result of West German exhaustion of her entire year's allotment of credits was reported here today.

In Frankfurt, Germany, American officials said the West Germans are taking drastic steps to reduce their imports. U.S. officials, confirming the report that Germany was the No. 1 debtor nation in the E.P.U., said Germany already has used nearly $300,000,000 of the $320,000,000 assigned to her.

In this capital, Foreign Minister Dirk U. Stikker of The Netherlands, who is chairman of the organization for European economic co-operation, said he was leaving for Paris tomorrow to seek action on the situation he said resulted from the imminent "bankruptcy" of West Germany.

The situation will shove into the background the question of further trade liberalization, which is on the O.E.E.C agenda for its council meeting Thursday.

Boys Will Be Boys

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Oct. 24 (AP)—Charles D. Colt's bicycle and James A. Petrie's auto banged into each other on the street yesterday. Colt, 84, was slightly injured. Petrie, 81, escaped unhurt.

Outsmarted

WALLASEY, England, Oct. 24—(Reuters)—The smart kids of Wallasey have outsmarted a bid by the town's traders to encourage sales.

Store salesmen made "deliberate mistakes" in their window dressings—such as labelling a Stewart tartan MacDonald—and offering the equivalent of a $70 prize for an all-correct list.

But children, with more time on their hands to spot the mistakes, stood outside the stores offering customers the right answers for a penny an answer.

8 Men Survive Sinking Ship Think 12 Drown

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Oct. 24—The United States Coast Guard cutter Sorrel was nearing Argentina, Nfld., today with eight seamen, survivors of the ill-fated North Voyageur, aboard.

The survivors, discovered clinging to a bobbing raft in the North Atlantic yesterday, said they believe the other 12 missing crew members went down with the ship.

The men were rescued as three U.S. aircraft and another Coast Guard cutter criss-crossed the area about 50 miles southeast of Cape Race, Nfld., after the 1,100-ton vessel disappeared early Sunday.

Radioed SOS

The ship issued a terse SOS call and a brief pinpointing of her position before her radio went dead.

The RCAF at Halifax, intercepting a message from Sorrel, said there was no immediate indication of the fate of the other 12 members of the Voyageur's crew.

However, one lifeboat still is unaccounted for, the Air Force said, and it is possible other seamen are still afloat.

The Sorrel was to rendezvous with the cutter Humboldt some 60 miles south of Argentina before coming to port. Another cutter, the Duane, along with aircraft, will continue the search for the other crew members.

Sight Wreckage

Search and rescue officials said an overturned lifeboat, part of the ship's cabin, and other wreckage were sighted floating on waves. It was feared the remainder of the crew died when the lifeboat overturned.

The U.S. Coast Guard reported at New York last night that six Canadians—all from Quebec province—were among the eight survivors.

The list of survivors mean that two other Canadians—Gabriel Dufour of Quebec and E. M. Gendreau of Cap St. Ignace, Quebec—were among the 12 still missing.

S. Koreans Advancing To Manchuria

Communists Seen By US Planes Destination Unknown

SEOUL, Korea, Oct. 25 — (Wednesday)—(AP)—A large Communist column was reported moving south today from the North Korean refugee capital of Kanggye toward advancing South Korean troops.

It was the first indication in more than 36 hours that the Reds may be mustering for a final stand, near the northwestern borders of Korea.

Kanggye is only 20 miles southeast of the Manchurian border.

Air Force pilots spotted the column Tuesday but did not speculate on its make-up or destination, a field dispatch said.

A night intruder pilot reported "many, many" North Korean vehicles moving south along the road.

Latest frontal reports placed the vanguard of advancing Republican troops 20 miles south of Kanggye. It was thought possible that North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung's forces were moving south to meet the South Korean troops.

Two U.S. Marine flyers Tuesday reported they had drawn anti-aircraft fire from the Chinese side of the border while flying five miles inside Korea, near Kanggye.

Meanwhile U.N. troops approached the Manchurian border.

They were reported about 30 to 35 miles from Communist Manchuria. A new U.N. bomb line was drawn in an arc 12 miles south of the Chinese Red-guarded border. The Allied bomb line

Warship Brings PEI Kids' Chair

PORTSMOUTH, England, Oct. 24—(CP)—A toy rocking chair which weighs about five pounds started on the long journey to Canada today in a 14,000-ton Canadian warship.

In the captain's cabin of the aircraft carrier Magnificent, which left Portsmouth for Halifax via Cherbourg, Lisbon, Gibraltar and Bermuda, stood the gaily-painted chair which Leonard Jones of Bristol built three years ago for his grandchildren in Prince Edward Island.

Jones couldn't afford to send the chair to Canada because of shipping costs. But when his wife Ethel heard that the Magnificent was in Portsmouth, she got in touch with the Canadians.

The result is a new entry in the ship's log:

"Received one chair (rocking) for conveyance to Prince Edward Island, Gulf of St. Lawrence.

And the navy promises that when the Magnificent reaches Halifax Nov. 26, a special naval patrol will take the chair (rocking) to Mrs. Jones' daughter, Barbara, and the three grandchildren, Glen, 4, Alan, 2, and Brenda, three months.

Fifth Anniversary

UN Day Observed Throughout World

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 —(CP)— From Communist-encircled West Berlin to war-torn Korea, the United Nations celebrated its fifth anniversary today.

President Truman came to New York to make a major foreign-policy speech before the U.N. General Assembly. Church bells were to ring in many communities and schools planned special ceremonies.

St. Laurent

In a U.N. day message, Prime Minister St. Laurent of Canada said in Ottawa that the day came at a "crucial period of test" for the U.N. but the Korean action was an encouraging step forward in the free countries' search for peace and security.

It was "a disappointment that certain countries have refused to associate themselves with this work of constructing a better world."

U.N. flags were flown in many sections of the Dominion. R. G. Riddell, Canada's delegate to the U.N., was to speak in Toronto at a joint meeting of the Canadian Club and the Toronto branch of the U.N. association.

Canada's minister for external affairs, L. B. Pearson, will speak in New York tonight at the New York Tribune forum on "A United Nations international force."

United Nations day loomed especially large in Korea. Special services were held in Seoul, with the speakers including President Syngman Rhee, U.S. Ambassador John J. Muccio and Dr. Chohg Il Hyung, executive director of the Korean association for the United Nations.

U.N. troops, who already had freed most of the country from Communist armies, continued their drive toward the Manchurian border.

The U.N. charter was proclaimed effective Oct. 24, 1945, following its ratification by the "Big Five" permanent members — the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain, France and China—and by a majority of the other original signers of the charter.

Today's ceremony in New York also marked Truman's third visit to the United Nations on U.N. day. In 1946 he welcomed the first general assembly meeting to Flushing Meadow. In 1949 he participated in the assembly session at which the cornerstone of the world organization's permanent headquarters was laid in midtown Manhattan.

Churchill Speaks

Leaders in most of the world's democracies made U.N. statements. In London, Winston Churchill, Conservative party leader and wartime prime minister, asked Britons to renew their determination to save mankind from war "by making it clear to all the world that we will stand in arms with every free and peaceful nation against any that might wish to break the peace."

He also spoke of the "qualities of high adventure and endeavor" necessary for peace, which included humanitarian acts, rehabilitation of war-torn lands and assistance to the peoples of Africa and Asia "to achieve by peaceful means their hopes of a new and better life."

70 Women Picke Employment Office

TORONTO, Oct. 24 (CP). Three offices of the National Employment Service here were picketed today by 70 women.

They claim they were dismissed from the plant of Radio Condenser Company in an attempt to break up a newly-formed local of the United Electrical Workers (Ind.). The company says they were let out for inefficiency.

The employment service sent workers to the plant to replace the dismissed employees. That brought the dismissed ones over to the employment service offices with accusations of what they called "strikebreaking activities" by the commission.

Agree To Plan To Disarm Truman Asks

Challenges Russia To Sign Fool-Proof Pact

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Oct. 24—(AP)—President Truman challenged Russia today to agree to a "fool-proof" disarmament plan so that the United Nations will be free to wage a world-wide "war against want."

The United States and other free countries, Truman said, will continue to build up their military forces as insurance against aggression until there is unanimous agreement on "international control of atomic energy and the reduction of armaments and armed forces."

The United States, committed now to that course, will follow it as long as necessary, the president said in an address prepared for the United Nations General Assembly on the fifth anniversary of the day on which the U.N. charter came into force.

Need Armed Strength

He left the door open for East-West peace talks both "in the United Nations and elsewhere"—a reference he did not expand—but said the free countries have learned the hard way that negotiation alone will not preserve peace. There must be armed strength as well to resist aggression.

With delegates from Russia and her iron-curtain satellites in his audience, Truman avoided mentioning Russia by name, but his indictment of Communist aggression followed the lines of his San Francisco speech a week ago.

At that time, he said "The Soviet Union and its colonial satellites"—in both Europe and Asia—are maintaining vast armies which pose "a constant threat to world peace."

Much of today's talk was devoted to the hope of world disarmament.

In that connection, he said the U.N. might well consider whether its work in that field "might be revitalized" through merger of two groups it has had working on the problem—one on general disarmament and the other on control of atomic energy.

Three Principles

Truman offered these three "basic principles" for disarmament:

"First, the plan must include all kinds of weapons. Outlawing any particular kind of weapon is not enough. The conflict in Korea bears tragic witness to the fact that aggression, whatever the weapons used, brings frightful destruction.

"Second, the plan must be based on unanimous agreement. A majority of its nations is not enough. No plan of disarmament can work unless it includes every nation having substantial armed forces. One-sided disarmament is a sure invitation to aggression.

"Third, the plan must be foolproof. Paper promises are not enough. Disarmament must be based on safeguards which will insure the compliance of all nations. The safeguards must be adequate to give immediate warning of any threatened violation. Disarmament must be policed continuously and thoroughly. It must be founded upon free and open interchange of information across national borders."

Goal Distant

Truman conceded that the possibility of attaining that goal "appears distant today," but he declared, "we must never stop trying."

"For its attainment would release immense resources for the good of all mankind. It would free the nations to devote more of their energies to wiping out poverty, hunger and injustice.

Americans Told Canadians Are Different

DETROIT, Oct. 24 (Special)—"It is in our political set-up that the greatest differences are to be found between Canada and the United States," A. A. Gardiner, general passenger traffic manager Canadian National Railways, told a luncheon meeting of the Detroit Kiwanis today. Mr. Gardiner spoke on the subject, "Canadians really are different."

"We are neither a republic, as you are proud to be, nor are we a colony, or a subject state, as we are often misunderstood to be," Mr. Gardiner explained. "Canada is now a free, self-governing unit of the British Commonwealth, occupying a status equally as free and sovereign as Great Britain herself."

Another major difference of Canada from the United States is that although the racial origins of the people of both countries is quite varied, Canadian culture has developed into two main groups, the English speaking and the French speaking, Mr. Gardiner said. Both the English and French languages have equal rights under the law of Canada and as a result, the province of Quebec has been able to retain its predominantly French character, which gives it such a charm for travellers from the United States.

One vitally important respect in which Canada and the United States stand together, Mr. Gardiner pointed out is in the defence of freedom. "In each of the two wars that, optimistically, we considered in their turn would end wars and bring about a reign of peace, our men have fought with yours all over the world. Now that our men serve with yours in the United Nations forces and with our country standing with yours foursquare against the common danger we are proud and strong in the knowledge that we are not different."

Al Jolson Dies

"I was singing up there for some guys and there was a lot of noise," he related.

"So I says to an officer, 'why don't you tell those kids of yours outside to stop shooting off those rifles?'

"'Those aren't our kids,' he told me."

Born In Russia

Al was born Asa Yoelson, May 26, 1886, the son of a Jewish cantor, in what was then St. Petersburg, Russia. He came with his family to Washington, while a small boy. His father trained him for the church, but he had other ideas. He appeared in a play mob scene and then ran off with a circus.

He first starred on the stage—in Blackface—in 1909 with Lew Dockstader's Minstrels. Two years later he was discovered by the Schuberts and hired for their winter garden in New York.

The most famous of his Broadway performances was his bended knee rendition of "Mammy," for which he became known as the mammy singer. Then Hollywood beckoned.

First Talkie

His greatest movie, "The Jazz Singer," was made in 1927, at the first peak of his career. It is generally credited with being the first real talking picture.

Screen fame followed, and Jolson separated many of his earlier stage successes for the film.

More than 1,000,000 of his phonograph records of "Sonny Boy" were sold after he popularized the song in "The Singing Fool." Other tunes that made his career were "Suwanee," "April Showers" and "California, Here I Come."

His career became temporarily eclipsed in the 1930s, but he came back, as big as ever, following the Second World War and the release of the movie, "The Jolson Story." It starred actor Larry Parks, but it was Jolson's voice.

Then came "Jolson Sings Again."

He went on the radio, on his own show and those of his numerous friends. One of those, Bing Crosby, was scheduled to arrive today to record with him the show that never will be made.

Married In 1945

Jolson was married for the fourth time in March, 1945, to the former Erie Galbraith, film player in Quartzsite, Ariz.

The last picture Jolson appeared in personally was "Rhapsody In Blue" in 1945.

Jolson and his 24-year-old widow had adopted a son, Asa Jr., now two years old.

Jolson was married four times. Besides his widow, he leaves an adopted son Asa Jr., two.

His previous wives were Henrietta Keller, who divorced him in 1919; Alma Osborne, who divorced him in 1926, and Ruby Keeler, formerly of Halifax, who divorced him in 1939. She was given custody of another adopted son, Al Jr.

Funeral plans are uncertain.

is usually 20 miles ahead of forward foot soldiers—in this case South Koreans.

Tokyo intelligence officers said only about 25,000 North Korean troops remain north of Parallel 38. From a military standpoint all organized resistance had ceased.

But briefing officers at Gen. MacArthur's headquarters said remnants of 16 Red divisions still have divisional headquarters in Korea and are considered organized units.

Wholesale lots of North Korean soldiers continued to surrender today. An estimated 323,000 had laid down their arms or become war casualties. More were coming in from the hills to surrender.

Red Premier Flees

Premier Kim Il Sung, the Korean Communist leader, had fled. American planes dropped leaflets declaring that the man who posed as Kim was an imposter named Kim Sung Chu, who was sent to Korea in 1945.

The leaflets said the real Kim Il Sung, a Korean hero, died 15 years ago in Manchuria.

Three North Koreans who lived under the Red regime for five years in Pyongyang said the Kim Il Sung they knew in the Red capital was a "robot" leader who answered to the name of Ho Kai Li. He was a Russian citizen of Korean extraction.

But the real boss of North Korea, they said, was Col.-Gen. Terentyi Shtikov, Soviet representative on the joint US-USSR commission to unify Korea.

Hide In Manchuria

Both Kim Il Sung and Shtikov now are presumably in Manchuria or Siberia, the trio said.

The Commonwealth brigade, composed of British and Australian troops, slashed north today after crossing the Chonkchon river near its mouth on the Yellow Sea. The brigade inflicted 500 casualties on the enemy in a brief fight south of Anju.

Moscow radio broadcast a North Korean war comunique saying the Reds are fighting on, but admitted withdrawals north of Pyongyang, until last week the Red capital of North Korea.

Sporadic fighting continued in scattered areas.

At Iri, on the northwest Korean coast, Red soldiers swept into the town after South Korean units had gone through. Reports said they killed a large number of civilians who had assisted the South Koreans.

South Korean units later returned to Iri and drove the Reds out.

South of the 38th parallel, bypassed Communist troops raided several towns. A Red unit at Yongwong still was using one artillery piece, four mortars and two anti-tank guns.

But the main North Korean force was reported pulling back near the Manchurian border into the Kanggye pocket, a triangular area southwest of the Yalu river frontier.

The South Korean 6th division was driving in that direction. The division Monday was reported officially to be two miles north of Huichon, a road centre 90 miles north of Pyongyang.

Brigade Musters 18 Men, 20 Women

St. John Ambulance Brigade will be assigned an important place in the civil defence program that is gradually taking shape, Mr. V. A. M. Kemp, C.B.E., Toronto, Provincial Commissioner, predicted to the members in the course of their inspection at the Salvation Army Temple Monday night.

The nursing division of the Brigade mustered 24 women members, and the ambulance division 18 men.

Mr. Kemp was accompanied by Miss Margaret MacLaren, Ottawa, Superintendent-in-Chief of the nursing division; Mrs. G. W. Blaikie, Toronto, provincial superintendent of Ontario nursing divisions.

Dr. J. S. Bell, Toronto, District Superintendent; Mrs. G. W. Anderson (R.N.), provincial nursing officer.

Miss Florence Vickers (R.N.) is superintendent of the women's division, and Harry Ferguson heads the ambulance division in Peterborough.

The members of the two division were commended for the proficiency they had shown.

YMCA Swimmers Show Improvement

Since the start of the fall season every regular member of the YMCA Swimming Club has shown decided improvement in backstroke times, Coach Gord Minty said today. The improvement averages over three seconds for each.

Ralph Wood won the weekly handicap swim Monday night in the 40-yards backstroke event. Three swimmers were close for the next positions with Donald Wood finally finishing second, John Boorman third and Scott Pearton fourth.

Improvements for the swim were made by Peter Wood, Ralph Wood, Donald Wood, Brian Bell, Harvey McFadyen, Scott Pearton and John Boorman.

Change Labels Of Drugs Porter Asks

TORONTO, Oct. 24 — (CP) — Attorney-General Porter said today he will ask the federal health department immediately to compel drug manufacturers to find a new way to label the anaesthetics nupercaine and novocaine.

He was commenting on a recommendation made by a Midland jury last night which found Julius Klepper, 65, died because he was given nupercaine instead of novocaine.

An official of the attorney-general's department, Eric Silk, in a report on the inquest that companies be required to market the two drugs under their official names. The official name of novocaine is procaine, although the jury was told last night it is sold under 19 different names.

Mr. Silk also recommended color matter be added to nupercaine. Both drugs are colorless and odorless but nupercaine is twice as strong and its effects last longer.

Mr. Porter also ordered an investigation of a similar case which he said occurred in Ontario in 1943. He said he wanted to check if the matter had been drawn to the attention of the federal authorities at that time.

500,000 Gather As Freedom Bell Rings In Berlin

BERLIN, Oct. 24 (AP). — The challenging tones of the freedom bell rang out for United Nations Day today in this "only spot of freedom behind the iron curtain."

The Communists tried frantically to drown out its voice. Within two miles of the dedication site they held a big demonstration. Angry Communist agitators denounced the bell as a" war bell, a hunger bell, a death bell."

But a crowd of nearly 500,000 Berliners—from both east and west sectors—jammed city hall square and overflowed into the by-streets.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, solemnly dedicated the bronze symbol, set in the 200-foot tower of West Berlin's City Hall, with this pledge:

"To resist aggression and tyranny wherever they appear on earth—that this world, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom."

The 10-ton bell's voice was relayed throughout the world by more than 2,000 radio stations.

The big bell, shipped from the U.S., transported by rail through the Soviet zone without incident, and installed in the flag-adorned city hall tower, was created through popular subscription in the U.S. under the sponsorship of the U.S. Crusade of Freedom which Clay heads.

French Air Force Strikes At Reds

SAIGON, Indo-China, Oct. 24 (AP)—The French air force struck hard today at Langson, big Indo-China border fortress abandoned by French troops last Wednesday.

A French military spokesman said the planes hit gasoline and oil tanks that the withdrawing troops had not been able to destroy. Ammunition and food stocks left behind by the French also were bombed, he said, to keep the Vietminh troops of Moscow-trained Ho Chi Minh from using them.

Began Friday

Reliable French sources said air attacks on the former French headquarters base began Friday.

The French garrison was ordered out of Langson abruptly before it could complete its demolition work.

The French spokesman reported that Vietminh attacks still are under way in the vicinity of Tienyen, key French post and supply centre in the middle of a new 100-mile-long frontier defence line.

Several French posts guarding Tienyen have been harrassed by Vietminh units.

Missing $38,000 Lost In Horse Betting

TORONTO, Oct. 24 — (CP) — Police said today that $38,000, stolen from a Toronto law firm, was lost betting on horses running at Ontario tracks last summer.

Manos, previously held as a material witness, was charged with theft when he appeared in court today. Bail was set at $10,000.

Miss Teasdale was arrested last week in Edmonton and returned to Toronto Sunday.

German Socialists Against Army Now

BONN, Germany, Oct. 24 (AP)—Western Germany's powerful Socialist party declared today that the German people should refuse to bear arms again until the western allies have formed a powerful army to face Soviet Russia on the Elbe River.

Socialist chairman Dr. Kurt Schumacher said his party would approve German remilitarization only if the western powers "couple their military fate to the military fate of Germany for an indefinite period."

The Social Democrats (Socialists) are Western Germany's second strongest political party.

Train Jumps Track No Passengers Hurt

BUFFALO, Oct. 24 (AP).—The Lackawanna Railroad's famed passenger train The Phoebe Snow, was derailed today at Delwood, near Buffalo.

No lives were lost.

An undetermined number of persons were injured, but only one, baggageman James A. Shaw, 65, of Elmira, was reported hurt seriously.

The cause of the accident was not learned immediately.

The Phoebe Snow was en route from Buffalo to New York City. The derailment occurred at 11:35 EDT.

One unit of the train's Diesel locomotive, three coaches and the baggage car were derailed. The baggage car tipped over.

The three other coaches remained on the track.

Industrials Sink On Exchange Papers In Lead

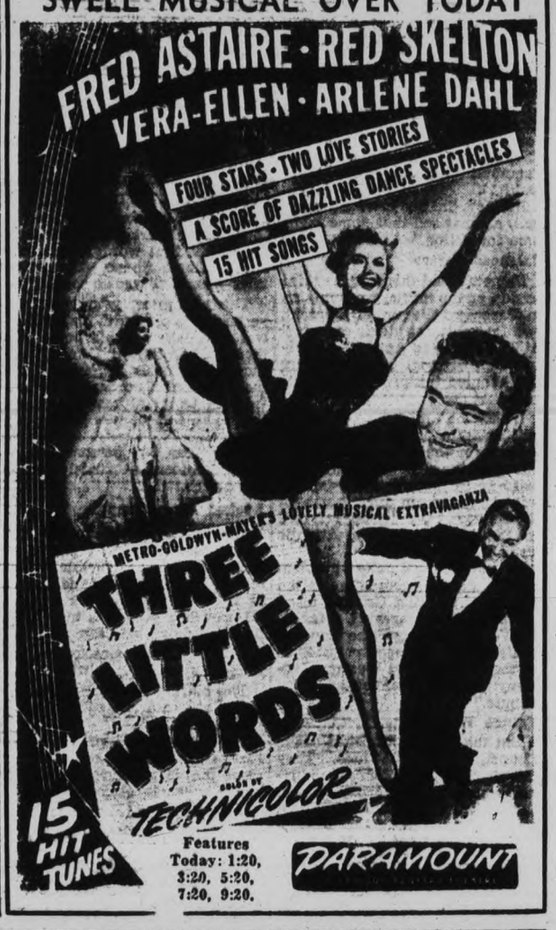
TORONTO, Oct. 24 (CP). — Industrials declined strongly as the session progressed on the Toronto Stock Exchange today.

After a mixed opening, industrials declined sharply by as much as a point. Losses more than doubled gains.

Papers led the decline with every issue but one. Bathurst Power, in the minus column. Utilities, steels agricultures, foods liquors, refining oils, banks, textiles, manufacturing companies and retail stores showed a majority of losses. Constructions were mixed.

Base metals were irregular. After starting strong in continuation of yesterday's good gains, they reversed their trend with losses up to $1. Consolidated Smelters, East Sullivan, Golden Manitou, International Nickel, Labrador, Noranda, Sherritt Gordon and Waite Amulet led the list down. MacDonald and Anacon copper were most active and made good gains.

Senior gold producers lost up to 20 cents. McIntyre bucked the trend for a 50 cent gain. Junior producers were quiet with only a few issues trading. Prices stayed in a narrow range.



Western oils sagged with losses up to 15 cents. Atlantic Oil, Calgary and Edmonton, Federal Petroleum, and Pacific Petroleum were among the many declines.

The exchange's 2 p.m. index showed industrials down 1.70 at 281.74, golds down .19 at 84.61, base metals down .41 at 153.33 and western oils down .91 at 86.38. Volume for the first three hours was 1,644,000 shares, about 226,000 shares more than the same period yesterday.

Tells Of Surveys In Far North

CAMPBELLFORD, Oct. 24 — (ENS) — Mr. Donald Gentleman of the staff of the Campbellford High School was guest speaker at the Monday noon luncheon of the Rotary Club. Mr. Gentleman gave a very interesting talk on geology and dealt with the explorations for gold and radium in the north section of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories.

On a government survey during the war, Mr. Gentleman described the workings of the Gieger counter, and told of the aerial surveys by the R. C. A. F.

Mr. Gentleman worked out of Goldfields when the town was deserted and could well be described as a ghost town. The town has recently been reopened and is once again the thriving spot it was a number of years ago.

Two guests at the luncheon were Mr. Wickens, who recently purchased Edgewater Park Pavilion in Campbellford, and Mr. Frank B. McCulloch, who is replacing Charles Calver as district supervisor of the LLB, followwing latter's promotion and appointment to Assistant Chief Inspector.

Each member present, at Monday's meeting was given a five dollar bill and told to bring back another of the same, besides the original, before Christmas. The members were told they could invest the money or do anything they saw fit, as long as it was legitimate. The ten dollars each member brings back will be used to help the club's crippled childrens' fund.

2-Year Council Term Issue For Sudbury

SUDBURY, Oct. 24 (CP). — In addition to electing the 1950 council in December, Sudbury voters will have two questions put to them in the annual civic election.

They will be asked to vote on a two-year term for city council to go into effect in 1952. Sudbury had one two-year term previously. When Mayor W. S. Beaton, still in office, was first elected in 1939, he held office for 1940 and 1941. After that voting returned to an annual basis.

Voters will also be asked if they want their ashes collected. Cost is estimated at $3.50 for residences and $4.50 a ton for business premises. Garbage, but not ashes, is collected here.

Roseblossom Not Little Stinker

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24—(AP)—A skunk peacefully snoozing in an apartment house kept a whole neighborhood in an uproar for more than an hour yesterday.

Somehow the little stinker got into an upper hallway for its nap. Everybody was afraid to go near. Even humane officer Joseph Conlin approached cautiously.

Finally someone noticed the skunk wore a collar with a little bell, decided it wasn't wild and charged it with a broom. It didn't counter-attack and was only terrified. Conlin caught it and took it to an animal shelter.

It developed that the skunk is a deodorized pet named "Roseblossom."

U.S. Survivor Phones Home

DETROIT, Oct. 24.—(AP). — The telephone rang at the Martin home in suburban Ferndale last night.

Mrs. Mildred Martin picked up the receiver.

"Japan calling," said the operator.

Then another voice — a voice that thrilled her—broke in:

"Hello, Mom. This is John. I'm okay except that I've lost a lot of weight—almost 40 pounds."

It was the first time the graying mother had heard from her soldier son since July 5 when he left California for Korea.

She cried for joy when she was told Sunday that Pte. John Martin, 18, was among the 21 American troops who survived a massacre by North Korean Communists of at least 68 Americans.

But she grew concerned as reports came in that some of the survivors were in a pitiful condition and might not live.

Her happiness was complete last night.

Income Tax Not A Reliable Guide?

The Department of National Revenue's collected taxation statistics for the year 1948 have now been published. There are some facts about Peterborough city and county income taxes which are startling, when collated with other statistics. Here are the figures for the county (including Peterborough city), and in the second line, figures for the city alone. We have added a third line, arrived at by subtracting the second from the first. This third line tells the shocking tale, for it tells the number of income tax payers in the county proper, their income and the tax they paid.

	Total Taxpayers	Their Income	Total Tax Paid
County & City	15,700	$36,897,000	$3,009,000
City Alone ..	13,790	32,921,000	2,746,000
County Alone	1,910	3,976,000	263,000

In other words, to put one interpretation on these figures, there were in 1948 only 1,910 persons in the whole county of Peterborough (excluding the city) who had sufficient income to be taxable. They paid only $263,000. And it should be remembered that among these 1,910 are several hundred—perhaps as many as 1,000 suburban dwellers—industrial managers, business men, professional men, factory workers and the like, who live out the Chemong or Lakefield roads, or in the nearby villages. And many of these workers paid taxes, deducted at source; there was no escape for them. That leaves only a few hundred farmers whose income was large enough to warrant their paying any tax.

Is this conclusive proof that Peterborough county farmers are poorly off, that the land is not profitable, their herds a liability, and their woodlots and lakeside land on which they rent cottages not paying propositions? All county dwellers, 21,641 of them in 1948, compared with 35,065 people living in the city, paid all told income tax of $263,000. (And the county people include persons working in the city, as we said before.) City people paid a total of $2,746,000 in income tax that year.

If this is the state of things, why should anybody bother to work on or run a farm, labouring ten or more hours a day, especially during the summer?

There is a brighter side to this Peterborough farm picture. It is hinted in the Provincial Treasurer's annual economic survey. In the year 1948 the value of the field crops produced in Peterborough county was $5,663,400. Why, that is nearly a million dollars more than the declared total income of all people who lived in the county in that year. Perhaps the value of the dairy products produced in the county, the value of the beef, hogs, hens, eggs, wood and so on would push that figure up to many millions more! It does seem that we should not take income tax figures as a reliable guide to the prosperity and income of our farming community. The farmers cannot be as hard up as the income tax figures show. After all, 1948 was a good year for cattle, and other agricultural products fetched quite fancy prices in 1948, almost as good as they now do.

Saved From The Gallows By Drunkenness

When sentencing William Clark to twenty years in prison for strangling a woman, Mr. Justice LeBel said last week in a Toronto court: "Drunkenness, in my mind, is the one condition that has saved you from the gallows". Clark is now 24; if he serves his full sentence he will only be 44 when he is released. It will be possible for him to live out the rest of his life in decency, and we hope that it may be so.

Nevertheless we feel compelled to point out that once more a man has been found innocent of murder, but guilty of manslaughter, because he was drunk when he took the life of another. And once again we ask if it is right that this should be so?

This newspaper, as its readers know, favours a wide degree of liberty in the sale and use of liquors. It also favours a wide degree of responsibility for his actions on the part of the citizen, and does not consider that drunkenness is an excuse for an action which would be reprehensible in a sober man. If a man drinks to the point where he is capable of murder, is his drunkenness to serve as an excuse when he stands trial for murder?

We are all responsible for our actions, drunk or sober. It is part of a man's duty, if it is his habit to drink to the point of drunkenness, to curb his indulgence. If he does not do so, and if drunkenness, allied with other elements in his character, eventually leads him to commit a murder, is he not responsible for that murder?

This is a question to which our lawmakers should give their attention, for it will be a scandal indeed if drunkenness should become the best and safest plea for a man charged with murder.

Sir Stafford Cripps In Retirement

Although Sir Stafford Cripps has been forced by the failure of his health to resign his post as Chancellor of the Exchequer and even to give up his seat in the Commons, a news report says that he has declined a peerage; this suggests that he hopes to recover his health and get back into active politics again. That attitude is characteristic of the courage which has marked his career.

Ill health is nothing new to Sir Stafford; he has been in the hands of a variety of healers for twenty years and more. His diet of vegetables, and even his curious stance and gait—copied by so many caricaturists—are evidence of a fragility which is entirely of the body. In circumstances which would have driven many men to a valetudinarian life, he has plunged into politics, bringing to his work there the same eagerness which brought him distinction at the bar and in the world of business.

His principal characteristic, apart from his courage, is his uncommon intelligence—an attribute which has more than once put him at odds with his party. No political party can contain, at all times and under every vicissitude, a man who is unfailingly logical in his thinking. Politics has been described as the art of the possible; it is also, at times, the art of the passable. At such times it is not for men of Cripps' cast of mind. Nevertheless, despite his disagreements with the Labour Party, he has been one of its leaders who has won real admiration outside party ranks.

As Chancellor of the Exchequer he has imposed a painful degree of austerity upon Britain, but the success of his method has shown that he understood completely what he was doing. He refused to buy a cheap popularity for his party by bad financing. Though Britain's position is still a difficult one it has achieved much that leads toward recovery, and the path before it is clear, insofar as this can be said of any nation at present. Much of the credit for these achievements must go to Sir Stafford Cripps. He retires with a fine record of duty done.

It Is Rising All Over

Canada, with the highest cost of living in her history, is not the only country suffering from post-war inflation of wages and prices and decreasing value of her currency. The International Labour Office reported this week that the cost of living has risen in 22 countries and dropped in only 12 during the year. It was up in Austria by 9 per cent; in Canada, Mexico and the Union of South Africa by 4 per cent; in Denmark 5 per cent; in India 6 per cent; in France and The Netherlands by 10 per cent; in Peru 11 per cent; in Finland 15 per cent; in Burma 19 per cent; and topping the list was Paraguay where the increase during the year was 55 per cent.

These increases do not tell a complete story for their comparative basis is the cost of living which obtained last year, and in some countries the figure was already extraordinarily high. There was a decline in the cost of living in Italy, but it was a decline from a very high level, and inflation has made itself felt there quite heavily. Other countries where a slight decline in the cost of living was noted are Belgium, British Honduras, Luxembourg and Switzerland.

Some countries which have already had serious inflationary trouble are shown to have got it under control: for instance, the cost of living dropped in Western Germany by 6 per cent, in Iran by 23 per cent, in Uruguay by 7 per cent. Strangely, in view of Israel's reported bad financial plight now, the cost of living in that country dropped during the year by 8 per cent.

Britain and the United States both showed increases in the cost of living of less than two per cent.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The one crop that bad weather never seems to affect is the autumn leaf crop.

As the Ottawa Citizen remarks, two may live as cheaply as one, but the real trouble is that nowadays it costs one as much to live as it used to cost half-a-dozen.

A woman recently travelled from Montreal to Vancouver in a taxi, at a cost of $2,400. Knowing women as we do, we wonder whether she gave the driver the customary ten-cent, or the Greatheart Special tip—fifteen cents.

Impressions Of Australia

By BERTRAND RUSSELL
(Celebrated British philosopher, mathematician and social publicist)

HAVING spent only ten weeks in Australia I am not in a position to say anything very profound about that continent. The most that I can do is to relate a traveller's impressions. Some of these impressions are likely to be mistaken, but there is one of which I am completely confident, and that is the general spirit of friendly kindness which met me everywhere and seemed to be a national characteristic. I had a general impression of a high level of diffused happiness. People seem to be more easy-going than in the United States. I felt that when their circumstances were fortunate they were able to sit down and enjoy them, whereas most Americans are so strenuously engaged in seeking a still better fortune, that they have no time to enjoy what they possess. There is a very general level of material prosperity; except among recent immigrants and aborigines there is hardly anything that can be called poverty. Except in the great cities, everybody is comfortable, as nobody is rich. Looking down from the air on the smaller country towns I felt as if I were in More's Utopia, where all the houses are exactly the same size, and built in exactly the same style.

I SUPPOSE other English people in Australia must feel, as I did, the delight of open spaces. In England you cannot move without jostling your neighbour unless you possess the wriggling dexterity of an eel. In Australia you can escape into vast empty spaces without the slightest difficulty. If you hate your fellow man you need never see him again. You communicate with him by radio and he drops your provisions by aeroplane. What could a misanthropist want more? And, as one might expect, there is hardly a single misanthropist to be found.

AUSTRALIA has an area of about three million square miles, and a population about equal to that of London. Western Australia, which is about a third of the whole continent, has only one person to every two square miles, which is about what is supposed have been the density of the human population of Africa five hundred thousand years ago. Oddly enough, although there is so much room, nearly half the total population is packed into Sydney and Melbourne. I have nothing to say against either of these great cities, but to a European the various remote regions are more interesting because they are more different from what he knows at home. One becomes interested in the ding-dong battle between sheep and rabbits, and in the fascinating problem of increasing the area of fertility. For a young man of energy and enterprise, Australia is ideal because there are things to be done which are difficult, but not impossible, and victories over nature to be achieved by a combination of imagination and hard work. ✧ ✧ ✧

EVEN the happiest of men has his secret fears which infest his slumbers with nightmares. There are two nightmares that haunt the imagination of Australians. One is the possibility of synthetic wool, the other the dread of invasion from Asia. Concerning synthetic wool I have nothing to say, since the subject lies quite outside my scope. When one reflects, however, that in Australia there are fifteen times as many sheep as human beings, one can see the seriousness of the menace. The fear of Asia has dominated the imagination of Australians ever since the early months of 1942, when the Northern regions were evacuated owing to the imminent expectation of Japanese landings. It is only necessary to look at the map and to reflect that India and China contain a hundred times as many people as Australia contains, to realize that any kind of Asian imperialism would make it difficult to maintain Australia as a white man's country. The only long run defence must be a great increase of population, and this in turn is only possible by means of vast public works. There are admirable schemes for sending rivers through tunnels so as to make them flow by long routes westward through dry country, instead of (as now) by short routes eastward through country already sufficiently watered. There are large regions in the North which are capable of development, but which have so far been retarded by a doubt as to whether white men can perform physical labours in the tropics without injury to health. From the little that I saw of the hotter parts of Australia, I should judge that such fears are groundless, for the diseases that we associate with the tropics are almost wholly absent, even in the hottest parts of Australia.

RURAL development in Australia faces difficulties which did not exist in the United States a hundred years ago when the West was being conquered. In the parts of the United States that were being developed at that time, water and timber were abundant. The pioneer could build his own log cabin and had little need of large-scale assistance by the State. In Australia the matter is otherwise. Only by vast public expenditure can new areas be made fertile, and in the absence of timber the expense of housing is necessarily very great. The pioneer in Australia has a mentality very similar to that of the American pioneer of a hundred years ago. He wishes to be a "rugged individualist" dependent upon his own efforts, and asking only freedom for his own initiative. But the physical circumstances of the country make this impossible. Estates are measured, not in acres, but in square miles. The population is necessarily so sparse that the expense of roads per head is enormous. When a child becomes ill on a lonely station, the doctor is summoned by radio, and comes out on a plane. But for this admirable organization, the child would probably be dead before the doctor's arrival. Almost everything that pioneers need has to be supplied by means of expensive organization, which is most naturally undertaken by the Government. I do not know any other part of the world where progress is so intimately dependent upon a combination of science with public enterprise. Coolgardie, a great gold-mining centre, gets all its water through a pipe four hundred miles long, because there is practically no water at any lesser distance.

OWING to such physical difficulties, increase of population in the rural parts of Australia requires a very considerable expenditure of taxation, so it is not surprising if people who are already prosperous feel inclined to go slow in setting aside money that they might enjoy, in order to settle strangers on remote regions. I think it would be difficult to overcome such natural reluctance, but for the fact that only a large population can make Australia safe. This fact is very generally appreciated, and influences public policy.

AS a scientific problem, the increase of the fertile area of Australia is a fascinating subject. I have no doubt that in time methods will be found by which the greater part of the country will be able to support a considerable population, without permitting any lowering in the standard of life. Such a development is immensely to be desired. Europe is over-populated, and Australia is under-populated. Europe needs what Australia can produce, and Australia, until it has a large population, will be something of a military liability to America, as in the last war. Australia, as I said before, is a happy country, and for a long time to come an increase of population will bring an increase of happiness. For all these reasons, national and international, rural development is the most important problem with which Australia has to deal.

Mr. Abbot Goes On Spending

(OTTAWA JOURNAL)

THE Ottawa correspondent of the Montreal Gazette is doing a fine job of digging into the public accounts and showing that despite pledges of retrenchment and "rigorous" economy outside of defence needs the Government actually is increasing expenditure in practically all of its departments. In August—two months after the "rigorous economy" promise—12 government departments were spending money at a faster rate than during the pre-Korean month of 1949. Indeed, since the economy drive was launched, ordinary government expenses, far from being reduced, have mounted by close to $30,000,000.

Arthur Meighen once remarked that if he had an objective close to his heart the worst fate he could fear for it would be that it might become a Liberal promise.

That, apparently, is what has happened to the thing that should be near to all our hearts, namely, a lessening of Government extravagance. We have Mr. Abbott's promise, made solemnly to the House of Commons, that retrenchment apart from peace spending would come; what has come instead is heavier spending in nearly every peace department.

Inflation has come to this country. Yet what we are witnessing is the spectacle of the Government, either without awareness or a sense of responsibility, going on in a reckless expenditure which accelerates inflation. The Government asks the public to save; asks it—so that inflation may be checked—to buy war savings certificates. The Government, at the same time, refuses to do what it asks the public to do—makes itself through spending the chief offender in promoting inflation.

Let none of us mistake the consequences of such spending. By giving the green light to inflation the Government is:

1. Imposing hardship if not misery upon hundreds of thousands of families which must get along under fixed incomes;

2. Imposing equal hardship upon hundreds of "white collar" workers who do not share in the increases that go to workers belonging to unions.

3. Decreasing the value of every insurance policy held in this country.

4. Taking away from the value of every pension paid to pensioners, many of whom already find it all but impossible to get along on such pensions.

This—the inflation peril—is the greatest problem before this country at this time. Yet the Government, far from showing capacity to face it and try to deal with the danger, actually acts to increase it, revealing either an incompetence, an indifference, or a recklessness, or perhaps a combination of all, which is incomprehensible.

Pretty nearly time the public awakened to the danger and tried, by some means, to do something about it. For there comes a time on the inflation front when it is too late.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not....Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness: then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom.

His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth: he shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness. (Job 33: 14, 22-26.)

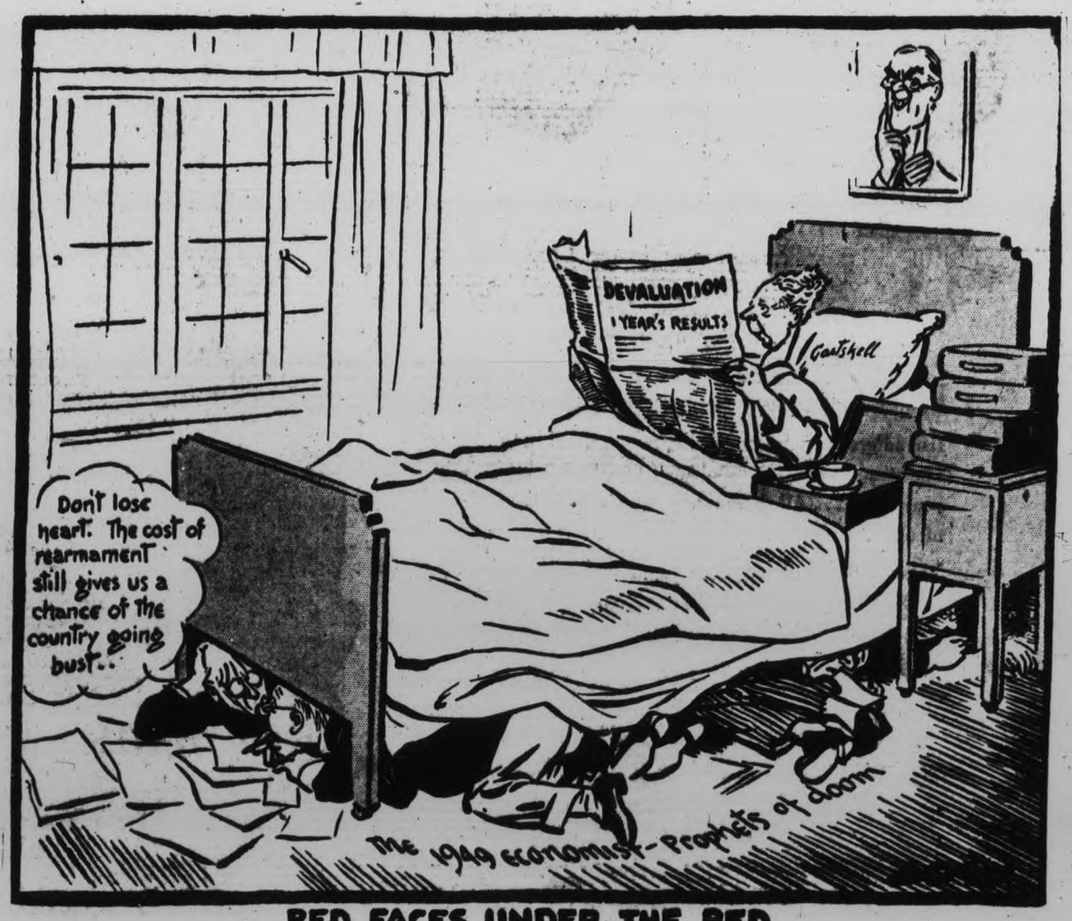
Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms....And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. (James 5: 13, 15.)

Letter To The Editor

PREJUDICE IN SPORTS

Sir: I have been a follower of the Orfuns this year and have been present at all their home games and most of their away games. I have also read your write ups and editorials on them and I'm sorry to say you are quite misleading in your reports.



In all the games I've seen this year there has been one player who outshone every player on the field, that being Frank Fitzgerald. For some reason, probably jealousy or prejudice of some kind, you have yet to honour him with a star rating or even honourable mention.

Some of the players you have been starring is an indication that you are prejudiced or know nothing about sports.

Thanking you for space in your valued paper.

I remain,
OBSERVER.

ED. NOTE: Our correspondent must have overlooked several reports in which we have praised Mr. Fitzgerald's good work.

RED FACES UNDER THE BED

Israel's Economic Crisis Not Near A Solution, Pound Value As Low As 80 Cents

By LARRY ALLEN

TEL AVIV, Israel, —(AP)— Israel's current economic crisis seems a long way from solution.

Circulation of currency is still climbing. Israelis are continuing to buy up anything they can lay their hands on. The value of the Israeli pound, officially $2.80 (US), is down to about 80 cents in the black market.

The dollar rates high because it is extremely scarce and is hard to find in any black market in Israel. The government keeps a close check on all dollars brought into this country. Therefore, it is difficult to find anyone who has dollars to sell that are not listed in his passport and must be officially accounted for upon leaving the country.

Circulation of Israeli currency has maintained a steady rise the last three months. It has particularly spurted upward within the last four weeks.

It is not unusual to read weekly government treasury reports and find that as much as $7,000,000 or $8,000,000 more in currency has been thrown into circulation in a seven-day period.

Still, the minister of finance insists there is no inflation and that the wave of withdrawals from banks and the panic buying splurge by Israelis is unjustified.

Circulation of Israeli money has jumped over an equivalent of $40,000,000 in a 90-day period.

Even the long Jewish New Year holidays in mid-September, when just about every business place was closed, failed to halt a rise in currency circulation.

Ths total money in use recently reached an all-time peak of $195,-160,000.

The question many Israelis are now asking is: "How high can it go?"

Consistent Decline

Along with the steady rise in circulation, the Israeli treasury's foreign exchange holdings, partly backing money in use, just as consistently show a decline.

In the week ended Sept. 14, they dropped another 400,000 pounds ($1,120,000). These holdings now are listed at 16,196,238 pounds ($45,548,666.40).

Such items as government land bills are rising. They now stand at 28,843,000 pounds ($80,760,-000). Treasury bills are following a similar course. They now total 24,660,000 pounds ($68,048,000).

The foreign exchange holdings, government land bills, and treasury bills account for the 69,704,-238 Israeli pounds ($195,160,000) now in circulation.

Israelis reflect a lack of confidence in their own currency. That's the reason they are buying up everything they can find, whether they need it or not. They prefer something more solid than the paper pound note.

They're influenced, too, about reports from abroad that the Israeli pound brings only 75 cents in Paris, just a little more in Rome, but still is hard to use.

Neither have Israelis, despite the government's denunciation of "false rumors," liked reports in the Swiss press that the government here intended to freeze bank accounts and compel loans to the state. Along with all of this, one foreign airline operating into Israel has stopped selling tickets for Israeli currency.

The government says it's going to solve the economic crisis, and corrective steps are under way. Most of these, however, whatever they are, have not yet been brought to public light. The government has announced it is floating a £6,000,000 popular loan issue to drain away some of the Israelis' surplus cash as an "anti-inflation measure."

Darts League Formed At The Legion

The Legion Dart League was organized last week and will operate each Thursday evening, starting at eight, through the winter on the top floor of the Legion Hall. Frank Bell, chairman of the Legion recreation committee has five new boards with plywood backgrounds, metal toe lines and spot lights focussed on each target.

The league consists of eight teams: Selkirk's, Hatton Bros., Gannon Electric, Millard's, Silver Moon, Wigley Transport, Kawartha Garage, and Calladine Taxi. There will be eight uniformed players to a team, and one or two teams may play outside Legion branches in challenge games. Anyone interested in forming a City Dart League should contact the general manager, Jack Rogers at the League. Charlie Telford is chairman of the dart committee, with Albert Clark the secretary-treasurer. Ald. Hurrell Dodds officially opened the dart season.

The opening night of play saw Silver Moons, Hatton's, Gannon's and Wigley's winning two games and losing one. Selkirk's, Kawarthas, Millard's and Calladine's each had one victory and two reverses. The league operates under National Dart Association rules as drawn up in the Old Country.

F-O-O-T-B-A-L-L

By DON GRANT

A football player who can punt, place kick or drop kick is an asset to any team. He can not only help on the defensive play but also the offensive.

The key to success for kickers is good blocking by his teammates. Most local kickers require too much time to prepare themselves to kick the ball. The line and backfielders cannot hold the opposition back and it smothers the kicker. Many good kickers are good, thanks to the blocking. When they play with a poor blocking team, they are too slow getting the kick away.

The place kick, the easiest method to kick the ball, is proving to be the downfall of the local teams. Very few of the local kickers can kick a placement for more than 35 to 40 yards. Many Americans would laugh when they see this short kick. Cleveland Browns had several players last year who from the kickoff would boot the ball in the air over the deadball line.

The method is: a kicker's teammate holds the ball on its end with only a 15 degree angle towards the kicker; after two and a half steps the kicker's toe should meet the ball at its midway point resulting in an end-over-end flight. The power should come entirely from the kicker's leg and not the whole body. Just as a hockey player follows through on a shot or pass, the kicker should have a follow-through. The ball in this way will not curve sharply but head straight in the desired direction.

The place kick is seen all the time on the kickoff, often on the convert attempt and on field goals for three points.

The kickoff provides the kicker with the longest time to kick the ball. On the convert attempt and the field goal time is scarce especially if the blocking is poor. The snap from the centre should be long and not more than a foot and a half off the ground. Preferably a calm, cool player should place the ball because he is the key to success. If he fails to place the ball or misplaces it, the result will be a dismal failure.

AT THE BROCK TONIGHT —Yukon Eric, above, who clashes with Lee Henning in the main bout at the Brock tonight. The semi-final will feature Pat Flanagan against the new Masked Marvel and the opener has Bobbie Nelson tangling with Abe Zvonkin. A stellar card that rates a big turnout of mat fans.

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

Joe Louis is "not particularly interested in a return match" with heavyweight boxing champion Ezzard Charles.

The Brown Bomber said in Louisville yesterday that the chief reason for his forthcoming bout with Caesar Brion of Chicago is to prove to himself that he can still hold his own with the best of them.

Louis, who is en route to West Baden, Indiana, to train for the Nov. 29 fight, said he believes he would have no trouble getting another fight with Charles if he can win three or four bouts in the meantime.

But, he added, "I may quit before I get another bout with Charles. If I can see that I'm back to where I think I can hold my own against the best of them that may be enough."

The name of the Kansas City Club in the United States Hockey League was changed again yesterday—this time to the Kansas City Royals.

It is the seventh change in the club's name.

Kansas City's first team back in 1928 was called the Kansas City Pla-Mors. Then it was changed to Greyhounds, the Americans, and again the Pla-Mors. Last season it was the Mohawks. When this season started it was the Cowboys.

Each fan at last Saturday's Milwaukee-Kansas City game was given a ballot, and most of them voted for the Royals.

Joe (The Toe) Aguirre picked up one point Saturday at Winnipeg to give the Blue Bomber placement-kicking ace the Western Interprovincial Football Union scoring title this season.

His closest rival for the crown — Saskatchewan Roughriders' Jack Hartman—sat out the game.

Aguirre will gain possession of the Dave Dryburgh memorial trophy, emblematic of the scoring crown, for one year and will be given a miniature replica.

Statistics show Aguirre wound up with 57 points, four more than Hartman.

Tom Casey, Winnipeg halfback, finished third with 46 points. Mike King, Edmonton backfielder, was fourth with 45.

Jones Of Cats Breaks Record Leads Scoring

TORONTO, Oct. 24 (CP). — At the record-smashing rate Edgar (Special Delivery) Jones is scoring points for Hamilton Tiger-Cats in the Big Four Football Union, he may wind up the scheduled season two weeks from now with more than 100 points.

Statistics compiled by The Canadian Press show that the 12 points the former member of the professional Cleveland Browns scored Sunday brought his season's total to 84 in 10 games, seven points better than the modern record in the four-team league.

The previous high of 77 in 12 games was set last year by Virgil Wagner of Montreal Alouettes, also an American import. Wagner, who came from Belleville, Ill., to join the Alouette in the 1946 season, has 55 points in his 10 games this season to stand third in the current rankings.

Curtis Second

Second place is held by an American Negro halfback with Toronto Argonauts, Ulysses Curtis, a former star with Florida A. and M.

Bill Cregus, Wake Forest College product, who plays with the Tiger-Cats, ranks fourth with 45.

Top Canadian-born player is Nick Volpe, defensive half and placement kicker for the Argos. Volpe has 38 points on a placement kick and 35 converts.

Canadian-born Johnny Chorostecki still leads the Ontario Rugby Football Union scorers. Held to one point over the weekend, the Sarnia Imperials' half now has 80 points in seven games, a record total for recent years in his union. The previous modern high was 60, set two years ago.

Galbreath Leads

An American holds second place in the ORFU — Carl Galbreath from North Carolina State College who has scored 35 points for Toronto Balmy Beach.

In the Intercollegiate Union, veteran Bob McFarlane of the University of Western Ontario Mustangs has pulled into a first place tie with Fred Wilmot, a Calgary product with McGill Redmen. Each has scored 18 points. Harry Irving, another McGill player from Calgary, is third with 15.

May's Capture Title In The Junior Loop

May's school team completed their schedule Monday afternoon when they played Prince of Wales in their last game of the season, on Prince of Wales grounds and both failed to score throughout the whole period. Therefore May's wins the league championship of the junior division, with seven points; and Grove next with six points, with the former having 12 goals and the latter nine.

In the first half May's held their opponents off the score sheet but in the second period the Southend boys failed to take advantage of their combination plays through over anxiousness. Best for the winners were brothers Hill and brothers Clark; for the losers, Downer, Donaldson and Daynes.

Prince of Wales—B. Hatton, goal; B. Donaldson and D. Drummond, full backs; J. Thompson, B. Johnson and G. Curvin, half backs; G. Curry, T. Downer, T. Davis, G. Billingsley and E. Daynes, forwards; subs., I. Patterson, F. Shaw, E. Trotter, H. Owens.

May's—B. Griffin, goal; D. Hill and J. Hill, full backs; P. Robbins, R. Marshall and K. Collins, half backs; R. Oliver, C. Clark, K. Clark, B. Wells, E. White, forwards; subs., R. Buckton, G. Marchen, G. Park, J. Chambo, T. Grant, W. Todd.

Referee—Mr. Olmstead.

Grove Wins

Q.A.-Q.E. juniors went down to defeat by a 2-0 count, Monday afternoon, to Grove School eleven in King Edward Park, to take second position in the standing with six points.

Right from the beginning the Northenders were more aggressive until the interval; when Grove forwards reverted to punting the ball into goal where Simmons opened the scoring to be followed by Copping to make it 2-0.

Q.A.-Q.E.—Rea, goal; R. Tucker and G. Harrison, full backs; C. Nicholls, R. Reid and E. Lymburner, half backs; W. Hamilton, F. Perry, K. Orgill, C. Olmstead, and D. Jackson, forwards; subs., R. McFaddean.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

By CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Dr. Cliff McKee and his bonspiel committee had hoped to run off a whizz-bang of a curling 'spiel in Peterborough as part of the centennial sports program. Planned it for late November or early December. However, Lindsay got in ahead to get the better dates for a bonspiel, so now the big one here has been arranged for Jan. 22-23-24. Yes, the first time in the history of the local curling club that a 'spiel longer than one day has been offered. It is likely to be a big success and may become an annual event. Four trophies up, the Ostrander, G. K. Fraser, Eaton and Morrow.

We're told that the first 32 rinks will be accepted and already entries are coming in from topnotch curlers from as far away as Kitchener and Pembroke. With seven sheets of artificial ice, four games each will be assured in this competition. It's not a small affair, at all, as the fee is 12 simoleons a rink, but excellent prizes valued at $700 provide the answer. Prizes include watches, luggage, clocks, mirrors, etc., with a big time promised and fine entertainment at the conclusion. Out-of-town curlers (and this will be copied) who want hotel reservations should contact Dr. C. McKee, 355 George St., Peterborough.

Advice To Athletes

As a Sports College service, we have a release concerning an interview with Archie Campbell, trainer for the NHL Leafs. He says: "Athletes should do plenty of stretching, flexibility and relaxation work, because the bunchy-muscled, brittle type of boy is the most easily injured. Most injuries occur when the athlete is tired or early in the game because he hasn't done sufficient warming up." Bruises, abrasions, sprains and strains were the types of injuries most often encountered by the Leaf trainer. He claims the well-conditioned athlete is less likely to get injured but, when he does, the injury is usually less severe and he recovers quickly.

Bob Greenlaw is playing hockey this season for the RCAF in the Eastern Canada League. It has Ottawa Army, North Bay, Hull Volants and Cornwall in there, too. The Fliers have won three so far and are second to North Bay by a few percentage points. Beat Army the other eve at Ottawa by a 4-2 score in a rugged scrap, and Greenlaw scored one and assisted on two more. No wonder the Airmen wanted Bob so badly! A great winger with a real scoring punch — he'd have made the difference for Legion over Brantford in provincial finals last spring—Bob joined up at his officer's rank from the second world war. And the RCAF got all the best of it.

Rules For PMHA-ers

At the PMHA meeting last eve, Ed Faux dealt for a space on rule changes, while Earl Druery discussed refs and protests. The latter entail a fee of $5.00, and a committee will be set up to deal with kicks. OHA scoresheets will be used at all games, with duplicates filed by the secretary. Players' certificates will not be considered complete until the injury waiver form is signed. More on this again. Teams may draw from the surrounding district within reason, and play will start before the middle of November, probably the second Thursday. These practice periods were arranged from 7.30 to 8.30 a.m.: Oct. 25—Marines midgets; Oct. 26—SPS bantams; Oct. 27—Bradley's midgets; and Oct. 30-31 and Nov. 1—Trojan teams. These teams should clip this.

Let's see the grid setup. Orfuns may see action here Saturday aft in ORFU intermediate "B" playdowns. It'll be decided on tonight. PCVS seniors wind up their district playoffs in Oshawa the end of the week. There's a Catholic Conference senior "B" tussle slated for the Oval at 2.30 Saturday afternoon between St. Mike's and St. Peter's. The latter can tie for top spot with a victory at this time.

St. Peter's Get Grid Win In Junior "B"

Johnny Lynch's St. Peter's High School Juniors trounced the PCVS thirds 38-6 Monday afternoon at the Oval. This win allowed them to jump into a first-place tie with Cobourg High in the Lakeshore Junior "B" league.

Cobourg and SPS each have three wins and one loss while the PCI'ers finished the schedule without a win in four starts. The deciding game of this bracket will be played Wednesday afternoon in a neutral city. The victor in this game will advance to a series with the victors of the other junior "B" league, Whitby High.

A poor offence ruined the PCI'ers game throughout. Their line held but costly fumbles in the backfield, high snaps, and blocked kicks lost ground for them. SPS, except for several fumbles, were strong on the ground attack led by Dick Foley, Murray Byrne and fast-footed Bob O'Rourke.

Finally Scored

Evidence that the green PCI'ers are picking up the sport was seen in the first quarter, Frank McGillen kicked well behind the PCVS goal-line where Jim Hendry, a newcomer, returned the ball out to the PCVS 18. The ball was fumbled. A PCVS trio, Bob Keating, Gary Kearns and Maurice Parry, kicked the ball to the SPS eight where Parry fell on it. After a plunge by Batley, he passed to Gary Kearns for the touch. Batley passed to Eastwood for the extra point.

This TD tied the count for SPS had scored from the kickoff. Plunges by Dick Foley, Frank McGillen and Murray Byrne carried the ball from the SPS 45 to the PCVS nine where John Hickey crossed on a sneak play. McGillen kicked the extra.

They followed up with two more in the second. The first came on an intercepted pass at the PCVS 38 by Bob Fitzgerald. He raced the distance easily for the major. McGillen again made the convert attempt good. Foley earned the third touchdown as he crossed near the end of the half, his plunges previous carrying the ball up the field. This time the convert attempt failed.

Added It Up

SPS sent the score to 23-6 in the third when Bob O'Rourke with a nifty display of footwork crossed over the right end. McGillen added the extra point.

A short kick gave SPS possession in the fourth on the PCVS 25. Dick Foley zipped around left end for the touchdown which went unconverted. Bob O'Rourke pulled in a PCVS pass at the centre stripe minutes later and jogged the 55 yards for a major again unconverted.

With the flag up, Foley plunged for 12, Bob McCormick passed to McGillen to the PCVS 15, and Foley went over standing up off-tackle. The pass attempt was uncompleted to make the final score 38-6.

Line-ups:

SPS—flying wing, Fitzgerald; halves, Foley, Byrne, McGillen, quarter, Hickey; centre, Crough; insides, Hickson, Kirkley; middles, Clark, Hull; outsides, O'Connell, Legros; alternates, McCormick, Gooley, LeBarr, Taylor, Simmons, O'Brien, Ferren, O'Rourke, McDougal, Kingdon, Chretien, Corkery.

Track Wolves

REGINA, Sask — (CP) — Saskatchewan government field officers have been asked to pin-point trails over which marauding timber wolves now are passing. The game branch hopes with this information to get the jump on the wolves who take heavy toll of game and fur-bearing animals each winter.

Al Jolson's Fabulous Career Known By All

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 24—(AP)—Everyone has his own memories of Al Jolson.

Those who knew Broadway in the lush days can recall when his winter garden shows were the toast of the town. Others remember when he flickered across the screen in "The Jazz Singer"—and the Mammy singer became the film's first voice.

He was often in the news. Such as when he popped Walter Winchell at the ringside of Hollywood Legion stadium. It was over something the columnist was supposed to have written about Ruby Keeler, then Mrs. Jolson.

My memories of Jolson don't go back that far. I first met him at the birth of his second career—the filming of "The Jolson Story." Then half-forgotten by a large part of the public, he hoped the picture would be "a Jewish 'Going My Way.'"

"I don't know why I'm hanging around; I'm not getting paid for it," he said. "But I'm supposed to give some pointers to a young man who's playing me. Now how can I remember? It's been a long time."

The picture grossed $8,000,000, surprising everyone — except Jolson.

Like New Man

He was like a new man. He had always billed himself as "the world's greatest entertainer," and he believed it. But the public's apathy to his talents in the late 1930s and early 1940s had hurt him. With "The Jolson Story" he was bigger than ever, and he enjoyed every minute of it.

After drawing the highest pay of any guest star in radio, he settled down to his own show, at $5,500 a week. But two years ago he gave it up, declaring radio was in a "stagnant situation." Would he try television?

"That's not for me," he replied, telling of a friend who "looked like a piece of camembert cheese" on TV. But he added:

"One thing is sure—I wouldn't retire. This is no town to retire in. I'd go nuts."

And he didn't retire. He supervised another successful film biography, kept making records and radio appearances, visited his office daily and played benefits.

Here Comes Jolie

Then came the trip to Korea. He was proud of having been the first big name to entertain overseas in the Second World War and offered his services the day after the Communists crossed the 38th parallel.

"Better get Loew's Pusan ready, because here comes Jolie," he said.

Jolson always talked in a breezy, rattling style. But when I spoke to him on his return he sounded tired. He was discouraged about the far east situation. About the American troops, he said, "they're only babies."

A week before his death, Jolson signed to star in a picture about the USO (United Services Organization). It was a fabulous deal, one befitting "the world's greatest entertainer."

Richard, Sloan Top NHL Scorers, Montreal Leads

MONTREAL, Oct. 24 (CP).—A couple of sharp-shooting right wingers—Maurice Richard of the Montreal Canadiens and Tod Sloan of Toronto Maple Leafs—are trying to nudge each other from atop the National Hockey League scoring parade.

Richard, long a familiar name among the circuit's leading scorers, and Sloan, in his sophomore year with Toronto, are tied with seven points apiece. Each has netted four goals—most in the league—while assisting on three others.

Canadiens Tops

The scoring power of the two shows also in the standing of their respective teams. Canadiens, with six games already played in the infant 1950-1951 season, hold first place with three wins, one loss and two tie games for eight points. Only one point behind are the Maple Leafs with three wins, one loss and one tie game.

Next in the standing come the Detroit Red Wings with two victories, one loss and one tie game for five points. They are followed by Chicago Black Hawks and New York Rangers with three points each. Boston Bruins are in last place with two tie games in four tries.

Tied for second spot in the league scoring with five points are: Max Bentley, Toronto, Cal Gardner, Toronto, Gordie Howe, Detroit, and Ted Kennedy, Toronto.

Kennedy's five assists lead the league in this department.

Gelineau Record

Jack Gelineau, who won the rookie-of-the-year award last season with Boston, leads the goalkeepers. The Beantown netminder has allowed five goals in four games for an average of 1.25 goals. He has scored one shutout—a scoreless tie with Rangers' Chuck Rayner.

Rookie Gerry McNeil of Canadiens and veteran Turk Broda of Maple Leafs each has two shutouts to his credit — best in the league.

Fern Flaman of Boston is the most penalized player with 21 minutes in the cooler.

Track Defies Suspension Remains Open

CHICAGO, Oct. 24 — (AP). — Officials of Sportsman's Park today ordered "business as usual" in face of a suspension slapped on the race track by the Thoroughbred Racing Association.

The current meeting at the half-mile suburban Cicero plant ends November 11. Officials are confident the track will be open for many years to come.

The TRA yesterday in a New York meeting blacklisted Sportsman's for "questionable actions of officers and employees."

Track officials blame "adverse newspaper publicity" for touching off the suspension.

After conferring last night with William H. Johnston, Sportsman's president, one of the track directors in Chicago said:

Won't Close

"The suspension will not affect us whatsoever. The TRA is going on nothing but adverse newspaper publicity. A lot of tracks don't belong to the association (the TRA claims a membership of 37) and you certainly don't have to shut down just because you dont' belong. The TRA has no jurisdiction over the track, horse owners or trainers."

Johnston earlier had said from Jacksonville that he had received no official notification of the TRA's action.

Surprise

"It comes as a complete surprise," he asserted. "Therefore I cannot comment on it. There will be racing as usual."

Jurisdiction of the track falls with the Illinois Racing Board. Chairman Stuyvesant Peabody, Jr., said this group does not plan immediate action on the TRA suspension.

The TRA, of which Sportsman's is a chartered member, was organized in 1942 "to improve thoroughbred horse racing" and to protect the public interest "by the elimination of all undesirable practices and elements from thoroughbred horse racing."

Payoff or Loan?

The group's action yesterday was the first of its kind ever taken. The group did not elaborate on the couse for suspension.

However, the Kefauver Senate Committee studying crime recently quizzed two men connected with the track. The committee said it had evidence that Paul (The Waiter) Ricca, paroled Al Capone gangster, was able to borrow $80,000 from Hugo Bennett of Miami, Fla. Bennett is auditor for Johnston at Sportsman's and Miami tracks.

Kefauver said his committee strove to learn whether the $80,000 was an actual loan or a payoff by the race track operators to a syndicate mob.

Belleville Redmen Acquire New Coach

BELLEVILLE, Oct. 24—Manager Dave Stevenson of the Belleville Redmen, local OHA senior representatives, announced Monday that Flying Officer Maurice Gobeil has been appointed coach for the coming season. The new coach played most of his hockey in and around Montreal and with RCAF teams in Canada and England. Last year, he was one of the standout performers with the Trenton Flyers in the Belleville and district hockey league and later with the No. Six Repair Depot Repairmen in the OHA Intermediate "A" division.

England, Australia Tie In Cricket Match

PERTH, Australia, Oct. 24 — (Reuters) — The English cricket tourists' opening first-class game of their Australian tour ended in a draw here today against Western Australia.

Left to get 320 runs to win in just less than three hours, Western Australia started as though going for the runs, but after losing three wickets for 50 they were content to play for a draw.

Final scores in the four-day match were: English Tourists first innings 434 for nine wickets declared, second innings 121 for three declared. Western Australia first innings 236 and second innings 207 for four.

WRESTLER GETS DECISION

Georges Hackenschmidt, 74, onetime champion wrestler whose prodigious feats shook the sports world at the beginning of the century, was awarded £300 ($885) damages in London Monday for libel.

Hackenschmidt, of the 52-inch chest and 18-inch biceps, sued a now-defunct British magazine, News Review, for saying he had lost a fight 40 years ago when it had really ended in a draw.

The bout was in the old Madison Square Garden, New York. Hackenschmidt's opponent was Stanislav Zbysco.

Bisons' Line Leads American Scoring

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 (AP).—Buffalo Bisons' high-scoring line of Ab Demarco, Paul Meger and Grant (Knobby) Warwick dominates the American Hockey League's individual scoring race.

Demarco leads the field with 16 points. Meger is second with 13 and Warwick and Cincinnati's Jackie Gordon are tied for third place with 13 points each. Gordon led the parade a week ago.

Demarco, Ken Hayden of Springfield, Arnie Kullman of Hershey and Les Douglas of Cleveland are tied for the lead in goals at seven each. Warwick tops the playmakers with 10 assists. Ray Gariepy, Hershey defenceman, is the league's "bad man" with 27 minutes in the penalty box.

Gil Mayer, young goalie for Pittsburgh Hornets, sports the best record among the goal-keepers. Mayer has allowed 10 goals in five games for a 2.00 goals-against mark. Emil (The Cat) Francis of Cincinnati has turned in the lone shutout.

Q.S.H. PLAYOFF RULES

Final playoff for the Quebec Senior Hockey League title will be a best-of-nine series, league officials announced Monday night after a meeting in Montreal.

Six of the seven teams will be in the post-season round. The rounds will be divided into three sections, series "A," between first and fourth position teams, will be a best-of-nine contest. Series "B" (second and fifth) and series "C" (third and sixth) will be best-of-seven affairs.

Return Players Or We Quit —Quebec League

MONTREAL, Oct. 24 (CP). — There was feudin' and fussin' and fightin' between east and west today in the Canadian hockey picture.

Yesterday the Quebec Amateur Hockey Association and its big, powerful subsidiary, the Quebec Senior Hockey League, angrily threatened to walk out of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association unless the CAHA gives back a couple of defencemen who went west.

The players—Larry Zeidel and Bill Heindl—are veteran QSHL players who this year jumped to Saskatoon Quakers of the Western Canada League. The CAHA promptly suspended them—but later gave them to the prairie team.

The QSHL wants them back.

May Withdraw

Saturday the QAHA executive committee unanimously declared that the association "will consider withdrawal from the CAHA for good and sufficient reasons" if the players aren't returned to the teams they played for last year.

The QSHL followed up the action last night with a meeting at which league president George Slater said: "The league will consider no other decision by the CAHA than to reverse its original ruling. We want the case re-opened."

The next move is up to CAHA president Doug. Grimston in New Westminster, B. C., but it may be several days before he answers by mail the QAHA wire. The Saskatoon club had no comment last night.

Told To Clean Up Offices

QUEBEC, Oct. 24 — (CP) — Canada's weekly newspaper publishers must grab a broom and sweep away the old idea of dingy plants with cluttered desks and equipment, Roy M. Bean, of Waterloo, president of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association, said last night.

Weekly newspapers won't survive in the present age of efficiency unless they are efficient themselves, he told the CWNA convention here.

Mr. Bean recommended that weeklies adopt a three-point program.

1. Organize themselves;
2. Organize employees by giving duties and responsibilities;
3. See that duties are carried out.

Big Job

"We are a very important cog in this Canada of ours. We provide reading for nearly 8,000,000 Canadians. We do not realize fully our responsibilities and powe.r We have a big job to do. Let us go on with it."

Representatives of some 250 weeklies were on hand from the start of the meeting Monday.

The president recommended the central office of the association be moved from Brampton, Ont., to Toronto for efficient administration of association affairs.

Canadian Dollar Will Near U.S. -London Times

LONDON,(Oct. 24 (Reuters)—The Financial Times, in an editorial-page article today, predicts the Canadian dollar will "drift" closer into parity with the United States dollar.

Commenting on the Canadian currency's performance on the free market since it was freed Sept. 30, the newspaper says:

"The wisdom of the action of the Canadian authorities in letting the laws of supply and demand work is shown by the narrowness of movements in the rate since the beginning of the month."

Had the dollar been pegged at parity, it says, the Canadian economy would have suffered "discomfiture" through speculators removing profits.

Moves Steadily

As it is, such profits have been limited and the Canadian dollar has moved slowly but steadily towards parity.

"It gained a further cent in London yesterday and it is believed that it will continue to drift closer to its fellow dollar."

It reports leading U.S. banks as saying Canada attracts serious investors since rates of return there often exceed those in the United States.

"What is of absorbing interest, however, is that this unleashing of the Canadian dollar has raised hopes that others will be following suit—'ere long."

Varsity Enrols 11,825

TORONTO, Oct. 24 (CP). — The University of Toronto said Monday its 1950-51 enrolment is 11,825, compared with 13,772 last year. Trade With U.S. Will Smash Former Records

OTAWA, Oct. 24 — (CP) — A historic trade record today appeared to be in the making with the disclosure that Canada boosted exports to the United States still further in September and edged closer to a trade balance with her southern neighbor.

The Bureau of Statistics' preliminary report that exports to the U.S. in September totalled $195,900,000, a gain of $80,500,000 over shipments of $115,400,00 in the same period a year ago.

Imports Higher

Imports of $179,400,000 from the U.S. also went higher, but not to the same extent. They reflected a gain of $21,400,000 over last year's $158,000,000.

The balance of exports over imports totalled $16,500,000, cutting the traditional deficit with the U.S. for nine months to $73,500,000 compared with a deficit last year of about $431,000,000. In previous years, Canada's deficit with the U.S. has run to about $500,00,000 or more.

U.K. Sales Down

The preliminary report indicated another trend, sharp downward movement in sales to the United Kingdom. Exports in September to the U.K. totalled $30,-500,000, down from last year's $57,400,000. Imports from the U.K. increased to $36,400,000 from $21,900,000.

In total foreign trade, Canada boosted both imports and exports and achieved a slight surplus. Shipments to all countries in September totalled $282,700,000, up from last year's $230,900,000.

Imports were estimated at $280,-400,000, compared with last year's $221,600,000.

Factory Goods In Canada Hit All-Time High

OTTAWA, Oct. 24 — (CP) — Estimated gross factory value of produce manufacturers in Canada in 1949 advanced by $502,000,000 to $12,378,731,000—an all-time high—from $11,876,790,000 in 1948.

The Bureau of Statistics, reporting the totals Monday in a preliminary report on manufactures in Canada, said approximately 10 per cent of the increase was accounted for by the inclusion for the first time of manufacturing plants in Newfoundland.

Employees engaged in manufacturing were estimated at 1,159,315, slightly above the previous year's total of 1,156,006, while the estimated salary and wage payments aggregated $2,566,104,000 against $2,409,809,000. Cost of materials used in the process of manufacture was $6,764,896,000 against $6,632,-881,000.

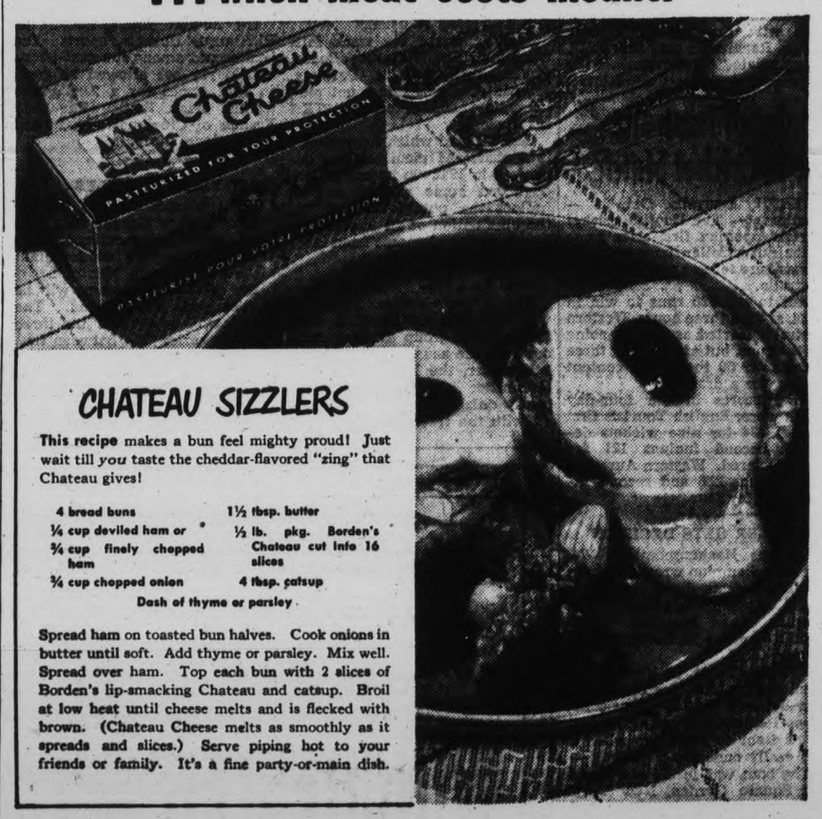
THIS PICTURE of the first aluminum plant in the British Empire was taken in 1900. That was only 14 years after Charles Martin Hall had discovered how to make aluminum cheaply by using electricity.



The plant was erected in semi-wilderness at Shawinigan Falls because the river was being harnessed to provide electricity. Aluminum was the first to use this power. Today Shawinigan Falls has many other industries and is a hustling, thriving city.

Alcan, too, has been growing during these fifty years. Today the company has 12 plants providing jobs for 11,000 Canadians and supplying aluminum to more than 1000 independent Canadian manufacturers from coast to coast.

On its 50th Birthday, Alcan looks back over half a century of progress — and forward to continued growth with Canada.

Gas Turbines Described To Engineers

The many uses of the gas turbine engine in the present day and in the future were enumerated by W. B. Wilson at the meeting of the Peterborough Branch of the Engineering Institute of Canada, Monday night at the Public Library.

Mr. Wilson is with the Industrial Power Division of the General Electric Company in Schenectady, New York.

Speaking on the topic "Gas Turbines in Industry," the speaker described the application of gas turbines in industrial plants, central electric stations, locomotives gas pipe line pumping stations, and portable electric generating plants.

No Separate Boiler

Mr. Wilson explained that although the gas turbine engine is old in conception it has only recently been developed to the point of practical commercial use. This engine is somewhat similar to the well-known steam turbine, but no separate boiler is required, as liquid fuel is mixed with compressed air and burned in the combustion chamber of the turbine itself. The gases of combustion are then used to drive the turbine wheel.

The speaker described the development of the turbine by the General Electric Co. in the United States. This company is one of the leaders in this field. Experimental gas locomotives were built in its plants that are now in use on the Union Pacific Railroad.

Many of the future probable applications of this new type of prime mover were also outlined by Mr. Wilson.

The speaker was introduced by J. M. King, chairman of the meeting. Appreciation for his talk was expressed by R. T. Bogle.

Before the meeting a dinner was held for Mr. Wilson at the McGillis Hotel.

City Will Curb Parking On Water Street

A hedge of cars along the east curb of Water St., between Brock and Murray Streets, masks the tulips of May and the later flowering in Victoria Park.

That was a consideration board of works mentioned as they approved a Police Commission proposal to switch cars to the west side for one-hour limit on parking on the motion of Ald. H. Waddell and Ald. Arthur Burrows.

It was intimated that if there were any spare and idle meters on hand they could be put to use in that block. Street Commissioner Burgess told the board there was none available.

Main purpose in moving the cars to the west side of the block is to improve traffic vision for the safety of school children.

"It's close to the new city hall and the liquor store," said Ald. Herbert Young in expressing his approval of the suggested metering.

Police Commission is willing to appoint guides for school children at the busy corners of traffic recently listed from the council, providing the Commission does not have to provide the cost.

Mayor Swanston said Chief Thompson was asked to submit an estimate of what that agency of protection would cost.

"We'll get a letter from him," he told the board.

"There shouldn't be any parking on one side or the other of Aylmer St., from Brock to Murray," Ald. Gillespie said. It goes on the list with the Victoria Park front.

At the suggestion of Mayor Swanston, the special traffic committee "might also look into parking, for half hour only, on the south side of Parkhill Road between George St. and Elcome Crescent, and also on Water St. from Parkhill to Antrim."

Ald. Young mentioned for similar attention, Reid St. between Wolfe and Sherbrooke Streets.

It was one thing to signalize half-hour parking, Ald. Miller said, but police supervision would be needed all the time to enforce it.

Arbitration Board Awards Firemen $150 A Year, Check-off System Approved

The members of the city's fire department, not including Chief George Smith, receive a wage increase of $150 each for 1950, from Jan. 1, in the award of the Board of Arbitration which was read at the board of works meeting Monday night. The city is also directed to collect dues from each of those employees and remit the amount to the local Fire Fighters Association. This is the so-called "check-off' system.

The request that three weeks' vacations with pay begin after ten years of service instead of after 15 years as at present in effect was not granted.

40 Men In Department

Ald. T. D. Miller said there were 40 members, including Deputy Chief Foster, and presumably all them are eligible for the $150 wage increase which will amount to around $6,000.

Personnel of the Board of Arbitration were: Judge W. S. Lane, Picton, chairman, appointed by the Attorney-General of Ontario; Waldon Lawr, KC, Toronto, nominee of the city council; and C. L. Dubin, Toronto, nominee of Peterborough Fire Fighters Association, local No. 519.

T. J. Carley, KC, represented the city at the Board's sitting here May 29 last, and W. K. Warrander, Hamilton, submitted the case and argument for the Association.

Recourse to arbitration followed negotiations between the council and the firemen who asked for a salary increase of $300 "across the board" and included in their quest the provision for union security.

The Board was unanimous in the opinion that Deputy Chief Foster should not be included in the bargaining unit, but emphasized the fact that they were bound by the Act to place him within the scope of bargaining provision.

City Clerk Outram explained, after reading the arbitration report, that the principle of the Rand formula was that any person benefitting from a union should contribute to its financing.

"When a member of the fire department becomes a full fledged fireman, after the probationary period, we are required automatically to pay his dues into the union whether he is a member of the association or not," Mr. Outram said.

A motion by Ald. Miller, seconded by Mayor Swanston, proposed that the Legislature amend the present Fire Fighters' Act to exclude deputy chiefs from its definitions.

It was also recommended to the Council, in a motion by Mayor Swanston and Ald. Adam Sands, that the award be accepted.

Sole Bargain Agent

The points reviewed in the award were: Recognition of the Fire Fighters' Association as bargain agent for the employees of the department; the union shop providing for the collection of dues by the city; extension of the three weeks' vacation with pay; and finally the salary increase.

Text of the award follows:

"On the first point, Mr. Warrander states that under the act all of the personnel of the department, other than the chief, come within the bargaining unit, and that the members, therefore, except the chief, should be in the association. With this goes the question of union security, and Mr. Warrander submitted to the Arbitration Board that there should be a union shop in the services.

'On the question of vacations with pay, he asked for 21 days after 10 years' service, instead of 21 days after 15 years' service, presently in effect.

"He asked on wages for a general increase across the board of $300 a year. Against this it was argued by Mr. Carley on behalf of the city that the deputy chief, by virtue of the fact that he is the alter ego (one's other self) of the chief, did not fall within the bargaining unit, and that he would come within the definition of chief under the terms of the act.

"In any event, even though that may not be the case, since the duties of the deputy are the same as the chief, he should not fall within the bargaining unit, and should not be a member of the bargaining unit.

"On the question of union se-

7 Men Charged Stealing Electric Motors

Seven men appeared in police court today facing charges of stealing about $300 worth of electric motors and parts from the General Electric Company over a three-year period.

Six pleaded guilty before Magistrate W. R. Philp and were remanded for sentence to Thursday. The seventh man was remanded to October 31 on $1,000 bail.

The seven are: Roy Malowney, 20, 654 Park St.; Bruce Rutter, 34, 693 Stormont St.; Harry Woodbeck, 40, 282 Romaine St.; Leslie McDougall, 19, RR 1, Peterborough; Walter Byrd, 21, 71 Aylmer St.; Leo T. Shine 31, 269 Caddy St.; and Edward Pilling, 36, 173 Adeline St.

Six elected summary trial, but Woodbeck, on the advice of counsel W. J. Arthur Fair, reserved plea and election and was remanded.

Detective's Story

Det.-Sgt. William Clark testified he had been informed that motors were being taken out of the GE during a period which started in April, 1947. As a result, he said, the seven men were questioned, and admitted theft of "various motors and parts."

Statements made by the men led to recovery of much of the equipment, he said.

Truck Plows Through Fence

Two men escaped injury Monday night when their truck plowed through a rail fence and turned over on the Young's Point Rd., a mile west of Lakefield.

John Murphy, Lakefield, was driving south toward Highway 28, about 10.30 p.m., when the truck skidded on the gravel road and went out of control. After crashing through the rail fence it turned over, caving in the roof and smashing the windshield and right window. The right fender was also damaged.

Murphy and a passenger, Bob Knox of Smith township, both got away with nothing more than a shaking up.

Provincial Constable T. H. Fitzpatrick investigated.

Two City Men Hold Irish Sweep Tickets

At least two Peterborough residents will be following closely on Wednesday the Cambridgeshire Handicap at Newmarket, England. The two are H. S. (Stan) Longhurst, 319 Park St., and Dr. Donald Clark 377 Park St.

Mr. Longhurst holds a ticket on Zina, a third choice at odds of 10-1. It will be ridden by a 14-year-old jockey, Lester Piggott, the feature jockey of the racing season. Zina is heavily supported to win again the nine furlongs gallop. Recently the odds on the horse were slashed from 22-1 to 14-1 to 10-1.

For the long-shot betters Dr. Clark holds a ticket on Giglet, a 66-1 shot. This is the third time that Dr. Clark has bought a sweepstake ticket and the telegram which told him that the Giglet was his horse came as a complete surprise. He had completely forgotten about it, having bought it through a relative in Toronto.

Whether the horse starts or not, both men will receive at least £189 or close to $529. The first place money is £25,000, the second place £10,000 and the third place £5,000.

In the recent quotation Socrates, the favorite, hardened from 7-1 to 13-2 as Fastnet Rock, the second choice, eased out to 9-1 from a callover of 8½-1.

Some of the other 36 horses starting in the handicap are: Kelling, Stormy Petrel, Burnt Brown, Hyperbole, Flush Royal, Periscope, Valdesco, Avocet, Misty Light.

Alderman Urges Action In Memorial Centre Site

By HARRY THEOBALD

With the presumptive fresh interest of a new member of the council, Ald. E. C. Braund urged "quick action" in getting a site for the Memorial Centre at the board of works meeting Monday night. Ignoring the record of disappointments in that community project, he led off with a motion to get started on the Ashburnham site (opposite Riverside Park, on Burnham St.). Ald. Young seconded it, and then discussion broadened out over far too familiar ground.

The board's recommendation proposed that a deputation from the building committee of Memorial Centre go to Brockville and "see what they've got" for the approximate $225,000 they have spent on an arena.

That motion by Aldermen Braund and Young expected that the council be represented on the deputation.

The intention of the motion is to look into the plans and the completed building at Brockville, and "see how they would fit into" either of the two sites, George St. at Rink St. and the other in Ashburnham.

Ald. Braund argued against Ald. H. Dodds that previous councils had obtained nothing but discouraging reports about the location opposite George St. wharf.

No Prospect of Return

The reply of Ald. Dodds was to the effect that final estimates of foundation costs on the south centre property were not thorough, that the contractors who had submitted those figures made hardly more than superficial examination of foundation conditions, because they could not be expected to spend money with no prospect of return.

"I think the Memorial Centre building committee would be quite happy about that Ashburnham site," Ald. Braund said.

Ald. Dodds vacated the board of works chair, asking Mayor Swanston to take his place, to repeat his contention that the George St. site overlooking Little Lake, one of the most attractive in the country, should not be abandoned until there was conclusive evidence about it.

"If we're wrong," he said "I'll be the first to give in."

"No one would give the council a firm bid on that site," said Ald. Braund referring to previous survey.

"Could you expect any contractor to spend say $300 on plans he knew would not be carried out?" Ald. Dodds retorted. "Let's get the proof."

Discussion travelled back cursorily over such dimming details as foundation slabs, piling, costs and so on.

Ald. Miller said he did not think the council should try to provide a site costing around $50,000, if the Centre building committee were not able to go ahead with the money they have.

That commen: brought in the analogy of cutting the cloak according to the cloth, and Ald. Hugh Waddell, chairman of the finance committee, remarked that recent statistical reference to Peterborough did not include the debenture debt which, he said, was heading to $5,000,000.

The board spent half an hour or more on this question, and it was agreed that some helpful information might be forthcoming from the Brockville visit.

Ald. J. E. Gillespie interjected an idea that the Brockville architects should be invited to come to Peterborough as an alternative to a deputation going here.

Bethlehem Steel Awaits More Exploration

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Oct. 24 — (CP) — Officials of Bethlehem Steel Company said today there are some indications of the presence of magnetic iron ore in the Marmora, Ont., area where the company is carrying out explorations. But it is not known yet whether the quantity of ore will justify development.

Present indications, one official said, are that the ore is not of a grade suitable for direct smelting but will require crushing and other treatment.

Charles Calver Named Inspector

Charles Calver of Campbellford who was formerly district supervisor for the Ontario Liquor license Board, has been promoted to Assistant Chief Inspector.

Mr. Calver will operate from the head office in Toronto, and will be away from town all week.

The position he leaves will be filled by Frank B. McCulloch of Ottawa, who has arrived in Campbellford, and will take over the duties of supervisor of the district.

Two Boys, 16 Plead Guilty To Breakins

Two 16-year-old boys facing a total of seven charges of breaking and entering downtown stores were today remanded for judgment to October 27 by Magistrate W. R. Philp.

Donald Gibbs, 220½ Edinburgh St., and Ernest Graham, Douro, elected summary trial and pleaded guilty to all charges. Gibbs faces three charges and Graham four.

Det. Sgt. John Stevenson told court the two boys were arrested in the early morning of October 22 and later in the morning admitted to breaking into other downtown stores. The two boys were caught crouching behind the counter of a Hunter St. furniture store.

On one of their ventures, the pair took $110 from a clothing store, and on another $16.

The detective testified that the day after they stole the $110, Gibbs gave Graham his half to hide it, and when the boys went to recover it, the money was gone.

On October 17, said Det.-Sergt. Stevenson, Graham and another boy (a juvenile) entered a girl's room in the YWCA and stole $22, a purse, some papers and two blankets valued at $5 each.

Broker Charged With Theft Of $6,490

TORONTO, Oct. 24 (CP). — William H. Moore, 45-year-old employee of a brokerage firm, was arrested last night and charged with the theft of $6,490. Police said he obtained securities to the value of $6,490 to sell and buy bonds with the proceeds but converted the money to his own use.

OPENED IN 2,250

A metal box containing current records, the usual assortment in such ceremonial placements, to be set under the city hall foundation stone, will be 5x12x16 inches.

Mayor Swanston mentioned this detail at the board of works meeting Monday night.

"When do you estimate it will be opened?" Ald. Doug Miller asked in a joking tone.

"About the year 2,250," Mayor Swanston suggested.

"I have an idea I won't be here," Ald. Miller said.—T.H.T.

LUCK OF THE SCOTS

Luck—not lightning—hit the same lady twice and the result is that two Peterborough passengers are booked for the November 24 Atlantic crossing of the Empress of Scotland. William C. (Babe) Fontaine and his wife Sophia will embark from Quebec on that date for a two-month visit to Great Britain. And thereby hangs a tale of luck that would outdo even the Irish. Twice in a row Mrs. Fontaine has won the St. Alphonsus Booster Club draw—a nifty prize that totals $1,000. Both times "Babe " sold his wife the winning ticket and for this chore pocketed a mere $50. When Mrs. Fontaine won her first $500 she decided to use the money in a trip back to Scotland; but when the second winning ticket was pulled out of the hat she went into a huddle with hubby. The upshot? They're both going on the Old Country tour. Sort of a second honeymoon.

GUEST SPEAKER at the weekly Kiwanis Club luncheon Thursday at the Empress Hotel will be W. L. Somerville. He is the assistant general manager of the Toronto Stock Exchange.

NOT OPPOSED TO UNION

No accent of opposition was noticed in the board of works brief reference Monday night to a letter regarding civic employees union. Probably to ensure that this attitude was understood it was put in words in a motion by Aldermen Young and Waddell. The sentiment of the committee appeared to be that if the outdoor employees wish to organize, that was their own affair. It applies to the sanitation, sewage disposal, parks and streets.

Drove Six Miles To Find Parking Space

James Juby, 319 Boswell Ave., counted six miles on his speedometer roaming around downtown streets for a parking spot last Saturday morning. He wasn't guessing about the distance, and he wasn't criticizing the council, of which he was an alderman some years ago, in mentioning the experience. It was a Lakefield man, complaining about the blocks he had searched recently for a vacant curb space, who said there were probably many other cities as stupid as Peterborough in fumbling the matter of parking. He was still a bit peeved.

Partridge Dinner Without Shot Fired

No laws were broken and Vic Fairbairn of Chemong Rd. was still able to enjoy a partridge dinner.

The peculiar part of this particular partridge's demise was the fact that it met its death within the city limits. The use of firearms is prohibited in Peterborough but Mr. Partridge solved the problem of conveniently flying into the front window of the Peterborough Bus Lines' headquarters and breaking his neck.

The bird was triumphantly carried home by Mr. Fairbairn, one of the bus drivers, and transformed into partridge stew.

"And was it good," commented Mrs. Fairbairn.

Drunk Driving Charge Dropped, No Explanation

WINDSOR, Ont., Oct. 24 (CP). —The Windsor police commission continuing today its probe of law enforcement here, is faced with another unexplained case of a criminal charge being withdrawn without benefit of a court hearing of the evidence.

Judge Archibald Cochrane, commission chairman, found no answer yesterday to his questions why and how "a straight open-and-shut case" of drunk driving a year ago against a Windsor salesman, Finley Munroe, was withdrawn.

Very Drunk

Three police officers used the terms "very intoxicated. . . almost paralyzed . . . stumbled to his knees" in describing to the commission Munroe's condition when he was arrested Oct. 20 last year.

The charge of drunk driving, laid under the Criminal Code, was dropped Oct. 28 with no evidence taken in court. The notation "withdrawn" on the back of the court record gave no indication of who ordered the withdrawal. It was endorsed by Magistrate Angus W. MacMillan.

John Burns, inspector of prosecutions for the police, said he was in court Oct. 28 but had no recollection of the case. Shorthand records of the court stenographer contained no reference to any action taken in court that day on the case.

Can't Explain

Both Inspector Burns and Police Chief Claude Renaud told Judge Cochrane they didn't know how the Munroe case was withdrawn.

The judge said he was "certain" that they didn't know how it was dropped. He declined to tell reporters which of two crown officials handled the case because he was sure they didn't know either.

Crown officials at the time were Crown Attorney E. C. Awrey and his assistant, E. A. Duchesne.

Crown Dismissed

Mr. Awrey was dismissed from the post in September by Attorney-General Porter over his handling of certain cases, and two police commissioners resigned in a shake-up that launched the present investigation.

Judge Cochrane and Magistrate Roland A. Harris were appointed to take their places. Mayor Arthur J. Reaume remains as the third member.

The commission shake-up followed report by two provincial police inspectors that Windsor officials must have known of the widespread vice which they found in Windsor.

In recent investigations, the commission has come across several cases like the Munroe case, where bootlegging and gambling charges were either withdrawn at the crown's request or reduced to lesser charges which did not involve jail sentences on conviction.

Reorganize Police

The commission has not yet indicated when it will act to reorganize police force personnel. But yesterday it took the first step in a reorganization of its methods.

Inspector Burns was ordered to comply with the demand of the new Crown Attorney, Alex C. Hall, that summaries of police evidence be prepared for each prosecution. Up to now crown officials have had to examine complete police reports in prosecuting cases.

Judge Cochrane asked Burns why no action had been taken on an ultimatum by Mr. Hall unless briefs of police reports were prepared he would not proceed with cases.

No Briefs Prepared

Yesterday morning Mr. Hall refused to go ahead with three cases because the briefs had not been made out.

Burns said he hadn't the staff to do the extra work, and was told that he would be given an assistant.

Questioned about the Munroe case, both Chief Renaud and Inspector Burns indicated that although they didn't know of the disposition of the case, they would have followed the directions of the Crown Attorney's office.

Chief Renaud said that if he had learned of the Munroe case, he would have spoken to the Crown Attorney but "that's as far as I would go." He said there was no check by himself or his deputy, W. H. Neale, on the disposition of cases sent to court by police.

George Drew Predicts 2-Party Return

SASKATOON, Oct. 24—(CP)—Return to the two-party system was predicted last night by George Drew, national leader of the Progressive Conservative party.

He said there had been "a noticeable trend in by-elections of the past few months away from the socialist party of Canada."

"I think modern history demonstrates very clearly that democracy works much better under the historic two-party system than it does in those countries where there are a multitude of parties which so divide the votes that no one party has the power to form a government."

Mr. Drew addressed the Saskatchewan Progressive Conservative Association.

Lost By-Election

The Progressive Conservative party failed to win the recent by-election in the pro-Labor Ontario seat of Welland, Mr. Drew said, but the party's showing in proportion to the total vote was a distinct gain. Proportionately the Liberals lost considerable ground in dropping 4,000 votes since the last election, but the most significant change occurred in the CCF vote.

There, Mr. Drew said from 11,000 to 6,000. He added that the same trend was noticeable in every federal by-election since the last general election.

Similar Names Of Drugs Cause Of Death

MIDLAND, Oct. 24 (CP) — A coroner's jury said Monday the similarity of trade names for toxic drugs was responsible for the death of a First World War veteran in hospital here.

No blame was attached to anyone in the death of Julius Klepper, 65, who died from the administration of nupercaine, a highly toxic drug, in mistake for novacaine, as a local anaesthetic.

The inquest was conducted by Chief Coroner Smirle Lawson of Ontario with Eric H. Silk, acting for the attorney's general's department.

Change Labels

The jury recommended that Mr. Silk and Prof. G. H. Lucas, University of Toronto professor of pharmacology and toxicology, form a committee to place recommendations for the labelling of toxic drugs and practices in their use before the attorney-general.

Prof. Lucas testified that a substantial number of deaths already had occurred in hospitals as a result of nupercaine being confused with novacaine. There also were causes in the armed forces during the Second World War, he said.

'I am sure there will be additional deaths unless still further precautions are taken," he said.

19 Names

He said 19 different trade names were listed for novacaine. Its official name is procaine. He recommended that all solutions of nupercaine be colored to distinguish them from novacaine.

Dr. William Johnson of Toronto, who administered the solution in the case here, testified he thought it was novacaine. Similar testimony was given by Dr. I. T. Weldon of Midland and Dr. W. E. Binkley of nearby Pentanguishene, the attending physicians.

Canada Watches Ontario Reforms

TORONTO, Oct. 24 (CP)—Reform Institutions Minister Hamilton of Ontario said Monday night that his department's plan for reformation of law-breakers "has caught the attention of correction workers in most of our Canadian provinces."

In a "provincials affairs" broadcast over a CBC Ontario network, he said in a prepared address that the plan calls for a systematic study of the needs of committed persons and the prescribing of training.

'Along with that study goes the cardinal principle of disciplinary methods in keeping with modern custodial techniques."

Five Psychologists

The department employs five psychologists to examine and report on the persons in its reformatories, industrial farms, jails and training schools. Emphasis is placed on training young persons for useful careers and on re-establishing older persons.

"Delinquency generally has its roots in early childhood and thrives in the broken home where proper standards of family life are lacking," Mr. Hamilton said. "It would be much better if criminal tendencies could be corrected in the home rather than in an institution. But since reform institutions are necessary, it is a matter of pride that this province has taken the lead in establishing the most modern procedures for treatment within those institutions."

Powder Eats Dead Tissue Used In Infections, Sinus

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

BOSTON, Oct. 24—(AP)—A white powder that eats up dead tissue and pus in a chest infection without hurting healthy tissue, was reported today to the American College of Surgeons.

It promises to become a new wonder medicine to clean up infected wounds, chronic sinus trouble, and other infections.

The powder is pure crystallized trypsin, a natural chemical in your digestion. The trypsin made in your body digests the meat and other proteins you eat. But it doesn't touch living proteins, or otherwise it would dissolve the intestines.

Aids Tuberculosis

Trypsin has easily dissolved jelly-like masses that sometimes form in the chest cavity, outside the lung, in people with tuberculosis, said Drs. Howard Reiser, L. C. Roettig and George M. Curtis, of Ohio State University College of Medicine, and Clark County and Rocky Glen Tuberculosis Hospitals, Columbus, O.

This condition, called empyema, is one of the worst complications of lung tuberculosis. The mass is made up of blood, bacteria, pus, serum and dead tissue. It tends to get hard, while the pleura or covering of the lungs may become thickened. Sometimes it is impossible to operate to remove ribs to rest the infected lung.

Trypsin, injected by needle, liquefies the mass, turning it into a tawny, watery fluid which then can be sucked out of the chest cavity. The cavity itself seems to become sterilized in some cases, by a peculiar action not yet understood.

Supply From Cows

The trypsin, extracted from the pancreas glands of cows, was supplied by Armour Laboratories, Chicago.

Armour is stepping up production and supplying trypsin to various clinics to study other uses of this chemical that automatically separates living from dead tissue.

One possibility is treating war wounds or any infected injuries. In these there is danger of gangrene, an infectious process that spreads to and destroys healthy areas. The dead areas have to be cut out, with much healthy tissue also removed for safety. Trypsin may remove the dead tissue and halt the infection quickly.

Chronic Sinus

In chronic sinus, hollow cavities in the head can become clogged with debris, including germs and dead tissue. Drugs can't reach the germs. Trypsin may clear the way for the drugs.

It also may help in external ulcers, in bone fractures that resist healing, or in peritonitis, an infection of the lining of the abdomen.

Knitting Textbooks To Aid Girl Guides

TORONTO — (CP). — From now on, Canadian Girl Guides and Brownies should find it easy to qualify for their knitter badge.

A booklet, "Wool 'Round the Year," now being distributed to Canada's 70,500 English-speaking Guides and Brownies, contains a complete course in knitting. For those who have already learned to knit, there are illustrated instructions for knitting several articles of clothing, including sweaters, stockings and scarves.

It is to be used as a textbook in the earning of the proficiency badge for knitting. By following its directions, a Guide or Brownie can knit the badge itself.

In addition, it tells how to make woollen toys and gifts and explains the use of wool felt, yarns and fabrics in fashions, as well as giving shopping hints, notes on selection and care of woollens and the story of a trip through a woollen mill.

The 63-page booklet is a gift to the Guides and Brownies from the Wool Bureau, an information service operated by wool manufacturers, which also has made available a display of samples of garments described in the booklet. The display will be shown in Guide centres across Canada this fall.

DOROTHY DIX

Friend Criticizes Woman For Riding Bicycle at 53

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a woman 53 years old. As my husband goes to business every day, I am very lonely for both of my children are dead, so I bought a bicycle and was enjoying it very much as it took my mind off my troubles. I was getting a great deal of exercise, which improved my health. But to my dismay I have been told by a woman that it is highly improper for a woman of my age to ride a bicycle and that nobody would think that one who did so was "nice."

Dorothy Dix

Please tell me if this is true, for while I enjoy my bicycle I try to use common sense and good taste in everything I do and do not wish to be censured by right-thinking people.

I. MAC E.

ANSWER: Don't listen to the woman who criticizes you for riding a bicycle at 53. Her remarks were most likely inspired by envy because she is too fat or stiff to mount one herself.

No Age Limit

A woman of 53 can do anything that is decent that she has the strength and the health and the inclination to do. Many women older than you take up sports, go to college, go into business or become globe-trotters, and instead of lifting their eyebrows at them, all intelligent people give them the glad hand. For it is a fine thing for a woman to have initiative enough to find something interesting and enjoyable to do that will make the latter part of her life perhaps the better part of it, instead of sitting down in the corner at home in dull despair waiting for death to come and get her.

The greatest modern improvement is that we have abolished age and have thrown into the junk pile the hampering superstitions about what an old person should wear and what an old person should do and how old people should conduct themselves.

So next time your critical friend tells you that women of 53 are not riding bicycles, you tell her that they are doing it and whatever else they like, and that if she doesn't know it she is just behind the times.

And here is a final tip: Don't let what people say about you worry you so long as your conscience is clear. You will never be happy until you acquire the trick of letting your friends' and your neighbors' criticisms go in one ear and come out of the other without leaving even a memory or a resentment behind.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Two months ago I was engaged to be married to a lovely girl, but just as I thought I was slated for a salary increase, I lost my job. I went to the girl and told her what had happened and though she wanted to marry anyway I left her and told her I would not return until I had found work. As yet I have been unable to get a job and I haven't gone out anywhere for a month because I can't afford it. I am losing faith in everything and everybody, and feel that my life is a wreck, anyhow. I am 22 years old.

HERMIT

ANSWER: Buck up, son, and snap out of it. Do you think you are the first fellow who ever lost a job? Why, there have been millions of them. The ones who had any grit in their craws didn't sit down and give up. They hustled out and got something to do. Do you think you are the first man who ever had to meet any hardship, who ever had his dreams smashed and his plans go awry? Why, son, that has happened to every man in the world, and only whiners went under when they met with disaster. The worthwhile ones fought through to success.

The trouble is you have taken your whole misfortune in the wrong way. You've let it get you down and rob you of your self-confidence, and that is one reason you haven't been able to find a job. Another place you have gone wrong is in giving up your girl and not going to see her because your pride won't let you hang around when you can't take her out for good times. You are right not to marry when you have nothing to live on, but that is no reason for not going to see her and letting her comfort you and cheer you up.

DEAR MISS DIX: How is a girl to know what is love? Two years ago I was madly in love with a man, but I was jealous of him, restless and demanding all of his time. We broke up. Now a man wants to marry me. He is a grand person, safe and dependable and very good to me. I am fond of him, but in a calm, peaceful sort of way, not demanding his time, not even jealous. Am I in love, or must there be all of those symptoms I had for my former friend?

PUZZLED.

ANSWER: Most people only experience the hysteria of love once. After that we can love just as truly but more calmly. The fireworks are over but the fire burns with a steady flame and we see men and women for what they are. I should say that you spent your emotionalism on the first man, but you are giving your real heart to the second.

Acting Strain For Sheridan

NEW YORK — (AP). — Ann Sheridan revealed the other day that she is gradually giving up her career as a movie actress and will concentrate on the production end.

She has been unusually successful with her movie career, along with stage and television personal appearances, but it has been giving her too many butterflies in her stomach.

She already has one foot in the door as a producer. She has a financial interest in her new film "Woman on the Run," by Universal-International. Rather than a salary, she is taking a share of the profits from this picture, and if they are substantial Miss Sheridan will advance her ambition to become a producer rather than remain an actress.

"After I finished 'Woman on the Run' I wanted to quit being an actress," she confessed. "Much of the action in that story takes place on a carnival roller-coaster. I get dreadfully seasick on a roller coaster and my tummy started acting up as soon as we started shooting film.

"Aside from the roller coaster I had to submit to the fact that several girls who played around me in the roller coaster cars had healthy appetites. Between takes they would stroll off and return loaded with hot dogs, root beer and other refreshments. I could not stand it. At least, my stomach could not stand it."

Morley-Phillips Nuptials Held At Marmora

MARMORA, Oct. 24 (ENS).—In the presence of a large gathering a pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Andrew's United Church, Marmora, Saturday of Audrey Hilda Jean, daughter of Mrs. Lewis Phillips and the late Lewis Phillips of Marmora, and Earl Thomas Morley, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Morley of Peterborough.

The altar was decorated with palm chrysanthemums, cyclamen and fern. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George D. Young.

Wedding music was played by organist, Mrs. Alex Fraser. Before the bridal party entered, Mrs. Ray Frost sang "I'll Walk Beside You" and during signing of the register "Because."

Given in marriage by her brother, Gordon Phillips, the bride looked charming in a gown of white slipper satin with medium train. Her white embroidered net veil was in heart shape and caught with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

In attendance as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Wellington McInroy who wore blue satin with matching headdress of feathers and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Bridesmaid was Miss Marion Morley, sister of the groom, who was attired in turquoise moire with matching feather headdress. Her bouquet was also of pink roses. Irene Phillips, niece of the bride, in yellow tafefta with matching headdress and an old-fashioned nosegay, made a dainty flower girl.

Gordon Morley, brother of the groom, was groomsman. Ushers were William Reid of Peterborough and Douglas Phillips, brother of the bride.

A reception was held in St. Andrew's Hall with catering by Circle 2 of St. Andrew's Women's Association.

The bride's mother received wearing a gown of dusty rose tissue faille with a navy velvet hat and a corsage of pink roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore a navy crepe grown, navy fur felt hat and corsage of red roses.

Later the couple left for a trip to Ottawa and eastern points, the bride donning a blue gabardine suit with grey accessories and wearing a corsage of red roses. On return they will live in Peterborough. Guests were present from Peterborough, Oshawa, Milton and Springbrook.

2 cups pecan nutmeats, chopped

Cook the molasses, sugar, and cream of tartar to 256 degrees, or to the hard-ball stage. Add the butter, vinegar, salt, extracts, and the chopped nutmeats. Stir lightly to blend and pour into buttered pans, marking off while soft into sticks, squares, cushions, or other desired shapes. Walnuts or butternuts may be used.

Inspector Stresses Importance Choosing Career

At a meeting of 175 of St. Peter's Parent-Teacher Association, held in K of C hall, Mr. J. C. Doyle, inspector of separate schools, in an address on "Vocational Guidance," stressed the need of its inclusion in the modern curriculum. "In the school program, parents, teachers and other agencies associated with it, have a definite co-operative part to play in its promotion," he said.

"Vocational guidance is a scientific way of assisting the pupil to choose a career for which he is best suited. At the present time, there are choices of many and varied types of occupations, different in working conditions, wages paid, opportunity for advancement, security for the future, etc. Likewise every individual child has differences in physique, ability to learn, aptitudes, interests, personality, and in home background. These differences in occupations, and in individual characteristics of the pupil make guidance essential."

Guidance is no prediction of the future and does not make choices. Rather, it assists the pupil in making a rightful choice and in making proper adjustments to a particular subject, to the school to a teacher, or to his philosophy of life. It gives him information about occupations, points out the training required, and leaves the decision to himself. Assuredly, it awakens within the pupil an interest in thinking about a job and planning a future that will bring a greater degree of happiness and security to him. The individual contentment gained by finding a career suited to his tastes and abilities is reflected in the better well-being of society.

"Parents should co-operate with the school by training the child in right habits, self-reliance, and daily acceptance of responsibilities," Mr. Doyle said in conclusion. "The development of character by th inculcation of Christian principles will have an important bearing upon his future success in whatever occupation he may choose for a career."

Mr. Doyle was introduced by Mr. J. Moloney and thanked by Mr. Ed. O'Brien.

Class attendance prizes went to room 1 of St. Mary's school and grade 2 of St. Peter's.

MARY MOORE SAYS:

Providing Refresher Course For Your Salad Knowledge

With the decline of fresh tomatoes I find myself guilty of not serving a salad for dinner every evening as automatically as I do all summer.

It may be that we are not as salad hungry, or it may be that there are so many cooking vegetables to choose from, that we have no room for a salad course.

I did not broach this subject. My neighbor invited me (when my family deserted me for a football game) for dinner and apologized for the absence of salad. (I wish my friends did not think I was some eating ogre who criticized their meals;—I'm so thankful — like all housewives and mothers — to be invited to eat a meal that someone else has prepared that I give thanks for tea and toast.)

Frankly, this is a pep talk to keep you in the daily salad habit.

I have a book of salads given to me by the manager of a famous Chicago hotel—eighteen years ago. It is a beautiful volume—and of course, I am impressed by the fact that it sells for ten dollars. The color plates of exotic salads explain this price.

The first salad I am going to give you, I served to my family last night simply because It called for ingredients that I had on hand.

Massachusetts Salad

(So called because so many cranberries are raised in that State.) Fit together two well-cupped leaves of ice berg lettuce for each serving. Mix together equal quantities of finely chopped unpared apple, drained cranberries partially stewed in sugar syrup, halved grapes, and celery. Add blanched almonds or quartered walnuts or pecans for special occasions. Moisten with mayonnaise. Fill lettuce cups. Garnish with perfect cranberries.

Maggie Pepper

I tried this one because of its name, but now I think this must be the kind of thing that author on health subjects meant when he said we should consume three green peppers per day. I like them but not that much. This salad was popular with all five people at our dinner table the other night—but I have to say they are all human rabbits.

On bed of shredded lettuce place a hollowed out half of a green pepper, cut lengthwise. Fill with equal quantities of celery, apples, cabbage cut very finely and mixed with half mayonnaise and half cottage cheese for a moistener. Garnish top with little crescent of sweet red pepper. Cottage cheese goes almost as well with green pepper as it goes with tomato, and reducers should remember that it takes the place of mayonnaise and only one-third as "fattening."

The next one does not come from the book. It is Sara Bigger's and for company only.

Henry's Date and Olive Salad

On very pale small inner iceberg lettuce leaves place fresh dates, or dried dates which have been plumped by steaming. Fill them with cottage cheese mixed with almonds. Serve four large ones to each individual salad. Garnish with a stick of inner celery, filled with four whole ripe olives, or ripe olives mashed with white cheese. Garnish with perfect sprigs of cress.

The colors of the above salad are most unusual and always start comment. I have served this as a salad course, when dessert consisted of crackers, cheeses assorted, and coffee.

BUGG—In loving memory of Mrs. Agnes Bugg, who passed away Oct. 24, 1948.
No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered, since we lost you

Sweetly tender, fond and true,
There is not a day dear mother
That we do not think of you.
—Sadly missed by husband and daughter Margaret.

CARL—In loving memory of James Henry Carl, who passed October 24, 1940.

That grief can call its own.

Ship Hot Ingot 200 Miles, Little Heat Loss

TORONTO, Oct. 21—(Special) —It was announced from Sydney today that an experiment, believed to be the first of its kind ever attempted, was successfully carried out. It was the shipment of a 30,050-pound hot alloy ingot from Dominion Iron and Steel Ltd. at Sydney to Trenton Steel Works Ltd. at Trenton, N.S. The test may prove to be one of the most important developments in the Maritimes steel industry in recent years.

The experiment was carried out with the co-operation of the Canadian National Railways, which made special arrangements to transport the unusual shipment. The hot ingot was allowed to solidify into a mould, was stripped and placed in a cast iron box insulated with a pre-moulded vermiculite. The remaining space was filled with loose vermiculite and the steel lid placed on the box. It was securely fastened and braced to the railway car floor.

Shipping the hot ingot on its nearly 200-mile CNR journey resulted in speeding up its processing by nearly two months. Before the test, the ingot was allowed to cool, which took six weeks, prior to shipment and was reheated, which required 10 days, as its destination before work could continue. Transporting the hot ingot eliminates the danger of cracks from cooling and also reduces costs considerably.

The initial shipment of this type to be handled by the CNR, left Sydney at a temperature of 1,700 degrees Fahrenheit in the late afternoon and first thing the following morning, the Trenton plant was working on it. Examination on arrival showed that the hot ingot was still 1,575 degrees, showing very little loss of heat, indicating the efficiency of the methods used in transporting it.

"The idea has been dreamed of for many years," said a steel company officer, "but this is the first time in the long history of the company when we have actually got around to doing it. To our knowledge it has never been done before here or anywhere else."

Arbitration Board

curity, Mr. Carley argued that there should be no compulsion because this was a municipal set-up, and one which was not like an industry where management, by agreeing to the union shop, merely had its own affairs to consider, but here this was not the case, where the public at large must be considered, and the public had placed their affairs in the hands of an elected council, and that it was not compatible that a union shop or any other compulsory requirement of union security should be foisted on that elected council, and detract from their right to manage the affairs of the public as would appear proper to them.

"On vacation with pay, Mr. Carley pointed out that at the present time the men enjoy 15 days after one year and up to 15 years of service, and three weeks after 15 years, and he feels that that is liberal, and more than liberal, and should not at this time be changed.

"On the question of wages, he takes the position that the wages are ample and compare favorably with other municipalities of a like size, and that there is no ground for an increase at this time."

CANADIAN DOLLAR UNCHANGED

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 —(CP)— The Canadian dollar was unchanged at a discount of 4¾ per cent in terms of United States funds in opening foreign exchange dealings today. The pound sterling was unchanged at $2.80⅛.

Widow Enticed Husband Woman Tried Suicide Twice

TORONTO, Oct. 24 (CP). — A 54-year-old woman who claims her husband was "enticed" away by a widow who lives on a neighboring farm testified today that she twice tried suicide when she saw her marriage breaking up.

Mrs. Gertrude Brydon took the witness box for the second day as she continued an Ontario Supreme Court hearing for unstated damages from slim, dark-haired Mrs. Ruth Abernethy.

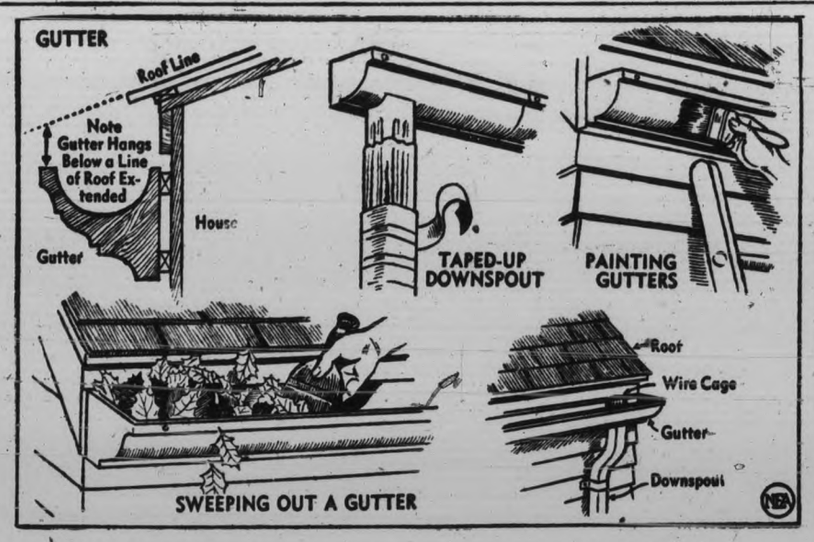
Suicide Tries

Mrs. Brydon said that when she found her husband, Andrew, paying attention to Mrs. Abernethy, she "took a whiff" of groundhog gas. Another time she used razor blades. She did not elaborate.

She claimed that Mr. Abernethy, crushed to death by a tractor July 3, 1948, "did not die by accident." She said that at that time she "told a doctor that Harvie Abernethy was not killed by accident." She had not told Mrs. Abernethy of this belief.

Prior to Mr. Abernethy's death Mrs. Brydon testified, the two couples frequently entertained each other at their homes.

At Dances



"What would happen at dances?" asked George Walsh, counsel for Mrs. Abernethy.

"Well, we would meet at dances and he would stop dancing and go over and put his arms around her. He would sit with her, while her husband would sit by himself."

Mrs. Brydon said yesterday that after Mr. Abernethy's death, she and her husband and Mrs Abernethy took a motor trip together.

She told of her husband and the widow "dressing in front of one another" and having pillow fights.

"Sometimes we could get only one room with two beds," Mrs. Brydon told the jury. On one occasion, "we had one room and only one bed—he slept in the middle."

WHEN YOU CHECK your roof gutters, take special heed of these pointers.

Gutters Need Attention For Winter

By BOB SCHARFF

Roof gutters and downspouts need periodic attention and repair. Therefore, before winter sets in, check your roof drainage system thoroughly to keep it in proper condition.

Gutters should be kept as free of leaves and other rubbish as possible. Such debris, if not removed, may stop up the opening to the downspout and cause water to back up and flow over the edge.

This overflow may cause considerable damage if the water finds its way down inside the walls of the house. Unsightly streaks and stains on the exterior wall surfaces may also result if the overflow is not stopped. Rotting leaves will also cause corrosion or rotting of gutters if allowed to remain.

To prevent leaves and other refuse from being washed into the downspout, it is advisable to place a wire basketlike strainer over the gutter outlet. Strainers are obtainable at hardware stores and are inexpensive.

Clogging in freezing weather is serious because the weight of the ice may tear the gutter and leader from their supports. It is often the case that, with a gutter on an exposed side of the house, water from melted snow on the roof will freeze in them, causing clogging. This can be prevented by scattering a shovelful or more of rock salt on the roof surface and in the gutter.

Next, look over the gutters for bends or leaks. Where the gutters are secured to the roof or the cornice with hangers, be sure that the hangers are firmly attached to the building. Use a carpenter's level or a can of water to check the pitch of the gutters. Bend the hangers up or down slightly to give correct pitch and replace rusted hangers.

A gutter set too high in relation to the edge of the roof may cause every snow slide to be blocked. It should be set just below a line continued from the roof slope so the sliding snow will jump the gutter.

To repair a leaky gutter, remove the rust from both the inside and outside with coarse steel wool or a wire brush. Coat the inside with a thick film of plastic roof cement. Before the cement sets, cover it with strips of roofing felt or heavy aluminum foil and press down firmly. Where these strips meet, overlap them in the directing of water flow and cement their edges together.

The life of gutters can be lengthened by coating the inner surfaces with liquid asphalt paint and the outer surfaces with house paint.

Downspouts also need care and temporary repair can be made by wrapping the bad pair with strips of canvas thoroughly soaked with white lead paint on both sides. Then paint the entire downspout with white lead pain. However, if a downspout is badly broken or rusted, replace the entire section.

Precaution should be taken to inspect and clean where the downspout enters. If the connecting drain is plugged up, the water will back up and when this freezes the downspout will burst.

Bent wire snow guards are easy to install on your roofs and are perhaps the best way to prevent damage to gutters and downspouts.

Maoris Mark Anniversary Of Canoe Trip Made In 1350

By J. C. GRAHAM
Canadian Press Correspondent

WHAKATANE, N.Z. (CP) — A voyage more remarkable than that of Columbus and made over 100 years earlier, has been celebrated at this town on New Zealand's east coast.

The epic was the arrival of the Maoris in New Zealand in 1350, after they had voyaged from a homeland far to the north across the Pacific. This place now is believed to have been the Society Islands.

The first natives journeyed in small open canoes without navigation instruments of any kind. They arrived safely after many perilous adventures, their only sailing directions coming from ancient legends handed down by still earlier navigators who made the journey to New Zealand and back.

The Maoris had no written language until after the arrival of Europeans a little over a century ago, but their traditions were so accurately handed down by word of mouth that the date of arrival can be fixed fairly close. The landing places of the canoes are still known, as are many incidents connected with the voyage. Many Maoris can trace their descent in an unbroken line back to the crews of the canoes.

For the re-enactment of the arrival, a vessel 150 years old was used. Though it had been moored in a remote spot in a stream and overgrown with weeds for many years, the solid hull of the canoe is still well preserved.

Episode Re-enacted

Five thousand Maoris assembled at the meeting-place to watch the ceremony. The canoe, with its decorated prow and high stern-piece, glided to the beach and tattooed warriors leaped ashore where their ancestors had landed 600 years before.

Miss L. Hohapata, a lineal descendant from Wairaka, heroine of the canoe, re-enacted a famous incident after the landing. The canoe's moorings broke in high seas, but the vessel was saved by Wairaka, who in the absence of the men uttered the famous words "Tu Whakatane" ("I must act like a man") which gave the present town its name.

Cabinet ministers and Maori leaders greeted the "voyagers" after the landing, and the insignia of the tribes descended from the historic canoe flew from a flagstaff set in a massive piece of granite reputed to have been brought to New Zealand by the early arrivals.

Maoris and Europeans are using the celebrations as a means of bringing still closer relations between the two races and of setting a future course for the Maori people. Their aim is to fit the Maoris more fully for life in a western civilization while preserving the finest traditions of the native race.

Toronto Riders Win Ottawa Show

OTTAWA, Oct. 24.—(CP). — Brilliant horsemanship by three members of the Toronto North York Hunt Club last night won for them the inter-city jumping competition at the opening night program at the Ottawa Winter Fair and Horse Show.

A crowd of 3,000 watched breathlessly as their almost flawless jumping placed them first over four other teams, including one representing the Ottawa RCMP.

Members of the winning team were: Doug Cudney, riding Limerick; Edward Jones, with Little Caesar, and Don Gamble, on Snaffles. Second place was won by a team from Lake of Two Mountains.

Ontario Deputy Agriculture Minister C. D. Graham, in officially opening the fair, said the high quality of exhibits emphasized the importance agriculture plays in the community.

Tibet Consults Reds

NEW DELHI, India, Oct. 24 — (Reuters). — Tibet is sending a delegation to Peiping, Chinese Communist capital for talks on the Communist claim for control of Tibet. A seven-man delegation now in New Delhi for consultations with the Chinese Communist Ambassador there, will leave for Peiping Thursday.

Various Hazards Label Year For Wheat Farms

WINNIPEG —(CP)— Farmers often recall a bygone period with the phrase "That was the year our wheat was rusted," or "That was the year of the bumper crop."

This season will be hard to label so easily. Some might call it "The year of the big frost," but plenty of other happenings will make 1950 stick in the memory of the prairie farmer.

First the wheat crop got off to a bad start with late seeding and early drought in Alberta and Saskatchewan, and floods in southern Manitoba. Then it forged ahead until by Aug. 15 preliminary estimates ran as high as 525,000,000 bushels. The long-time average is about 400,000,000.

Then August frosts struck, night after night. The yield estimates were cut by millions of bushels. Snow came at the end of September with almost half the crop still to be threshed and much of it uncut. More downward revisions in estimates followed.

It wasn't the drop in yield which hurt most, however. It was the low grading. Last year 85 per cent of western Canada's wheat crop graded No. 4 Northern or better. No. 4 is the lowest milling grade. This year two-thirds of the wheat will grade No. 4 and lower, the Canadian Wheat Board has estimated.

Grading Criticized

Farmers complained. They suggested something was wrong with the grading standards.

They were told by the Board of Grain Commissioners that frosted wheat is full of shrivelled, immature and green kernels which make milling costly and produce an inferior flour considered inedible in most western countries.

Some farmers, particularly in Saskatchewan, asked for inclusion of a protein test in wheat grading. The board said frost affects the protein quality of wheat and protein-damaged wheat makes only a poor-baking flour.

Finally, the presidents of two farmers' unions in Saskatchewan and Alberta examined samples which a 24-member committee approved as standards for the 1950-51 crop nd found them satisfactory.

Hand in hand with the wheat-grading controversy, farmers debated the Canadian Wheat Board's initial payments and price spreads.

Wider Price Range

During the life of the five-year wheat pool which ended July 31, price spreads remained fairly constant because grades were fairly even. Last year the spread on initial payments for No. 1 Northern down to feed wheat was 26 cents. This year the differential is 40 cents, with most of the extra on the lower grades.

The initial payment on No. 1 is down from $1.75 to $1.40.

Trade Minister Howe explained the Wheat Board's stand this way:

The miller or buyer starts at the bottom of the scale and looks at the premium he must pay to get a higher grade of wheat. If he considers the premium is too great he will buy a lower grade.

Faced with an overwhelming supply of low-grade wheat to market this year, the Wheat Board wants to make the discount for lower-grade wheat more attractive so the buyer will by-pass the scarce high grades.

Council Unruffled

STOCKPORT, England—(CP). —Ex-Sailor Jimmy Espley slept every night for four weeks in a hammock slung in his front garden, trying to persuade authorities to find a house for his family. Council ruled the Espleys must wait their turn.

MORE DEER

PORT ARTHUR, Ont. —(CP)— Sibley Provincial Park, a game preserve during recent years, has been re-opened for deer hunting from Oct. 16 to Nov. 25 because the deer population has greatly increased.

POTENTIAL PEER — Arthur Charles Plunkett, 64, of Vancouver, may become the 16th Lord of Louth, a title originated by Henry VIII, according to an announcement from London. Engineer for the Canadian National Railways at Port Mann, B.C., he told reporters he was too busy to discuss the matter when his picture was taken.

Rev. Stands On Head On Church Roof-Bet

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Oct. 24—(AP)—Rev. Geoffrey W. Royall of the Nazarene Church said several weeks ago that if his Sunday School class brought enough recruits to swell the membership to 300 he'd do something drastic.

"I'll climb on the roof and stand on my head, right in view of everyone of you," he promised.

His flock took him at his word. Not 300, but 500 attended his week's service.

Mr. Royall made good his promise. He climbed an improvised ladder to the roof, tilted his body on his arms, turned upside down and stood on his head.

The faithful cheered.

608-Foot Tower Falls

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 24 — (AP)—A steel transmission tower under construction for radio station KHQ of Spokane collapsed yesterday soon after it had been built to a height of 608 feet. The only injuries received by workmen on the project were not serious.

Coalition Gov't Gets 1st By-Election Test

WINNIPEG, Oct. 24 (CP)—The Manitoba Coalition Government today undergoes its first test of strength since the general election last year—and it may be its last test, too.

The tests are by-elections in the constituencies of St. Andrews and St. Clements—both government seats—on opposite sides of the Red River just north of Winnipeg.

Later this week—Oct. 27 and 28 —the Provincial Conservative Party meets in Brandon to decide whether it will continue in the coalition with the Liberal-Progressives.

To Ask Withdrawal

Errick F. Willis, Progressive Conservative leader who personally quit the coalition and his post as public works minister last August, is expected to be re-elected as leader. Last night he said in a radio address that the intends to ask withdrawal of the party from the coalition.

If they withdraw—and it is generally considered this is the overwhelming prospect—it will not endanger the administration of Premier Douglas L. Campbell, who has a safe working majority.

The two major parties have both run candidates only in St. Andrews where Thomas P. Hillhouse is the Liberal candidate and John Veitch the Progressive Conservative. The CCF, the official opposition in the legislature, has William Gordon.

St. Andrews was vacated by the death June 23 of Attorney-General James McLeanghen, Progressive Conservative who in 1949 polled 3,456 votes to 1,652 for a CCF candidate.

The St. Clements seat was opened July 11 when Nicholas Stryk, Liberal-Progressive coalition supporter, died. Mr. Stryk carried the seat in 1949 by 2,752 votes to 1,171 for an Independent CCF candidate.

St. Clements is another three-way fight, with Albert Trapp, Coalition Liberal, opposed by Harry Waslyk, CCF, and A. Bileski, Labor-Progressive.

Light Poll

A heavy poll is not expected. The campaign has been quiet in both constituencies. Colder weather with scattered showers or snow flurries is predicted. Many farmers in the agricultural constituencies still are engaged in the harvest.

The standing in the 57-seat legislature is: Coalition—Liberal-Progressive 28, Progressive Conservative 7, others 5, total 40; opposition—CCF 7, Conservative 2, Independent Progressive Conservative 2, others 2, total 15. Vacant 2.

Why Seagram's sells Canada first

This is an adaptation of one of a series of advertisements which, for the past two years, The House of Seagram has published in magazines and newspapers printed in many languages and countries throughout the world. These advertisements feature various Canadian products—lumber, salmon, furs, nickel, apples, plywood and many others.

One out of every three dollars we Canadians earn comes to us as a result of foreign trade. This campaign is designed to help all Canadian industries and, consequently, to help put money in the pockets of every Canadian citizen.

Nature has endowed our country with an almost limitless supply of valuable resources. Properly used and converted to manufactured goods, these resources can carry our nation to unprecedented greatness. But first, the peoples of other lands must learn of the prestige and quality of Canadian products.

The House of Seagram believes that it is in the interest of every Canadian manufacturer to help the sale of all Canadian products in foreign markets. It is in this spirit that these advertisements are being produced and published throughout the world.

Germans Seek Permission Produce Synthetic Rubber

By HEINZ WEISSENBERGER

RECKLINGHAUSEN, Ruhr, Oct. 24 (Reuters).—Buna, the synthetic rubber which Hitler hoped would help him win the war, is back in the news again.

The Allies, who stopped production in 1945, are discussing with West German producers whether permission to produce it shall be restored. When news of the talks leaked out, the Allies said that the Germans had taken the initiative. The Germans, on the other hand, said the Americans had told them to ask for the permit.

Joseph Taylor, United States Industry Control official at Weisbaden, near Frankfurt, summed it up diplomatically in the phrase "It was a 50-50 initiative."

UK Scapegoats

British authorities, scapegoats in so many affairs of this kind, were again allegedly being "difficut" over something the Americans were so willing to concede to the Germans.

Dr. Paul Baumann, 53-year-old director of the former I. G. Farben chemical works at Huels, the only West German works still capable of making buna, accused British authorities of deliberately obstructing the talks.

Only one of the original eight buna processing plpants at Huels was spared from dismantling. The huge works, with its red-brick halls, batteries of tanks and cylinders, and hundreds of miles of steel tubing, produced 40,000 tons a year, or about one-third of Germany's wartime rubber demand.

Main Plant.

Hitler's main works, with an annual production of 70,000 tons, were at Schkopau, near Hall, in the Soviet zone. Today, it is a Soviet state-owned corporation.

Baumann claims that at Huels production could be started three months after permission is given.

The Huels works, built in 1938 on the northern fringe of the Ruhr, now employ 7,500 workers in the production of soap, insecticides, disinfectants and other chemicals.

I. G. Farben experts estimate that the Huels plants could produce about 7,000 tons of buna a year —"a mere trifle" Baumann said, "compared with the American plants on the Mississippi in Louisiana, which could produce about half of the world's natural rubber output (1948: 1,500,000 tons)."

Civil Servants May Pick Leave, Gratuity

OTTAWA, Oct. 24 — (CP) — Federal civil servants, reaching retirement age or retiring voluntarily after Nov. 1, will be able to choose between a retirement leave and a lump-sum gratuity, it was learned Monday.

The government has changed the regulation under which civil servants were given leave on retirement. The length of the leave, during which thy collected their regular salary, depended on the length of service. A maximum leave of six months was granted employees with service of 15 years or more.

Under new regulations the employees will be able to take the retirement leave or a lump-sum gratuity. The amount of the gratuity will vary according to salary and years of service.

The new regulation will apply to persons 65 and over, whose retirement is authorized, and to persons 60 and over who apply for voluntary retirement.

Missionary Work In Africa Described

ROSENEATH, Oct. 24 (ENS).—Schools made possible by Canadian missionary societies are the only hope for African boys and girls, the Rev. Theodore Tucker, United Church missionary to Africa, told members of Roseneath WMS at their annual thankoffering service.

The meeting was held in Roseneath United Church. Rev. Tucker is at present home on furlough from Angola.

Boarding schools set up by contributions from Canadian mission societies are training leaders so that Africans can help themselves.

Rev. Tucker said the infant mortality rate in Africa was almost 50 per cent, and the average wage of an African workers 10 cents a day. The average life expectancy is 25 years, and the staple diet of the African is corn meal mush.

Mrs. J. N. Lovelace, president of the WMS, was in the chair, and welcomed the guests.

Second and third places in the contest were taken by Holly Tucker and Douglas Lean, whose subjects were "Mackenzie King" and "Raising Chickens."

The contest was held Friday evening in Legion Hall, Apsley, and there were 12 contestants — six from Apsley, two from Clysdale, two from North Apsley School ,and two from Chandos.

Judges were Mrs. Pidgeon, Mrs. Bott, and Miss V. Prouty. Chairman was M. C. Tucker.

Ontario Education

HAMILTON, Oct. 24 (CP). — Premier Frost of Ontario said Monday night Ontario is miles ahead of most countries in the world in the subsidization of education. Speaking at the official opening of the $2,000,000 Delta secondary school extension, he said that in the last six years, provincial grants for education have increased from about $8,500,000 in 1944 to about $43,000,000 this year.

Japs Rebuilding, But Long For Freedom

Amazingly successful was the way the rebuilding and reorganization of Japan was described to the Rotary club at its weekly luncheon on Monday. The speaker was the Rev. Dr. Ernest Bott, field director of the Japanese branch of the Licensed Agencies for the Relief in Asia. Dr. Bott gave much of the credit for this success to General Douglas MacArthur.

In spite of the problems and complications in feeding the people, governing them, rebuilding the cities and understanding their way of the life, Dr. Bott reported that "a good job has been done."

Dr. Bott said that Japan does not produce enough food for its people and must import 20 per cent. At the end of the war the occupation forces first had to start the imports flowing in order to prevent wholesale starvation.

Near Starvation

Until the importation of food began, Dr. Bott pointed out, the people were near starvation. In 1946 they ate sweet potatoes three times a day for three weeks.

The ration then was 1,200 calories a day or a "good reducing diet," explained Dr. Bott. The Japanese sold their furniture and other goods to obtain money for extra food on the black market which the occupation forces were trying to blot out.

"They all had to use the black market to stay alive," said Dr. Bott.

The speaker said that 75 per cent of Tokyo was destroyed and when he returned there after the war he became lost on streets he knew well before the war. These houses are gradually being built.

Top Officials Removed

Due to the purge after the war the Japanese government had to be reorganized. Top officials of the country's life were removed and the army disappeared. In industry the "best brains" were taken away and their services lost.

He hastily added that he did not suggest there should have been no purge, but continued that it was a fact the purge in industry and social life removed the top men. The same applied in politics and education.

One of the chief difficulties has been getting experienced and qualified leaders. The government has functioned well but is not free. The occupation forces set up the government and the whole life of the country is directed by the military government.

Discussing several of the handicaps under which the government worked, Dr. Bott explained that the language problem has caused considerable confusion due to the lack of knowledge of it.

At first, Dr. Bott said, the people didn't resist when the occupation forces took their buildings, etc., taking most of the actions for granted. Now, he added, the people are feeling that it would be nice to be back on their own."

The occupation forces have been trying to hand more and more authority over but the final word is yet with General MacArthur.

Population Increased

Contrary to the usual war effect, the population of Japan has increased by 5,000,000 to 83,000,000, said Dr. Bott. He explained this by saying that nearly 6,000,000 Japanese had to be returned from China and other countries.

The people entering the country provided an additional problem. They could only enter with what they could carry in their hands and the Japanese equivalent of $3.

The future in Japan depends on the attitude of the people. The Communist party, although not large and most of the Japanese oppose it, could become stronger, he pointed out, should the people feel the future holds little for them.

In closing, Dr. Bott recommended that everything should be done to support the spread of Christianity in Japan and that material help should be sent on a private basis.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. Donald Clark and thanked by Burritt Smitheram.

Chinese Reds Advancing To Start Tibet Invasion

NEARLY THIRTY-THOUSAND DOLLARS the richer, Stan Longhurst of 319 Park St., read the good news of his winnings for the first time today from the teletype in the Examiner newsroom. His horse Zina which ran second in the Cambridgeshire Handicap at Newmarket, England, was ridden by 14-year-old feature racing jockey Lester Piggott. Stan's ticket stub was carefully cached away in the safety deposit box of his bank.

S. Longhurst Wins $29,325 As Horse Places Second

Mr. H. S. (Stan) Longhurst, 319 Park St., secretary-treasurer of the Armstrong Lumber Company, has a ticket worth $29,325 on the result of the running of the Cambridgeshire Handicap at Newmarket, England, today. His horse, Zina, placed second in a photo-finish of the first three horses under the wire, meaning they were so close that he was within a nose of taking the first prize money of $75,000 in the Irish Free State Hospitals draw. "No-o-o!", on a rising inflection of mingled doubt and delighted surprise, was Mr. Longhurst's reply to the big news that was ready for him when he arrived in the Examiner's city room at 10.15 o'clock this morning.

A cablegram had informed him last Thursday that he had drawn the horse Zina. The luck he had casually bidden last July when he bought a Free State Hospitals ticket for 12.50 suddenly loomed as an exciting possibility of cutting in on the big money in its listing as one of the 36 starters.

Outlook Brightened

He had read the press forecast of the race with cooling hopes when he saw Zina quoted at 22 to 1, but this morning's early news brightened the outlook with the information that Zina was likely to be heavily supported.

Mr. Longhurst went to the office at the usual time this morning, but not quite the usual person. He knew he had better than an outside chance of being up there at the finish, but he wasn't banking keenly on the results of a horse race, which according to other men's experience could be largely influenced by fate and circumstance over the distance of nine furlongs, 1⅛ miles.

Casualness and nonchalance got the better of Mr. Longhurst, and shortly before ten o'clock he put on his coat and drove into town, and to the Examiner, where he is hardly a stranger.

The emotions of elation burst into the well known Longhurst laugh, with full radiance of smiling. But, he was mostly wordless, as if the import of the routine clicking of the teletype was taking time to register in his impressions.

"Why didn't you get down here earlier," he was asked.

"To tell the truth I was afraid the horse wouldn't be in the money (the first three), so no news was still good news," he replied.

This was an instance in which the actual news was only a short snout from $73,000, and literally translated that piece of paper in his wallet to a cheque for $10,000.

At the Royal Bank, the pound was quoted at $2.93 and a fraction this morning.

"Just like everybody," Mr. Longhurst said. "I put the ticket in my pocket, and forgot until last week. Then things began to happen."

Reds Threaten Austrian Split

VIENNA, Oct. 25 (AP)—Communist newspapers openly threatened today that Austria might be split in two—the same as East and West Germany—before long.

The threat came as the Russians countermanded an Austrian government order suspending five pro-Communist district police chiefs in Russian sectors of Vienna.

A similar Russian action was partially responsible in 1948 for the east-west split of Berlin.

The suspended police chiefs still were at theirs desk this morning, refusing to obey orders to leave.

American intelligence officers said as far as they knew, the suspended police officers had issued no orders of a nature threatening the city's security.

The recalcitrant five—who enjoy Russian support—were suspended for firing several police inspectors who declined to sign papers pledging co-operation with the Communists.

Chinese Guns Down U.S. Plane In Sea

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP)—The Air Force said today an American F-51 fighter plane was hit yesterday by anti-aircraft fire from the Chinese side of the Korean-Chinese border.

A spokesman said the pilot flew the plane out to sea but had to put down there. He was picked up by United Nations naval craft.

He said the American plane was three miles south of the border when fired on from the Chinese side.

This was the second report of American planes subjected to anti-aircraft fire from across the Chinese border.

Dispatches from Korea yesterday said two U.S. Marine planes were fired on Monday. Neither was hit.

Kelling Takes First Spot

NEWMARKET, England, Oct. 25 (CP)—Kelling won the 109th running of the Cambridgeshire Stakes today in a three-way photo finish. Zina was second with Valdesco third.

Kelling was ridden to victory by D. Smith in the race on which an Irish Sweepstakes is based.

Lester Piggott, the 14-year-old riding sensation of the British racing season, was aboard Zina.

It was Piggott's last ride of the season as he had been suspended by the Jockey Club earlier today following an inquiry into a race last week.

31 Started

Thirty-one horses started in the race.

The other starters, not in the order of finish, were Hyperbole, Flush Royal, Periscope III, Burnt Brown, Urfe, Stormy Petrel, Refund, Tribal Song, Master Gunner, Backtor, Black Pampas, Coastal Wave, Persia, Rubens III, Cabbage Hill, Rodogat, Fastnet Rock, Nur-Ur-Din, Luciferous, Coalition, Montezol, Ma Soeur Anne, Crown Flatts, Socrates, Avocet, Giglet, Mostly Light, and Sports Provider.

It took the judges more than five minutes to pick a winner after calling for the pictures.

Kelling started at odds of 100 to 7, iZna was 100 to 6, and Valdesco 28 to 1.

Socrates Favorite

Socrates started as the favorite at 10 to 3.

The official verdict was that Kelling, a three-year-old chestnut colt owned by Chris Jarvis, won by a neck. Zina, three-year-old bay filly owned by Lady Isabel Guinnes, finished a head in front of the outsider, L. Redfern's Valdesco, another three-year-old colt.

Kelling is a son of Orestes—Monk's Fancy.

The Cambridgeshire was run over a straightaway mile and one-eighth course, and the winner got a purse of £3,500 (about $10,000).

Royal Family Visits House Of Commons

LONDON, Oct. 25—(Reuters)—King George and Queen Elizabeth accompanied by the King's mother, Queen Mary, visited Britain's new House of Commons today.

It was a private visit to give the Royal Family a chance to look over the chamber in detail before the King opens it formally tomorrow.

The Commons will be returning to their own chamber for the first time since the old one was destroyed by German bombs nine years ago.

Today was the King's last opportunity of viewing the new chamber as he is barred constitutionally from being present when the House of Commons is in session.

Says Banker Tried To Hide Overdraft With $7,758 Note

WINDSOR, Oct. 25 — (CP). — Louis Barash, witness in a Supreme Court civil suit, testified yesterday that a bank manager arranged to get a $7,200 promissory note to hide a bank overdraft by a company owned by the manager.

Can't Read, Write

Barash testified in a suit brought by the Provincial Bank of Canada against Henry Moison, 62-year-old carpenter, who can neither read nor write. The bank is suing Moison for $7,758 on the note, allegedly signed by him.

Arthur C. Dorais, manager in 1947 of the bank's branch in Windsor, obtained the note to cover a $7,200 overdraft by the bankrupt Acme Wood Products Company, Barash said. He testified that Dorais bought the business from him and two others for $300 after refusing to give the company additional credit at the bank.

Barash said Dorais told him to get the promissory note from Moison during a visit of bank auditors to the branch bank in March, 1947. Moison is the father-in-law of Barash.

Signed Name

The witness said he told his father-in-law that the note would be destroyed as soon as the bank auditors were gone. He said that Moison, who can sign his name but cannot read or write, signed a blank note form which was given to Dorais.

The note was not destroyed, and Moison has refused to make payment on it.

The case is continuing.

Chief, Deputy Retired By Windsor

New Commission Recommends Two Get Full Pension

WINDSOR, Ont., Oct. 25—(CP)—Chief of Police Claude Renaud and Deputy Chief W. H. Neale were "retired" today by the Windsor Police Commission at the end of its investigation of law enforcement here.

In a formal statement, the Commission said that the interests of the police force "will be best served by the retirement of these officers." The Commission recommended that the city Board of Control put them both on full pension at once.

Until a new police chief is chosen, Staff Inspector Edwin V. McNeill, 54, of the Ontario Provincial Police will be acting chief. He was district inspector at Peterborough for one and a half years until transferred last year.

Commission Agrees

The statement, issued by Commission Chairman Judge Archibald Cochrane and signed "with the full agreement" of the other two members, Magistrate Roland A. Harris and Mayor Arthur J. Reaume, said the decision to retire the two top police officers was made after several weeks of "extensive investigation into the administration of the police force."

The investigation had been directed towards finding if the two senior officers have shown "alert and aggressive leadership" required in Windsor "where policing tasks are particularly difficult."

"The conclusion has been reached that the interests of the force will be best served by the retirement of these officers."

On Force 36 Years

Chief Renaud, on the force for 36 years, "has carried out his duties honestly and to the best of the ability which he possesses. We feel that he should be honorably retired with full recognition given to the 36 years of such service."

Deputy Chief Neale, who has served on the force for 32 years, should also be given "full recognition" of his services, the commission decided.

The commission referred to Deputy Neale's association with an equipment company which

Missing Sailor Safe Not On Sunken Ship

MONTREAL, Oct. 25 (CP). — One of two Canadians reported missing after the North Voyager sank off Newfoundland Sunday turned up safe in Montreal today.

E. M. Gaudreau, 38, of Montmagny, near Quebec City, said he quit his job aboard the vessel one hour before she sailed from Philadelphia on her ill-fated voyage to St. John's, Nfld.

The seaman walked into the Canadian Press office here today with a copy of the report on the sinking of the freighter.

He said he left Philadelphia by bus shortly after quitting his job and was unaware that he was on the official list of missing crew members until he reached Montreal.

U.S., British To Stop 20 Miles From Border

TOKYO, Oct. 26 (Thursday) — (AP).—Informed sources today said United States and British troops in Korea will stop at least 20 miles short of the Manchurian border.

They said the purpose was to minimize the dangers of a border clash. Korea borders on Russian Siberia as well as on Communist China's Manchuria.

South Korean forces will go on to the border in pursuit of Korean Communist remnants, these sources said.

Election Smells

SEATTLE, Oct. 25—(AP)—"It happens every election. Somebody sets the garbage dump on fire and stinks up my campaign." So complained Dean C. McLean, county commissioner, after another blaze — third in a week—broke out yesterday in the county garbage dump. McLean is running for re-election. "The same thing happened two years ago," he said. "Only that time whoever did it passed out printed handbills complaining about the smoke and blaming me. "Their mistake, of course, was that they passed out the handbills before they got the fire going."

Lost Boy's Body Found In Bush Bullet In Head

MADAWASKA, Ont., Oct. 25 (CP).—The body of 10-year-old Ted Rose, a bullet wound in the head, was found today in bush near this village and another boy was taken into custody.

Inspector W. H. Lougheed of the Ontario Provincial Police said the other boy is being held for questioning.

The wound in the Rose boy's head was made by a .22-calibre rifle slug, police said. They seized a rifle.

Some 400 persons — police, townsfolk and soldiers—searched the Algonquin Park bush for more than two days when the lad was reported missing.

He and Alex Yankovich, 13, had been hunting partridge, but, when young Yankovich returned to his home here Sunday, Rose remained in the woods, police were told.

Ambrose O'Malley, one of the searchers, found the body partially under a log near the Madawaska river rapids 1½ miles from this village 130 miles southeast of North Bay.

Inspector Lougheed said it was possible the Rose boy was shot accidentally.

The Yankovich boy previously had told of roaming the bush Sunday with his friend.

One report was that Alex last saw his friend in the general vicinity where the body was found.

U.S. Rejects Red Proposal One Germany

Acheson Blames German Plight On Russia's Actions

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 — (AP)—State Secretary Dean Acheson turned down today a Russian-bloc proposal for a new big power effort to establish a single German government.

The proposal was made Saturday following a two-day conference at Prague of Russian Deputy Premier V. M. Molotov and Foreign Ministers of seven Satellite countries.

Acheson in a statement blamed Germany's plight on Russia's post war actions. The proposals made at Prague, he said, "should be directed to the government of the Soviet Union."

Russia, he declared, could make the postwar Potsdam agreement "one hundred per cent complete in Germany by taking the required steps in the Soviet zone."

Criticizes Proposal

"The time has long since passed when the world can be stirred to hope by general phrases from the Soviet Union about disarmament and peace and German unity," Acheson said.

"We who have striven so hard want actions—we want the threatening East German army disbanded, the capricious restraints on internal German trade removed, and free democratic elections held in all Germany.

End Threats

"We want an end to threats such as that uttered by the Communist Ulbricht, deputy head of the East German regime, on Aug. 3, when he declared that the government of the federal republic would share what he hoped was going to be the fate of the Republic of Korea.

Acheson gave reporters at a press conference a 900-word statement which took up and dismissed one by one, the proposals advanced at Prague. The statement concluded:

Always Hope

"We will always hope for and welcome tangible proof that Soviet intentions have changed. The Prague statement gives us no

Black Eye Worth $10

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 25—(AP)—The fire department at nearby Jacksonville decided to do something about motorists who get in the way at fires. What it did was to put on a fake fire alarm. When motorists started driving over fire hose at the "scene" of the non-existent fire yesterday, the firemen started squirting water—at the motorists. One man took a punch at a fireman. It cost the puncher $10 in court. The fireman had a black eye.

Western Army May Surpass Planners' Hopes

By ELTON C. FAY.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25 (AP). —The 12 North Atlantic countries banded together for defence against Communist armed might, may be able to create a bigger force and do it faster than their military planners have hoped.

This prospect, cheering to a nervous Western world, developed out of the opening session yesterday of the Military Committee of the North Atlantic Treaty organization.

Bradley's Plea

It resulted, essentially, from three things:

1—The urgent plea by Gen. Omar Bradley of the United States to the committee for action now to bring into being an integrated land, sea and air force to resist any new military thrusts by Russia or her Communist satellites.

2—A move in the Military Committee, sparked by one of the smaller countries, to contribute to the combined defensive organization a larger force than had been blueprinted.

3—The overt act of Communism — bringing war to Korea—which has stepped up the tempo of rearmament by most of the Atlantic powers, whether or not they are fighting in the Far Eastern conflict.

Speeding Approved

A spokesman for the American delegation to the conference did not identify the small country that set off the move to speed up formation of the combined forces.

China Radio Announces "Liberation"

Land Of 3,000,000 Has Priest Gov't. Boy Spiritual Head

TOKYO, Oct. 25—(AP)—Radio Peiping broadcast today that Chinese Reds are moving on Tibet, mid-Asian country seldom seen by white men. The Communist radio said the purpose of the Chinese Communist advance is "to free 3,000,000 Tibetans from Imperial oppression. It did not mention the size of the Chinese force, its destination or whereabouts.

Nomadic Tibet is ruled by yellow-robed Lamaist priests. It covers 470,000 square miles in the lofty Himalaya mountains and often is called "the roof of the world." In winter it is almost inaccessible by land approaches.

The grave news of a possible new Communist-inspired war in Asia, this time on the opposite side of China from Korea, swept Asian capitals.

Border Reports

At New Delhi, the Indian foreign ministry said it had reports of "certain troops movements and incursions" by Chinese Reds along the China-Tibet border.

But it had no direct word of a Chinese invasion of Tibet, where already winter snows and icy mountain passes would make travel by foot soldiers difficult if not impossible.

Neither Washington nor Hong Kong, a good Oriental listening post, had any report of a Sino-Red move against the priestly government of Tibet.

The Peiping broadcast, heard in Tokyo, said the Red army's "liberation" move was disclosed

Ford Denies Layoff Highhanded

Union Wants Layoffs On Plant-Wide Seniority Basis

WINDSOR, Oct. 25—(CP)—Ford Motor Company of Canada has denied a union charge that it plans indiscriminate layoffs of 5,600 men in the coming change-over to 1951 auto and truck models.

Roy England, President of the big Ford local of United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.), said yesterday that the company told union negotiators that it would lay men off "as it sees fit."

Mr. England said the union has asked for an umpire to settle the layoff dispute, which hinges on the interpretation of seniority clauses in the present union-company agreement signed last May 29.

Keep Agreement

A company spokesman replied that Ford would keep "strictly" to the agreement when the main layoff begins this Friday.

"At no time have we said we would lay men off as we see fit," he said.

The union wants seniority applied on a plant-wide basis in the layoff, while the company feels it should be applied on a departmental basis.

The Ford spokesman also described as "distorted" union statements of what the layoff will involve. The union said that more than 1,000 of the 5,600 would be idled 35 days or more.

5,600 Peak

The change-over would continue until early December, the Ford spokesman said, but 5,600 employees would be the peak number off at any one time. The majority would be idle seven or 10 days, and "only a few hundred" would be affected for longer. Some of these, however, might be off work for the entire change-over or more than six weeks.

The company yesterday announced a layoff—not connected with the model change—that will idle 50 men on truck assembly lines until Monday. Another 140 well be laid off in the machine shop Thursday or Friday because of reduced truck requirements.

The layoff was laid to a shortage of sheet metal parts from a United States supplier.

Steel Prices To Jump $10 Ton; Increase Pay

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 —(AP)—Steel prices in the United States will go up $6 to $10 a ton and steelworkers will get wage and "fringe" benefits—vacations, pensions etc.—totalling 17½ to 18 cents an hour, the Iron Age, metalworking trade weekly, says today.

The publication says the price increase will average somewhere near $8 a ton or about 10 per cent.

This "will take care of raw material advances, labor increase (including white-collar workers), uneconomical production due to defence orders and expansion cost, most of which has to come from profits."

Unless something entirely unforeseen occurs, the publication adds, the price-wage change in steel will happen soon.

Steel production this week was placed at 102.5 per cent of rated capacity, another record high for steel melted in a single week.

but he said the idea immediately gained approval from the other chiefs of staff who represent the treaty members.

He said the idea for speeding up applies to all phases of the plan—the immediate, emergency action to get a defensive force into existence, intermediate steps to follow that, and also in what had been considered as the "long-range future."

But the agreement of the military chiefs of staff on the idea of providing forces faster and making them bigger was only a first step.

Check With Home

The proposal and a multitude of other details arising in yesterday's discussion compelled the Military Committee to recess until tomorrow, instead of finishing business in one day, while the chiefs today consult their superiors in Washington and at their home capitals.

Actually, whatever the Military Committee does constitutes only recommendations on which the high-level committee of defence ministers will act at a meeting on Saturday and which that committee, in turn, may send on to the Council of Foreign Ministers of the Treaty powers. Canada will be represented by Defence Minister Brooke Claxton.

UN Columns Advance Near Border

Reds Fleeing Ahead In Ox-Carts, Afoot Little Resistance

SEOUL, Oct. 25 — (AP) — South Korean troops thrust within 32 miles of the Manchurian border tonight in the drive to end the war.

North Koreans fled in ox carts and afoot before five northward driving Allied divisions.

The South Korean 6th division was reported closest to the border. It was four miles west of Hoemok-tong and about 20 miles northwest of Huichon in North Central Korea.

The 6th veered northwest at Huichon, taking the shortest road route to the border-marking Yalu river.

The Commonwealth 27th Brigade, made up of British and Australian forces, and three other South Korean divisions were pushing northward on both sides and in the middle of the mountainous peninsula.

Repeat Error

Intelligence officers at Gen. MacArthur's headquarters in Tokyo said reports that a South Korean force already has reached the Korean-Manchurian border "are in error."

There was no resistance, except for small-arms fire in a few spots. Nor was there any evidence of a big convoy moving southward to oppose the United Nations clean-up campaign.

The Far East air forces reported a cluster of miscellaneous vehicles was strafed by fighter planes Tuesday. Fifty-five vehicles were destroyed, 40 damaged.

That was at Mupyong, 20 miles southwest of Kanggye, near the Manchurian border about midway across the Korean Peninsula. Kanggye has been reported to be the mountain retreat of the refugee Red regime.

But outside of the vehicular concentration, the air force went a-begging for targets. Ox carts and Reds afoot were attacked.

An air spokesman in Tokyo said only one heavy bomber went out Wednesday. It dropped propaganda leaflets on eight North Korean cities between the six advancing spearheads and the border.

Red Reports

The North Korean communique as broadcast by Moscow radio, spoke of "heavy defensive battles" north of the captured Communist capital of Pyongyang.

The Philippines combat team, one of the United Nations forces arriving belatedly in Korea, was mentioned officially in Tokyo for the first time. A headquarters spokesman said it is active in mopping up die-hard Red guerillas in South Korea, near the old Pusan beachhead perimeter.

Guerrillas Active

Guerrillas were active in several areas. The main railway line between Taegu and Seoul was cut for several hours by raiders who ambushed a patrol.

A by-passed pocket of an estimated 2,000 Reds 14 miles south of the east coast port of Wonsan threatened, for a while, to cut a rail line.

The Allied spearheads driving north continued to pick up big stores of abandoned Communist equipment.

On the west coast, the Commonwealth Brigade built up its bridgehead across the Chongchon River from Sinanju, and began a drive on Chongju, 50 miles south of the border.

On the east coast, the South Korean capital division pushed from Iwon toward Songjin, 40 miles away. Because the coastal road runs northeast, both towns are within a 75-mile radius of the border.

supplied $2,500 worth of clothes and equipment to the police force annually. He was formerly president, and holds a third interest in the firm, which he described to the commission as a family business.

"It should be made clear," the commission stated, "that although in the opinion of the commissioners this association was indiscreet and perhaps unwise, there is nothing in the rules and regulations of the Windsor police force which prevented him from engaging in this enterprise."

Rules Ancient

The rules and regulations were drawn up in 1923, and were termed "ancient" by Judge Coehrane during the commission investigation.

Chief Renaud questioned in the early stages of the investigation, admitted that he had not obeyed many of these rules, including those requiring him to give orders to his force and hold regular drills and parades.

The commission chairman told him at the time that, although the rules were outdated, they should have been followed.

Today's statement said the commission's next task is the appointment of a police chief "who will bring . . . qualities of leadership and experience which are requisite to that appointment."

Until such time that the appointment was made, Attorney-General Porter had made the services of Staff Inspector McNeill available. He will take over at once as acting chief of police.

Industrials Drop For Second Day

TORONTO, Oct. 25 — (CP) — Industrials continued yesterday's decline with losses up a point as the session progressed on the Toronto Stock Exchange today.

They opened mixed and then began to decline strongly. Mild support was seen throughout the board, however, with a fair number of issues bucking the trend for gains. Steels, foods, liquors, constructions, refining oils and retail stores showed a majority of losses in the groupings. Utilities agricultures, textile and manufacturing companies were mixed and papers and banks advanced.

Base metals were irregular though most leaders were lower.

Junior and senior gold producers declined strongly with a wide list of issues lower. Prices were fairly narrow, however, and losses were mostly limited to less than 10 cents.

Western oils drifted lower for the seventh straight session with penny losses. Oil selections was the most heavily traded issue on the board advancing four cents following news of a new financing agreement.

Tibet Delegation

After the Red broadcast a Tibetan delegation left New Delhi for Peiping to try to talk with the Chinese Communist regime on Tibet's future. Delegation members said their departure for Peiping constituted a denial of the invasion report.

The seven-man delegation is expected to reach Peiping in mid-November. It left Tibet in April.

Tibet maintains it is autonomous. The Communists insist it is part of China. The mountainous country declared its independence centuries ago. China recognized its autonomy in 1914.

Since Nationalist China fell last year, the Chinese Reds have clamored for inclusion of Tibet in Red China. Lofty Tibet is described as strongly anti-Communist.

Small Army

Its army is small, between 10,000 and 100,000 men. Their equipment poor, mostly rifles and no armor.

The Communists have accused Tibet of being friendly with American and British "imperialists." Both countries have been accused of wanting Tibet as a base for aggression in Asia.

For months the Chinese Red radio has plumped for "liberation" of Tibet.

Forecast Invasion

In August Communist Gen. Liu Po-Cheng forecast a march on Tibet by his Chinese soldiers and said an invasion would have this double purpose:

1. "Drive out aggressive influence of American imperialism.
2. "Consolidate the west line of national defence."

Lama 15

The spiritual ruler of Tibet is the Dalai Lama, a 15-year-old who is under a priestly regent.

Two years ago he led the "living Buddhas" and student lamas in three days of prayer against Communism.

Revolt

A few days later a revolt broke out in Lhasa, the capital, but it was quelled. Many reports at that time said the revolt was Communist-inspired.

Since then there have been recurrent reports of revolts in Tibet. The Tibetans avoided the Chinese civil war by ordering the Nationalist Chinese mission in Lhasa to leave the country.

Tibetan reports later said the tiny country was looking to the United States for aid in combatting any possible Communist aggression.

As to what he was going to do with it: "I haven't had time to think about that."

Mr. Longhurst is a former manager of Beaver Lumber and Scott Lumber Companies. He was district manager of Wartime Housing Corporation and ultimately eastern Ontario supervisor from this area to the Ottawa river. He is a member and past president of the Kiwanis Club, and was head of the Peterborough Sea Cadets during the war, with a bachelor's interest in the welfare of teenage and younger boys.

The news Mr. Longhurst read from the ticket sheet especially mentions the ride young Lester Pigott gave Zina. Only 14 years old he has been sensation of the British racing season, but the Cambridgeshire Handicap was his last ride of the year. Stewards at Newmarket had set him down today until next year, according to the report from London.

Mr. Longhurst was still laughing as he left the Examiner city room, but he hadn't checked back at the Armstrong Lumber office at 11:30, not on a day of an exhilarating $30,000 dropping into your lap.

The Longhurst luck rolled in with the biggest take in local sharing in any of the larger lotteries. There was some indistinct memory today of a $52,000 split ticket in the district, years ago, but names eluded recollection. It said that the division of the money was made. One of the lucky holders of that ticket was said to have been an elderly man who, when he died, left $32,000 to his companion in the ticket purchase.

Only seven houses on Park St. north separate Stan Longhurst and Dr. Don Clark, another holder of a ticket in the Irish Free State Hospitals draw.

Mr. Longhurst lives at the southwest corner of Charlotte St. and Dr. Clark is half way between Gilmour and Hunter Sts. Dr. Clark's horse Giglet was an also ran. In the draw that position in the ruck is worth about $530.

George Hall, 66-year-old Toronto bachelor who was born in Scotland, won $73,750 when Kelling came home in front.

Hall, who works for a Toronto manufacturing plant, held a ticket on Kelling. Mrs. Effie Clay, a Toronto widow also held a ticket on Zina.

Several other Toronto and Ontario ticket-holders won residual prizes ranging from $384 to $530.

In the course of the press conference, Acheson also:

1. Welcomed the initiative taken by the French government in proposing a method for organizing western European defence forces, including those of western Germany. The proposal will be given further study by the U.S. government.
2. Pledged the U.S. will continue to do everything in its power to obtain the release of many thousands of German and Japanese war prisoners he said are still held by Russia five years after the Second World War.

Because Cornish tin miners appeared to avoid skin blemishes, British chemists suggested the use of tin in treating Boils, Acne, Pimples.

Now convenient, tasteless tablets containing 42.5% metallic tin are available under the brand name "Tinoxid". Rapid, satisfactory results are claimed for this inexpensive treatment.

Tinoxid Tablets are sold without prescription at all drug stores, 75c.

Butter Surplus May Melt Next Spring

OTTAWA, Oct. 25 — (AP) — A general tightening up in production and increase in consumption may spell the end of surplus butter days for Canada next spring.

A government agriculture official discloses that the government, under its support plan, has purchased only about 36,000,000 pounds of butter this year, compared with about 48,500,000 last year.

The surplus butter-producing period in Canada is between May and September. Last spring, when Canada went into new butter production, the government held about 18,000,000 pounds, which it sold partly through foreign sales and partly through below-market prices in Canada.

Smaller Stocks

Smaller stocks in government warehouses were reflected in declines in general holdings. The Bureau of Statistics estimated that stocks of creamery butter in nine centres on Oct. 20 totalled 48,651,000 pounds—a drop of about 5,400,000 from 54,035,000 at the same time last year.

Agriculture officials estimate that butter production this year has dropped about four per cent. Last year's output totalled about 330,000,000 pounds. This year it may decline to about 320,000,000. In September, production of creamery butter declined to 28,800,000 from 30,600,000 last year.

On the other hand consumption increased. For the first eight months of 1950 it totalled 206,500,000, compared with 199,000,000 last year.

Stocks of government butter will be moved out to market on the same basis as last year, officials say. Last year the government paid about 58 cents a pound basis delivery at Montreal or Toronto, and sold the butter for about 60 cents a pound, delivered in carload lots to anyone who chose to buy it. The difference between the buying and the selling price included freight and storage charges.

This year the support price has been reduced to 53 cents a pound. The government—when it starts selling butter, probably within the next month or two—may be about 55 cents a pound in carload lots, although this is not certain. A decision may be announced shortly.

The Price Of Admiralty

It is very often said at present that the United States has supplanted Great Britain as the most powerful nation on earth. This is true in a measure, but it demands modification: it is very doubtful if Britain was ever so overmasteringly powerful in relation to other nations as sentimental thinkers imagine, and her period of greatest power did not endure for much more than twenty-five years; the power of the U.S.A. at present is very great, but it is not unchecked, and there is no reason to suppose that it will endure in its present form for any long period. But it is certainly true that the U.S.A. is getting very little fun out of its supremacy. Britain, for a while, enjoyed the sweets of empire; the U.S.A. has had little but abuse.

If blood be the price of admiralty,
Lord God, we ha' paid in full!

Thus wrote Kipling, who understood the brilliant and the dark side of imperialism. The U.S.A. has not, as yet, paid very heavily in blood, but is continually paying heavily in self-esteem and shattered ideals.

* * *

The recent conference of the Institute of Pacific Relations in Lucknow offers an example of what the U.S.A. is undergoing at present. Since the war the States has been pouring money into India, and the stream increased greatly after the British left. Some of this money was undoubtedly meant to grab Indian trade and influence, but a large part of it—perhaps the largest part—was intended only to help India to get on its feet and to establish itself as a self-governing land. But at Lucknow the outcry against the U.S.A. appears to have been loud and rancorous. Apparently all that most of the Indians at Lucknow could imagine was that the States was eager to draw Asia into economic thralldom and exploit it. This has been disillusioning for the Americans, who like to think of themselves, and with justification, as nice fellows.

Salty comment is offered on this situation by Richard Needham, in the Calgary Herald, in these words:

Live and learn, as the fellow said when he struck a match to look in the gas tank: live and learn. The Americans are finding out what it means to be, as Britain once was, the most powerful nation on earth. It means envy. It means fear. It means suspicion. It means hatred. It means being kicked in the teeth and stabbed in the back and asked for a hand-out all at once and the same time, and then being kicked in the teeth again because the hand-out wasn't big enough. The Americans have long been celebrated for their idealism; if they have any left ten years from now, we shall be very much surprised.

"The United States is not seeking sympathy, appreciation or gratitude," mourns The New York Times. "But it does at least ask a modicum of understanding." Ask, and ye shall not receive. We can remember when the British asked a modicum of understanding—just a modicum, mind you—for their civilizing work in Africa, Asia, and other foreign parts. And what did they get? That flapping sound you hear, gentlemen, is caused by the chickens, coming home to roost.

There may be an undue bitterness in that last comment. The American people broke away from an empire, for reasons which have not yet been completely explored; for a century and more they were strongly critical of that empire. But wisdom comes with years, and they are now finding out how vexatious imperial power can be—especially when, as in their case, it is shorn of imperial splendour.

Mr. Churchill's Slippers

We read with the keenest interest that Mr. Churchill has his carpet slippers made especially for him, and that they are of a grandeur which would have delighted the heart of Henry VIII, or even Cardinal Wolsey. They are of blue velvet, embroidered in scroll-work with gold wire, and with his initials in letters 2¼ inches high on the toes. They cost £14 a pair.

We cannot tell precisely why we find this item of information so cheering. Everything about Mr. Churchill, like everything about Dr. Johnson, is of interest—not because of his politics or his war leadership, but because the man himself is designed on a different plan from most of humanity. Even his carpet slippers are remarkable.

There has been a sharp decline in personal magnificence during the past fifty years. Even people who can afford it—and it may be remarked that Mr. Churchill is not a rich man—do not dress themselves as handsomely and as individually as they used to do. There was a time when everybody tried to dress as well as possible. Between 1890 and 1900 there used to be prizes in Labour Day parades for the best-dressed union to appear as a body; we have heard of one chapter of the International Typographical Union which bore away the prize because all of its members turned out in silk hats, silk-faced frock coats and gloves and walking sticks; wages are vastly higher now, but where would such a dressy union be found today? And it is the same with all sorts of people. The enthusiasm for fine clothes seems to be temporarily in abeyance.

We stress the word temporarily. Mankind has always liked finery, and it cannot be too long before the human passion to dress up will assert itself again. Meanwhile, it continues unabated in some untrammeled bosoms, notably that of Mr. Churchill. We are sure that he gains great satisfaction from his elegant slippers, which so eloquently express his rich and flamboyant nature.

Average Incomes

The average income of Canadians who paid income taxes in Canada in 1948 was $2,513. That excludes about ten million other Canadians who for one reason or another did not have incomes great enough to warrant their paying any income taxes. In that year 2,689,930 Canadians paid income tax, totalling $647,700,000. The average income of the taxpayers in 1948 (including millionaires, nurses, fishermen and "deceased" — $2,513) would be sniffed at today by many hundreds of Peterborough factory workers. It is less than $50 a week.

Lawyers in Canada had the highest average income, according to 1948 taxation statistics now released. They each averaged $8,309—all 4,060 of them. Medical doctors and surgeons came next with an average of $8,309 for the year; engineers and architects third with $7,455. Down at the very bottom of the list are nurses, whose annual pay averaged $1,381. Teachers and other educators were much better off; their average income was $2,239, which was almost as good as the average earned by people classed as "employees"—$2,301.

Despite all this talk of averages, it has as little reality as the "average man", who does not exist. What people are interested in is (a) how much they themselves make (b) how much their neighbours make. Did lawyer X really make $8,309? Did engineer Y really draw down $7,455? Why worry, now; that was in 1948, and neither X or Y is "average".

An Unmistakeable Voice

The death of Edna St. Vincent Millay at the age of fifty-eight will bring to many people who admired her verse a powerful sense of the flight of time; she always seemed to be well forward among the moderns though not avant garde, and yet now she is dead and it cannot be said that she died young.

Hers was always an unmistakeable, individual voice in poetry. She had no use for affected "modernism" and often chose to express herself in words, and through scenes, which, because they were not specifically of our time might have something of all time about them. She was not heedless of the problems of our time, but she knew them to be only a part of the plight in which man finds himself at every point in history. As she wrote in 1937:

There is no peace on earth today save the peace in the heart
At home with God. From that sure habitation
The heart looks forth upon the sorrows of the savage world
And pities them, and ministers to them; but is not implicated.
All else has failed, as it must always fail.
No man can be at peace with his neighbour who is not at peace
With himself; the troubled mind is a trouble maker.

There is much of Edna St. Vincent Millay's own life in these lines, for she pitied and ministered, but was not implicated.

NOTE AND COMMENT

A contemporary suggests that people who talk to themselves are mentally unbalanced. Not at all; a man may talk to himself merely in order to get a sensible answer.

Professor Nils Magnus Hohner, of Lund University in Sweden, has mastered 200 languages. We should like to be riding with Professor Lund some time when a careless motorist scrapes his paint.

Harvard criminologists have discovered a way of detecting future criminals when they start school. By the amount of chalk they hook, and the garbage cans they upset on the way thither, we presume.

ON THE MARGIN:

Dear, Delighting Donn Byrne

MY aunt Jenepher, who is so beautiful, and is blind, was sitting on a marble bench in the herb garden, whistling, and I was standing by her. I would have you know that my aunt Jenepher is the best whistler in the world: it is one of the many gifts vouchsafed for the loss of her eyes....

I was introduced to Donn Byrne at a cocktail party and have held him for a dear friend ever since, and not just because he is by way of being a compatriot of mine, an Ulster Irishman, born on this continent, but more at home in Ireland. A cocktail party, with many voices talking, is not really the best way of meeting Donn Byrne. It is better to meet him by yourself, when you can hear his lilt and his wonderful stories quietly by the fireside. So I attempt here to introduce him with his own words. The first paragraph above is the opening of his novel 'Destiny Bay'.

I have never seen Donn Byrne or heard his voice. He died, I think, about twenty years ago, and he may have died in New York and not among his beloved Mountains of Mourne, or in Donegal or Antrim. My sentimental attachment to Donn Byrne is so strong, to Donn Byrne the writer of Hangman's House, Messer Marco Polo and Blind Rafferty and His Wife Hilaria, that I would not want to meet him in the flesh or know anything at all about him that he has not told me in his stories and his evocative prose. If I knew that he died of consumption as a hack writer in New York or of drink in Coolmain Castle, it would be as bad as to know that a favourite constellation was made of iron and three and a half light years away. I could open a reference book and find out that Donn Byrne was a New Yorker, raised in Ulster who wrote what critics condemn as second-flight and ill-formed novels; but I shall not.

Donn Byrne is a teller of stories, with a mystic, whimsical touch and a fancy for the weird and wonderful, faery and earthy, romantic and sporting; and over all is a powerful nostalgia for the scents and sounds of Ireland, a heart for her coloured history and an ear for her rhythms. His is a gift for telling a tale as an Irishman tells it, and for enduing it with sweetness and half-light. There are, as in "Destiny Bay", sallies into modern North American idiom which obtrude oddly, when one's ear and mind have been lulled by the singing Irish rhythms and lore.

Byrne did not write exclusively of Ireland; his Messer Marco Polo is set far away and long ago. But his best is tinged with Ireland: her horse-raders, her rogues, her country priests, her maidens, her dark-eyed Spanish, her legends, her lush grass and lovely hills....

'Now who the devil' said I, for I had been looking down the drive, and had seen my uncle Valentine—'now who the devil has he with him now?'

My aunt Jenepher turned around and faced the drive. Her beautiful pale hands lay quietly in her lap and she was as though dreaming. 'I think I can tell you, Kerry,' she said. My aunt Jenepher had the faculty of seeing people without her eyes....

'It is a very old man,' said my aunt Jenepher, 'and a very feeble one. A very great nobleman, and a very poor one. And—'

'And the boy, Aunt Jenepher?'

'The what, Kerry?'

'The boy in the clothes that are much too big for him.'

'Is very noble,' said my aunt Jenepher, 'and good and very poor.'

They were upon us now. My uncle Valentine is one of the most striking figures in Ireland, and, by natural corollary, in the habitable world....

Wonderful, lovely story is "Destiny Bay", and it is but one of twenty books which Donn Byrne wrote. He is to be read with affection. If he is not now among the immortal tellers of tales, he will be. Read Hangman's House, Messer Marco Polo and Destiny Bay and you will go on to read all of him that you can find. T.J.A.

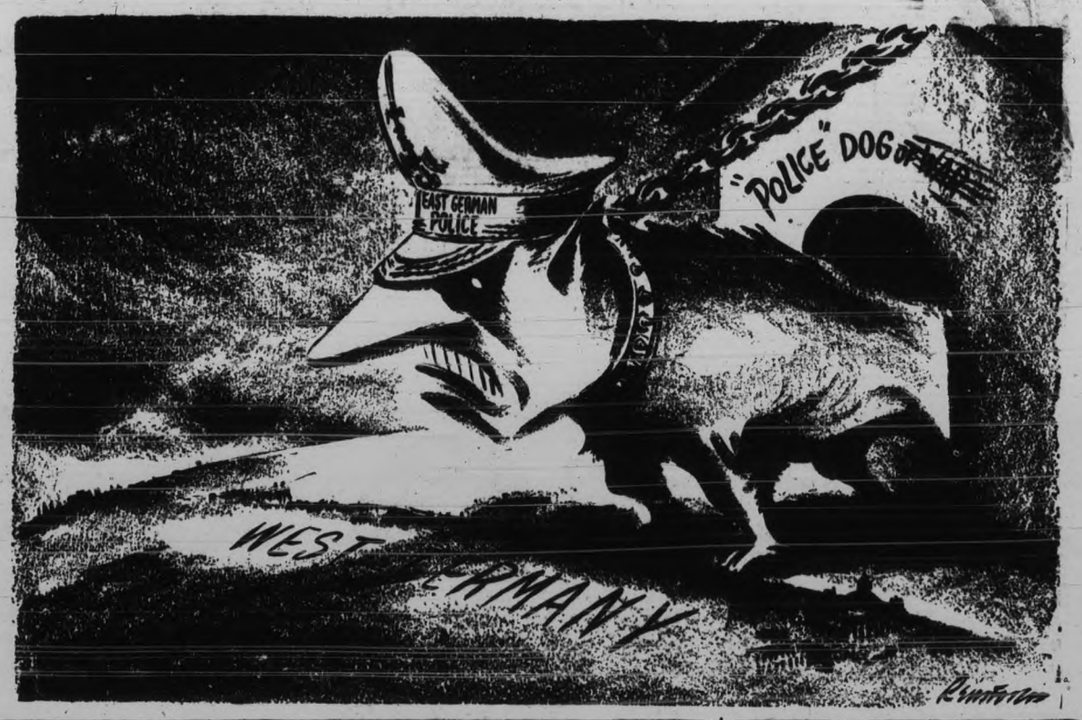
IN THE BEST FAMILIES, by Rex Stout (The Macmillan Company of Canada).

THERE have been many Nero Wolfe stories and mystery fans have heard of them and have probably read at least one. This Nero Wolfe story is one that will, if you are a regular reader of the exploits of Nero Wolfe, be one of the best you've read for a long time. Arnold Zeck, who you will probably remember as having appeared in a minor but threatening way in two previous books, plays a major and even more threatening part in this one. This is the final struggle between the two "superior intellects" and, as is to be expected, Nero wins but not without considerable trouble.

While this book is quite complete and can be ready with enjoyment by newcomers to the Wolfe fan club, it is especially interesting to those who have followed Wolfe and Archie Goodwin through many cases because it departs drastically from the usual routine and leaves the regular reader gasping at the enormity of the events in this new episode.



Heretofore the procedure has been to keep the clients of Nero Wolfe (private detective extraordinary) from disrupting the routine of his day. This consists of planning a gourmet's meals for the day which his chef delights in preparing; attending to his orchid plants from nine to eleven in the morning; being free for two hours before luncheon to quaff ale and read; attending again to the orchids from two to four; spending what time is left of the rest of the day on whatever business is on hand; and above all refusing to leave the house no matter what. As might be expected, the result of this routine is a man of tremendous size; he cares not one whit that he startles unsuspecting strangers.

One might wonder that his detective business is successful with such administration. It is, by all reports, very lucrative. Obviously the success is due in large part to Wolfe's secretary, assistant-detective, and body-guard, Archie Goodwin. Under these circumstances Archie is invaluable to Wolfe but also Wolfe is invaluable to Archie, as Archie has not Wolfe's ability to point the accusing finger at the right preson when it comes time to wind up the case.

So for years Archie (who narrates the stories wittily) has done the on-the-scene-of-the-crime leg and eye work and Wolfe has sat and thought. All this is abandoned in "In The Best Families". I will say no more for fear of spoiling the excitement.

Rex Stout is the author of approximately thirty books, most of them Nero Wolfe mysteries, and has proved himself to be an imaginative and entertaining writer. He understands people and the reasons for their actions. His characters are life-like and memorable. This, his latest book, is highly recommended reading for mystery fans. V.J.

Letters To The Editor

NOTE: We have received several letters which are unsigned except with pen names. The Examiner will not print any letter unless the name and address of the writer are attached for the information of the publishers.

THANKS FROM NEWSPAPER CARRIER

Sir: Just a few lines to thank you for giving us the chance to go to Niagara Falls. It was a lovely trip and it was the only source of way that I or my friends would have been able to see the falls or New York, or all the places that we saw, at our ages. It was a very lovely trip and I wish to thank you very much.

Thank you,
JAMES BROOKS.

THRIVES ON OPPOSITION

Sir: I was very pleased to read the first part of your editorial of Thursday, Oct. 19th.

That which followed revealed the essence of what leads to the idea that the "Examiner" could be regarded as opposition of "anti" nature.

What I refer to is the butchering of what, I hope, was a full report of views expressed at the meeting of the Peterborough and District Labour Council. I, for one, do not hold every man's hand as being against me and I think I can say the same for most persons as represented by the "Labour Council".

Your reporter makes every effort to get full coverage. I imagine that his report would have revealed that I, for one, advocated that we follow a line that would benefit the community as a whole. I do not believe in special privilege!

I also claim a share in the right to criticize. It is as good for newspapers, as for Labour Councils.

I would remind you that the "labour movement" is born of opposition and finds it very stimulating; but we have a dream that, one day, co-operation will evolve out of our present chaos.

We welcome your remarks, don't even mind your bad temper, but please, don't butcher the news. I still think that an editorial headed, "Pardon Our Rude Laughter", is intended as ridicule.

Sincerely yours,
EDMUND S. HUMPHREY.

ED. NOTE: Since 1935 the Examiner has advocated labour representation on the Council and has given support to labour nominees equal to that accorded to other candidates. The "bad temper" which our correspondent professes not to mind, was provoked by his warning to the District Labour Council that it might expect opposition to its aldermanic candidates this year. Why point out opposition which does not exist? For "stimulation", perhaps?

SACRIFICE MARKET FOR PARKING LOT?

Sir: In Friday's issue of the "Examiner" you published a letter from the city to the Hon. T. L. Kennedy, Ontario Minister of Agriculture. In this letter reference is made to a vote of the ratepayers in 1947 referring to the present market site being used for commerical purposes.

I believe this reference is a little misleading. At that time, if I am not mistaken, the issue was whether or not the market site should be used for commercial buildings, and I have no recollection of any parking lot being mentioned. I feel sure that many would not have voted "Yes" to this question had they known the property was to be used for other than building purposes, and it is up to the city to see that the ratepayers be given an opportunity to decide whether or not they wish to sacrifice the present market for a parking lot.

Why not put the cars on the George St. property, where the exhaust fumes, etc., from them would have congenial company.

RATEPAYER.

ENOUGH SAID

Sir: Your remarks, in Monday's Examiner, about Ontario's drinking places, reminds me of a story.

A few years ago, a friend arrived, via Montreal or New York, and after a look around he said, 'which is the best pub here to get a drink?' 'We have no pubs in Ontario,' I replied loftily, 'but we have beverage rooms and beer parlors.' He was obviously quite impressed. 'Oh, that's the way you do it here, is it,' he said. I took him inside the —(well, no names, no pack drill). He gave one look around. 'Oh Gosh,' he said.

SOME EXCUSE

The blacksmith's sweetheart came into the forge just as he paused to wipe the perspiration from his brow. "Shall we go to the pictures tonight, Joe?" she asked.

"Nay, lass," replied Joe. "I'm playing darts for t'club tonight."

The girl pouted. "I'm tired of you and your silly darts," she announced.

"Eh, come lass," pleaded Joe, as he picked up his hammer. "A man must get exercise sometimes."

Bible Message

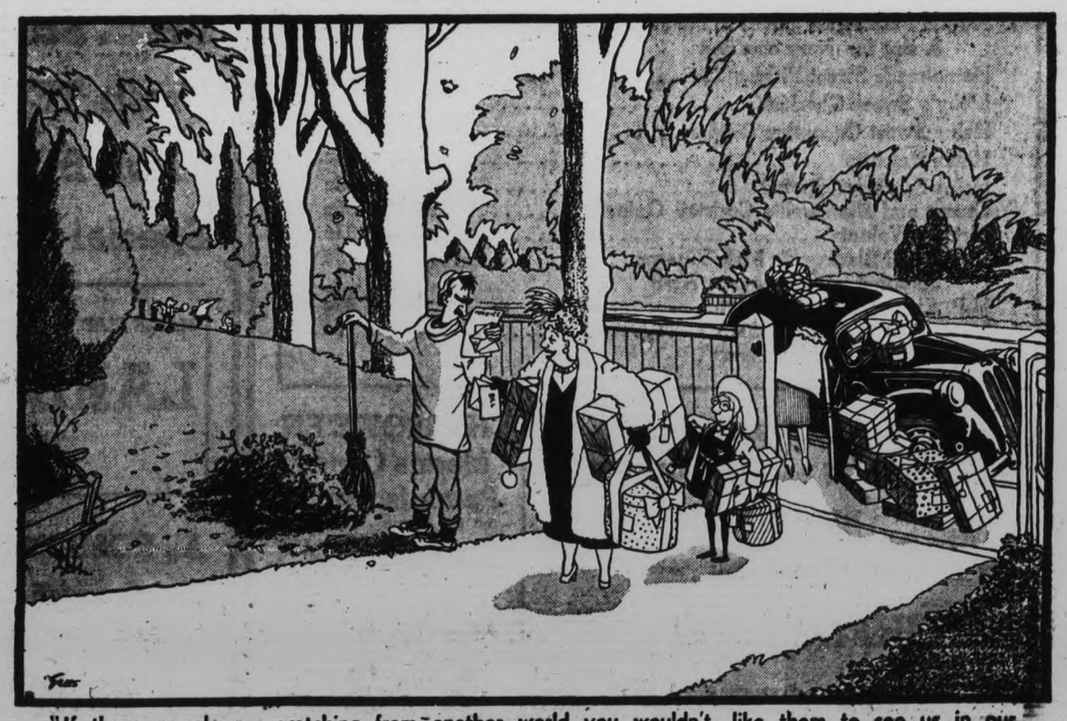
(From the Authorized Version)

Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the Lord, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us? (Isa. 29: 15.)

* * *

For God shall bring every work into judgement, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil. (Eccl. 12: 14.)

* * *



He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him.... Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation. (Prov. 26: 24, 26.)

* * *

For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and it a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. (Heb. 4: 12, 13.)

* * *

For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. (Luke 12: 2.)

"If these people are watching from another world you wouldn't like them to see us in our last year's hats and costumes, would you, dear?"

Yukon Eric Downs Henning In Main Bout of Mat Card

Bare-footed Yukon Eric, the Alaskan lumberjack, flattened rough Lee Henning in the main pro mat bout at the Brock Arena last night before a big crowd. He took the second and third falls handily after getting a rather rapid count to lose a surprising first fall. The colorful character with the big chest and phlegmatic personality scaled 276 robust pounds to Lee's 250, but the latter used his weight in a most illegal way throughout.

Henning took the opening fall of the top scrap in 12 minutes with a leglock and split. He had applied this hold before only to have his powerful opponent toss him off casually. This time, Referee Bunny Dunlop counted speedily and a surprised Yukon—ready to flip Lee over at any time—found he had lost the round. The crowd wasn't happy. Henning was both rough and smart, while Eric was clean but strong to dismiss his rival's rough stuff quite easily. He took hard punches and walked in for more, as the fans cheered him on.

He Came Back

The second fall went to Eric in just six minutes when he came back after being kicked out of the ring, felled Henning with a single blow and then down him with three one-armed slams. Before that, Lee did his worst, using a concealed piece of cord attached to his trunks, rasping eyes, throwing fists and finally using the knees and boots. Dunlop tried hard to catch up with him as the crowd screamed, but Henning was too tricky and fast. However, Yukon Eric kept boring in, depending on his tremendous strength and with plent of quiet confidence. The fall was a highly popular one.

Eric settled it handily in 14 minutes with his terrific shoulder backbreaker, picking Henning up and bouncing him hard on the shoulder for the final fall. He took a lot of abuse at first from Lee, who really made it a fight all the way. Henning again resorted to his piece of cord, he rasped the other's eyes, choked him, threw fists and feet and, in short, gave the big Alaskan the works. But he couldn't match strength with Eric and, in one hard elbow-smashing exchange, Henning finally raced foggily from the ring. They mixed it hard all the way and it was a lively bout, with the audience happy at the windup as Eric's arm was lifted over a beaten foe.

Two Had Masks

The Masked Marvel, a 240-pound hooded villain, took the semi-final in slightly less than 17 minutes over Pat Flanagan. He got the decision with three knee back-breakers after throwing Pat out of the ring and then yanking his groggy rival back. It was a wide-open session with Flanagan too fast and smart for quite a spell, but the other heavier—Pat scaled 228—and much rougher. He had a hooded manager in his corner who offered advice and once was kicked hard by Flanagan and knocked for a loop. There were no dull moments in this tussle and the crowd kept up a continuous roar as the pair brawled hard. The decision at the last wasn't so popular.

Bobby Nelson the 230-pound Chicago husky, and Hamilton's [illegible]-pound Abe Zvonkin—who was playing football for Tigers when Mick Magee of this city played there—went to a 30-minute prelim draw. They, too, dished up a dandy mat duel, with Abe the rougher of the pair. Nelson, wearing full-length trunks, tossed Abe out of the ring early and tried to clip him with a haymaker on his return, but it didn't jell. Abe shot the works later to rough Nelson up plenty as the fans booed him but Bobby was pretty good on the exchanges, too. He tossed Abe out hard, then kicked him in the midriff and landed two right uppercuts to the face as they started throwing fists in a furious session just before the time limit gong went, and it was ruled a draw.

Graziano Fights Janiro

GREENWOOD LAKE, N.Y., Oct. 25 (AP)—Rock Graziano is back near home again, and contented with life.

Friday night he returns to Madison Square Garden—"my second home"—to fight Tony Janiro of Youngstown, O., in a 10-round bout that will reopen the Garden fight season and bring in plenty of cash.

"Right now I'm going to fight Janiro," the Rock says. "Nice kid, but I'm going to knock him out. The.. I'll take on some of the contenders."

How about fighting Jake Lamotta for his title?

"Jake can keep that for a while," says Rocky. "You know trouble—suspensions and what not. I'm beginning to feel like that title was a jinx.

"What I want now is the dough. And I'm going to hold on to it."

Arcos Lead Lasses

Arcos showed the way this week in the Girls' City Bowling League with high pinnage of 3,075 and top single of 1,161. A. Stinson came through with the best threesome of 665 as M. Thompson hit a 304 leading single, both girls helping the Arcos' cause on the night's competition. The blind score of 489 was split between A. Dixon and S. Clark with 497 each.

Cardinals blanked Aces 3-0, Towne Togs daubed the brush on Collis, and Marines took Dickson's by a 3-0 count, as 2-1 wins were racked up by Arcos against the Cardinals, and by Brintons over Sevenaires.

St. Peter's Lose To PCVS In Grid Game

A fumble after 35 minutes of scoreless football paved the way Tuesday at the Oval for Alex Londry's PCVS junior "A" Garnet and Greys' 12-0 exhibition win over St. Peter's High senior "B" team. In the first collegiate football game this year the same PCVS team won 11-0.

Both teams battled between the 25-yard lines for the first half and until midway into the third quarter, long punts, short passes and plunges featured the offensive play but the lines of both teams held when danger loomed.

Murray Grafstein reeled 22 yards in the third for the PCI'ers to drop the SPS crew deep in defensive territory. The PCVS team tried a field goal but Dave Langhorne's drop kick was low. SPS just moved the ball out of the goal territory and two plays later fumbled.

Error Costly

That small error cracked the St. Peter's team as the ball was recovered by PCVS' Don Scriver at the four-yard line. Bill Stewart went t othe SPS one-yard line where Dave Langhorne crossed for a major. His drop kick attempt for the extra point failed.

Midway through the fourth Spencer Hope punted for a point. A Stewart-to-Dan Griffin pass had previously netted 17 yards and Dave Langhorne had romped for 22.

On the first play after the PCVS single score, Stewart snared a Car Brioux pass at the SPS 40 and carried to the SPS 18. Hope and Stewart rushed the ball for eight. From there Langhorne went through right end for his second touchdown. This time he made his drop-kick good for a point.

Evenly Matched

The teams were fairly evenly matched. If the PCVS side did have a slight edge it was in plunging and running. There they had three big ground attackers, Murray Grafstein, Bill Stewart and Dave Langhorne. Carl Brioux, a husky boy who is hard to stop once he begins to roll, led the ground attack for SPS. He made two long runbacks, both following the PCVS touchdowns.

Brioux matched the punting of Spencer Hope throughout the game. Several times he managed to lift the ball well into PCVS defensive territory in the first half to kill any PCVS scoring threat.

Passing by both teams was also about even. St. Peter's had three forward passes drift into PCVS hands while the Garnet and Greys had one reach the wrong receiver. Fred Allore's boys completed four and had three incomplete as compared with PCVS' two complete and one incomplete.

St. Peter's—Flying wing, Hickey; halves, L. Jones, J. Jones, Brioux; quarter, O'Neill; centre, Hickson; insides, Simmons Heffernan; middles, P. Jones, Harrington; outsides, Cavanagh, O'Brien; alternates, Armstrong, LaPlante, O'Reilly, Farley, C. Crowley, O'Leary, Richardson, McMurray, G. Crowley, Morrissey.

PCVS — Flying wing, Langhorne; halves, Dunn, Grafstein, Hope; quarter, Stewart; centre, Russell; insides, Forbes, Outram; middles Scriver, Huddart; outsides, Boorman, Griffin; alternates, Armstrong, Hollingsworth, Gilders, Turner, Haggart, McIlwain, Pollard, Patterson, Chevalier.

King Edward Victors

King Edward intermediate soccer eleven in a 13-second burst of play defeated Queen Mary aggregation 2-1 on Bonner-Worth grounds, Tuesday afternoon. King Edward and King George have now nine points each with the same number of games played.

Queen Mary boys forced the issue, in the early stages, to be caught napping when King Edward forwards broke fast to score on a nice play by Rose who hit the upright and scored from the rebound. With a minute to finish, Queen Mary equalized and from the centre-kick, King Edward forwards went right down into goal and made it 2-1 through R. Rowe.

Queen Mary—G. Vincent, goal; L. Staves and B. Hendry, full backs; B. Lincoln, W. Haig and A. Stewart, half backs; F. Jobbitt, R. Atkinson, G. Dafoe, B. Hutton and R. Brown, forwards; subs, S. Dinsdale, V Brisbois, T. Welsh, R. Dobbin.

King Edward—J. Parks goal; F. Ball and R. Murduff, full backs; W. Rowe, J. Rose and P. Waldie, half backs; K. Dunstan, J. Byers, A. Beggs, R. Stevens and R. Rowe, forwards. Subs—R. Cuff, J. Murphy, V. Volelsang, T. Collins.

Referee—Mr. Gainer.

FORD ACCEPTED

Ed (Whitey) Ford, rookie lefthanded pitcher of New York Yankees, was accepted for army duty Tuesday. He was 22 Saturday.

Ford, who came up from the Yankees' Kansas City farm in mid-season, won nine games and lost one after joining the club. He was the victor also in the fourth and deciding game of the world series.

TERRY SAWCHUK, hailed as the greatest rookie to man a net in NHL history. He faced Canadiens' fire Saturday night, Sawchuck was rookie of the year in two leagues on the way up. He might write that feat in triplicate this season. Jack Adams thinks he is better than Harry Lumley whom he traded to Chicago.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

By CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Folks, hockey is really sneaking up on us rapidly For the first time in Peterborough's history, an OHA schedule commences here in October. Yes, on Oct. 30 (which is next Monday), Kingston Nylons play the local Eagles in Civic Arena. Same night sees the Petes tangling with Queen's in Kingston. It's the start of the senior "B" schedule. A week from tonight, Queen's play the Petes here, and we're at it then hammer-and-tongs until spring. Meantime, the Petes have arranged an exhibition joust with the Markham Millionaires here this Friday evening. The puck season has really commenced in this neck of the woods.

* * * * * *

Coach Mick Magee expects to have to chop off a few of the players out with Eagles within the next day or two. You see, the club has added three imports. One is a lanky, lean right winger from Renfrew, a chap by the name of Andy Millen. Another is a tall 200-pound defenceman named Vern Smith, who played last season for St. John Beavers in the Maritimes. Third one is Lally Lalonde, scaling 194. He was with Sydney Millionaires last winter and got into a few AHL games with Buffalo, too. Plays a wing or defence. Expecting stiffer group opposition this winter, the McGillis Eagles aren't fooling—they'll be plenty strong again.

Injury Waiver Form

The PMHA-ers must sign a waiver form with their certificates this year. It says: "I and my family waive all claims for injuries while playing for the PMHA during the season of 1950-51." It is signed by the player and one of his parents. The PMHA officers point out that they will do what they can to help defray expenses arising out of puck injuries, but they will not make themselves responsible. Just can't afford it. That is true of all minor sports and some major ones. Players take their own chances in practices and games, though often they receive help when injured. Safest way is for parents to take out ordinary accident insurance on the boys. No, we don't sell it.

* * * * * *

Biggest sports attraction in Canada in recent years is the Grey Cup football final at Varsity. The Sarnia scribe says that a top-secret group in Toronto now is wading through tons of mail applications for tickets for this big show. The CRU several days ago had received applications for 18,000 ducats and there are but 8,250 available. The remaining 19,250 are distributed by the various senior teams of the east and west. No applications are being considered since Oct. 13, but still they pour in. The identity of the group allotting the precious tickets is being kept secret. Two pasteboards will go to each of the 4,125 lucky letter writers.

More Power'n Hydro

That guy Yukon Eric has some pull—he really draws mat fans wherever he goes. Not fast nor a fancy grappler, he gets by on sheer power. A mere 276-pounder with a 22-inch collar and a chest of 56, so how come he is so strong? Golly, if we had that would we ever sneer and snarl at a few characters around town! Anyway, he downed rough Lee Henning handily in the main bout at the Brock last night before a hefty gallery, though we must say that Lee didn't act too frightened throughout. He made it quite a scrap all the way. A couple of jerks beat Hallowe'en by a week by sporting masks in the semi-final, the Masked Marvel and his hooded manager. The Marvel took popular Pat Flanagan in the semi-windup. The prelim between Zvonkin and Nelson went to a draw. Bunny Dunlop did his dardnest to referee.

Rickey's Future With Brooklyn Seen Thursday

By JACK HAND.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 25 — (AP.)—Let's take a long-shot gamble on the Brooklyn picture for 1951.

Peewee Reese, manager; Fresco Thompson, general manager; Walter O'Malley, president.

Branch Rickey? Running the show at Pittsburgh.

They ran off the second chapter yesterday in the serial entitled "What Happens to Rickey?" Now the answer is supposed to come tomorrow.

One thing came out of yesterday's second press conference in two days. O'Malley and Mrs. John L. Smith are going to buy out Rickey and take control of the Dodgers.

Price $1,050,000

The price, reported to be 1,050,000 with $50,000 ticketed for William Zeckendorf as a "commitment fee," means the Dodgers are worth more than $4,000,000. Rickey's share was only 25 per cent.

O'Malley, presiding at a press conference at which Thompson, Brooklyn farm director, was an interested spectator, shed no light on Rickey's future.

Rickey still may wind up in Brooklyn as a salaried employee of his old partners. Rickey, O'Malley and the late John Smith each owned 25 per cent of the Dodgers. They had an agreement to give the others first chance if they wanted to sell.

Digging Cash

When Rickey agreed to sell to Zeckendorf, O'Malley scurried to dig up the cash to buy the stock. He says he and Mrs. Smith will complete the deal "well in advance" of the late January deadline.

In the meantime Rickey's contract as general manager expires Saturday. It has not been renewed. The board of directors meets tomorrow to decide what to do.

Although Rickey says he has "no offers" the Pittsburgh thing is still red-hot. First he wants to know how he stands at Brooklyn

If Rickey goes, as seems likely, the Brooks will have only one man—Thompson—who knows all the inner workings of the far-flung organization. It is expected Branch Rickey, Jr., will go along with his dad.

Branch, Jr., and Thompson have run the Brooks farm system in recent years.

Shotton Leaving?

O'Malley insists he has given no thought to the matter of a manager for 1951. But if Rickey goes, it is believed that Burt Shotton will go too.

Reese, highly regarded as potential managerial talent although still a first-rate shortstop, stands aces high with O'Malley. He is out front in the early running but the race may continue until the December meetings in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Rangers 25th Anniversary Celebrated, No Patricks

By The Canadain Press

New York Rangers start their silver anniversary season in New York tonight with silver sticks but no Patricks.

The sticks won't be real silver, just painted wood as a sentimental sign that the Rangers are playing their 25th season in the National Hockey League.

But this game will be the first time that the Rangers have played in New York without a Patrick—first Lester and then Lynn—at the helm. To make it worse, the Patrick will be in the enemy's camp.

Lynn, who shifted over to coach Boston Bruins this season after almost winning the Stanley Cup with Rangers last year, will be leading his new charges into Madison Square Garden for the first time this year.

Need Win

The game is important to both teams, who played a scoreless draw Sunday night in Boston. The Bruins are still looking for their first victory after four starts. The Rangers, whose home opening was delayed by a rodeo, haven't done much better with only one win and a draw in five games on the road.

Meantime, Detroit Red Wings meet the Maple Leafs at Toronto with the Leafs looking for a victory that will hurdle them over the idle Montreal Canadiens into first place, and the third-place Wings trying to tie Toronto for second position.

Started In 1926

It was back in 1926 that the Patricks and the Rangers first became synonymous. Lester, chosen to guide the new NHL club as manager-coach, stayed for 20 years, seven times winning the Stanley Cup.

Once, his hair even then silver, he won the world hockey championship for them by stepping into the nets when the regular goalie was hurt in Montreal and giving a memorable performance.

In 1946 Lester stepped up into the front office and Frank Boucher took over as coach while Lynn was being groomed for the job. Last summer the elder Patrick severed his connections with the club and returned to Victoria Cougars in the Pacific Coast League.

Hart Award

Tonight there'll be the usual opening-game ceremonies for New York fans. League President Clarence Campbell will present the Hart Trophy to Goalie Chuck Rayner, last year's winner of the most-valuable-player award. And centre Edgar Laprade will get the Lady Byng Trophy as the player best combining sportsmanship with effectiveness.

Then of course there'll be the silver sticks. Many of the fans will no doubt forget the silver anniversary and choose to regard them as a tribute to the departed "Silver Fox."

Galt Hawks Blast Oshawa 5-1

GALT, Oct. 25 (CP). — Galt Black Hawks walloped Oshawa Generals 5-1 last night for their fourth straight win in the Ontario Hockey Association Junior A circuit. It moved Galt into first place in the league in a tie with Barrie Flyers.

The Hawks got away to a flying start in the first period with three goals. Jack Sleaver and Jack Price each scored unassisted and the other one went to Bob Carruthers on assists from Pete Conacher and Price.

Couldn't Score

There was no scoring in the second period. Oshawa had an edge on the play but just couldn't beat starry Clark Sommerville. Lenny Lenihan, General defenceman, suffered an injured back and leg in a collision with Bob Carruthers and had to retire from the game.

With Galt leading 4-0 and less than five minutes remaining, Alex Delvecchio robbed Sommerville of a shutout when he slashed the red light on Lou Janowski's pass-out. Len Cooke ended the scoring for Galt when he went in on top of Eddie Crouch to take George Gosselin's pass.

By beating Windsor, Guelph Biltmores vaulted past the idle Stratford Kroehlers into second place, two points behind Barrie and Galt.

The St. Catharines game was the first point of the season for the Waterloo club, new entry in the circuit this season. Teepees have tied three games, but have yet to win on their home ice in regulation time.

Marlboros Start Senior Season, Play Kitchener

By The Canadian Press.

Toronto Marlboros, last season's Allan Cup champions, make their 1950-51 debut tonight. They meet Kitchener-Waterloo Flying Dutchmen at Kitchener in the tightly-packed Ontario Hockey Association Senior A circuit.

Marlies, a Toronto Maple Leafs farm club, Toronto St. Michael's College and Kitchener—all tied for first place with one victory each.

St. Mike's Win

St. Mike's moved into the tie last night by blanking Hamilton 4-0 in the first game of the year for the Irish.

In the Junior A series, Waterloo and St. Catharines struggled to a 7-7 tie at St. Catharines, Guelph defeated Windsor 6-4 at Guelph and Galt beat Oshawa 5-1 at Galt.

In tonight's single junior game, Stratford entertains Barrie.

Scoreless First

St. Mike's and Tigers battled through a scoreless first period last night in Hamilton, then Gordon Hannigan, a former Marlboro exploded for two goals in the second period. John Meldrum and Larry Kennedy each found the mark in the final.

Galt's win over Oshawa—fourth straight for the Black Hawks—moved them into a first-place tie with Barrie Flyers. Jonny Sleaver Jack Price and Bob Carruthers scored for Galt in the first period.

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

The McGill Touchdown Club is poking fun at somebody—by paid advertisement, too.

Last week there was a flutter of football fulmination, sparked by a story in the Toronto Telegram, suggesting subsidization of McGill University's football players. It even brought a sharp denial from president F. Cyril James of McGill.

Ad advertisement yesterday in a Montreal newspaper reads:

"Toronto papers
"Should explain
"That when you lose
"You don't complain."

It was signed "McGill Touchdown Club."

Yesterday's version:

"Let's give credit
"Where credit's due
"Our (underlined) football players
Are students too."

Trick pitching, the knuckle balls, "Ford balls" and sliders, can be murder on a pitcher's arm, Dr. Robert Hyland said on Tuesday.

The unnatural motions in throwing these pitches can permanently injure his elbow, the St. Louis surgeon, an expert on baseball players' injuries, told the American College of Surgeons at Boston. The trick pitching is striking a growing number of pitchers right out of their careers, he said.

Ball players can play longer if they listen to top-notch medical advice on how to use their arms, and bodies, Dr. Hyland said.

"A pitcher can and should be taught to develop and use only those types of delivery which conform as far as possible to the normal movements of his shoulder and elbow joints."

Sliders and knuckle balls can twist the arm so much that bits of membranes and tissues are rubbed off. These bits lodge in tendons and ligaments and cause pain.

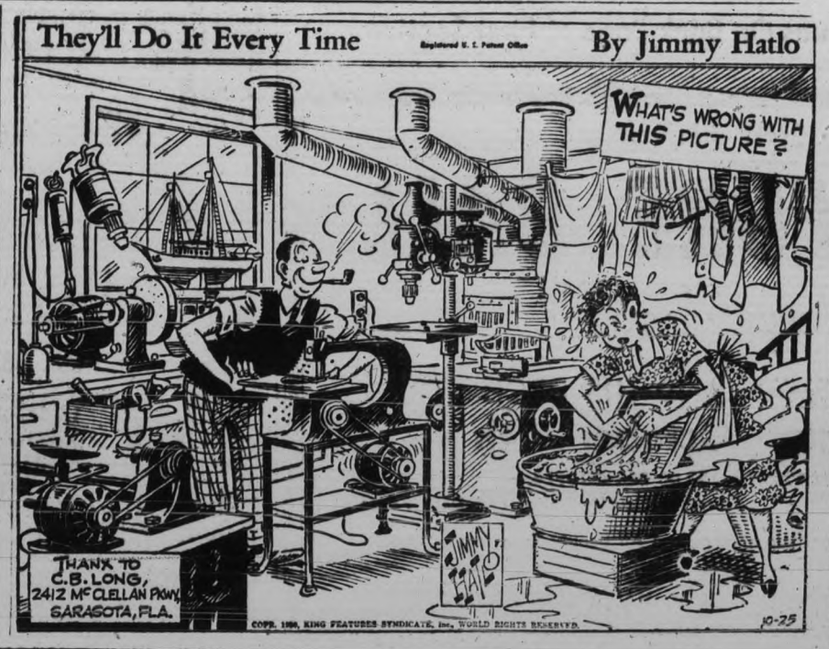
Hugh Bolton, rookie defenceman for Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League, will be out of action for three more weeks, coach Joe Primeau said on Tuesday following a practice session.

Bolton, scheduled to skate on Tuesday, suffered complications to a knee injury incurred in preseason training at the Leafs' St. Catharines training camp. Primeau said he will have only three defencemen when Leafs face Detroit in Toronto tonight.

Defenceman Bill Barilko is also out with injuries, but is expected back in action Saturday.

Paul Meger, second highest scorer in the American Hockey League, will be out until Sunday and possibly a week longer with a broken nose.

Meger, left-winger on the league's high-scoring "money line" of Buffalo Bisons, had his nose broken in two places Sunday night as the team lost a rough game to Hershey Bears 5-4.



Ralph Zannelli had to pay $350 to regain his New England welterweight title at Providence, R. I., Monday night.

It happened this way:

Zannelli agreed to take 50 per cent of the net receipts and guarantee his opponent, Don Williams $2,000.

But only 2,566 persons showed up and the net receipts were only $3,300. Thus Zannelli collected $1,650 as the 50 per cent share.

So he fought for nothing and had to pitch in $350 from his own pocket to make up the Williams guarantee.

Gorgeous Gussie Fed Up With Cheesecake

By WILL GRIMSLEY.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP). — Gertrude Moran, the tennis player, is getting pretty fed up with gorgeous Gussy Moran, of lace panties fame. So says Gertrude.

"Cheesecake, cheesecake, cheesecake—all day long it's cheesecake," she complained today. "I'm sick of it and I've put my foot down." Gussy's miniature rebellion is causing mild friction between the shapely Santa Monica, Calif., lob artist and Robert Riggs, promoter of the professional tennis troupe opening in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night.

Modest Clothes

"Bobby wants to make this a spectacle; I want to keep it a tennis match," she added. "We argue about it but I intend to have my way.

"Bobby is putting out publicity that I'll wear dazzling costumes a bit on the risque side. I promise you they'll be very modest, functional things—like you'd wear at a Sunday match on the park court.

"Oh, I'll have some lace, I suppose, and maybe a sun-backed blouse here and there. But it's going to be far from burlesque."

Miss Moran said Riggs had also proposed that she enter the big midtown arena in an ermine coat, doffing it just before stepping to the baseline to deliver her first serve.

"I said 'no, indeedy, none of that.' I'll come out just like Pauline."

The Santa Monica stylist, on a $75,000 contract for a six-month country-wide tour, will play Pauline Betz Addie, four-time national champion, in the preliminarly feature.

Jack Kramer Plays

Big Jack Kramer, the recognized world champion, and Pancho Segura, the U.S. pro tournament winner, will clash in the main event, teaming later with the ladies for mixed doubles.

Riggs has scheduled the show in more than 100 North American cities and in European capitals.

Advance ticket sales for the Garden performance have been slow and Riggs' office disclosed yesterday it had changed its publicity tactics to put more emphasis on the Kramer-Segura match.

Man Robbed of $75

TORONTO, Oct. 25 (CP) — An armed bandit early today held up George Thompson and robbed him of $75. The man first asked Thompson for $5. When Thompson refused, he pulled out a pistol and took Thompson's wallet.

Col. McLaughlin Bows Out Stock Sells For $78,325

TORONTO, Oct. 25 (CP).—Col. R. S. McLaughlin, millionaire sportsman who made a fortune on automobiles and spent a lot of it on thoroughbreds, today bowed out of the Canadian racing picture. And the carefully-groomed 470-acre estate which housed his nationally - known Parkwood Stable at Oshawa, Ont., made way for the country's first housing development.

The last link of Col. McLaughlin's ties with racing was severed last night at a public auction with a sale of 45 Parkwood Stable occupants—stallions, mares geldings, colts and fillies—for a $78,325 total. It included thoroughbreds that had won hundreds of thousands of dollars on Canadian and American tracks as well as many potential money-earners.

Produced Kingarvie

The stable that sent three King's Plate winners to the wire and produced Kingarvie—the country's all-time leading money winner among Canadian-bred thoroughbreds—will be operated only as a stud farm. "We shall do no racing," owner E. P. Taylor of Toronto said.

"We shall send five or six first class sires there and the idea is to provide a means for persons who own one, two or three mares and who have not farms, to leave them there," Taylor told the gathering of buyers and onlookers. The Toronto industrialist bought the farm last month for an undisclosed amount.

Nephisto Tops

There were a few lumps in the throat as the thoroughbreds were led around the ring at Woodbine Track in Toronto's east end. Highest price, $10,700, was paid for Nephisto, three-year-old bay gelding, considered one of the outstanding horses campaigning in Canada. It went to the newly-established Three V's Stable of Toronto.

Kingarvie, magnificent seven-year-old chestnut gelding by Teddy Wrack and Forsworn and winner of the 1946 King's Plate, realized $5,400. Winner of $93,860 in its still-active career, it was bought by Mrs. Arthur Brent, wife of the trainer who groomed it during its campaign in Canada and the United States.

Then there was Fairaris, which ran the fastest nine furlongs in North American in 1942 when he won the Peter Pan handicap at Belmont Park in 1:48.2. Sire of Nephisto and winner of $21,500 in its racing career, the 11-year-old chestnut stallion was bought by the National Stud for $5,500.

Teddy Wrack Bought

Teddy Wrack, which sired Kingarvie and Moldy, King's Plate winner in 1947, also was bought by the National Stud. The 12-year-old bay stallion's price was $6,000, second-highest of the sale which averaged more than $1,700 a thoroughbred.

Charlie Hemstead, Toronto hotel owner, was the big buyer of the sale. He paid $5,700 for Corwynt, two-year-old bay colt which won three races this year and is entered in the 1951 King's Plate at Woodbine and the Canadian Derby at Winnipeg. His other purchases were Sataris, year-old gelding for $4,800 and a bay filly, eligible for the 1953 King's Plate, at a $700 price.

Out-of-town buyers came from Winnipeg, Windsor, Kitchener, Ottawa, Montreal, and the U.S.

R. J. Speers of Winnipeg paid $600 for Pine River, three-year-old bay colt, and J. Jackson, also from Winnipeg, paid $450 for Teazerette, two-year-old bay filly which didn't place in four races this year.

Wage Boost of 7½c

TORONTO, Oct. 25 (CP) — Some 1,000 garment workers in the Hamilton and Toronto district will receive a wage boost of 7½ cents an hour under an agreement signed between the National Garment Manufacturers Association and the United Garment Workers (AFL-TLC). The agreement was announced by the union Local 253 which also said that its business agent, Sam LaPedes had been elected president. The local recently withdrew from the Toronto District Labor Council after LaPedes had been named a Communist and barred as a delegate.

Navy In Cherbourg

CHERBOURG, France, Oct. 25 (Reuters)—The Royal Canadian Navy's aircraft carrier Magnificent and the destroyers Huron and Micmac arrived Tuesday night from Portsmouth, England. The ships are on a goodwill tour of the Baltic and French coastal areas. The mayor of Cherbourg gave a ball in honor of the ships' crews.

Riders Faultless For US, Mexico In Jumping Show

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 25 (AP)—Mexico and United States both boast faultless records going into the second event of the international low-score jumping competition at the Pennsylvania National Horse Show today.

The two teams, the only ones of the six entered with women riders, are leading England and Canada by a single knockdown—four faults—in the three-day competition.

Trailing behind are Chile with 15½ faults and Ireland with 36 faults—20 of them came when Capt. W. B. Mullins' mount—Restrevor—refused three times and was debarred.

U.S. Team

Riding for the Americans, in their first appearance as a civilian team, are Norman Mathews, a 23-year-old Sacramento, Calif., rancher; Mrs. Carol Durand, a 32-year-old Kansas City housewife; and Arthur McCashin, a 40-year-old gentleman farmer from Pluckemin, N.J.

The faultless Mexican entry consists of Lt. Eva Valdes, a 22-year-old officer in the women's division of the Mexican army; Cadet Roberto Vinals, 29; and Lt. Joaquin d'Harcourt, 26.

The second part of the low-score competition was to be run off late today with the final event set for Friday evening. The team with the least faults will be awarded the 104th Cavalry Challenge Trophy Saturday night.

Mexico, which won in 1948 and 1949, needs only one more victory for permanent possession.

Shot At Each Other

WINDSOR, Oct. 25 (CP)—Two youths admitted in court Tuesday they took pot shots at one another in a game Monday in which Donald Sears, 22, of Windsor, was shot in the leg. Ronald Infanti, 19, of Windsor, and George Jackson, 23, of Detroit pleaded guilty to aiming guns at Sears and each other. Magistrate J. A. Hanrahan noted the case was possibly "a matter for a psychiatrist" and remanded them for sentence Thursday.

Newspaper Union

QUEBEC, Oct. 25 (CP) — L'Evenement-Journal and Le Soleil, Quebec morning and afternoon daily newspapers, have signed a collective agreement with Le Syndicat Des Journalistes de Quebec. The agreement, retroactive to June 1 provides for $30 weekly minimum salary for editorial employees after six months' service and a $60 minimum after six years' service.

Hard Times Over For Textiles

OTTAWA, Oct. 25 (CP). — Trade Minister Howe believes that hard times are things of the past for Canada's textile industry.

The country's stepped-up defence program will provide new prosperity for the industry, the minister told the Canadian Woollen and Knit Goods Manufacturers Association.

Formally opening the display of textiles, a highlight of the association's two-day convention ending Tuesday, Mr. Howe said it was the government's intention, as part of defence planning, to order in bulk and to carry large stocks against future needs.

He assured the industry—worried about competition from the United Kingdom and other sterling areas—that competition will lessen and imports decline as a result of world rearmament.

"Imports are slowing down and I think it quite possible they will continue to slow down due to war needs in other countries," he said.

More Aluminum

CARDIFF, Wales (CP). — One of the biggest industrial projects completed since the war, a $4,300,000 aluminum mill with annual capacity of 60,000 tons has been built in South Wales. It will increase Britain's aluminum production by one-third.

Ont. Issues Book Aid Taxpayers

TORONTO, Oct. 25 (CP).—The Ontario government hopes that its new manual on property assessment will make happier taxpayers.

The 200-page manual, called a guide to establishing a system of values, was distributed recently to all municipalities. In an accompanying letter, Municipal Affairs Minister Dunbar emphasizes that its use is not compulsory.

But, he adds, the government hopes its general use will lead to a more uniform system of assessment.

The manual says that assessment values should be closely related to actual values, which it defines as the amount a willing purchaser will pay a willing seller for a piece of real estate in the average year chosen from a period of so-called good and bad years. It discusses all types of building from commercial to residential to greenhouses.

How could the manual make taxpayers any happier? The government says the average taxpayer has been baffled by methods used in determining his property assessment. Even on appeal, he had no recognized system of values to refer to. The manual's aim is to establish them.

It will make the government happier, too, if adopted generally. It would equalize assessments throughout the province, thus eliminating the government's main headache in calculating the payment of annual grants for civic services.

Sixty persons ultimately will receive care in the new home. Supervisor will be Mrs. E. C. Marshall, present matron of the Oliver Home just across the street.

TED EVANS, 26-year-old, is believed to be the tallest man in the world. He is riding his specially-built reinforced bicycle with one of the children at his hown town of Englefield Green, Surrey, England. Ted was born in Williamsthorpe, Derbyshire, a normal 7-pound 9-ounce baby and was of normal height until he was 15 years old. Then he began to grow. At the age of 17½ he outgrew the bulldozer he used to drive on airfield construction, and joined the "Would You Believe It" show. All of Ted's family are of normal size, but Ted will not stop growing until he is thirty, doctors say. His height now is 9 feet, 3 inches. His weight 448 lbs.; neck, 22 inches; chest, 52 inches; length of hand, 11½ inches; length of foot, 15 inches. His suits cost £45 each; his boots £15.

Free Production Drops Living Cost

OTTAWA, Oct. 25 — (CP). — Solon Low, Social Credit Leader, Tuesday night called for the encouragement "of an unfettered productive effort" as a means of bringing down the high cost of living.

In an address on the CBC's "Nation's Business" series of free-time political broadcasts, Mr. Low charged that the Liberal Government's "inane fear of abundance must bear the blame for the fact that over the years we allowed the cost of living to rise continuously."

The Canadian dollar today was worth only 56 cents in terms of the dollar of 1939. This meant that a man earning $12 a month in 1939 would have a net income of $200 today to have the same buying power. Taking taxes into account, he would have to be earning $240 a month.

Shrinks Savings

One aspect of these inflated prices was the shrinkage of savings of those who had sought to provide security for their old-age.

He called for removal of all "restrictions and discouragement" on full production and a system of complete distribution of the country's optimum production.

"For the immediate months ahead," he added, "Canada should adopt the Social Credit compensated price discount technique, which involves the use of subsidies to bring consumer prices of the necessities of life down to the level of the purchasing power in the hands of the people."

Goes Native

CROYDON, Surrey, England—(CP)— Tom-toms beat out a rhythmic jungle chant from a garden in "darkest Croydon" and dancers wearing grotesque masks completed the illusion. The occasion was staged by students at the International Language Club to celebrate the arrival of a tribal chief, Akenzua, from Nigeria.

Britain Faces Meat Scarcity

LONDON, Oct. 25—(AP)—A gloomy picture of future meat stocks in Britain has been painted by the executive council of the National Federation of Meat Traders' Association.

After criticizing Food Minister Maurice Webb for his "optimistic prediction" that imports from Australia could be increased vastly in the near future, the Council recorded that lack of dollars is preventing Britain from trying to buy carcass meat in the United States and Canada.

No Contracts

The report added:

"Now, due to the continued hecklings over prices and exchange rates, we have no pregnant agreement for meat with Argentina, Uruguay, Brazil or Chile. Imports from the Irish Republic in 1949 were also five-eights of the 1938 tonnage figures. The shortfall of meat imports from Australia was fortunately offset by the increase in supplies from New Zealand. Supplies from Denmark were less than two-thirds of the 1938 figures, and Holland is down to approximately three-fifths. The over-all import figure, with the sole exception of New England, is therefore a gloomy one."

Home Production Up

The Council admitted that home production is increasing, but "we are confronted with the stark fact that the Ministry of Food have insufficient slaughter houses in operation to cope with a higher peak kill."

"The foregoing remarks all point to a peculiar situation arising in the future which, although it promises an ample supply of home-killed beef during the latter part of each year, threatens a dearth of meat during the first half of the year if contracts are not signed or fulfilled."

The council demanded the return of the meat business to the trade.

$600,000 Held In Trust Care For Aged

Annual visit of the grand master of the grand lodge of Ontario to the IOOF in Peterborough was paid Tuesday night at a banquet in the Empress Hotel.

C. A. Hutchinson of Toronto, the grand master, spoke at the conclusion of the meeting to members of the lodge and the sister organization, the Rebekahs.

"It has always been a pleasure for me to visit Peterborough and be welcomed by the brothers of this district," he said.

In his brief address, he urged members to carry on the work of their schools of instruction, and to support the IOOF's cancer, polio and tuberculosis fund.

He told them that the Oddfellows' home for the aged in Barrie was the second richest in money held in trust of the jurisdictions in North America. There, $600,000 is held in trust for the care of the aged Oddfellows and Rebekahs who can no longer support themselves.

The home, he said, was first set up in Barrie at a cost of $20,000 in 1903. Later that home was sold, and one was purchased in Toronto. This too was sold and recently the present home, also in Barrie, was established.

He asked members to increase the amount of hospital visiting done, and told them that the wheelchair bus, used for Oddfellows who could do their hospital visiting no other way, was being used with increasing frequency.

He reminded members of objectives set for this year's program and urged them to carry out the program as far as possible.

All Time Bond Record Set In Fifth Savings Issue

Subscription of $1,034,550 of the 5th issue of Canada Savings bonds by employees of Peterborough works of Canadian General Electric Company sets a new peak of investment at the big Park St. plant, surpassing even their response during the war years. The average was $400 for 2602 investors. Thomas Glover, works accountant, confirmed today the report of this new financial record as C.G.E. employees crossed the million dollar mark for the first time. "The total subscriptions last year by the salary deduction plan was $923,600," Mr. Glover said. The increase is $110,950 signifying that the employees have become confirmed bond buyers.

Voluntary Effort

Buying government bonds within the C.G.E. plant is entirely voluntary.

"We put the blank forms in the foremen's offices, and any of the employees who wish to subscribe by the salary deduction system simply fill out their applications, and that's all there is to it," Mr. Glover said. "We take care of the rest of it for the employees. There is no canvass before hand as there was during the war years. It is entirely up to them."

Mr. Glover remarked that the total might be increased before the loan period closes. "It does not include any cash buying of bonds. There were some of our people who wished to buy bonds on the spot, but we referred them to the banks."

Not even during the war years with the payroll swollen by Genelco Ltd. did the employees of C.G.E. reach the $1,000,000 level of bond investment. Obviously the advantages of the salary deduction plan of saving have been proved by men nad women of the Canadian General Electric Company and elsewhere throughout the city's industrial establishment.

Teachers Aid In Saving Township Area Money

The advice of teachers, sitting in on regular meetings of the Fenelon Township School Area Board, is saving the Board money. That was the claim made today by J. J. Thurston, Fenelon township trustee, who addressed 140 teachers and trustees at the morning session of the annual Peterborough County Teachers' Institute.

For the first time since the Institute was formed trustees and secretaries of school boards were invited to the convention.

Mr. Thurston, who is also past president of the Trustees and Ratepayers section of the Ontario Educational Association, said: "We feel that our joint meetings with the teachers are the most valuable meetings we have."

"It is our experience that through these joint meetings we have saved money," he said. As an example he cited the last Board meeting where he credits the teachers with saving the township $1,000.

To his knowledge the Fenelon School Board is the only one in this part of Ontario that has regular joint meetings. They have been going on for the last five years. Not every meeting is a joint one, but the Board insists on at least one or two a year.

No Closed Meetings

There are no closed sessions, even when a problem arises involving an individual trustee or teacher. "Open diplomacy" is Mr. Thurston's slogan. Teachers are always welcome to sit in on the meetings, he said.

A longtime advocate of closer teacher-trustee relationships, Mr. Thurston said that the Fenelon School Board liked hiring as teachers married women who were also ratepayers.

These women teachers were triply suitable; they know conditions in the home; how to finance the schools; and besides, they are qualified teachers with experience in handling children.

He gave his definition of education: "That which qualifies us to solve the problems that arise day to day throughout our lives." Using this yardstick he felt that education is lagging behind in the rapidly-changing world of the last 15 to 20 years.

"Horse and buggy ideas in an atomic age," was the way he summed it up.

An Important Personage

In our social structure there is no more important person than the elementary school teacher and trustee, said Mr. Thurston. A person is most impressionable between the ages of six and 14 years, and that is when his mind is being moulded by the teacher, and indirectly, the trustee.

An extra burden is being thrown on the elementary school teacher because of the "breakdown of home life." Parents no longer have the influence over their children that they did 50 years ago, he said. Many of the parents are working and the teacher must assume the parental responsibility.

Mr. Thurston urged support of the change in Department of Education regulations allowing inspectors to form a committee of teachers to amend the teaching curriculum.

He pointed out that this too would increase the teachers' responsibilities. No longer can teachers be just critics of the curriculum. "You yourselves must accept blame if something goes wrong," he said.

Mr. Thurston also told trustees not to shirk raising taxes if it was necessary. He claimed the ratepayer gets more for his dollar spent on direct municipal taxes than on any other expenditure today.

"We are short in our appreciation of beauty," he said, urging the painting of houses, the building of attractive laneways, and a general tidying up around schools and homes.

He was introduced by Inspector E. C. Anderson and thanked by David McNeil of Norwood. J. L. McColl, 1950 president, was in the chair.

Reeve Melville Johnston of North Monaghan greeted the teachers and trustees on behalf of Warden Norman Wilson. He lent his verbal support to Mr. Thurston's suggestion that the countryside be made more attractive.

Opening exercises were led by R. F. Downey, Peterborough, a former school inspector.

Later today there will be a talk on provincial grants by G. A. Pearson, assistant superintendent of Elementary Education. And there will be a general teacher-trustee discussion on the new curriculum, led by L. W. Copp, principal of the Peterborough Normal School.

Aged Watchman Assaulted, 2 Arrests Made

A charge of assault occasioning bodily harm was laid Tuesday night against James Nicholson, Twin Lakes, following a scuffle at a Reid St. transport office in which the nightwatchman, elderly Michael English, suffered a cut head.

Seven stitches were required to close the wound on Mr. English's head. The nightwatchman said that two men came to the office about 5:30 p.m. Tuesday and demanded money from him.

When they didn't get it, one threw an alarm clock at Mr. English's head, cutting it.

Two Arrested

Nicholson was arrested later in the evening and identified by the watchman as the man who threw the alarm clock.

The other man, James Welch, George St., was arrested a short distance from the transport office and found to have two bottles of wine in his pockets. He was charged with being drunk and remanded till Friday.

Magistrate W. R. Philp remanded Nicholson to Monday and set bail at $1,000.

Supper Blackout For Northenders

A practice blackout? Hydro trouble somewhere? Oh dear, will I ever get supper ready? So murmured northend residents on Tuesday night as they were plunged into total darkness at 5:45 and remained that way until shortly after 6:30.

Most families resorted to the old-fashioned candle-light supper but other families had to sit and wait it out in the darkness. Stores were deluged with telephone requests for candles. The only ones available in most cases were birthday cake candles.

Ross Dobbin, manager of the Utilities, said today that an overloaded transformer in north Ashburnham was the source of the trouble. Gradually the load in the area has been increasing and it reached its peak, blowing the fuses. Sections of the west of the Otonabee and east of the river were blacked out.

He explained that after some difficulty locating the source, it didn't take too long to repair. He assures north-enders that matters are being arranged so it won't happen again.

Told Wife Of Spying Man Lands In Jail

TOULOUSE, France, Oct. 25—(Reuters). — Pierre Debard was doing all right as a spy-hunter until he told his wife he obtained a list of Communist spies by making love to a pretty secretary at the Polish consulate here.

Now Mrs. Debard is in jail for questioning because, in a rage, she stole the list from her husband's pocket and stormed indignantly into the consulate with it.

Debard is in jail on suspicion of divulging service secrets to his wife.

His only consolation: the Polish vice-consul, Alexander Skyznia, is in jail too on suspicion of espionage.

Scouts Collect 70 Tons Paper

Smaller than usual, the Boy Scout drive Tuesday night netted the organization approximately 70 tons of waste paper or five freight car loads. Last year the paper drives resulted in eight carloads on the first and seven on the second.

Al Clark, chairman of the paper drive, said today that he believed the drive should have been held just after the people returned from their cottages.

Scouts and their fathers numbering close to 100 began to collect the papers at 6 p.m. and finished at midnight.

As usual the local merchants and industries helped the Scouts by donating trucks, 28 in all. One firm sent a fleet of six to help, while others sent two and three. Without this help, said Mr. Clark, the collections would fall through.

Around $800 will be derived from the drive and will be used for the furtherance of scouting in the district.

Lakefield Sea Scouts Given Two Islands In Otonabee

LAKEFIELD, Oct. 25 (ENS)—The presentation of leases of two islands in the Otonabee river to the executive of the Lakefield Sea Scouts by the municipal council was the highlight of the annual scout banquet in the Lakefield United Church, Tuesday evening. The presentation was made by Reeve W. C. Grant on behalf of the council.

The guest speaker was A. L. Jackson, Trenton, boy scouts' field commissioner for Eastern Ontario.

A Challenge

Mr. Jackson said a good scout troop in Lakefield was a challenge to the community. He emphasized the need for trained leaders who thoroughly understood scouting and the program scouting presents.

"Scouting teaches you to give to others," said the speaker. "It is not for today alone, it is for the rest of your life and it has three outstanding features. First, there is the problem of mastering your powers. Second trying to find some use for your powers and third, how to get along with other people. The scout movement provides an environment in which to practice all these things."

"Boys are the hope of the world and Canada is losing its boys," concluded Mr. Jackson. "Only by such organizations as scouts and keeping boys in homes and churches can communism be kept out of this country."

Mr. Jackson was introduced by George Groombridge, commissioner of Peterborough district.

Mel Kingdon, chairman, welcomed the scouts and parents and the Buckhorn scout troop, who were guests. Cubmaster Jerry Burger reported that there are 14 members in the newly formed cub troop, 11 of which have been invested.

Scoutmaster Ken Jakins reported the Sea Scouts activities. One of the highlights of past year was the presentation of a King Scout badge to Morley Brown by His Excellency Viscount Alexander, Governor General of Canada, in June. Scout Brown was presented with his red cord by Morley Jackson during the evening.

Reeve Grant presided for the election of members to the Sea Scout Advisory Group. The following were elected Theo Downs, Clarence Coons, Mel Kingdon, Stan Burger, Harold Duth, Lester Fraser, Jack Hinton, Skipper Lee, Bruce Maxwell and Reg Doubt.

Mrs. Stan Burger was elected president and Mrs. Sam Henderson, secretary, of the newly-formed women's auxiliary of the sea scouts.

Moving pictures were shown of the Lakefield's sea scouts' activities during the past four years.

Jack Hinton thanked the mothers and Junior CGIT girls who served at the banquet. Mrs. Harold Deeth accepted the thanks.

16 Stitches Required To Close Wound

Six stitches were needed to close a wound suffered Monday by Mrs. Harry Beresford, Murray St., when the prop of her clothesline slipped and struck her head.

She also suffered a slight concussion. G. Croft, Princess St., gave her first aid, and the cut was treated by Dr. Warren Gamble.

She is a graduate of the Juilliard School of Music, having been a scholarship student there for four years. Patterson Found Not Guilty Reckless Driving

A charge of reckless driving against Archibald Patterson, 75, of North Monaghan, was today dismissed by Magistrate W. R. Philp.

The charge arose out of an accident September 28 in which 72-year-old William Simmons of Orpington Rd. was killed when struck by a car driven by Patterson. Simmons and Patterson had been old friends.

Patterson elected summary trial and pleaded not guilty. He also pleaded not guilty to a charge of careless driving, on which judgment will be given by Magistrate Philp on October 31.

Summing up, Magistrate Philp said the degree of negligence in failing to keep a proper lookout could uphold a charge of reckless driving, but "as the traffic lights were in the accused's favor and, according to witnesses, he was driving in a normal manner, the charge is dismissed."

Pedestrian Paused

Eyewitness Arthur Beauclerc, 483 Brioux Ave., testified he was parked on Park St. at the northwest corner of Park and Lansdowne Sts. at the time of the accident.

"I saw Mr. Simmons coming north on the west side of Park St. towards Lansdowne," Mr. Beauclerc said. "He paused momentarily at the curb and then started across. He was about 10 feet from the south curb of Lansdowne when I heard a horn blow.

"He made a three-quarter turn to his right and faced Mr. Patterson's car, then tried to jump toward the south curb. He was about eight feet from the curb when he was struck."

Mr. Beauclerc estimated the speed of the Patterson car at between 25 and 35 miles an hour. Patterson testified he was going about 18 or 20 miles an hour.

"The car hit Mr. Simmons twice, and I think the left front wheel passed over his body," Mr. Beauclerc said.

"Did Everything"

T. J. Carley, defence counsel, argued for dismissal at the end of the crown's case, saying that there had been no proof of the degree of negligence necessary to support the charge of reckless driving.

"Mr. Patterson did everything a reasonable man would have done. There is evidence he sounded his horn and turned to the left to avoid Mr. Simmons," he said.

PC Donald Mackay testified he had tested the brakes on Patterson's car and had found them to be more than 90 per cent efficient. He said there was no evidence of skid marks at the scene of the accident.

Patterson did not appear on the witness stand during the hearing of the reckless driving charge, but appeared on his own behalf in the hearing of the careless driving count.

He said that he sounded his horn as soon as he saw Mr. Simmons step off the curb, and applied his brakes at the same time. He said he was going about 18 or 20 miles an hour.

Residents in the Stewart-London St. section of the city thought a serious fire had broken out early Tuesday night. It didn't amount to much, but as chimney fires go it was Grade A. Firemen were forced to use four hand pumps to douse it.

Ask Government Assume Full Load Of Education

TORONTO, Oct. 25 (CP).—The Ontario Property Owners' Association wants the provincial government to assume full responsibility for education. It also thinks the province should limit taxation on land to 25 mills on a fair assessment.

These two resolutions, which would produce a wide change in provincial and municipal administration, were among a number passed yesterday at the annual convention. Prepared by the executive, they went through without comment.

Appoint Commission

In another resolution, the Association urged the provincial government to appoint a royal commission to study the whole question of municipal government and taxation. It also requested the federal government to terminate rent controls next April 1.

The association went on record as deploring "the lack of good faith" shown in reassessment as a means of imposing higher taxation rather than of obtaining uniformity of assessment. It urged the province to give serious consideration to the curtailment of municipal taxing powers.

Drop Control

Another resolution urged restriction of powers given the province under 1950 amendments to the Highway Traffic Act to order removal of obstructions to view along highways. Charles MacConkey, living along the Queen Elizabeth Way near St. Catharines, said his home was 500 feet from the highway but he could not plant a shrub without permission from the highway department.

"The department prosecutes some people for selling fruit on the highway but one big concern, with hundreds of thousands of dollars to put into a big place, is allowed to sell fruit," he said.

In his welcoming address, Mayor Hiram McCallum of Toronto, told delegates that it often was difficult to get qualified men to run for public office because "no one wants to take the abuse that we in public life are forced to take from some sections of the press and radio."

Lies, Slander

He added, without further elaboration: "there must be some protection from the lies, the slander, the insinuations and the innuendoes that appear in some newspaper reports and on the radio."

Jamieson Bone of Belleville, Ont., chairman of the dinner meeting, agreed with the mayor's remarks and added that "the abuse that public men have to take is a scandal."

A. W. Binns of Philadelphia, past president of the National Home and Property Owners' Foundation of the United States, said in an address that the U.S. has embarked on a "welfare state policy." He said both political parties in the U.S. are trying to outdo the other in providing social services.

Won't Submit To Inquiry

MONTREAL, Oct. 25 (CP). — Madeleine Parent, organizer for the Canadian branch of the United Textile Workers of America (AFL-TLC), said Tuesday she will not appear before a three-man board investigating allegations that the Canadian Union is Communist-led.

She said she thought four other officials would refuse to "shame" the 20,000 Canadian members by appearing before the board.

"We'll not submit to any inquiry of that type," she said. "This is the official decision of the Canadian district."

The investigation opened here on Monday on orders of the union's international headquarters at Washington.

Board Chairman Lloyd Klenert, international secretary - general, said the board was here merely to gather information and then report to the international body. If any action should follow, it would come from international headquarters.

London Churches Contradict RC Proclamation

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 25 (CP). —London Council of Churches, composed of nearly every Protestant religion in the city, Tuesday endorsed a Church of England statement refuting the proclamation by the Roman Catholic church that the body of the Virgin Mary rose into heaven after she died and that belief in this is necessary to be a Christian.

They called on all clergy to "warn your people of the error being promulgated."

Pope Pius XII recently announced he will proclaim on November 1 that the doctrine of the bodily assumption of the Blessed Virgin into heaven be henceforth an article of faith.

Roman Catholicism has "gravely injured the growth of understanding between Christians based on a common possession of the fundamental truths of the Gospel," the statement said.

No Evidence

"There is not the smallest evidence in the Scriptures or in the teaching of the early church of belief in the doctrine of the bodily assumption. The church refuses to regard as requisite for a saving faith any doctrine or opinions which are not plainly contained in the Scriptures.

"We profoundly regret that the Roman Catholic church has chosen by this act to increase dogmatic differences in Christendom.

"The church does not and can not hold this doctrine to be necessary part of the Christian faith, belief in which must be required of members of the church."

Salvation Army Abandons Tambourine

DETROIT, Oct. 25 — (AP). — The Salvation Army is "retiring" its most famous symbol—the tambourine— throughout the United States. For 70 years the tambourine has been the Army's official collection plate.

It is being replaced by a new device designed to eliminate racketeering by fakers. The new device is copyrighted and patented and is a box in the form of a shield. It is made of plastic, is equipped with a lock, and has a slot in the top for contributions.

Across the new collection box is written: "Salvation Army."

Col. T. M. Larsen, Detroit Commander of the Army says more than 5,000 tambourines across the country will be hung up as fast as manufacturers turn out the new boxes. First shipments reached here Tuesday.

Gold Fever Hits Sioux Lookout, New Boom

SIOUX LOOKOUT, Ont., Oct. 25—(CP)—Gold-mining fever has hit this railroad town in northwestern Ontario.

It has the town of 1,750 inhabitants teeming with excitement. Stewart Staunton, veteran prospector, started it when he struck gold this month on Neepawa island in Lake Minnitaki, seven miles southeast of here.

Most Significant

Ontario Mines Minister W. S. Gemmell said "this is one of the most significant gold discoveries in many years."

Mr. Gemmel said the formations are 40 miles long and that careful prospecting can unearth other gold showings.

Mining men here say the strike has uncovered one of the greatest surface showings they have ever seen.

During the last few weeks an endless stream of prospectors have been filing claims.

Claims have been staked all around Minnitaki Lake and in Laval, Brownridge and other townships as far as Newlund mine, 20 miles east and scene of a developmnt rush this summer.

Ground Optioned

The ground has been optioned by Central Manitoba Gold Mines Limited, and a general flurry in trading of central Manitoba stocks has swept Sioux Lookout.

Staunton, his wife and partner Dan Craemer worked near the site of the find all summer.

When they came to Sioux Lookout looking for gold, all islands in Minnitaki Lake were closed for prospecting. But government geologist E. O. Chisholm persuaded the government to open them.

Residents expect the rush to continue until all available property within miles around is staked. By that time Sioux Lookout should be a modern boom town.

Of Interest to Women

PRINCESS ELIZABETH and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, proudly play with their second child, Princess Anne Elizabeth Alice Louise of Edinburgh, in London, Saturday, after the 67-day-old Princess was christened by the Archbishop of York. The Princess, who is third in line of succession to the British throne following her mother and brother, two-year-old Prince Charles, was christened in a white satin gown — the one worn by all Royal babies in christening ceremonies since the naming of the first child of Queen Victoria and Prince Albert.

Anniversary at Coldsprings

Coldsprings St. Paul's United Church held on Sunday the 75th aniversary service continued from the previous Sunday. Rev. T. M. Wesley, of Glenmorris, was the guest preacher, a previous minister of this church from 1934-1942. Baskets of yellow and bronze 'mums were in front of the pulpit, placed there last Sunday in memory of departed ones and all the former ministers. Another basket was added in memory of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Smart, Isobel, Mary, Ainslie, and James Smart.

The choir gave special music under the leadership of Miss Edith Hoskin, who has been organist in this church for 52 years. At the morning service there were solos by Mr. Owen Nicholas of Bowmanville and Mr. Lloyd Stinson, Cobourg. The choir sang an anthem, "Consider and Hear Me, O Lord My God." A quartette, Mrs. P. Harris, Mrs. C. Timlin, Mr. Gordon Buttars, and Mr. Milton Harper, Cobourg, sang "Rock of Ages."

Special-Purpose Menus For Everyday Cook

Two things about the first menu interest me particularly. One is the flavor of the stewed onions. They are so soft and rich, and are the perfect vegetable to serve with the mock filet mignon. Secondly, the mocha date cake is an old favorite. If your family is as perennially hungry as mine the cake is big enough to stretch for three days—carried lunches included. The thick date filling makes it something special.

Low-Calorie Dinner

Baked Cheese Omelette (3 heaping serving-spoonsful 200 cal.)
Brussels Sprouts (8 med. sized 25 cal.)
Shoestring Carrots (4 oz. 30 cal.)
English Grapes (14 grapes 65 cal.)
Clear Coffee (0 cal.)

Directions

The Week-day Filet Mignon is thick hamburg cakes flavored with a little grated onion, Worcestershire sauce, salt, pepper, and about ½ cup soft breadcrumbs, and one egg if desired, made elegent by wrapping around sides with long strip side bacon, fastened with toothpick and broiled under very hot burner. Leave them a little pink at centre to retain juice.

Stewed Onions: Peel 4 large mild onions and cut in ¼-inch slices. Add ½ cup boiling water and 2 tablespoons butter and simmer over low heat until onions are tender and water has evaporated. Add salt and pepper to taste, and just before serving add 2 tablespoons finely chopped parsley.

For your Green Salad improvise as much as you like, but do rub the bowl with garlic first, and do pull the lettuce apart with your fingers. I like a lettuce salad if the garlic flavor is perceptible and if there is plenty of chopped parsley through. Franch dressing was invented for this salad.

Grape Cream: Soak 1 tablespoon gelatine in ¼ cup water, then stand over hot water to dissolve it. Stir into it 1 cup grape juice (I make this from the grapes that fall from the bunches to the bottom of the basket and are hard to use up), and ½ cup sugar. Stir to dissolve sugar, then chill until it begins to thicken, then fold in ¾ cup cream beaten stiff, shake of salt and 1 teaspoon lemon juice. Pile in glasses to set.

Date Mocha Cake

Make a large two-layer cake from your best plain cake recipe. When cold, put together with

Date Filling: Cut up one-half pound dates, add ¼ cup sugar, 2 teaspoons lemon juice OR grated rind ½ lemon and ½ cup water and cook over low heat until very soft. If desired use 1 cup water, and it need not be watched so closely. Do not spread until cool. Put top layer on and spread with

Mocha Frosting: Cream 4 tablespoons butter until airy, then beat in 2 cups sifted icing sugar, 2 tablespoons very strong coffee, 2 tablespoons cocoa, shake of salt, and 1 beaten yolk. (If desired use 1 teaspoon powdered instant coffee and 1 tablespoon cream instead of strong coffee.)

Baked Cheese Omelette: Make white sauce of 2 tablespoons each butter and cornstarch and 1 cup milk or cream. Add ½ teaspoon salt and mustard, 1 cup grated cheese, and 4 egg yolks. Beat well. Fold in 4 beaten whites. Bake in dish in which 2 tablespoons butter are melted, at 400 deg. Fahr. until puffed and brown. Serve at once.

Welsh Members Give Tea To Aid Society

As their contribution to the continued progress and activity of St. David's Welsh Society in Peterborough, Mrs. Jos. Henderson, Mrs. C. Armstrong, Mrs. W. Williams Sr. and Miss M. Evans were hostesses for a delightful afternoon tea on Tuesday.

Mrs. Henderson opened her home at 311 Boswell Ave. for the event and welcomed more than 50 friends, assisted by the president, Mrs. M. Pakenham.

She had gathered autumn foliage from the woods to decorate the house, and with it a quantity of wild raspberries in the ripening stages. Bright red salvia and beautiful 'mums complemented this background.

A handsome drawn-work cloth was on the tea table and in the centre a large ivory horn-of-plenty filled with fruit. Tall yellow tapers were in matching ivory holders. The tea was poured by Mrs. Harold Gray and served by the hostesses.

A large Christmas cake, made by Mrs. E. E. Young, on which draw tickets are being sold, was on display at the tea.

Miss Margaret Flowers played soft piano music during the tea hours.

92, Recalls When Telephones Thought a Menace

TORONTO, Oct. 25 — (CP).— Miss Lillian Camp is 92 and retired now, but she still likes to recall the days when she was the first long-distance telephone operator at Montreal.

There were many objections to the new-fangled invention in those days, she says. People thought the wires strung outside would weaken buildings; others that telephones were a menace to health.

Miss Camp remembers an old lady remarking that she wasn't surprised an operator was sick with a cold: "Poor thing, she gets everyone's breath over that wire."

When Miss Camp joined the Bell Telephone Company staff 70 years ago, only two boys and two girls worked in the Montreal offices. She retired after 50 years of service, but, still active, she recently crocheted a purse.

Miss Doris Burgess Given Award By Red Cross

Miss Doris Burgess, of the Prince of Wales School, was presented with a badge of merit from Ontario Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society for continuous service in Junior Red Cross. The presentation was made by Miss Ethelwyn Dix, director of Junior Red Cross in Peterborough, at the board meeting of the local branch Tuesday afternoon.

A report from Mrs. S. O. Shields indicated that home nursing classes will begin about the end of November. A notice will appear in the Examiner when the date has been arranged.

A Red Cross first aid winter course is being planned again for men and women interested in first aid from a practical standpoint. There will be the usual set of lectures with examinations leading to a certificate for successful members of the class. Date of registration for this course will be announced later.

Mis Florence Gladman reported the quota of wool for knitting will be here this week and will be available to those wishing to do Red Cross knitting. Small children's garments are the chief requirements from the branch this year.

President Mrs. C. J. Ray made reference to the fact that blood donors are becoming scarce and ways and means of encouraging new donors were discussed.

Mrs. Ray also announced that Dr. J. C. Steer is the new doctor at Apsley under the doctors' service plan arranged by Peterborough branch.

St. Luke's Military Euchre And "Post Office" a Success

A good time at the military euchre at St. Luke's Tuesday evening recalled the parties in World War 1 days when St. Luke's parish was famous for such affairs and the people came miles to attend. More than 250 came to this one and, as before, many were strangers.

The revival was carried out as nearly in the old-fashioned manner as possible, the 50 tables covered in white with red crosses, and flags gave a very military air to the scene. Small drums on each table held pennants for the countries in the United Nations and were used as counters.

Adding gusto to the party was the sale of parcels that had been received at the rectory from all parts of the world. Finding out what they contained was a much-anticipated business which took up a half-hour preceding the euchre.

The parcels were all from countries of South America, all States of the Union, all provinces of Canada, England and Scotland, and from Holland, France, Italy and Switzerland. Many had writing on the customs declarations which might have indicated the contents but for the language barrier. "Fragile" stickers and such notations made them even more interesting and they were in all shapes and sizes. Prices ranged from 25c to $1.50 and the "post office" did a flourishing business

Euchre prizes were given to the winning table in each of five sections and players were: Mesdames M. Perry, R. Nothcott, A. Northcott and W. Sturdy, Mesdames H Siddall, H. Siddall Sr., S. Smith and Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Brealey, Mesdames E. T. Johnson, Carl Heintzman, Fred Gant and Arthur Moscrop, Mrs. F. Biddle, Mr. John Biddle and two friends.

Those who could not be accommodated at euchre tables played canasta and other games and draw prizes were given them, the winners being Mr. and Mrs. Beard.

June Paudash Bride Of Alton Clark

In Hiawatha United Church Saturday afternoon, June, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Paudash, Hiawatha, became the bride of Alton Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, Huntingdon, Quebec.

The Rev. Herbert Malcolm performed the ceremony in a setting of fall flowers. Miss Patricia Deline played the wedding march.

The bride wore a gow of white satin with insertions of Chantilly lace, on princess lines with a train. Her fingertip veil was caught to a coronet of seed pearls and she was carrying a white Bible with streamers of lover's knots. She was given in marriage by her father.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Allan Anderson and Miss Lucille Cornie was bridesmaid. They wore similar frocks and headdresses of yellow and green taffeta and carried nosegays of yellow and bronze 'mums. Two little nieces of the bride were flower girls, dressed in forget-me-not blue and carrying nosegays of 'mums.

Groomsman was Neil Paudash and the ushers were Allan Anderson and Eldon Musgrave.

The reception took place in the Hiawatha Community Hall. The bride's mother was assisting, dressed in wine crepe with black accessories and wearing yellow roses. Also the groom's mother who wore taupe crepe with black accessories and had red roses.

Leaving on a wedding trip to Malone, New York and Quebec, the bride was wearing a navy gabardine suit with grey accessories. On return the couple will live in Peterborough.

Evangeline—
Is A Young Company
With Young Ideas

A little over twenty years ago we were one of the first to pioneer the specialty shop business in Canada—believing that women would enjoy shopping for carefully chosen apparel and accessories in a store where all these things could be so easily co-ordinated into an attractive outfit.

Combined with this idea of merchandising we sponsored friendly and helpful service—with the aim of HELPING PEOPLE TO BUY rather than just trying to sell goods.

These were new ideas—young ideas at the time—but they were good ideas—and we've strictly adhered to them throughout the years —with the result that we're sure you'll still find the exuberance of youth in our fashions—good quality at moderate prices and the same zest for genuine helpfulness on the part of our staff.

Get Used to Being Courted Miss Dix Advises Bachelor

Dorothy Dix

DEAR MISS DIX: In all love affairs the male of the species is supposed to be the villain, and I figure that it is time that he was given a break. Take my own case. I have my life planned and I do not intend to marry for ten years at least, because I want to be free to follow my ambitions, travel, etc., but although I am no ladies' man, I am pursued by girls who make love to me and write me love letters and are so determined to marry me, whether or no, that I am almost afraid to speak to a female under 80. And I am no exception to the rule. Other young men have the same experience. What's a man to do in such a case—S. G.

ANSWER: About all the modern young man can do is to get accustomed to being courted. Being made love to is not an unpleasant experience when you are used to it. In fact, it has been the chief diversion and excitement of women for ages.

You'll Get Used To It

But, of course, you have to get acclimated to a hot spot. It is easy to see that a man might not enjoy being told how handsome he is, nor what lovely eyes he has, nor that he is the ideal some girl has been seeking for years and years and years, and that the moment she saw him she knew that she had met her predestined mate. It would give him the jitters.

It is easy to understand why men, who have always been the hunters in the love chase, should resent having the tables turned upon them and being forced to become the hunted. Nor is it difficult to understand why men who have always had the privilege of popping the question are embarrassed, when girls ask for their hearts and hands in marriage. They have not yet learned the technique of saying "no" gracefully, and selling the rejected suitors the idea of being little brothers to them.

But times have changed. The courting that women used to do under cover, they now do openly. They no longer wear themselves out trying to inveigle a man who hangs back, up to the proposing point. They do it themselves. And so it is up to men to meet this frankness with frankness and to refuse to let themselves be shanghaied into marriages for which they have no appetites.

Instead of being dismayed at the tactics of the modern girl, men should be filled with hope and courage, provided, like you, they wish to maintain their bachelor freedom. For never were they so safe as now, because they can see the dangers that beset them, whereas before they were in the dark as to a lady's intentions.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I have been married almost a year. I have a very affectionate disposition, but my husband is of the cold type. He is very good to me, and doesn't drink or run around with other women, but he never talks to me or say nice things. I am only 19 and feel that I have plenty of time to find a man of my own type. I am thinking of getting a divorce and trying marriage over again. Maybe I'd have better luck. What do you say? Upon your advice depends my decision. VERY UNHAPPY.

ANSWER: Well, if you will take my advice, you will stick to the good, kind husband you have even if he isn't much as a love-maker.

The two things in human nature that puzzle me most are why women are so crazy to have their husbands make love to them and tell them how wonderful and beautiful they are and how they couldn't live without them, and why husbands are so stingy about handing their wives a little soft talk when they know that a few kind words and a compliment or two will make the poor silly things perfectly happy.

But all the same, my dear, don't throw a good husband into the discard just because he is a dumb love-maker. These glib love-makers, who fancy their technique with women, are never satisfied to confine it to their wives. They are always trying it out on other women. Whereas the man to whom courtship was a chore and who choked on his Adam's apple when he tried to get sentimental means what he says when he tells a woman that she is the only one, and when he gets married he is done with philandering forever.

DEAR MISS DIX: Should a mother have her son, who is 22, absolutely under control? By this I mean should his mother have complete authority over him so that he has to ask her permission to go places, and whom to go with, and what friends he can have, and when he can use his car? A. B.

ANSWER: Certainly not. The mother is a tyrant who attempts to exercise such authority over a grown son, and he is a weakling if he submits to it. In this world we have all got to hoe our own row. We've got to depend on ourselves. We've got to learn how to judge people, how to take care of money, and we can't do this if our mothers make all our decisions for us and pick out our friends and our associates and buy us everything we need.

What's Right

You give another person's child something and he neglects to say "Thank you."

WRONG: Say: "What do you say, Johnnie?"

RIGHT: Don't correct the manners of other people's children.

COOKBOOK OF THE WEEK

Make Treat of Taffy Pull

Candy making can be such fun—and the results are so rewarding that it is really worth a try just to see what you can do. But most important of all is to have right recipes and right instructions. For these you must see "250 Ways to Make Candy," the fifteenth cookbook in the Culinary Arts Institute Series of twenty-four cookbooks that are now available to readers of The Examiner.

The Candy Book covers all the rules for all the basic candies—fondants, fudges, taffies, caramels, brittle candies, and so on—and the special recipes are a further guide to the making of delicious candy. Besides, there are beautiful photographic illustrations to show you how the candy should look when finished and to give you additional ideas for trimming and serving. Here are two recipes for taffy which should do much to make for a happy, jolly evening of taffy-pulling and eating:

Old-Fashioned Molasses Taffy

1¼ cups sorghum or dark molasses
¾ cup sugar
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 tablespoon butter
⅛ teaspoon soda
⅛ teaspoon salt

Combine sorghum, sugar and vinegar and cook to 270 degrees, or to the soft-crack stage; stir occasionally to prevent burning. Remove from heat, add butter soda, and salt, and stir just enough to blend. Pour into buttered pans. When cool enough to handle, gather into a ball and pull between ungreased finger tips until firm and light in color. Cut into pieces and wrap in waxed paper. Add a few drops of oil of pepermint or of peppermint extract to the above recipe before pulling.

Chocolate Taffy

1 cup brown sugar
1-3 cup corn sirup
2-3 cup water
1 cup molasses
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter
4 ounces (square) chocolate melted
1 tablespoon vanilla

Combine first 6 ingredients. Cook slowly, stirring constantly until mixture boils. Cook to 290 degrees or to soft-crack stage. Pour into buttered pan, pour chocolate over candy and as edges cool fold in toward centre. Add vanilla and continue folding until cool enough to pull. Pull until cold and cut into pieces.

To get this valuable Candy Book clip a coupon from page 2 of any issue of The Examiner and present it with 25 cents at The Examiner office, Braund's Food Markets or to your Examiner carrier boy.

SPEAKING OF FOOD—

Perhaps one of our most staple and beneficial foods is often overlooked in our desire for something new and different. For centuries bread has been the "staff of life" for rich and poor alike. Today's bread made from vitamin-enriched flour together with milk, sugar, shortening, yeast and salt can be used in many ways to add both variety and additional nourishment to the day's meals. Bread is exceptionally versatile in that it can be combined with many other foods. For instance, for lunch or an evening snack, spread cheese over sliced white bread, cover with a strip of bacon and place under broiler, until bacon is browned.

Your Dominion Master Market has a bread made to suit your taste—vitamin-enriched white, brown, whole wheat and rye. Why not try Dominion's own brand — Richmello Bread? We think you'll like it.

Everyone likes the flavour and tender eating qualities of chicken, so why not serve it frequently to brighten up your meals. Be sure the chicken you buy is good quality. Grade "A" chickens are superb quality, ideal for roasting and the finest dinners. These are well-fleshed, especially fattened for tenderness and and flavour. Grade "B" is composed of good birds but not as well-fleshed or fattened as Grade "A". Try this recipe for Virginia Style Chicken—

Remove bones from roasting chicken and cut in pieces for serving. Wrap each of 6 portions in a thin slice of uncooked smoked ham. Tie well or fasten with toothpicks or small skewers, and stick a few cloves in each roll. Place in a greased baking dish. Sprinkle lightly with 1 tablespoon flour. Pour ½ cup hot water and ½ cup maple syrup (or ¼ cup brown sugar) in pan. Bake in moderate oven 350 deg. F. for 1 hour, basting every 10 minutes. Serve garnished with sections of glazed apples. Serves six.

How would you like to win some hard cash? Well here's how! Next time you go shopping, visit your Dominion Master Market, corner of George and Sherbrooke St. Fill in an entry blank for Dominion's "Dollars for Shoppers" contest. Each night over CHEX, Miss Kay Doris will select a name from entries. She will call that person by phone; the correct answer to her question sends a cash award to the lucky winner. That's all there is to it, folks! And you can fill in an entry blank each time you visit the store. Your Dominion Master Market is located at the corner of George and Sherbrooke Streets in Peterborough.

CHILD'S SULKY SPELLS WORRIED HER UNTIL...

If your child has moody, cross, irritable spells for what seems to be no reason, watch for "hidden" constipation. Oftentimes, youngsters' bowels, altho moving regularly, do not move completely. As a result, harmful wastes remain in the intestines, making the child listless, peevish and not feeling like eating. What may be needed is Children's Own Tablets. They help give the thorough evacuation that quickly helps make most children feel like their usual happy selves. Pleasant tasting, small, easy to swallow, Children's Own Tablets are especially prepared for kids from 2 to 12. Only 49c at your druggist. Get a box today.

Clubs Advised How To Treat Guest Speakers

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

Here is something which may bring "amens" from people who make speeches.

It comes from A. R. Haskell, general manager of the Toronto Better Business Bureau, Inc., who is called upon to address various business organizations.

He says he really likes to do it, but on behalf of all public speakers he thinks some organizations show lack of consideration for men and women too, without remuneration and often at considerable effort and inconvenience to themselves, take time to prepare and deliver a speech.

Should Be Interested

"When a group invites a man or woman to address the members on some subjects on which he has special knowledge or information, they imply that a fair proportion of the group is interested.

"Naturally, he spends some time preparing his talk in addition to the personal leisure he gives up on the evening he speaks. So it is only courtesy that the officers of the organization should try to ensure a large enough attendance to make the speaker feel it has been worth his while."

Mr. Haskell adds these other points:

Fair Warning

Give the speaker warning enough so that he has an opportunity to prepare his talk. Even though he makes no charge for his services, try to see that he has no out-of-pocket expenses for transportation, meals, gasoline or hotel bills. And:

The most unfair thing that club groups do to a speaker is to precede his talk with a long business meeting or series of reports. Then, when the air is heavy and the audience fidgetty, they call upon him to speak.

Truck Drivers Buck Obstacles

TORONTO, Oct. 25—(CP)—The Canadian championship truck roadeo got under way Tuesday to the tune of crunching fenders.

Three of the 60 drivers in elimination rounds of the three-day contest found the competition harder on fenders than bucking highway traffic. In addition, one truck had its right headlight broken by one of the obstacles in the indoor course.

Drivers found the straight-line test hardest, only three successfully negotiating obstacles that give the heavy dual truck wheels just a four-inch clearance.

Tuesday's eliminations narrowed the field to 12 each in the straight truck and semi-trailer divisions. In addition, provincial champions and last year's winners advance into the finals of the contest, staged annually by the Automotive Transport Association of Ontario.

Among Ontario drivers advancing in the straight truck division were Alexander Elliott, William K. Johnston and Wallace Postill, all of London; Donald Fitzpatrick, of Burlington, and Harley Cathcart, of Peterborough.

Qualifiers for the quarter-finals in the semi-trailer division included Joseph E. Long and George F. Cumming, London; Oscar Breault, Chatham; Wray A. Cunningham, Ingersoll; Allan Shepherd, Burlington, and G. E. Townsend, Hamilton.

Why Leaves Fall? Become Unstuck

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Editor

GRAND FORKS, N.D., Oct. 25.—(AP)—Why autumn leaves fall is a new scientific study at the University of North Dakota.

Vera Facey, assistant professor of biology, has discovered some new reasons. This seemingly-artistic study has a practical side, because it explains why fruits fall before ripening, a serious loss to the fruit-growing industry.

Everyone knows that falling leaves always separate just at the base of their stems. But nothing is visible to explain the perfect separation. There are no broken fibres.

Pectin Jelly

Facey used the advances in biological chemistry to find that the explanation is a peculiar action of jelly. This leaf jelly is pectin, the kind that wives, cooks and industry use to make table jellies.

In leaves and fruits, pectin is the cement that binds tissue cells together. All summer this jelly is hard, and holds the stem fast to its anchorage. But in the fall, the jelly at this point turns to a thin syrup.

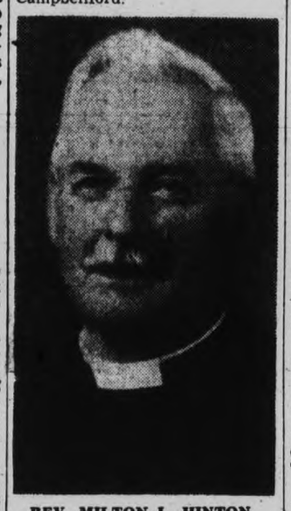
What about leaves that hang on all winter? In them the veins which carry sap become woody and strong enough to pin the leaf in place.

BROAD AREA

Approximate distance from St. John's, Nfld., to Prince Rupert, B.C., is 4,343 miles.

Basil Darrah Heads Students' Council

CAMPBELLFORD, Oct. 25 — (ENS).—After a heated election campaign, which featured many speeches, and saw the school ablaze with campaign posters, the ballots have been counted for the positions which were to be filled on the Students' Council at the Campbellford High School.



The new president of the Students' Council is Basil Darrah; vice-president, Alan Wickens, and Valerie DeCarrol, secretary-treasurer.

Rev. M. L. Hinton United Church Minister Dies

CAMPBELLFORD, Oct. 25 (ENS)—Rev. Milton L. Hinton, who for many years was minister in the United Church, died at his home in Colborne on Monday. He would have celebrated his 75th birthday next month.

Mr. Hinton was well known throughout the southern portion of the province, having preached in Castleton, Hastings Bobcaygeon Campbellford, Coe Hill and Colborne. He was superannuated 10 years ago. He left Campbellford about 1929, after a stay of five years. He was seven years in Hastings and 10 years in Castleton, when he retired in 1940 to take up residence in Colborne.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Earl and Goldworth of Colborne and three daughters, Mrs. Rev. Geo. Simpson (Mae) of London, Ontario, Mrs. James Haines of Toronto (Lillian), and Mrs. Charles Bland (Bessie) of Campbellford.

REV. MILTON L. HINTON

Report 38 Cases

COBOURG, Oct. 25 (ENS) — Thirty-eight new cases of communicable disease were recorded for the week ending October 21 by the Northumberland and Durham Counties Health Unit. The bulk of these were chickenpox and whooping cough of which 14 were the first disease and 11 were whooping cough. Eight cases of German measles and five of red measles completed the list.

UK Ready To Whoop It Up For New House Of Commons

LONDON, Oct. 25 (CP). — John Bull is a game guy who likes to keep his deeper feelings under control, but tomorrow is the day he throws his top hat in the air.

The occasion is the official opening of the new House of Commons, and across the land there'll be a warm glow of pride as another chapter unfolds in the long history of the mother of parliaments.

For once there'll be a lump in the throat instead of the stiff upper lip; unabashed sentiment instead of stony silence. Britain respects her parliamentary institutions.

Commands Affection

Perhaps because its roots go deeper, perhaps because it grew up the hard way, the British House of Commons has an authority and commands an affection that no other commonwealth parliament has achieved.

Members of what is sometimes called the "best club in Europe" are persons of some eminence in the community, and the old forms are revered. By contrast, the Canadian attitude toward parliament sometimes may be more casual.

That's why the new commons chamber, rebuilt at a cost of £2,000,000 (about $6,000,000) on the ashes of the old, seeks to preserve the pattern and the spirit of the past. The planners could have built a great new hall capable of seating all 625 members. Instead they kept it small and cosy.

437 Seats

There are only 437 seats, and of these just 346 are on the floor of the house.

The idea is to preserve the intimacy of a forum where conversational tones are preferred to the rhetoric of set speeches.

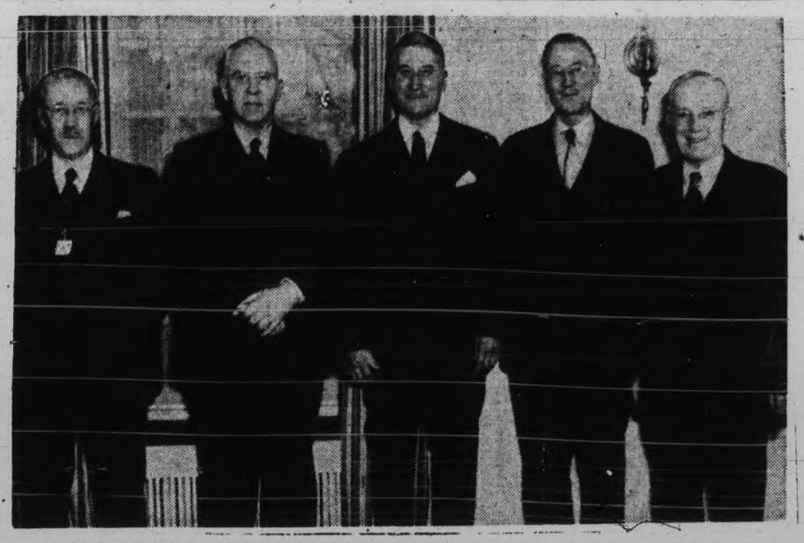
There will be a few modern touches. Among other things, there will be a system of acoustics guaranteed to outwit every echo, the latest in loudspeaking equipment and novel air conditioning designed to reproduce the feeling of a fine spring day outdoors.

Iron Lung

Air will be pumped into the chamber horizontally instead of vertically, and an engineer will be sitting at a periscope regulating the flow of freshly-laundered air. The set-up is so elaborate one nimble wit has already christened the new chamber the "iron lung."

In case there are any hitches, a hotplate has been installed in the speaker's chalsdom to keep Mr. Speaker's feet warm in cold weather.

With all these flourishes, the real story of Thursday's official opening is the continuity of the parliamentary tradition.



A fitting slogan for John Bull's new house would be the words Winston Churchill pronounced May 7, 1941—three days before the Germans bombalasted the old chamber:

"Let it roar and let it rage; we shall come through."

RHEUMATIC PAIN
Can Be Costly!

"This winter I had to quit work because of rheumatic pain," writes Mr. T. Glofcheskie, Wilno, Ont. "I became fearful of being laid up as on a previous occasion with rheumatic pain. My pain became increasingly severe and spread from hip to ankle. Out of bed, the leg felt cold as though in cold water, so I stayed in bed. A friend persuaded me to take T-R-C's and I'm glad I did. In a short while I was relieved of my pain and was soon on the job again."

Don't suffer from Rheumatic or Arthritic pain. Take Templeton's T-R-C's—Canada's LARGEST-SELLING proprietary medicine to bring quick relief from such pain. Only 60c, $1.25 at druggists. T-822

Jolson's Body In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 25 (AP).—Al Jolson is home today for the last time.

The cantor's boy whose voice thrilled millions will lie in state in his suburban Encino residence as friends pay their final respects to the great entertainer who died Monday night in San Francisco.

The body arrived by plane late yesterday and the flower-draped casket was taken to a mortuary in a small grieving procession.

Mrs. Jolson—the singer's fourth wife, the former Erle Galbraith—was too grief-stricken to meet the airborne cortege.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow noon at Temple Israel on the Hollywood Boulevard, a street where his name appeared in blazing lights so many times. Interment will be in nearby Glendale.

Ruby Keeler, the former Halifax dancer who was Jolson's third wife—they were divorced in 1939—last night paid tribute to the entertainer.

"The world has lost a great figure," she said. "That his end was sudden is a blessing. Al had too much driving energy to have tolerated a lengthy illness."

Caused Disturbance Man Fined $15, Costs

COBOURG, Oct. 25 (ENS) — Edward Lloyd of Oshawa, pleaded guilty through his solicitor to causing a disturbance in a local cafe and was fined $15 and costs. The cafe waiter said that Lloyd ate an order of pie in the cafe and then accused him of taking the plate away before he had finished. The accused took a swing at him and used loud language, the waiter complained.

Lights Blamed Two Cars Crash

The bright lights of an unknown auto were blamed for an accident Tuesday night on Park St. north of Sherbrooke St., when minor damage was done to cars driven by George J. Hill, 716 Stormont St., and Lester Sinclaire, 775 Duffus St.

Hill was driving north on Park St. and had passed Sherbrooke when an auto with bright lights appeared to be coming toward him. He swerved to the right to avoid the collision, striking Sinclaire's auto.

Flying Boat Sent On Mercy Trip

HALIFAX, Oct. 25 — (CP). — A Canso flying boat winged toward Hudson Bay today to take to a Montreal hospital an unidentified man suffering from serious injuries, the RCAF reported here.

FO. Bob McFadden of Montreal, pilot, and FO. Ted Forbes of Vancouver took off from Goose Bay, Labrador, at dawn and were scheduled to arirve at Port Harrison, on Hudson Bay, in the early afternoon. They left the 103 Rescue Squadron at Greenwood, NS, late yesterday.

Officials said the operation may be unsuccessful for two reasons: The plane may not be able to land because of floating ice; if the temperature is around freezing, the take-off from Port Harrison would be seriously affected by flying spray.

The Air Force said the patient will be crippled for life if he does not receive expert treatment soon.

Canada Must Have Dollars Remain US Best Customer

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., Oct. 25. —(CP)—Ronald A. McEachern of Toronto, editor of the Financial Post, said today that Canada can continue to be the United States' best customer only as long as U. S. dollars keep flowing into Canada.

In an address prepared for delivery to a convention of the Life Insurance Advertising Association, he said:

Best Friend

"Canada is your best friend and your best customer. Canada's ability to buy your goods is of direct pocketbook interest to your business, to all your employees, to all your citizens. We can continue to be your best customer only if you in your trade, tariff and other policies make it possible for use to get the U.S. dollar exchange which will permit us to buy more from you."

Canada had been "quite literally transformed" in the last 10 years. Her population had increased 16 per cent to 13,500,000. The number of her people employed had gone up 40 per cent, while total output of goods and services had advanced 75 per cent.

Standard Up 51%

"To achieve 75 per cent more production with 40 per cent more workers is a very significant index of the character and extent of the revolution which has taken place. And the average Canadian standard of living has risen 51 per cent. over what it was 10 years ago.

"As a nation, we are drinking one-third more milk, eating two-thirds more pork, paying two-thirds more movie admissions and buying 75 per cent more new houses than we did 10 years ago. We are using twice as much gasoline, chewing twice as much gum and drinking more than twice the amount of whisky.

"Your country has a big stake in Canada. You have a larger capital investment in businesses and resources in Canada than in all other countries combined."

Curb Desires To Fight Can. Inflation

TORONTO, Oct. 25 — (CP) — Self-control isn't the best guard against higher prices at this time, Robert Drummond, president of the Canadian Construction Association, said today.

In an address to the Toronto Kiwanis Club, he urged that private industry as well as governments postpone projects which are not essential, so as to allow for the extra demand of the defence program.

Labor Co-operation

He suggested that labor cooperate in making government controls unnecessary, as price controls would require wage controls.

He expressed the construction industry's appreciation of the release of dollar control and the relaxation of import controls, "which should be a real help in the effort to stabilize construction costs."

Mr. Drummond stated that the real test of the Canadian economy should come next year when the defence program will be well under way and draining labor and materials from the civilian economy at double or treble the present rate.

Starting Inflation

"The danger at present is that because of the knowledge of next year's program and the fear of its possible inflationary effects, consumers and business men are placing orders today and feeding fires of inflation when they should only be smouldering.

"When it is realized that our gross national product is around $17,000,000,000 and that the defence program will claim only six to 10 per cent of this, it seems foolish to suggest that we as business men and consumers can not postpone sufficient of our less essential demands to make it possible to carry out the defence program in stride."

Finds Banded Gull

COBOURG, Oct. 25 (ENS) — Walking along the shore west of Cobourg, Walter Jordan found a dead seagull which had been banded. He sent the band to the U.S. Department of Interior at Washington and yesterday was advised that the bird was a herring gull that had been banded at Sugar Isle, Lake Huron, Michigan, on July 10, 1934, which makes the gull 16 years old from the banding date. This is considered a fairly good age for a sea gull.

Personnel Assoc. Told Supervisor Training Methods

A. L. Crossland, employee relations and training supervisor, nylon division of Canadian Industries Ltd., told the Personnel Association of Peterborough Tuesday evening that persons with supervisory capacities should be trained as part of management. A great need in Canadian industry today is for people with managerial ability and training. They can be recruited from the ranks of supervisors, provided proper training is available.

Mr. Crossland's talk dealt with the entire field of supervisory training: educational procedures, groups to be trained, fundamentals of training, categories of training and reasons why plants should have supervisory training. Following the talk there was a question period in which members of the Personnel Association took part. Peterborough firms represented at the meeting, held at the Kawartha Club, the second of this season, were: Peterborough Lock Co., Brinton Carpet, Outboard Marine, Canadian General, Quaker Oats, A. Wander Ltd., Dominion Woollens and Worsted, Canada Packers, Canadian Raybestos, and the National Employment Service.

Reg. Reid of Outboard Marine, president, presided over the meeting. Alan Heideman of Peterborough Lock Co. thanked the speaker. Buffet supper was served.

Bare Chest Key To Stardom Actors Ponder

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 25 (AP) — To bare or not to bare. That is the question debated by two rising young film actors.

In one corner is Anthony Curtis, who told me recently that he jumped to stardom after he stripped at the beach for some 'beefcake" photos. His gal fans went wild over his exposed frame.

Now comes Keefe Brasselle, who says "leg art should be left to the glamor girls." He took sharp issue with Curtis' claim that showing the torso is a short-cut to success.

Famed Frame

First of all, Brasselle emphasized that his build can stack up against that of Curtis or any of the other glamor boys.

"I've done picture layouts at the beach myself," he said, "so I have nothing to hide. But lately I've turned down five requests for swimsuit picture spreads . . .

"I don't think there is anything exciting about beefcake. The mail I get from fans proves that. They mention my eyes, my face, but not my chest."

Brasselle cited actors who he feels display sex appeal.

Raft Tops

"George Raft can put across sex better than any man in the movies," he claimed. "Not because he displays his chest, but because he is perfectly groomed at all times.

The same goes for Clark Gable.

Brasselle also named Cary Grant, Laurence Olivier and Ronald Colman as examples of stars who have exuded sex without going shirtless.

Wonder whatever happened to the theory that actors just had to know how to act?

Ball and Paul Sanders read the scripture lessons, and Donald Kent and George Smith assisted the rector, the Rev. A. A. Chote in the prayers.

A young peoples' choir of 26 voices filled the choir loft along with the members of the regular choir. The special music was an anthem of a medley of sacred songs by the youth choir. The sermon was preached by Donald Spicer, president of Young Peoples' organziation who has been accepted as a candidate for the United Church ministry.

Alan Wright and Arnold Brackenridge assisted the regular ushers in seating the large congregation and in taking up the offering.

A fireside service sponsored by the Y.P. was held at the conclusion of the service in the parish hall.

Helped Accused Man Two May Lose Homes

TORONTO, Oct. 25 —(CP)—Two bondsmen may lose their homes unless John Wilfred Muir, 37, appears in court Friday to answer a charge of armed robbery.

Reds Use 'Rationing By Terror' In Hungary, Situation Desperate

Fugitives from Hungary arriving here report that in desperation their failure to keep up supplies to what was once the richest food producing country of Central Europe, the Communists are resorting to "rationing by terror," G. E. R. Gedye writes from Vienna to The Montreal Star.

The wishes of the Kremlin rather than the requirements of the population are now the deciding factor in allotting the available agrarian products.

Power Politics

The Hungarian worker—like workers in other satellite countries which produce foodstuffs in abundance, for example, Romania—is called upon to face near-starvation so that more food may be sent to Eastern Germany in the interests of Soviet power politics.

Arbitrary arrests, deportations, and savage prison sentences are among the methods of "rationing by terror" in Hungary. Since they are designed to silence grumbling, they have to be given a publicity usually denied to Communist terrorism.

On September 24, for example, the government announced that a revolutionary tribunal had sentenced two persons, Paul Krisnaya and Joseph Pos, to death for "irregularities in the distribution of rationed foodstuffs" and that both were hanged immediately after sentence. Six others were sent to prison for terms varying from 10 to 15 years.

The judge was the notorious terrorist Vilmos Thy, whose reputation is beginning to rival that of the Russian hanging judge, Ulrich. It was Thy who last year sentenced to death the former Hungarian (Communist) foreign minister, Rajk. He also conducted the "show trials" in Budapest of the American, Robert Vogeler, and the Englishman, Edgar Saunders, on charges of espionage, as well as that of Cardinal Mindszenty, and enjoys the full confidence of the Russian MVD (secret police).

Among the new crimes invented by the Hungarian Communists are "buying large quantities of poppyseeds, shelled walnuts, cucumbers and cabbages." The central Communist newspaper, "Szabad Nep," on September 21, gave the names of 18 persons on whom heavy sentences were passed for these crimes. Persons accused of "hiding flour and textiles," the newspaper stated the next day, had also been serverely dealt with, the sentences included "deportation" to unknown destinations.

There is in Hungary no regulation establishing—nor is there any means of finding out—how much may be bought or stored without a charge of "hoarding." Instead, the regime seeks to limit purchase by sheer terror.

Any person who stands in a queue is now liable to arrest as a "speculator." Anyone who doesn't is likely to starve. Life is as simple as that in Hungary today.

The worst instruments in spreading the ration-terror are the official "snoopers" called "People's Educators," who have absolute power to put a stop to queuing. The week before last, for example, a police van stopped beside a queue of weary women outside one of the "Kozerts" (nationalized food shops) in Budapest and a "People's Educator" got out.

"I see you have nothing to do," he remarked caustically, "so I will take you for a ride."

The women were forced to get into the van, driven to the outlying industrial suburb of Cepel and dumped there, to find their way back to the city as best they could. Next day another queue of women was rounded up an set to cleaning police barracks.

Red Chinese Forces Well Inside Tibet Defenders to Resist

CALCUTTA, India, Oct. 26—(AP)—The Kalimpong correspondent of the newspaper Statesmen said today invading Communist Chinese forces are well inside Tibet. He reported the Communists were only a day's march from Niewutsi (Riwoche), which lies about 500 miles northeast of Lhasa, capital of Tibet. The correspondent said the Tibetans have reinforced Neiwutsi with 10,000 troops. The Communists were reported by this correspondent to have made their first thrust south of Dongma pass and by-passed Chamdo, where the defending Tibetans were massed, in order to threaten Neiwutsi.

Lhasa radio broadcasts heard in Kalimpong said the Tibetans are shocked and dismayed by the Communist invasion. Lhasa regards the invasion as direct aggression and is determined to fight, despite the Communist's superiority in numbers and equipment, the Kalimpong correspondent said.

He said radio reports from the capital indicated there was a possibility the 15-year-old Dalai Lama, spiritual ruler of Tibet, and other high officials, would flee Lhasa should resistance prove hopeless.

In Berlin the Russians announced today that Chinese Communist forces crossed Tibet's frontier early Tuesday. "In the early morning hours of Tuesday, a formation of the Chinese People's Army crossed the Tibetan frontier," an announcement in Taegliche Rundschau, official newspaper of the Soviet Control Commission in Germany, said today.

It was the first word that the Chinese Reds actually had entered Tibet.

The Peiping radio yesterday announced that Chinese Communist forces in South China had been ordered to advance on Tibet. The Chinese Reds had been hinting at an invasion of Tibet for several months.

Paper's Statement

Taegliche Rundschau said:

"In the summer of 1949, reactionary authorities of Tibet under pressure from their English and American advisers had proclaimed their detachment from China. This was not the wish of the Tibetan people, but was designed to serve Washington in its efforts to convert Tibet into a military attack point against the democratic peoples of the Republic of China.

"The command to the Chinese people's army is clear. Three million inhabitants of Tibet must be freed from imperialistic oppression and the national defence on the western frontier of the Chinese people's republic must be strengthened."

Charge Control

The Soviet mouthpiece said that "English imperialists" had "succeeded in quartering a political mission in Lhasa (the Tibetan capital city) where today it con-

Mayo Doctors Awarded Nobel Prizes

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Oct. 26 (AP).—Two Mayo Clinic doctors and a Swiss professor will share the 1950 Nobel Prize in medicine.

The award recognizes their work on two hormones—cortisone and ACTH—which have brought the promise of relief to millions from the great pain of rheumatoid arthritis. Their work has opened up a new field of medicine—one of the most important of the century.

The Caroline Institute, which awards the prize, announced the winners tonight—Drs. Philip S. Hench and Edward C. Kendall, both of the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn. and Tadeusz Reichstien, professor of chemistry at the University of Basel.

Help Others

Their work also has promised aid to sufferers from rheumatic fever, gout, asthma, certain eye inflammations, psoriasis and leukemia.

The three doctors were credited with having made the greatest contributions to the discovery of cortisone. This is produced by the adrenal cortex, a cap-like gland atop the kidneys which scientists believe may hold the key to life's processes.

The prize money totalling 164,303 crowns ($31,715) will be divided among the three scientists.

Reds Exploded Only 1 A-Bomb

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26—(AP).—President Truman has no information that the Russians have ever produced more than one atomic explosion, he said today.

Truman told a press conference that insofar as he knows, there has only been one atomic explosion in the Soviet nation. On Sept. 23 last year he reported that one.

Truman made no comment today during questioning about a press conference Tuesday in which chairman Gordon Dean of the Atomic Energy Commission said that "the president hasn't seen fit to make any more announcements" and "I'll leave it to you to guess on that basis."

U.S. Bans Building For Entertainment

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26—(AP).—The National Production Authority today banned the building of any new structures for "amusement, recrational or entertainment purposes."

The order, effective at midnight tonight, was issued to conserve materials for armaments.

Covered by the ban are theatres of all kinds, amusement parks, race tracks, golf courses, night clubs, skating rinks and summer camps. In all, there are 44 forbidden types of structures.

The N.P.A. administrator, William H. Harrison, said the barred construction "is a type which does not further the defence effort, either directly or indirectly, and does not increase the nation's productive capacity."

700 AWL From Army No Need To Worry

EDMONTON, Oct. 26 (CP).—Brig. J. M. (Rocky) Rockingham said yesterday that the total of more than 700 men reported absent without leave from Canada's special force is "nothing to worry about."

The special force commander said in an interview that a "landslide in the East" caused many to be late reporting back from leave to Western training centres. Another group was conscripted from an East-bound train to fight a forest fire in New Brunswick and were unreported two days.

"These reasons coupled with the usual number of AWL's brought the total to 700."

McGill, suffering two bullet wounds in the leg, was reported in "good" condition in hospital here. Police said details of the shooting are not known but that it was believed to have followed a dispute.

Canada's Role Uncertain

Korean Events Will Decide Duties Of Force

TOKYO, Oct. 26 (CP).—Brig. F. J. Fleury, Canadian liaison officer in Korea, said today he cannot anticipate the role that Canada's Korea force will be required to play on arrival in the war zone. The Canadians duties would be assigned in Korea.

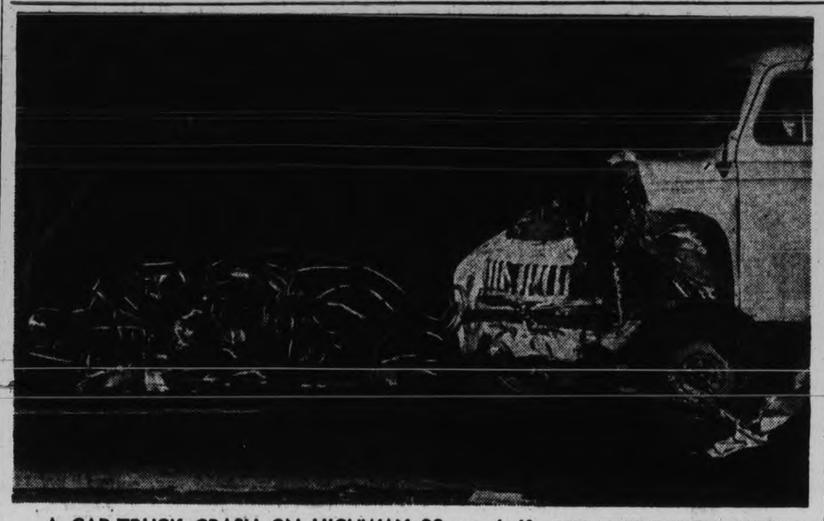
The Canadian officer added that "the swift turn of military events" does not permit him to say what percentage of the unit will remain in Korea or for what length of time.

Sailed Monday

Fleury said that a fully-equipped Canadian advance party of 400 left Seattle for Korea last Monday.

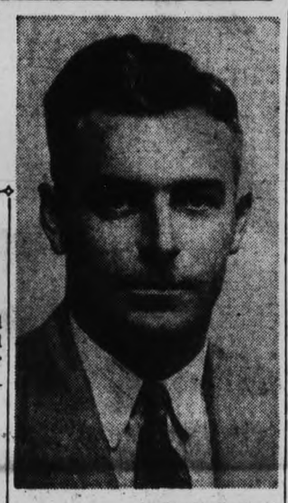
(A report from Seattle Saturday said the Canadian troops had already embarked at that time Ottawa officials said the advance party was composed of 345 officers and men.)

The advance party is part of a special force of 9,000 Canadian army men which will form the first world military group to be placed at the disposal of the United Nations, Fleury said.



Canada Pays

He said the expenses of the Canadian brigade, including equipment, will be paid by Canada. But the United Nations command would provide field supplies like food and fuel.



Fleury said:

"The swift turn of military events in Korea do not permit me to anticipate the role the Canadian army special force will be required to play upon arrival and what percentage of the unit will remain in Korea and for what length of time.

"But the brigade will continue in force at the disposal of the United Nations ready to serve wherever the United Nations may require its services."

Canada, US Sign Pact To Co-operate For Defence

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26—(CP)—Canada and the United States, in an unprecedented peacetime step, formally agreed today to co-ordinate their resources, skills and economies for the "common defence" of both countries. Trade Minister C. D. Howe of Canada, who witnessed the historic signing ceremony, said in an interview that the agreement marks a new advance in peacetime economic co-operation.

"It was the sensible thing to do," he said. "It will simplify our job and indicate to all concerned that we really are working together."

Six economic principles are embodied in the agreement, signed at the State Department by Hume Wrong, Canadian Ambassador to the United States, and State Secretary Dean Acheson.

No Closing Date

They go into effect immediately and will run indefinitely. No terminating date is mentioned.

Doing in peace what the Hyde Park agreement of 1941 did in war, the agreement indicates that both countries will remove "as far as possible" all barriers which impede the flow of arms and materials between Canada and the United States.

Free To Import

There are virtually no barriers to the import of American goods to Canada. However, Canada has experienced some trouble in the past in getting US arms orders. This hindrance stems from high US tariffs on foreign arms and restrictive legislation, only recently rendered ineffective by executive action.

The principles, besides indicating that the United States will do what it can to remove the obstacles, do these other things:

They provide for a common supply of strategic materials through the interchange of technical and productive skills, creation of allocation and priority

Soviet Policies Same—Pearson

OTTAWA, Oct. 26 (CP).—External Affairs Minister Pearson said today there is no evidencee at the United Nations that the Soviet Union has changed its policies.

Home briefly from the U.N.'s current New York meetings, he told a press conference there is every evidence that the recent softening of the language used by members of the Soviet delegation are "intended to deceive us."

And, he added, "when Vishinsky begins to talk nice to you, that's the time to worry." .....

"We don't really think there has been any change in Soviet policy. We would like to think there has been a change. But there is no evidence that there has been."

He expressed belief that the Russians had been "profoundly impressed" by the U.N. actions in Korea and by the building up of strength under the North Atlantic Pact.

Soviet tactics—rather than policy—had changed, he suggested, because of the "obvious" Russian policy of posing as the "champions of peace." Because of this pose, the Soviets had to appear to be "a little more co-operative."

For example their speeches had become a little shorter, thus giving a little more speed to the work of the U.N. meetings. Not taking so long to get into the last ditch."

U.S., British To Stop 20 Miles From Border

TOKYO, Oct. 26 (Thursday)—(AP).—Informed sources today said United States and British troops in Korea will stop at least 20 miles short of the Manchurian border.

They said the purpose was to minimize the dangers of a border clash. Korea borders on Russian Siberia as well as on Communist China's Manchuria.

South Korean forces will go on to the border in pursuit of Korean Communist remnants, these sources said.

French Leave Key Position

SAIGON, Oct. 26 (Reuters)—French forces have evacuated Banphiet, three miles northeast of the key bastion of Laokay, in the face of increased Communist-led Vietminh pressure on the north bank of the Red River, usually reliable sources said here tonight.

New French positions had been established at the confluence of the Red River and its tributary the Namsi, these sources added.

French artillery and fighter bombers pounded the insurgents today, a French army communique announced earlier.

French forces from Muong Khoung, 25 miles northwest, have withdrawn to Laokay which, at the head of the Red River valley, is the western-most outpost of the new French defence line protecing the Tonkin delta.

An army spokesman said there had been patrol clashes today and the insurgents were reported to be building rafts 18 miles down the Red River from Laokay.

Gordon Ham Killed By Car Crash

Head-On Collision On Highway 28 At Brow Of Hill

Gordon A. Ham, 45, sales manager for the De Laval Co., was killed almost instantly Wednesday night when his car met in head-on collision with a truck on Highway 28, a half mile south of Kendry crossing.

Driver of the three-quarter-ton pickup truck was G. A. Anderson, 25, of 4 McKellar St. He is in Civic Hospital suffering from shock, a cut on the lower lip, a bad cut on the left knee and other undetermined injuries. At noon today he was said to be progressing favorably.

Provincial police were able to talk to Anderson early today and he told them he was coming toward Peterborough, shortly before 8 p.m., when he broke over the brow of the hill and collided with Ham's car. The crash was described as partly head-on and partly side-swipe.

Anderson is a salesman for the International Harvester Co. and covers this district.

Nobody is believed to have seen the fatal collision.

Ham was going to Port Hope to pick up a company official and bring him back to the city. He collided with the pickup truck on the incline south of Cavan creek.

The whole left side of the Ham car, a 1950 model, was smashed in and the seats torn from their fixed position. The completely-wrecked vehicle was thrown into the west ditch and wedged against the bank.

The International Harvester truck was turned around, facing south, and the front was demolished. The left fender was tossed about 30 feet.

Traffic was held up for some time and flares were put out so a further accident would not occur. Provincial Constables A. T. Eady and F. M. Rawlings investigated the fatality.

Ham was the Ontario sales manager for the De Laval Co., and had worked with the firm for 27 years. He joined it as a clerk after coming to Peterborough from Honolulu where he was born.

He leaves his wife, the former Isabel Kathleen Tremaine and a son Douglas who is a student at PCVS. He is the son of Mrs. Maggie Gordon Ham of Honolulu and the late William Albert Ham. Also left are two sisters, Mrs. Fred Jansen (Edith) and Mrs. Jack Kramer (Margaret), both of Honolulu.

He was an elder of St. Andrew's United Church and a member of the Royal Arthur Masonic Lodge, Peterborough Lodge of Perfection.

The funeral will be held at the Comstock Funeral Home, Rubidge St., 2:30 p.m., Saturday, Rev. M. J. Aiken of St. Andrew's officiating. Burial will be in Little Lake cemetery.

Strong Conscience

HAMILTON, Oct. 26 (CP)—Conscience stricken when he reached Mimico in a stolen car last night, James Davidson, 38, a pipefitter, went into the police station there and gave himself up. He was brought back to Hamilton and in court today pleaded guilty. He will be sentenced Nov. 6.

Boy Confesses Shot Friend, 10 Accidentally

MADAWASKA, Ont., Oct. 26—(CP).—Inspector Thomas Cousans of the provincial police said today that Alex Yankovich, 13, who claims to have accidentally shot and killed 10-year-old Ted Rose during a hunting trip last Sunday, has been released.

The inspector said the boy will not be charged in his companion's death. However, he will be a witness at an inquest at nearby Killaloe next month. He was returned to custody of his parents.

Inspector Cousans quoted the boy as saying:

"He was my best friend. I didn't mean to shoot him. I tripped over the root of a tree and the rifle went off. I was scared when I saw he was dead, so I hid his body under the stump of a tree."

The Rose boy's body was found yesterday after 400 persons, including 200 soldiers and several police officers, had spent three days searching for him through rough bush country.

Found Under Stump

Dogs and airplanes were used in the hunt, which ended when Ambrose O'Malley of Madawaska discovered the body partly buried under a stump. The Yankovitch boy arlier told police that he and Ted Rose had a minor quarrel, and the Rose boy decided to go home alone.

The boys went into the bush together Sunday, with young Yankovitch carrying a .22-calibre rifle he had bought a week earlier for $9.95. They were looking for partridges.

The outing ended at the Madawaska River Rapids, where they tossed stones into the stream.

Wanted To Go On

When the Yankovitch boy reached home alone, he said Ted insisted on going farther up the river, but he had wanted to start back. He said he was tired of shooting and it was getting dark and he was hungry.

Hours later, when the younger boy did not arrive home, a search was started. Neighbors dragged the river and combed the surrounding bush.

Young Yankovitch went to the school while the search continued this week. He was playing ball when police found him at his home last night. He calmly dropped the ball and went with the officers for questioning in Killaloe.

Chinese Said Attacking, Unconfirmed

Captured Chinese Reports China Army Fighting

SEOUL, Oct. 26—(AP)—An Allied spearhead reached Communist China's Manchurian border tonight. South Korean patrols raced unopposed to the south bank of the Yalu river, in the centre of the uneasy frontier between North Korea and Manchuria. They were the first U.N. troops to complete the long thrust up the mountainous peninsula.

Other elements of the same division—the Republic of Korea under attack by Chinese Com-(R.O.K.) Sixth — were reported under attack by Chinese Communists some 50 miles to the south. There was no high Allied confirmation, however.

And on the east coast, the U.S. Marine 1st division spearheaded a 50,000-man landing force at captured Wonsan port.

Seventh Regiment First

The Korean military advisory group (KMAG) reported that the honor of being the first U.N. force to reach the Manchurian boundary fell to the 7th regiment of the ROK 6th division.

The division, kicking off from Kojang 18 miles south of the border, entered Chosan at 5:50 p.m. (4:50 a.m. EDT) and sent patrols three miles further north to the winding Yalu.

The report that Chinese Communist troops had entered the fighting came from ROK army headquarters which attributed it to a Chinese Communist prisoner.

An eighth army headquarters spokesman said today "there is no evidence of overt or open support of North Korea by the Chinese Communist army."

A South Korean spokesman quoted the Chinese prisoner as saying three Chinese Red battalions were striking elements of the South Korean 6th division east of Onjong, about 75 miles north of Pyongyang, the United Nations-captured North Korean capital.

Unit Surrounded

The spokesman said a South Korean field commander near Onjong reported his unit was almost surrounded and called for reinforcements. The field commander did not specify the attackers were Chinese.

Man Shot In Back After Argument

TORONTO, Oct. 26 (CP). — Mike Bortnick, 52, was shot in the back on a west-central street corner today by a man who then summoned police and surrendered.

John Picca was taken into custody. Police said he and Bortnick had been arguing over "an income-tax letter from the government."

Bortnick was taken to hospital, where attendants said his wound was serious.

Detectives said the dispute, at the intersection of Queen and Cameron streets, lasted only a few minutes. They quoted Edward Clark, one of two passers-by who witnessed the shooting, as saying Bortnick turned away suddenly.

"He had half-turned his back," Clark said. "The other man pulled a gun and fired point-blank."

Investigators said Picca surrendered a letter and a gun to them.

The letter was in a foreign language and police did not disclose the letter's contents.

Ross Casey, auto supply company clerk, said he heard the shot. When he looked out, he saw Picca trying to pick up Bortnick, he said.

"He came into our store and asked to use our telephone. He told us to stay out of it, as it was a family affair."

Stalin-Lie Quarrel Caused Reds' Veto

Rumors Fly At UN That Battle Started On Peace Trip In May

By STANLEY JOHNSON.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Oct. 26 (AP).—United Nations headquarters today buzzed with reports that a quarrel in the Kremlin between Prime Minister Stalin and Trygve Lie led to Russia's vetoing of the bluff Norwegian as U.N. secretary-general.

Lie spent a week in Moscow last May during a swing around the world's great capitals trying to sell a 10-point peace plan designed to solve east-west differences. His trip was widely denounced in the United States as toadying to the Russians.

Exactly what happened when Lie met Stalin has been a closely-guarded secret for more than five months.

Jakob A. Malik, Societ deputy foreign minister, however, let some of it out last night.

He told a closed meeting of the Security Council, gathered to try and agree on a new secretary general, that Lie had declined to adopt some amendments suggested by Stalin and Deputy Premier V. M. Molotv to the peace plan.

Malik said the Russian leader wanted the changes to weaken what he called the "pro-American bias" of the plan. He did not explain how the plan showed such a western orientation nor what the amendments were. Key point of the proposal was for periodic high-level discussions to settle outstanding differences.

Lie Silent

Lie declined to comment on the revelation. He was reported to feel that Malik's remarks were made in a supposedly-private meeting and were not intended for public distribution.

Another high U.N. official pointed out, however, that Lie had sent Stalin a copy of his proposals long in advance of the Moscow trip. The Soviet leader gave no indication they displeased him, this official said, but issued the official invitation for the journey.

The disclosures of Stalin's differences with Lie came as the security council was deadlocked over voting him another term.

One Reason

Malik said the Moscow incident was just one reason for opposing the western-backed Lie. The others were Lie's support of U.N. action in Korea and endorsement of the North Atlantic Pact.

A U.N. official denied that Lie had endorsed the North Atlantic alliance. He had merely stated that such regional agreements were legal under the U.N. charter as long as they acknowledged the supremacy of the world peace organization.

U.S. representative Warren R. Austin said the United States insisted on another term for Lie in order to vindicate his support of the Korean war. Austin implied he would use the American veto —for the first time—if any other candidate successfully opposed the incumbent.

Canada Ships Full Arms For Division

OTTAWA, Oct. 26 (CP).—Announcement yesterday of a shipment of equipment of arms sufficient to equip a Dutch army division was the first definite large-scale move Canada has made in her program of assisting Europe under North Atlantic treaty arrangements.

However, more moves are expected before long, and these may include air and ground forces.

The donation of a division's arms stems from a $300,000,000 vote passed through parliament last spring for assistance to Europe. Announcement of the Dutch consignment came after a cabinet meeting late yesterday, amid indications that a similar shipment will be made later.

First In November

The arms to equip the Dutch division will go in two lots, one leaving Montreal about mid-November and the other leaving Halifax at a later date. There is no indication of the value of the shipment to The Netherlands; this will not be fully known until Canada replaces—mainly from U.S. sources—the arms taken from her own stores for the assistance to Europe.

No mention was made in yesterday's announcement of sending troops to Europe. However, there has been speculation that the 9,000-man special brigade trained to fight in Korea may wind up in the European area. Prime Minister St. Laurent has given strong hints of this in recent speeches, and while parliament's approval might be required for such a move, there is little doubt parliament would grant such approval if the United Nations requested it. The special army force was built primarily for use as the U.N. requires.

Meanwhile, Canada's interest in Europe is shown in the fact that a squadron including the aircraft carrier Magnificent has been exercising in North Atlantic waters and in the recent announcement that an RCAF fighter squadron will head for the United Kingdom for exercises there early in the new year.

South Korean Army Reaches Manchuria

Stole Lumber Fined $500

THESSALON, Oct. 26 (CP) — Hubert Dermis, formerly of Timmins, yesterday was fined $500 and costs and sentenced to seven days in jail when he pleaded guilty to theft of lumber from the Department of Lands and Forests.

Magistrate H. P. Peterson offered the accused an alternative of six months in reformatory.

Dermis was charged with stealing 11,000 feet of lumber valued at $800 while employed by the department to haul salvaged lumber from the Mississagi.

Dermis is a well known tourist operator of the Ohio Lodge north of here. He is also a partner in the P. and D. Timber Co., operating near Chapleau.

Evidence revealed that Dermis ordered his two truck drivers to dump the lumber at a nearby lumber camp instead of taking it to a railway siding in Thessalon for shipment.

Market Declines In Toronto

TORONTO, Oct. 26—(CP)—The entire market became depressed with strong losses as the session progressed on the Toronto Stock Exchange today.

A wide list of industrials showed losses up to a point and a half. Utilities suffered the most with practically every issue down. Papers, steels, constructions, liquors, refining oils and manufacturing companies showed a majority of losses in the groupings. Retail stores and textiles were mixed and banks and agricultures managed to show small gains.

Base metals also sagged with leaders declining up to 50 cents. Quebec Manitou was the most active base metal, losing pennies.

Junior and Senior Gold Producers showed a wide list of small losses and Western Oils continued their losing streak with key issues down as much as 30 cents.

trols all internal and foreign policies of Tibet on instructions from London and Washington."

This statement indicated that the chief Russian claim regarding Tibet would be that it was to be an invasion base of the Anglo-Americans in the future.

Frequent Letters

The official Russian daily added:

"The Tibetan people have repeatedly written to (Chinese Communist leader) Mao Tse-tung requesting their liberation. They have built roads in the border region to facilitate the entrance of the Chinese people's army...."

In Moscow, Pravda said the Communist Chinese "liberation" army ordered to march on Tibet will bring freedom, peace and democracy to the 3,000,000 inhabitants.

Winter Ahead

A special correspondent for the Communist party organ reported from Peiping, capital of Communist China, that the second field army has been directed to advance on Tibet.

The Pravda writer said that "the heroic sons of the Chinese people will fight at an altitude of 4,000-5,000 metres above sea level and at a severe time of the year, for winter is ahead.

"But they are supported by the entire population of the country, filled with determination to carry out the battle order."

controls, and consultation on problems of finance and foreign exchange that may develop as a result of the agreements operation.

The six principles outlined in the agreement are:

1—Canada and the United States will develop a co-ordinated program of requirements, production and procurement "in order to achieve optimum production of goods essential to defence."

2—As it becomes necessary, both countries will institute co-ordinated controls over the distribution of scarce raw materials and supplies.

3—Before either of the countries institute controls which may affect the other country, consultations will be held.

4—In the development of essential production, the technical knowledge and productive skills involved and available in either country "shall, where feasible, be freely exchanged."

5—Barriers which impede the flow of arms and goods between the two countries should be removed "as far as possible."

6—Through "appropriate agencies," the two governments will consult on financial and foreign exchange problems "which may arise as a result of the implementation of this agreement."

SWEEPSTAKES WINNER—George Hall, 66-year-old bachelor, won $73,750 with a sweepstakes ticket on Kelling, who won the 109th running of the Cambridgeshire Handicap in England. The Scottish-born employee of the Massey-Harris Company in Toronto took the news calmly and said he'd probably use part of the money for a trip back to Scotland.

Fire Starts In UK Navy Ship

DEVONPORT, England, Oct. 26 (Reuters)—Fire broke out last night in a turret of the 9,000-ton British cruiser Newcastle, refitting here.

The fire apparently was caused by some cotton waste which had ignited. The blaze was brought under control in 20 minutes. It caused little damage, but an inquiry will be held.

Security regulations in ports used by the Royal Navy have been tightened as a result of a series of "incidents" on board warships this year.

Several ships were damaged, and the possibility of sabotage was investigated.

Teach Courage Secret Of Freedom

LENNOXVILLE, Que., Oct. 26 (CP)—John Bassett, resident and general manager of the Montreal Gazette, said today that Canadian universities must teach that courage is the secret of freedom, otherwise Canada may become the victim of her anxieties rather than the mistress of her destiny.

Mr. Bassett spoke on the occasion of his installation as chancellor of Bishop's University.

Universities must also expose the "bitter fallacy that the difficulties of life can somehow be banished if there is only enough organization, enough centralization of our body politic, or enough submission to state authority."

Canada's universities cannot become "merely places of dignified retreat where the storm of the outer world may be hushed or where our youth may be sheltered for a little while before they must face conditions as they are."

Universities must fortify the spirit for life's journey and impart the related aspect of courage and freedom, courage to accept responsibility and discover therein the "only true freedom."

In her progress Canada must seek security as a reward rather than as an escape, said Mr. Bassett.

Onjong is 32 miles south of Kojang, captured earlier in the day by a spearhead of the South Korean 6th division. Evidently, the Red force attacking the unit near Onjong waited for the main body of South Koreans to drive north.

The Republican division's forward elements were driving upchecked on Yongsan, only eight miles from the zig-zagging Communist Manchurian frontier formed by the Yalu river.

Americans Advance

On the west coast, an American infantry regiment plunged rapidly northward. It seemed unlikely that American or Commonwealth troops would stop at any line short of the boundary. A U. S. spokesman said their mission is "to clear Korea."

And the Far East air forces' bomb line was extended to the Manchurian border. Previously it had been 12 miles north.

To back up other forces forging northward on the coast of the Sea of Japan, U.S. and South Korean marines and U.S. infantrymen made the new landing at the port of Wonsan.

Mopping Up

A remark by a spokesman at Gen. MacArthur's Tokyo headquarters raised a doubt as to whether an end of the four-month United Nations campaign is in sight.

Asked when American troops may be withdrawn from Korea, the spokesman replied that they have a mission to perform and that it is far from completed. Other signs pointed to continued mopping up.

Canadian Films Awarded Prizes

OTTAWA, Oct. 26 (CP). — Three Canadian animated films have been awarded prizes at the fifth international film festival at Salerno, Italy, the National Film Board announced today. The three are the work of Norman McLaren, head of animation for the N.F.B.

"Fiddle-de-dee," an interpretation of a fiddler playing an old-time tune, received the Rofeo Del Golfo Di Salerno (Gulf of Salerno Trophy) for the best 16 millimetre colored film.

"A Little Phantasy," a series of ideas suggested by a 19th century painting, won the Coppe Della Camera Di Commercio (Commercial Photographer's Cup).

"Loops," an experimental film won honorable mention in the miscellaneous film section.

The trophies will be forwarded to Canada next week.

MISSING ATOM SCIENTIST —Dr. Bruno Pontecorvo, Italian-born British atom expert who worked in Canada for several years with a British Atomic team, was last seen in Helsinki. He may have gone to Russia. This photo was obtained from National Research Council files in Ottawa.

Aged Miner Dreams of Boom Coming To Old Silver Lode

SANDON, B.C. (CP) — An old man sits alone in this abandoned town high in the West Kootenay mountains of interior British Columbia, waiting for another boom.

John Harris, now 89, was a youth of 23 when he found silver in this narrow, maple-covered gorge.

Near the turn of the century there were 23 hotels in Sandon and 2,300 miners were feverishly digging for silver ore in the loose rocks of the surrounding hills. Two railroads built long spur lines to haul out the wealth.

Sandon is more than just a boom town. It was the capital city of a vast silver empire which still flourishes though in a more subdued manner. It is in the territory mining men call the Silvery Slocan, bordered by the Slocan and Kootenay lakes.

Harris discovered silver here in 1884. One of his mines yielded ore valued at $200,000 during one week of operation. He built two hotels and organized the machinery that makes a city from a collection of transient shacks.

Other hotels in Sandon served whisky. But Harris' hostelries sold champagne.

Lives Alone

Now John Harris lives alone amid the decaying ruins of the once-bustling town tucked away in the cleft of a mountain range where travellers seldom go. The big mines are empty tombs. A perilous road follows the old stagecoach route from New Denver.

Harris still keeps open one of his hotels despite the fact guests are infrequent.

Harris came originaly from Virginia. He was a young real estate operator in 1884 in Idaho when a prospector just down from Canada brought a glittering piece of ore into his office.

It was one of the first pieces of ore to come out of the Slocan Valley, which a few years later was to become one of North America's greatest treasure troves of high grade silver ore.

Harris packed up and headed north. He traced Sandon Creek back to its source and began digging.

When Harris amassed a moderate fortune, he went back to Virginia and built a mansion. But he returned a few years later.

The Klondyke gold rush and the decline in silver prices finished off Sandon. Operations continued on a minor scale for years and then died altogether.

"There's still plenty of ore here," Harris says. "It's a little hard to find but when big money starts rolling again, Sandon will come to life with a bang." Until that happens, John Harris is loathe to leave the familiar ghosts that inhabit this silent city.

Tighter Credit Reduces Retail Sales

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (AP). — The government's credit-tightening blow against inflation has severely jolted retail sales in the United States, a country-wide spot-check by the Associated Press disclosed today.

A highly-variegated impact on sales resulting from stiffer installment-buying terms imposed last week by the Federal Reserve Board was noted.

One main fact stands out — Americans have cut back their heavy buying because they haven't got the ready cash for higher down payments or because their incomes are too low to meet the new stepped-up monthly-payment terms.

That is exactly what the federal reserve aimed at with its new regulations Oct. 16, which tightened up the previous controls of Sept. 18 requiring heavier down payments and a shorter time to pay.

After less than two weeks of operating under the new controls, however, the picture is far from uniform. Most heavily involved in sales declines are automobiles, home appliances, television sets and furniture.

And the situation is complicated by such things as war-scare buying, automobile - model change-overs, color-television uncertainties, war shortages, and just plain customer confusion.

For instance, television set sales in New York are reported to be on the skids, with some merchants cutting prices to encourage customers, while on the west coast in San Francisco buyers are rushing to beat the Nov. 1 federal 10-per-cent excise tax.

Oil Supply Short In Windsor Area

WINDSOR, Oct. 26 (CP).—Oil for home heating and parts for new oil burned installations will be in short supply in Windsor this winter, the district manager of one oil company here said today.

The entire oil industry has decided to accept no new customers, he said. Hundreds of Windsor families had changed to oil burners during the summer and storage facilities could carry only enough to supply existing customers.

BUT ACT NOW . . .

Scrambling to make a Will when danger threatens is probably better than not making one at all but the preparation of such an important document should not be left to the confusion of a last minute rush.

Making a Will is something that can easily be attended to before emergencies arise. This duty should not be neglected. The logic and advantages of appointing a Corporate Executor and Trustee are obvious and well recognized.

All that is needed to get the job done, and done well, is to ask us to help you plan your Will, which we shall gladly do without charge. You can then have it drawn in proper legal form, naming The Royal Trust Company your Executor and Trustee, execute the Will and file it with us for safekeeping.

Expect American To Command West's Army

By MAX BOYD

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—A key United States official predicted today that North Atlantic Pact military men will recommend that an American be appointed without delay as supreme commander of a combined Western European defence force.

This action was forecast as the North Atlantic Military Committee prepared to resume this afternoon the momentous implementation session begun Tuesday.

There was fresh speculation in advance of the meeting that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower may become the supreme commander. The Columbia University president, supreme allied commander in Europe during the Second World War, told reporters at Indianapolis yesterday that he was coming to Washington within a few days to talk with Defence Department officials. He did not know what the department wanted, but "I'm happy and pleased, of course, that the people of Europe have suggested me to head their defence army."

An American official in close touch with the military committee expressed belief that it will recommend immediate appointment of a supreme commander, instead of delaying such a step while first setting up a chief of staff to organize and train collective forces.

Immediate appointment of a full-fledged commander would achieve centralized command — one of the goals set by the North Atlantic council of foreign ministers in September—without an interim period under a chief of staff with more limited powers.

The proposed supreme commander would have a chief of staff to assist him. His staff, designed to knit the combined force together and direct its operations in case Western Europe is attacked, would include representatives of the 12 North Atlantic treaty countries.

President Truman has given no public indication as to whom he will select for the job if called upon to do so. Presumably, the other Atlantic Pact governments will be consulted in advance as to whether the man he wants is agreeable to them. There is little doubt that either Eisenhower or Gen. Omar Bradley would be welcome.

Union To Sponsor Sale Of Poppies

CAMPBELLFORD, Oct. 25 — (ENS)—The regular meeting of the Young Peoples' Union of St. John's United Church was held on Monday evening. Walter Elliott, culture convener, was in charge of the worship service.

During the programme, Marion Moir played a piano solo and Walter Elliott read a poem entitled "Ode to a Streetcar".

The business meeting was in charge of Earl Taft. The roll call was answered by 40, of whom some were new members. Dr. Smith gave a short talk on the Convention at Lindsay.

More definite plans were made for selling poppies on Poppy Day. It was decided that the Young Peoples' Group would be responsible for the fireside hour on December 17.

A Breakdown Of Russian Prophecy

There is no nation on earth today which is more whole-heartedly devoted to the idea of planning than the U.S.S.R. Plans have marked the whole of the Stalin regime—plans for agricultural development, plans for industrial development, plans for armament, plans for cultural advance, plans for education, plans extending for five, ten and fifteen years—plans for everything. The results of some of these plans have been impressive, if you are ready to forget the cost in human freedom which is necessarily involved in planning on such a scale. Planning, in some degree, is a necessity for every society. But there is a booby-trap in all schemes of progress which involve heavy planning; it is the belief of the planners that the future can be predicted and controlled. This prophetic fallacy possesses Russia as it has never possessed any other nation in history.

* * *

The Korean fiasco has given the prophetic fallacy a hard knock. Whether it was hard enough to make the Russians aware of the folly of their thinking remains to be seen. Russia thought that the dependence of South Korea on the U.S.A. made South Korea an easy prey for the Communist North. The Communist philosophy is that every part of Asia which has ties with a European or American nation is therefore suffering from some sort of colonialism, and that colonialism cannot withstand assaults from "progressive forces"—meaning Communism. The complete rout of the Western nations in Europe and the creation of Communist satellites in Asia is regarded by Russian historical philosophers as "an historically inevitable process". What the Russians have not learned is that very few things in the history of mankind are inevitable, and that nothing is infallibly predictable.

* * *

The failure of the Korean war, from the Russian point of view, ought to teach Russia's heavy thinkers not to count their chickens before they are hatched. Their notion that Western civilization is a house of cards, which can be brought down with a single push, is one which is very dear to them. Dear also is their idea that everything which is done in the West is done from self-interest on the lowest level, and that an enraged proletariat is only waiting for a chance to throw off its chains. If Russia cannot rid herself of these crude misunderstandings, she will try other little games, comparable to the one which she has played, so unsuccessfully, in Korea, and other satellites will be urged to test the strength of the West.

* * *

It does not look at present as though Russia had any desire to engage in a war with the West. Mr. Nehru's first peace proposal brought a response from Stalin which was surprising in its rapidity and its comparatively reasonable tone. Many observers think that Russia was frightened that the Korean affair might expand into a war on a large scale. Surprising as it may seem, the promptitude with which United Nations, and the U.S.A. in particular, met the Korean challenge, had not been foreseen by Russia.

* * *

So long as Russia tries to predict the future on the basis of her present quaint beliefs in "historically inevitable processes" she will always fail to see what lies right in front of her nose. There is no system of planning which can really do much about the future, except on a small scale; there is no philosophy of history which can give the answers to future problems. Russia's faith in planning and in a sort of mystical pseudo-scholarship is one of her great weaknesses, for planning on a huge scale brings with it a degree of intellectual immobility which is indistinguishable from downright stupidity.

The Provincial Police Take Over Windsor

We note that when the lid was lifted off the Windsor pot after its smell became intolerable to many people (even to people of Windsor), it was the Provincial Police who were called in to investigate. In fact, they did some of the lid-lifting. And now Inspector E. V. McNeill of the Ontario Provincial Police has been appointed acting chief constable of Windsor, replacing Chief Claude Renaud who has been retired by the new Police Commission, which is still investigating. We have great confidence in the Ontario Provincial Police, and it recommends them to Ontario generally that they can go into an affected place with new brooms, and have men sufficiently experienced and wholly reliable who can at a moment's notice take over the duties of Chief Constable in a big city like Windsor.

There is one aspect of this situation, which, valuable now, could prove undesirable at a later time or in another decade. It is this. The Provincial Police is a central police organization directed from a bureau in Toronto and under Provincial, or state, control. It is not desirable that one organization should police every city, town and hamlet in the whole Province. It may be an efficient method. Undoubtedly the state police in other countries are efficient; German and Russian state police developed frightening efficiency. But it is centralized efficiency. Such a central, state police organization can get and wield too much power over the life and liberty of citizens.

It is probably good for Windsor, and a credit to the Ontario Provincial Police, that they are able to step in and take over. But this must be a stop-gap method, and must not lead to a permanent severence of the local autonomy of municipal police.

Any municipality worth its status as a corporation has enough sense, pride and responsibility to look after the policing of its own people with honesty, care and thoroughness. Maladjustments do occur, as in Windsor, but they can be righted. If a city cannot police itself satisfactorily it ought to give up all pretence of being a body politic, and surrender itself to central authority. Thus German and Russian cities have done, or have been forced to do. But is a puppet city any less ignoble than a puppet state? The Provincial Police should never be used to reduce a municipality to puppetry, with the strings being pulled from Toronto. The yank is all the more severe, from that distance, than from strings being pulled in one's own City Hall.

The Provincials have gone into Windsor to help, not to stake it. When the job is done, let them go out again, with the thanks of the populace.

Margarine For The Provinces

Two years ago the Federal Government washed its hands of margarine by having its legislation banning the product tested by the Supreme Court. In December 1948 the Supreme Court ruled that the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of margarine was not within the jurisdiction of the Dominion Government; it was a matter for each province to decide. The Canadian Federation of Agriculture, which predicted doom for the dairy industry if margarine were made legal, took the Supreme Court decision to the Imperial Privy Council.

Meanwhile, the expected happened. The Dominion Government climbed out of the embarrassing situation; for a few weeks margarine had fun, open sale in most provinces. Then the dairy people got to work on the provincial legislatures, which passed laws either banning it completely (as in P.E.I. and Quebec), or imposing restrictive colour and packaging regulations, as in Ontario. But still the Federation of Agriculture wanted more. It hoped that the Privy Council would nullify the Supreme Court's decision, and throw margarine back in the Federal lap. It hoped thereby to gain outright, nation-wide prohibition of margarine again.

The Privy Council has now given its decision, which is the same as the Supreme Court's; that margarine is a Provincial matter. So that is now perfectly clear and undisputable in law.

The dairy industry has not tottered in the two years since margarine has been on sale in Canada. Butter production fell by only 16,544,000 pounds (from 350,317,000 pounds in 1948); milk and cheese production rose from 94,678,000 pounds in 1948 to 118,754,000 pounds last year. Margarine consumption in 1949 totalled 71,992,000 pounds. Thus, while the dairy industry has no longer a monopoly, it has not suffered, and people who want margarine or cannot afford to buy butter have been able to get the cheaper food.

There is something of a comic opera touch about the whole business. For nearly all of Canada's federated history, the Dominion Government banned margarine. Then, two years ago when the ban was becoming a political inconvenience, it decided it had better see if it had the right to prohibit margarine. So it asked the Supreme Court for a decision, and lo and behold, the Court found that the ban had been illegal for about eighty years.

New York's Election Scandal

By NORA BELOFF

MURKY political scandals in New York and military glory in Korea are two public issues focussing the attention of the New York electorate as polling day approaches. Last week it looked as if the Democrats were scoring against their Republican opponents on both counts.

* * *

UNLESS the bumper crop of political scandals produces sufficient cynicism to keep voters away from the polls altogether, and some New Yorkers think it may, it looks as if President Truman's Party has sound reasons for its unreserved optimism. Although President Truman's own term of office runs until 1953, the stakes at the coming elections are high. New York will choose its Governor, one Senator, forty-five Congressmen, the city Mayor and a whole bevy of local leaders.

* * *

LAST week odds were soaring in favour of the re-election of Democratic Senator Herbert Lehman against the Republican candidate Lieutenant-Governor Ed Hanley, and informed New Yorkers were even suggesting that if the Democratic Party had put up a more formidable opponent than New York lawyer Walter Lynch to run against Governor Tom Dewey, they might have pocketed the Governorship as well. As it is, Dewey is still favourite—though hardly as overwhelmingly favourite as he was when he ran unsuccessfully for the White House two years ago.

* * *

ON the international scene the Republicans had originally built their campaign around the disasters in Korea which they claimed as evidence of the diplomatic ineptness and military bungling of the governing party. The march of American soldiers into the Communist capital, Pyongyang, is taking some punch from this line of argument. Recently they have fallen back on the claim that military victory was strictly attributable to Far Eastern Commander (of well-known Republican sympathies) Douglas MacArthur, not to his Commander-in-Chief President Truman. Whispers abound that the two men weren't even on speaking terms. This week Truman punctured this story, too, by flying out to Wake Island to visit and compliment MacArthur.

ON the New York home front the Democrats also got off to an unfortunate start. It was judged a smart political move, when former Democratic Mayor Bill O'Dwyer resigned, just before the campaign began, to accept the post of Ambassador to Mexico. This brought the job of city Mayor into the November election lists. New York Democrats are inclined to stay at home in "off-year" elections when there isn't a President to choose, but it was expected that their zest to select their own Mayor would bring them to the polling booth—to the advantage of all the other Democrats on the list.

THEN, embarrassingly soon after the old Mayor had departed, investigation revealed that his police chiefs had been receiving millions of dollars from bookies, gamblers and other shady business groups in return for police protection. Confessions and attempted suicides filled the news, and though the Democrats flung back charges that gambling was just as bad "upstate" where the Republicans are in control, tradition was against them. For decades the New York Democratic machine had been run by a group of questionable political bosses collectively known as Tammany Hall, and this looked like the same old thing all over again.

* * *

THEN suddenly this week the tables were spectacularly turned. The Democrats admit privately they would have preferred to "break" the "Hanley letter" scandal nearer the election day, but their hand was forced by their own victim; the Hanley letter was published by Hanley. The villain of the piece was sadly unsuitable for the role; a great-grandfather aged seventy-four, blind in one eye, and rapidly losing the sight of the other, financially embarrassed Ed Hanley has been in Government service for twenty-five years with as clean a record as any New York politician and cleaner, it is said, than most.

* * *

EARLY this year Governor Tom Dewey announced that he would not run for re-election, and this deserving old gentleman, as Lieutenant-Governor — Dewey's Number Two — was chosen to replace him. The Korean crisis altered the political picture and business leaders in New York prevailed on Tom Dewey to change his mind rather than risk the Party's loss of the Governorship to the Democratic Party for want of a hard-hitting and competent Republican alternative.

* * *

AT the time of the switch the public was informed that Hanley had insisted that Dewey should return and had voluntarily agreed to run for the New York Senate seat instead. They would never have learnt otherwise had not the pain of renunciation of his life's ambitions reduced the poor old man to write a damagingly plaintive letter to someone who had lent him money to achieve it. It is reported that animosity to Dewey inside his own Party and anxiety to make sure that he will not be Republican candidate for the White House again were reasons why the letter was allowed to fall into enemy hands.

* * *

HANLEY apologetically explained to his own backer that there were all-important financial reasons which impelled him to withdraw. Dewey, he said, had given him "unalterable and unquestionably definite propositions"; if only he would stand down, he would be rewarded with money enough to pay off his debts "for the first time in twenty years". The Governor had also promised him "ironclad and unbreakable arrangements" for a safe job and a life income if he failed in the Senate race. Hanley's letter told how his near blindness made it impossible for him to take political risks, and he expressed himself "humiliated, disappointed and heartsick".

* * *

DEMOCRATIC leaders are now clamouring that it is a penal offence to promise emoluments in return for obtaining access to public office, and threatening Governor Dewey with impeachment. Republicans are raking the record to prove that the Democrats, including the late President Roosevelt himself, have never hesitated to ensure themselves against financial risk before running for office. Nevertheless, the unfortunate Hanley letter, reproduced in all its stark misery in every New York paper, remains, for the time being at least, election liability Number One.

ONLY ONE THING MARS AN OTHERWISE PRETTY PICTURE

The Trouble With Education

(OTTAWA JOURNAL)

ACCORDING to a report by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, Canadians last year spent more for food and liquor and tobacco but less for education. That seems a pity.

Yet the real trouble with education in this country, it must seem to many, is not in what we spend for it, but in confusion over what we want to buy when we do spend for it.

Recently Life magazine devoted one of its prints to education in the United States; had leading educationalists and others tell what they thought wrong with it. One of the best and most thoughtful pieces in this symposium came from Canon Bernard Iddings Bell, an Episcopal scholar who has been a college professor and president and has studied education over years.

Dr. Bell opened his article with this challenging sentence — almost as applicable to Canada as to the U.S.:

"Everything about American education is getting bigger all the time: The number of students enrolled, the size of its installations, the amount of dollars it spends—and the vast volume of pedagogical gobbledygook which extols its methods without defining its ends. As it gets bigger and bigger, more and more people are asking: Is it any good?"

What the disturbed critics of American education fear says Dr. Bell, is that those in charge of it have little perception themselves of what schooling is supposed to be or to do. They talk, he says, about "democratic education", but "the beauty of the adjective does not conceal the vacuity of the noun — let whatever education we have be 'democratic', but let us be sure it is also education".

The current product, proceeds Dr. Bell, is not education. There is no insistence on formative disciplines which alone can bring proficiency in doing and thinking. Schools are crippled by the assumption that the acquiring of the skills and the understanding necessary for effective thinking and honourable living is easy. There is no insistence upon children learning, primarily and indispensably "the disciplines of word, number and form". Adds Dr. Bell:

"Discipline of word demands teaching our children how to read, write and speak the English language, if not with facility and grace at least with clarity. It is an imperative discipline for a people striving to live together democratically, in mutual understanding and co-operation. Yet most Americans today can only with sweat and tears read anything more difficult than a tabloid newspaper or a comic strip ...Few Americans under 40 can write a simple letter and make their meaning clear. They rarely converse except in cliches. In short, in this day when understanding of the whole world is so needed, our educational system has failed not only to teach our children foreign languages but also to teach them how to chat in adequate English with their next-door neighbours."

But the sharpest points made by Dr. Bell are against (1) the turning of universities and colleges into mass production lines, with a consequent lowering of academic standards, and (2) the assumption that technical training and education are one and the same thing. The result of the first, he says, is to convert colleges into education factories, "trying to do a fast-package job on a mass-production scale".

"Our school system seems to presuppose that, for education to be democratic, every man's child must be treated as the equal of every other man's child, both in kind of brains and educability. The effect of this is to herd an increasing number of unfit persons into colleges of liberal arts. The notion has become common that such a college can enrol boys and girls regardless of their lack of training in basic intellectual disciplines and after a while... send them back to us humanely competent."

DR. Bell anticipates the rejoinder to this, which is that in a democracy there should be no place for an intellectual elite, and his counter is that under the present system of mass production and lowered standards we are neither producing sound mass education nor producing an elite; that neither from the homes of the well-to-do nor the less well-to-do are we producing a group fit to serve their own people as leaders. What is produced instead—under a confusion of technical instruction with education—are more and more people who are specialists, or technicians.

"Let there be no disparagement of those whose role in society may be to hew wood, draw water and tend machines. There are no more honourable and indispensable pursuits than theirs. But for these pursuits—in the best technological schools—they should be trained. The truth today is that we are plentifully supplied with people who can make things and incredibly short of people who understand things. Technicians—to put it bluntly—are two bits a dozen in America. Thinkers—leaders of liberal wisdom—seem to have vanished with the buffalo."

All of what Dr. Bell says so trenchantly may not apply completely to education in Canada. We suggest that some of it applies: That here, as in the United States, there is dangerous tendency in education to stress the "know how" and not enough tendency to stress the "know why". As Dr. Bell concludes, "know how" can be vain and empty without "know why".

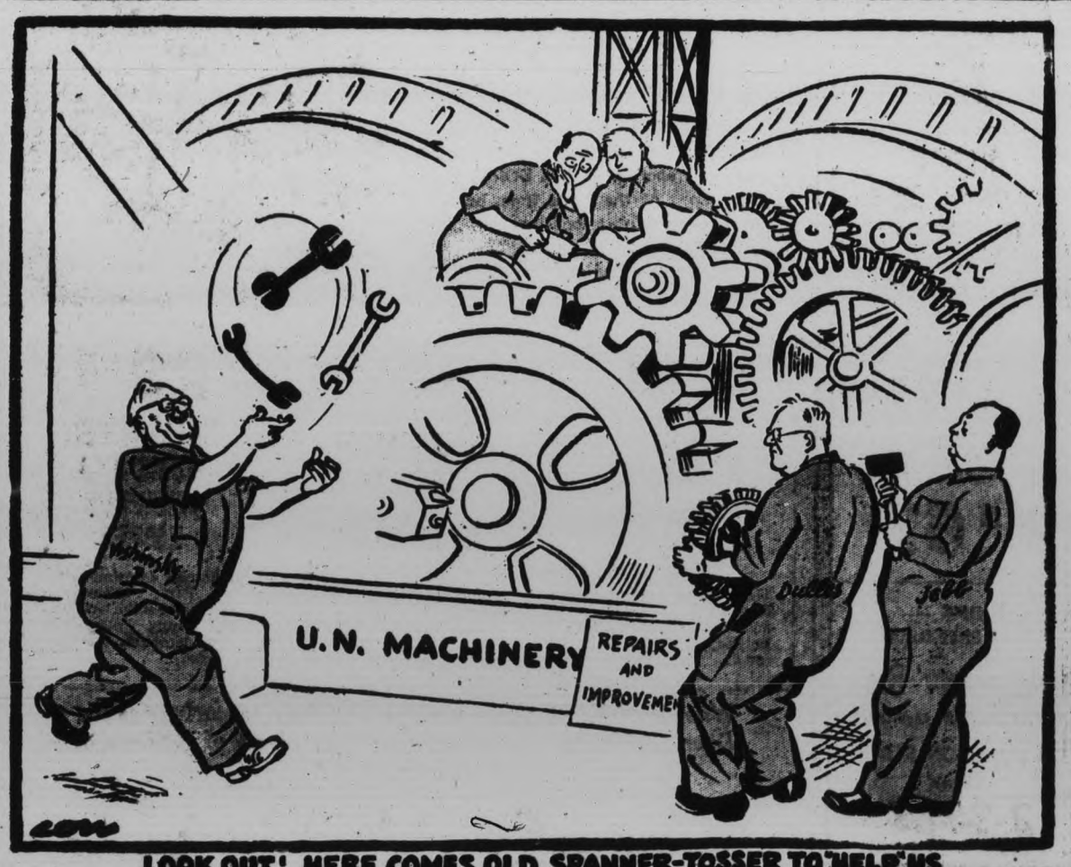
Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)



Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases. (Ps. 103: 2, 3.)

* * *

Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches. In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water. For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole whatsoever disease he had. And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole? The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up they bed, and walk. And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath....Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee. (John 5: 2-9, 14.)

Windsor Police Chiefs Retired

WINDSOR, Oct. 26 (CP). — The Windsor police force starts on a new page today following the dismissal of its two top officers—Chief Claude Renaud and Deputy Chief W. H. Neale.

Reporting for duty as acting chief is Edwin V. McNeill, a provincial police inspector for the last year and a member of the provincial force for 23 years. On loan to Windsor, he succeeds Renaud on a temporary basis.

In the first major step of its reorganization of the city's police force, the Windsor police commission yesterday announced that Renaud and Neale were "retired" immediately. The city was asked to put both men on full pension.

General Reasons

The reason for their dismissal, which followed five weeks of extensive probing by the commission into police administration, was given in general terms.

The commission had examined Renaud and Neale to see if they had shown the "alert and aggressive leadership" needed in Windsor "where policing tasks are particularly difficult."

"The conclusion has been reached that the interests of the force will be best served by the retirement of these officers," the commission said in its formal statement.

The statement, issued by commission chairman Judge Archibald Cochrane, had the "full agreement" of the other two commissioners—Magistrate Roland Harris and Mayor Arthur Reaume.

Honorable Retirement

Renaud, a policeman for 36 of his 58 years and chief here since 1935, had acted "honestly and to the best of his ability," the commission said. It asked Board of Control to retire him honorably with full recognition of his service.

The 53-year-old deputy had been "indiscreet" in operating a company which sold $2,500 worth of equipment annually to the police department, the commission added. However, it recommended that he be given "full recognition" for 32 years' service.

Neale's connection with the Police Equipment Company, Ltd., described by him as a family concern, was brought out in the commission's probe. The commission noted, however, that the 27-year-old police force regulations did not bar outside business enterprise.

No Comment

Neither Renaud or Neale would comment on their dismissal.

Any further reorganization of the police force and its methods will be taken either by the commission, which meets Acting Chief McNeill at its next session Monday, or by the department head himself.

McNeill was provincial police inspector at Peterborough before going to Toronto as staff inspector and was previously on provincial detachments at Cornwall, Pembroke, Ottawa, Kitchener and Mount Forest.

Rickey Breaks With Brooklyn

BROOKLYN, Oct. 26 (AP) — Branch Rickey, father of the farm system and other baseball innovations, is scheduled to make a clean break with Brooklyn Dodgers today.

The Brooklyn Baseball Club announced an afternoon press conference at which the bushy-browed executive is expected to announce his resignation as president and general manager.

He has already agreed to dispose of his one-fourth share of Dodger stock for $1,025,000. This is being snatched up by Walter O'Malley and Mrs. John L. Smith, each of whom already holds 25 per cent of the club.

O'Malley is slated to become president. Fresco Thompson, director of the Dodgers' farm system, is figured to have an inside track for the general managership.

Meanwhile, Rickey's own future in baseball remains a mystery. It became a bit more clouded with the disclosure yesterday of the terms under which he sold out.

It was learned Rickey had agreed to accept payment of the $1,025,000 for his stock in instalments covering a 10½-year period.

Change Date Of Wrestling Show

Next week's wrestling show at the Brock Arena will be held Monday night instead of the usual Tuesday. The switch was made on account of the Hallowe'en dance at the arena that evening. Mat fans are asked to note this change in dates for next week only, Monday instead of Tuesday.

A stellar card has been lined up for this show with the main event featuring the powerful Yukon Eric against the Hollywood villain, Wee Willie Davis. If Eric can whip Davis it will complete the rout of two of the most hated men in the ring, the Alaskan giving Davis' team partner, Lee Henning, a real pasting this week.

The semi-final will have the new Masked Marvel (and his manager) pitted against Bobbie Nelson. The crowd really hate this new hooded terror, and also his manager.

The opener will be between Dangerous Dan O'Connor and the former Perdue football star Ray Gunkel.

Curling News

By HERB MARTIN

Just while we're waiting from now until Nov. 6, for the curling season to open, we thought a little sidelight on curling might be of interest, and so today we print the first five of the curling 10 commandments. The new curlers might profit by them and maybe some of the old timers, also:

The Ten Commandments

1—Thou shalt have no other game before me for I am the roaring game which was in the beginning (even in the stone age) is now and ever shall be.

2—Come not upon the ice with the old house broom. Thou canst not quicken the pace of a dying rock with last year's broom.

3—Thou shalt learn thy turns, both the out and the in, for the skip will not hold him guiltless that throweth the wrong turn.

4—Play not a running shot when thou art asked for a guard lest thou raise thine own shot, so sending thy skip in the air. Such play getteth his goat, queereth his game, causeth him to swallow his cud and to revile you openly.

5—Thou shalt hearken diligently to the defeated skip when his voice is lifted up in lamentations against the punk ice and thou shalt not turn thy face from him when he blameth his third man. Even so shalt thou secure a listener against the day of thine own defeat.

Sugar Ray Fights As Middleweight

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26 (AP) —Sugar Ray Robinson puts his Pennsylvania version of the middleweight boxing title on the line tonight with little likelihood there'll be any change in his top rating among United States fighters.

Sleek Ray from Harlem, also holder of the world's welterweight crown, meets 22-year-old Carl (Bobo) Olson of Honolulu in a 15-round engagement at Convention Hall. Robbie's welter crown is not at stake.

Robinson has outgrown the welter class in more ways than one, and will be operating tonight at his best fighting weight —approximately 155 pounds. He'll be giving away four pounds and eight years, but the 30-year-old Robinson is the top-heavy favorite.

In 11 years of leather industry, Robinson has lost only one fight in 120 trips inside the squared ring. The defeat was way back in 1943 to Jake Lamotta, recognized everywhere except Pennsylvania as the middleweight ruler.

Since that setback, Sugar Ray has trounced Lamotta four times. And has been promised a shot at Lamotta's crown next February in Chicago.

Li'l Arthur Wins Dull Fight

DETROIT, Oct. 26 (AP)—Slow-moving Arthur King of Toronto, British Empire lightweight champion, stopped Harold (Baby Face) Jones of Detroit Wednesday night in the eighth round of a scheduled 10-rounder.

Jones at 136¾ had a quarter-pound advantage.

Jones, whose hopes of a title fight with lightweight champion Ike Williams were pinned to the encounter, did most of his fighting after the bout was halted as the eighth round began because of a cut over Jones' left eye.

Rushed At King

He pushed his handlers aside and rushed at King, whose hand had been raised in token of victory by referee Bobby Watson.

The Detroiter threw a dozen punches at the Canadian before they were separated as 4,043 spectators stood amazed at the surprise turn of events.

Dr. Joseph Cahalan, Michigan Boxing Commission physician, said Jones had suffered an inch and a half cut on his left eyebrow.

Up to the sudden ending, the bout had been on the dull side with King showing just enough stuff to stay ahead of Jones on the cards of the three ring officials.

He had a 6-1 edge on Watson's card when the fight ended.

School Soccer

Central senior soccer eleven registered another win Wednesday afternoon when they defeated King George 4-0, on Exhibition grounds to complete five wins to have 10 points and lead the league.

Both teams started with combination but Central reverted to a long swinging style that paid off when Lunn broke away to open the scoring. Patterson made it 2-0 in an individual effort. In the second period, Lunn scored after hitting the upright and toward the end McNaughton accidentally scored against his own side.

Confederation Wins

Two excellent teams battled hard on Wednesday afternoon in a senior tilt at King Edward Park when Confederation gained the decision by a 3-0 count to go into second position in the league.

Hard and fast tactics prevailed in the first period with the players giving all they had to continually test the custodians from all angles, but Lindsay made the break to lead at the interval. Renewed energy was evident on resuming with the Prince of Wales forwards harassing Goldie and Lindsay, full backs, who replied with kicking that proved advantageous. A peculiarity of the play was seen when a P. W. player kicked back into his own goal where Simmons connected with an oblique shot to make it 2-0. Prince of Wales replied with a hard attack to find opposition half backs nullifying and to climax a systematic attack Simmons registered the third counter.

Prince of Wales—J. Allen, goal; D. Coit and J. Brown, full backs; G. Hunt, W. Brown and C. Whitney, half backs; F. Chambo, R. Boon, J. Heron, N. Clarke and G. Downer, forwards; subs., P. Detlor, W. Godfrey, R. Bowen, T. Northrop.

Confederation — G. McIntosh, goal; D. Goldie and R. Linsay, full backs; B. Floyd, V. Hamilton and D. Sloan, half backs; C. Simmons, B. Chamberlain, D. Miller, D. Mein, and A. Little, forwards; subs., S. Graves, J. Brown, B. Bolton, B. Douglas.

Referee—Mr. Patterson.

King Edward Wins

King Edward senior soccer team registered their first win this season Wednesday afternoon when they defeated Q. A. 2-0 at the Exhibition grounds.

Exchanges were even throughout with King Edward getting the lone counter in the first half through D. Sutherland. Then in the second period Hobart broke away fast to give the losing custodian no chance to save.

King Edward—R. Hobart, goal; E. Robbins and R. Tarkington, full backs; J. Phillips, A. Phillips and M. McFadden, half backs; D. Sutherland, J. Sutherland, C. Chalmers, A. Curtis and A. McArthur, forwards; subs., H. Woo, J. Mills.

Q. A.—W. Marklin, goal; F. Anderson and R. Dillman, full backs; W. Kemp, C. Hewit and R. Turnbull, half backs; K. Brown, R. Druce, R. Whitton, G. McClennan and W. Whitton, forwards.

Referee—Mr. Druery.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

By CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Word came through yesterday from the ORFU that Parkdale Lions will meet the local Orfuns at 2.30 Saturday afternoon in Morrow Park to start their provincial intermediate "B" playdown series. Home and home games, and it might turn out that this is an Ontario semi-final series. Quarter-finals at least, depending on how many teams are left in the running. Cobourg tackles Dundas in the intermediate "A" playdowns. Parkdale Lions lost out by but two points after a hot and even season with Dundas, so the Orfuns' opponents here Saturday must be tough. The game should draw a big crowd.

There's another football fray on Saturday, a 2.30 touch at the Oval. It's a scheduled scrap in the Catholic Conference between St. Mike's and St. Peter's senior "B" squads. A win for the Allore outfit would tie 'em for top spot, but the Irish are definitely not pushovers. It'll be an interesting duel. St. Peter's junior "B" bunch playoff with Cobourg in Port Hope today, while the PCI-ers are off to Oshawa this week-end to clean that business up. As we said before, if our ball clubs—baseballic and softballic variety—could take the Motor Citizens as regularly as our footballers do, we could really smirk in an Oshawa direction.

Markham And Petes

Markham Millionaires have an exhibition senior "B" puck tussle with the Petes at 8.30 tomorrow eve in Civic Arena—and that's why the ORFU game was set for Saturday at the Ex., instead of Friday evening. Drake Jopling is busy whittling his squad into shape and working in a number of newcomers to the lineup this season. Markham, it may be recalled, gave Legion a terrific battle in playdown last spring ere bowing out, and 'tis said they'll be stronger this winter. It adds up to a tasty hockey dish the week before the OHA senior "B" schedule opens in these parts.

Speaking of that schedule, Frank Buckland of the OHA had a tough time drafting it to suit everyone. For instance here the OHA rink nights are Monday, Wednesday and Friday, with the two senior "B" clubs and the Oddfellows rotating on the nights, so that each gets a fair shake. Belleville seniors and juniors play on alternate Friday nights. Something similar in Kingston where Nylons and Queen's are in senior "B" and there's also a junior entry. And Gananoque hasn't ice available for some time yet. So, it's pretty hard suiting everyone in a hefty 90-game schedule running from late October until the end of February, six clubs operating. No playoff arrangements made as yet.

Junior "B" List Out

The 60-game OHA junior "B" schedule for Group No. 2 is in tonight, as compiled by Messrs. Frank Buckland and Lorne Cook of the OHA in this district. It opens on Nov. 13 with Port Hope at Lindsay, and Belleville at the Peterborough IOOF-ers. Oshawa sees action on Nov. 18 with Bun Kingdon's crew there. The season runs through till around the middle of February, top four teams being in playoffs. First and third meet and second and fourth in best-of-five semi-finals, the finals being four out of seven games. The young puckists are getting away to an early start and should enjoy a fine season during the next four or five months.

Getting back to senior "B" play for a moment, the Petes won a 5-4 exhibition match o'er Markham in Oshawa last gloaming. Veteran Honey Tompkins scored two and aided on another for Drake Jopling's gang, Gus Leonard counted one and helped on two more, as Jake Wade and Arn Dugan notched one apiece, and Chum Fryia assisted on one. Chum was with Legion last year—though out quite a spell with an injury—and he has been drilling this fall with the Petes. Goalie Ray Harding looked as solid as ever in goal for the winners. The Markham Millionaires have plenty of hustle, too, and it wasn't a gentle game at all. Lot of high-sticking and slashing penalties, including fighting majors to Davidson and Jarvis.

Petes Triumph Over Markham

The Petes edged Markham Millionaires 5-4 in an exhibition senior "B" puck tussle last night in Oshawa, the same squads meeting here Friday evening. The Millionaires had an edge in the first frame this game and threatened near the finish of the fray, but the Petes got untracked to dominate throughout the second and most of the third heats. Play was fast, rugged at times, and interesting with both sides showing a lot of hustle for so early in the season.

Honey Tompkins scored two goals and aided on another, while Gus Leonard hit the hemp once and assisted on two more. Jake Wade, Arn Dugan and Chum Fryia were each in on one for the Jopling bunch. Clements, Howell, Allen and the two Forgies proved best for the Millionaires, as both goalies looked good. The Petes missed several other fine scoring chances as they drove in the middle chukker. Teams:

Petes, Goal, Harding; defence, E. Leonard, Davidson, centre, Wade; wings, Dugan, Mortimer; alternates, Tompkins, G. Leonard, Fryia, Casey, Jopling, Miller, Legrow, Collins, West, Garvey, Nolan.
